COMMERCIAL CLUB HOLDS REGULAR MONTHLY MEET

Another of those very interesting and helpful meetings of the Kendrick Commercial club was held in the Raby Hotel Monday evening, with 27 interested persons in attendance—

Pat Higgins, from Spokane, who is looking after the Kendrick Rochdale warehouse in the absence of Manager Watts, was here introduced and made a very pleasant short talk after which the minutes of the previous meeting were read and approved.

N. E. Walker, chairman of the Highway committee, who had attended a meeting of highway commissioners at Moscow Monday afternoon, was called upon for a report on road matters. He stated that the Bear ridge road was still hanging fire and that no definite information as to when work would be started (if ever) was obtained.

Gov. C. Ben Ross was also in attendance at the Moscow meeting, but stated that he was not up-to-date enough on road matters to give any definite information. (Just whether he is passing the buck or not remains to be seen.)

However, it was learned that the federal and state governments would match each dollar put up by the highway district with two more and Mr. Walker stated that the Kendrick Highway district had set aside $300 for relief purposes and a like amount would be put up by the federal and state governments, making a total of $900 that will be available for relief work as soon as it becomes necessary. The money to be spent on roads, will of necessity be all hand work and must be spent for labor only.

A telegram to the attorney general brought the information that no anticipation warrants could be issued by the highway district beyond the current levy, which will make the amount to be put up by the local highway district much less than it otherwise might have been could warrants have been issued against the district.

W. A. Cox and John L. Woody from American ridge were present at the meeting and explained what had taken place at a recent meeting of residents of that ridge regarding a proposed survey down off the ridge into Kendrick. A survey of such road has been ordered by the state department of public works and it is expected that it will be made this fall.

After considerable discussion of roads in general, it was decided by the club to sponsor a trip by N. E. Walker to Boise in the near future to delve into the intricate road problem as it seems to exist throughout the state—with the exception of south Idaho (where the road situation seems to be running smoothly). A report from Mr. Walker after his return should be interesting.

The question of further relief was brought up and it was suggested that the village be petitioned to look into the matter of laying more water mains, it being stated that there were some $1,600 in the village water fund that could be used very nicely for relief work and give the town more new water mains. In case the village sees fit to take the matter up, the federal government will add 30 per cent to the amount so used.

E. H. Dammarell, chairman of the relief committee, stated that it would take approximately $1,500 for relief work during the winter months. He stated that he now had 82 signatures on employment cards.

Supt. J. M. Lyle of the public school stated that in the near future the High school would put on a carnival to help defray necessary expenses incident to school activities and asked for the support of the community. He stated that everything possible for use of the school would be purchased from Kendrick business men in order to keep as much business of every nature as possible at home. He invited the public to attend their dances, which will be given from time to time, stating that they would be kept clean and free from rowdiness. He thanked Marshal Ed. Long for his services at the last dance—not that there was any real need for his services—but because of his willingness to do his part.

H. B. Thompson, chairman of the entertainment committee, stated that there might be a short program of music, etc., at the next meeting—

Seven Years and Fifteen Lashes

Up at Hamilton, Ontario, a seven-year penitentiary sentence, with 15 lashes, was meted out to Marion Fauria, who was arrested at Jacksonville, Fla., charged with robbing the Royal Bank of Canada last November. "Let this be a warning to American gunmen they cannot come over here and run amuck," said the judge in passing sentence.

MAY PLANT 85% AVERAGE 1929-1932 WHEAT ACREAGE

Many wheat growers who have signed applications for wheat allotment contracts for 1934 and 1935 are puzzled as to just how much they may sow this fall.

Chester C. Davis, director of production, A. A. A., has recently made this announcement: "Growers who plan to sign or have signed wheat acreage reduction contracts this fall may go ahead and plant 20 per cent of their average acreage from 1930 to 1932 without conflicting with the contract."

Since Mr. Davis made this announcement the reduction for 1934 has been set at 15 per cent, so growers may go ahead and sow 85 per cent of what their average acreage has been for the base years, 1929 to 1932. The years 1929 and 1932 are used since Latah county has adopted the four-year base period.

Each grower must plan to plant at least 54 per cent of what his average acreage for the base years has been. The only exception to this is where a grower has been growing wheat on alternate years and 1934 is the year when, according to his regular farm practice, the land would be in summer fallow or other crop than wheat. In this case he will not be required to plant any wheat in 1934, but must plant at least 54 per cent of his acreage in 1935 and not more than 85 per cent of this acreage.

In deciding what part of the farm to leave out his 15 per cent reduction the contracts require that this part be average wheat land and shall not be waste, gullied or eroded. Each grower will leave out his own allotted acreage, but he must be certain that it covers at least 15 per cent of his average acreage for the base years.

Upon their return they reported having taken 96 trout, the four being just four fish short of the limit allowed by law—and George says they were nice ones, too.

