

NEWS NOTES FROM THE KENDRICK SCHOOLS

What The Students Are Doing This Week.

The mothers, fathers, and others who are interested in the first and second grades are cordially invited to the Valentine party to be given Monday, the 14th at 2:30 in the primary room. There is to be a musical program, refreshments, then the distribution of Valentines.

The two little visitors for last Friday afternoon were Verne Langdon and Dickie Carlson. They enjoyed the afternoon, which was devoted to making Valentines, story telling, singing and playing games.

The Valentine Box in the middle of the room is about a foot high and half full of Valentines.

The songs which were learned last week are "Baa, Baa-Black Sheep", "Little Jack Horner", "Hickory, Dickory Dock", and "Subtraction".

The fifth grade history class is making a detailed study of the life of Abraham Lincoln. Much reference work is being done. They are writing stories about the different periods in Lincoln's life and illustrating them with drawings and other pictures. Each pupil will bind his or her stories into booklet form with appropriate covers.

The sixth grade geography class is working hard on a detailed study of Idaho. They are making a series of maps. The first one showing the physical features of the state, the next the political divisions, including counties and county seats. A crop map and one showing the location of the different natural resources of the state will also be made.

The windows of Miss Weaver's room have been decorated with bowls of daffodils and geraniums which give it a real atmosphere of spring.

The boys' basketball team of the fifth and sixth grades played their second game with the girls' team Wednesday evening. The boys were the real champions this time, defeating the girls by a score of 13 to 0. It was too much for the boys' pride to be defeated by the girls so they were very careful it didn't happen again. Their playing showed a marked improvement. Elbert Long refereed the game.

The seventh and eighth grade attendance last week was below average. This week, they start with 100 percent. They are just getting well started with their second semester work. This semester the average of their grades in each subject goes to the County Superintendent as a guide for her in making the final average for their diplomas. Seventeen of them are working for success.

The seventh graders are having troubles of their own in arithmetic. A little more intensive work will right matters, they think.

The General Assembly program, last Friday, was given by the Juniors, and was as follows: Bible reading, "Hester Knepper General song", "Georges Accident", a play by the fifth and sixth grades; General song.

The play by the fifth and sixth grades was very interesting and much enjoyed by all the students.

Friday night, February 11th, both the girls' and boys' teams of Lapwai will play a basketball game with our high school teams. The Kendrick high school girls have played no games except for practice, this year, but they have an exceptionally good game ahead and one you cannot afford to miss.

The lineup for the girls team is: Forwards, Leora Aiken and Margaret McDowell; guards, Lizzie Jones and Mae Freytag; centers, Mabel Taber and Margaret Gertje. Subs: Forward, Hester Knepper; guard, Helen Emmett; center, Josephine Wilkens.

The boys won from Culesac and the general opinion is that they will defeat Lapwai. The town should support the teams, as this is the last conference

Genesee 28, Kendrick 17

Genesee added another victory to its string last Saturday night by again defeating Kendrick. The game was played at Genesee, the score resulting 28 to 17. It was a spirited contest from start to finish but Kendrick was unable to check the periodical scoring of the fast Genesee aggregation.

Boyle, Genesee forward, was high scorer with 22 points to his credit. Sparber, Kendrick center, was next with 13. Although he did not hack up many baskets, Webber, the other Genesee forward, played a whirlwind game. He was in the thick of the fight throughout and was a big factor in providing the opportunities for his teammate, Boyle, to score.

Lineup and individual scoring follow: Genesee: Boyle (22) and Webber (2), forwards; Flomer (1), center; Cameron (2) and Hampton (1), guards. Kendrick: Cook (1) and Dammarell (2), forwards; Sparber (13), center; Ingle (1) and Walter Sparber, guards.

Referee—Estes, Moscow.

Genesee 15, Kendrick 10

The Genesee high school boys took the long end of the score here last Friday night in the best game played on the floor this season. The visitors have one of the best teams in the conference. The low score of 10 to 15 was due to close guarding on the part of both teams. A good sized crowd attended the game.

Boyle, Genesee forward, won high point honors by tallying 10 counters; R. Sparber, Kendrick center, was next with 8. Sparber played conspicuously for Kendrick and Boyle and Cameron, guards, showed up best for the visitors.

The lineup and individual scoring follows:

Genesee: Boyle (10) and Webber (2), forwards; Flomer, center; Cameron (3) and Hampton, guards.

Kendrick: Cook and Long (2), forwards; R. Sparber (8), center; Ingle and Walter Sparber, guards.

Referee: Eddie White, Lewiston.

