Providing improved electric service for the Inland Empire construction work is now under way at several points along the system of the Washington Water Power company in connection with its $2,000,000 program of power line extensions planned for this year, according to V. A. Beckman, local agent.

"Poles have already been installed on 13 miles of the new 26 mile, 110,000 volt Taunton-Nepel line," said Mr. Beckman. "This line will give the Big Bend country the same two-way service enjoyed by Palouse."

"This aggressive development is the result of private initiative operating under proper regulation and indicates the efficiency obtained where service and not politics is the governing factor."—Genesee News.

The high school board will, within a few days, have estimates on the cost of both a brick and wooden building under plans on file, and when these estimates arrive they will be submitted to the taxpayers for consideration. The estimates will be secured from reputable architects. The idea is to come at percentage of difference not only in initial cost of the two classes of buildings, but also matters of depreciation, repairs etc., over a period of years.—Deary Press.

Use of the square mile of forest land on Moscow mountain, which was recently acquired by the school of forestry of the university as a research laboratory, for studies in forest plantation, western yellow pine, grazing and forest measurements, has been announced by C. W. Watson, instructor in forestry and grazing, who is in charge of the forest laboratory.

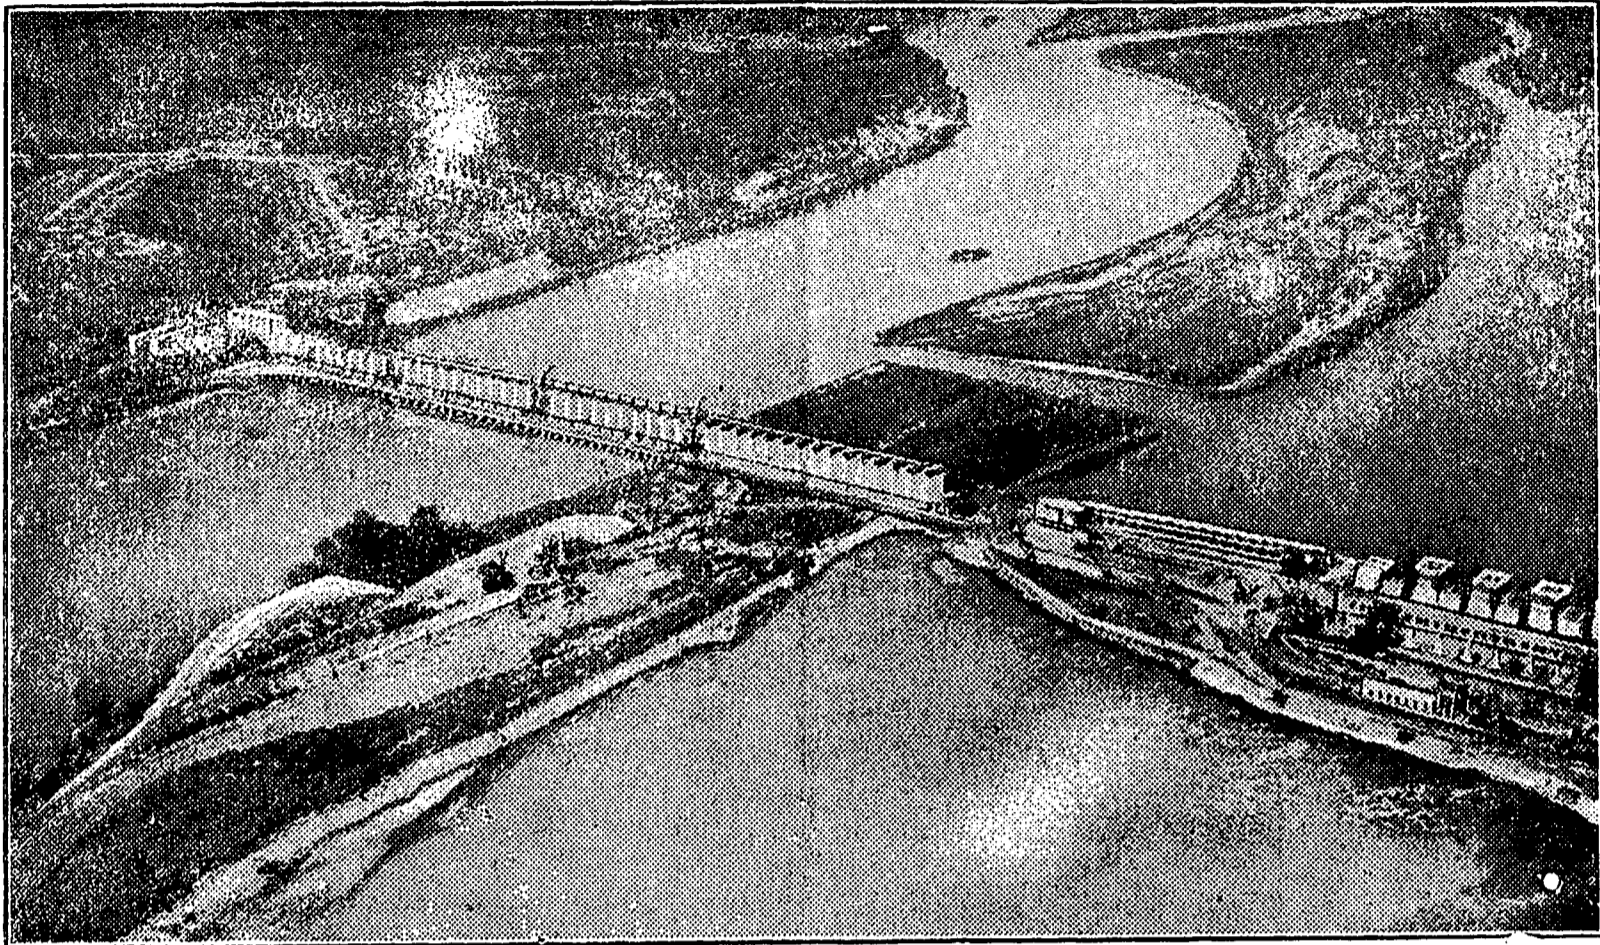

Experimental plantations of scotch pine, yellow pine, douglas fir and white pine have already been made and plantations of many other species are being planned. In all of these experiments the young trees are grown at the university and are entirely handled by the forestry faculty and students.—Star-Mirror.

