Item Taken from the Gazette Published in 1904

H. E. Wessels of the Potlach Land Co. made a sale of one of the Larkin properties, located near Southwick, Tuesday of this week. The property, 160 acres, was sold to N. Ganche of N. Dakota for $1200.

The Hotel Kendrick is establishing a reputation for a cuisine which is rapidly making it the favorite hostelry on the Palouse branch. Dinners, suppers and lunches are becoming quite popular.

The long proposed double passenger service on the N. P. will be put in operation May 1. This double service has long been needed and as we stated last fall, the officials were merely waiting until the spring travel ere they put on the extra trains. This service will give Kendrick four trains a day.

Last week J. H. F. Scheele of Johnson, Nebraska, bought of F. M. Talbott, a farm on Potlach ridge, consisting of 320 acres for $10,000. Mr. Talbott bought this place only a few months ago for $7,500, so he made a profit of about $2,500, including the crop at $1,000, which Mr. Talbott keeps.

Real estate on Potlach ridge continues to be in demand, even though the prospective buyer has to dig through several inches of snow to get to the soil, which, on being reached is sure to be considered "pay dirt".

John Burns, son of Mrs. Metcalf, and well known here, who two years ago went to Indiana under the care of the Presbytery of this district, has made an excellent record in his collegiate career and we just learn has won the prize in the yearly oratorical contest, making 99 points out of 100. This secures him a four years' course at the University, which together with the honor does credit to the boy and gives honor to his birthplace.

M. J. Wessels and wife are now domiciled on their ranch, where they are gathering and preparing the exhibits to be used in the Portland fair.

DeWinter and Goudzward, the prosperous Leland merchants, are adding a 30x100 foot addition to their store, a move necessitated by the increase of business and the large stock carried.

W. O. W. Party

The local Woodmen lodge held its annual party last Friday evening at the Fraternal Temple. Members of the lodge and their families were invited to participate in a social evening. All gathered at the lodge rooms at 7:30 where they were presented with tickets to the picture show at the New Kendrick theater. The center section of the theater was reserved for the party.

After the show refreshments were served cafeteria style in the Temple rooms and a social hour enjoyed, the balance of the evening being devoted to dancing. Music for the dance was furnished by Mr. and Mrs. Harold Thomas.

There were about 120 present at the party and everyone reported a jolly good time.

"Mandy, I've heard yo' is still lettin' dat no 'count man from Dog Town hang aroun'. Is dat so?" asked a colored swain of his equally colored lady love.

"Who dat been sayin' I is?"

"Dassal right who bin sayin' yo' is. De pint is, is yo'?"

"I ain't sayin' I is."

"Well, yo' ain't sayin' yo' ain't. Ef yo' ain't, yo' is."

"Ef I is, I is, an' ef I ain't, I ain't. 'Tain't none of yo' bizness whether I ain't or is!"

"Yo' ain't sayin' yo' ain't. Dat mek it yo' is. Ain't yo'?"

"Ef I is, I ain't gwine say I is, an' ef I ain't, I ain't gwine say I is or ain't. Is dat plain, or ain't it?"—Argonaut.

Working For Potlach Road

Lewiston Commissionets Met Yesterday

A meeting of the commissioners of the Clearwater highway district will be held in Lewiston Thursday and commissioners of the Lewiston highway district will be called into conference on the matter of constructing the highway from Arrow Junction to the Latah county line, says the Tribune.

The Lewiston district has been petitioned to take charge of and finance this improvement in the Clearwater district and the meeting Thursday will be for the purpose of reaching some definite understanding as to maintenance by the Clearwater district in the event the road is constructed by the Lewiston district.

The Lewiston district will ask that the Clearwater district give satisfactory assurance that the road be maintained and that the commissioners of the Lewiston district be given a free hand to use its engineer and go into the Clearwater district and take full charge of the proposed improvement.

