

LATAH COUNTY BOYS AND GIRLS CLUBS

Latah County boys' and girls' clubs were well represented and the members made good showings at the Lewiston-Clarkston Tri-State Fair held at Lewiston last week. O. S. Nora Gustafson of Moscow, adjudged county garden club champion by Prof. C. C. Vincent of the University of Idaho, attended the club encampment and had charge of the club exhibit.

Sewing Club
Three Genesee girls, Thelma Woodward, Inez Mayer and Frances Smylie, represented the girls sewing club of Genesee in a sewing demonstration and exhibited garment made by the club during the past season. The girls were awarded $15.00 for putting on their excellent demonstration, besides winning prizes on articles shown. The Genesee sewing club was organized by Miss Esther Martinson, teacher of Home Economics in the Genesee schools, and was led by her last spring and this fall. During the summer the club was under the leadership of Miss Gertrude Sampson, of Genesee.

The Latah County boys and girls lived in the club camp established on the grounds. They thoroughly enjoyed themselves while doing their parts in showing their animals, produce, and handicraft, and while giving their demonstrations of what boys and girls can do when organized and given a chance.

Mrs. Paul Lind and baby of Lenore, arrived the first of the week for a visit with Mrs. Lind's parents, Mr. and Mrs. M. O. Raby.

Rev. E. Buchanan

Rev. E. Buchanan of Juliaetta died suddenly at his home Thursday evening of last week at about 9 o'clock of heart failure. He had been as well as usual all day, having finished digging potatoes, and his death came as a shock to his family and friends.

Mr. Buchanan was born in North Carolina in 1884. He was a Civil War veteran, having enlisted in the Confederate army at the age of 18 years, where he served three years.

Soon after returning from the war he joined the Baptist church of which he was and active member during the remainder of his life. Early in his Christian life he was ordained as a minister of the Baptist faith, and for many years served as an active pastor, where he was highly respected and loved by his congregation as well as by all who knew him.

He leaves a wife and six children and a host of friends to miss his presence for years to come. The children are R. E. Buchanan of Portland, Oregon; T. J. Buchanan, Klamath Falls, Oregon; Mrs. Charles Beaver, Asheville, N. C.; Mrs. E. P. Dolan, Spirit Lake, Idaho; Mrs. D. Glenn, Moscow, and W. Buchanan, Juliaetta. "Grandfather" Buchanan had been a member of the Masonic order for many years and until within the past few years he was a member of the Odd Fellows.

Funeral services were held in the Christian church Sunday morning. Rev. John Carlton officiating. Burial was made in the Moscow cemetery, the Kendrick Masonic lodge having charge of the ceremony, at which M. O. Raby Senior Warden of the lodge, officiated in a most impressive manner. A large body of friends and fellow lodge members attended both the church and lodge service a number of Masons from Moscow lodge being present at the lodge service at the cemetery.

Can't Call Any Country Home

THERE have been stories of men without a country before, but never of women without one. That, however, is what the Duchess of Croix is. She is from Pittsburgh but lost her American citizenship when she married the Duke of Croix. Now the French courts have denied her citizenship in her husband's country too. The same ruling rejected her claim to an interest in any part of the duke's estates.

Secretary Wallace Entertains Red-Headed Triplets

HERE'S Secretary of Agriculture Wallace entertaining the Hyde girls of Charles county, Md. The Misses Hyde not only are sisters, but triplets, as well. It was because all three have very red hair that they called on the cabinet member. Wallace has red hair, too. It is the color he is said to like best. The girls are competitors for a trip to the Eastern States Fair in Massachusetts. That's why they were in Washington. They are Lucille, Rebecca and Julia.

Do the People Rule?

Reduction of tax revenue of the state of Utah by reason of the fact that property owners allowed their property to be sold, rather than pay their 1921 taxes, amounted to $329,759.40 according to a tabulation prepared in the office of Mark Tuttle, state auditor.

In Montana a leading state paper says, "The graduated income tax, which is one of the schemes proposed for adding to the burden of taxation in this state (Montana), is also up for disposal of the voters in Oregon. Already the proposed measure together with other laws penalizing capital in Oregon has driven outsiders away and if the income tax carries, Oregon will be set back another ten or twenty years. Yet here in Montana we are starting in to go the same disastrous route."