Did someone steal $2,000 in currency from the Theodore Graham house, just southeast of town and then set fire to the house in order to cover up the theft, or did the fire which destroyed the house Monday evening start from a defective flue? This is the question which Mr. Graham, aged Moscow brick maker, is pondering today. Of one thing he is certain, however, and that is that in addition to losing his home, he lost the savings of several years, represented in the currency which he had hid in his house.

Fire was discovered about eight o'clock Monday evening by neighbors, who telephoned Carl Smith, chief of the Moscow fire department. While the building was well outside the city limits, and beyond the reach of fire hydrants, the fire department hurried out with a chemical truck and other equipment, but was too late to do anything toward saving the building.—Star-Mirror.

Received Prize of Silverware

The Kendrick Hardware received a prize last week of a set of 26 pieces of Community silverware from the International Harvester Co. for having sold the highest number of cream separators in a given length of time. The contest included dealers all over the Inland Empire. The large number of separators sold speaks well for the local firm and also for the prospects of the dairy business in the Potlatch.

Wilson Dam from the air. This magnificent memorial to our great War President is the largest hydraulic construction in the world. It will furnish from 200,000 to 600,000 horsepower of electric energy and will permit navigation of the Tennessee River for 18 miles upstream.

Rosengrants Not Guilty

In the case of the State of Idaho vs. D. L. Rosengrants, in which the defendant is charged with having murdered Dick Lyle in the upper Snake River country on the morning of March 9, the jury brought in a verdict of not guilty. It is said that the verdict was reached on the third ballot. The case was finished Wednesday, the jury having given their verdict at 7 o'clock in the evening.