If a satisfactory arrangement is made with the Clearwater district commissioners, the Lewiston commissioners will send their engineer, Mr. C. C. Van Arsdol, into the Clearwater district to make the locating and prepare the estimate for the construction between Arrow Junction and the Latah county line. The state has already agreed to join with the district in the completion and surfacing of the Lewis and Clark highway from the end of the present surfacing to Arrow Junction and this cost to the district will be approximately $8,000.

As soon as an estimate of cost for the improvement between Arrow Junction and the Latah county line has been prepared by Engineer Van Arsdol, the Commercial club committee will circulate a petition for the signature of the taxpayers of the district, the petition setting forth the amount of money estimated for the improvement of the two highway projects and urging that the commissioners make the expenditure in the interests of the Lewiston district and the people served by the proposed improvements.

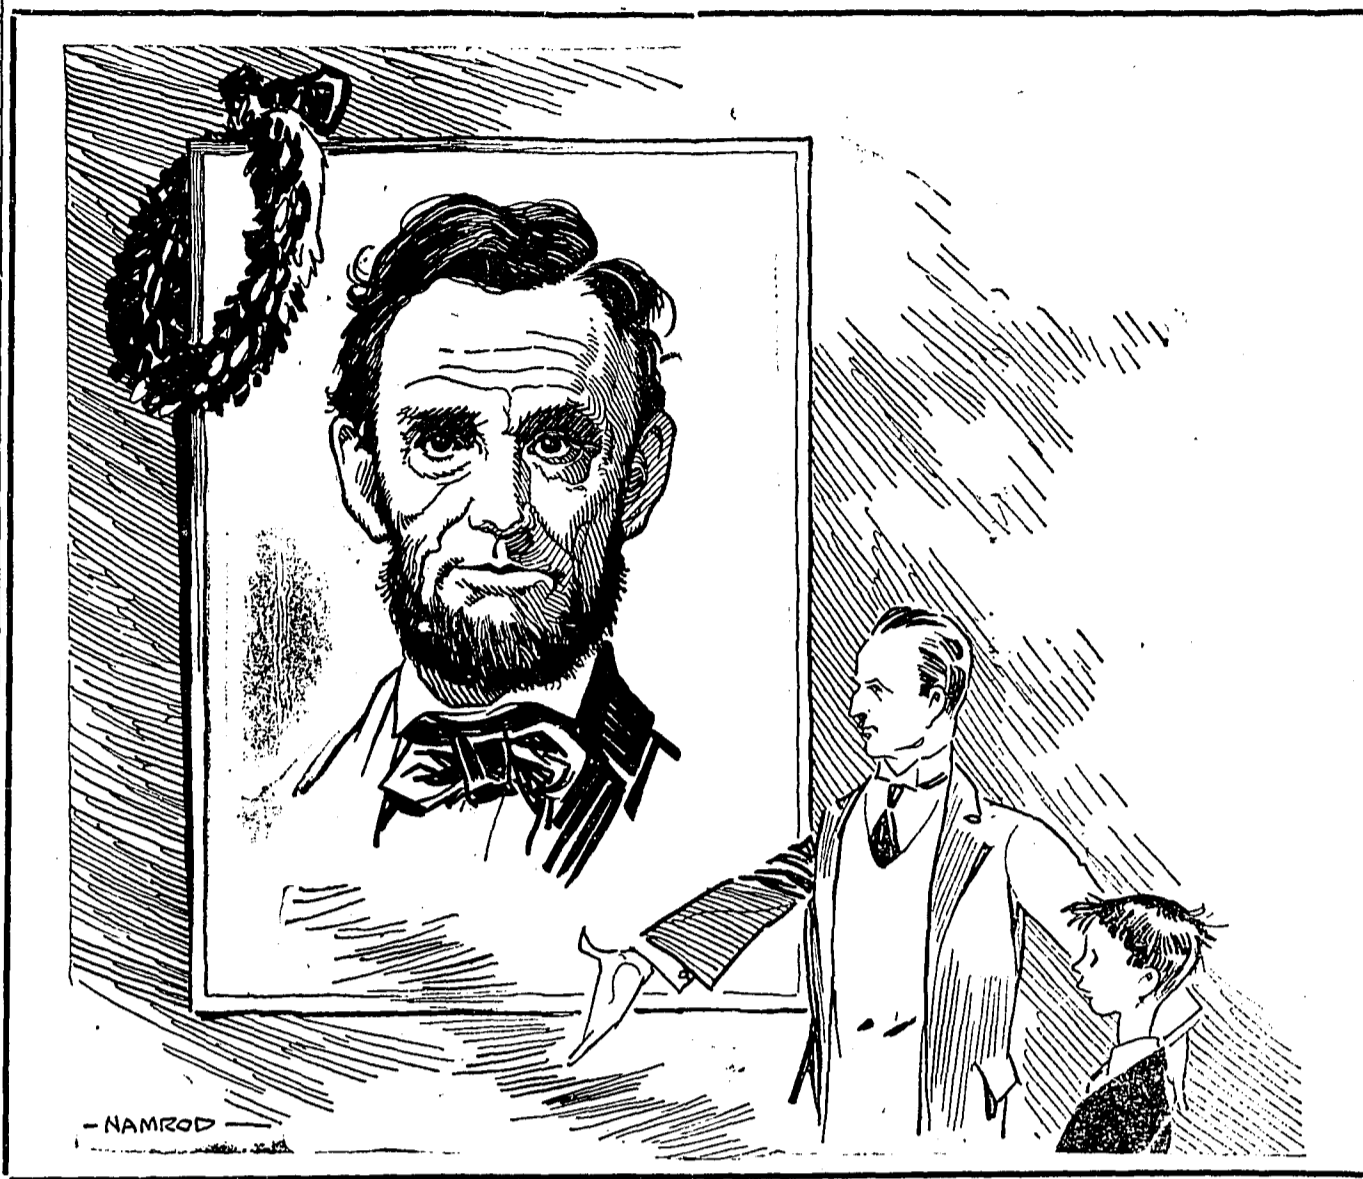

The improvement of the link between Arrow Junction and Myrtle cannot be taken up until the state has approved the present road or has designated a project between Arrow and Myrtle upon which state and federal aid funds will be applied. The view is held the state will be much interested in the improvement of the Lewis and Clark highway between Arrow and Orofino because of the large holdings of state timber in the upper Clearwater country and the heavy travel over the highway as a result of activities of the Weyerhaeuser and other large lumber operators.

