KENDRICK TAKES JULIAETTA GAME

Cherry Pickers Defeated by Score of 8 to 0.

The dope sheet was upset last Sunday when Kendrick won an easy victory over the Juliaetta aggregation by a score of 8 to 0. on the Juliaetta grounds. It seemed that it was Kendrick's day to win, the breaks of the game favoring the visiting team from start to finish. Costly errors on the part of Juliaetta players were responsible for the size of the score.

Harry Ross, veteran pitcher, covered himself with glory by holding Juliaetta to 3 hits and securing 14 strikeouts. He pitched a great game and kept a steady pace all through the nine innings striking out the last five men at bat.

Albright for Juliaetta was not up to his usual form and did not receive the support that he should have had. He was taken out in the first of the eighth and replaced by Slickapoo.

A big crowd witnessed the game and helped to fatten the gate receipts for the Juliaetta club.

An Old Resident

An exchange tells of an old resident who has attained the great age of 110 according to local belief, says the Altoona Tribune. A traveling man got to talk to the old man and incidentally inquired: "Grandpa to what do you attribute your longevity?" The sage hesitated for a moment and he replied slowly: "I haven't really made up my mind yet. That's two or three of them patent medicine fellers a dickerin' with me."

Simpson was on his deathbed and the doctor had been detailed to tell him there was no hope. "I hope you broke the news to him gently," sobbed the tearful wife.

"Oh, yes," replied the physician briskly. "I told him if he had any bills to pay he'd better not wait till the first of the month." —A. L. Monthly.

Fire at Morley Residence

While driving past the Morley residence in the east part of Kendrick, last Friday afternoon, Dr. Moorhead noticed smoke coming through a broken window. On investigating he found that a bed close to the window was on fire. He broke the glass and extinguished the flames. Fire Chief Ed Deobald was called and found two partly burned matches on the floor just inside the window, indicating that the fire might have been of incendiary origin. Mr. and Mrs. Morley were at Greer visiting their son at the time of the fire.

LELAND SUFFERED DISASTROUS FIRE

Store Building and Warehouses Were Destroyed Sunday.

A fire of unknown origin destroyed several buildings in Leland and threatened to engulf the entire business section of the village in flames last Sunday morning. About six o'clock Claude Craig's store was discovered to be on fire from the inside. The fire could not be put out as the building soon broke into a mass of flames. A slight wind carried the fire toward the store of DeWinter & Goudzward, and it seemed for a time that that building would burn. But by the united efforts of the men of the community the building was saved. The machine shop of A. H. Smith & Sons caught fire and burned; the warehouse of DeWinter & Goudzward, and the ice house and light plant building of Claude Craig were also destroyed.

Mr. Craig's loss is reported at $3500 on the building and $1,000 on the contents. $1,000 dollar's insurance was carried on the building and no insurance on the stock and fixtures. A. H. Smith & Sons' loss was approximately $1500 which was mostly covered by insurance. DeWinter and Goudzward's loss was about $400, one half of which was insured.

School Notes

The high school play, "That's One on Bill", was given at Juliaetta last Thursday evening. The building was packed even out into the street. The audience seemed appreciative and all report a pleasant evening. In connection with this play a short one act play was given by some of the older folk of the Leland section, while Messrs. B. F. and Ed Flesherman furnished the music between acts. Other features were readings by Mr. Calvert and Mr. Snyder.

The Glee Club went to Lapwai Saturday evening to the County Musical. Four numbers were given. The Lapwai high school auditorium, with a seating capacity of 400 was soon filled and the Lapwai Theatre was also crowded. The program was given at both houses.

The Leland high school appreciate the loyalty shown by so many of the people of the community who accompanied them on their trips to Southwick, Lapwai and Juliaetta.

Last Friday the boys' and girls' baseball teams from Juliaetta played the Leland teams. The boys lost to Juliaetta while the girls won by a good margin.

The Nez Perce County High School Track and Field Meet will be held at Leland, May 14. A majority of the high schools of the county are planning to send delegations of both boys and girls. This will be the last day of school picnic as well as the track meet.

