Keeney-Bronson

Miss Lynne Keeney of Moscow and Mr. W. Elbert Bronson of Kendrick were married Monday of this week at Moscow by Dr. N. M. Jones. The bride is a daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Walter Keeney, well known pioneers of Latah county. She is a graduate of the University of Idaho. Last year she taught at Melba.

Mr. Bronson has been employed by N. B. Long & Sons for the past year. The bride and groom will make their home here in one of the Collins' brick bungalows. The Gazette joins the community in extending to them best wishes.

Transport Yeast in Airplane

Orofino faced a bread famine the first of the week as interrupted train schedules had made it impossible to ship in a supply of yeast. An airplane was chartered in Spokane Monday and brought 75 pounds of yeast, dropping it in town from an altitude of thirty feet. That's service from the skies.

MOSCOW ENDORSES KENDRICK ROADS

Chamber of Commerce Favors Two Grades.

Star-Mirror: Resolution favoring the construction of standard highways between Kendrick and Troy, and Kendrick and Deary, as soon as funds are available, was passed by the Moscow chamber of commerce highway committee Wednesday afternoon.

Troy highway commissioners met with the chamber committee, discussing road problems of the area. A resolution also was passed urging upon the state highway commissioner the desirability of obtaining state aid to complete the Moscow-Deary highway, a portion in the Deary district being unfinished without funds available to complete the link between Deary and Bovill, other portions practically being finished now.

Discussing the proposal which Kendrick highway district is sponsoring, the construction of a grade to the top of American ridge out of Kendrick, and up Big Bear Ridge to connect with the Deary district, it was suggested that the present Kendrick district be divided into two good road districts to facilitate construction and yield greater bond-issue revenue for both projects.

It was pointed out as sentiment of some residents of Kendrick that funds available would be insufficient to complete both projects. It was said the bonding limit approximated $93,000 as a highway district, but that the bonding limit for good roads districts almost is unlimited.

The suggestion was made, but no action taken by the Moscow committee, that the American Ridge and Big Bear Ridge projects be made separate in two good roads districts, both of which, by reason of higher bonding limits under good road district organization, could obtain sufficient funds to completely develop their projects separately. Portions of the town of Kendrick would be in either district.

The action of the chamber of commerce committee followed a meeting with Kendrick businessmen here several weeks ago when it was felt that opposition had arisen here to the two road projects. The resolution passed Wednesday favors both roads built to standard specifications, and offers Kendrick whatever aid the chamber of commerce can give toward their completion.

Leland Oddfellows Install

The following officers were installed by District Grand Master Wilfred Corkill, at Leland lodge No. 90, Saturday evening, January 7: Noble Grand, Roy Craig; Vice Grand, Robert Thornton; Recording Secretary, Ralph Corkill; Financial Secretary, Robert Draper; Treasurer, Charles Hoffman. The appointive officers are: Warden, Oral Craig; Conductor, Alva Craig; Noble Grand Supporters, Denzel Kuykendall and R. B. Parks; Vice Grand Supporters, Emmett Thornton and Harold Parks; Chaplain, Wilfred Corkill; Scene Supporters, Wm. Bond and Walter May; Inside Guardian, Carl Gillespie; Outside Guardian, Jesse Thornton.

A good lunch was served after the installation ceremony. 11 members were taken into the lodge last year, and prospects are good for another year's work.

Rameys Entertain Club

Mr. and Mrs. R. H. Ramey entertained the Okoke bridge club with a most delicious two-course supper Saturday evening at six-thirty. Partners were chosen for supper by clever cards made by the hostess, who also made the tally cards using characters from the funny papers.

After supper bridge was played for several hours, the high family score going to Mr. and Mrs. Walter Thomas. The prize was an attractive flower jar.

Bachelors' Protective Association

There is some talk of forming a Bachelors' Protective Association in Kendrick in order to offset the dangers of leap year. It is considered as a generally accepted fact that leap year is an open season on bachelors. Kendrick has a number of very nice, perfectly capable, highly desirable spinsters who might at any time now develop the necessary determination of character to take advantage of this open season on bachelors and appropriate one.