Good Minstrel Show

The Beck and Walker minstrel show that appeared here last Saturday night, was said by many to be the best thing of its kind ever shown in Kendrick. It was a good, clean show all the way through. The harmony in the male quartet and orchestra numbers was very good. The vaudeville acts were varied and held the interest of the crowd from beginning to end. It was a very creditable performance.

Prof. Deich Here Sunday

Prof. Valentine Deich of Gooding College, Gooding, Idaho, will speak at the Methodist church in Kendrick, Sunday morning, February 15. He comes here very highly recommended as an eloquent speaker and it is hoped that a large number of the people of this community will take advantage of the opportunity to hear him.

Orofino Team Won Fast Game

Tied Kendrick at the End of Fourth Quarter

By far the best basket ball game of the season was played here last Saturday evening when the local high school team held the fast Orofino five to a tie at the end of the fourth quarter. Five minutes extra play was required to finish the game and up to the last 2 minutes of this period Kendrick had the game won 28 to 24, but couldn't hold the lead for the final 2 minutes, Orofino getting two long baskets that won the game. The score was 32 to 28.

The game looked favorable to Kendrick during the first half, which ended in their favor by a small margin, 12 to 11. The second half first one team led then the other, all players putting everything they had into the game. At the end of this half the score stood 24 to 24.

