Gave Dinner-Bridge Party

Dr. and Mrs. O. J. Morehead gave a third of their pleasant dinner-bridge parties on Thursday evening, January 23, when Mr. and Mrs. A. W. Behrens, Juliaetta, Mr. and Mrs. A. K. Carlson, Mr. and Mrs. Wade Keene, Mr. and Mrs. Frank Rider, Mrs. Wm. Jarvis, Miss Tekla Jarvis and Miss Josephine Deagen were the invited guests.

Dinner was served at 6:30 and at bridge Mrs. Jarvis and Miss Jarvis received the highest combined score.

DELIGHTFUL NO HOST OR HOSTESS CARD PARTY

Another of those delightful no host, no hostess, bridge parties and cafeteria dinners was held in the old Kendrick store Thursday evening of last week, when 32 people gathered for a good time and that was the proper name for it, for everyone present seemed to thoroughly enjoy the occasion. Everyone brought something for supper and the whole made almost enough to feed a fair-sized regiment of unemployed.

Supper was served at 6:30, after which social converse was the order until those present felt sufficiently able to play bridge. The game was played at eight tables, Mrs. W. L. McCreary winning high score for the women and Roy Ramey for the men. There wasn't any consolation prize worth mentioning, but we don't mind saying that our score was the lowest of the low. Anyway, we had just as much fun as if we had won.

Those present were Mr. and Mrs. W. J. Carroll, Mr. and Mrs. Geo. Leith, Mr. and Mrs. R. H. Ramey, Mr. and Mrs. H. B. Thompson, Mr. and Mrs. W. B. Deobald, Mr. and Mrs. E. A. Deobald, Mr. and Mrs. Wm. Emery, Mr. and Mrs. Ed. Long, Mr. and Mrs. A. E. Dawald and Miss Josephine Deagen.

How About That Groundhog

The sun shone for fully a hour here on groundhog day, (Monday, February 2), and, according to all prognosticators and others who are making up the weather, we are to have another six weeks of winter. But if it isn't any worse than we have been having, how will we know when it is winter.

There is another thing connected with this groundhog business. Over at Moscow and Spokane the papers stated that Brer Hog didn't see his shadow and therefore there would be no six-weeks extension of winter. This is going to be a hard thing for the weather makers to figure out.

No Picture Show This Month

There will be no picture show at the Audian theatre this month owing to lack of patronage of the last show, which was a scream from start to finish.

Mr. Zell is laying plans for the opening of the theatre as early in the spring as weather and road conditions will warrant, so it will not be necessary to go to Lewiston or some other place to see the best shows. Mr. Zell has contracted for many of the best pictures that have been made to date and for some that have not yet been made.

Making Improvements

Deobald Brothers are again making improvements in their garage, this time they are putting in a modern water system, doing away with their overhead water pipes and putting them under the concrete floor. They are also installing a sink and making other improvements in their workroom at the back of the garage.

Every change made, has added to the utility of the garage and means better service for customers, and the boys are to be congratulated on their steady march of improvements.

Ship Beans

Two cars of beans were shipped from Kendrick this week—one by Burns and one by the Long store, both going to Spokane. Marvin says that if Boston could only get hold of our famous beans, there would be nothing to it. The quality is there, and Boston would be the first one to note this fact. Potlatch baked beans are superior in every way to any to be found. If you don't believe it, just ask any Potlatch who has beans to sell.

IDAHO STATE CHAMBER OF COMMERCE DOING GOOD

The Idaho State Chamber of Commerce is taking an active part in aiding organizations, both in and out of the state, to present matter for the consideration of the legislature, it is announced by the secretary.

This is a function of the state chamber and is part of the service which the state organization gives to local commercial and civic organizations.

At the request of the Stabilization bureau of the Puget Sound Navy yard at Bremerton, the state chamber drew and had introduced a memorial to the secretary of the navy asking him to allocate to the Puget Sound yard one of the three battleships recently designated for modernization. The purpose of the memorial was to relieve the unemployment situation.

