NO. 29

STATE CHAMBER TELLS IDAHO TAX HISTORY

Government can truly be classed under the heading of "big business". Our state government has the largest payroll in the state, expends each year more money than any one single business or industrial institution.

Total disbursements from public funds during the biennium from October 1, 1928 to September 30, 1930, as revealed by the state auditor's report, amounted to $28,583,684.78. If you care for division this is more than 14 million dollars annually, more than one million dollars monthly and about $39,155.73 for every day in the two-year period, including Sundays and holidays.

Warrants Drawn

Of the disbursements for this biennium the largest item is "warrants drawn" which accounts for state expenditures totalling $22,720,317.63. This amount represents the payments made from all state funds by warrant. Heaviest expenditures under this heading are $8,550,744.92 from the state highway fund, $2,283,020.41 from the public school endowment fund, $1,272,396.92 from the public school fund, $426,862.07 from the fish and game fund and $326,633.97 from national forest reserve accounts.

It seems noteworthy in this regard from funds having special sources of that the heaviest expenditures are revenue and not supported by direct taxation.

Other Disbursements

Other items under the disbursement summary include: treasury notes redeemed (general fund), $1,750,000.00; treasury notes redeemed (highway fund), $500,000.00; sight drafts paid on revolving funds, $1,571,416.06; bonds redeemed (state), $372,500.00; bonds paid (irrigation district), $12,880.00; interest on state bonds, $484,491.85; interest on registered warrants, $134,297.87.

Miscellaneous payments by the state treasurer during the two-year period totalled $891,054.26. Interest on treasury notes, both general highway fund, and interest on state and irrigation district bonds amounted to more than $136,000. Bad checks caused the state a loss of $9246.86 during the biennium.

Revenue Received

Against these disbursements, we find that the state received in "cash apportioned to funds" for the period in question a grand total of $29,466,159.99, representing the governmental revenue from all sources, including taxes, licenses, fees, sales, fines, trust funds, irrigation district levy and so forth. The receipts were apportioned to the various funds as authorized by law.

The completed figures show that on October 1, 1928, there was a cash balance in the treasury of $2,024,100.82. Warrants outstanding at this date totalled $1,103,915.35, leaving a cash surplus in all funds of $920,185.48. This cash surplus at the close of the biennium, on September 30, 1930, was $1,821,575.31. Also during this biennium state bonds to the amount of $372,500.00 were paid and no additional bonds were issued.

Fund Apportionments

Of the total state revenue for 1929-1930 the sum of $4,606,232.74 was raised by the general state tax, the remainder coming from special sources. A total of $7,854,176.36 was apportioned to the state general fund for the purpose of paying the operating expenses of the state government.

The remainder of the receipts, more than 20 million dollars, was apportioned to the various special, revolving and suspense funds for the use in the various governmental functions for which those funds were created.

Locust Trees In Bloom

While their blooming was delayed somewhat by a serious operation performed on them by the Schupfer boys last spring, the locust trees surrounding the telephone office are not to be put out of the blooming business. They have been putting out bloom for the past two weeks and while the bloom is not thick, it is just as fragrant as ever. This is indeed unusual for the other locust trees of the town have been free of bloom for the past two months or more.

Remodeling Home

R. H. Ramey started work the first of this week on the remodeling of his home. He will add two bedrooms and a sleeping porch on the upstairs portion of their home, adding them needed room and added much to the convenience and comfort of the family.

Speed Should Be Checked

While Kendrick has no "speed cop" on duty, there is a state law that says the speed through incorporated cities and villages shall not exceed 20 miles per hour.

Kendrick's main street is being used more and more as a speed-way, not only by cars, but trucks as well. While no accidents have been reported to date, yet there is grave danger: unless those driving cars will exercise more care as there are many children that use Main street as a play-ground and a serious accident may happen unless the speed is curtailed.

FRANCIS M. HELTON PASSES AWAY AT TACOMA

Francis Marion Helton, a pioneer of this section of the country, passed away at Tacoma, Washington, July 6, aged 80 years, eight months and 25 days.

