

How Perfectly Human He Looks For a Real Live King!

NOTE the central figure—dark slouch hat, face wearing what the novelists call "a wry smile," chin resting on the knob of a cane. A Spaniard would identify this individual as "Alphonso Tracy." However, Hapsburg, not Tracy, is his family name. "Tracy" is merely the Spanish pronunciation of "trece," meaning "thirteen." In other words, it's Alphonso XIII, king of Spain. He's sitting, just like a common person, with his friends, at a cafe table in Deauville, a French seaside resort, well named Deauville, though it should be spelled "dough," for it is one of the most expensive places in Europe.

NEZ PERCE COUNTY SETS TAX LEVY

County Commissioners Make Reduction of $11,900.

The total state and county tax to be paid by the owners of taxable property in Nez Perce county for the year 1922 is $1.59 on each $100 valuation, this rate being fixed by the board of county commissioners at their meeting, Monday, says the Tribune. In comparison with last year's levy this is a reduction of $11,900 based on a real and personal property valuation in the county of $17,000,000, which reduction goes to show the prudent manner in which the board of commissioners have handled the affairs of Nez Perce county during the last year.

The total state tax this year is 55 cents on each $100 valuation, and that for county purposes $1.04. Last year the state tax was 56 cents and the county tax $1.10.

The statement of levies for county purposes follows:

- Current expense, .325.
- General road, .20.
- Bridge, .02.
- General school, .40.
- Agriculture, .035.
- Bond interest and redemption, .01.
- County farm, .05.

Last year a tax of .013 was charged for the Albion State Normal school, but this year nothing is charged against the taxpayers of the county in favor of that institution. The sheep tax and predatory animal tax is fixed by statute, so the commissioners did not include these items in their list.

The finances of the county, according to figures submitted to the board yesterday, show a very healthy state. On August 5 there was to the credit of the county, in cash, $46,375.

Aside from fixing the tax levy the board devoted its time to business of a general nature, allowing a number of current claims against the county and approving reports. The appointment of Miss Krier by Miss Gilson, as assistant in the superintendent's office was approved by the board. The bond election held by school district No. 60, in the Myrtle section, for $2,000, taking place last April, was approved by the board as necessary for the welfare of the district. A contract was entered into with the Idaho Fuel company for the delivery of 50 tons of coal at $12.10 a ton, and 15 cords of wood at $10 a cord, this firm being the only bidder for the business.

Oldfield, The Jeweler

G. G. Oldfield closed a deal the first of the week for the purchase of the jewelry business which has been conducted during the past year by C. B. Kinzer. Mr. Oldfield will continue the business at the Red Cross Pharmacy, which will be his headquarters. He will be equipped to handle all classes of watch repairing and jewelry work. After leaving Kendrick several years ago he worked in some of the largest jewelry concerns on the coast and secured valuable experience in the watch repairing end of the business. Prior to leaving Kendrick he had a splendid business here as he drew from a large territory in his line. Mr. Kinzer has not made definite plans for the future.

A. W. Jones' Home Burned

The farm home of Mr. and Mrs. A. W. Jones, located on Big Bear ridge, was totally destroyed by fire at about 4:30 last Monday morning. Mr. Jones had made a fire and started to do his chores when he discovered the blaze, which is presumed to have started from a defective flue. The fire gained such headway that little could be saved, except part of the furniture downstairs. The loss is a heavy one as there was insurance only to the amount of about $700, which is but a small part of the value of the house and contents. Most of the family's clothes were burned and the piano, which was moved out of the house, had one end badly scorched.

School Opened Monday

School opened Monday morning under the most favorable auspices. The enrollment is larger than usual, several rooms being crowded. More desks will have to be secured to accommodate them. The high school has an enrollment of about 60, with prospects of a number coming in later from the country. There are 25 high school students attending from outlying districts and they are a fine bunch of young people. Everything indicates the best year in the history of the school. All of the teachers have had successful experience and have already organized their work in fine shape. The Gazette hopes to have an account of the activities of the school each week.

Henry Mielke, who for the past five years has been in the internal revenue service, has been transferred from Denver, Colorado, to Boston, Mass. He has been making splendid progress in his work, having received numerous promotions since entering the service.

LATAH COUNTY NEWS PARAGRAPHS

Clipped From The Columns of Neighboring Papers.

