Entertains At Bridge

Mr. and Mrs. Eugene Taylor of Juliaetta entertained at a well appointed bridge party Tuesday evening in honor of Mr. Taylor's birthday anniversary, when contract was played at two tables. Dainty refreshments were served after play.

Those in attendance were Mr. and Mrs. Edgar Carlson, Mr. and Mrs. Fred Albright, Mr. and Mrs. E. P. Wilcoxon and the host and hostess, Mr. and Mrs. Taylor.

GRAIN MARKETS FAIRLY STEADY—OFFERINGS LIGHT

quoted at Winnipeg January 5 at 62½¢ which would equal about 62½¢ in United States money. Prices of native wheats in Europe advanced slightly in local currencies at Paris and Genoa during the week but held about unchanged in German markets. In terms of U. S. money German wheat was quoted at Hamburg Jan. 5 at $1.97½¢, French wheat at Paris at $2.05 and Italian wheat at Genoa at $2.02½ per bushel. Prices of foreign wheats at Liverpool were also higher. The movement of the southern hemisphere wheat was moderate with marketings of new wheat increasing in Argentine.

Pacific Northwest barley markets were generally steady with moderate to light offerings offsetting the dull demand from all classes of trade. Demand for malting barley from eastern points continued steady with an occasional sale reported. Deliveries on earlier sales maintained a steady but moderate eastern movement. At the close of the market January 4, No. 2 bright western barley, sacked, was quoted at Portland at 92½¢ per 100.

Oats markets were somewhat unsettled, reflecting local conditions. The market at Portland held steady to firm despite the quiet demand. A firm holding tendency was apparent among growers in the Willamette valley and was a strengthening influence in the market. Inquiry from eastern points was dull and demand was slack. At the close of the market January 4, No. 2 gray and white oats were quoted at Portland at $1.12½ per 100, sacked.

Idahoans Paid $692,780 Taxes

Income tax collections in the state of Idaho totaled $467,328 and miscellaneous taxes $225,452, the two sums being .04 per cent of the national total, according to late reports.

The nation's income jumped upward some $62,110,181 during the 1933 fiscal year—and what's more it cost the government less to collect it.

Guy T. Helvering, commissioner of internal revenue also disclosed in his annual report to Secretary Morgenthau that although 3.2 beer and wine were legal only for a small part of the 1933 fiscal year, the former brought in $35,149,492 and the latter $80,948.

With income taxes carrying the bulk of the load, Helvering estimated total revenue for the 1933 fiscal year at $1,619,839,224 as compared with $1,557,729,042 the year before.

General Science pupils have brought specimens of petrified leaves, which are used to help in the study of rocks and soil.

Elmer Emery has finished another table for the office. Lawrence Kuykendall and Roy Johnson are putting leather tops on their foot stools. Herbert McDowell painted his new tool chest a very bright green. Joe Watts, James Henderson and Paul Dammarell put up a Bulletin board in the typing room. Joe Watts and Paul Dammarell made a bookcase for Miss Swayne. The traveling library books will be kept in it.

Maxine Keene made 190 words a minute in a shorthand test.

The Junior class met Friday and discussed plans for a dinner to be given in the near future and also made some plans for their next semester program.

Spanish class is now delving in the science of Spanish verbs.

Grade Notes

The second graders have begun their "Thought Test" readers.

The fifth and sixth grades have been studying the coffee industry.

Bits of Nonsense

Mr. Wheelchel: "Clem, where do you think bookkeeping is leading you?"

Clem Lyons: "Orofino."

Miss Spencer: "Flo, can you tell me what a 'snowcrest' is?"

Flo Kent: "Yes, a bucket of lard."

Leland P.-T. A. Meeting

A meeting of the Leland P.-T. A. was held in the school house Wednesday evening, January 10, and was well attended.

The program opened with singing led by Donald Goudzward. This was followed by two violin solos played by A. G. Peters, accompanied by Miss Solberg, they were "Souvenir" by Dradla and "Minuette" by Beethoven.

The national president's message was read by Mr. Babcock. Three readings were given on "Child Welfare" by Mrs. Herman Meyer, Mrs. A. G. Peters and Mrs. Ben Hoffman.

A very interesting talk was given by Chas. Fox on the Boy Scout work.

The next meeting of the association will be February 9, at 7 o'clock, in the school house. All parents and others interested in P.-T. A. are urged to attend.

Howdy—Folks—Here it is almost the middle of January and no snow to amount to a hill of beans yet—and that's the way we all like it—but speaking of liking things—we like your cream. We also want to do business with you on that cream. We want to buy it. If you have ever brought us a can you know our service. If you haven't, well, just bring us a can for a trial. We will return a steam sterilized can, ready for use—and right now money. No shipping, no wait for your money. You get it right now!

Then there's the mother that nicknamed her little son "Cockroach" because he was always in the kitchen cupboard.

Northern Girl: "What kind of a tree is that?"

Southern Lad: "That's a fig tree."

Northern Girl: "Oh! I thought the leaves were larger than that—"

Masons-I. O. O. F.s vs. Champs

What was considered one of the fastest volley ball games ever held in this city was played Wednesday evening, which resulted in the City Champions being defeated by the Mason-Odd Fellow team by a score of 15-0. Some fast playing was done by the Mason-Odd Fellow aggregation, captained by Ed. Deobald, the star players' names not being known as we go to press. It was noticed on the floor after the game that the City Champs went into a fifteen minute huddle and challenged the aggregation for another game next Wednesday evening, which no doubt will be a fast one. These games are open and free to spectators.

Mrs. McClintic Dies At Juliaetta

Mrs. Mae McClintic passed away Monday afternoon, January 8, at her home in Juliaetta, following a lingering illness. Born in Clay Center, Kansas, in 1877, Mae Hammond moved with her parents to the Moscow country when about ten years old. She had been a resident of Juliaetta for 22 years.

Surviving are her husband, to whom she had been married for 25 years, and two sisters, Mrs. Effie Kite, Kendrick and Mrs. Lottie Cox, Juliaetta.

The funeral was held Thursday morning at 10 o'clock from the Baptist church, with Rev. Wilbur Fix in charge. Burial was made in the Moscow cemetery.

No Shipping Being Done

Reports from the various warehouses in Kendrick are to the effect that very little shipping of either grain or beans is being done.

Scouting

Troop No. 140, Boy Scouts of America, met Saturday night at the Scout hall, with all scouts present but one. Herbert Schwarz and Cecil Spekler were visitors. The troop decided to make a drive for more members during the next three months.

Parts for the Scout program to be given early in February were given out. The funds received from this entertainment are to be used to put all the scouts in uniform. It was also decided that the troop should organize a basketball team, which will be done soon. Willard Schoeffler was appointed captain. The troop felt that meetings twice a month were not sufficient, so until further notice the troop will meet every Saturday night, beginning at 7:30.

Committee Working

Farmers who are finding it impossible to meet overdue payments on debts, and creditors who would like to reach some agreement with those who owe them, without resorting to legal means, will find in the newly created Farm Debt Adjustment Committee an impersonal means of working out their differences, says a Moscow dispatch.

The Latah county committee, comprising C. H. Friend, H. R. Short and Harry A. Thatcher, met Saturday, January 6, at the court house and worked out further details of the steps necessary to bring about an adjustment between debtors and creditors to the satisfaction of both. Members of the committee urge that all farmers in the county who sincerely wish to arrange for a better adjustment of their debt problems, apply to them at once for such action as they are empowered to take in helping ease the burden on farm debts.

The committee also wishes to remind all creditors and debtors that all applications for adjustment action will be held strictly confidential.