Lapwai 28, Kendrick 27

The Lapwai town team played the Kendrick town boys a nip and tuck game here Wednesday evening at the high school gym. At the end of the first period the score stood 17 to 12 in favor of the locals.

The second period ended in a tied score 24-24. An extra five minutes was played and Lapwai nosed out with a one-point lead.

The lineup for Kendrick was Harry and Egnaz Flaig, forwards; Ed Dammarell and Claud Cook, guards; Roy Sparber, center. Referee: Harley Perryman.

The same team expects to play at Genesee next Wednesday evening.

W. O. W. Will Entertain

Invitations are being mailed for the annual entertainment to be given by White Pine Camp No. 204. W. O. W., next Wednesday evening at the Fraternal Temple. This annual entertainment and party is always an enjoyable affair. A program will be rendered, refreshments served, after which there will be cards and dancing.

The Domestic Science girls will give a dinner and party, Thursday, February 17. The class, with their guests, will attend. The dinner will be served by the girls and will be very good practice for them.

The English I and II classes are all writing essays on Abraham Lincoln, to try for the prize medal.

Margaret McDowell won her 50-word silver pin in typewriting a few weeks ago. This is for writing 50 words a minute, for 15 minutes, on an Underwood typewriter, according to the Underwood rules.

Eastern Star Party

After the regular session of the local Eastern Star chapter, Tuesday evening, a card party was enjoyed by the members and their husbands or wives. Mrs. O. E. MacPherson and John Woody carried off prizes for the high scores. Refreshments of ice cream, cake and coffee were served.

ITEMS OF INTEREST FROM SOUTHWICK

Written for Gazette by Special Correspondent

Mrs. Christensen and son, George, of Crescent, were in town Sunday.

Dick Winegartner and family of Crescent and Leslie Triplett and family were Sunday guests at the home of Gordon Harris.

Oral Craig and family of Leland and Jesse Thornton and family spent Sunday with Mr. and Mrs. Vester Whiting.

Mrs. John Melver returned home Monday night from her trip to California and Oregon.

Owen Thornton and wife, who went to Portland last fall for the winter, have returned to Southwick enroute to his home at Weippe. He says there is too much rain there to suit him.

Mr. and Mrs. George Jones spent Sunday at the home of John Letenmaier.

Clarence Henderson and family were the overnight guests of Vester Whiting.

Services are being held at the U. B. Church every evening this week by Rev. George Calvert.

A large crowd attended the high school play given at the school house last Saturday evening. The proceeds amounted to eighty-five dollars, which will go toward making a payment on the piano.

Miss Penny received word Tuesday evening of the serious illness of her mother. She left immediately for her home at Forest Grove.

A large party consisting of Mr. and Mrs. Floyd Russell and family, Mr. and Mrs. J. W. Henderson and daughter, Nellie; Mr. and Mrs. Clarence Henderson and little daughter, Mr. and Mrs. A. W. McCoy and family, and Mr. and Mrs. Elton McCoy attended the birthday dinner given at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Ben McCoy, Sunday, in honor of Mrs. Elton McCoy.

Mr. Longteig has returned home from Boise, having been called there by the serious illness of his father. He reports his father as being much better when he left.

Mrs. C. A. Cuddy has been quite ill at her home east of town, but last reports are that she is much better.

Wm. Baker, who has been visiting with relatives left for Orofino, Tuesday.

Purchased Theatre Equipment

Otto Schupfer purchased the theatre equipment in Juliaetta recently, including moving picture machine, chairs and fixtures. He will add the machine here to the New Kendrick theatre, so that a full picture program may be shown without stopping to change reels.

Otto and Herman Schupfer are majority stockholders in the New Kendrick Theatre and will take over the management of the theatre about April 1. Otto conducted the theatre in Juliaetta for the past two years.

Carload of Horses Arrives

The carload of horses shipped here from Montana by Cabe & Harris, arrived the middle of this week. They will be sold at public auction at Boyd's corral tomorrow. G. P. Anderson will clerk the sale and N. H. Mors, auctioneer. The sale will start at 1 o'clock sharp.

Walter Housley has been unable to look after his dairy business this week on account of illness. He expects to be on the job again next week.

Commercial Club Next Tuesday

Owing to a misunderstanding of the meeting of the Kendrick commercial club was delayed for one week. It will be held next Tuesday evening at the regular hour. Matters of importance will be brought up for consideration and it is expected that a large crowd will be in attendance.

HOME TALENT PLAY AND GOOD MUSIC

Given, February 22, by Kendrick Choral Society.

