Revivals at U. B. Church
A series of evangelistic services began Sunday at the United Brethren Church. Wilbur Fix, son of Mr. and Mrs. Ira Fix, is the evangelist. Rev. Calvert of Clarkston and Rev. Pres-nall of Southwick are assisting him. Bishop F. L. Hoskins of Myrtle will preach Sunday morning.

Cherry Season Starts
Cherry picking has begun in a few orchards, but the rush will not be on until the first of the week. The packing house will open Monday. This week's rains have not damaged the fruit, the cracking being done last week when the bright sunshine followed the showers.

Glenn-Carlson
Miss Emma Glenn, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. John Glenn of Potlatch Ridge and Edgar Carlson were married at Lewiston on Tuesday of last week. Miss Gladys Cochrane and Fred Glenn accompanied them as witnesses.

Mr. and Mrs. Carlson left that evening for a honeymoon trip to the coast, returning Monday.

A large crowd gathered at their home Tuesday evening for an old fashioned charivari, and to receive "treats" from the newly weds.

Visiting Sister
Charles Austin of Twin Falls was a guest at the Fred Albright home over the week-end. He returned to Twin Falls Monday accompanied by Mrs. Austin, who has been visiting her sister, Mrs. Albright, for several weeks.

A. J. Richardson Passes
A. J. Richardson, 67, passed away at St. Joseph's hospital Monday at 7:30 o'clock. Until about two years ago he had been a resident of Clarkston.

He was taken to the hospital on March 25. He is survived by five brothers and three sisters, Emery Richardson, Pullman, Wash., Thomas Richardson, Vancouver, Wash., J. E. Richardson, White Salmon, Idaho; Mrs. Mary Berry, Peck; Mrs. George Kendall, Salem, Oregon; Mrs. Victoria Mann, Corvallis, Oregon; Henry Richardson, Cambridge, Idaho and R. T. Richardson, Wapato, Wash.

Local Items
Mrs. T. J. Buchanan and children of Klamath Falls, Ore., are visiting at the Lulu and Hulda Buchanan homes.

George Hutchinson returned Sunday from Missoula, where he has been doctoring for several weeks.

Miss Audrey Carlson is here from Spokane for a two week's visit.

Mr. and Mrs. Dave Glenn and family of Los Angeles are visiting at the John Gleen and Buchanan homes.

Mr. and Mrs. C. S. Biddison were Lewiston visitors Saturday.

Mr. and Mrs. E. W. Porter and children of Boise arrived Saturday to visit at the A. W. Behrens home.

Mr. and Mrs. Marion Gruell and sons of Lewiston and Miss Lucille Gruell, who has been employed at Genesee for the past six weeks, visited relatives Sunday.

Miles Pierce and F. D. Lackey made a business trip to Moscow on Tuesday.

Mrs. Amanda Alexander and son, Ward, returned Tuesday from Moscow, where they have been for the past ten months.

Leona Gruell is visiting her mother, Mrs. Mary Long and her grandmother, Mrs. Maude Hendren at Clarkston.

Mrs. Sophia Taylor arrived Wednesday from Lewiston for a visit with friends. She has spent the past two years in California.

Mr. and Mrs. Ed. Gallaher and daughter, Cleta, visited at Myrtle Sunday. Cleta remained to visit for a few days, returning home Monday, accompanied by Miss Grace Hoskins.

Triple Birthday Party
A triple birthday party was held at the C. A. Cuddy home at Southwick, in honor of the birthdays of James, Ray, and David Cuddy, whose birthdays all come on June 24.

The family party consisted of Mr. and Mrs. J. M. Cuddy and family of Nez Perce, Mr. and Mrs. Dick Cuddy and daughter of Kendrick, Grandma Cuddy and family, Ray Cuddy and family, the host and hostess, Mr. and Mrs. C. A. Cuddy and grandchildren, all of Southwick.