Both teams displayed fast floor work and accurate passing. Edgar Dammarell led in the scoring with 12 points, while Sisk for Orofino made 10.

The lineup was:
Orofino: Oud (8), Sisk (10), Peas (8).
Kendrick: F. E. Flaig (4), F. H. Flaig (4), C. E. Dammarell (12), E. Dammarell (8), G. Brown (8).
Subs—Kendrick, B. Dammarell for E. Dammarell.
Referee—Stillman, U. of I.

Little hope is held out for his recovery. The affairs of his office are being handled by Attorney Thomas A. Keeney.

Commercial Club Meeting

Very little business of importance was transacted at the regular monthly meeting of the commercial club, held Tuesday evening at the Commercial Hotel. The attendance numbered thirty.

The entertainment feature of the evening was a musical number by the male quartet, after which the business meeting and general discussion was held.

By unanimous vote of the club it was decided to celebrate the Fourth of July in Kendrick. July fourth comes on Saturday this year. An executive committee to have charge of the celebration was appointed by the chairman as follows: N. E. Walker, M. B. McConell and Dr. McKeever.

A resolution was introduced and passed asking the town council to start proceedings to have the old Hamley residence, back of the Methodist church, condemned on the grounds that it is a bad fire hazard, is unsafe and a menace to public health and safety.

After a general discussion of topics concerning the welfare of the town, the meeting adjourned.

Latah County News Paragraphs

Items of interest Taken From Neighboring Papers

Approximately $22,000 of the estate valued at $50,000 left by Frank May, pioneer resident of American Ridge, who died December 28, last, consists of liberty bonds and cash, according to the will just admitted to probate in the probate court of Latah county. Under the terms of the will, W. E. Cahill, of Moscow, has been appointed executor by Probate Judge Adrian Nelson.

Mr. May is survived by his widow, Mrs. Elvida May, two children, Dora G., and Warren E., and a stepson, Archie E. May. The will provides that the cash and liberty bonds go to Mrs. May, and the remainder, or the real property, consisting of well-improved farm land, divided specifically among Mrs. May and the children.

Fred Veatch, George Vennigerholz, and R. S. Muhlitz, all of Moscow, have been appointed appraisers of the property by Judge Adrian Nelson.—Star Mirror.

There is on display in the Hasfurther Hardware window one of the longest parsnips that has ever been seen in this part of the country. The "snip" measures just 45-1-2 inches in length and is a perfect specimen to within a few inches of the tip. It was raised by Carl Grieser and it is said it was necessary for him to use a stump-puller to get it out of the ground.—Genesee News.

Herman Paulson, the Treasurer of the Village of Troy today informed the News office that the last of the old Village warrants were cleaned up. This is the first time in the memory of a great many of our citizens that the Village can say that all of our debts are secured, that the finances are in good shape, and the report of the condition of the community can be accurately reckoned.—Troy News.

At their last regular meeting the high school board re-elected W. C. Carpenter as principal for next year at the same salary he draws this year, viz; $2,200. The matter of securing associate teachers was left to Mr. Carpenter. He will at once begin lining up a teaching force for the 1925-26 term.—Deary Press.

Mrs. Cecil Emmett

This community was deeply grieved to learn of the death of Mrs. Cecil Emmett, which occurred at Troy late last Saturday night, at the home of her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Gabriel Anderson. Mrs. Emmett had been ill for the past two years. Over a year ago she went to California for her health and her condition was somewhat improved for a while, but for the last several weeks she failed rapidly.

Signa Anderson was born in Sweden. At the age of five years she came to this country with her parents who made their home on the farm near Troy. December 8, 1920 she was married at Moscow to Mr. Cecil Emmett and made her home on the Emmett farm on Little Bear ridge. She was a young woman of exceptionally fine qualities. Her cheerful disposition and kindly manner made for her many lasting friendships.

Mrs. Emmett is survived by her husband, a two-year-old son, her parents and three sisters.