Still Maintain Quarantine

Boise — Commissioner Mark A. Means of the state department of agriculture admitted Tuesday that pressure is being brought to bear for modification of the Idaho quarantine against California hoof and mouth disease to admit fruits and vegetables from the southern state. A message from Secretary of Agriculture Wallace at Washington has been received in which the statement is made that there is not danger of infection being carried by products of the soil originating in areas which are free from the disease. Dealers in fruits and vegetables are also asking for a modification. Commissioner Means declined to say who these dealers are; as to whether the request will be granted he declined to say. "It will not be sudden if at all," he said. "I am going away for three or four days to investigate conditions in the southern part of the state and will take the matter under consideration during that time. The quarantine still stands as it is."

Delightful Bridge Party

Wednesday evening the Daubenberg home was the scene of a very enjoyable bridge party, when Mesdames Daubenberg and Ramey entertained at four tables of cards.

The house was attractively decorated with dainty pink and white sweet peas and beautiful apple blossoms, combined with softly shaded lights, thus carrying out the general color scheme of pink and white.

The guests were given novel written directions for finding tables and couples for the evening, after which score cards and pads were passed and the guests settled themselves for several hours of play, at the close of which scores were totaled high honors going to Mrs. Knepper and Mr. MacPherson and low to Mr. Jones.

The hostess then served ice cream in dainty paper cases of pink and white, assorted cake and coffee, also confections in pink rose cases were given each guest as favors.

The guests hidden were Mesdames and Messrs. Newton, Carlson, MacPherson, McConnell, Walter Thomas, E. Long, Knepper, Ramey, Daubenberg and Mr. Jones.

Neighbors Fighting Ends in a Tragedy

Death of Young Man Results from Injuries Received in a Fight Last Sunday Morning

Fred Arnott, son-in-law of Mr. and Mrs. Rufus May of Bear ridge, who recently arrived from Oregon, died Sunday forenoon from injuries received in a fight with Delmar Mathes at the Charles Elliott farm which is located on a bench of Bear ridge.

Fred Arnott, 28 years of age, was married a short time ago to Rilla May, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Rufus May. The marriage took place in Oregon. Last week the young couple drove here in a car to visit the bride's parents. It was Arnott's first visit here.

The trouble started in the May and Mathes families several months ago over the settlement for some hogs which were sold by Rufus May to John Mathes, father of Delmar Mathes. Sunday morning the Rufus May family and Mr. and Mrs. Fred Arnott were visiting at the John Elliott home. John Mathes and his son Delmar, came to the Elliott place and wanted to make settlement for the hogs at that time. An agreement was finally reached concerning the payment for the hogs. It is reported that Mr. Mathes then asked Mr. May if he still meant what he had said about him a few weeks before. Mr. May said that he did and a fight immediately ensued.

Mrs. Arnott seeing the two men fighting, fainted. Her husband and Charles Elliott carried her to a nearby creek to revive her. As soon as she had regained consciousness, Arnott is then said to have gone to where the two men were fighting and told them to stop. He and Delmar Mathes then became involved in a fight and it is stated that Mathes struck Arnott a blow that rendered him unconscious and then continued to beat him in a most brutal manner. Thirty minutes after the fight Arnott passed away. Scars and bruises on his head and face showed that he had been pounded unmercifully by his assailant.

In the meantime the older men had ceased fighting. Both were badly bruised about the head and face but were not seriously injured.

Arnott was carried into the house in an unconscious condition and Dr. Seeley was immediately called, but the young man passed away a few minutes after the arrival of the doctor.

The sheriff's office at Moscow was immediately notified and Deputy Sheriff Grant Robbins and Prosecuting Attorney Frank L. Moore left at once for the scene of the tragedy. After making a thorough investigation of the case they returned to Moscow with Delmar Mathes in custody. Prosecuting Attorney Moore, in company with Dr. Armstrong of Moscow, returned to Kendrick, arriving here about 9 o'clock that night. Dr. Armstrong and Dr. Seeley, in the presence of the prosecuting attorney, performed a post mortem examination on the body of Arnott. The result of the examination was the filing of a charge of first degree murder against Delmar Mathes.