BOGUS CHECK ARTISTS ARRESTED AT SPALDING

In the arrest at Spaulding Saturday afternoon of Jack Monte, 21, of Burns, Oregon, and J. C. Wilkinson, 29, of Orofino, officers of Latah and Nez Perce county think they have captured two of the cleverest check artists operating in central Idaho for several years. While the forgeries in most cases were said not to exceed $25.00 the funds received in the aggregate will run well into hundreds of dollars, it is believed.

The men were cornered in their car parked on the outskirts of Spaulding by Deputy Sheriff Howard C. Gasser, called in to assist when other members of the sheriff's office were busy. They had called at the L. C. Watson store and at Evans service station and asked for a blank check. They were suspected and the sheriff was called.

While the Nez Perce county officers were bringing Monte and Wilkinson to Lewiston, Miles Pierce, special deputy constable at Juliaetta and Ernest Davis, deputy sheriff at Kendrick were in hot pursuit. The men passed one check in Kendrick at the Morgan Grocery Market in the amount of $12.65, purchasing about $1.65 worth of goods and tending a check for $12.65 signed "S. W. Silflow". They also tried to victimize the Perryman Confectionery of a like sum over the same signature, but Mr. Perryman was suspicious and declined to cash the check.

At the Frank Lackey store at Juliaetta they purchased eight pairs of socks and tendered a check for $10.45, which was cashed. M. F. Boyd, Peck, honored a bogus check for $6.50 during the Pioneer Picnic and several service stations in Latah county were victims.

A list of names was found on Monte, evidently being persons mulcted or set out as intended victims. L. E. Hoppe, H. E. Brammer, H. H. Betts and C. A. Betts, all of Southwick, were on the list, also "S. W. Silflow," Cameron and H. J. Lockard, H. Hilson, both of Lapwai and E. J. Todd, Sweetwater.

Report reached the sheriff's office that a third implicated was attempting to procure blank checks at Lapwai and Deputy Sheriff R. L. Pennell and Ernest Davis went there but could find no trace of him.

The men made a flat denial they were at Kendrick and Juliaetta Friday, but when confronted by Constable Pierce they said, "we might have been but were too drunk to know it." Pierce reminded them they were not intoxicated at the time he saw them. The socks purchased from the Lackey store were in their possession.

Correct Us If We're Wrong
We are in receipt of a road condition report from the Idaho State Chamber of Commerce, a portion of which we quote:

Construction between Cottonwood and Craigmont. Some loose gravel top of Lewiston Hill.

The construction mentioned in the above is someone's pet schemes for the elimination of curves, but most of all, it seems to us, for wasting the tax payers money. When the additional tax gas tax was voted it was expected that some roads would be built that would give the farmer (the backbone of our nation) a road on which to get his products to market. But no, the curves must be eliminated, it matters not that an already perfectly good take at the speed limit already good road, with curves that anyone exists, those curves must be eliminated, the road torn up and rebuilt.

The road must make tourist travel easier and must save them a pint of gas a day. Our farmers don't matter. Really, isn't it time someone woke up and did something?

We could go on quoting endlessly from the road report, but we picked a section with which all are familiar. Taxation without representation was one of the causes of the revolutionary war and some day the farmers are going to rise up and demand their rights. We hope they do. We're with them 100 per cent.

Motorcycle Accident

George Clem of Clarkston had the misfortune Thursday of tangling his motorcycle with loose gravel in front of the W. J. Carroll home on Main street. The machine was traveling at a high rate of speed when loose gravel was encountered, the motorcycle upset, falling on its rider. Mr. Clem received minor cuts and bruises, which necessitated medical attention.

POWER COMPANY TO FIGHT KILOWATT TAX

The long expected attack on the constitutionality of one of Idaho's new tax laws came last week when the Utah Power & Light company filed suit in the federal court asking a temporary injunction against state officers to prevent them from enforcing the provisions of the "Kilowatt tax."

Immediately Governor Ross issued a statement to the effect that the state would combat with all the forces at its command any effort to annul the law.