A tennis net has been purchased and the pupils are learning a new game called "Side-hill Tennis". The game is enjoyed even though a level court is not available.

NEWS FROM THE NEIGHBORING TOWNS

Clipped From Papers Published in Latah County.

Going To Be Happy

The public utilities commission having this week granted Andrew Wilmot's application to construct an electric power line to serve Deary, Helmer and Bovill, there is nothing now to hinder crowding the work along as rapidly as weather conditions will permit. Mr. Wilmot wants to get the line built and in operation as soon as possible. As for the feeling up here, his arrival in our midst will be the signal for a protracted orgy of happiness and joy—particularly on the part of the city fathers, who have been having the real grief all these municipal ownership years. —Deary Press.

Changes in Game Laws

E. C. Collins, new Latah county game warden, in an interview Thursday, pointed out changes in the Idaho game laws which effect sportsmen of Latah county. The changes govern licenses, game limits and seasonal limits.

Everyone over 14 years of age must have a license to hunt or fish this year, Mr. Collins declared. Formerly, women were not required to take out licenses.

"Fishing in Elk river and tributaries in Clearwater county is closed during April and May, and October and November this year," Mr. Collins said. "Other streams open for fishing May 15 and close December 31. The limit this year is slightly less, being limited to 25 fish in one day, or 40 in possession at one time. The weight limit is 15 pounds and one fish in one day, and 20 pounds in possession at one time."

There will be no open season in Latah county on native pheasants blue grouse, quail or prairie chickens this year, new regulations specify, Mr. Collins, says. The open season for Chinese and Hungarian pheasants comes during November, the bag limit remaining unchanged at four Chinese pheasants and not more than six birds total. —Star-Mirror.

Craig-Easterbrook

Miss Bonnie Craig, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Claude Craig of Leland, was married to Mr. Raymond Easterbrook, Wednesday, April 20. The ceremony took place at Wallace, Idaho, Rev. Wilfred Withington officiating. Mr. and Mrs. Geo. Souders were present as witnesses.

The happy couple left immediately on their honeymoon for Denver, Colorado, where the groom has relatives. Their future plans are indefinite.

The bride is a very popular young lady in the Leland community where she spent the greater part of her girlhood days. The groom was for a time engaged in farming near Leland, but recently has made his home in Wallace. The best wishes of a host of friends of the young people in this community are extended for a happy future.

Circumstantial Evidence

A man quite tipsy sagged down on the lobby lounge beside a dignified clergyman.

"This fine hotel," he began.

"Yes, I find it very comfortable," replied the divine.

"Whatja say to having a drink?" asked the boozey one genially.

The clergyman's face set severely. "No, thank you, I never touch the vile stuff."

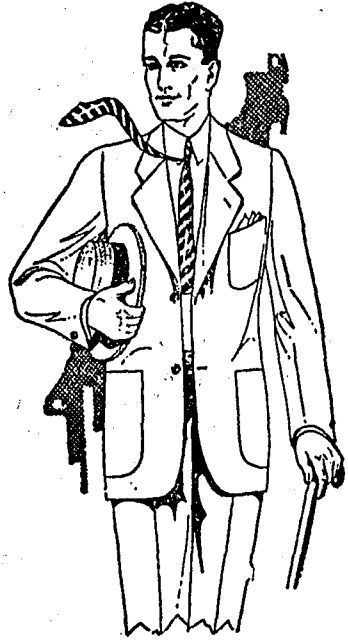

"Shay!" exclaimed the other, "whatja givin' me? You gotcha collar on backwards now!" —Ex.

In eastern America land that has been farmed 200 years is worn out and abandoned says an exchange. In China some of the land has been farmed 3,000 years. The Chinaman may need missionaries to show him how to save his soul, but he already knows how to save his soul.

An Omaha girl strangled to death eating popcorn balls. This ought to serve as a warning to popcorn ball consumers to take out accident insurance.

There have been so many cars and fivers sold around here during the past week that we haven't space to mention the individual buyers. This Potlatch country is either getting prosperous or going to the dogs, which ever way you want to look at it. One substantial Potlatch farmer bot a nice, new, car for his son to play with.

Did You Bite?