On Tuesday evening, February 22nd, at the New Kendrick Theatre, the Choral Society will present to the public, a side-splitting comedy entitled: "The Old Maids' Club."

Scene of play: Kendrick, Idaho. Time: Forty years ago.

Characters: Miss Luella Primrose—President of the club, Mrs. O. E. MacPherson.

Miss Susan Jane Hopewell—Vice president, Mrs. R. D. Newton.

Miss Maria Jane Hopewell—Treasurer, Mrs. Edgar Long.

Miss Sallie Brown—Secretary, Mrs. A. K. Carlson.

Augusta Wind—Had romance with prominent Kendrick Bachelor, Mrs. George Anderson.

Miss Dora Doolittle—Who knits slippers, Mrs. Hugh Stanton.

Miss Viola Longfellow—Maid and lover of cats, Mrs. Wm. Watts.

Miss Martha Weinhauber—German spinster, Mr. Horst Gunther.

Miss Betsy Bobinet—From Southwick, Mrs. Carl Carlson.

Mr. Tommy Doolittle—Assistant treasurer and pet of the club, Mr. George Anderson.

Mr. Philip James—Reporter for the Kendrick Gazette; he has magic berries, Mr. Roy Ramey.

Double for Dora—Miss Alberta Walker.

Every member of the Choral Society has worked hard the past six weeks to prepare for this coming entertainment, and it is hoped that they may have loyal support from Kendrick and those from near-by towns, for it is with the proceeds from the coming entertainment, that costumes for the opera "Almond Eyes" will be bought.

Watch for the musical program in next week's Gazette.

Remember the date, and come!

Isaac Talbert Kimbley

Isaac Talbert Kimbley was born at Redfield, Kansas, Sept. 22, 1875. All of his boyhood life being spent in and around his birth place. Later as a young man he emigrated to the northwest, drifting into the mining sections of Idaho and British Columbia, where he spent several years. After a time he again took up his boyhood vocation of farming, finally settling in the vicinity of Crescent, Idaho, where on the 29th day of January 1927, he passed out of this life at the age of 51 years 4 months and 7 days.

In the year 1916 he was united in marriage with Anna Marie Dorendorf of Crescent. To this union were born three daughters and two sons, Margaret, Irene and Edna; Lloyd and Robert. All of whom, with his wife, survive him; also three sisters and one brother are still living, Mrs. Anna Carroll, Seattle, Wash.; Ada Watson, Parsons, Kansas; Ed Kimbley, Redfield, Kansas.

Bert, as he was familiarly known by everyone, was possessed of that great universal quality of love on which his life was based. Conscious of his shortcomings, his great soul bridged the chasm of prejudice and anchored him to the eternal truth that life is a part of the universal plan and he passed out of this life satisfied and unperplexed.—Contributed.

Wm. Behrens went to Lewiston on business yesterday morning.

Harrison-Clem

On Saturday, February 5th at eight o'clock in the evening a very pretty home wedding took place at the home of Mr. and Mrs. E. Harrison, west of Leland, when their daughter, Beryl, was united in marriage to Wm. Clem of Kendrick. The ceremony was performed before an improvised altar of evergreen. Pink and white decorations were used throughout the rooms. The single ring service was read by The Rev. E. A. Rein of Cameron.

The bride was attired in a dainty gown of lace and pale blue taffeta with an embroidered spanish shawl about her shoulders. She carried a bouquet of pink and white roses. After the ceremony a wedding supper was served.

The bride is a graduate of the Kendrick High School and at present is attending the State Normal at Lewiston from which she will graduate in May. The groom was raised in Kendrick where his parents still reside. At present he is working on the Dam at Lewiston, but after June 1st the young couple will make their home on the Kirby ranch, adjoining the E. Harrison place and will be at home to their friends. The entire community wishes them well.

Oddfellows Have Big Time

The special meeting held here last Monday by the I. O. O. F. Lodge was a grand success from every standpoint. One hundred and twenty Oddfellows were present from Lewiston, Juliaetta, Leland, Troy and other points to witness degree work by the Lewiston team. Seven candidates from Leland and five from Kendrick lodges took the first degree.

After the degree work a fine lunch was served and a social hour enjoyed. A number of speeches were delivered by some of the visitors. Thirty members from the Lewiston lodge came up in a big auto stage to attend the meeting. A general good time was reported.

What's The Matter With Idaho?

