Joseph Leander Wells was born in Boone county, N. C., December 2, 1858; died December 27, 1925, at the age of 67 years and 25 days. In early manhood he was married to Laura Louisa Guder. To them were born four children, three of whom survive. They are: Roy, Chuck, and Mrs. Mary King, all of Deary. There are also two grandchildren, Lou Easter and Will Leaner King. The funeral was held from Legion hall Tuesday afternoon, December 29, Undertaker Irwin of Palouse having charge. Rev. J. O. Sibert, pastor of the U. B. church, conducted the service. Burial was made in the family plot in Pine Crest cemetery beside the body of Mrs. Wells, who died in July, 1923.—Deary Press.

Troy continues to maintain a topical climate, as evidenced by a big red rose which Swan Fisk picked in his garden last Thursday and brought to the News office, and Mrs. Herman Johnson found a ripe strawberry and a blossom in her garden Christmas day.—Troy News.

Information was filed in the district court Monday against Lyle Roach and Norval Smith charging them with burglary in the first degree and against Delbert Phillips charged with being an accessory to crime of burglary. Roach and Smith are charged with burglarizing the Potlatch Mercantile store at Potlatch the night of December 6th, alleged to have stolen goods valued at $300.

Phillips was arraigned before Judge Edgar C. Steele in the district court, Monday, and his trial set for January 18, when the regular jury terms start. Phillips entered a plea of not guilty. A. H. Oversmith is acting as his attorney.

Smith and Roach have not as yet been arraigned with no date being set for their trial. The case will probably be heard during the jury term, however, which will last about two weeks. Following the arraignment of Phillips, Monday morning, Judge Steele issued an order for the summoning of 33 jurors to appear January 18. From these jurors the jury will be selected.

Roach and Phillips were arrested at La Grande, Ore., December 30 by Sheriff Charles Summerfield and Deputy Sheriff Moody. It is alleged that Roach told Phillips of the crime and induced him to take him to La Grande in his car. The stolen property was taken with the two men and recovered at La Grande by the sheriff. Smith was arrested at Potlatch.

Smith and Roach waived their preliminary examination and were placed under bonds of $1500 each. Merchandise alleged to have been stolen from the Potlatch store included jewelry, suits, overcoats and shoes. Some of the goods were sold in La Grande, but all has been recovered.—Star-Mirror.

Word comes from Asotin, Grangeville, Moscow and other points to the effect that flowers of various kinds are still in bloom and very nice bouquets have been picked from the yards of private homes.

Well, these boasted "warm climate" towns have nothing on Genesee for there are still many flowers in full bloom—pansies, calendulas, snapdragons, etc.—and we don't claim to be in the Banana Belt either—nor are we going to allow California to swipe all the glory of having flowers in the winter time.—Genesee News.

Rev. Hoyt delivered a very interesting stereopticon lecture at the Presbyterian church last Sunday evening. A large crowd attended.

KENDRICK NEWS 20 YEARS AGO

Taken From Copy of Gazette Published in 1905

The Stockholders of the Kendrick Rochdale Co. held their first annual meeting in the office of the company here Thursday morning and listened to the report for the past year. It was an able one and as creditable as one could well ask for.

Officers were elected as follows: H. L. Tupper, J. Schultz, Carl Hartung, H. Wilken, F. Mielke, H. Koepf, all of the Potlatch; S. W. Bigham, A. H. Roberts, J. Roberts of American ridge. Auditor, H. Munsterman.

W. B. Crews' assistant at the tonsorial, Wm. Rogers, is enjoying a vacation at his home in Moscow and rumor has it that he is a victim of the matrimonial gods, tho we could not verify the same.

Hallett Abend, son of Mrs. John Bradbury, after a very pleasant holiday visit here returned to Spokane, Wednesday night.

A raffle of the fine cougar skin, secured by E. Clem, was held at Zigelow & Grohs, Wednesday forenoon and W. M. McCrea was the lucky man. The skin measures six feet and is a fine specimen.