Funeral services were held at the Swedish Lutheran church at Troy, Rev. Andree, of Moscow, officiating. Interment was made in the Dry Creek cemetery.

The sympathy of the community is extended to Mr. Emmett and his little son in their bereavement.

If it were only half as much fun to hold on to the handles of a bean cultivator as it is to hang on to the steering wheel of an auto, there would be more beans raised in the Potlach every year.

The game last Saturday night showed that when conditions are right the local high school team can put up a snappy exhibition of basket ball.

In all due fairness the average self-made man might give a little of the credit of his success to his wife, who probably bossed the job.

Keep in mind the fact that Commercial club meetings are held every second Tuesday of the month. If the committee appointed to give you a special invitation and incidentally to collect your meal ticket, fails to see you, remember you are invited just the same, so don't feel slighted. Everyone in the Potlach country is welcome to these meetings. They are held for the purpose of building up the entire community and everyone should have an interest in them.

If talk would build roads this Potlach country would have the best highways in the state long before this time. There is only one way we will ever get good roads and that is to center on a definite location for the roads, map out the project and then follow it up. The longer everyone holds out for a good road past his own home the older he will be before he will have the pleasure of traveling good roads in this country.

A recent issue of a popular magazine contained the following paragraph: "The foundation stone of success in country journalism is a consistent and unyielding cowardice. I know how that tired old editor felt - out in Kansas, wasn't it?—when he said the only thing he could safely attack in his paper was a man-eating shark."

The statement is more or less true, but it does not apply to the country newspaper any more than it does to any other line of business in a small town. The difference is that it is more noticeable if the country editor refuses to comment on some public question that might injure his business. The small town merchant may be just as reluctant to express his opinion, but it goes unnoticed because he doesn't put his opinions in 'cold type.

"Taking sides" is the easiest thing one can do, as human beings are naturally constructed that way. But the business of a newspaper that serves its community is to endeavor to give both sides of a question in the fairest manner possible and then let the public judge for itself. There may be exceptions to this rule.

Three concurrent sources of dew are recognized: the condensation of the moisture of the atmosphere (when dew may be said to fall); the condensation of watery vapor arising from the earth (when dew rises); and the moisture exhaled by plants.

Elephant's Adaptability
The elephant adapts himself to more difficult conditions than does any animal of Africa.—Springfield Republican

Levi Leiter's Grandson
Now Earl of Suffolk.

London.—From a poky little cabin aboard a tramp steamer to the luxury of a Jacobean mansion was the quick change of circumstances experienced recently by the seventeen-year-old earl of Suffolk.

The earl had been knocking around the world in the steamer Mount Stewart, sharing the hard life and food of sailors for about 18 months, when the death of the old earl was announced. The young man's ship had just arrived at Nantes with a cargo of nitrate from South America, and he immediately said good-by to his shipmates and hurried to the family seat, Charlton house, near Malmsbury.

People in the district are wondering whether the young earl will settle down to society's ways, or whether the travel temptation inherited from his American mother, a daughter of the late Levi Leiter of Chicago, will lure him away to fresh adventures.

Marriage Information Bureau Proves Success

Hamburg.—Hamburg boasts of having established the first bureau of information on matrimonial matters in Germany.

The bureau has been in operation for less than a year, but its success is so great the Prussian landtag, or provincial assembly, will soon consider advisability of creating similar public bureaus in other cities.

Advice is given gratuitously to persons of all classes of society and of both sexes. The staff is for the most part unpaid, the members considering it an honor to give their time and thought to helping bring about happier marriages.

Eskimo's Marriage Fixed in Infancy

New York.—Shortly after an Eskimo baby is born it is promised by its parents to the little child of some of their friends or neighbors held in high esteem. This pledge is mutually binding and hardly ever disregarded, so that an Eskimo's destiny as to wedded life is settled from the beginning, says Christian Leden.