Deary Press: Dr. William Palmer, veterinarian for the Potlatch Lumber Co., passed thru Deary, Sunday, enroute to Bovill with a drove of heavy draft horses which will be used by the Company in the woods this fall and winter. The horses weighed from 1600 to 1900 pounds each and were a fine looking string, numbering 25 head in all.

It is understood that the company has all its reserve of old logs cleaned out of the timber, and that a general speeding up of cutting is now under way. Extra crews are being sent into the camps. Additional scalers were being called for this week. It seems that men are not as plentiful as in days gone by, and every man who applies for a job in the timber finds one waiting for him.

Regardless of the effect of the congressional legislation, the anti-profiteering coal bill, now being considered, Moscow is experiencing higher priced coal, says the Star-Mirror. An advance of a dollar a ton went into effect Friday, say local dealers.

Lump and stove size coal is now retailed at $14.50 a ton and egg size at $14.00 according to quotations made the first of the week. Prior to this raise prices have remained practically the same all summer despite the strikes at the mines and the tie-ups in transportation.

The occasion for the advance in prices is due entirely to the mine operators, say Moscow dealers. Miners' wages are no higher, freight rates are the same and the retailers' profits remain unchanged. It is the opinion that operators have just taken advantage of the scarcity of coal in the retail markets.

The rail strikes interfere with the hauling of coal from the mines to the consumers but there is no real reason why the prices should advance think the dealers. Plenty of coal is being mined and the demand is not such as would warrant the sudden jump.

That prices must drop before long is the general assumption. People are not buying coal at such prices which are well above prices that should obtain in relation to all other commodities. As soon as conditions settle a little a decline is anticipated.

The approval by congress of the measure demanding an elimination of opportunity for the mine owners to profiteer is considered to be absolutely necessary to the placing of coal prices where they belong.

Resume Train Schedule

The morning and evening train service between Lewiston and Spokane was resumed Tuesday. The night passenger train came down Monday evening and the following day both trains were on. This gives Kendrick four passenger trains a day, two each way. The morning train arrives at 9:02. At 1:25 p. m. the two trains meet here and at 3:58 p. m. the train from Spokane arrives.

The morning and evening trains were taken off in July because of the strike which disorganized the labor situation of practically all railway lines.

Runaway on Grade

Earl Langdon had a bad runaway on the Cedar Creek grade Wednesday. He stopped his team on the grade and went back after a sack of wheat that had fallen off the load. The horses started to run and the heavily loaded wagon crowded them off the grade. It is reported that two of the horses were badly injured and the wagon wrecked.

CURRENT EXPENSE LEVY IS 2.9 MILLS

Latah County Commissioners Met Monday.

The 1922-23 county current expense tax levy has been fixed at 2.9 mills, the general school tax at 4.5 mills and the general road fund tax at .5 mills by the board of county commissioners, which met in regular session at 9:00 a. m. Monday morning, says the Star-Mirror. The meeting will continue until all county expense budgets have been examined and the levies fixed.

County tax levies are no higher this year than last in spite of the $6000 needed for the general elections in November because of the reduction made in other budget items, say the commissioners, upon examination of the expense budgets.

The reduction of the assessed valuation of the county to the extent of $1,500,000 has necessitated a small increase in the tax levy. Practically the same amount of money is needed this year as last because of the extra expense in connection with the elections. The additional levy will amount to but a fraction of a mill.

But one item has necessitated a larger revenue to carry on. That is the expense account for the care of county indigents. This item has mounted to more than double that for the previous year.

In practically every other department budget a reduction has been noted with the result that despite the increased tax burden owing to the election and the care of an increase in number of county poor the budget in the aggregate amounts to just about the same as that for the preceding year.

In regard to the general school tax levy, the minimum tax was fixed by the board. The state law requires that $15 be assessed per capita for the school children of the county to help defray the expense of education. The school census of Latah county is 5510. At $15 each the aggregate amounts to $82,650.

The commissioners are allowed to fix any amount above the minimum requirements in the school levy. They decided this year on the minimum which brought the levy up to 4.5 mills on the dollar of taxable property of the county as shown by the last assessment figures.

The commissioners sat in session throughout Monday and were still in session late Tuesday afternoon. Among the remaining business to be transacted are the special taxes for highways and school districts and the levies in the cities and villages of the county.

Monday's session was marked by the arrival of a delegation of farmers of the Genesee high school district to protest the high taxes being levied in the district there. Since the commissioners have not the sole authority in the case, nothing definite was done.

