Rev. Fr. Hurley at Southwick (Delayed)

Although Southwick is a very small parish, it was honored by the eminent missionary, Rev. Father W. G. Hurley, C. S. P., who last week conducted a three-day mission there. Father Hurley was here eight years ago, and many remembered the eloquence with which he delivered his sermons. People think him a still better speaker now—he has been nine years in the missionary field.

On Wednesday evening the topic of Father Hurley's sermon was "Is One Church as Good as Another?" Thursday the sermon was entitled, "The Greatest, Sweetest, Most Wonderful Adventure of Life." "Why Great Men Join the Catholic Church," was the sermon for Friday evening. Before each sermon Father Hurley answered questions which had been put in the question box.

Father Hurley was a former officer of the United States navy. At the end of the war he resigned his commission to study for the priesthood. For several years he was chaplain of Post No. 1 of the American Legion.

Father Hurley is a leader of modern thought in the Paulist Order, and his eminence among his associates is evidenced by the frequency with which he is asked to broadcast over the radio.

He is also the author of several articles and pamphlets. Father Hurley was accompanied by Father Kunkel and both were guests at the home of Mr. and Mrs. J. A. Fruchtl of Teakean.

Being swapped for a nickle cigar must make a dime feel cheap.

Gave Bridge Party

On Friday evening of last week Mrs. W. L. McCreary invited in members of the Afternoon Bridge club and their husbands as a surprise in honor of the birthday anniversary of P. C. McCreary (just which one doesn't make much difference). Bridge was played at six tables, Mrs. Harold Thomas winning high score for the ladies and F. H. Rider for the men. Light refreshments were served after play.

In addition to club members, Mr. and Mrs. W. A. Watts and Mr. and Mrs. E. H. Emery were invited guests.

VERY DARING UNDERTAKING; CORRAL IDLE MEN

A plan to corral every transient unemployed person, professional and amateur, in federal "concentration centers" for care and education was announced Saturday by Harry L. Hopkins, federal emergency relief director.

Hopkins told the United States conference of mayors that the federal government soon would remove from the shoulders of local relief organizations the burden of supporting tramps.

"Hitch-hiking on the highways will be combated on a nation-wide basis," Hopkins said. "So will bumming on freight trains."

"City and state authorities will be called in to pick up transients on local vagrancy laws and turn them over to federal authorities."

"Concentration centers will be established in every state, probably several of them in the more populous states, and in them the transients will be given a new chance in life."

Hopkins said that in addition to proper food, clothing, housing and medical care, the transients would be educated by strolling "white collar" workers, of whom, he said, thousands had become transients in recent months.

"About 75 per cent of the hundreds of thousands of transients on the road at present," Hopkins said, "are recent victims of the depression, as distinguished from hoboes of long standing."

"Conditions for them are intolerable. Scanty relief is given them by local authorities. Often they are driven from city to city, poorly fed, improperly dressed and with no housing facilities. Such conditions must not continue."

Hopkins told the mayors that the commissary system of providing relief through grocery orders was undermining the morale of 15,000,000 unemployed. He declared work or distribution of cash to be the only satisfactory and humane systems.

"We must face the facts as to the huge numbers of unemployed in the nation," Hopkins declared. "Prior to last March, that information was a deep, dark secret."

"We have determined now, however, that the number at that time was 4,800,000 families, or about 20,000,000 individuals. There has been improvement, the figures at the end of last August being about 3,200,000 families."

Hopkins said there was grounds to hope for continued improvement. He said there would be probably 1,000,000 new families on public relief rolls this winter, hundreds of thousands taken over from private agencies.

County Agent Visits Kendrick

County Agent L. V. Benjamin spent most of the day last Monday at the Kendrick Rochdale office assisting farmers in making out their applications for wheat allotment compensation, at which time many signed the application for compensation for reduction of acreage.

Records of wheat acreage and the amount raised (average) were furnished from both the Vollmer-Clearwater and Kendrick Rochdale warehouses.