There is nothing the matter with Idaho, except that entirely too many of us get up every morning at the alarm of a Connecticut clock, button a pair of Chicago trousers to a pair of Ohio suspenders, put on a pair of shoes made in Massachusetts, wash in a Pittsburgh tin basin, using Cincinnati soap, use cotton towel made in New Hampshire from cotton grown in old Georgia; sit down to a Grand Rapids table, eat pancakes made of flour from Minnesota; covered with Vermont maple syrup and Kansas City bacon fried on a St. Louis stove; buy fruit put up in California, seasoned with Rhode Island spices, put on a hat made in Philadelphia, hitch a Detroit tin mule fed on Texas gasoline to an Ohio plow and work like H— all day long on an Idaho farm covered with a New England mortgage; send out money to Chicago for school supplies, wondering why our taxes are so high and at night crawl under an Oregon blanket to be kept awake by a D—d dog, the only home product on the place—wondering why ready money and prosperity are not more abundant in this wonderful state of ours.—Adapted by Norman B. Adkinson, Manager, Idaho Home Industries Association.

Likes Them Plump

A little girl in the third grade was telling her mother of her love affair. "He's nice and he likes me," she confided. "Well," her mother advised. "Don't take it too seriously. When you get into the upper grades or high school you'll forget all about each other." "Oh, no," the child insisted. "We'll date until we are married." The mother laughed. "What makes you think he'll like you that long?" she asked her small daughter. "Because," the little girl answered proudly. "Because he says he likes 'em plump."—Ex.

Deary May Organize Grange

Several weeks ago the farmers of the Moscow section, and others interested in the welfare of agriculture organized a grange. Considerable interest developed and the membership is steadily growing. G. O. P. Mix and numerous others who have prominently identified with agriculture and the farmers' welfare in general, are the leading spirits in the movement.

The question of organizing a grange at Deary is being discussed in an informal way by some of the farmers of this section. It is possible that Mr. Mix may be asked to address a meeting here later and to explain the objects and purposes of the grange. This may result in forming an organization here.

The Press has no information as to the activities of the grange, except that it is non-political and works along educational, economic and social lines. It is an old society—our fathers and grandfathers belonged to it—and we can remember that they had some powerful big doings. Deary Press.

Highway Closed to Heavy Traffic

The North and South highway has been closed to heavy traffic, by order of the highway department, and it will behoove those with heavy trucks to watch their step as the road is getting quite soft and the highway authorities will stand for no monkey business. One heavy truck can do inestimable damage to the highway in one trip and it would cost several hundred dollars to again place it as it was before they passed over it.

It has been stated that some of them, in order to avoid the traffic regulations, have been starting out at night. This also will be looked after and if they are caught they will have to pay for the privilege and explain to the judge why they were traveling at night on a closed highway.—Genesee News.

Fired at Sheriff Summerfield

Wilbur C. Pettibone is being sought by the Latah county sheriff's office on a charge of unlawful possession of intoxicating liquor when carrying firearms, as the result of shots alleged taken by Pettibone at Latah county officials early Sunday morning on Moscow streets. The charge, a felony, is punishable under Idaho statutes by imprisonment in the state penitentiary of from one to five years.

Belief that sufficient information was gathered to disclose a large liquor ring in the city was expressed by Sheriff Charlie Summerfield Monday afternoon. The officials refused to name parties or to discuss the disclosure, although it is understood that evidence will be placed before the federal grand jury convening here in April at the spring term of the United States court under Judge E. V. Cavanaugh.

Pettibone, it is alleged, ran from officials when Sheriff Summerfield attempted to arrest him after witnessing sale of intoxicating liquor by Pettibone to a Lewiston party. He is alleged to have thrown a bottle of whiskey away when pursued and then is alleged to have turned and fired a shot at the sheriff. He made his escape, outdancing Summerfield near Fourth street.—Star-Mirror.

Ira Bolon suggests that the sportsmen in this locality unite on a date for an organized magpie hunt sometime in the near future. As everybody knows, these birds are a menace to game birds, destroying the eggs at hatching time and thus making severe inroads on the number of birds each season. In Orofino they are going to put on a competitive hunt to destroy magpies, the losers to pay for the dinner for the hunters. Why not set a date for something of the kind here? There are plenty of sportsmen who would join in on the hunt.

True

"One little flower in the sick room is worth a bushel of them on the casket. One little word of encouragement to the living is worth more than the grandest funeral oration ever spoken."