John S. Chambers, former controller of the state of California says "The principal cause of the tremendous increase in the cost of the state government is due to the assumption of new functions known under the names of commissions. These new functions, in the main, are worthy ones, but in addition to new agencies having been created to administer them instead of assigning them to related existing units of government with resultant overhead and other additional costs, they have been assumed too rapidly; that is to say, without due regard to revenue and so it has been necessary to greatly increase the tax burden."

Estimating five to a family, Henry Ford's Weekly figures that about 15,000,000 people are supported from public taxes. Reliable statistics show us that there are about 2,900,000 persons on the public payroll—city, state, and nation.

The Idaho Falls Times-Register says, "The per capita tax in Idaho for all purposes is $49.25, including school, state, city, county and highway." The tax for state purposes alone is $7.12 per capita.

The people of Nevada pay the highest state per capita tax—$18.47 for state purposes only, not including city, county, school, and highway tax.

The Taxpayers' Association of New Mexico shows a present total of $4,590,000 in uncollected taxes ranging from $118,000 in 1912 to $550,000 for 1919, $1,280,000 for 1920 and $1,000,000 for the first half of 1921.

Commenting on the proposed state income tax in Oregon which the people will vote on in November the Medford, Oregon, Record Herald says, "Of course, there would be no reduction in other taxes because of any additional funds collected by the proposed state income tax. The army of tax eaters would be given positions at the public Pie Counter, and more so-called tax commissions would be created.

Conditions have reached a point in the state of Washington where a direct cut in the cost of government of 25 per cent is necessary if business in that state is not to be discouraged.

The Girls' Sewing Club and a large number of friends were delightfully entertained at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Halvor Lien, Sunday afternoon and evening. A delicious supper was served and the evening was devoted to music, singing and a social good time in general.

In the state of Colorado, a Committee of One Hundred is working to figure out ways and means to reduce the tax load which industry and the common citizen must bear.

In the face of such conditions our present laws permitting the constant issuance of tax exempt public bonds go unamended and hundreds of millions of dollars of this class of securities are being constantly issued and the holders of this paper escape all taxation, thus doubling the load on the remaining taxpayers.

To cap the climax of governmental extravagance in issuing tax exempt bonds, professional politicians in the state of California have placed on the ballot for the next election in November a measure authorizing the state to issue $500,000,000 of bonds for the purpose of building state owned water and power projects. At one crack it is estimated this would increase the state debt of California seven times.

The demand for reduced taxation is general in western states. Results rest largely with the people in coming elections.

A government clerk got a raise in his salary some months ago. He rushed to the telegraph office when his days work was over and dispatched a message to the girl of his choice in his home town, apprising her of his new good fortune and asking her to become his life partner, a step he had long contemplated, but which his former limited salary had deterred him from taking. He prepaid the reply at the minimum fee, and her answer, therefore, had to be limited to 10 words. The young fellows suspense of waiting was intense but in a few minutes: "Yes, gladly, willingly, joyfully, delightedly, gratefully, lovingly, yes, yes, yes."

Southwick Phone Meeting

A meeting was called at Southwick Wednesday night for the purpose of discussing and cussing the telephone situation that exists between Southwick and Kendrick. A number of Kendrick business men went up to assist in doing justice to the occasion. It seems that the commercial line between the two towns, which is not owned by any one in particular, has been in need of repair. The local phone company which has been giving free service on this line, cut it off from their switchboard recently, thus severing phone service between the two towns. Herman Schupfer, representing the local company, stated at the meeting that the line would be connected up again as soon as it was put in shape for service.

Several years ago Kendrick business men furnished the money and people of Southwick community the labor to build this commercial line. The local phone company agreed to connect the line to their switchboard, at least temporarily. The arrangement has never been altogether satisfactory, as it was not reasonable to expect efficient service under this plan. It was agreed Wednesday night by both Southwick and Kendrick representatives that the matter should be referred to the public utilities commission, but in the meanwhile the line would be repaired and again connected to the local switchboard until a decision might be received from the utilities commission. This arrangement apparently met with general satisfaction.