During the day a meeting was held in the Kendrick Theatre where a permanent organization was effected, with John L. Woody being elected chairman and F. C. Lyons and Robert Hall committeemen.

The time for making application for adjusted compensation has been extended to Saturday night, October 1, according to a statement by Mr. Benjamin.

Shipped Car Fat Cattle

Dave Gentry returned Tuesday from Spokane, where he had accompanied a car of fat cattle for the Spokane market. The shipment was made on Saturday night.

WORSE HEADACHE MIGHT BE CAUSED VERY EASILY

The other day newspapers carried the picture of a "splitting headache." It certainly looked pretty cloudy—but just wait till they get a picture of the brain of a man trying to figure out some of this government stuff that fills the papers daily! Oh, boy, what a headache that would produce!

The following newspaper headlines could very easily be contributing causes:

Wires protest—Gov. Ross protests decision of the U. S. Roads bureau.

F. D. R. Studying inflation issue; Secretary Wallace opposes inflation.

Boot and Shoe men fight NRA; Want labor merit clause.

President will press to finish American naval building program.

Mill to appeal; lumber company refuses work time allotment by NRA.

U. S. will buy food surpluses; President orders purchase of $75,000,000 worth for relief purposes.

Dollar control to stabilize price levels now being considered.

Federal alibis again disputed; Gov. Ross repeats "red tape" is delaying road work in Idaho.

Worst slump in marts since July. Disappointment over inflation trend main cause.

Cash is waiting. President invites cities to request some of it.

Plan master code for giving farmers pre-war prices.

Surplus buying being organized on long-time basis by government.

Higher farm prices now goal of administration—expect to attain it by credit extensions and crop control.

Urges inflation. Senator Borah says no other way to raise farm prices.

And then: U. S. to corral all U. S. unemployed!

And there are dozens of similar headings every day. Just where we are going to land with so many things undertaken all at once is problematical—but here's hoping that it will all come out for the best and that F. D. R. will be able to make good every promise he has given the great people of the greatest country on earth. But watch out for that headache.

Teachers To Lewiston Oct. 5-6

The second district convention of the Idaho Education association will be held in Lewiston Thursday and Friday, October 5 and 6, at the high school, as announced by President C. C. Lame, a member of the Lewiston high school faculty.

The second district comprises Nez Perce, Lewis, Idaho, Clearwater and Latah counties and President Lame expects that the convention will bring from 500 to 600 persons to Lewiston.

Among the speakers will be State Superintendent John W. Condie of Boise, Superintendent William Smith of the Twin Falls schools, President M. G. Neale of the University of Idaho and President E. O. Holland of Washington State college.

General sessions will be held on Thursday and Friday mornings and Friday afternoon. A banquet and a reception to the teachers will be given by the chamber of commerce at the Lewis-Clark hotel on Thursday evening. Sectional meetings of the departments will be held on both days.

The program for both the general and sectional meetings is now being prepared. The meeting of the district P.-T. A. will be held at the same time.

Bean Thresher—Tractor Run Wild

Wednesday evening of last week when Herman Meyer was moving his bean-threshing outfit from one of the Vollmer places, near Leland, and was descending a rather steep pitch, in some manner the tractor slipped into "neutral" gear and a rather hasty descent was accomplished. Mr. Meyer was handling the wheeled tractor and stayed with the machine until it came to a stop across the road from the eld, it traveling a distance of perhaps 25 rods before it came to a stop.

In landing in the ditch the front end of the thresher was pretty badly damaged but the tractor was not broken and Mr. Meyer came out of the trip unhurt. Two men who were one the separator when the descent started jumped to safety.

How Mr. Meyer managed to stay on the tractor seat is a mystery, but he did, somehow.

The thresher was repaired the next day and was again ready for duty.

Bore: "I don't know how it is, but I feel thoroughly wound up tonight." Hostess: "How strange! And yet you refuse to go."

NOXIOUS WEEDS SHOULD BE TREATED THIS FALL

Several inquiries have recently been received by the county agents office relative to the handling of noxious weeds this fall. These have come principally from farmers who plan to spray with chlorates.