Some time ago the local post-office was flooded with a shipment of cheap neckties, which were sent to patrons of the office with a request to either return the ties to the sender or remit $1.25. The ties were enclosed in an envelope on which was a picture of a "blind man". The money received from the sale of these ties was supposed to help this poor supposedly blind individual, eke out an existence. It has lately developed that the "blind man" is a Jew who has very good eyesight but suffered the inconvenience of closing his eyes while he had his picture taken. How many of you folks were "taken in" by this slicker? Your home merchants don't use such methods.

Helps Calf Ration

Adding approximately one-ninth of a pound of calcium carbonate to a ration of prairie hay, cane silage, shelled corn and cottonseed meal for calves produced slightly greater gains at less cost per hundred pounds of gain than alfalfa hay, cane silage, shelled corn and cottonseed meal, in an experiment completed lately at the Kansas State Agricultural college experiment station.

FARM NOTES

No organization functions properly without organization.

The price of eggs this winter is from four to nine cents higher on a dozen than it was last year.

The farm value of crops produced in New York during 1925 showed an increase of 9 per cent over the preceding year.

Heavy grain feeding just before lambing may cause udder trouble. However, the ewes should have some grain at this time.

Apparently the supply of men who were born and reared on a farm and who have a college training is not increasing as fast as the demand.

Economical Production

The most important thing in economical milk production is the cow. The second important consideration is the feed and care which she receives. No matter how good the individual cow may be, she will not give good returns unless she has the feed that is necessary to maintain her body and keep that body working at maximum capacity. If a ration that is otherwise plentiful does not contain enough protein, when a portion of the feed will be wasted.

Acid Phosphate Assists Manure

When Properly Mixed It Helps Conserve Nitrogen in Form of Ammonia.

Many dairy farmers have found that acid phosphate used with manure in a rotation containing clover or alfalfa produces good yield of grain and hay without adding any other fertilizer. In an effort to find the best way to apply it, they have found it good practice to mix the acid phosphate with the manure in the barn, mix it in the heap as it is piled for storage, or to put it on the spreader as the manure is hauled out to the field, according to Prof. A. F. Gustafson of the Minnesota College of Agriculture.

Helps Conserve Nitrogen.

Any of these practices reduce the labor of applying the phosphate, but it does, however, require some labor to add it to the manure daily or as it is drawn to the field. Then, too, acid phosphate, when mixed with manure, helps conserve nitrogen, in the form of ammonia, while the manure is rotting.

In a feed-crop rotation on a dairy farm, he says, it will be as well and possibly more profitable to put all the acid phosphate, 600 to 800 pounds to the acre for an entire rotation, on the land at one time along with the manure. Applying eight loads of manure to the acre, 80 to 100 pounds of acid phosphate on each load puts on 640 to 800 pounds to the acre.

Buy It in Bulk.

Professor Gustafson says that, because bulk acid phosphate can be purchased at $6 a ton less than that which is bagged, it is an appreciable saving to buy it that way. "At the rate of 600 pounds to the acre, however, a carload, with a minimum of 20 tons will cover 50 to 70 acres, and therefore he suggests that three to five farmers might purchase a carload together. The saving of $6 a ton is 30 per cent of the price of the bagged material.

Land Now a Waste Will Return Profit in Trees

Drouth last spring and through the early summer was hard on tree growth in Minnesota. Many replacements must be made the coming spring in the shelterbelt demonstration projects carried on by the agricultural extension service of the university in co-operation with farmers. Co-operators who brought their small trees through the trying season were usually those who cultivated the land properly and provided a dust mulch which conserved moisture by preventing rapid evaporation. "The farmer is the largest individual user of wood; let him therefore find room for trees on the unused spots and corners of his farm," says Parker O. Anderson, extension forester of the University of Minnesota. "Make every acre produce a revenue of some kind."

Idea of Seriousness of Corn-Borer Situation

Some idea of the seriousness of the corn borer situation can be gained from the report from the annual field survey made by the corn borer laboratory of the bureau of entomology at Sandusky, Ohio, in 179 cornfields representing the older portion of the infested area of Ohio. These fields showed an average increase of infestation slightly exceeding 400 per cent, as compared with a similar survey in the same or near-by field in 1925. Similar results are anticipated for the annual comparative surveys in western New York and southeastern Michigan, when these surveys are completed.