Just Suppose

Just suppose, for instance, that when Wrigley started out in the gum making business, he had said: O, I can't afford to advertise, and had not advertised any until this day; what would have been the result of Wrigley's business venture? Advertising made Wrigley a multi-millionaire out of a simple little business in chewing gum, millions of packages of which must be sold every month to show any profit. We could cite hundreds of similar examples where consistent and liberal advertising has made the ones who used it leaders in their lines of business. No one can cite a single example of business that was achieved without advertising. No one of business sense could fail to see the moral of these facts, and yet we have in every town people "in business" who will say: I can't afford to advertise, and "it don't pay to advertise." Such a business may continue to exist, but never makes a big growth; if a competitor comes in with a wide-awake management, who advertises consistently from the beginning and keeps it up. The non-advertiser gradually but surely loses patronage; the advertising competitor forges ahead, and soon the non-advertiser finds himself playing second fiddle, and wondering why business is so rotten, and blames it on everything under the sun except the real cause, his short-sighted policy of "saving money" by not advertising. —Exchange.

Crescent Clippings

Miss Eva Slatter returned last Sunday evening from Leland where she visited with her parents while school was closed. School opened again Monday morning. Every scholar was present.

Mr. and Mrs. P. G. Rew were pleasantly surprised by a crowd of friends Saturday evening. After several hours spent in dancing and playing games, a delightful lunch was served. Everyone reported having a very enjoyable time.

Mr. and Mrs. Oral Craig and family and Mr. and Mrs. Vester Evans and family arrived Tuesday to visit their parents Mr. and Mrs. M. L. Robeson, and help them celebrate their wedding anniversary.

Mr. and Mrs. John Darby and children, and Mrs. H. E. Rudolph and daughter, were Sunday guests at the P. G. Rew home.

Some of the "talented ones" are practicing for a play to be given in the near future. Watch for it.

JULIAETTA COMMUNITY NEWS

Junior Club Organized

When Miss Johansen of Moscow visited the Girls' Sewing Club, she expressed her wish of having a junior sewing club organized, since there are quite a number of girls who are not eligible to join the same club of girls who have had four years of experience in club work.

Mrs. W. J. Cochran, being in the work, organized the junior club Thursday of last week and seven girls enrolled as members. The officers were elected as follows: President, Alice Cochran; Vice president, Gertrude Gruell; Secretary, Mabel Nigh; Treasurer, Thelma Spray. The club members met again Saturday and had their first lesson in sewing, under the leadership of Mrs. Cochran. Misses Alice Cochran and Fern Perry served refreshments.

Julietta News

The commercial club met last Thursday evening for the purpose of electing officers for the ensuing year. The officers elected are: President, N. M. Talbott; vice president, W. J. Cochran; and secretary and treasurer, A. W. Behrens. This club, though having been organized three years ago, has been inactive for the past two years, but this year its members felt the necessity of reviving it from dormancy.

Sunday School Council Meets

Last Sunday afternoon the Sunday School Council, which consists of the superintendent, the various teachers and members of the different committees, met in the Methodist church. These meetings are held monthly and are very helpful in enabling the officers and teachers to carry on the work in an effective and harmonious way. At this meeting, however, plans were discussed for reviving the Junior Bible Class and also the Boys' Comrade Class, which had been united with the girls class. There was a lively discussion in favor of re-organizing the Junior Epworth League.

Julietta Locals

Mrs. Mary Nutt returned last Friday from southern Idaho, where she has been visiting for some time with her daughters, Miss Crystal Ottosen and Mrs. Lillian Lawry.

The Junior Sewing Club met Monday after school at the home of their leader, Mrs. W. J. Cochran.

Bernard Dustan of Lewiston was a visitor in Julietta, Monday.

The members of the Baptist Junior organization had a party in the basement of the church Saturday afternoon.

H. Gunther had blood poison in one of his fingers, last week, which resulted from a match burn.

Mrs. W. Buchanan spent the week end visiting in Spokane.

Miss Greene, who has been visiting here with her parents, Mr. and Mrs. T. O. Greene, returned to Idaho Falls, Sunday.

J. L. Woody and A. W. Behrens were business visitors in Lewiston, Monday.

Miss Forbes of Troy spent the week end with her sister, Mrs. Roy Metcalf.

Mrs. Eben Adams motored to Lewiston, Saturday.

Mr. and Mrs. Charles Hill of Potlatch ridge went to Spokane, Sunday.

Forrest Gallaher returned last Monday after a week's visit with relatives in Kamiah.

Wilfred Kimberling was a Lewiston visitor last Friday.

Mrs. L. Houck is on the sick list this week.

Mrs. G. H. Daugherty was a business visitor in Kendrick last Tuesday.

The Misses Clara Nye and Wilma Vincent were Lewiston visitors this week.

Louis Reichman, who is attending the university at Moscow, spent the week end visiting with his father.

Mrs. Crutehfield returned Sunday after an extended visit at the Rev. Dill's home at Wheeler, Idaho.