One of the subjects on the state chamber's annual meeting program was that of county consolidation and prior to the meeting T. L. Martin, attorney for the chamber, was asked for an opinion regarding this move. He declared it could not be done without a constitutional amendment. Now the judiciary committee of the senate has asked the state chamber to have Mr. Martin draft a proposed joint resolution that would have for its purpose amending the constitution so as to permit consolidation.

The trend of thought among legislators seems to be toward a driver's license law as a means of trying to check the appalling loss of life and property on Idaho's highways each year. The state chamber has been advocating a driver's license law for some months and had a draft drawn which follows closely the uniform law on the subject. As a service to the state copies of this proposed law have been placed in the hands of members of the highway committees of the house. The state chamber is hopeful that such a measure will be enacted giving Idaho a law requiring drivers to be licensed without any additional cost to the motoring public.

The state chamber is acting as a clearing house for commercial and civic organizations over the state during the session of the legislature. Already many resolutions, communications and suggestions have come from these organizations for the legislature and the state chamber has seen to it that they were brought to the attention of the proper committees.

Stock Sale to Close Soon

The sale of $6.00 cumulative preferred stock of The Washington Water Power Company will terminate on or before February 7, when the offering of 15,000 shares of the stock is expected to be sold out, according to word received from W. H. Ude, director of public relations.

"When the offering of 15,000 shares was made on January 15, it was thought that the sales would continue for some time," states Mr. Ude. "The demand for the stock has exceeded expectations and it appears that the offering will be sold out February 7 or sooner. Those wishing to purchase shares should do so at once."

The stock is being sold to residents of the three northwest states at $100.00 and accrued dividends per share. Under the company's customer ownership plan, shares may be purchased for cash or on the partial payment plan of $10.00 per share down and $10.00 per share per month, with interest credited at the rate of 5 per cent per annum.

Keeping Roads in Shape

According to Wickliffe R. Smith, pilot of Smith's Fast Mail, that plies between Kendrick and Cameron, Leland and to Southwick, the road overseers in the Cameron and Leland districts are to be complimented and encouraged in the efforts to keep the roads in a passable condition during this season of the year. When a bad place in the road appears, they immediately get busy and see to it that it is drained or filled, or both. This is the kind of road service that people appreciate and they are going to do their part in trying to make the highways better places for travel at all seasons of the year.

Let's hope that the time is not far distant when farm-to-market roads will have the same attention that is now accorded highways.

NEWS OF DOINGS AT BUSY LITTLE CAMERON

Wilkins-Diehl Wedding

Last Saturday evening, January 31, Miss Josephine Wilkins, daughter of Mr. Frank Wilkins of Cameron, was united in marriage to Mr. James N. Diehl of Orofino.

The ceremony was performed by Rev. Otto G. Ehlen of Cameron and was solemnized in the pretty decorated parlor of the George Wilkins' home.

The bride wore a pale blue, silver-laced evening gown and carried a bouquet of carnations, freesias and snapdragons. The single ring service was used.

The ceremony completed the entire party, consisting of the bride and groom, Frank A. Wilkins and son, Milton, Mr. and Mrs. Geo. Wilkins, Herman Wilkins, Sr., Miss Mary Wilkins and the Rev. and Mrs. Ehlen sat down to a wedding supper.

The decorative motif carried out consisted of red hearts on a background of white, and was very pretty indeed.

Commercial Club Meeting

The regular monthly meeting of the Kendrick Commercial Club will be held at the Kendrick Hotel next Tuesday evening, February 10.

It is urged that all members of the club be present as there will be several things of interest to come before the meeting.

KENDRICK HIGH DRUBS INDIANS IN CLOSE GAME

Kendrick High school had a busy week, athletically speaking, last week. Friday night the boys met defeat at the hands of Troy 23-14, at Troy. The girls met their Waterloo in the local gym on the same night. Reuben administered a 19-17 defeat to the girls.

Saturday night, however, it was a different story. Lapwai, confident and strong, brought two teams to Kendrick.

The girls' game was great, ending in a Kendrick victory 19-18, after an overtime period.