Restocking Store

E. E. Bechtol, proprietor of the Kendrick Furniture store, is restocking after his recent big sale. He expects to put in a larger and better stock than ever, a large part of the new stock already having been ordered. His sale, put on by the Gregson Sales Co., drew a large crowd to Kendrick Monday. Most of the furniture in stock was sold at auction so that when Mr. Bechtol again fills his store it will be with new goods in every department.

Enjoyable Affair

There was a large attendance at the reception for the local teachers at the Methodist church last Monday evening. A very enjoyable program, consisting of short talks, readings and musical numbers, was rendered. After spending a social hour in the basement room of the church dainty refreshments of ice cream and cake were served.

Forever Barred From Game

PHIL DOUGLAS, here shown, was one of the country's foremost baseball pitchers, so far as skill was concerned, until Manager McGraw of the Glants summarily "fired" him, charging that he wrote a letter to another ball player offering to quit his job, if it were made financially worth his while. In the belief that his team would thereby lose all chance of winning the pennant for 1922. President Heydler of the National League and Commissioner Landis promptly approved McGraw's action and barred Douglas forever from the game. Sports authorities throughout the country are a unit in declaring that this vigorous action was an excellent thing for baseball.

Troy News: A deal was completed the latter part of last week whereby Geo. Smith becomes the owner of the business formerly conducted by the Olson Implement Co. In the transaction, Mr. Smith purchased the stock of implements and buildings.

Mr. Smith is not new at the game having been in this line of business in Troy until about eight years ago when he sold out to Olson & Johnson, the business being carried on in the building now occupied by Myklebust Bros. until about four years ago when they moved to the present quarters.

The new owner has already taken possession and will be glad to meet all old customers and many new ones.

Just as soon as the dynamite arrives to be used in blasting at the Rapid River Mining and Milling company's mine in the Seven Devils country, Dick Scharnhorst and John G. Meyer, and perhaps one or two others, will leave for the mine with a truck load of powder and material, Dick to look after the interests of the company and John G. as pilot of the big International truck which will haul the stuff. An air compressor drill has lately been installed at the mine and work will begin in earnest in a short time.

The mine is owned by local people and former residents of Genesee and all are very sanguine as to the outcome and quality of product of the mine—Genesee News.

THE INNOCENT BYSTANDER

News print and other paper prices "went up" this week. Other commodities are on the road upward. Just as markets were returning to pre-war conditions and things began to look bright again along comes the shop crafts strike, and the producers who have articles the people must have find good excuse in the strike to advance prices. There will be some more "predatory wealth" made as a result of the strike conditions, more "war fortunes," for nothing from a new tariff law to a strike of the setting hens on Mars escapes those who make the public's extremity cause for a raise in prices.

While the tariff will "protect" the sheep producer, the amount of the tariff will be taken not from the woolen manufacturer but filched from the pockets of the wearer of clothing. Not only will he pay the tariff tax but the clothing manufacturer will add an extra profit as he charges in the tariff cost.

Not only will manufacturers put up the prices of commodities as a result of the strike conditions but they will add an extra cost for their trouble.

Innocent bystander sometimes thinks he is not interested in strikes. He is not interested in "big things," because he feels that they are too big for him to tackle. But innocent bystander is always there when the profits are being made up by the other fellow. He is always there to pay for strikes. He not only pays for strikes but an added profit to all the producing fraternity down the line who make of the strike sufficient cause for boosting prices beyond where the natural results from the partial freight embargo may entitle them to go.—Pend d'Oreille Review.

The Crowning Grace

By Dr. J. C. Bump

Christian love, the crowning grace;
Nothing else can take its place;
It warms the heart to others needs;
The naked clothes, the hungry feeds;
It takes a note of other's woes;
And kindly deeds to others shows;
For none of self are in its plans;
But sows good seed in other lands;
It lends an ear to sorrow's cry;
And to its arms, the mourners fly;
Its eyes look not on others sin;
But turns about and looks within:
Lord fill our hearts with christian love
That came with Jesus from above;
And may our lives its virtues show;
This crowning grace, may others know.

WHAT LIES AHEAD

ONE of the great American institutions that is gradually dying out is the Pioneers' Picnic. It is dying out because the early settlers are being called into eternity to join their fathers. Annual gatherings of pioneers still are held in most sections of the country, but year by year the original conquerors of the wilderness are vanishing.