We note that a marriage license has been issued to Jacob Newman and Emma J. Frank of Leland.

Mrs. J. C. Hamil

Mrs. J. C. Hamil, who has been ill for the past two years, died at her home west of Kendrick, Wednesday of this week. Her death was not unexpected for it had been realized for some time that she had not long to live.

Funeral services will be held at the home this morning at 10:30 o'clock and the body will be shipped to Lewiston and placed in the Mountain Gem Abby.

Ida Helen Kelley was born at New Hampton, New Hampshire, October 31, 1858. She moved with her parents in 1863 to Minnesota where she lived until 1901 when she came to Lenore, Idaho.

She was married June 20, 1906, to J. C. Hamil and moved to Juliaetta in 1914. Two years later she and her husband made their home on their ranch two miles west of Kendrick, where she lived until her death. She was a woman of splendid qualities, a kindly neighbor and a devoted wife.

The Truth About Advertising

Much has been said of the progress of the radio industry, but there is undoubtedly much ahead for this new field in the world of advertising. One small radio company is several jumps ahead of some of its larger competitors in this respect. Down on the Jersey coast a manufacturer, one of the largest in his line, of pajamas, etc., displays a large sign on top of the factory reading: "We put the world to sleep." The radio company's factory is on the opposite side of the railroad tracks, on top of it is the challenge: "We keep the world awake."—Wall Street Journal.

TIMELY TALKS BY U. OF I. PROFESSORS

Crops
Good seed is cheap seed but it cannot be sold cheaply. When a farmer buys seed he should get the best available and expect to pay the market price for it. No dealer can afford to sell good seed at a cut rate of from one-third to one-half the market price. Usually seed offered at such prices is low in vitality or badly infested with noxious weeds.

Last season the department of agronomy secured a number of samples of clover and grass seed from a cut rate house. Without exception every sample was well adulterated with some kind of weed seed. None of them could have been sold in Idaho under the provisions of the Idaho Seed Law.—H. W. Hulbert

Livestock

Brood sows when given access to alfalfa hay of good quality will take much more necessary exercise and incidentally will supply their litter with important minerals that may be lacking in their grain rations. It is good insurance and ordinarily is responsible for rugged, thrifty pigs.—J. E. Nordby.

Poultry

Ordinary cold will often develop into contagious roup unless immediate precautions are taken. Symptoms of cold involve excretions from the nostrils and eyes and some wheezing. Cold may be controlled by removing drafts or damp conditions in the poultry house or by securing better physical condition through proper feeding and giving of tonic. A good tonic consists of one part of Epsom salts and one part of sulphur with 12 parts of dry mash. This mixture should be moistened and given in an amount that will take about 20 minutes to consume.—R. T. Parkhurst.

Kendrick Defeats Troy

Kendrick town team won the second of a three game series of basket ball at Troy last Friday evening, by a score of 27 to 18. It was a rough game but a fast one. Joe Thomas of Moscow refereed the contest.

From Range to Market

A car of prime beef cattle was delivered at Lewiston recently, direct from the range by Benjamin Reeves, Salmon river stockman. The cattle were in fine condition and were finished entirely on grass. Mr. Reeves reports it has been more than 20 years since weather and range conditions have been so favorable for cattlemen.

DISASTROUS FIRE AT JULIAETTA

Alexander's General Store Was Complete Loss

The big store at Juliaetta owned by Mrs. Joseph Alexander, was destroyed by fire at an early hour Wednesday morning, resulting in a reported loss of $25,000 with insurance amounting to $15,000. The fire was discovered about three o'clock and was apparently in the front of the building. It is not known how it started.

The stock was insured for $12,000 and the building for $3,000. The loss is estimated at $25,000. The Alexander store was the only one in Juliaetta that carried a complete line of general merchandise.