J. C. Hamil returned from Lewiston, Saturday.

Mrs. J. Perry and Mr. and Mrs. Albert Cole, were visitors in Lewiston last week.

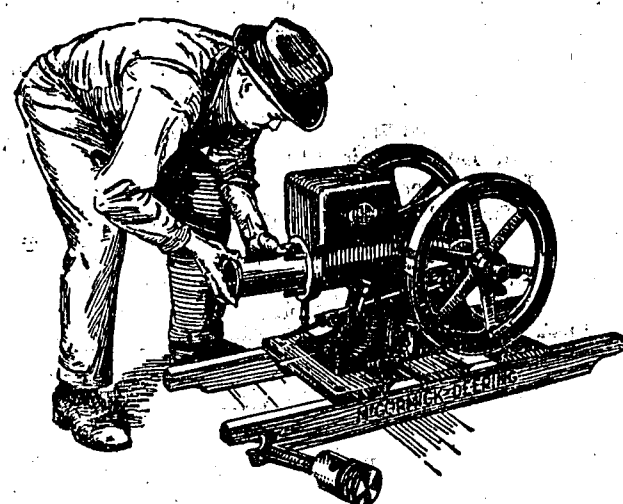

Rev. Metcalf resumed his duty of filling the pulpit at Sweet-water and Arrow, Sunday.

The Baptist Missionary Society held its monthly meeting, Thursday afternoon at the Baptist church. The meeting was well attended and refreshments were served after the business was dispensed with.

McCormick-Deering Engines

We are mighty glad to demonstrate them, as they surely are good outfits. Designed with a view toward extra years of satisfactory service, and built to make every feature count.

Removable cylinder, enclosed crankcase, high-tension magneto, simple fuel mixer, replaceable bearings and other parts, and FULL POWER in every size, are some of the reasons why these engines are so hard to get. Farmers and others have long since learned that it pays to tie up with McCormick-Deering when an engine is needed, just as it does when any other fifty and more lines of machines are required. Town Grave-Diggers

In nearly every community may be found quite a number of persons who consider themselves leading citizens, but who in truth are helping to dig a grave for their town.

They do it through their failure to support the institutions which make the town what it is. They do it by sending away for merchandise which might be had with equal advantage at home. They do it frequently through thoughtlessness, but often through sheer disregard for the welfare of the community of which they are a part.

The doctrine of buying at home is not advanced solely in the interest of individual merchants. It is advocated because every citizen of a town is to a certain extent dependent upon every other citizen for his own prosperity. Business men are sometimes as greatly at fault as anyone else in the matter of out-of-town trading.

If the shoe dealer sends away for his automobile tires, and the automobile man sends away for his furniture, and the furniture man sends away for his clothing, and so on, how can they expect to build local prosperity?

All the fine talk about civic pride that we may indulge in will never make a town, so long as the life blood of the community—the cold cash—is spent elsewhere.

A man may make boosting speeches until he is black in the face, but unless he spends his money where he makes it he is a home-town grave-digger.— Idaho County Free Press.

Mr. and Mrs. Glen Fleshman were week end guests at the Harrison Daugherty home.

Miss Elizabeth Hund spent the week end with home folks.

Thomas Blankenship, who was taken to a Lewiston hospital last week for an operation, is reported much better at present writing.

Mr. and Mrs. Robert Draper and family were guests for Sunday dinner at the H. C. Jones home.

Mrs. Julia Fleshman was quite ill for several days last week.

Mr. and Mrs. Raymond Blankenship were callers at the Wm. Gephart home Saturday.

Mrs. L. L. Davis is enjoying a visit with old friends from California, Mrs. Rodgers and son, Herbert.

Emmett Thornton was operated on Sunday evening at the St. Joseph hospital for appendicitis. He is getting along nicely.

Mrs. DeWinter and Mrs. Yenni entertained the Ladies Missionary Society last Thursday at the home of Mrs. DeWinter at an all day business and social meeting. In spite of the rainy weather twenty-five ladies were present and reported a splendid time.

The community meeting last Friday evening was well attended, and an excellent program given. The proceeds from the basket social amounted to seventy-five dollars and will be used to help build the new sidewalk.

Grinolds District News

A number from this section attended the high school play, "Cyclone Sally," given at Southwick Saturday night. The play was a success. The talent of the different characters expressed in carrying out their respective parts, would have done credit to a high school much larger than Southwick. The music alone was well worth the price of admission.

The following students were neither absent nor tardy for the school month ending February 4th: Alma Bennett, Heine, Joseph and Tommy Wittman, Emma and Edwardine Wegner, Roy Gertje, Warner Brammer and Thelma Mill.