Install Stereotype Machine

The Gazette has installed a stereotype machine in the office for making news cuts and advertising cuts. The pictures on the front page, the cartoon, the comic "Hoozits" and other features were "made in Kendrick" this week, and will, we hope, help add to both the appearance and interest of the paper. They will appear each week hereafter. The cuts are made by casting the hot metal, moulds called "mats" being used to produce the pictures. The mats are lighter than cuts, so can be mailed weekly to the Gazette from the East. Advertisers will also get better service by using the stereotypes that can now be furnished in the local print shop.

About fifty couples attended the harvest dance last Friday evening, given by the American Legion boys.

Young Girl Winner of Aquatic Marathon

MISS LILLIAN STODDARD of New York was winner of the 3-mile marathon swim from Bridesburg to Riverton, which was the feature of the women's swimming meet of the Riverton Yacht Club, near Philadelphia. Experts pronounce her one of the most promising girl swimmers whom this season has brought into prominence.

Hotel Changes Hands

Mr. and Mrs. F. E. Erickson purchased the lease on the Commercial Hotel this week from C. L. Guy and are now in charge of the business. Mrs. Erickson will have charge of the dining room, which will assure the patrons the best of service. The rooms are being put in first class condition for the traveling public. Rooms will also be available at the Hotel Kendrick, which will be strictly a rooming house as there will be no meals served there. Having the two hotels practically under one management will no doubt prove to be a profitable venture.

M. E. Church Notes

The official board held its first meeting of the new year, Monday night. Plans were made for the coming year and among the many things considered was the setting aside of the last Sunday of each quarter as a missionary day. This day will be given over entirely to interesting features of this great, important work. Special music, plays and pageants will be included in the program. Watch for a later announcement.

Something new will be happening every Sunday now, you cannot afford to miss a meeting. Mr. Long, who teaches the bible class, promises us considerable excitement next Sunday and invites you all to get in early to the class.

Preaching services, both morning and evening, Sunday.

We will have an old-fashioned sing around the piano for a half hour before League, beginning at 7 o'clock. This is to be very informal and you will be sure to enjoy it. Prayer service at 7:30 Thursday evening.

Soon Start Street Work

In a telephone conversation with Mayor Walker, Wednesday, Mr. Barr of the firm of Campbell & Barr, said camp was being broken near Spokane this week and the road working crew and machinery would be brought to Kendrick the first of next week and active work started on the streets here. It took longer to finish the road job near Spokane than contemplated, which occasioned a delay in starting the work at this end, but Mr. Barr stated the work would be pushed as fast as possible here, beginning next week. They have rented two houses in the lower end of town, where they will live until the street work is completed.

Mrs. M. E. Perkins, former operator for the local phone company, arrived last Saturday from Pomeroy for a brief visit with friends. She returned to Pomeroy the first of the week, where she has a position with the telephone company.

SPOKANE MERCHANTS HERE NEXT FRIDAY

Special Excursion Train Thru Inland Empire.

The special excursion train bringing members of the Spokane Merchants' Association, will be here next Friday, September 22. A card from the secretary, concerning the excursions, is self-explanatory:

"The Spokane Merchants again greet you. Your city is included in the route to be covered this year by the Eighteenth Annual 'Get Acquainted' excursion of our association. According to present plans, we expect to reach your city about September 22nd, 1922.

"Our bankers, wholesalers and manufacturers are coming in recognition of the splendid spirit of co-operation which your business men have shown toward Spokane. We want to be 'better neighbors' and will be alert for any information that makes it possible to improve the character of the service you receive from us.

It is difficult to exactly time our arrival, but we will try to announce the fact the moment the special train pulls in. Also please bear in mind that all the needs of our party are supplied enroute, making it unnecessary for your merchants to make any extra plans for entertainment. Just be prepared to visit awhile with your friends and neighbors."

"THE MAN OF THE FOREST"

"The Man of the Forest" is truly a picture for the whole family, adults and children alike, for it is as clean and wholesome a picture as ever was made. Full of action and thrills, there runs through it all a sweet and tender love story of the most enchantment. Probably one of the most interesting features of this film, outside of the many examples of superb horsemanship and the beautiful scenic shots, is the acting of a huge grizzly bear, a tawny mountain lion, and a faithful dog, the pets and companions of "The Man of the Forest." They prove themselves to be real friends, and take a big part in helping to settle the difficulties which arise.