By banding together the local bachelors might be able to resist the expected onslaught. It is believed that all meetings of the association will be held in secret places at the zero hour, as the average bachelor is a timid soul or he wouldn't be a bachelor.

Rumors are current that a number of spinsters are desirous of getting men's wages and that they feel leap year offers them this opportunity. They also want to try out the old fallacy that "two can live cheaper than one."

Requirements for a member in good standing in the Bachelors' Association: He must let his whiskers grow, eat limburger cheese three times a day, chew fine cut or "Copenhagen" between meals and make himself generally disagreeable for a period of one year. In the opinion of the writer none of the forging faults or blemishes would have the least effect upon a determined female. All women are under the delusion that they can reform their husbands.

It is said that members of the Bachelors' Association will not be allowed to wear a pin or badge, for in this way the fact might become known that they are members of the association. But it won't be difficult to spot the members. Any man you meet who has a harassed appearance, keeps his fingers crossed and knocks wood at every opportunity—you can depend upon it—he's a member.

The cruellest part of leap year is that it opens the season on bachelors but they, the victims, have to pay for the license.

Big Bear Ridge

Miss Bertina Forest has gone to Spokane to remain some time.

A. W. Jones is enjoying an extended visit with his mother and other relatives at his old home in Iowa.

Evan Lien was recently visiting his sister in Clarkston.

The four local schools sold $850 worth of Christmas Seals. Adolf Aas of Taney school, sold the most seals of any pupil.

The Lutheran Ladies Aid held their annual business meeting at the home of Mrs. Halvor Lien. Officers for the ensuing year were elected as follows: Mrs. Z. Aas, president; Mrs. Ole Lien, vice-president; Mrs. Thorvald Nelson, secretary; Mrs. O. H. Forest, treasurer.

D. A. Meyer and family have moved into the Fred Gladden house.

Myrtle—N. J. Winters, T. J. Bueckles, Robert Storey.

Southwick—John Stalnaker, W. F. McClelland, Ben Davis, Carl Wright, Chas. Hayward, J. R. King, Floyd Russell, Gordon Harris.

Arrest Man at Juliaetta

Star-Mirror: What officers believe was an attempt to rob the Bank of Juliaetta came late Monday afternoon, shortly after the closing hour, but with the safe time lock set, a man giving his name as John Micals beat a hasty retreat only to be arrested later on a vagrancy charge. He is in the Latah county jail.

Micals, following a Juliaetta businessman into the bank after the door had been closed to customers for the day, asked A. W. Behrens, cashier, for a scrap of paper upon which to write an address. He meanwhile kept one hand in his pocket. The man that entered with him asked to cash a check, but was informed that the time lock was set. Micals, on hearing that, is said to have run out and disappeared, not heeding Behrens call to return.

Miles Pierce, Juliaetta constable, later arrested him on a vagrancy charge and called the sheriff. He was arraigned in the justice court and sentenced to 15 days, being brought to the county jail.

Declaring that Micals had admitted being in other jails in Montana and Idaho at various times, officers Tuesday began an investigation and sent Micals' finger prints to the bureau of criminal identification at Washington. Micals is able to give only an incoherent account of his whereabouts during the past two months, and apparently had been in the Juliaetta region only a short time.

Witnesses declared that Micals had been watching the bank for several hours Monday afternoon, and belief was expressed that he was waiting a chance to get into the bank at a time when few people were there.

Officials blasted his claim that he was writing an address when a sheet of paper upon which Micals wrote disclosed only the word "Canada" and a jumble of numbers.

Appreciate Moscow's Action

In another column of the Gazette is a statement taken from the Moscow Star-Mirror to the effect that at a meeting of the Moscow Chamber of Commerce held Wednesday of this week, Kendrick's road program was endorsed. The people of Kendrick Highway district will appreciate Moscow's action in this matter and their attitude toward the construction of grades over American and Bear ridges.

Lodges Hold Joint Meeting

Members of the local Woodmen and Neighbors of Woodcraft lodges held a joint get-together meeting at the Fraternal Temple Wednesday evening with a big crowd present. The district manager from Lewiston was present and addressed the meeting. Following the business session dancing and cards were indulged in until a late hour. Refreshments were served.