The boys' game also was a very exciting one. Kendrick started with a rush and scored 7 points before the Indians located the hoop. The half ended 19-14 in favor of Lapwai. The locals came back strong and were leading 23-22, with three minutes to go.

The lead changed a few times and the game ended 28-27 in favor of Kendrick. The Kendrick boys had accomplished what Walla Walla, North Central and several other teams had failed to do.

The next home game is with Genesee, here, Friday night, February 13.

Dramatic Club Organized

The club is to be composed of twelve members, five of them being charter members. The remaining seven members are to be given membership through a five-minute talk on a chosen subject.

Mrs. Jarvis is to be supervisor, Otto Herman is president and Eleanor Herres, recorder.

Every student is to bring all material possible and the student body has kindly given a book rack to be used to hold the magazines.

Local Walnuts On Market

Long's store has been handling (and still handles) Juliaetta-grown English walnuts. While these nuts are not as large as those shipped from California and other points, they are of a superior flavor. It would seem that these nuts might be raised here on a commercial basis, which would give at least one more variety of product that might be turned into cash.

The Juliaetta section of the Potlatch raises as fine melons, tomatoes and cherries as are grown anywhere—why not add walnuts to the list?

The Long store is also handling a superior variety of popcorn, raised in the Cavendish section. This corn is just as good as the famous canned brands that are so highly praised over the radio, and almost every grain of it pops.

Death of Little Boy

This entire community was saddened when the parents, when it learned of the death of little Tommy Jones, four-year-old son of Mr. and Mrs. Thomas Jones, residing in the east part of town.

The little fellow was taken ill some 17 days ago with measles and within a short time pneumonia developed and he became seriously ill practically from the first, passing away at 1:20 o'clock Thursday morning, February 5, 1931.

Funeral arrangements had not been completed at the time of going to press.

Red Cross Meeting

There will be a meeting of the Latah County chapter of the Red Cross held in Moscow this (Friday) evening, February 6, at 8 o'clock in the Elks' Temple, at which time representatives of outlying districts are requested to be present, to discuss means of raising the county quota for drought relief.

Latah county's quota for drought relief has been set at $1,600.00.

WHEAT MARKET STEADY—FEED GRAINS LOWER

Wheat held generally steady during the week ending January 31, with prices of most grades holding practically unchanged compared with a week ago, according to the weekly grain market review of the United States Bureau of Agricultural Economics.

Feed grains, on the other hand, were weak and lower, a result of relatively large marketings and only moderate demand. Corn prices declined to a new low point on the crop. Rye was lower with feed grains. Flax prices tended downward, under the influence of a slow domestic inquiry and increased pressure from Argentine shipments.

Some improvement in export inquiry for North American wheat, together with reports of some deficiency in moisture in parts of the domestic wheat belt, and in spring areas of the United States and Canada, were strengthening influences. New crop futures at Chicago advanced slightly, but cash markets held about unchanged. Foreign markets were also steady, with increased movement of foreign wheats into consuming channels of deficient areas. Offers of native German wheat at Hamburg were small, with prices tending upward. The quota of native wheat to be used by mills has been reduced from 75 per cent for February and March to 65 per cent for April and May, and 50 per cent for June and July, from the present quota of 80 per cent.

Native French wheat offerings were light and reported meeting only a moderate demand. Italian takings have reduced port stocks in that country. Weather conditions in Western Europe remained unseasonably mild, but conditions in the Balkan countries were favorable, with crops protected by a good snow cover.

World shipments increased to near 16,000,000 bushels, with about 9,000,000 bushels from the Southern hemisphere and most of the remainder from North America. Small amounts of Russian grain were shipped from the Black Sea ports. Shipments from India were also small. The first estimate of the 1931 Indian wheat acreage, places the area sown at 30,364,000 acres, as compared with the first estimate of 29,319,000 acres a year ago, and a final harvested acreage of 31,347,000 acres.