Either sodium chlorate or calcium chlorate may be used and the best results have come from the use of these chlorates where the applications have been made late in the fall, mostly after the top growth has been killed by frost or has been mowed and burned. Experiments conducted during the past two years have conclusively shown that it is not necessary to spray the top growth in order to obtain good kills; in fact, it has shown that the best kills are obtained where the top growth has been removed and the applications made directly on the ground.

To obtain the best results, applications should be made using one pound of chlorates to one gallon of water and thoroughly covering the infested area. Application may be made at any time after the fall rains have begun and up until the ground is frozen, in general, before November 1 gives the most satisfactory results. Care should be taken to cover very thoroughly the entire weed patch and at least eight feet outside the last plants. This outside ring prevents the outside roots from growing.

For Canadian thistle and morning glory, from three to four pounds of chlorate in three to four gallons of water should be used for each square rod of weed area. The patch should be roughly measured so that sufficient chemical will be used, as oftentimes poor results come from under-estimating the amount of ground to be covered.

Where a farmer has a large area of noxious weeds it is much cheaper and more effective to plan a program of clean cultivation. This should be started early in the spring and cultivated at least once a week during the entire growing period. In some cases it may be necessary to continue cultivation the second year, but even in this case it will be much cheaper than the use of chemicals, and the land will be in much better shape at the end of the period. In case the farm is entered under the Wheat Allotment plan, the allotted acreage may be arranged to include weed areas and an intensive program of cultivation carried on.

If any of the farmers in the county have a special problem concerning handling of weeds, please write or call the County Agent's office in Moscow.

Christensens Entertain

The apartment of Dr. and Mrs. D. A. Christensen Monday evening was the scene of a very pleasant bridge party when a few friends were invited in to spend the evening at bridge, the game being played at six tables. Mrs. George Leith won high score for the evening for the ladies while Harold Thomas won high for the men. Dainty refreshments were served after play.

The invited guests were Mr. and Mrs. Frank H. Rider, Mr. and Mrs. Harold Thomas, Mr. and Mrs. Wade Keene, Mr. and Mrs. W. L. McCreary, Mr. and Mrs. George Leith, Mr. and Mrs. R. H. Ramey, Mr. and Mrs. H. B. Thompson, Mr. and Mrs. W. J. Carroll, Mrs. Helen Boyd, Mr. and Mrs. W. A. Watts, Mr. and Mrs. E. A. Deobald and Mr. and Mrs. A. K. Carlson.

Many Cars Defective

In two days' testing at Lewiston last week, 76 per cent of all cars examined were defective in some way, the faults being: Headlights, 147; horn, 55; rear vision mirror, 67; wind shield wiper, 146; stop lights, 210; tail lights, 176; steering gear, 81; brakes, 171.

Few people who drive cars realize the real danger they are in when they start out for a trip without having their car checked over. The Kendrick Garage is the official checking station for this section. You may save many dollars, or perhaps a life, by having your car checked for defectiveness before the winter comes on, when driving is always dangerous.

Parents of Son

Mr. and Mrs. G. E. Erlewine of Cedar ridge are the happy parents of a son, who came to make his home with them on Tuesday, September 26. Mothe rand babe are doing nicely. Mrs. Erlewine is at the home of her mother, Mrs. Butler, at Juliaetta.

Good Digestion—But

Belief that Miss Sarah Kennedy, 57, a nurse who died at San Francisco Thursday, lived for years with a five inch portion of a pair of surgical forceps imbedded in her large intestine, was expressed by Coroner T. B. W. Leland.

Leland said the instrument was disclosed by an autopsy and had no connection with Miss Kennedy's death which was described as due to natural causes.

"There seems to be no doubt," Leland said, "that Miss Kennedy swallowed the hemostat (the instrument) many years ago."

INTERESTING NEWS BITS FROM OUR SCHOOL

At the High School assembly on Sept. 26, the coming Harvest dance was enthusiastically discussed. Everyone is looking forward to this Friday evening as one full of pep, frolics and a great time. Come and burn up the floor.