We read of one of these gatherings, in a far-off community, where an aged man commented: "We come in autos where we first came in prairie schooners or afoot leading our cattle. If we want to send word back home, we use a telephone. An airplane circles overhead, and music is furnished by radio. All four of these inventions were undreamed of when I was a lad. In fact, they would have been considered works of the Evil One. An enormous change has taken place in 80 years. I wonder what it will be like 80 years from now."

Many of us, also, wonder. Long ago, one century was pretty much like the one before. But in modern times progress and change come with lightning speed. The marvel becomes commonplace overnight. We no sooner understand the new than we find that it has become the old.

The ultimate goal of civilization in America is beyond the imagination of any living man. Invention, however, inevitably is certain to change conditions of life, as the years roll on, to such an extent that if we could come back in the year 2000 we would think we were dreaming.

The present is magical, but it is only the door to a far more wonderful future.

New Inter-Continental Record • Sought by These Flyers

THESE two flyers are Dr. E. Pintos Martens (left), Brazilian explorer and scientist, and Lieutenant Walter Hinton (right), who navigated the first American plane across the Atlantic. With a crew of three assistants, Martens and Hinton set out with the Philadelphia-made seaplane Sampaio Correia from New York for Rio de Janeiro. The distance is 8500 miles. Dr. Martens counts on flying craft to bring the Americas much closer together than ever they have been before.

CARE ESSENTIAL FOR YOUNG CALF

Young Animals Should Be Fed Separately in Stanchions, Never Together in Trough.

BREEDING OF BIG IMPORTANCE

Breeder Should Be Careful to Give Them Same Amount of Milk at Same Temperature From Clean Buckets Every Day.

The first important factor in raising good healthy calves is breeding, and the second is the care they receive before maturity.

The proper feeding of the calf begins before it is born. Cows in a poor condition give birth to weak calves that are difficult to raise. A cow should be "dried off" at least six weeks before calving. When about to "freshen" she should be given a clean stall to avoid danger of infection. If there has been any white scours on the place

the navel should be disinfected with tincture of iodine immediately after birth.

Give Calf First Milk.

The calf must have the first milk or colostrum, but may be taken from its mother on the second or third day.

In case the cow should die in calving or develop disease, like garget or milk fever, whole milk from another cow should be substituted, and the calf given two or three tablespoonfuls of castor oil.

Whole milk should be fed until the calf is two or three weeks old. Skim milk may be gradually substituted. It is of the utmost importance that calves be fed the same amount of milk, at the same temperature, from clean buckets, at the same time each day. Never feed enough milk to quite satisfy hunger. Sterilize the milk buckets, which are used for feeding the calves, each day, the same as the milk cans.

Don't Feed Together.

You can't raise healthy calves by feeding several of them, of different sizes, in a trough. It is economy to feed calves in stanchions, asserts Geo. H. Glover of the Colorado Agricultural college. They will spill less milk and cannot suck each other's ears, which is detrimental. The fat that has been removed in skimming may in a measure be substituted by adding a handful of linseed or cornmeal to each pail of milk. Calves will begin to eat hay and grain at an early age, especially if they are in the same pen with older calves. The main thing in raising calves is cleanliness, regularity, and freedom from overfeeding.

Every season there is much waste of grain caused by poor shocking. The man driving the binder can help the shocker by making timely adjustments, so that all the bundles are of proper size and shape and the band placed in the proper position on the bundle.

NEW GRADES FOR POTATOES

Revision Provides for Elimination of All Those Misshapen and With Hollow Heart.

Revised grades for white potatoes, prepared by the United States Department of Agriculture, provide for the elimination from No. 1 grade of misshapen potatoes and potatoes affected by hollow heart, and the addition of a grade known as No. 1 small.

SWEET CLOVER GOOD SILAGE

Growing of This Kind of Hay Provides Valuable Forage for Both Steers and Cows.

Sweet clover, as you know, spoils easily, and is probably one of the hay crops most difficult to put up in good condition during rainy seasons. Yet the growing of this kind of hay not only provides valuable forage for both steers and milk cows, but also enriches the soil wonderfully.

HANDLING OF GUMBO SOILS

Effective Methods Being Developed by Farmers on Milk River Reclamation Project.