HIGHLIGHTS OF THE WEEK'S NEWS DISPATCHES

The resources of the state government have been marshalled against an epidemic of brain fever among horses of three northern Utah counties which has resulted in deaths of more than 1,000 of them and continues unabated. A serum treatment which proved effective during a milder epidemic in the same locality in June and July is having less favorable results and state department of agriculture officials are recommending against its use by farmers, pending the outcome of further experiments. Horses in Weber, Davis and Box Elder counties were dying at the rate of 50 to 100 a day.

Despite the opposition of the American Legion and the American Federation of Labor, renewed this week, President Roosevelt has called for a complete memorandum on the question of Russian recognition. In high administration circles, it was said the question "is moving into advanced stages and the chances are fifty-fifty" that it will be taken up shortly for disposition. It was indicated, however, that while the decision lay with the president, it was not likely that the quick and unconditional recognition which has been strongly urged, would be granted.

The Western Railway Executives association Friday decided on a sharp reduction in passenger fares as an experiment in increasing their business. They voted to reduce from 36-10 cents a mile to three cents the rate on one-way rail transportation. A 2½-cent a mile round trip rate was agreed upon and the present Pullman surcharge of 50 per cent was eliminated. The rates will be effective December 1 for a six-months trial period.

Idahoans have applied for $1,745,000 in loans from the Home Owners Loan corporation, federal mortgage relief organization, and holders of the mortgages have agreed to take bonds for them in 85 per cent of the cases. C. C. Wilburn, manager for Idaho, reported. Altogether 1,232 home owners have applied for the loan relief and the applications average $1,500. Approval for $500,000 in loans has been received, Wilburn said, and the transactions are being completed every day, although details of perfecting the loans are holding up the work somewhat.

The ministry of justice in a detailed memorandum explaining the Nazi aims concerning the German penal code announced its intention to authorize physicians to end the tortures of incurable patients. The memorandum, still lacking the force of law, proposed that "it shall be made possible for physicians to end the tortures of incurable patients, upon request, in the interests of true humanity." This proposed legal recognition of euthanasia, or the method of producing painless and peaceful death, raised several fundamental problems of a religious, scientific and legal nature.

Death of Sister-In-Law

Mrs. Leonard Davis last Thursday received word that her sister-in-law, Mrs. John Elliott, had died in a Weiser hospital at 7 o'clock that morning. The Elliott family were former residents of Kendrick but left here some five years ago.

KENDRICK TO HAVE SALES DAY

A Sales Day, to be held in Kendrick on Saturday, October 28, will be sponsored by the Kendrick Commercial club, details of which will be published in next week's Gazette. However, enough is known at this time to ask the farmers to gather up their surplus stuff and bring it to town and it will be sold at auction free of charge. The place for delivery will be announced later. A good program of sports and other entertainment will be gotten up and a day of real pleasure is hoped for.

GRAIN MARKETS LOWER ON HEAVY OFFERINGS

Domestic grain markets declined sharply during the week ended Oct. 6, with heavy offerings of feed grains, continued light demand and unsettled financial conditions, contributing influences, according to the Weekly Grain Market Review of the U. S. Bureau of Agricultural Economics. The principal weakness was in corn, with wheat, oats and barley mostly following the decline in that grain. Gains of recent months were lost and corn prices at the close of the week were back to May levels. Wheat was down 3c to 5c compared with a week ago and oats and barley about the same amount. Rye was independently weak, with additional arrivals of imported grain, while flax followed largely the decline in other grains, although the light crusher inquiry, as a result of the slow demand for oil and meal, was also a weakening influence.

While domestic wheat markets were rather featureless and declined largely with the drop of corn, the continued dull demand for the large surplus still available in exporting countries, contributed to the weakness in the general wheat situation. Large supplies in European importing areas have reduced imports to a minimum and world shipments of wheat and flour during the first two months of this season were the smallest since 1925, with the exception of the very small movement a year ago. The increase of about 5,000,000 bushels in world shipments, compared with last year, is accounted for by heavier shipments "on orders". Shipments "on orders" were nearly 20,000,000 bushels larger during August and September than in the corresponding period a year ago. Shipments to the United Kingdom were a little heavier but direct shipments to Continental Europe and to ex-European destinations were smaller than a year ago. The slack demand from Continental Europe is becoming apparent in increased port stocks, which at the first of October were nearly double those at the corresponding date last year and nearly as large as in 1931, when heavy shipments of Russian wheat unsold accumulated at European ports.

World shipments in respect to countries of origin have made important shifts again this summer. Shipments from North America have been much below the small movement of last year and have comprised almost wholly Canadian wheat.