The Senior class elected to office this week: George Jones, president; John Kite, vice-president; Mildred Wegner, secretary; Kathryn Emery, treasurer. At their meeting they also discussed buying class rings and hope to get them at an early date.

Freshmen are now full-fledged members of the Student body. They were duly initiated at the Sophomore-Freshman party last Friday night. Initiation lasted from 7:30 till 9:00 o'clock, after which games were played until time for refreshments. A good job was done, for the Freshmen felt their age when everything was over.

Roy Johnson, swinging too hard at his boxing opponent at the initiation party, fractured the bone in the upper part of his right arm. He is expected to return to school in about a week.

A new, practical class, Public Speaking, under the guidance of Miss Swayne, has been organized for the benefit of Seniors who need extra credits. The course, beginning with voice training in effective expression, will include during the year, every type of public address from sales talk to oration, to prepare the individual to meet any similar situation in life.

The pupils in the beginning typing class have learned the keyboard and are now ready for their first speed tests.

The Finance committee consisting of Roy Long, Walter Koepp, Thomas Blevins and Clem Lyons, met this week to look over old bills and to plan for this year's expenditures.

The courses and facts concerning the Revolutionary war was the problem confronting the United States History pupils this week.

The "World history class have started work on special semester papers. Each member of the class chooses what he thinks is the most interesting person or event and makes a special study of it.

The Home Economics girls have been busy this week making jelly, carrot-orange marmalade and pickles. They will use these products in their meal work later this winter.

Last Tuesday the first rehearsal of the school and city orchestra was held at the High school. About 30 were present. The conductor, Mr. Wheelchel, was very much pleased with the progress of the first meeting. The orchestra will meet every Tuesday night at 7:00 o'clock. Everyone in the city who plays an instrument is welcome to come.

More music students are wanted for the beginning orchestra.

Grade Notes

The children of the first and second grades have decorated their room with pictures of Indians, about whom they are now studying.

The fifth and sixth grades are at work on their "Health Books." At a class meeting held Monday Barbara Long was elected president.

First Killing Frost of Season

The first killing frost of the fall season to strike the Potlatch canyon was evident Monday morning when tender vegetation was killed and every roof was painted white. The mercury dropped to 28 degrees during the night.

This was also the first killing frost on many of the ridges.

Both Satisfied

"But dear," gushed the flapper, "is it fair to go to the picture with a boy you dislike?" "Well, it's like this," replied her friend. "I enjoy the picture and he enjoys my company."

HIGHLIGHTS OF THE WEEK'S NEWS DISPATCHES

Prominent wets and dries of both political parties have united in organizing retail beverage dealers to seek uniformity of state laws on liquor dispensing and low taxes to drive out the bootleggers. With 31 states having voted to ratify repeal, leaving but five more necessary to erase prohibition from the constitution, officers of the National Association of Retail Beverage Dealers set about organizing to outlaw distiller or brewery owned and operated liquor dispensaries.

President Roosevelt let it be known that, whether or not any suggestions to the contrary are received from abroad, the United States intends to press to the limit its $238,000,000 naval construction program. Almost on the eve of the disarmament conference at Geneva word came from the White House that since contracts had been let for the 32-ship program it would proceed as scheduled.

Purchase of surplus foodstuffs and staples for distribution to the nation's needy to the amount of $75,000,000 has been ordered by President Roosevelt in a direct attack upon the economic paradox of want in a land of plenty. He directed agricultural adjustments and federal relief administrators to speed this program with the two-fold purpose of stabilizing glutted markets and feeding the unemployed.

A boycott of German products by American labor was held probable by William Green in a statement describing the Hitler rule as "midaeval, revolting and sickening." Saying that "the terrorism in Germany has gone to wilder and wilder extremes and has resulted in open war on the trade union movement and the torture, exile and even death of many trade union leaders," the president of the American Federation of Labor added:

Coaled and provisioned, the staunch but battered Bear of Oakland, was awaiting the command to head for Little America and the enduring ice of the Antarctic. While feverish activity prevailed the ship, Rear Adl. Richard E. Byrd, the perennial explorer of frozen places, announced the Bear would leave early Monday to be followed within a few days by his second ship, the Pacific Fir. The Fir, a faster ship than the old barkentine, was expected to overtake the Bear at the canal zone, where the first stop will be made before the second leg of the trip to the ships' base in New Zealand.