Mr. Helton came to this section of the country presumably from Richland, Kansas, where he was united in marriage with Sarah Jane Souders on Christmas eve, 1876. They resided at Richland for several years and four of their six children were born there—Larwill, Walker, Ellis, and Vera (now Mrs. Bond)—where he was engaged in business.

In 1880 he brought his family by wagon train, in company with the Micheals boys, and others, to the West settling on a homestead in the Cedar creek section. On his way here he passed through Southwick, then known as Grafton, the postoffice being at the home of Grandpa Southwick, also one of the early pioneers. There were many other families in the Cedar creek section at that time, among them being Mr. Bishop, William Kauder, A. J. Wells, Mr. Tate, N. B. Long, and others.

It was at Cedar creek that two more sons came to bless their home—James and John. Here Mr. Helton acted as school clerk for many years. In the fall of 1902 the family removed to the prairie, locating on the Clemmens Orchard tract, near where the Grinold school now stands. Three years later they moved to Southwick, where he purchased a part of the John Hottle place, where he built a home and where he owned a carpenter shop. A few years later part of it was made into a room which was used for church services for the Church of God. He engaged in carpentering there and built many farm homes and other buildings, the former United Brethren church being one of them.

He was always a very active man and had scores of friends in the communities in which he lived.

Funeral services were held at Southwick on Sunday, July 10, with burial in the Southwick cemetery.

We wish to extend our heartfelt thanks and appreciation for the kindly help and sympathy of our neighbors and friends and those who gave the beautiful floral offerings and the singers who took part in the services.

Lowell Helton and Family, Walter Helton and Family, Ellis Helton and Family, James Helton and Family, John Helton and Family, Vera Bond, John Lettenmaier and Family.

Picnicked In Park

A very pleasant picnic party gathered in the park Sunday and enjoyed an old-fashioned picnic dinner—and then wound up the day with a ball game—but just who won we failed to learn.

The party was made up of Mr. and Mrs. John Waide and sons of Deary, Miss Edna Ferguson of Deary, Mr. and Mrs. Wade Keene and children, Mr. and Mrs. W. A. Watts and sons, Mr. and Mrs. Clifford Davidson and daughter, Miss Rilla Davidson and Miss Eleanor Herres of Orofino.

Hogs Advance 25 Cents

Top hogs advanced 25 cents to $5.40 a hundred at the Union stockyards at Spokane Monday. This is the highest price offered this year, and about $1.80 a hundred higher than the year's low, reached about a month ago. Offerings have been light and the demand free. One large packer said the supply here was short, necessitating shipment of about half his firm's requirements from North Dakota.

Tax League Meeting

Announcement has been made that the Latah County Tax League will hold a meeting in the court house at Moscow for Saturday, July 18, at 10 o'clock.

KENDRICK COMMERCIAL CLUB HOLDS MEETING

The regular monthly meeting of the Kendrick Commercial club was held in the Raby Hotel Monday evening, with 20 members present. Dinner was served at 6:30 o'clock, after which the regular business of the club was taken up.

After the reading of the minutes reports of standing committees were asked for by President, Thompson, but only a few were ready, or had anything to report of importance.

N. E. Walker, chairman of the highway committee, reported that so far as the Kendrick highway district is concerned, work will soon be started on Big Bear ridge. The crusher is being put in shape, much blasting has been done and the trucks are being put in order, so that within a short time it is expected that active work will be started. He stated that no definite word had been received regarding the survey being made on Big Bear, but that work had been going on steadily for the past several weeks.

About the next important thing was the report of the committee having in charge the raising of funds for the coming year, of which E. H. Dammarell is chairman. Ways and means were discussed at length. The statement that more funds will be needed for the coming year than were used during the past year and the question of raising the necessary funds other than by assessment of members of the club was discussed from many angles. There is no doubt but that the funds will be forthcoming when the time comes. The question of combining local efforts in relief work was also discussed and the matter was finally left with the committee.

The fish and game committee, Wade Keene chairman, did not make a full report, but it came out in the discussion that this locality had been promised some 30,000 to 40,000 fingerling trout for local planting and that there was every reason to believe the fish would be forthcoming in due time. It was also stated that those who have taken notice, have reported many small trout now in the creeks and also that several good catches of trout were being made at various points, mostly up Little Bear creek.