Mr and Mrs. C. Davis spent Saturday evening at the Jake Newman home.

Henry Brammer and family were the Sunday dinner guests of Mr. and Mrs. August Meyer. Mr. and Mrs. Frank Wittman spent Sunday evening with Mr. and Mrs. C. Davis.

Marie and Ernest Schwartz spent Sunday with Walter and Irene Meyers.

The school is planning a Valentine play and card party at the school house, Friday evening, February 11th. Everyone is invited to come and spend a sociable evening.

Mr. W. Lowe and family spent a very enjoyable evening, Saturday, at the Wm. Bleck home.

Raise Your Own Cows

Idaho farmers should raise, instead of import, the cows for their future herds, says Prof. F. W. Atkeson, University of Idaho dairy husbandman.

"In the first place," Professor Atkeson points out, "cows can be raised in Idaho as cheaply as or more cheaply than in other states, because the price of feeds, especially alfalfa hay, is much lower than in most states. Secondly, the practice of maintaining herds by purchasing cows invariably results in slower progress in herd improvement because a farmer must constantly buy the less desirable animals from other herds. By the use of high quality herd sires and proper methods of rearing calves from the better cows rapid improvement may be effected."

There were, on January 1, 1926, approximately 163,000 dairy cows in Idaho, according to Professor Atkeson. Usually cows are milked about five years, which means they are replaced when they are about seven years of age. On this basis it would be necessary to raise 32,600 dairy calves each year in order to replenish the existing herds. Furthermore, he says, dairying is expanding very rapidly in Idaho. More than enough calves to maintain the present herds are now being raised.

Considering the cost of getting calves to producing age, more than two million dollars must be spent each year in raising dairy cows to replace the ones that are discarded. The expenditure of such a vast sum annually requires careful study of the problem. Professor Atkeson stresses the idea that it is essential the calves be reared properly so that they will be valuable cows; otherwise the expense is not justified.

Important to Eradicate Bots

Effective and Economical Treatment Outlined in Recent Bulletin.

(Prepared by the United States Department of Agriculture.)

Anyone who has had anything to do with horses is more or less familiar with botflies and the annoyance they cause. Until recently, however, when a species known as the nose fly, new to this country, began to spread over the North Central states, but little attention has been given to control of the pests. Investigations made a few years ago by the United States Department of Agriculture clearly point to a very effective and economical treatment for the control or even eradication of all three kinds of horse bots. The results of these studies are discussed in Farmers' Bulletin No. 1503-F, just issued.

Summer Annoyance Serious.

The annoyance of the flies during the summer when they are laying their eggs on the hairs of the horse is serious, especially that of the nose fly, which often makes the animals uncontrollable. Although the nose botfly is restricted to the North Central and the northern Rocky mountain states, it is gradually spreading, and steps should be taken to control it. The eggs of the botflies are taken into the digestive tract of the horse where they hatch into bots or maggots and become attached to the stomach and intestines. They require about a year for development before being passed on, during which time they not only interfere with digestion but may actually cause stoppage, resulting in death.

Certain repellents, such as a mixture of pine tar 3 1/2 ounces, kerosene 1 1/2 ounces, laundry soap 1 ounce, powdered resin 1 ounce, and hot water to make 14 ounces, have been found to some extent effective in keeping the flies away. A protective device to cover the throat and chin of the horse will aid in reducing the annoyance and egg laying on these parts when horses are at work. The device consists chiefly of a piece of canvas suspended under the jaws and extending from the throat latch to the bit rings.

Poison Kills Pests.

Devices and repellents to reduce fly annoyance do not necessarily reduce or control the number of bots. However, it has been found that internal treatment with carbon disulphide capsules, a poison which kills the bots or maggots in the digestive tract, is effective and satisfactory. When all horses, mules and colts in a community are treated systematically for two or three years to insure that no living bots drop to the ground, the number of bottles in the area will be greatly lessened. This treatment should be given in winter, after the flies have finished their egg laying. Suggestions for control or eradication of horse bots by community effort are outlined in this bulletin.

In certain sections where control work against horse bots has been in progress, many farmers declare that the number of cases of colic and other digestive disturbances has been greatly reduced, and that horses are kept in better flesh on the same feed than was possible before control work began.

A copy of the bulletin may be obtained, as long as the supply lasts, by writing to the United States Department of Agriculture, Washington, D. C.

Feeding Meat Animals Profitable Side Line

In several counties in New York state, especially those within a 50-mile radius of Buffalo, the feeding of western-raised lambs and steers during the winter is proving a profitable sideline. It has the big advantage of distributing labor more evenly throughout the year, uses up coarse roughage, and provides manure for farms which do not maintain a dairy.

