See Dr. Jones
Soon winter will be here and you will have to depend more on artificial light during those long, dark evenings.

If your eyes are taxed, flayed, or fatigued by some error of refraction or glare strain, see Dr. Jones and have him prescribe for you those wide angle "ORTHOgon" or "TILLYER" lenses for better vision, and our special built frame that we guarantee against breakage.

As it is claimed that 83% of everything that we learn comes through the eyes. Be sure to bring the children so that they may have all the advantages that good vision has to offer.

"ISLE OF LOST SHIPS"
AT AUDIAN THEATRE

The S. S. Queen, Porto Rico to New York, bears Lieutenant Frank Howard, prisoner of Detective R. L. Jackson. Howard is accused of the murder of his wife.

The handcuffed prisoner meets Dorothy Renwick, a society girl, who with her aunt is a passenger on the boat. She is attracted to the man but is repelled by the idea of his crime.

The ship is nearing the Sargasso Sea, that great seaweed and wreckage-cluttered eddy in the central Atlantic. It strikes a derelict, begins to sink by the bow and is abandoned.

Jackson, however, has forgotten his prisoner, handcuffed to a bunk on the sinking ship. Accompanied by the girl, he dashes back to get him. When they reach the deck the life-boats have deserted them and are far across a strip of rough water.

The Queen's bulkheads hold and she does not sink. They drift and reach the Sargasso Sea's interior, stranding after many days in a whole world of ships of all ages and stages of wreckage and decay.

What becomes of this trio makes up one of the most interesting sea stories ever filmed. Noah Beery, one of the greatest "villains" in the films, has one of the leading male roles, while beautiful Virginia Valli takes the principal female role.

At the Audian Theatre Friday, Saturday and Sunday nights.

Hayward-Perry
A quiet wedding took place at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Ralph Wright in Lewiston, Wednesday afternoon, October 1, when the Rev. George Calvert united in marriage Miss Clara Belle Hayward and Commodore Perry, both of Southwick, only a few of the near relatives being present.
The bride is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Chas. Hayward of Southwick. The groom is the son of Mrs.

Sylvia Perry of Bend, Oregon, formerly of Juliaetta.
The bride wore a formal gown of orchid satin while the groom was appropriately dressed in navy blue. The young couple are well known in this and surrounding communities. For the present they will make their home near Southwick.
Their many friends wish them much happiness in the years to come.

Mrs. Pemberton, who visited several weeks at the Martin Sackett home, returned to her home in Kendrick Friday afternoon.
George Douglas was a week-end visitor in Lewiston.
Mr. and Mrs. Fred Hassinger and daughter Alice from Gifford and Mr. and Mrs. C. A. Betts and two children visited Sunday at the Wm. Berreman home.
Mr. and Mrs. Wilmer Hanks have rented the R. G. Ferris farm and moved into it Tuesday.
About 60 friends and neighbors gathered at the Charlie Hayward home Thursday evening to charivari the newly-weds, Mr. and Mrs. Commodore Perry, who were married in Lewiston Wednesday.

GRAIN MARKETS FIRMER WITH PRICE SLIGHTLY UP

low the full advance at eastern points. Cash wheat prices advanced about 2c per bushel at Portland and Seattle. At the former market No. 1 hard white bluestem or early baart variety was quoted at 93c, soft and western white at 79c, hard winter, northern spring and western red at 77c per bushel, sacked. No. 1 dark northern spring in bulk from Montana with 14 per cent protein was quoted at 90c and No. 1 dark hard winter at 88c per bushel. No. 1 western white was quoted at Seattle at 81c and Big Bend bluestem at 92c per bushel, sacked.

Local No. 1 dark hard winter, 14 per cent protein, sacked, was quoted at 87c, and the same grade from Montana in bulk at 88c. Milling demand continued slow at Seattle with export mills unable to obtain any material volume of export business. Export bids for wheat at Portland were below replacement values, and only one parcel afloat to the United Kingdom was reported sold during the week. Demand from California also slackened and domestic mills were taking only small amounts. Russian wheat is offering sharp competition with Pacific coast wheat in European markets, while recent sales of domestic wheat to the Orient have apparently supplied current requirements in that area.