San Jose Scale Pest

The San Jose scale is periodically a serious threat to fruit growing. It is apparently on one of its periods of increase at present. In some instances this period of increase may be due to a relaxation of thoroughness of spraying. During the last serious outbreak of scale, which threatened the industry in 1921, lubricating oil emulsion was developed as an insecticide to be used in the dormant season on deciduous fruits.

FARM FACTS

It will save labor next spring if lime is spread on the land this winter.

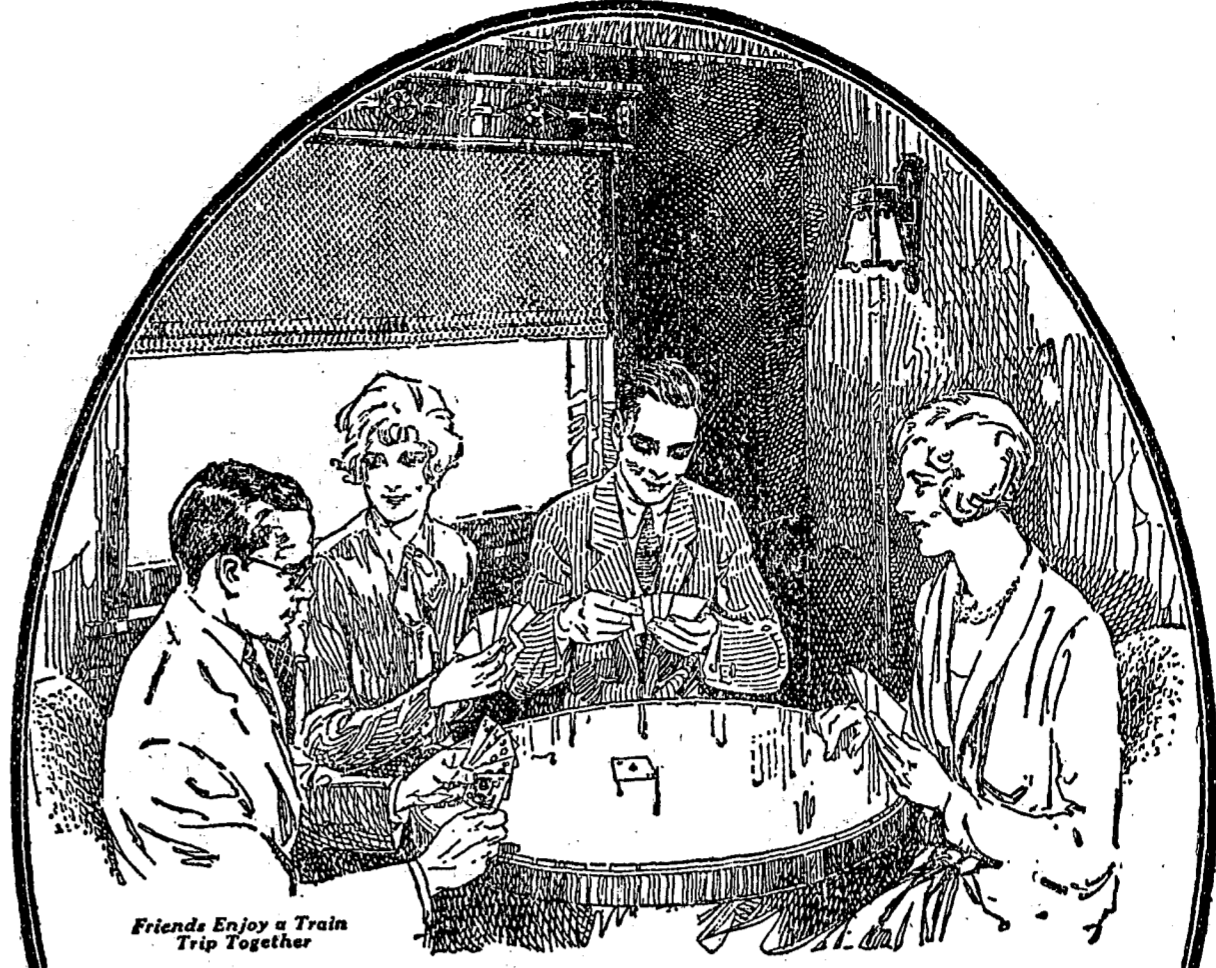

Clean cultivation is one of the best safeguards against mice damage to fruit trees.