Herman Schupfer and Ed Deobald started from Kendrick with several lengths of fire hose, in case more hose might be needed to fight the fire. They were speeding along just below the Housely place when a big boulder appeared in the middle of the road in the circle east by the headlights. It had rolled from the side hill, and before speed could be reduced the front of the car struck it dead center. It flipped the front wheels several feet off the ground and damaged the under parts considerably. The lights went out and a short under the dash started a fire. It was necessary to stop to put out the fire and do some temporary wiring before the journey could be resumed. The balance of the distance was made through the darkness without headlights.

Bernadine Moser Married

Miss Bernadine Moser, daughter of Dr. and Mrs. J. T. Moser of Lewiston, was quietly married to Mr. Warren G. Noggle, son of Dr. and Mrs. Noggle of Los Angeles, on Monday last. The wedding took place in San Diego at the home of Mr. and Mrs. McNary. Miss Moser is a graduate of Leland Stanford, Jr., university and a member of the Gamma Phi Beta sorority. Mr. Noggle graduated from the University of Nebraska and belongs to the Beta Theta Pi fraternity. They will make their home in San Diego.

Mrs. E. E. Farmer

Death from diphtheria came to Mrs. E. E. Farmer, who lived at Portland, Oregon, December 21, just after she had been taken to the hospital.

She was the mother of seven children, and on the following Tuesday, three of them were taken to the hospital ill with the same malady.

Immediately after the city health officer notified the "Hoot Owls", a radio organization, of the case, two men with baskets of food were on their way to the home to care for the children. This tidied them over until their father arrived from Los Angeles where he had just obtained work.

Mrs. Farmer will be remembered here as Mrs. Leah Langdon.—Contributed.

STUDENT ACTIVITIES KENDRICK SCHOOLS

Written For Gazette by Student Reporters

The best basket ball game of the season will be played by the local high school team and Kamiah at the Kendrick gym, tomorrow evening at 8 o'clock. The admission charge will be 10c and 35c. Kendrick has a very strong team this year and has won many of the games they have played. The Kamiah team comes with a clean bunch of players. Let's all come and see our fellows win. We can if we have your support.

The classes in high school are reviewing, to be prepared to take the semester examinations.

Sidney LaHatt and Benny Westendahl re-entered the high school last Monday.

JOKES

Mr. Kerns said that it is dangerous to eat peas with a knife but we all know that he is a man to take chances.

Miss Seelye: (to Elsie Morey) "Why does Sidney LaHatt wear his cap at such a rakish angle?"

Elsie: "Oh, I suppose it's to run the surplus water off his brain"

"You can't make a monkey out of me," said Arthur Wayland.

"No," replied Harley Eichner, "but I can put you in a tree and no one would know the difference."

Mr. Strauch: (taking Bernard Jones by the arm) "Young man the old nick has hold of you."

Bernard: "Guess you're right Sir."

Don Brocke: "Get up, Love."

Thelma: "What a queer name for a horse. (thoughtfully) Don't you know that love is blind."

Don: "So's this old horse. Get up, Love."

Margaret McDowell: "Buster, why are you scratching your head?"

Bus: "I've arithmetic bugs in my hair."

Margaret: "Arithmetic bugs, what are they?"

Bus: "They're cooties, Margaret. "But why call them that?"

Bus: "Well, they add to my misery, they subtract from my pleasures, they divide my attention and they multiply like the dickens."

Miss Seelye: "Do you know Poe's 'Raven'?"

Manning Onstott: "What's he mad about?"

Mr. Kerns: "Who made the first cotton gin?"

Grace Plummer: "Good-night, are they making it out of that, too?"

Roy Sparber: "I have been wanting to tell you something for a weak back."

Shirley Clem: "Dear me, what can it be?"

Roy: "A good hot mustard plaster."

Josephine Strauch: "Mother, how did daddy become a professor?"

Mrs. Strauch: "So you have begun to wonder about that, too?"

Do You Need a Dog?