"The kilowatt tax is a just and equitable law," he said, "requiring only a fair tribute from power companies that are making a substantial income from natural resources that belong to the people. We do not believe this law runs counter to the constitution of the United States, of the constitution of Idaho, but that it is legal in every respect, and we will fight all efforts that are made to bring about its annulment."

The Governor also declared that, in event the law was found unconstitutional, "other ways will be found to require corporation enjoying the God-given natural resources that belong to the people to pay their just proportion of taxes."

The power company's suit attacks the kilowatt tax law on several technical grounds, alleging that it is in violation of the constitutions of both the United States and of Idaho. The company estimates that the new tax would amount to $120,000 annually in addition to taxes of more than four hundred thousand dollars which it already pays.

In assailing the constitutionality of the new law, the company asserts that it violates the constitution of the United States by placing a tax on interstate business; that it denies the company equal protection of the law and renders its property liable to be taken without due process of law; that the act itself is improperly drawn that the special session of the legislature that passed the act was called in violation of the constitution; and that the law contains uncertainties and ambiguities which cannot be equitably determined and are subject to arbitrary interpretation.

The complaint points out that of the 236,600,000 kilowatt hours of electrical energy generated in Idaho by the company in 1930, 201,955,000 were sold in Utah, thus coming under the head of interstate commerce.

The Utah Power & Light company is a member of the Electric Bond & Share group, to which the Idaho Power company also belongs.

Aged Resident of Troy Dead

Nicholas Olson, 80, resident of Troy district since 1878, died Friday in the Troy hospital from a lingering illness.

Mr. Olson was born April 12, 1851, in Norway. In 1874 he came to America and in 1879 he and his brother, John, came to Troy, locating on a homestead there. He is survived by two brothers, John of Troy, and one living somewhere in the east; by two sisters in Norway and two nephews in Troy.

The body was at the Pickard chapel parlors in Troy. Funeral services were held Monday afternoon at the Troy Norwegian Lutheran church, and interment was in the Moscow Cemetery.

A. W. BEHRENS GOES TO FEDERAL LAND BANK

A. W. Behrens, who for the past three months has been with the Kendrick State Bank since the consolidation of the Bank of Juliaetta with the local institution, has resigned his position and will move to Spokane very shortly, at which place he will be employed by the Federal Land Bank, assuming his new duties the first of July.

Mr. Behrens is well and favorably known throughout the Potlatch section, he having been cashier of the Bank of Juliaetta for some ten years and where he and his wife have made a host of friends. He held the position of cashier until the consolidation of the two banks, then becoming associated with the local bank.

Mr. Behrens father and mother, Mr. and Mrs. John Behrens, will occupy the A. W. Behrens home in Juliaetta.

Mr. Behrens, besides his duties in the bank held the office of village clerk at Juliaetta, was clerk of Good Roads District No. 2 and Chairman of the School Board of District No. 43. He was an all-around town booster and both Juliaetta and Kendrick lose a good citizen and a fine family by the move.

Ain't It So?

It makes no difference whether Al Capone goes to jail for two or 34 years. Ten days after he's entered the hoosegow Leavenworth prison will be divided into beer districts anyway.

Condition Improved

Raymond Frazier, who was injured in a tractor accident on Mrs. Julia Brocke's ranch some three weeks ago is again back in town from Moscow, where he was having his arm treated, which was quite seriously hurt, but which is now greatly improved.

ASOTIN SECTION EXPECTS VERY SATISFACTORY YIELD

Despite drought and torrid weather, the latter part of May and early June, farmers on the south half of Anatone and Cloverland flats expect 30 bushels of wheat to the acre; this season if the heads fill properly, reported the sheriff of that county.

The wheat in the central and south half of Anatone flat is standing waist high, and damage from lack of moisture and hot winds became comparatively light in many of the fields. This section includes the Montgomery and Weisenfels ridges, especially the central and south portions.