By sixteen or seventeen the Eskimo girl has reached maturity, and then she prepares for herself her first long-hooded coat, or amaut, the kind her mother wears. This is a sign to her affianced sweetheart she is ready to marry. Perhaps he is away at the time, but word reaches him of her step, so he starts forth to claim her.

As a matter of form he shows little impatience in getting to her. He does not tell his errand to anyone, and out of courtesy no one mentions it to him, but the purpose of his journey is thoroughly understood.

Big City Market Is Now Rat-Free

Department of Agriculture Carries Out Successful Raid in Washington.

(Prepared by the United States Department of Agriculture.)

As a result of control measures quietly inaugurated by the biological survey of the United States Department of Agriculture, Center market, in Washington, has been made one of the most satisfactory markets from the standpoint of rat-free conditions in the country. When the department took over the management of this great city market, which covers an area equal to two city blocks, the place was found to be badly infested by rats. Here was not only loss in food products, but also danger to public health through contamination of foods.

Barium Carbonate Used.

So serious was the infestation that some who had noticed conditions hesitated to purchase their food supplies there. To clear up the situation without unduly disturbing the public, the biological survey, co-operating with the bureau of agricultural economics, began work very inconspicuously. Barium carbonate was distributed under carefully controlled conditions and 300 rats were found killed at one time. Traps were also used on a large scale. Accumulated rubbish was cleared away, infested hollow walls and other structures were replaced by rat-proof construction, more sanitary and rat-proof booths were built of concrete, and a large incinerator was installed to consume garbage and rubbish.

Conditions Improved.

Special attention was given to rat-proofing food-storage places, including all cold storage. The interest of the dealers was enlisted in the effort, and many neighboring commission houses, at their request, were assisted and have adopted measures recommended for the protection of the food products which they handle. While the market is still subject to invasion by rats from surrounding property and through introduction with shipments of food, necessitating careful follow-up work, conditions have been vastly improved, and the market is a valuable example of what can be accomplished when proper effort is made.

Roup May Be Controlled by Proper Management

Contagious roup is very easily spread from one bird to another by contact through the feed, water and litter. Roup is easily controlled by proper management and housing. Damp, insanitary, poorly ventilated, overcrowded drafty quarters are conducive to its spread. Only valuable birds should receive individual treatment. Place the bird in a dry, well-ventilated place and give it plenty of fresh air and feed. Every morning and evening remove all the cheesy matter from the eyes and nostrils of the bird and dip its head into a solution of bichloride of mercury (1-1,000). This is made by placing one 7.3-grain bichloride of mercury tablet in a pint of water. Hold the bird firmly and immerse the head until the eyes are covered, keeping it there a few seconds, or until it struggles.

In treating an infected flock, dispose of all bad cases by killing and burning them. Isolate all birds having colic, keep quarters dry, provide plenty of ventilation without drafts, sunlight, and avoid overcrowding. Place one 7.3-grain bichloride of mercury tablet in a gallon of water in a nonmetal container. Never use more than ten days in succession.

Different Rations That Have Got Good Results

Farmers who have good alfalfa hay find that a ration mixed from 500 pounds ground corn, 200 pounds ground oats, 200 pounds wheat bran and 100 pounds linseed oilmeal, cottonseed meal or soy bean meal gives excellent results.

When clover hay is used in place of alfalfa, the oilmeal is increased to 200 pounds. If mixed hay is the only kind a man has, he cuts the corn to 400 pounds and increases the oats to 300 pounds and the oilmeal to 200 pounds. The same amount of bran, 200 pounds, is used.

In a very few cases where it is out of the question to secure anything but timothy hay, the above ration is mixed in equal parts by weight. C. B. Finley, dairy extension man at the Iowa State college, found in his experience with over 5,000 farmers last year, that good results were always obtained from the above combinations.