More effective methods of handling gumbo soils are being developed by some of the farmers on the Milk River reclamation project in Montana, says the United States Department of Agriculture. One conclusion is that in irrigating this kind of soil the water should be applied frequently and in small quantities. Much trouble in getting crops started may be overcome by adopting a regular habit of fall plowing. The seeding of such soils to either yellow or white sweet clover in some cases is proving a means of supplying humus and for getting grain or alfalfa started later.

WORK OF EXTENSION AGENTS

Detailed Summary of Demonstrations in Home Management and Arrangement Is Given.

Extension agents working with farm women in 1921 gave 11,000 demonstrations in home management and arrangement. Results from these demonstrations reported to the United States Department of Agriculture included 12,500 homes built or remodelled, according to demonstration suggestions, 7,000 kitchens rearranged, 65,000 homes screened, and 5,000 water systems, 4,000 septic tanks, and 7,000 lighting systems installed.

HOW TO RENEW STRAWBERRY

Leave Only Enough Old Plants to Start Runners—Patch Should Be Mowed and Raked.

The time to renew the strawberries for next year's crop is immediately after this year's crop is harvested. Only enough old plants should be left in the rows to start the runners. The best berries are produced on the new growth. Before the plants are thinned the whole patch should be mowed, then thoroughly raked and all the old leaves burned. This will destroy a great many insects that had intended to winter over on the plants. It will also get rid of numerous diseases that might be carried on the old plants. If the whole patch is burned over it should be done on a very windy day, else the crown of the plants will be injured past recovery.

CONTROL OF TUBERCULOSIS

Whole Areas Should Be Cleaned Up Rather Than Scattered Herds to Be of Permanence.

Tuberculosis in cattle cannot be kept under control, much less eradicated, if grade animals and single cows owned by families are omitted in the clean-up of any territory. Whole areas, therefore, like townships and counties, should be cleaned up rather than scattered herds, if the work is to be of permanent value and handled in the most economical way, says the United States Department of Agriculture.

Archie May had the misfortune of losing a fine horse for which he had recently paid two hundred and seventy-five dollars.

Mrs. Virgil Flesman and children spent the day Wednesday, at the McVicker home.

The Ladies' missionary society is having the parsonage improved by building on a back porch and screening it.

Paul Seeley left Monday for Seattle where he goes to resume his work in the University. Paul made many friends while here among both old and young, by his kindly disposition to everyone, and we were sorry to have him go from us but glad he has the ambition to climb.

Lloyd Kuykendall purchased two milk cows at the sale Tuesday.

Mrs. R. B. Parks has been quite poorly for some time. She went to a Moscow hospital Wednesday to take treatment for a few days, the doctors have pronounced her case appendicitis and it is feared she will have to have an operation before she gets permanent relief.

Miss Helen Eichner is helping Mrs. Harrison Daugherty with her work this week.

A. H. Smith has his bungalow almost completed and will soon move into it.

Dr. Seeley started to accompany Paul as far as Moscow, when he left for Seattle, and when near Troy his car broke down. He hired a man to bring him home and for a few days is taking horse back riding.

Rev. McKee, the conference Sunday school secretary, preached here Sunday at 11 a. m. and also gave a talk at 2:30 p. m. along Sunday school lines. A basket lunch was served at noon on the parsonage lawn consisting of everything good to eat. After the afternoon service, Rev. McKee left for Juliaetta, where he preached in the evening.

Rev. and Mrs. Hall and son, Claude, attended service in Juliaetta, Sunday evening. They and Rev. McKee were entertained at lunch Sunday evening by Rev. and Mrs. Adkins.

Prof. and Mrs. Mushletz spent the week end on American ridge with the former's parents.

SCHOOL NOTES

School opened September 4th with a good enrollment.

The primary department reports an enrollment of 27, with 9 in the beginners class. The intermediate room has 20 and the high school 19.

Irene, Charles and Karl Davis, Claude Hall, Margaret and Gerald Schmidt attended the Lewiston fair, Friday.

All grades have made a good start and are working hard to get over their vacation "rust."

The high school promises to be better than ever this year. With a good enrollment and some new equipment they hope to make the school bigger and better.

We wish to express our thanks for the nice new supplementary readers which have been furnished by the district.