Last year these districts harvested from 25 to 50 bushels of wheat to the acre, the yield being unusually heavy.

The greatest damage, the sheriff reported, is west of Clarkston Heights where he estimated the crops to run from 6 to 15 bushels per acre. Some few places in the district the farmers will not attempt to harvest their crop.

The yield will also be very light in the north half of both the Anatone and Cloverland flats, the crops along the rimrock being badly burned. Some of the farmers in these districts will receive from six to twelve bushels to the acre.

In the central and south half of the Cloverland district the yield should be similar to that of the south portion of the Anatone flat, or about 30 bushels to the acre.

"Fair yields" should also be harvested in portions of the Peola district, Sheriff Wormell said.

The grain where the prospects are the most encouraging, is beginning to fill and the rains of the last few days have been of great value.

It is estimated that probably a half million bushels of wheat will be produced in Asotin county this year if the season is favorable until the grain fills properly. In previous years from 800,000 to 1,000,000 bushels of grain have been produced there.

Texas Harvest In Full Swing

Preparatory to handling what federal crop statisticians estimate will be a record crop of wheat for Texas, railroads have 15,000 cars on sidings in the panhandle section.

The harvest in that area will be in full swing next week and it was likely to continue for three weeks. Federal statisticians at Austin estimated the Texas crop at 46,175,000 bushels, the largest in history.

Employed at State Bank

Miss Doris Emery is now employed at the Kendrick State Bank. More help was made imperative by the resignation of A. W. Behrens.

A REVIEW OF THIS WEEK'S NEWS EVENTS

President Hoover's proposal last week of a one-year moratorium of war debts and reparations to give the European nations a chance to regain their financial footings was hailed with delight by European statesmen and described as the most important move yet made to end the current world-wide depression. It was the most important bit of news of the week and may prove of far-reaching historical importance.

News stories of particular interest to Idaho citizens last week related the completion by 10,000 people of the completion of the Milner-Shoshone canal, the attack by the Utah Power & Light company on the constitutionality of the new "kilowatt tax" law, the possibility of water from the Salmon river being used for supplemental moisture in the Boise valley and the beginning of the rich cherry harvest.

President Hoover proposed a one-year postponement of all intergovernmental war debts as a method of reviving business conditions all the world over.

A total of 426 pleasure seekers lost their lives when the excursion steamer, St. Philbert, sank in a squall off the coast at St. Naraire, France.

Wheat and other crops in the northwest were reported to be suffering from drought and heat, and the possibility of a special session of Congress to relieve the situation was being discussed.

A new gas, one that would stop airplane motors at a great height and therefore, of tremendous importance in aerial warfare, was reported discovered by a German scientist.

Railroad companies, intimating that they are operating at a loss, requested a 15 percent increase in freight rates.

The tomb of Warren G. Harding, former president of the United States, was formally dedicated, dispersing to a certain extent the dark clouds of graft and suspicion that hung over his administration.

Senator William E. Borah, recently returned to Idaho, reported the European situation more menacing than at any time since 1911.

Alphonse Capone, the Chicago gang leader, pleaded guilty to charges of income tax dodging and liquor law violations lodged against him by the federal government.

Ten thousand southern Idaho citizens gathered at Shoshone to celebrate the completion of the big canal from Milner to Shoshone, which will make Snake river water available for drought-suffering lands in Gooding and Lincoln counties.

A suit filed in the federal district court by the Utah Power and Light company will test the constitutionality of the newly enacted "kilowatt tax" law.

The freight rate on beans from Idaho to eastern markets was attacked as "prejudicial" and a movement was started to secure a rate reduction.

The assistance of Senator Borah in bringing Salmon river water through tunnels to supplement the Arrowrock supply was sought by Boise valley citizens.

The Emmett cherry harvest, estimated at 80 cars of choice fruit, was initiated last week with promising price indications.