California wheat markets continued quiet, with trading at both San Francisco and Los Angeles confined principally to wheat from outside markets. California growers were asking $1.60 to $1.65 per 100 sacked, for No. 1 hard and soft white wheat delivered San Francisco, while buyers bids were 15c to 20c below these prices. Mills and feeders were supplying most of their needs from Northern and Inter-Mountain areas. This is reflected in the receipts at San Francisco, where over 7,000 tons of northern wheat were received during September, compared with 66 tons in September, 1929. No. 2 western white wheat from Washington and Oregon was offered at $1.40 per 100 delivered dock San Francisco early in the week, which was the lowest price in 20 years. Quotations were advanced toward the close of the week, however, to $1.47½ to $1.50 per 100. No. 2 soft white from Klamath Falls, Oregon, district was offered at $1.55 per 100, sacked, for rail shipment to San Francisco and interior points. No. 2 hard winter from Idaho and Utah was quoted at $1.42½ to $1.45 in bulk delivered California points.

No. 2 hard winter in bulk was

Winter wheat markets were also firm and higher, particularly for good milling wheat. The quality of the September receipts was slightly below that of the August receipts, with only 72 per cent of the September arrivals of hard wheat grading No. 3, or better, compared with 75 per cent for August. Receipts at the principal southwestern markets during the week were only about 500 cars smaller than for the previous week. Receipts at Kansas City were about the same as during the previous week while shipments were slightly lower. Elevator stocks, however, continue to decrease, indicating a larger movement into mill storage. At the close of the market October 3, ordinary protein No. 1 hard winter was quoted at Kansas City at 77½c, with 82½ per cent protein selling at 80¼c to 81½c per bushel. No. 2 hard winter sold at 1c discount under the No. 1. A good demand prevailed at Omaha, where No. 2 dark hard winter with 12 per cent protein was quoted at 78c and No. 2 hard winter at 75c to 76c per bushel. Demand at Fort Worth was almost entirely from mills as export bids were below current quotations. No. 1 hard winter was quoted delivered at Texas common points at 92¼c to 93c per bushel. No. 2 hard winter was quoted at Denver at 55c to 60c per bushel. Colorado mills were reported rolling and grinding considerable wheat for feed, while large amounts of the lower grades were taken by feeders and feed manufacturers at other of the points.

Soft winter wheat markets were decidedly firmer with current offerings below mill requirements of most markets. Elevator wheat was being quoted at the same price as country-run. Prices at St. Louis advanced about 5c per bushel, with No. 1 soft red winter quoted Oct. 3 at 93c. Receipts at Cincinnati totaled only 16 cars and current demand, particularly for feed wheat, was being filled from elevator stocks. No. 1 soft red winter was quoted at Chicago at 87¼c, while No. 2 hard red winter was selling in that market at 81c to 82¼c per bushel.

Crops, Weather And Roads
It is estimated that from a week to ten days will be required to finish the bean harvest of this region, there still being considerable crop to take care of. Trucks are still busy however hauling in the crop that has been threshed, some of them being still engaged in hauling wheat.

The weather has been cooler the past week with plenty of signs of fall, perhaps the most beautiful season of the year, now at hand.

Many Families Move
Mr. and Mrs. O. Dumbauld have moved into their new home across from the school. A small barn, a chicken house and garage have been added to the property and other improvements made.

Mr. and Mrs. Peeler have purchased the property recently vacated by Dumbaulds and have moved and made it their home.

Mr. and Mrs. Claude Clark have moved into the property vacated by Peelers. This is the Kimberling farm on Fix Ridge.

Mrs. Wm. Spray has moved into Mr. and Mrs. Eben Adams' home for the winter. Mr. Spray will be here later.

Mr. and Mrs. Jess Cox have moved into Mrs. Amanda Alexander's home.

M. E. Ladies Aid

Mrs. Grace Stinson was hostess to the M. E. Ladies aid last Tuesday afternoon. The business and devotional meeting was followed by a social hour, with a dainty luncheon being served. Several visitors were present.

Surprise Birthday Dinner

Mrs. Ed. Taylor, assisted by Mrs. Mary Jones, entertained a few girls at a surprise birthday dinner, Sunday in honor of Margaret's fourteenth birthday. A birthday cake with candles formed the centerpiece.

Opal Spray, Fay and Alice Cochran were the invited guests.