W. R. Smith of Southwick was present and made a short talk, expressing his pleasure at being present at the meeting. He stated that he would be very glad to cooperate with the club in any of its activities.

Talks on various subjects of interest to the community were made and all-in-all, it was a very interesting meeting. It is to be regretted that more of the business men of the town do not see fit to attend these meetings. There is nothing selfish about them. They are solely for the benefit of the community and every citizen should be interested in the welfare of our little city. Make it a point to attend the next meeting, it will be held on Monday night, August 8.

More Fine Timothy

Last week we published an item stating that Mr. Sparber had brought in some samples of timothy that measured more than 38 inches in height, with heads 7½ and 8 inches in length, which was indeed very fine. On Monday morning Mrs. M. A. Deobald brought to town a sample of timothy raised on her American ridge farm that measured, on an average, of more than 48 inches, with heads that were from 8 to 9 inches in length, and one particular stalk measured 5 feet 9 inches in length.

There are no doubt many farms that can and do produce equally as well as the two mentioned, which shows conclusively that this section of the country can raise as good timothy as can be grown anywhere.

R. F. Brown To Hospital

Mr. and Mrs. J. F. Brown received word recently that their son, R. F. Brown, who is handling a pack train for the government out of McCall, had been taken suddenly ill while on one of his trips and that he had been packed out on a stretcher between two mules, a distance of ten miles, and later taken to a Boise hospital, where he underwent an operation. A peculiar thing was that the operation disclosed that Mr. Brown had a split in his liver, seemingly the only thing found wrong with him, so far as learned at that time. Just how it might have come about is problematical and very unusual. No later word has been received.

ANOTHER IDAHO PIONEER PASSES TO GREAT BEYOND

William Henry Berreman, a resident of the Crescent and Southwick sections since 1888, passed away at his home at Southwick on Tuesday, July 12, at the age of 80 years, two months and 18 days. Funeral services were held Thursday morning at 11 o'clock from the U. B. church, with Rev. J. L. Pearson preaching the funeral sermon. Six ministers (whose names we did not get) were pallbearers. Burial was made in the Southwick cemetery.

William Henry Berreman was born in Iowa, April 24, 1852. At the age of six years he, with his parents, moved to Missouri, where they resided until 1888, when he came west and homesteaded near Crescent. He resided there until some twelve years ago when he removed to Southwick, where he had since resided.

At the age of 19 he was united in marriage to Rebecca Fitchall. To this union 12 children were born—six sons and six daughters. Ten years after coming west his wife passed to the great beyond.

In 1902 he was united in marriage with Riphia Lincoln. To this union one son was born, who died in infancy. At the age of 19 he was converted into the Baptist church and was called to preach at the age of 30. He was a faithful servant of God until the end.

He is survived by his widow, five sons—Eli of Yakima, Wash.; Henry and George of Walla Walla, Wash.; Delbert of Russel, Idaho; Jacob of Cameron, and one daughter, Mrs. Tony Shuemaker of Clarkston, Wash. Two step-daughters—Mrs. Fred Hasinger of Gifford, Idaho, and Mrs. Cleo eBts of Southwick, Idaho, and one step-son, Edgar Lincoln, of Gifford, also survive.

Car Recovered From River

What remained of the coupe driven by Hayes Coleman, drowned in the Clearwater river just west of the Orofino bridge June 12, was dragged from the channel at 2:30 o'clock Friday afternoon of last week approximately one mile from where the auto plunged from the road. The car was discovered when the water receded enough to expose the top.

Rolled and bounced along the rocky river bed, the coupe was a complete wreck. The top and windshield had been sheared entirely off and the wire spokes of rimless wheels were twisted tightly around the hubs. Fenders were crumpled. Cushions and loose material in the car had washed away. Two tires retained their air.

Coleman's body was recovered near Peck June 24.

Receive Check For 23c

A short time ago N. B. Long & Sons shipped to Spokane 10 fine hides, for which they received a check in the munificent sum of 23 cents. The shipment contained eight prime calf and two prime steer hides. Is there any wonder that people are becoming more and more dissatisfied each day? The large packer is the fellow who furnishes the hides for the shoe and harness trade—the little fellow doesn't even have a look-in.