Sarface Al Capone has abdicated his throne as king of Chicago's gangland in favor of a barred cell. What city and county authorities couldn't do, the U. S. government accomplished, and last week Capone pleaded guilty to three federal indictments one of income tax dodging and the others of liquor law violations. His maximum sentence under the law might be 34 years in prison and a fine of $90,000.

Capone's pleading guilty was a surprise, until the theory was advanced that the gangster, whose span of life is by the gangster code already outlived, will welcome protection of iron bars from enemy machine guns. Capone, rich with the profits of illegal activities, wants to quit—but the old saying in the underworld is "Once a gangster, always a gangster," and gangland quitters not infrequently stage their final performance as machine gun targets.

Mr. and Mrs. Paul Lind and children were week-end visitors in Moscow.

Mrs. J. F. Brown and son Robert went to McCall, Idaho, last week, where Mrs. Brown visited with her sister, Mrs. Arlie Hendrickson. They returned home Tuesday.

Beautiful Roses

We have heard of many things that Ben Callison can do besides cook and fish, his cooking being the envy of many a housewife, but now we have heard of his beautiful rose garden, and a garden it is indeed and a beauty to see, we are told. It must be so, for the bouquet of roses, 36 in all that was presented us Saturday evening is one of the most beautiful we have ever seen and the finest it has ever been our privilege to own.

The roses ranged from gigantic buds just beginning to open to the full bloom and in color ran through all the shades known to rose lovers, there being white, salmon, copper, rose pink and red and other various tint shades. We do not know the names of the varieties, but would say that they should all come under the head of "American Beauties."

Picnic In Park

Saturday evening saw a group picnic taking place in the park, where the stoves donated by liberal minded public citizens and the house built over them by Marshall Long, were tried out to the tune of fried potatoes, hamburgers and coffee.

Those assembling for the picnic dinner were Mr. and Mrs. Frank Rider and family, Mr. and Mrs. George Leith, Mr. and Mrs. Roy Ramey and family, Mr. and Mrs. Edgar Long and son, Mr. and Mrs. Wade Keene and family and Mr. Keene's mother, Mr. and Mrs. Harold Thomas and children and Mr. and Mrs. W. L. McCreary and daughter.

A feast was spread fit for a king and everyone voted it a most enjoyable time.

Urge "Trade At Home"

Patronizing home industries and the utilization of home products and home labor are urged as means of maintaining Idaho's economic lustre in a letter sent recently to chambers of commerce in Idaho by the State Chamber of Commerce. From a general survey, the letter states, of economic conditions it appears that Idaho is still the "One Bright Spot" but the continued depression makes it imperative that every means be used to maintain this condition.

"There is a considerable amount of public expenditure now being made," the letter continues, "for construction work by the state and different municipal units. We would suggest that your chamber urge upon our state and municipal officers consideration of awarding contracts to home contractors where the differential in bids is not greater than 5 per cent, with other factors being equal. And that our local merchants and dealers be given opportunity to bid on all bills of supplies for public use and given a like preferential when justified.

chambers along this line we can do much to keep the number of dollars now in circulation in our state within our borders and we can accomplish much for a continuation of Idaho's prosperity.

To Get License

Emelda O'Conner, 19, and W. Wilson Rogers, 22, both of Moscow, have filed their intentions to apply for a marriage license at the county recorder's office. The license may be issued after five days have expired. Mr. Rogers will be remembered as a former Kendrick resident, having attended school here for some time.

Like tobacco... the best Gasoline is Blended

YOU may prefer Burley tobacco with a touch of Turkish or a mixture which includes Perique. Whatever the preference, every good smoke is blended, expertly.

Of the various types of gasoline no one is a perfect motor fuel. So CONOCO refiners have developed their balanced blend, using: Natural Gasoline, for quick starting; Straight-run Gasoline, for power and mileage; Cracked Gasoline, for its anti-knock properties.

