GOV. ROSS' MESSAGE TO 22ND STATE LEGISLATURE

Veterans of Past Wars
Since March, 1921, the State of Idaho, through the Veterans' Welfare Commission, has extended financial relief to the families of World War veterans who are disabled and destitute. To the veterans of all wars the Commission has extended its service in the adjudication of claims for benefits due under provisions of Federal legislation.

Owing to the economic condition of our country unemployment among veterans is now above normal. Of the many men who particularly responded to the call of their country, there are considerable numbers who have succeeded in rehabilitating themselves; however, there are others with added family responsibilities who are still victims of post-war conditions and who, due to the physical and mental strain incident to the World War are now breaking in mind and body, and these men should be given as-istance.

A grateful government has done much to relieve the distress and suffering among ex-service men; but the disability of these men, combined with rapidly changing economic conditions, seems to have outdistanced any relief given by the Federal government.

The widows and orphans of the men who made the supreme sacrifice must not be forgotten.

The Veterans' Welfare Commission of this State has faithfully and conscientiously administered the fund appropriated for relief purposes, and I recommend that you give consideration to the welfare of ex-service men and their families, who through no fault of their own, are confronted with economic and post-war conditions which they are unable to meet.

Non-Partisan Judiciary
In the year 1919 the State of Idaho took a backward step in the march of progress in Government when it repealed legislation known as the "Non-Partisan Judiciary Act." As a result of this action, instead of its strengthening our courts, their position has been weakened and they are subjected many times to unwarranted political criticism. It does not seem possible that it is necessary to the success of our political parties that judges of the courts of our state should be elected on a partisan basis. Our personal liberty and property rights are too valuable to be enmeshed and surrounded with a danger so apparent as the election of judges on a partisan ballot, and I earnestly recommend that the legislature restore what is commonly known as the "Non-Partisan Judiciary," and submit to the voters, for their approval, an amendment to the Constitution which will keep the offices of justices of the supreme court and judges of the district courts out of politics.

A recent survey by the Judiciary Council of the State Bar association has shown that the number of cases filed and disposed of in our courts has decreased thirty-nine per cent in the last ten years. We have too many courts. By reducing the number of justices comprising our Supreme Court to three we can make a saving in taxes and not lower the efficiency of the court. By re-districting the state and reducing the number of district judges, the total expense of the courts can be reduced and not in any way impair the effectiveness of the judicial system.

In order to reduce the number of supreme court justices to three it will be necessary that the Constitution be amended, and I recommend to the Legislature that this amendment be submitted to the voters of the State of Idaho at the next general election permitting them to vote upon the question of whether or not the Constitution shall be amended to provide for a supreme court of three justices instead of five. I also recommend that the Legislature re-district the state of Idaho in so far as the judicial districts are concerned so that a substantial number of the present district judges can be dispensed with.

Non-Partisan Education System
Our educational system is fraught with the same dangers as those surrounding our courts, due to the fact that all elective officers in our educational institutions are elected upon a partisan basis. It should be the earnest endeavor of all to remove as far as possible from partisan politics our elective officers in the state and county educational systems, and I recommend that all elective officers connected with our educational institutions be placed on a non-partisan basis.

Economy in Court Procedure
The expense of jury terms could be reduced and terms could be held more frequently if the number of jurors in civil cases involving $500 or less and all misdemeanor cases were reduced to six instead of twelve.

Initiative, Referendum, Recall
In 1912 the people of the State adopted a Constitutional Amendment for the purpose of putting into effect what is commonly known as the Initiative, Referendum and Recall. The amendment relative to the initiative is unworkable, inasmuch as it requires the approval of a number of votes equal to a majority of the aggregate votes cast for the office of Governor instead of a majority of the votes cast on the measure voted upon.

I recommend that this constitutional provision be amended to the end that a majority of the votes cast on any given measure will be sufficient for its approval.

I further recommend that legislation be enacted for the purpose of putting into effect the provisions of the Constitution relative to the referendum and recall.

Conclusion
It is my desire to assist you in every way that may be helpful. All information in the Governor's office and in the different departments under my control, will be furnished you if you find such information in any of your deliberations on matters of State government is needed.