Landslide in Kendrick

Last Friday morning a bad slide occurred at the rear of the lots occupied by the Methodist church and Silvie Cook's residence. Trees, rocks and tons of earth filled the back of the lots. At the rear of the church the debris piled above the windows of the basement, allowing mud and water to run inside the building.

It required several days of hard work with men and teams to clear away the slide so that it would not damage the buildings. It is estimated that it will cost in the neighborhood of $300 to clear away what remains of it. It is expected that work will be resumed in the spring when the ground has dried out to some extent.

Mrs. Dale Lanphere and son, Lorren, returned Wednesday afternoon from Spokane where they spent several weeks with relatives.

Items of Interest From Our Neighboring Town.

Bank Elects Officers

At the annual board meeting held this week in the Bank of Juliaetta, officers and directors were elected for the coming year as follows: President, H. Melgard, of Moscow; vice-president, Walter Clark; Cashier, A. W. Behrens. All of the above were reelected. Three new directors were added to the board, they being L. C. Reichman, S. S. Tabor and W. F. Behrens.

Cherry Growers Elect

The annual meeting of the Juliaetta Cherry Growers' association was held in Juliaetta Saturday, and directors for the coming year were chosen as follows: Ray Harris, Asa Cook, W. K. S. Gregory, W. J. Cochran and Mrs. Mary E. Jones.

Officers were elected as follows: Ray Harris, president; Asa Cook, vice-president; W. K. S. Gregory, secretary; and A. W. Behrens, assistant secretary.

Fear Damage From Freeze

Some apprehension is felt that damage may have resulted to the fruit buds of the cherries as a result of the heavy silver thaw a few weeks ago. Every tree and every branch of every tree here was encased in an icy covering for more than 48 hours. It is yet too early, however, to ascertain the extent of the damage. If cherry buds suffered from the most unusual weather conditions, peach and apricots could not have fared better, it is thought.

Snow Covers Fields

Wheat fields on the ridges surrounding Juliaetta are still under a thick blanket of snow, and the wheat is therefore being well protected from damage by "heaving," which would break the fibrous roots of the wheat plants but for the protection afforded by the snow. Farmers and fruit growers in this section would like to have the snow remain on the ground for at least six weeks yet—or till the first of March.

May Trade Stock

Mr. H. P. White, chairman of the finance committee of the Washington Water Power Co. and officers of the American Power & Light Co., stated Wednesday:

That subject to necessary corporate action and arrangement of legal matters it has been agreed that all holders of Washington Water Power Co. common stock, will be offered an opportunity for prompt exchange of their stock for American Power & Light Co. accumulative preferred stock having an annual dividend rate of $6.00 per share, in ratio of 2.2 shares of said American Power & Light Co. preferred stock for each share of Washington Water Power Co. common stock.

The offer is conditioned on acceptance by a sufficient per cent of the shares of the Washington Water Power Co. common stock. It is expected that the circulars setting out the terms of the exchange will be promptly issued.

Death of R. M. Walker

Word was received here of the death of R. M. Walker of Peck, who passed away at his home Tuesday after a brief illness at the age of 75 years. Mr. Walker was a former Kendrick resident, having been in business here in the early days. For many years he has resided in Peck where he had a harness shop.

The deceased is survived by his wife, three daughters, two sons, Norris and Floyd both of Kendrick. Funeral services were held at Peck Wednesday afternoon and burial made at Lewiston the following afternoon.

Would Be Good Idea Now

Genesee News: At the city council meeting last Wednesday evening it was voted to enforce the dog ordinance and the marshal was instructed to get busy. Genesee News of 20 years ago. It would be a mighty good thing if the present city council would give out the same kind of instructions. The town is now filled up with worthless curs, making a general nuisance of themselves and it is high time that something was being done to relieve the situation. What is the use of having a dog ordinance if it is not enforced.

This town is almost as bad as the one in Massachusetts, where it was stated that the dogs of the town outnumbered the boys between the ages of 4 and 16 years of age by 34 and outnumbered the girls of the same age by 21.

A dog census of Genesee might show some such startling figures and a few instructions to the city marshal might help matters some.