As expertly as the tobacco leaves are mellowed and combined these three elements are produced and blended to make CONOCO Balanced Blend Gasoline. You will find this better gasoline wherever you see the CONOCO Red Triangle. Try it today.

Knew His History

During the last American Legion convention in Boston, an elderly lady is said to have become alarmed at the antics of the Legionnaires and approached a policeman saying: "Can't you stop them, officer?"

"Lady," responded the officer very sadly, "there's an old man in Europe who tried to do that, and now he's sawing wood in Holland.

Government berths are desired by many who regard them as a reservation in a sleeping car.

General Ashley

The story of Idaho during its "dark ages" from 1810 to 1860 is made up, as all good history is said to be, of biographies rather than of the record of great events. In many instances our destinies were deeply affected by the achievements of men who were actually in Idaho very little if at all.

William Ashley came from Virginia to St. Louis in 1802, and engaged for some years in the fur business on the eastern slope. In 1822 he formed the Rocky Mountain Fur Company, his principal partner being Andrew Henry, a former associate of Manuel Lisa.

Among the hundred men who responded to his first newspaper advertisement in St. Louis, was a lad who later acquired undying fame, Jim Bridger. The outfit equipped two steamers, and with the necessary license to trade with the Indians, started up the Big Muddy. A few miles out one of the steamers sank with a loss of ten thousand dollars. Undaunted, the crew went on to the Yellowstone, where Ashley left them and returned to St. Louis for another party.

His second hundred included Dave Jackson, William Sublette, and the boy, Jed Smith. They started up to join the previous party who were under the command of Andrew Henry but just before reaching them Ashley was attacked by Indians. His men were divided between shore and the boats, and he was defeated with the loss of 13 killed and 10 wounded. He asked for volunteers to carry the word to Henry with an appeal for help. Young Jed Smith responded; taking a French-Canadian with him he made a successful trip through dreadful danger and hardship.

During the next three or four years Ashley's men trapped much of eastern and southern Idaho. In 1826 he sold out to Jackson, Smith and Sublette; his supplies brought cost plus 150 per cent, payment to be made within five years in cash or in beaver skins at about ten dollars each. Ashley returned to St. Louis, the trip taking seventy days. He was a wealthy man, served as lieutenant-governor of Missouri and several terms in Congress, dying of pneumonia in 1838.

Ashley deserves a prominent place in our history. His company was the first American outfit to make a success of trapping west of the Rockies, in fact almost the only one. He took a four-pounder cannon to Salt Lake the first wheeled vehicle to cross the mountains. He made popular the idea of "redzevous" to take the place of posts. One of his men, Jim Bridger, was the discoverer of the Great Salt Lake.

A Good Object Lesson

A recent editorial in the Los Angeles News, discussing the troubles of publicly owned business in Australia, should interest those who believe that socialization of our service industries would prove beneficial to America.

Australia has gone deeper into public ownership than any other country. There the states and municipalities own not only electric plants, railroads and telephone systems, but likewise own hotels, cafes, markets, ships, mines, farms, saw and sugar mills and similar enterprises. As a consequence, according to the News, Australia is the champion debt-ridden state of the world. Ninety-five per cent of all public business are actually losing money, in spite of their freedom from taxes.

As an example, the average freight rate per ton-mile on railroads in several parts of Australia is 3.79 cents, as contrasted with one cent in the United States. Our railroads pay $1600 per mile per year in taxes—Australian roads pay none. Their workers receive much less than ours. Yet last year the railroads' net receipts were $10,000,000 short of paying interest charges alone.

A lesson such as this is well worth heeding, particularly at a time when strong influence is being used in an attempt to plunge the American government into business. The unhappy experience of Australia and the plight of its over-taxed citizens should serve to keep us clear of the socialistic rocks.

"GIRL OF THE GOLDEN WEST" TO BE AT AUDIAN

The wistful appeal of Ann Harding stands out as the vivid spot of "Girl of the Golden West," to be shown at the Audian theatre Friday, Saturday and Sunday of this week-end.