It is a somewhat hazardous enterprise, however, subject to wide market fluctuations and to losses as a result of improper feeding, and even to occasional heavy losses from disease. Disease and parasites, according to the New York State College of Agriculture, are especially troublesome with respect to sheep.

The college has given some study to these problems and is prepared to offer practical advice to farmers this winter through farmer's institutes and other meetings held in each county under the auspices of local farm bureaus.

FARM NOTES

Change litter in the poultry house before it becomes damp and heavy.

It's a wise farm family that goes to the fairs for vocational as well as recreational benefits.

If winter seeding of sweet clover is practiced, unrefined seed should be used. Scarified seed will sprout and kill out before spring.

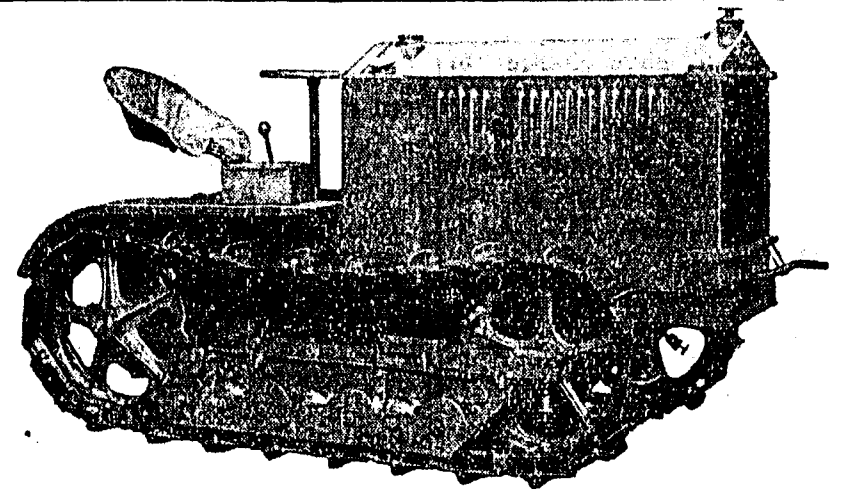

Numerous farmers make good money because they recognize a better farming method when they see it. And they put it into practice.

Worth Waiting For

After fifteen years in Canada a young Scotchman returned to Edinborough. He took his old uncle to the theatre. It became almost insufferably warm, and the young man suggested that a cold lemonade would not be amiss. "Wait until the intermission Willie," said the old man, "and I'll tell you a ghost story that will make you shiver." —Briscoe News.

Linden News

Clarence Harris had the misfortune of loosing his little finger of the left hand, while at work in his shop, Friday morning.

J. D. Perry arrived from Lewiston, Friday afternoon, where he visited his brother, Comadore, who is in the hospital recovering from the amputation of his left hand, which was injured while working at Harry Wright's mill. He is getting along nicely.

Mr. and Mrs. Roy Bohn spent Saturday evening and Sunday with Mr. and Mrs. Edgar Bohn.

Mrs. Louisa Fry, Grandma Keeler and C. E. Fonburg were guests at the Allen home Sunday.

The statement in last week's paper that there were two pupils from Linden taking the eighth grade examinations was incorrect. There were ten from Linden and four from Cedar Ridge. Miss Peterson was somewhat confused as to who should receive credits of this examination so our grades were held up until February 8th. Those who received diplomas are Viola Sadler, Forrest Whisler and Daniel Lyons. The highest grade was made by Viola Sadler with 99 in arithmetic and an average grade of ninety-one plus. All passed in history, the lowest grade in that subject being 85, James Keeler making 97 which was the highest in history.

Miss Hazel Grant and Norman Enger were guest of Mr. and Mrs. Arthur Bohn and Miss Mae Enger, Sunday.

A number of neighbors and friends gathered Saturday evening to surprise Mr. and Mrs. Percy Rew in their new home. The evening was spent in dancing and visiting. A lap supper was served at midnight.

He Snored Some

A traveling man put up one night in a cheap little hotel, where the thin partitions of a range of bedrooms, like the stalls of a stable, stopped halfway to the ceiling. And in the stilly watches of the night he lay awake and listened to the finest demonstration of plain and fancy snoring that it had ever been his fate to hear. It was full of sudden and awful variations. Sometimes strangulation seemed imminent; then, in the middle of a fantasia, the agony stopped suddenly, and there was silence. From a nearby room he heard a voice exclaim wearily, "Thank goodness! He's dead!" —Ex.