Work of Busy Bee

"How doth the busy little bee," has been spoken thousands of times by school children and others without a single thought as to the important part that the busy little bee plays in the development of many of our plants. Bees serve a double purpose. They gather the sweets from the flowers and store them and at the same time they perform a greater service in carrying the pollen from one flower to another, thus insuring a full set of fruit upon our trees and certain of our vegetable plants.

Compound GADUOL TONIC PILLS
Extract of Cod Liver Oil
With Iron and Other Tonic Ingredients

It is impossible to overcome a feeling of repugnance and sometimes of nausea, when your physician prescribes Cod Liver Oil. This feeling is only natural as Cod Liver Oil in its pure state is not pleasant to take, and in fact it is impossible for many people to take it in this form. While recognizing its beneficial properties as a body-builder, especially in run-down conditions of the body due to associated with mal-nutrition, they are unable to avail themselves of its benefits because of the disagreeable fishy taste and odor.

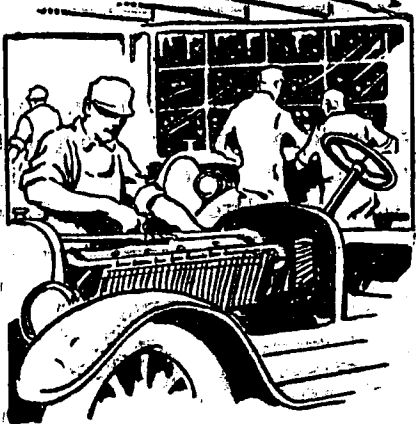

DeWitt's Compound Gaduol Tonic Pills

which contain Extract of Cod Liver Oil, have been especially designed to overcome the objections set forth above, and to give to those whose stomachs are too weak or who for other reasons are unable to take Cod Liver Oil, the benefit of its peculiar properties without suffering any of the discomforts.

DeWitt's Compound Gaduol Tonic Pills in addition to Gaduol, Extract of Cod Liver Oil, also contain Iron and other well-known tonic and stimulative ingredients, thus making them especially valuable as a general tonic. They do not contain opiates, narcotics, nor habit forming drugs and are absolutely safe for adults and children. Price $1.00.

MAUDE HENDERSON COMPANY COMING TO KENDRICK

The Maude Henderson Stock Company, undoubtedly the best known dramatic company in the northwest will be seen at the NEW KENDRICK THEATRE for 2 nights starting Friday, February 20.

This excellent organization has been playing the same places for many years giving only the best in comedies and dramas.

They carry much scenery, in fact they have special scenery for each production and in many places they play for two weeks, changing plays every night. The opening bill, "Putting it Over," is one of the outstanding comedy successes of a decade. This hilarious comedy had a run of one and a half years at the 48th St. theatre in New York. The scenes are laid in Yuma, Arizona; the story of the building of a government dam, a story of high and graft. A young engineer, Tom Browne, on his first big job, at the mercy of the grafting contractors. Losing his nerve he elopes with his sweetheart, the daughter of one of the contractors. The same night a burglar enters his apartment, and being caught, his resemblance to Browne is so striking he is mistaken for him. Seeing no chance for escape and learning something of conditions he decides to impersonate the departed engineer. The comedy is furnished thruout the play by the ludicrous situations of this misguided young man. He is mistaken by the young lady as her husband. The mixups are startling in the extreme. The play was built for laughing purposes only, and you do laugh, so come and forget your troubles. There will be a change of bill each night, something really worthwhile.

On SATURDAY night they will present one of the most beautiful plays of all time, "Turn to the Right." This wonderful play was made famous by Jane Cowl, one of America's foremost stars.

It was really an accident that this company comes to our city. In changing route to make Lewiston for a two week's engagement Friday and Saturday was open. This company is like nothing else this city has ever had the opportunity to screen so the theatre goers of this community will have an opportunity of seeing the best that can be obtained in the way of a dramatic company. 6-1t.

"Why not? He's a very clever man."

"That may be," said the patient. "But me name happens to be Patriek." —Exchange