Huge Salaries

One of the reasons that railroads have to have large freight rates is due to the fact that the presidents and executives of the more than 1200 Class 1 railroads receive salaries ranging from $60,000 to $100,000 a year.

Just for example: Southern Pacific Railroad system, chairman of the board, $22,500; chairman executive committee, $135,000; vice chairman executive committee, $76,500; president, $90,000.

Aimee Faints

When informed that her singing husband had been "nicked" for $5,000 by a verdict in the love-making suit instituted by a Miss St Pierre, Sister Aimee Semple-McPherson-Hutton promptly got up out of her easy chair and fainted, falling backward and striking her head against the concrete floor of the porch of her cottage.

Poor Aimee, she just must get into the papers. If she can't do it one way, she manages another. But her real advertising stunt was when she dived down into the ocean and came up in the Arizona desert.

Parents of Daughter

Mr. and Mrs. Walter May are the parents of a 4½-pound daughter, who came to make her home with them last Saturday, July 9.

Some Fine Cherries

About the largest and finest cherries we have seen this season were brought to this office Saturday by O. E. McAllister from his Park View farm, near Juliaetta. They were of the Lamber variety and were as large as we have ever seen. One picked from the lot measured 3¼x3¼ inches in size.

Mr. McAllister is a rural carrier out of Juliaetta, but has time to look after his fruit farm, which boasts a wide variety of fruits of all kinds, and if the quality is as good as the samples of cherries, he should have no trouble getting top prices for it all.

INTERESTING ITEMS FROM JULIAETTA

Large Cherry Crop

There are a large number of people employed in harvesting the cherry crop this year. The cherries are of an extra fine quality and the crop is better than the average.

It is expected that from 10 to 12 carloads will be shipped from this point this year, which compares very favorably with the shipments of past seasons.

The Waybright Produce Co. is handling the packing and shipping of the entire crop for the growers this season.

About 300 people are employed in harvesting and caring for the cherries.

Fishing Is Good

Walt Bigham, Harold and Donald Behrens spent Sunday fishing at the Musselshell ranger station. Their luck was good, judging from the looks of their baskets.

Leave On Vacation

Mr. and Mrs. Herb Millard and Mr. and Mrs. Fred Nye are on their vacations. They are visiting in Portland this week.

Personals

Wilbur Larkin is spending a few days in Moscow.

John Caldwell of Troy called on friends here Sunday.

Jack Redding of Spokane, was in town calling on friends.

Carl Carlson is spending a few days here from Spokane.

Geo. Schull left for Lewiston to work in a warehouse there.

Chris Hagan of Moscow was in town buying hogs this week.

Everett Custer and wife of Genesee spent the week-end here.

The Taughton family are down from Potlatch picking cherries this week.

Miss Mable Nye is here from McCleary, Wash., visiting at the Elmer Steward home.

Bert Ramey and wife and children spent a few days with friends in Potlatch this week.

Mrs. Chas. Talbott is spending a few days with friends here. Her home is at Potlatch.

Jo Ann Grinolds returned home from a week's visit with her grandparents, Mr. and Mrs. John Behrens.

Lee Houck was a visitor in town Tuesday evening.

Entertained at Bridge

Mrs. H. B. Thompson very pleasantly entertained at five tables of bridge at her home Thursday afternoon of last week in honor of her sister, Mrs. M. C. Davis, of Sprague, Wash., who was visiting at the Thompson home. High score went to Mrs. W. B. Deobald, Mrs. Cook being awarded the consolation. Light refreshments were served by the hostess during the afternoon.

Those making up the party were Mesdames J. B. Helpman, Frank Boyd, Wade Keene, Geo. Leith, R. H. Ramey, W. L. McCreary, Harold Thomas, W. J. Carroll, W. B. Deobald, A. K. Carlson, F. H. Rider, E. H. Emery, D. A. Christensen, W. A. Watts, Edgar Long, Silvie Cook, Walter Thomas of Spokane, Mrs. F. B. Higley and the guest of honor, Mrs. Davis.