Cull beans fed to hogs should be cooked in water that has a small amount of salt in it.

Money for legume seed and labor used in soil improvement is a profitable investment, not an expense.

Alfalfa and clover are ideal roughages for dairy cows and they improve the land on which they grow. The solution is—raise them at home.

A ton of cottonseed meal at $31 contains approximately 860 pounds of protein. A ton of alfalfa hay at $20 contains only about 230 pounds of protein, but a pound of alfalfa protein is worth as much as two pounds of cottonseed protein.

The Great American Disaster
Eye Strain

The strain of civil life falls most heavily upon the eyes, the most delicate and the hardest worked of any of the organs of the body. There is an intimate relation between eye strain, inefficiency and physical ills. All the physical activities of the body are made possible only through the expenditure of nerve force, which is our vital motive power.

Nerve exhaustion is the cause of most of our physical ills. Defective eyes, out of focus, use more than their allotted portion of this vital energy, thus robbing other organs of their energy and we often find under such conditions stomach, heart, liver and kidneys cease to do their work properly for lack of nerve force. This is what is known as reflex or "reflected" nerve trouble, with which millions of people suffer.

These facts lead to another important phase of the matter. The eyes, by making an extra effort, are some times able to overcome a considerable amount of defect, still holding themselves in focus so that the owner sees, although he is using much more nerve energy than he should.

Save your eyes and health by consulting a reliable experienced specialist. Remember it costs no more to consult Dr. Jones, the old reliable specialist, than one of little experience. Remember JONES' GLASSES SATISFY, There's a Reason. For superior service and better glasses call and consult

New Northern Pacific Building Now Open in New York City

The industrial, agricultural and social progress of the Northwest and the recreational advantages of that territory are to be set constantly before countless thousands of persons at one of the busiest corners in New York.

The Northern Pacific Railway Company has just opened a new passenger office in New York at Fifth Avenue and Forty-sixth street in a reconstructed building which for many years was the home of the famous Dreicer & Company. Here is to be provided a convenient headquarters for northwest travelers in uptown New York and at the same time this new Northern Pacific office will serve Minnesota, North Dakota, Montana, Idaho, Washington and Oregon as an exposition building where every day in the year this territory served by the company's lines will be called to the attention of New Yorkers and transients.

The new Northern Pacific Railway building is a five-story structure of black marble and white stone. The interior of the passenger office carries color and theme of the railroad's trademark—black and red predominating. Large display windows on Fifth Avenue and Forty-sixth street picture Northwest scenes and products, which are effectively shown as upon miniature theater stages with novel lighting effects to emphasize Northwest attractions and to catch and hold attention of passersby.

In announcing removal of the company's offices from 280 Broadway to the uptown location, A. B. Smith, passenger traffic manager, said this step is a part of the new policy of Northwest railroads. Recent public discussions have shown the need of better acquaintance and better understanding as between the people of the east and the people of the west, he said, and by establishing this office in the heart of the New York shopping district and equipping it to furnish information about the Northwest the Northern Pacific not only will facilitate the handling of its own business but will contribute in an important way to that better understanding.

With indications this year that travel to the North Pacific and intermediate territory will compare favorably with other "heavy passenger travel years," the opening of the new New York offices of the Northern Pacific is timely, Mr. Smith said.

Reduce Winter Mortality

One of the best ways to reduce the per cent of mortality in a poultry flock is to cull out all undersized-late-hatched pullets. They are the type of birds most subject to colds and roup, and will seldom lay many eggs until the late winter production begins to reduce the prices. The remedy is to buy enough chicks, or hatch enough at home, so the pullet flock can be thoroughly culled, and yet leave enough to fill the capacity of the plant.