Benj. B. Hampton has made this wonderful picture from a wonderful story of the same name by Zane Grey, the most successful and popular author of stories of Western life.
It is really an exceptional picture and will be shown at the New Kendrick Theater, tonight and Saturday,

THE pattern of this sweater is quite a new thing. The stripes are blue against a green and gray background. There's nothing unusual about that. But look at the cute little figures knitted into the design! These figures are copies of drawings by artists of the Manhattan Indian tribe which, before the white men came, inhabited the island where now stands the city of New York.
The sweater was made for a New York girl; hence the Manhattan motif.
A different one can be found to fit almost any city in the United States; there are few places in this country without Indian traditions to draw from, somewhere in the past.

10,000 DOUGHNUTS

THE "doughnut king"—Jacob Sentlinger Jr., of Wheeling, W. Va.—has a bakery that turns out 10,000 doughnuts a day.

How that must amaze grandmothers who remember when the average family rarely tasted a doughnut that wasn't baked in their own kitchen stove.

It is a clear-cut illustration of the modern tendency toward mass production and specialization.

Not many generations ago, nearly every family grew most of its own food, built its own log cabin or frame house put together with wooden pegs instead of nails. The spinning wheel whirred busily before the open fireplace, helping turn out the family clothing. Even medicine was largely a family affair, concocted from wild herbs.

All this is changed. Fuel comes from coal mines hundreds of miles away instead of from a nearby forest. Also come, from far over the horizon, most of the other necessities of life.

The home no longer is a factory. Its productive activities have been largely transferred to factories and mills. The penalty of all this is a breaking up of the home, a scattering of family members to the points of concentrated production.

Specialization is the key-note of modern times. In 99 cases out of 100, success comes as the result of specializing on the production of one commodity or distribution in one particular industry.

The quicker children are made to realize the necessity for specializing, and then becoming experts among the specialists, the sooner they will arrive at financial independence. The secret of success in the twentieth century is selecting one goal and working definitely and unflinchingly toward it.

The figures show that of the bulls kept 27 per cent were purebreds, 33 per cent grades, and 40 per cent scrubs; of the boars kept 26 per cent were purebreds, 30 per cent grades, and 44 per cent scrubs; of the rams 42 per cent were purebreds, 36 per cent grades, and 22 per cent scrubs. Twenty-three per cent of the poultry was of pure breeding, the remainder being mixed stock. With these figures at hand the general livestock association of the county began a purebred-sires campaign, using posters and literature supplied by the United States Department of Agriculture, and holding local meetings at which talks, showing the value of purebred sires, were given.

A variety of methods are being employed to carry on the better-sires campaign which the United States Department of Agriculture has been vigorously promoting in all parts of the country. In Steuben county, Indiana, a livestock survey was taken as the first step in this campaign. Under the leadership of T. A. Parker, the county agent, the county was partially organized by sections and returns were secured from 600 farms, representing one-half of the total number in the area. As the reports were made from farms in all parts of the county, the percentages may be taken as an

GROW BUCKWHEAT ON POORER LAND

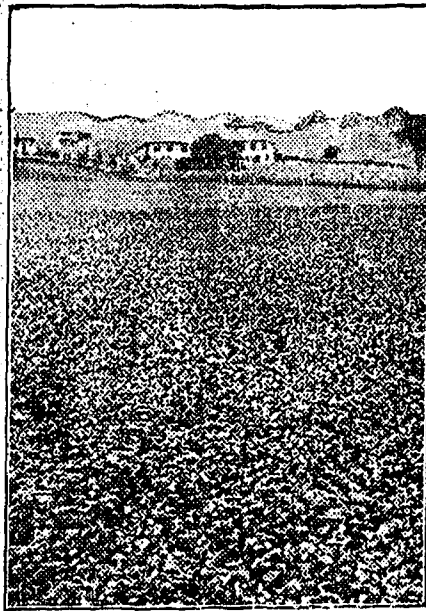

Will Survive and Give Fair Return on Soils Too Thin for Other Crops.

NITROGEN IS BIG ESSENTIAL

Care Must Be Exercised in Applying Material, as Crop Is Subject to Lodging in Seasons of Abundant Rainfall.

Since buckwheat is considered a "poor land" crop, it will survive and often give a fair return on land too poor for corn, oats and clover, many farmers have discovered.