Attorney A. H. Oversmith of Moscow has been engaged to defend Mathes while Prosecuting Attorney Frank L. Moore will prosecute the case for the state. The arraignment of Delmar Mathes before Probate Judge Nelson was postponed until after Arnott's funeral, was held on Bear ridge at the United Brethren church, Thursday afternoon at 2 o'clock. Rev. Poolton of the Methodist church of Kendrick had charge of the service. Interment was made in the Wild Rose cemetery on Bear ridge.

The father and brother of young Arnott arrived Wednesday afternoon and were present at the funeral.

Return From California

Herman Schupfer and his mother returned from California, Tuesday, arriving here about 9 o'clock at night. They came home by automobile and report a very good trip. Herman had a good position at Huntington Beach with a big telephone company but gave up his work there to return to the Potlatch. He says that while there are many desirable conditions there that we do not have here, there are features in this country that more than offset them. Herman says that the most serious problem in California just now is the giving out of the oil wells. That big 10,000 barrel gushers now have to be put under the pump and that many are giving out entirely. He says the drought is also causing some concern.

Kendrick Won Last Sunday

In spite of the disagreeable weather last Sunday afternoon, a goodly delegation of Kendrick rooters went to Colton to see Kendrick defeat the Uniontown-Colton baseball team. At the end of the game the score stood 10 to 4 in favor of "our side". Uniontown-Colton used up three pitchers during the contest. Risenour pitched the first part of the game and held Kendrick to 4 runs. In the last two innings Kendrick brought in 6 runs.

Hard hitting by the Kendrick team was responsible for winning the game. Fleshman's consistent pitching held the opposing team to 4 hits. On account of the extremely windy, cold day there were few spectators, except for the crowd that went over from Kendrick. Troy and Kendrick will play here Sunday afternoon.

Peddlers to Pay License

An ordinance was introduced at the meeting of the town council last Tuesday evening, concerning the licensing of peddlers and house to house canvassers. The ordinance requires the payment of a license fee of $5.00 per day for all forms of peddling or canvassing except the selling of farm products raised in the state or the selling of merchandise to business houses for the retail trade. Attorney Oversmith of Moscow drew up the ordinance and he says it will be possible to fully enforce it. The ordinance was read the first time at the meeting and will no doubt be passed in regular form. It was introduced by the council with the ultimate object of protecting the home merchants and business houses against the unfair outside competition.

Japanese Kiss Occasionally.
It is often said that the Japanese never kiss. This is not quite true. They do kiss occasionally in their own homes, but never outside them. So strong, indeed, is the feeling against kissing in public that when moving pictures were first taken to Japan, the audience there hooted at the tender passages.

The high school play, given at the New Kendrick Theater, Thursday evening of last week, showed to a packed house. Every seat was taken and standing room was at a premium. Many were unable to get in the theater and went home without seeing the play. It was a very pleasing performance and the characters carried out their parts in a most creditable manner. The net receipts from the play were approximately $100 which will be turned into the senior class treasury.

There are few towns in which it is easier to raise a donation for any worthy cause than here in Kendrick. This spring there have been many demands upon the business men of the town to dig up for various public enterprises. The amount necessary in every case was raised.

M. J. Morley, who is employed at the Kendrick Garage, returned Tuesday from an automobile trip to Portland and Tacoma. He reports a fine trip and no car trouble to speak of. He had to be "deloused" at Walla Walla to get rid of any "hoof and mouth" germs that he might be carrying around with him.

Newspaper a Town Asset.

Most editors figure if their paper goes to the wall that it is nobodys business but their own. That it is their money involved, if they want to fail they have the right so to do. Townspeople often view the matter in the same light. That such an idea is wrong is advanced by the Tryon (Pa.) Times in a recent editorial, which brings home the point in very clear form, that it is the whole town's loss when a paper gives up the fight. Many of our readers will be glad to pick up the item, carry it in their own columns. It was as follows: Most people look at a newspaper as the business of a single individual. If it thrives, that is the owners or the editors business. If it fails, that also is the owners or editors business. As a matter of fact, the success or failure of a paper is a matter of grave concern to an entire town. Newspapers are the best advertisement a city has in the outside world. Other cities judge a town by the kind of newspaper it has. If it does not thrive, outsiders are inclined to look on the town as undesirable to live in, so move on to other cities. Thomas Jefferson once said that if he had to have government without newspapers or newspapers without government, he would take the newspapers, because thru them he felt that the state could be run with at least fair success. If some of us appreciated more fully the value of our newspapers, we would make great effort to see that they get the news, advertising, so become successful. Modern society cannot get along without newspapers any more than it can without schools, churches.