J. G. Gardner has been collecting dog licenses this week. He has the dog census of Kendrick and finds that to start the new year there are 18 or 20 less dogs in town than there were last year at this time. There are a few dogs that will have to face a firing squad unless some kind-hearted man will claim ownership of one or more of them, remove them from town or pay the tax. There is one little black and tan shepherd dog that needs a master. He is being kicked from door to door and is badly in need of a friend. Joe Gardner will give him to you if you ask him.

WEEK'S EVENTS FROM SOUTHWICK

A banquet was given at the home of Mrs. I. D. Hayward for the high school scholars last Friday evening.

Death of J. W. Davis

J. W. Davis, one of the pioneers of Potlatch ridge, died at a Lewiston hospital, last Monday evening at 7 o'clock, following a long illness. For the past two months he had been at the hospital.

Mr. Davis was born in Wales 81 years ago, coming to this country when 21 years of age. He settled in Wisconsin and was married there to Mary Andrews. They came west and located in Oregon and moved from there to a homestead near Leland. He farmed there on quite a large scale until twelve years ago when he sold his land and spent much of his time in California and other points in the north-west.

He is survived by three sons and a daughter; Joe W., of Kendrick, Leonard of Leland, Ernest of Lewiston, Mont.; and Mrs. Joday Long of Kendrick.

Funeral services will be held today at the Presbyterian church at 11 o'clock. Rev. Taber of Leland will preach the sermon.

Mrs. Frank Souders and Mrs. Wm. Kauder were Southwick visitors, Friday.

Edward Darby and daughters, Lucille and Maybelle, spent Friday and Saturday with Mrs. W.

McClelland and family, and Saturday night and Sunday at the John Darby home.

Mrs. Frank Carey, Jr. spent a couple of days last week with her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Frank Souders.

New Year's Complications

By Eleanor E. King

RISP, cold and snowy, it conformed admirably with prescribed holiday weather. The wind which blew in Helen's window was a relief from the hot, furnace-heated air of the bedroom. Perhaps the evening's excitement had been too great. She wondered. At any rate it was certainly late enough to go to sleep, but instead she lived over the entire proceedings of the New Year's Eve party which she had attended. The heat of the room was stifling. Helen felt she would smother. She called, but the cry was scarcely audible. The loud snoring in the next room informed Helen that her mother had not heard the desperate call.

After making such an ado over the New Year, welcoming it so heartily, so profusely, was this the way it was going to serve her? On second thought, however, if she had to some way, she concluded that this method would be no worse than any other. Yet, how disgusting to smother to death. Thus reasoning away the hysteria, she relaxed, and as she sank down into the pillow, she continued to go down, down hundreds of feet through endless space. With clenched hands and set teeth she realized that the expected ending had not been as simple as she had anticipated.

Down, down; some water came into sight. A bridge now came into view; a huge span over enormous falls. It was a rushing, tumbling torrent of bluish-green, sparkling water. She tried to hold herself back, to break the fall. When Helen landed, to her surprise, she found herself in a snow bank instead of water. She beheld huge snow banks and little snow banks everywhere. Looking to her right she saw the old grammar school she had attended when a little girl. Forgetting her twenty-odd years accumulated since that time, Helen began climbing up one mound, down and up another. How wonderful the snow was! How soft, how thrilling, but what fun.

Going between the main school building and the wing, she came to the slide on the school hill. Looking down, she noticed she had skills on. Just like olden times. To her delight she went skimming through the air like a bird. As she went the hill rolled out before her like so much dough under the weight of the rolling pin. Around turns and down, every minute gaining more speed, until she wondered how all this accumulated force would avenge itself.

"Helen, Helen, happy New Year!" Helen looked around in her hasty flight. Someone was calling very softly, but she could not see the person. Again and again came the call. It was a haunting sound more like an echo, yet of a very familiar voice. Helen waved as she said to herself, "I can't find you, but I can at least be courteous." She was coming to an abrupt curb. "Perhaps if I sit down and slide that will slow me down some." She found she could not get down to the ground fast enough.