Pacific coast markets were firmer than those in the central west, reflecting the light offerings of local grain and prospects of exports under the marketing agreement. Marketings were light with receipts at Puget Sound and Columbia river terminals totaling only 488 cars compared with 645 cars a year ago. No export business was transacted since the export plan was not yet in working order. Local mills provided the principal outlet at Portland, although occasional shipments were made to central western mills and to Atlantic ports. California takings were light, with only 500 tons reported sold during the week. At the close of the market, October 6, No. 1 Bleustem hard white was quoted at Portland at 78c to 78½c, soft white, western white, hard winter and northern spring, 68c to 68½c, western red at 66½c to 68c, and 12% protein dark hard winter at 78c to 79½c per bushel, sacked.

least something of an entertaining nature.

A statement was made that Game Warden Thresher had planted several thousand trout in the Potlatch above Helmar, which was well received by the club. Clarence Jenks of Moscow had also had a large part in securing the fish for the Potlatch and the secretary of the club was instructed to write Mr. Jenks, thanking him for his efforts along that line.

On the whole, Monday night's betting of the club was one of the best that has been held in many months and it was felt by all present that much good had been accomplished—if from no other standpoint than good-fellowship, it was well worth the time spent there.

The Kendrick Commercial club has accomplished much for the community and yet has much work to do, which will be taken care of just as fast as conditions will warrant.

"THE PHANTOM PRESIDENT AT KENDRICK THEATRE"

If you are looking for an excuse to have a good laugh, don't fail to go to the Kendrick Theatre this Friday and Saturday nights and see "The Phantom President"—one of the funniest pictures that has been shown here in many moons. In the feature roles are Claudette Colbert, George M. Cohan and Jimmy Durante. They'll run you ragged with comedy, fun and guffaws.

You are asked to vote for "The Phantom President," on the Laugh Ticket. His platform follows:
 Vote every chance you get.
 Put short skirts on the Statue of Liberty.

A seat for every pair of pants.
 Two hamburgers in every bun.
 And, last, but not least, he says: The only babies I kiss are grown-up babies.

High School Carnival

The news has just been released. The big high school carnival is going to be here on Friday night, October 27. There are several new features this year which are causing a great deal of excitement. Professor Kkyw-lillir, the famous hypnotist from northern India, has promised to stop on his way to the coast and put on a demonstration for the people of Kendrick. He claims that he can hypnotize anybody in town and he offers a reward of twenty-five dollars to the person who can look him in the eye for one minute! Another extra treat is the minstrel group from the south which will sing a few plantation melodies, crack a few of their old jokes, and give us other surprises.

The usual booths will be sponsored by the different classes of the school. Hot dogs, cider, coffee and doughnuts with extra large holes will be plentiful and prominent. There will be a fish pond, a fortune teller who will be assisted by Professor Kkyw-lillir, if the people ask for him; contests of all kinds, and many more things which will be added later.

One of the most interesting events is the crowning of the Carnival Queen. Everybody in town should vote for one of the candidates. The nominations are open to any one in town. Married women are eligible for Carnival Queen if they can get the written consent of their husbands. Nominations should be sent to the high school by Monday.

The prospects are that this carnival will be the most unusual and offer the most talent that has ever been held in Kendrick. Be sure to keep Friday night open.

Will Give Recital

Friday night, October 20, at the Methodist church, Mr. and Mrs. Whelchel are presenting a formal recital of classical and modern music. There is no admission charge.

Mr. Whelchel is playing the Seitz Concerto in D major and two movements from the fourth Handel Sonata. The other violin numbers will be of a more popular nature.

Mrs. Whelchel is playing a concert arrangement for left hand alone of the Lucia Sextette, the Wedding March by Greig, the Fire Dance of Hueter, and several other selections which will appeal to music lovers.

DON'T GET UP NIGHTS
 Physic the Bladder With Juniper Oil

Drive out the impurities and excess acids that cause irritation, burning and frequent desire. Juniper oil is pleasant to take in the form of BUKETS, the bladder physic, also containing butcher leaves, etc. Works on the bladder similar to castor oil on the bowels. Get a 25c box from any drug store. After four days if not relieved of "getting up nights" go back and get your money. If you are bothered with backache or leg pains caused from bladder disorders you are bound to feel better after this cleansing and you get your regular sleep. For sale at Red Cross Pharmacy. 41-4

Now that the bean harvest is over and you have begun to cast about for something else to do, it might be a good idea if you turned your attention to old Bossy for a while and see to it that she has the proper feed mixture to insure the best results. You surely will be repaid in increased butterfat, consequently enhancing the value of each can of cream.

Remember, we test your cream, pay you spot cash for it and steam-clean your can.

Look us up and give us a trial. You'll not be disappointed.

Hubby Was Brave

As Tompkins was on his way home after nightfall he collided with Jenkins, who was running as fast as his bulk would allow him.

"Why this hurry, Jenkins?" he inquired.

"I'm going for the police"—he said between pants. "We've got a burglar in our house."

"But, surely, you haven't left your wife alone?"

"Oh, no! She's holding the burglar!"

We're sure you'll like our money.