Cow Had Quills

What might be termed a freak of nature was reported the other day by Ira Foster. He said he noticed that his old Bossy was somewhat timid about eating and upon examination found that she had a nice bunch of porcupine quills sticking in one side of her "face." They were removed and Bossy was soon able to take nourishment again. But it isn't often that one finds a cow with quills.

If a man wants to commit suicide, why discourage him?

MARKETS STRENGTHENED —FEED GRAINS FIRM

Domestic wheat markets strengthened somewhat during the week ending July 8, despite the maintenance of favorable Spring wheat prospects and indications of appreciably better outturns than last year in Western and Southern Europe, according to the Weekly Grain Market Review of the U. S. Bureau of Agricultural Economics. Foreign grain markets were quiet, with trading of limited volume and although prices were somewhat irregular, the market tone held practically steady. Feed grains, with the exception of barley, were mostly firmer with wheat, although light offerings were also a strengthening factor and price trends were upward. Barley was independently weak, reflecting the slack demand, favorable prospects for new crops in Middlewestern areas and the easy situation in California. Flax markets were dull, with trading extremely light and prices tending downward.

Harvesting and threshing of new domestic Winter wheat has again been interrupted by rains and movement to market has been delayed. Early samples of new wheat have shown fairly good quality, although moisture content is high and of more significance as price factors than in other recent years. Protein is apparently averaging somewhat above that of last year, although a definite chick is not yet practicable because of this season's late movement. The protein content of 2,074 cars inspected at the Missouri-Kansas State Laboratories during the week averaged 11.84 percent, compared with 11.37 percent on 5,296 cars for the same week last year. Inspections at the Missouri-Kansas State Laboratories averaged 11.82 percent protein for the crop year ended June, 1932, as against 12.22 percent for the previous season.

Domestic Spring wheat is developing rapidly, with an early harvest in prospect. Heading is mostly general and cool weather and adequate moisture has favored filling in the Southern sections of the Belt. Spring wheat in Southeastern South Dakota is apparently out of danger of rust damage. Elsewhere in the Spring wheat region there is still only a trace of stem rust in general although there has been some increase recently and occasional fields have appreciable rust. Western Canadian crops entered the critical month of July with prospects approaching average but with an increasing number of districts reporting inadequate moisture supplies. Although crop development throughout the Prairie Provinces was fairly uniform at the first of June, regional differences in moisture reserves, Summer rainfall and insect damage have caused the usual increased variability at the first of July. Prospects now range from poor to ideal but with most districts much better than in 1931.

European crop conditions continue generally favorable, particularly in Western and Southern Europe. The combined outturn in Germany, France, Spain, Belgium and Holland, is now placed at 657,000,000 bus., as compared with official estimates of 580,000,000 bus. for the same countries a year ago. The Italian crop is reported to be below earlier expectations, but has been equal to the harvest of 248,924,000 bus. produced last year. Stocks of old wheat in the Lower Danubian countries July 1 were considerably under those of a year ago, amounting to only 2,600,000 bus., compared with 7,716,000 bus. a year ago.

Pacific Northwestern markets were quiet with slack export demand and mills at Portland for Soft White wheat, August-September delivery and 47c for Red wheat. Cash wheat prices strengthened with light offerings and Soft White wheat sacked was quoted at 51½c. Crop prospects have been lowered somewhat by recent hot dry winds and some premature ripening of grains has occurred. At Seattle Western Red wheat was quoted at 51c, Western White at 50c and early Baart Hard White at 62c per bu. sacked. 16 percent protein Dark Northern Spring from Montana in bulk was quoted at 83c per bushel.

California markets were quiet with slightly increased offerings of the new crop a weakening factor. Trading continued light with mills bidding around 85c per 100 San Francisco for No. 1 Hard White or No. 1 Soft White wheat, or around 5-10c under asking prices of growers. Inter-mountain offerings were light and were quoted at around $1.10

Something Wrong Somewhere
Last week Geo. Wayland sent a fine dressed veal that weighed 95 pounds to Spokane. He received a check the first of this week for $1.95, after express, handling charges, etc., had been deducted. In ordinary times this same animal would have brought Mr. Wayland in the neighborhood of $10. There is something decidedly wrong, somewhere—but who is going to right it, and how, and when, and a few other questions pertaining to it, and the cause.