75 books, suited to the use of the intermediate and primary grades, have been removed from the library to the primary room where they are more accessible to the pupils.

The high school boys have made an out-door basket ball court where they are having much fun in practice.

Life Lines BY H.M.C.

THERE used to be twelve tumblers sitting on our oak buffet; real fancy glasses, too, and up to date. But something must have happened for, on looking there today, you'll find that there are really only eight.

Then peck within our cabinet where the Dresden china's kept. What's there, of course, is piled up very neat. But missing pieces indicate it's been in careless hands, and hence the set is very incomplete.

Now gaze into the pan-shelf where the tinware's tucked away. Most everything we've bought is still on hand, but, my, oh, my, the dents and such would make a person say that tots had used the pieces in their hand.

All told, you'll find our dishes in a very banged-up state. The reason lies in who has been involved. A tiny, 4-year youngster has been wiping them of late. Enough is said; The mystery is solved.

"Perjury"

William Farnum, who created the role of Robert Moore in "Perjury," the William Fox special super-feature at the New Kendrick Theatre, began his theatrical career at the age of 11 years with Edwin Booth and Lawrence Barrett. He had what were called "thinking parts," a somewhat derisive stage term, as differentiated from "speaking parts." Young Farnum, however, made them real thinking parts. He was thinking he must attain to dramatic ability and power of emotional expression such as these stars of the stage revealed. That was the boy's ambition and it never flagged through the years that followed—raising the young actor high among the stars of the speaking stage, and then to his present pinnacle of achievement on the screen.

During the special run of "Perjury" at a prominent Broadway, New York, theatre, William Farnum was declared to have surpassed all his former portrayals on the screen.

Life Lines

BY H.M.C.

THERE used to be twelve tumblers sitting on our oak buffet; real fancy glasses, too, and up to date. But something must have happened for, on looking there today, you'll find that there are really only eight.

Then peck within our cabinet where the Dresden china's kept. What's there, of course, is piled up very neat. But missing pieces indicate it's been in careless hands, and hence the set is very incomplete.

Now gaze into the pan-shelf where the tinware's tucked away. Most everything we've bought is still on hand, but, my, oh, my, the dents and such would make a person say that tots had used the pieces in their hand.

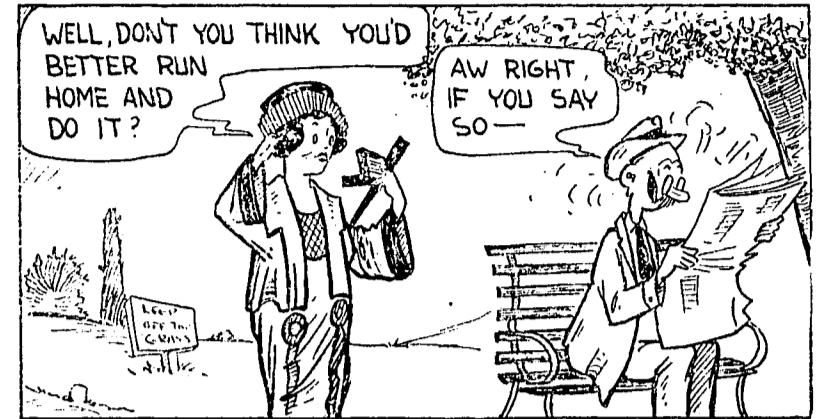

All told, you'll find our dishes in a very banged-up state. The reason lies in who has been involved. A tiny, 4-year youngster has been wiping them of lute. Enough is said! The mystery is solved.

"Perjury"

William Farnum, who created the role of Robert Moore in "Perjury," the William Fox special super-feature at the New Kendrick Theatre, began his theatrical career at the age of 11 years with Edwin Booth and Lawrence Barrett. He had what were called "thinking parts," a somewhat derisive stage term, as differentiated from "speaking parts." Young Farnum, however, made them real thinking parts. He was thinking he must attain to dramatic ability and power of emotional expression such as these stars of the stage revealed. That was the boy's ambition and it never flagged through the years that followed—raising the young actor high among the stars of the speaking stage, and then to his present pinnacle of achievement on the screen. During the special run of "Perjury" at a prominent Broadway, New York, theatre, William Farnum was declared to have surpassed all his former portrayals on the screen.