Buckwheat requires considerable nitrogen for its maximum growth. Even though its period of growth comes at the season when the soil is furnishing available nitrogen most rapidly, still on very poor soils a light application of farm manure or a little nitrogenous fertilizer is desirable. Care is necessary in supplying nitrogenous material to buckwheat, however, as the crop is subject to lodging, particularly in seasons of abundant rainfall.

Phosphoric Acid Needed.

Like the true cereals, buckwheat responds to a liberal application of phosphoric acid. This is particularly true in New York, since the soils of the buckwheat section are universally deficient in phosphorus. It also seems to respond to potash. This is to be expected, since the poorest soils have been drained of their available potash. While the total supply of potash is adequate, soils seeded to buckwheat are often those which have not been well treated in the past, and as a result not only has the organic matter been depleted, but at the same time the rate at which the potash becomes available has been much retarded. Lime is not needed, since buckwheat is tolerant of soil acidity.

To Fertilize This Season.

Taking all of these factors into consideration as well as fertilizer costs, the prime essential in the fertilization of buckwheat this season is an application of 200 to 400 pounds to the acre of acid phosphate, the soils workers at the New York State College of Agriculture say. On very thin soils, where manure is not available, in addition to the acid phosphate 50 to 100 pounds of nitrate of soda or sulphate of ammonia, and 25 to 50 pounds of muriate of potash may be used.

CONSERVING HAY IN MANGER

Horse With Chronic Habit of Nosing Out Feed Under His Feet Is Decided Nuisance.

A neighbor once owned a horse with a chronic habit of nosing most of the hay out of the manger and under his feet as soon as it had been thrown down. An animal with this trait is both a nuisance and useless expense. Alfalfa, clover and some other hays are not so easily removed, but wild hay can be easily tossed out.

This farmer resorted to a simple means to stop this annoyance. A green log about four inches in diameter was cut short enough to drop into the manger without touching either of the feed boxes.

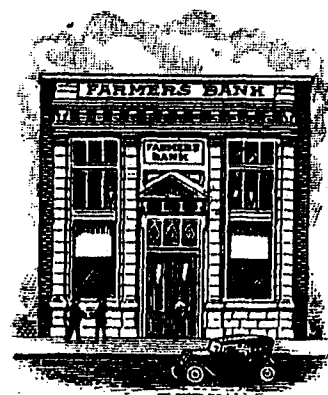

This was supported, when outside, by two ropes, each tied through the halter-ropes holes and around one end of the log. After the manger has been filled the log is thrown into it, onto the hay. There is plenty of room for the horse to eat, yet there is no possibility of the feed being thrown out. The device cured the animal mentioned of his bad habit in about four weeks.

GIVE ALFALFA GOOD CHANCE

Crowns of Plant Are Likely to Be Injured if Hog or Other Stock Is Turned in Too Soon.

After the alfalfa crop has been cut for hay, hogs or other stock should not be turned in too soon. The crowns of the plant are likely to be injured if the stock is given a chance to eat the young tender shoots too closely. Often this close feeding permanently injures, or even kills, the plants. Let it have a good start if you intend pasturing. It is better practice, however, to provide other crops or pasturage and use the alfalfa for hay.

DIP ALL CATTLE REGULARLY

Quickest and Most Effective Way of Getting Rid of Ticks is Systematic Treatment.

(Prepared by the United States Department of Agriculture.)

"How long do we have to dip?" Judging from numerous reports received by the United States Department of Agriculture the question of length of dipping interests the majority of live stock owners in areas quarantined because of cattle ticks. The department's answer is "one or several years, depending on how you dip." Naturally cattle owners wish to complete tick eradication in the shortest possible time and at least cost and inconvenience.

The experience of the department in eradicating ticks from half a million square miles shows conclusively that regular systematic dipping of all cattle every 14 days is the quickest means.

Damage Done by Ticks on Young Heifer.

Failure of even a few cattle owners to dip all their cattle may undo the efforts of their neighbors who bring all the cattle to the vats on schedule. The bureau of animal industry, United States Department of Agriculture, will supply on request full information for completing tick eradication in the shortest time—one season when directions are faithfully followed.