Domestic wheat markets held practically unchanged, compared with a week ago, with mills and domestic agencies absorbing the relatively large offerings. Receipts of wheat at the principal winter wheat markets totaled 6,830 cars, compared with only 1,468 cars during the corresponding period last year. These heavy marketings reflect the relatively high cash prices compared with new crop futures, an also the large supply yet available for market. Farm stocks of wheat at the first of January were estimated to be around 28,000 bushels larger than a year ago. Market stocks were 14,000,000 bushels larger. This increase, however, is partially offset by a reduction of nearly 10,000,000 bushels in commercial mill stocks, which at the close of December totaled 94,987,000 bushels. This figure is computed from a report of the bureau of census, and includes only wheat owned by mills, and held in mills and mill elevators attached to mills, and does not include grain in transit, bought "to arrive," or stored in country or terminal elevators. Assuming that country and mill mill stocks are about the same as a year ago, supplies of wheat in the United States at the first of January 1931, were about 32,000,000 bushels larger than on January 1, 1930. Mills were fairly active buyers of hard winter wheat during the week at Kansas City, and elevators were taking sufficient grain to replace out loadings.

Prices remained unchanged with No. 1, testing up to 12½ per cent protein, quoted at 69½c per bushel. ½c premium was paid for each ½ per cent protein of 12½ per cent. No. 2 hard, winter sold at 1c discount under No. 1. A good shipping demand was reported at Omaha, principally to Chicago and St. Louis. Some wheat was being shipped out to other eastern points to relieve the local storage situation. No. 2 hard winter with 12 per cent protein, was sold in that market January 30 at 68½c per bushel. Domestic milling demand at Fort Worth was very dull but receipts increased. Country run wheat was selling on the track in that market at 79½c to 80c per bushel.

Club Scores Increasing

Sunday's shoot at the gun club showed definitely that the scores of the preceding Sunday were not just flukes, but that they are steadily increasing and will increase more. The shoot showed the following scores, 25 bird basis:

Wade Keene	22
Herman Schupfer	19
E. A. Deobald	18
W. F. Behrens	18
W. L. McCreary	18

The last three are printed in a group because they are a tie and the tie was not shot off.

Practically every member of the club is advancing his score and none of the scores made Sunday are to be ashamed of. The next shoot will be held Sunday at the usual time and usual place. Everyone except children welcome.

WHEAT MARKET STEADY—FEED GRAINS LOWER

bushel for No. 1 hard winter, any protein, delivered common points or Galveston export rate. Offerings of wheat at Denver were fairly large, but growers were not selling freely.
No. 2 hard winter was quoted in that market January 29 at 49c to 54c per bushel.

Soft winter wheat markets were generally dull. The slow demand for flour from southern consuming areas has reduced the mill demand for soft winter wheat and prices declined.
Some mills with large stocks were reported offering to sell grain in terminal markets. No. 1 soft red winter was quoted at St. Louis January 30 at 81c to 81½c and No. 2 at 81c per bushel. Sales at Cincinnati were reported at 79½c to 80c, with milling demand extremely slow in that market.

Spring wheat continued to be marketed in liberal amounts, with receipts at Minneapolis totalling 1, 026 cars during the week, compared with 589 cars a year ago. Arrivals at Duluth, however, continued light.
Mill demand was fairly active and prices held about unchanged.

Pacific Coast markets held steady, but trading was rather inactive, and confined largely to domestic marketing agencies. Current quotations remained unchanged, and well above an export basis, which prevented any export business in either wheat or flour out of Portland or Seattle.

Domestic mills were taking sufficient wheat for light requirements and fair amounts of grain were being sold from Washington and Oregon to California mills and feeders. Movement of wheat to Portland and Seattle continued of good volume, with farmers and country shippers still selling rather freely. Winter wheat prospects continue favorable in the Northwest, with stands reported good. The weather is unusually mild and there is no snow covering in the Pendleton, Walla Walla and lower Palouse districts. Good subsoil moisture, with heavy snow prevails in the Big Bend spring wheat country.