May I suggest that the enactment of a great many laws naturally results in an increase of taxes, directly or indirectly in the administration of such laws. It is my wish to aid you in placing upon our statute books a minimum of new legislation.

My sincere hope is that you will labor harmoniously in a common purpose, with the result that the Twenty-Second Session of the Idaho Legislature shall be remembered as an outstanding one from every standpoint.

BEER BILL TO HAVE HARD SLEDDING IN U. S. SENATE

Existing laws in 32 of the nation's 48 states will prevent manufacture or sale of beer, even when—and if—congress approves repeal of the 18th amendment and the Volstead act, a survey by the Women's Christian Temperance union, made public today, said.

Furthermore, "local option," anti-liquor ordinances passed by the individual municipalities in many of the remaining sixteen would likewise prevent sale of beer or other intoxicants.

Nevertheless, the survey indicated, it is possible that ten of the sixteen "beer" states could open saloons for beer's sale at once.

The results of the survey were announced by Mrs. Margaret C. Munns, treasurer, and Mrs. Anna Marden, Dr. Yo, secretary, of the W. C. T. U.

The date revealed in general, the union leaders said, that a state of confusion, comparable to that existing with respect to divorce laws, would ensue, due to the variance in state legislative opinions and acts. The temperance officers pointed out the survey was made through dry organizations and that expert legal opinions might possibly result in differing interpretations. Some of the figures:

Thirty seven states have prohibition codes or otherwise ban liquor. Eleven have none. They are: Arizona, Maryland, Massachusetts, Montana, Nevada, New York, Wisconsin, California, Rhode Island, Washington and New Jersey.

In three states the saloon is specifically forbidden, Wyoming, Rhode Island and Washington.

In addition five states are considering repeal: Colorado, Illinois, Louisiana, Texas, Michigan. Four of these have forbidden the saloon; one, Illinois, is listed as not clear.

It was further pointed out, with respect to the "open" states that, even after national and state legislation is repealed, local ordinances in many municipalities would forbid both liquor and saloon.

Oregon repealed its state enforcement act, but left the liquor ban in its constitution. The status of 3.2 per cent beer is called dubious.

In California courts recently decided all local option laws, etc., are null and void through changes in state laws.

Community Church Sunday School
Pupils having a perfect attendance record in the Primary department of the church school for the six weeks ending January 8, are:

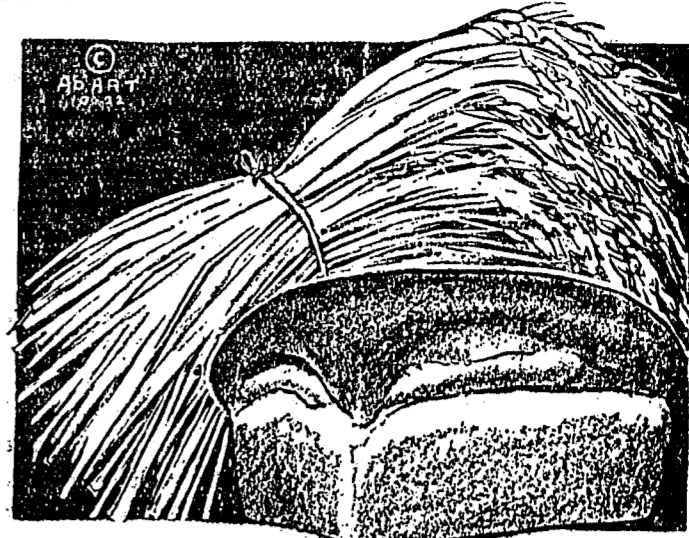

Patty McCreary, Donald Dammell, Marie Baker, Annabel Deobald, Jean Crocker, Charles Deobald, Betty Boyd and Madeline Bair.

It is to be regretted that many others, who are faithful in attending have been prevented making the above list by illness. Watch for their names after February 19.

The International Graded Lessons are used in this department and capable, conscientious teachers have charge of the classes.

If there is a child in this community who is not receiving religious instruction in the home or church school, that child is surely taught to live apart from God. Children not attending any church school are urged to be present in this department next Sunday.