Again she heard the call, now somewhat louder. She was sitting up, rubbing her eyes. "I can sit up, mother. My legs will work now, and my arms." Her mother looked at her curiously. "Is this the way the New Year affects you? First you wave your hand frantically, then you mumble some meaningless words. Just what does it all mean?"

Helen laughed. "It wasn't an ending at all, was it? It was a beginning. The beginning of a fine new year."

When Young Lambs Start to Eat Provide a Creep

At about three weeks of age the young lambs will start to eat grain and at this time should be provided with a creep, to which the ewes do not have access, where they may be fed grain consisting of oats, bran and a small proportion of crushed corn and also a good quality of second cutting of clover or alfalfa hay. Any feed remaining in the trough should be fed to the ewes twice daily and the lambs given a fresh supply. Young nursing animals make much more efficient use of their feed than do other animals, hence the importance of rather liberal feeding where it is desirable to market the lambs young.

Gazette Passes 35th Year

The Gazette is 35 years old—started on its thirty-sixth year last week. We believe it is the oldest paper in Latah county. It has existed through fire and flood, good crops and not such good crops, but never a fail crop. It has had many ups and downs but has always managed to keep its head above water. Most of the publishers who have looked after its destiny in the past have gone to other fields in order to replete their fallen fortunes. Some have even been rewarded already with a trip to the Great Beyond, where all good printers are safely booked to go. We know of none of the many who have owned and published this paper who has made a fortune from it. Maybe we will though—who knows?

This paper has absorbed a number of publications in years past, among them the Canyon Echo, Kendrick Times, Potlatch Star, Juliette Sun and probably others. It has many friends as the goodly number of subscribers on its list amply testifies. It reflects the condition of the community as nothing else does. It is a particularly good business barometer. When business is quiet, as it usually is at this time of year, it is found necessary to clip two pages from its ordinary size, because the size of the paper is regulated by the amount of advertising patronage. We don't like to publish a four page paper but sometimes we have to.

Those who send in news from the surrounding communities are most ably assisting the paper as these personal items are what a small town paper needs to make it read. The Gazette is fortunate in having such a good family of correspondents.

With increased advertising patronage and with more prompt delivery of advertising copy each week, the paper might be greatly improved. There is much time lost in rustling the ads and even more time spent securing the ad copy. An ad can be written in the same length of time Tuesday morning as on Thursday morning. But when ad copy has to be set Thursday morning, it means that other parts of the paper must be neglected.

Those who have news concerning people of the community, or who know of happenings in the community that are not likely to be brought to the attention of the publisher or the correspondence writer, may be of very great assistance if they will send these items or phone them to anyone who writes for the paper. Every item of local news is of value and adds interest for the readers.

Let's all boost the Gazette so that it may in turn do more toward boosting the Potlatch. If your neighbor doesn't take the paper, talk to him—he needs it.

GLEANINGS

Miss Verna Getty of Clarkston visited friends in Kendrick last Friday.

The largest crowd of the season attended the Legion dance at the Fraternal Temple, last Friday night. There was not floor space to accommodate those who wished to dance. It was a very orderly crowd and the dance was a success from every standpoint.

Mrs. M. S. Gibson, who has been visiting at the home of her daughter, Mrs. Dottie Stanton, left yesterday afternoon for her home in Lewiston.

Attorney Otto Burns of Lewiston was transacting business in this section yesterday.

At the regular meeting of the town council, held last Tuesday evening, the usual business that comes before the board was transacted. There was a full attendance of councilmen.

Miss Ida Morey returned to her school work at the Lewiston Normal, Sunday, after spending her vacation with her parents on Bear ridge.

Walter May of American ridge has been named on the University of Idaho rifle team. Walter is a member of the Idaho unit of R. O. T. C.

This is the time of year when a number of Gazette subscriptions fall due. Have you mailed your check?

Word comes from Moscow that Miss Johanna Hooker's condition continues to improve, although it may be some time before she will be able to return from the hospital.