Wets Are Worried Over Vote

Idaho went wet, as most people believed it would, but the repealists are still wondering what happened to the huge majority they expected—the two or three-to-one they were hoping for.

Incidentally, they are beginning to think quite seriously about the prospects of repealing the state dry constitutional plank in the 1934 election. The prospects do not seem so good to them as they did before Tuesday's balloting.

There still remains a huge bloc of dry strength in the state, it is true, but observers profess to see many elements besides dry strength in the unexpectedly large dry vote.

There was much resentment expressed at the "dictation of Postmaster General Farley who telegraphed to Governor Ross asking him to throw the weight of the administration behind repeal.

A further factor was the silence of the three leading men in Idaho politics today—Senators Pope and Borah and Governor Ross. Senator Pope is congenitally dry, but since his platform called for repeal he felt it was best to take no part. Governor Ross also was absolutely silent, though he did issue a call to the public to be sure and vote. Senator Borah was prevented by ill health from entering the campaign, though friends intimate there was nothing he would have liked better than to jump into the fray. He reached Boise, however, only three days before election.

A real battle of major proportions is in the offing next year when state prohibition is before the electorate. With the experience of Tuesday, it is safest to say the result is seriously in doubt.

Isn't It True?

Did you ever stop to think that when you sent out for shoes, goods, groceries, tires, oil, paper, etc., that that money was gone forever from your community? It's true!

It's Smart TO BUY TIRES
NOW...

Now... is the time to buy tires. Prices may go higher. If they do, it will actually cost you money to use up old tires. And with fall and winter weather and wet and slippery roads just around the corner, it's a good idea to have the protection of safe new tires all around. And remember this—tire wear is slower in winter than it is in summer—the tires you buy now will give you full protection all winter and you will still have good tires for next spring and summer to withstand the ravages of hot summer roads. We carry the complete line of Goodyear Tires—Speedway, Pathfinder and All-Weather. At the price you wish to pay we have a Goodyear Tire. Why not come in today and talk it over?

The Kendrick Bean Growers association during the past week has shipped 1600 bags of beans to various market points.

It is estimated that not more than 25 per cent of the bean crop has been threshed thus far. It is also estimated that there is as much as 25 per cent of the crop still standing, which will be quite a loss to the growers as recent heavy frosts have caused great damage to the late crop.

National Average Price

According to the above news item the national average price for domestic electric service was 5.55 cents per kilowatt hour — and the national average consumption for each customer was 600 kilowatt hours for the year ended July 31, 1933.

In the territory served by this company the average price for domestic electric service was 2.28 cents per kilowatt hour — and the average consumption for each customer was 1,727 kilowatt hours for the year ended July 31, 1933.

One of the reasons our customers use nearly three times as much electricity as the national average is BECAUSE OUR ELECTRIC SERVICE COSTS ARE SO VERY LOW!

Howdy, Folks—Well, here it is 'most the 1st of October and the wheat and bean market haven't as yet done what everyone, even including F. D. R. expected them to do—go up. They're about the same to lower than they were before, but there's still one bright spot left—our in the pasture—Old Bossy. She'll bring you good hard cash for her product—nt don't matter whether it's wet or dry, hot or cold—cream is worth "cash money." There's one other advantage, too, you don't have to wait for a machine to come along before you can "thresh" her!

One Stork to another: "Was my face red! How was I to know they weren't married?"

Guide: "Now we shall see the sarcophagus of King Tut."
Bashful Old Maid: "I think I'd better wait here."

Woman (about to attend a political meeting) — "I'm not prejudiced at all. I'm going with perfectly open and unbiased mind to listen to what I'm convinced is pure rubbish."

Don't forget—we steam clean the can—it's ready for use when we get through with it.