Two Seats were stopping at a London hotel for the first time in their lives. One, discovering there was no soap in their room, rang for a chambermaid.

"Ye might bring up a wee bit o' sape," he told her. The girl looked at him in open-mouthed bewilderment, unable to understand a word he said.

"Dom it, lassie," thundered the irritable gentleman from the north, "can ye no' understand plain Scotch?"

The maid gave a sigh of relief and departed, to return in a few minutes with a bottle and two glasses.—Sporting and Dramatic News.

Good Feeds Favored for Cows Just After Calving

For five or six days after calving feed the cow bran mashes with a legume roughage and a limited amount of silage. The water supply should not be overlooked at this time, also the appetite of the cow must be watched carefully. The grain ration must be increased very slowly at first. After four or five days, during which time oats and corn have again been introduced into the ration, the regular 4-2-1 ration may be fed, up to four to five pounds per day. From this on the increase should be made at the rate of one pound every third or fourth day until the maximum production is reached. When any additional increase of concentrates does not increase the flow, it is well to drop back slightly and it will be noted that the cow will then increase still further in production. Full feeding should not be reached until four to six weeks after freshening. No definite rule can be given, but it may be said that one pound of grain is a safe guide for each three pounds of Jersey and Guernsey milk or four pounds of Ayrshire, Holstein or Shorthorn milk produced daily.

Cow Is Best Money Maker

Put the cow to work and she is the most efficient money-maker on the farm today. A cow producing 25 pounds of 4 per cent milk daily makes one pound of butterfat a day worth about 50 cents. This cow needs rations and hay and silage which should not cost more than 15 cents daily, leaving 35 cents daily above the cost of her feed. Where can you invest your time and efforts to better advantage? Give your cows a chance. They will do better when properly fed.

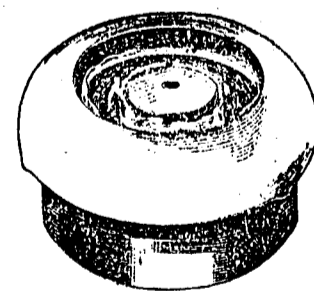

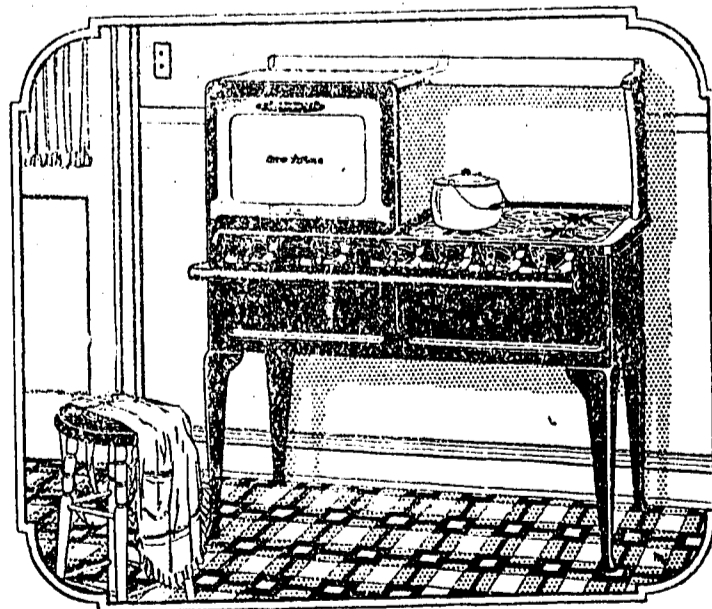

Keeps Eggs From Cracking.
A new egg rack, constructed so that the wires fit around each egg, has been designed to keep the "hen fruit" from cracking when put into boiling water.