At the close of the market Jan. 30, white wheat was quoted at Seattle at 67½c, Western red at 64½c, hard winter at 65c, Big Bend bluestem at 68c, all sacked, basis No. 1 grade.
14 per cent protein, local No. 1 hard winter was quoted at 70c per bushel and the same from Montana in bulk at 73c per bushel. Dark northern spring was quoted at the same price as hard winter. Big Bend bluestem
No. 1 hard white was quoted at Portland at 70c, No. 1 soft and western white at 67½c, No. 1 hard winter, northern spring and western red at 64½c, all sacked. 14 per cent protein No. 1 dark northern from Montana was quoted at 75c per bushel in bulk.

California wheat markets were quite steady during the week. Prices at San Francisco remained practically unchanged, with local No. 1 hard white and No. 1 soft white quoted at $1.35 to $1.40 per 100. Demand for local wheat, however, was limited, since many California millers and feeders were obtaining their supplies from Washington and Oregon at lower prices. No. 2 soft white, No.
2 western white and No. 2 hard winter, with 11 per cent protein was quoted delivered at San Francisco at $1.25 and western red at $1.22 per hundred. No. 2 hard white with 12 per cent protein was quoted at $1.30.

Doesn't Remember One Like It
O. V. Morey, who says he has been a resident of this section for the past 56 years, says he doesn't remember a winter just like this one. Of course, he says, there have been several open winters, but he does not remember one where the cold weather lasted such a short time.

Again we make the assertion that California has nothing much on us when it comes to a real good brand of winter weather. Some flowers are in bloom, pussy willows are out, robins, peewees and other summer birds are to be seen and heard every day.

CRESCENT CLIPPINGS

Wm. Kauder of Southwick took supper with the Claud Craig family.
He spent the night at the John Darby home. Wednesday Mr. Kauder, Henry Loeser and John Darby went to Moscow on business concerning
Mr. Loeser's naturalization papers.
Mrs. Rose Farrington spent Friday with Mrs. John Darby.
Mrs. George Lockhart went over to Gold Hill Tuesday afternoon and stayed until Friday. She conducted the state examinations at that place.
The oyster supper and party at the school house Saturday night was well attended, and a most enjoyable time was had by all.

Art Osborn, who has been visiting relatives here for some time, left for his home Monday.

Mrs. Frank Souders visited with the Bill Dorendorf family Tuesday evening.

Mrs. Rose Farrington went to Kendrick Monday to stay a few days with Grandma Keeker. We are glad to hear she is still improving.

The Flashlight

Little Flashes of This and That

Vol. 11 Kendrick, Idaho, January 30, 1931 No. 34

Published in the interests of the People of the Entire Potlatch Country by the Kendrick Hardware Company, Harold Thomas, Editor.

Hello there, everybody! Here it is February and the groundhog saw his shadow. Oh, my! And we had such hopes for an early garden.

Speaking of gardens, did you know that this year we will have one of the finest assortments of garden and lawn seeds ever in Kendrick?

Speaking of sunlight and of shadows, have you seen those fine window blinds of ours? Priced very reasonable.

Motor maximum. The female of the species is more deadly at the wheel.

Probably very true, but it will soon be time to put them at the wheel of a new lawn mower, and then what? Yes, we have the lawn mower!

Yes, the days are getting longer, but you still can't see to read in the evening, so why not an Alladdin lamp!

H. B. Thompson says that two is company, three is a crowd—especially on a party telephone line!

Say, how are the batteries in your phone? Let us supply you with new ones.

Some one in a big Boston theatre threw eggs at Rudy Vele. This no doubt, was the work of an "eggspert."

Have you seen that cream and green enamel ware we are showing? and that aluminum ware? Priced so reasonable.

Squirrel and groundhog season will soon be upon us, and don't forget that we have a very complete line of 22's and ammunition.

"In the first act of my play," said the young author, "the scene is laid in a cemetery."
"So I see," said the manager as he skimmed through the pages. "And you might as well lay the whole thing there."

Let your radio set bring you the programs of the air. Put in new tubes purchased at this store.

A mob of women beat to death a vegetable dealer in Turin, who was charging excessive prices. Well, they can't pick on us, you bet!