The story of this great picture was taken from David Belasco's powerful stage drama bearing the same name, which had a steady run for over two years in New York.

The story itself has a mighty appeal. It is set in the gold rush days of California, one of the most colorful days in the history of our country, but essentially it is a story to interest everyone, and must not be thought of merely as a wildwest "thriller."

Minnie is the owner of a saloon in a western mining town, a girl adored by all the rough miners and especially by Jack Rance, the sheriff. However, Minnie does not return his feeling.

On the other hand she instantly falls in love with dashing Dick Johnson, who mysteriously rides into town. He is a "bad man" and is planning to rob Minnie's saloon, which also serves as a depository for "dust."

And so the story goes, but this one must be seen to be really appreciated.

Daughter Is Born

Friday, June 19, a baby girl, Lulu Mae, was born to Mr. and Mrs. Chas. Platt of Moscow. Mrs. Platt will be remembered as Ruby Weatherby of Fix Ridge.

Milking The Motorist

The poor motorist is becoming one of the tax-collector's best sources of revenue. Last year he paid taxes exceeding $2,000,000 a day—and he will pay more this year. The gasoline tax, the registration tax, the personal property tax, the driver's license fee and similar levies are making a steadily larger hole in the driver's purse. Since 1921 total motor vehicle tax income has increased at the rate of 14 per cent a year—and gas tax income at the rate of 79 per cent a year. In spite of this, annual increases for highway expenditure have gone up but six percent.

So far during 1931 ten legislatures have given the gas tax a boost skyward—and in one state a seven-cent tax just escaped passing. The gasoline tax will approach $600,000,000 this year and the total motor vehicle tax will be close to $1,500,000,000.

The Part Cork Plays In Shoes

The general public, while more or less familiar with the physical properties of such materials as leather and rubber, is not so well acquainted with cork. To most people cork is nothing more than a bottle stopper. But the story of cork is far reaching. Continued next week. Watch for this article.—N. E. WALKER—Shoe repairing.

Store Moving
The Ellis Cash Store is this week moving to its new and permanent location in the Raby Building, next door to the Postoffice.

Since its opening some month or more ago the store has been located in the Raby building in the room that was formerly the dining hall of the old Commercial hotel.
This location was only temporary,
however, while the room formerly occupied by the DeLuxe barber shop was being remodeled to suit their needs. A new floor being put in, a new concrete door step and a small basement. The whole being finished in an attractive grey and white and the counters and shelves in dark oak. The store indeed presents a very neat appearance.

Big Egg Contest Over
The big egg contest, conducted yearly by the Kendrick Gazette, to prove to the world that the Potlatch can produce big "hen fruit" ended on the 15th of this month, with Mrs. D.
A. Bishop of Juliaetta turning in the largest. This egg measured 6 1/2 by 8 inches and weighed 3 and 7-8 ounces.
C. J. Schultz of Cameron was second, bringing in an egg which measured 6 1/4 by 8 inches and weighed 3 and 3-4 ounces.
John Cargill, Kendrick, was in third place, bringing in an egg that measured 6 by 8 inches and weighed
3 1/4 ounces.
Ira Bolon turned in a Long's store
egg that measured 5 1/2 by 8 inches and weighed 3 and 1-8 ounces.

ASPIRIN
BEWARE OF IMITATIONS
The gentle rain that has been falling off and on for the past week
or ten days has insured the bean and
wheat crop of this district, brought
out the lawn and in general greened
things up.
Bean raisers report that just the right amount of moisture has fallen
and that the beans are fairly jumping from the ground.
The rain arrived too late for some
of the wheat crop but in the main
was very beneficial. The fall grain
that was heading it will help materially and most of the spring grain, but
some was too far gone to be fit for
anything but hay.

LOOK for the name Bayer and the above when you buy Aspirin. Then you'll know that you are getting the genuine Bayer product that thousands of users have proved. It does not depress the heart. No harmful after-effects salicylicacid.