A number of Kendrick girls are endeavoring to start an organization of Camp Fire Girls here. From 15 to 20 members are now in sight if it is possible to secure a Guardian. This is a splendid organization that is worthy of support. The Boy Scouts might take on new life if the girls organize.

Tony Eichner of American ridge returned Tuesday from a visit at Lewiston.

Gus Kruger of Lewiston was transacting business in Kendrick the first of the week.

Ed Deobald and Herman Schupfer went to Moscow, Tuesday, and returned with a brand new Ford touring car—1926 model, balloon tires, streamline body genuine automobile brake bands, imitation cowl ventilator, real fenders and nearly everything that goes with a real car. When they drove into town there were few people who recognized it as the universal car.

John Halseth arrived Wednesday from Deary where he has been employed in the camps. He reports conditions quiet in the lumber woods as many of the camps are closing down for the winter.

S. A. McAllister stated this week that 13 years ago the 4th of this month it began snowing and kept it up continuously for sixty hours. It took most of the Potlatchers some time to dig themselves out so they could get to town.

Mrs. O. E. MacPherson and son, Donald, and Mrs. R. E. Ramey were passengers on the Wednesday morning train for Spokane.

Manford Nutt of Juliaetta was transacting business in Kendrick, Tuesday afternoon.

R. B. Parks of Leland was transacting business in Lewiston the first of the week.

John L. Woody returned home last Friday from Coeur d'Alene where he attended the funeral of the late M. B. Lewis.

The ten year old son of Mr. and Mrs. Walter Hoffman of Agatha suffered a fractured collar bone and Mr. Hoffman was cut and bruised when the car in which they were riding went over the embankment on the north side of the Clearwater river, a short distance above Lewiston, Monday evening. The car skidded on a slippery road.

In remitting his subscription to the Gazette, Lyman Vaughan, formerly of Linden, now residing at Milton, Oregon, writes as follows: "I have just started a dray line here. Shoveled a few loads of coal today. Thought I had better pay my bills or I might have to shovel coal here after. We have had a fine winter so far. Only one little skiff of snow."

Funeral of Mrs. Oscar Palm

The funeral of Mrs. Oscar Palm, of Yamhill, Oregon, who passed away Saturday morning, January 2, was held at the Wild Rose cemetery on Bear ridge, Monday afternoon. Rev. N. E. Beach conducted the services. Besides her husband, Mrs. Palm is survived by a daughter, Pauline, her mother, Mrs. Emma Stockwell, of Clarkston; six sisters, Mrs. P. A. Evarts, Baylon, Mont.; Mrs. A. D. Avery, Spokane, Wash.; Mrs. Frank Sanderson, Bovill, Idaho; Mrs. J. J. Broeke, Kendrick, Idaho; Mrs. Ed Bellows, Northport, Wash.; Mrs. F. D. Baker, Portland, Oregon; and two brothers, James Stockwell of Bovill, and C. M. Stockwell of Clarkston.

Mrs. Palm had been a member of the Clarkston Church of Christ for the past three years.

Mrs. Margaret Gertje Dead

Mrs. Margaret Gertje, pioneer resident of the Potlatch region, died Monday afternoon at the home of her son, Henry Gertje, in Lewiston Orchards of an illness incident to her advanced age, she being 88 years old. She was a native of Germany.

Mrs. Gertje came to the United States from the old country 55 years ago and to Cameron about 30 years ago, where she and her husband took up a homestead. They resided there until her husband's death 20 years ago and since Mrs. Gertje had lived much of the time with her children. She has been in the Lewiston Orchards for several years.

Mrs. Gertje was a woman of many fine qualities and attracted to herself many friends. She has been a member for many years of the Lutheran church. She is survived by four sons and a daughter, George, of Russell; Herman, Oregon City, Oregon; Edward, of Cameron; Henry, of Lewiston Orchards, and Mrs. Mary Tiede, residing in south Idaho.

Burial was made in the family plot at Cameron.—Tribune.