See the home merchant first.

Mormon Crickets Large

Word comes up from Pocatello that the Mormon cricket invasion which caused no little excitement in this area following its discovery at Tyhee and Fort Hall May 29, was a matter of concern again.

The reports indicated that the insects have laid their eggs in the Gibson sand hills where the invasion toward Fort Hall originated in May, the insects traveling in three groups on a six-mile front.

The fight against the crickets was renewed with poison dust guns. Some of the crickets measured from two to three inches in length.

No Beer This Session

The first prohibition test in congress since the national party conventions Monday showed little change from past overwhelmingly dry sentiment.

The senate turned down a bill to legalize beer of higher alcoholic content by a vote of 50 to 25, stopping the beer movement for this session.

Despite the platform declaration of the democratic party for immediate modification of the Volstead act, the beer advocates only mustered 11 democratic votes against the motion to refer the bill to committee.

MARKETS STRENGTHENED
—FEED GRAINS FIRM

for No. 2 ard Winter, ordinary protein, at San Francisco. California No. 1 Hard White wheat was quoted at San Francisco at 90-92½c and No. 1 Soft White at 90c per 100. The Los Angeles market developed firmness with lighter offerings. Trading was fairly active during the week with demand well distributed through all classes of trade.

Mills and large feed concerns took a considerable portion of the arrivals on previous orders. Arrivals included mostly new crop California wheat from the San Joaquin Valley, with the quality of the offerings considerably above normal, of heavy test weight and with light dockage.

Foreign markets were dull with trading limited. Favorable reports from the Lausanne Conference was a steady influence at the close of the week. Shipments from the Southern Hemisphere continued only moderate with Argentine clearances for the week totaling 1,973,000 bushels and Australian 1,894,000 bushels.

Domestic Winter wheat markets gained strength, influenced by further widespread and heavy rains over the Winter wheat belt, which greatly interfered with harvesting, caused extensive damage to the uncut fields and resulted in sprouting or rotting of grain in shocks. Marketings of new wheat increased materially, with receipts at seven Southwestern markets totaling 6,071 cars, as against 17,071 cars for the corresponding period last year.

Mills and elevators in the Wichita section advanced prices around 2c per bu. during the week, with 30c being offered for best quality wheat. Receipts at Omaha comprised principally old-crop wheat applied-on-contracts by flour mills and elevators. Only one car of new crop Nebraska wheat was received. This graded No. 1.

TEAKEAN GOSSIP

Hay work has been going at full blast for more than a week and the weather has been fine for the work, but now (Wednesday morning) it is beginning to rain.

Mrs. Silvia Burris and children went back to their home at Colville, Wn., last week.

Mrs. Lena Freund moved up to her place here to make the hay.

Rev. Becker and four other parties from Nampa, are expected here the evening of the 19th to give a program at the church in the interests of the Young People's society. Rev. Becker held a meeting here a couple of years ago. We expect this program to be something extra good.

Mr. and Mrs. Virgil Peterson were visitors at the Joe Choate home Sunday.

Wallace Sewell was a visitor at the

Wm. Groseclose home Sunday. Mr. and Mrs. J. H. Butler, Jane and Jimmie, visited at the J. B. West home Sunday.

Avery Miller called at the Wm. Groseclose home Saturday.

Clarence Clavin's team ran away with the mowing machine last week and smashed it rather badly.

H. L. Groseclose came up Saturday to see about his cattle.

The young folks of the C. E. society met, hoed and cultivated the Missionary acre Monday.

Mrs. Orval Choate was called to go and help her aunt, Mrs. Geo. Wells, Monday evening. Mrs. Wells was taken ill very suddenly.

Mrs. J. H. Butler went to Orofino Monday. She made the trip all the way on foot.

A wise man cannot increase the wisdom of a fool.

A SNAKE SCARE AND A GOOD SNAKE STORY

While a party was being held on the lawn at the Harold Thomas home last Saturday evening an incident happened that served to enliven the evening's program—only it wasn't a part of the program at all.

