HIGHLIGHTS OF THE WEEK'S NEWS DISPATCHES

Immediate rumblings of senatorial protest left an aura of doubt around the future of the administration's new plan for a two year extension of NRA in a form that would code only those industries engaged in interstate commerce. A pithy comment from Senator King (D., Utah) that the "recommendations for modification are very good but they don't go far enough" was one of the first reactions. In fact, a two-hour exposition of the administration's plan by Donald Richberg, stirred but little outward enthusiasm. King's words apparently summed up the thought of many of NRA's senate critics. Several of these same critics at once announced they would press forward their move to abolish the recovery administration and transfer its functions to the federal trade commission.

A demand from Senator Borah (R., Idaho) for the junking of NRA except for its child labor, minimum wage and maximum hours provisions emphasized the difficult problem facing the administration in its effort to extend the recovery act. Borah, who is leading a drive for full restoration and enforcement of the anti-trust laws, said in an interview that legislation along the lines he outlined would be "the greatest contribution toward recovery we could make at this time."

Machine gun fire sprayed through the streets of downtown Havana, (Cuba) Saturday night as the Mendieta government combated a general strike in scenes reminiscent of the 1933 revolution. Two persons were killed, police reported. At least six were wounded, including two women, while more than 100 were jailed. A state of siege was declared in Havana province shortly after 11 p. m. and it was learned similar steps would be taken in other provinces. The blasts of machine gun fire were concentrated between Cabana and La Punta fortresses after a general call to arms was issued at Cabana.

Despite the fact that the White House had cut a switch for rebellious democrats, signs were plentiful on capitol hill that congress would continue to give administration proposals critical and often prolonged scrutiny. Praise for the comparative slow procedure by the house and senate was voiced by business as represented by the Chamber of Commerce of the United States. Many observers held that this session, for the first time since Mr. Roosevelt took office, congress had begun to take its customary hand in shaping legislation. They ventured, too, the opinion that any pressure Mr. Roosevelt brought would be in behalf of specific measures that he had acquiesced to the new order.

Fifteen pretty girls of Christian college—alma mater of fan dancer Sally Rand, presented dancing interpretation of hymns before a congregation of 300 persons at the First Christian church, Columbia, Mo., Sunday night. "These dances are a sincere form of worship," said Allean Lemmon, former Christian student and daughter of the pastor, Dr. C. E. Lemmon, "so please don't applaud." The dancers were solemn faced and nervous as they made their first appearance before the elders, deacons and University of Missouri students. However, the audience went away apparently pleased. Sally Rand, who won public attention as a dancer at the Chicago century of progress exposition, was a student at the exclusive school in 1920.

The Greek government launched its major offensive against rebels entrenched in Macedonia Sunday but encountered much opposition in day-long battles. Officials admitted the enemy's resistance is unusually strong, although claiming an advance along a broad front. The rebels have an army of 27,000 and forced the government to evacuate 17 frontier posts. Dispatches to Vienna newspapers said 4,000 men were killed on both sides in Sunday's fighting.

Wood Tick Serum Ready

L. J. Peterson, state bacteriologist announced that wood tick serum for 227 persons had been distributed and that a supply to take care of 300 more persons was received from the United States public health service laboratory at Hamilton, Mont., where it is manufactured.

The serum is used extensively by sheepherders and mountain vacationists, who visit habitats of the wood tick, the cause of tick fever, a malady that often proves fatal.

The serum is used as a preventative against the fever.

Many Magpies In Evidence

As a result of a partial misunderstanding and a late start, the boys in the magpie egg-gathering contest very evidently missed many nests for there are more magpies in evidence this spring than there has been for the past three or four years. It is to be hoped the state will continue the bounty and that the boys will get an earlier start this season—for there is need of much activity on the part of the Kendrick Commercial club and the boys of the various communities.

GOVERNOR FAILS TO SIGN NEW LIQUOR BILL

Twenty years of prohibition in Idaho would have been legally ended at 5 o'clock Tuesday evening, March 12, had the governor affixed his signature at that hour, as he had said he would do, to the state-owned liquor stores bill.