While in the Rose City he attended the christening of the steamship General Pershing. Immediately after the ceremony the vessel left for Yokohama, Japan, carrying some 100 passengers, mail and freight. The ceremonies were broadcast over a radio network.

Saw Bluebird

Lewiston is crowing over the fact that meadow larks and robins have started their "spring songs" in that section. A young man, who is always known to be perfectly sober (Stanley Murphy), saw a bluebird down the canyon from Kendrick near the Compton place, more than a week ago, which is, we figure, just one ahead of what the Banana Belt has to offer.

When in Kendrick stop at the Raby Hotel. Clean, home-like atmosphere. Good eats, Drinks, Smokes.

RUSSIAN WIVES MUST WORK FOR BREAD-SUGAR

A Moscow, Russia, dispatch, under date of December 29, says:

Russian housewives who now may purchase for themselves small rations of bread and sugar from the government stores, will lose that privilege after January 1 and thereafter will have to earn those commodities by working in the factories.

The government decreed that after the first of the year all housewives under the age of 56 will be deprived of the cards which entitle them to purchase sugar and bread. In the category of housewives are included all healthy women not engaged in "socially useful" work. The wives of a number of high government officials are in this class.

The new order reflects the continuing food shortage and is an extension of the government's "no work — no food" policy. Its object, apparently, is to bring more women into industrial occupations with a view to ultimate abolition of the home as the unit of family life.

At the end of 1931 a census of Moscow showed there were approximately 100,000 housewives in the city. Eighteen per cent of them were over 60, but it was estimated that by the end of 1932 the number would have been reduced by half.

Under the present arrangement the housewife is entitled to 400 grams of bread and 800 grams of sugar a month from the regular government supply stores. After January 1 she will have to leave her home for an industrial job or give up sugar and bread.

The only alternative will be to pay the exorbitant prices at the private market, where 400 grams of bread costs about $3.50 as compared with 10 cents or less at the government bakery.

One Candid Candidate

A candidate for county commissioner in the recent election has filed the following statement of his campaign expenditures:

"Lost 1,349 hours of sleep thinking about the election—which should be worth $1,349. Lost my two best front teeth and a lot of hair in a personal encounter over the tariff—worth, say $45. Donated one beef critter, four shoats and five sheep to a barbecue—say $36. Gave away 14 pairs of suspenders, 18 dresses and 46 gingham aprons—worth about $87. Also $5 in cash and 14 baby rattles—total $6.40.

Kissed 157 babies—no charge for this but would never do it again. Tried to kiss the mother in one case—and also will never do this again. Kindled 14 kitchen fires and 18 fires in rural schoolmarm's—say $32. Put up seven stoves—say $7.

"Walked 4,067 miles—say $100 for the shoe leather and wear and tear. Shook hands with 9,456 persons—and wouldn't do it again for a dollar apiece. Told 10,899 lies—no charge for this as I am a lawyer by profession.

Attended 17 revival meetings, was converted 14 times and baptized three times by immersion and four times some other way—moderate charge for this would be $38, at an average rate of $1 each. Contributed $78 to foreign missions and 15 cents to home missions—total $78.15.

Made love to nine grass widows—charge say $1 each. Hugged 78 old maids—$2 each—total $156. Got bit by dogs 18 times—charge $8 as damage to pants and nothing for wounds to myself. Was defeated by two votes because my opponent hugged 80 old maids."

Ask $9960 For Relief Work

J. E. Wilson, Moscow, chairman of the Latah county relief association, has forwarded to Gov. C. Ben Ross a request for $9960 for relief work during January and February. Kendrick has asked for $900, to be used for this purpose during the months of January and February. Whether this full sum will be received or not is problematical as the state's allowance from the R. F. C. has been cut down, according to recent reports. Kendrick has been helping 45 families.

Six Presidential Widows Survive

Although the death of Calvin Coolidge removed the last former president, six widows of chief executives are living.

They are the widows of former Presidents Harrison, Cleveland, Roosevelt, Taft, Wilson and Coolidge.

Of them all, Mrs. Wilson and Mrs. Roosevelt have remained perhaps most in the public eye.