TEAKEAN GOSSIP

The old Groundhog sure saw his shadow here the second of this month, but we hope he forgets to go in hiding again.

Wallace Sewell visited with Carroll Groseclose Sunday afternoon.

Mrs. Butler and Velma Leah and Vaughn Browning and Stanley Smith motored to Cedar creek Sunday and spent the day with relatives.

Mrs. Cora Davis has been on the sick list for the past week, but is some better at present.

Mrs. VanAirdale was an Orofino visitor Friday.

The Ladies aid met last Wednesday at the home of Mrs. Fred Daniels.

Mrs. J. Lind called at the L. Clanin home last Thursday afternoon.

Mrs. Maude Choate has been visiting relatives for several days.

J. S. Lehman and son Owen called at the Wm. Groseclose home Saturday.

Mrs. J. H. Butler and Mrs. Wm. Groseclose spent the day last Thursday with Mrs. L. Clanin.

Last Thursday evening a sled load of friends came to the Wm. Groseclose home to practice some music. They were Mr. and Mrs. L. Clanin, Mrs. J. Lind, Miss Lottie Chladek, Elwood Brock, Clarence Clanin, Mrs. Chas. Sewell and son Wallace.

Mrs. and Mrs. L. Clanin, Clarence Clanin, J. S. Lehman, Owen Lehman, Mrs. and Mrs. John Lind, Miss Lottie Chladek and Elwood Brock were all dinner guests Sunday at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Gus Harliss.

Miss Lottie Chladek and Elwood Brock motored to Lewiston last Saturday.

Owen Lehman came up from Orofino to spend a while with his father.

John Lind was a Lewiston visitor Saturday.

Carroll Groseclose has been hauling fence posts to the Garrison farm, where Mr. Lehman is doing some fencing.

Mrs. Lena Freund Monday.

Mrs. J. H. Butler and Jimmy were callers at the Wm. Groseclose home Saturday evening.

Jack Travis of Southwick was called to Dr. H. Butler's Tuesday morning to doctor a sick mule. The mule had been sick all night and seemed to grow worse, until about 10 o'clock Tuesday morning, then began to act like she felt better, so they have hopes they may yet save her.

School Notes

May, Velma and Elmo Davis were out of school all last week on account of illness.

Velma Leah Butler and Margaret Baugh are carrying the Third B work easily and have time for supplementary work.

The attendance in the lower grades has been very good. So far there are nine lined up for the large certificate of attendance to be awarded at the close of school.

Mr. and Mrs. Butler, Mrs. Weakley and Arless Wells came to see how the spelling match in the upper grades turned out. The visitors were so interested in it that they helped spell.

Perhaps it reminded them of old school days.

Elmer Sewell brought some buttercups to school Monday. They are set out in dirt and moss. Some are blooming and there are a great many buds. The children are caring for them.

Tune In On Conoco Hour

"I don't know how I do it—it just comes natural."

That's the only explanation Bob MacGimsey, "three way" whistler, can give of his uncanny ability to whistle in three-tone harmonies.

He is widely known for his radio performances on national networks and his phonograph records. He will be the guest star of the next Conoco Listeners' Hour program.

"Ever since I can remember, I could whistle exactly as I do now," he said. "In fact, if I try to think how I do it I have trouble whistling at all."

MacGimsey was "discovered" by Gene Austin, popular record artist. When broadcasting officials heard his records they promptly signed him up as a regular performer and his law business and cotton plantation down in Lake Providence, Louisiana, were turned over to his partners to handle.

He has been examined by physicians and speech experts who found his vocal equipment perfectly normal and could supply no explanation of his three-tone whistling.

"Funny thing, though," he said, "I've never been able to whistle on my fingers. I wish I could."

Tune in on the Conoco hour—the eleventh of this series—next Tuesday evening, Feb. 10. It will be transmitted in this territory by station KSL, Salt Lake City, from 6 to 6:30.

Auto License Good Until April 1

It is good news to many that the Idaho lawmakers have decided to defer the enforcement of the new 1931 auto license law and have extended the date of use of the 1930 tag until April 1, 1931.