Birthday Surprise

About forty men, women and children surprised Mrs. Walter Cochran at her home Wednesday afternoon, in honor of her birthday, and the birthdays of Mrs. Frank Spray and Andrew Robbins.

A social afternoon was followed by a delicious luncheon, with a large birthday cake the center of attraction.

That evening the Needle club members and their husbands came and gave Mrs. Cochran the second surprise. Five tables of bridge were played with high prize being awarded, Mrs. Jones and Fred Albright, and low prizes going to Alice Cochran and Arnold Behrens. Lunch was served to Mr. and Mrs. C. S. Bidson, Mr. and Mrs. Everett Custer, Mr. and Mrs. Cecil Gruell, Mr. and Mrs. A. W. Behrens, Mr. and Mrs. Claud Cook, Mr. and Mrs. Fred Albright, Mr. and Mrs. E. P. Wilcoxen, Mr. and Mrs. Walter Cochran, Mesdames Nutt, Jones, Alexander, Miss Alice and Fay Cochran and Dicky Behrens.

Teachers Attend Institute

The teachers attended the Institute held at Lewiston last Thursday and Friday. Mrs. Miller and Miss Brackett spent the rest of the week-end in Lewiston, Miss Eckermann at Cottonwood and Miss Adriansen at Moscow.

Mrs. Luna Dean is expected home from Spokane Sunday. It is hoped that she will be able to resume her school work Monday.

Demurrage Be Charged

According to a new ruling of the postal department all C. O. D. packages of whatsoever description, if left in the office more than 15 days, will have a demurrage charge of five cents a day charged for each day over the 15-day limit. The postmaster has no choice in the matter. His instructions come from Washington D. C.

Entertains Friday Evening

Friday evening Mrs. H. B. Thompson entertained the officers, teachers and the Bible class of the Presbyterian Sunday school.

The evening was spent in playing games and in contests. Mrs. Ed. Long and Burneda Cummings carrying away the prizes.

Mrs. E. V. Adams and son Keith and Ward Alexander spent the week-end at the Alexander home. They were accompanied home to Moscow by Mrs. M. Nutt and Mrs. A. Alexander, who returned home that evening.

New Stage Depot
The Union Stage lines have made the Raymond Hotel, Lewiston, their terminal depot. To accommodate this business the hotel-lobby has been rebuilt, enlarged and refurnished. The lobby now has a frontage of over one hundred feet—all large plate glass window, running through from Main to D street.

The Raymond hotel has always been the Lewiston home of the people of the surrounding counties, said Mr. McGrane, and they will find the same warm welcome as in the past, and very much better accommodations.

Mr. Mussolini says he has never seen areal practical woman. Don't they have gold diggers in Italy?

Splitting wetges, axes, axe handles and drivers. The best, there is no better.

Thirty-five men were indicted in Kentuck the other day for selling bad liquor. The word "bad" in the indictment is superfluous.

Nails, screws, bolts, hinges, catches, hasps, locks, everything to fix up your building and wagon racks.

It is said that there are twenty-one thousand lawyers in New York City. Maybe that accounts for the lack of law enforcement.

Nathan B. Stealthy

This week just as we were getting ready to go to press in came Mr. Stealthy, bought a box of shells and then draped himself on the counter and yawned so widely we saw where his tonsils had been and then said, "The adors of the campaign are almost too much to bear, so I went to Mr. Doctor. He advised better care of myself and setting up exercises in the morning. Well, last night I started in, but (yawn) two o'clock was the best I could do (yawn). I don't see how anybody stays with it until morning. (Yawn) see you later and out he went.

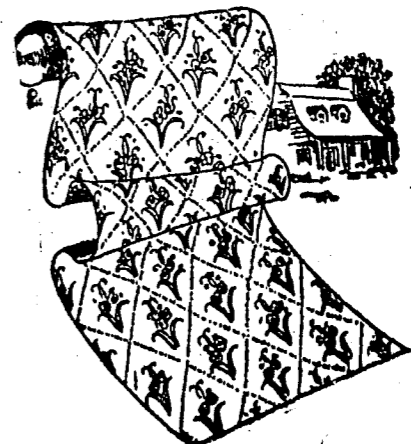

Oh, what a guardian of the people's interests our sterling candidate will make!
