KENDRICK, LATAH COUNTY, IDAHO, FRIDAY, JULY 8, 1927

Lapwai 5, Kendrick..2.

•The ball game played here the afternoon of the Fourth between the Lapwai Indians and Kendrick, was up to expectations from every standpoint. It was a fast exhibition of the national sport and a clean contest from start to finish. A total of five errors were chalked up, 3 for the locals and 2 for the Indians.

Adoph Wegner, a former Kendrick ball player, is manager of the Indians and he had the best team that has played on the Kendrick grounds this season. Charlie White, Chief Stephens and Pete Types are three noted Indian players and make a good foundation upon which to build a fast team. Lawrence, Lapwai pitcher, is one of the best in this section of the country.

At least a thousand people witnessed the game, gooters being about equally divided between two teams:

Feed for Laying Hens Experiments conducted for the last four years at the Idaho agricultural experiment station have shown that the vitamine content of a ration for laying hens is exceedingly important. Lawn clippings when used as a green feed proved almost as valuable as cod liver oil in preventing mortality from vitamine deficiency, in increasing production and profits over feed cost and in increasing hatchdirector of maternity and infancy | ubility. This was found true when the clippings were used with a wellhalanced ration, from 1924 to 1926, Results of trial conducted over a two and one-half-year period indicated that dried yeast, under the conditions of the experiment, was not necessary.