Birthday Party

Master Laurence Kuykendall celebrated his 8th birthday, Saturday afternoon at a party given by his mother at their home. The afternoon was spent in playing games after which a nice birthday luncheon was served. Laurence received a number of nice gifts and all the children had a jolly time.

WORLD'S CHAMPION Cletrac Crawler Tractors

THE TRACTOR WHICH HAS PROVEN THE GREATEST FARM TRACTOR ON EARTH
Built in the Largest Factory on Earth that build nothing but Tractors... No Hill Too Steep and No Mud TOO Deep. The Cletrac is here to Stay.

Why?

There is no job on the farm that the Cletrac can not do; it is dependable the year round. Built to resist wear and to stand the hardest knocks that man can give them.

Since we sold Cletrac Tractors here for the past two years much has been said about how long will they last? How will they stand up? and how long will the track last? Out of some fifty Cletracs which I have sold in the three Counties not one of them is worn out, all are going fine and every one is well pleased and tells his neighbors, that is why we sell so many.

There was not much farm work done last fall on account of wet weather, therefore, there will be a big demand for tractors in the spring. Owing to this big demand we will probably be short and will not be able to make delivery just when you want them, therefore I urge those who want a Cletrac in the spring to give me an order now or not later than the 10th of February so that the tractors may be shipped in carload lots from the factory

All those who order now or before February 10th will get a reduction of $75.00 on their tractors. This $75.00 will be saved on the freight where they are shipped in carload lots.

The new Cletracs are much improved over last years model. We assure prompt service when needed. Prices are as follows:
12-20 W. $1295.00; 15-25 20-K $1950.00 and the 30-45 30-A $3150.00 F.O.B. Kendrick, Ida. The new 105 H. P. is also on the market. Think of a Cletrac 105 horse power.

I also have several used tractors on hand: 1 12-20 Rumley, 1 12-20 Twin City, Fordsons, International, 1 Case Steam Engine, 1 new Superior Drill either tractor hitch or horse hitch; 1 new Grand Tetour three bottom tractor plow. This machinery I will sell at a bargain.

See me for new Oliver Plows, Superior Drills, Disc Harrows, Deep Well Pumps, Combination Grain Fanning mill and Smutt Machine. I also have any amount of fine horses and mules for sale. One extra good young purebred Jersey cow, fresh.

"There can be no doubt that light and power distribution is a most important element in our life, in the community, in the neighborhood, in the household.

"The ownership of the electric light and power companies is now in the hands of more than 2,000,000 direct investors in public utility stocks, and indirectly in the hands of millions more of bank depositors and holders of life insurance policies through their ownership of public utility bonds. This is people's ownership under public regulation."

Feed Green Soy Beans to Improve Milk Flavor

Experiments just reported by the United States Department of Agriculture show that feeding green soy beans to dairy cows just before milking them tends to improve the flavor of the milk. The soy beans were fed in quantities up to 30 pounds per cow. The soy beans were first fed when the plants began to form pods and were continued until the beans had reached full size, but were not hard. While soy beans improve the milk flavor, rape fed green just before milking had the opposite effect, imparting an objectionable flavor to the milk.

The Potato Situation

The following letter from the Commissioner of Agriculture to the Governor gives an outline of the potato situation in Idaho: "In view of the amount of publicity that is being given at this time to the regulation of this department relative to the marketing of potatoes, I have felt that a letter covering the details as they have developed would be of interest and value. "When I came into office on February 1, 1927, Commissioner Kjosness was under a restraining order issued by the district court at Twin Falls preventing the enforcement of his potato regulations. Had I been desirous of doing away with these regulations my simplest course would have been to let this order stand but I requested the Attorney General to ask that it be dissolved. The case was heard in Twin Falls on February 4th and the order dissolved, allowing the regulations to go into effect. We thus brought about the first and only enforcement of the branding regulations and we continued such enforcement as long as it was within our power.

"Many potato growers of the state charged that they had not been heard in the preparation of the Kjosness regulations and in view of the vigorous division of opinion which existed over the state, we deemed it advisable to accede to the demands of the growers for an extensive series of public hearings and new set of regulations in which no growers could say that they had not been taken into consideration, and which would express as nearly as possible the desires of the industry itself.