The Continental Oil Company is making good progress installing the big oil tanks on its property here. The tanks will rest on big concrete bases and the gasoline and kerosene will be piped from the cars on the sidetrack to the tanks in the company's yard. A warehouse for storing oils and greases will be built and it is thought the company will be ready to serve its patrons in less than a month.

Mr. and Mrs. Frank McLaughlin of American ridge went to Lewiston the first of the week to attend the fair.

W. F. McGhee and son, Clyde, of Summit, Idaho, were transacting business in Kendrick, Wednesday.

W. A. Perryman, local confectioner, returned Thursday morning from Lewiston where he took in the fair.

Mr. and Mrs. August F. Wegner and family of Cameron and Mr. Wegner's father drove to Clarkston and Asotin, Thursday, to visit relatives.

Sam Stanton and son, Carl, drove to Lewiston in their Ford, Thursday, to attend the fair.

Walter Thomas on his recent trip to the coast, stopped at many of the important towns along the way and talked to merchants concerning business conditions generally. He feels satisfied that the Potlatch country lines up with the best of them, but is more firmly convinced than ever that what we need here more than all other things put together is good roads.

The state and county tax levy for Latah county was fixed at 13.8 mills by the board of county commissioners in session this week at Moscow. This is an increase of one mill over last year, due to the reduction in assessed valuation of property in the county.

George Ziemann of Southwick was a Lewiston visitor the first of the week.

A fire started in the Earnest Bolton house last Tuesday, but was under control before very much damage had been done.

W. M. McCrea and son, Donald, were in Lewiston, Wednesday, on business.

Gabe Forest said that the beans on Big Bear ridge were turning out well. He has been with a threshing rig and the lowest yields so far are over 4 sacks to the acre. Three farmers got over 5 sacks.

urday afternoon to get ready for registering at the University the following Monday.

Mrs. Charles McKeever went to Clarkston, Thursday afternoon, to visit at the home of her son, Harry.

Two pilgrims of the dusty road were discussing the alleged corrupt practices of modern politicians. "Bill," said one, "you don't hanker after a gov'ment job do you?" "I don't mind sayin' I'd take one if I could get it," retorted the other, "but I ain't after no job that's all fat. I'm willin' to earn my wages." "What sort of a job would be your idea?" "Well, I'd like to fill fountain pens for some assistant secretary of the treasury."

Mr. and Mrs. C. L. Guy and son, Dan, drove to Grangeville, Wednesday, where Mr. and Mrs. Guy will make their home. Dan has a position with Armour & Co. of Spokane.

Lewis Otnis, insurance man of Moscow, was transacting business in Kendrick this week. He says he is cutting down his overhead in conformance with all other lines of business, by smoking not quite so many cigars each day.

"Don't you want to buy a bicycle to ride around your farm?" asked the hardware clerk as he wrapped up the nails. "They're cheap now. I can sell you a first class one for $35." "I'd rather put $35 in a cow," replied the farmer. "But think," persisted the clerk, "how foolish you would look riding around on a cow." "O, I don't know," said the farmer stroking his chin, "no more foolish, I guess, than I would milking a bicycle."

The following paragraph from the "Salome Sun" might throw a little light upon the reason why some of the roads and grades in the Potlatch are located where they are:

"Sixty years ago the Indians chased an old prospector from the Colorado river to Phoenix and he took the shortest and best route—because he was in a hurry. The tourists are still following his trail and using some of his old tracks for chuck holes—where he beat the world's record for broad jumping. He had a hell of a time, and so do some of the tourists, but don't blame the old prospector. He knew the Indians were following him, but he never expected you to."

"I wish I was as religious as Abie." "And why?" "He clasps his hands so tight in prayer he can't get them open ven der collection box comes around."—Ex.

Life Lines

BY H.M.C.

IT'S true the great Creator made expressions by the score; expressions that are registered each day. The human being faces are the places they are for; they're changeable and no one comes to stay. For instance, when there's sadness, sorrow eyes will indicate, and the same eyes also tell you when there's cheer. Just an inkle of a twinkle seems to very frankly state that the heart is full of gladness; shy of fear. Spreading smiles are quite a tonic, for they cheer the whole wide world, and it seems a pleasing smile is catching, too. Reddish lips are so appealing when you find them upward curled—when you smile, the world is bound to smile with you. Frowns? Well, they are not so pleasant. Life's too short to be a frown. People oft avoid the surly sort of man. Stand up straight and look your finest; that's much better than to slouch. If you'll only try to do it, why you can!