The measure, which has been passed by both houses of the legislature, contains an emergency provision which made it a law as soon as the executive's signature was affixed.

The governor said, however, that the three-man commission which will administer the act probably will not be appointed for a day or two.

In 1915 the legislature passed a bill known as the Haight law, putting Idaho into the dry column. The same legislature proposed an amendment to the state constitution which was approved by the electors and made operative in 1917. The purpose of the amendment was the same as that of the Haight law except that it made it impossible for any legislature to legalize liquor traffic without the consent of the people.

In 1933 Idaho voted to repeal the 18th amendment and last November the voters balloted approximately 85,000 to 55,000 to remove the prohibition amendment from the state constitution.

Under the new law the state will set up liquor stores throughout the state. These will be administered by a three-man board, similar to that in the state of Washington.

Gave Dessert Bridge

Mr. and Mrs. W. L. McCreary entertained Saturday night with a dessert-bridge, when four tables were in play. Those winning honors for the evening were Mrs. W. B. Deobald for the ladies and James M. Lyle for the men were awarded high honors, while Mr. and Mrs. Lester Crocker were low.

The guests included Mr. and Mrs. James M. Lyle, Mr. and Mrs. W. B. Deobald, Mr. and Mrs. Lester Crocker, Mr. and Mrs. R. L. Blewett, Mr. and Mrs. H. B. Thompson, Mr. and Mrs. Harold Thomas and Mr. and Mrs. Silvie Cook.

Deeter Sale Over Big

A. C. Deeter, whose sale was advertised in the Gazette recently, dropped into the Gazette office the other day and said: "You sure put it over big. Everything offered for sale was sold, and while the price was only fair, I am more than pleased with the result."

And yet there are some who say it doesn't pay to advertise.

Tommy Keene Again At Home

Tommy Keene, who has been recovering from an operation for ruptured appendix, was returned to the hospital at Lewiston last Thursday for treatment. He was brought home again Sunday and it is hoped it will not be necessary to return him to that institution again.

Gave Church Party

Following an attendance contest the boys' class of the Sunday school, led by Everett Fraser, gave a party to the girls' class at the Community church on Wednesday evening of last week. Mrs. Pearson is teacher of the girls' class.

P. T. A. Meeting Postponed

The regular monthly meeting of the Parent-Teachers association, to have been held Monday night, March 18, has been postponed until Monday night, March 25, when the men will have charge of the program for the evening.

A Daughter Is Born

Word has been received from Shelby, Idaho, that a baby daughter was born to Mr. and Mrs. Melvin Wirt on Tuesday, March 12. Mrs. Wirt will be remembered as Miss Edith Dammarrell.

Advertise in the Gazette and your message will work while you take it easy.

KENDRICK COMMERCIAL CLUB HOLDS MEETING

Perhaps one of the most interesting and entertaining meetings of the Kendrick Commercial club held in many months took place at the Raby Hotel Monday evening when some 30 men and the High School Basketball team gathered at 6:30, the basketball boys being guests of the club. Dinner was served at 6:30, after which the minutes of the preceding meeting were read and approved.

The basketball boys were seated at a separate table, with their coach, Arthur Dawald, and Rev. T. E. Poindexter, the latter acting as spokesman, or toastmaster, for the boys. After a few remarks by Rev. Poindexter, Roy Ramey, jr., captain of the basketball team, was introduced and he in turn introduced Coach Dawald and members of the team, each one responding to the introduction with a few remarks—all of which were nicely carried out and the boys received "the glad hand" from the other members of the gathering. Later Coach Dawald made a few well-chosen remarks. He had a good word for each member of the team and spoke especially of their good behavior and gentleness while in attendance at the recent tournament at Lewiston. Mr. Dawald also said it was possible that a sub-district meet could be held in Kendrick next year because of the fact that we have one of the best gyms in the entire district.

N. E. Walker, chairman of the Highway committee, made a very interesting report on the highway situation, stating that the chances are very good for the building of the road from Kendrick to Cameron, via the Wauncher gulch route. Of course this is entirely dependent upon the passage of the $4,800,000 bill that is at the present time being held up in Washington. However, the chances are more than even that the bill will be passed and that the road will be built—which is indeed good news to everyone in this entire section.