Death of Mrs. James Ball

Word was received last evening, just as the Gazette went to press, stating that Mrs. James Ball of Linden, had passed away at her home, at 5:20 p. m. yesterday afternoon.

Mrs. Ball has been suffering for some time from cancer. No arrangements have as yet been made for the funeral.

Our Oldest Subscriber

Mrs. M. A. Deobald of American ridge has taken the Gazette for the past 33 years. We believe she has been on the subscription list of this paper longer than any of our subscribers. We haven't said anything to her about it but we have marked her subscription another year ahead for being such a good friend to the paper. She is now paid two years in advance.

Mrs. Lyle Harrison went to Spokane, Wednesday morning, to visit her sister for a few days.

Leland Items

Harrison Daugherty made a quick trip to Lewiston, Monday, in his car, reporting the roads to be more than rough.

Mr. and Mrs. Howard Smith returned home from Peek, Monday, where they spent the holidays with her parents.

Ross Hoffman, who now resides at Kooskia, and carries the mail up the middle fork of the Clearwater, was visiting relatives and friends here last week.

Russell Smith went to Moscow, Monday, to attend the funeral of George Sibert, who died in a government hospital at Boise, December 31.

Miss Ada Bean of Big Bear ridge has been visiting relatives here for the past few days.

Len Yeuni has been appointed road overseer here at Leland.

A pleasant surprise party was given at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Virgil Flesman Wednesday evening, as a house warming and welcome to them into our midst. A large crowd was present and everyone had a good time playing games, after which supper was served.

The Epworth League will give a Radio Program next Sunday evening, which will take up both league and church hour. There will be a splendid program and everyone is cordially invited to attend. They are urged to come and hear the local talent.

Miss Georgia Flesman entertained her class at her home Tuesday evening. The young people report an exceptionally good time and hope she will entertain often.

The Ladies Missionary Society will serve a waffle supper Friday evening, January 15, at the hall. Everyone invited. So don't forget the time and place, because the ladies know how to make them right. Don't miss it.

The community gathering New Year's day was a very pleasant one. The dinner was provided by the ladies and was very substantial and generous, as there was away too much after all had eaten. After the dinner, all repaired to the auditorium, where the men were to furnish the program. Mr. Woodward with a mind richly stored in reminiscence, told us how it used to rain in Leland. Mr. DeWinter sang a comic song and Prof. Calvert recited two excessively funny readings. The men's chorus, made up of men and boys did very well, after which Rev. Taber spoke for a few moments. It was a pleasant afternoon and the meeting broke up with the understanding that the next New Year's day, the ladies entertain and the men get the dinner.

Perfect News

From time immemorial, reporters have been instructed: "If a dog bites a man, that is not news. If a man bites a dog, however, that's good stuff—write it up." Whether there has ever before been a perfect piece of news, I do not know but here is one. It fulfills all the requirements. M. DeMouche was hunting rabbits in the Neufbrisch forest near Mulhouse, in the Alsace-Lorraine. He laid his shotgun down in order to take a captured rabbit out of a snare. Another rabbit leaped out of a thicket and landed on the shotgun's trigger. DeMouche received the full charge in his back. Paraphrasing we have: "If a man shoot a rabbit, it is not news. If a rabbit shoot a man—there it is, a perfect piece of news.—Ex.

Where Great Radio Inventions Were First Produced

ALL the leading authorities in Radio know of the famous Thompson laboratories, for during the past 16 years over 116 different types of Radio apparatus have been designed and manufactured by Thompson; many of the important problems of Radio were solved by Thompson Engineers.

Many of the intricate devices used by sailors on the seas, soldiers on the field of battle, and operators in the aeroplanes and submarines, came out of the Thompson Plant. The Radio direction finder, the sonic depth finder, the light-weight aeroplane transmitter, etc., etc., pay tribute to Thompson renown.

This bulwark of scientific and research Radio experience stands back of Thompson products today. It's your assurance that in design, manufacture and performance, Thompson Radio will meet your critical expectations.

THE CONCERT GRAND