Just before dark Cecil Emmett came around the corner on horseback—which was nothing unusual—only from the fact that he was dragging by a rope several feet long about as fine a specimen of the rattlesnake as is to be found in this section of the country and the reptile happened to slip from its moorings while passing the Thomas home. It was found a short time later by Lloyd Ware, who happened to be passing by, and he at once proceeded to kill the thing again (Cecil had dispatched it some time before) as it was still squirming. Those gathered at the Thomas home were soon at the scene of his snakeship and examined the reptile which, by the way, measured something over three feet in length and bore some nine rattles. Of course everyone there began telling snake stories and many of the ladies (and what men there were present) became somewhat frightened at finding a large snake cruising around in the residential part of town. The grass moved near a rock fence (so some of them said) and immediately a hunt was started for its mate (which Cecil didn't bring along). The grass and weeds were beaten like unto a tiger hunt in the wilds of India, but no snake was forthcoming. Coal-oil was thrown into the weeds and it was undertaken to start a fire to "smoke it out", but the stuff wouldn't burn and finally the chase was given up.

But it was a good snake story—and scare—and all caused by Cecil Emmett losing the thing, unknowingly, just where he did.

Gave Picnic Bridge Party

The home of Mr. and Mrs. Harold Thomas was the scene of a very pleasant picnic and bridge party last Saturday evening, when the Riders, Rameys, Leiths, Keenes, McCrearys, Watts, Mrs. Boyd, Mrs. Lester Crocker and "Buzz" Oud gathered at the Thomas home on invitation of Mrs. Harold Thomas to partake of a picnic dinner and indulge in the game of bridge in honor of Mrs. Walter Thomas of Spokane, guest of honor, who is visiting here for a time.

A long table had been erected in the yard and the dinner was spread thereon. Later a fire was lighted in a fireplace Mr. Thomas had built in the yard and a splendid dinner and social hour was the result. After the table had been cleared away, all went into the house where bridge was played. At the final count Mrs. W. L. McCreary was found to have high score for the ladies, while Wade Keene carried away that of the gentlemen.

All-in-all, it was a very pleasant affair—but thereby hangs a tale—or snake story, which appears elsewhere.

Finds Rattler In Cellar

On Tuesday of last week when Mrs. Ed. Long went into her cellar to get some fruit jars she found quite a large rattler laying stretched out on top of some empty jars. To say she was frightened is putting it mildly. Her son, Roy, was called and he watched the snake crawl in a hole in the wall—and Ed. a short time later cemented it tightly. Whether the snake is in the wall or was able to get out some place is not known, but it is a cinch it will not get into the cellar again.

Shipping Pine Logs

Ben Davis has brought to Kendrick for shipment to a Spokane lumber concern 22 cars of fine pine logs from the N. B. Long & Sons place, formerly owned by N. E. Ware. Most of the logs are of large size and good length.

Hot Sun Hurts Crops

Over in the Cottonwood section spring crops are said to be suffering from the warm, dry weather of the past two weeks. Unless moisture falls soon it is feared fields will be greatly reduced. Fall seedings are reported in good condition.

Returns To Kendrick

C. T. Lewis, formerly of Texas ridge, and until recently of Camas, Washington, is again moving back to Texas ridge on the place formerly occupied by Musgraves.

Mr. Lewis says that while times are hard here, they are prosperous compared with conditions surrounding Camas.

Dr. Simmons Here

Dr. Charles Simmons, Eye-sight Specialist, of Lewiston spent a very busy day here last Thursday taking care of the optical needs of our people. The doctor also reports a decided increase in calls from this section at the Lewiston office located over Schiffer's Store. He will return to Kendrick in about six weeks.

THAT'S WHY
Millions Wear
Wolverine
Shell Horsehide

"I never knew work shoes could be so easy on the feet!"... "Uppers still as soft as the day I bought the shoes."... "I can't seem to wear them out"... that's the praise from men who wear Wolverine Shell Horsehide. They know Wolverines stand the gaff better in toughest service.

No wonder! Wolverine Shell Horsehide has an extra-wearing surface. Secret tanning makes this double-strength leather almost glove-soft, scuff-proof and acid-resisting. And the soles are practically rip-proof. Yet Wolverines cost less when you consider their long wear, comfort, neat appearance and real economy.

Give Wolverine Shell Horsehide a trial. Come in and see them today without obligation.