"A total of eleven preliminary meetings were held in the principal potato producing sections of the state beginning April 15, and ending April 21. We sent notices of these meetings to the newspapers and in addition, for the purpose of giving the meeting legal standing, we published signed notices of them in six leading papers of the state. These meetings were very well attended, filling the rooms provided to capacity. At each meeting the entire question of grading, branding and shipping potatoes was fully discussed. Based upon a very careful survey of potato shipments in the complete calendar year of 1926, a total of 21 delegates was apportioned among these eleven meetings on a basis of the districts' relative importance in the industry. Every care was taken to make this apportionment absolutely fair. In each of the preliminary meetings after the various questions had been fully discussed, we asked for the selection of the number of these delegates. We requested that they use care in selecting men who would represent them as they desired to be represented in the final meetings. In all cases the apportioned number of delegates were selected by the assembled growers. The final meeting of the 21 delegates was held in Pocatello, April 22, 1927. The very vigorous divisions of opinion on this question among the potato growers of the state was never more apparent than at this meeting, and for four hours the meeting consisted of nothing but the most heated discussion without arriving at any decision.

"Adjournment was taken and after a recess of an hour and a half, the meeting reconvened. At this time Mr. Joseph Andraesen of St. Anthony, who had been a vigorous supporter of the compulsory grading and branding rules, moved a compromise under which growers and shippers were to have the option of shipping ungraded potatoes in plain bags, if they desired, but providing that in case any brands were used, the potatoes must be graded according to the Federal standards, and the brand must be in accordance with the compulsory branding regulations. This motion was seconded by Mr. Julian Gallentine of Jerome, who had continually opposed the existing regulations. After some discussion the roll was called resulting in the acceptance of this compromise by a unanimous vote. This was the origin of the so-called "Plain Bag" rule. This compromise was never suggested at any time by any member of this department, nor by anyone else connected with the state administration. It did not completely fill the wishes of Mr. Andraesen and many others of the delegates, but was proposed and accepted as the only possible compromise upon which the two factions could agree.

"With this matter disposed of, eight other questions pertaining to minor phases of the regulations were voted upon and decided in the next half hour, at which time the meeting adjourned. Following this these regulations were presented to the Attorney General and with his entire approval were promulgated May 1, 1927. As a result of all this it must be very evident that the present potato regulations were actually formulated by the potato growers of the state themselves.

"We were at that time, and still are, of the opinion that we could have written a set of regulations that would have been better for the industry. Recognizing that our whole duty was not personal aggrandizement but was to secure results to the industry, we believed and still believe, that this could be accomplished better by establishing less drastic regulations which would be enforced and by using these as a means of education for the purpose of bringing the growers to a state of mind in which they would support more complete and effective measures.

"At the present time Idaho potatoes are not commanding the premium upon the market that they have enjoyed in times past. Those who oppose the use of plain bags insist that this practice is solely responsible. Those who favor their use insist that the present condition is due entirely to changes in proportionate production. As a matter of fact, the actual truth lies between the two. Unquestionably Idaho shippers have hurt the market by the shipment of ungraded potatoes in plain bags and this practice has resulted in decreasing the premium usually commanded by Idaho potatoes. On this point this department issued warnings as early as last October and plead with shippers to avoid this very thing. On the other hand it is equally certain that this has not been the only factor in doing away with our premium.

"In the recent agitation on this matter the comparisons have all been between the years 1924 and 1927. It is true that Idaho growers received more money for potatoes in 1924 in spite of the fact that the nation's potato production was considerably greater. The question is not so much one of total production as of the distribution of that production.

"The 1924 crop was large in the east and smaller in the west. The states west of us were short and California took many of our potatoes at good prices. Eastern potatoes were a drug on the market and Idaho's brought a premium because they were superior in quality and were scarce. This year the situation is exactly the reverse. The east shows a decrease and we an unprecedented increase. The states west of us show an increase nearly as great as our own. Wisconsin, Michigan and Minnesota, our principal competitors in the Chicago market, show a marked decrease in production and have improved their quality. Those, who at the present time, are attempting to make the so called "potato situation" a political issue are only giving unfavorable publicity, to an unfortunate economic situation. "Yours very sincerely, John S. Welch, Commissioner of Agriculture."