How to train BABY'S BOWELS
Babies, bottle-fed or breast-fed, with any tendency to be constipated, would thrive if they received daily, half a teaspoonful of this old family doctor's prescription for the bowels.
That is one sure way to train tiny bowels to healthy regularity. To avoid the fretfulness, vomiting, crying, failure to gain, and other ills of constipated babies.
Dr. Caldwell's Syrup Pepsin is good for any baby. For this, you have the word of a famous doctor. Forty-seven years of practice taught him just what babies
need to keep their little bowels active, regular; keep little bodies plump and healthy. For Dr. Caldwell specialized in the treatment of women and little ones. He attended over 3500 births without loss of one mother or baby.

Penitentiary Fight Still On
A city officer, Charles Cavanaugh, Pocatello chief of police, last week
entered the lists against R. E. Thomas, penitentiary warden, in the fight to have the convicts recently sent to the asylum at Blackfoot as insane, returned to the prison for safe keeping.
In entering the fight Cavanaugh takes the side of Lewis N. Williams, commissioner of public welfare, who asserts that there are no provisions for the safe keeping at the asylum for inmates such as these six men recently committed from the penitentiary.
The Pocatello chief is reported to have informed Governor Ross that he would not turn over to the state
his newly captured prisoner, Carl Ernst, one of the two men who recently escaped from the asylum, except on the condition that Ernst be returned to the penitentiary for safe keeping. Cavanaugh declared that he would not subject his men to the danger necessary to the recapturing of repeatedly escaping asylum inmates and for that reason desires Ernst to be lodged in the penitentiary where escape will be more difficult.
Ernst has asserted that he will not attempt to stay at the asylum and threatened any officer who attempts to recapture him after his next escape. Warden Thomas has heretofore remained adamant to all pleas to accept the prisoners again for safe keeping. McDonald, an inmate who escaped with Ernst on two occasions,
is still at large.

Change Train Time
Under a new schedule put into effect about a week ago the time of two of our passenger trains has been changed. The train formerly arriving here from Lewiston at 9:05
a. m. has been changed so that it now arrives at 8:42.
The afternoon passenger, Lewiston-Spokane, now arrives at 4:32
instead of 2:05.
This change does not materially effect things in any way with the exception of the later arrival of the afternoon mail.

Rain Is Fine
The gentle rain that has been falling off and on for the past week
or ten days has insured the bean and
wheat crop of this district, brought
out the lawn and in general greened
things up.
Bean raisers report that just the
right amount of moisture has fallen
and that the beans are fairly jumping from the ground.
The rain arrived too late for some
of the wheat crop but in the main
was very beneficial. The fall grain
that was heading it will help materially and most of the spring grain, but
some was too far gone to be fit for
anything but hay.

Rock Crusher Started
The rock crusher of the Kendrick highway district was started the middle of last week and until interrupted by the rain was going full blast with a crew of four men and two trucks in operation.
The rock is being spread from the foot of the May hill south toward Kendrick. It is being crushed and spread at the rate of about 125
yards per day.
This work is making the farmer
and merchant smile, and well it may,
for it has been needed for a long time and now we have it.

Appointed To Hoquiam
At the session of the Pacific Northwest Annual Conference of the Methodist Church, held in Yakima,
Wash., last week, Miss Corabelle M.
Teachman was appointed as pastor of the Simpson Ave. Methodist Church at Hoquiam, Washington.
Miss Teachman will hold her last service in the Kendrick church next Sunday evening, as she leaves next week for her new field.
The Kendrick church was left without a pastor for the present, awaiting future developments.

The following members were pres-

A Distinction
When they found Rastus working with the road crew and told him that he was wanted on a charge of wife desertion, he replied:
"All right, boss, I'll go along with you; but you don't know that woman.
I'se not a deserter; I'se a refugee."

Visiting Here
Mr. and Mrs. John Carver of Myr-