Marvin Long of the Fish and Game committee, reported that he had talked to deputy Game Warden Gilson and that he had promised to do what he could to get us trout for the Potlatch—which is more good news. He also said that some hopes were held out for the construction of a sucker-dam in the creek, but that the project would have to await more details.

Elbert Kuykendall reported that relief work was being carried on and that no one was going hungry. He reported that there are 53 on the relief roll. In this connection M. O. Raby later reported that he had attended a meeting of the county committee on relief at Moscow and that beginning March 14 that the ERA would give work only to those actually in need of relief and that the wages would be 35c per hour, instead of the former 50c and up; that the CWA is functioning no more and that all relief cases must be brought before the local committee, composed of Mr. Raby, R. H. Ramey and F. H. Dammarell. There are several strings to obtaining this relief that it might be well for those who have been receiving help to look into. One of these is that no more money will be paid, but instead orders will be given on local stores. At this time N. E. Walker stated that during the year ending September 16, last, Latah county has received $150,161.00 for relief.

A committee of ladies of the town, composed of Mrs. H. B. Thompson, Mrs. W. J. Carroll, Mrs. D. A. Christensen and Mrs. F. H. Rider, was appointed to work out an idea as to how Kendrick might be made more beautiful.

Mr. Foster and Tony Eichner of Troy were present at the meeting and Mr. Foster was asked to make a few remarks, which he did in a very fitting manner. He commended the business men of Kendrick for fostering a Commercial club such as the one we have and spoke of the many splendid things the club has accomplished. He brought greetings from the Troy Commercial club and extended an invitation to members of the local club to make a good-will visit to Troy. Jack Pickard of Troy was also in attendance at the meeting.

Rev. Poindexter, before the close of the meeting, extended an invitation to the club to attend church next Sunday—and bring their wives—which most of the members agreed to do.

The old-fashioned man who was up at daybreak now has a daughter that is still up at daybreak.

SWINE GROWERS' ASSOCIATION ANNOUNCES CONTEST

The Idaho State Swine Growers' association and the Portland Union Stock Yards are again cooperating in the Idaho ton-litter contest, running from January 1 to December 31, 1935. This contest is open to any hog grower in Idaho who complies with the rules given below. There should be several Latah county growers in the contest. Any farmer who wishes to enter may yet do so through the county agent's office at Moscow.

Requirements—The contestant must: (1) Become a member of the Idaho State Swine Growers' association by payment of $1.00 membership dues at time of entry. (Each member may enter as many litters as he wishes without additional cost.)

(2) Apply for entry to the contest within seven days after farrowing, to the county agent, district club agent or agricultural high school teacher, or to E. F. Binchart, Secretary, Boise.

(3) Assist in properly ear-marking the pigs for identification.

(4) Keep detailed records of the amount of feed, including pasture.

(5) Arrange for final weighing of the litter when 150 days old.

(6) The litter is not officially entered in the contest until membership dues are received and entry card is filed in the Boise office. If entry and membership dues are not received in the Boise office within thirty days after farrowing, the entry will not be accepted.

(7) Ear-marking and final weight must be witnessed and certified to by one or more disinterested parties.

Rules: (1) The sow must be owned and farrowed by the contestant. Sows with litters cannot be purchased for the contest.

(2) The entry may be purebred, grade, crossbreed or of unknown breeding.

(3) The litter may be fed on any ration or in any way the owner desires.

(4) Identification of the litter must be certified to by a disinterested member of the Idaho State Swine Growers' association, a county agent, club leader or teacher of vocational education.

(5) The contestant has the privilege of showing the litter at any fair or show.

Awards: (1) The Portland Union Stock Yards company offers a cash award of $100.00 to be prorated among the litters that qualify, as follows: (a) The litter weight must be at least 1750 pounds; (b) To qualify the pigs must average 180 pounds or more; (c) A complete feed record must be submitted with the certified weight; (d) A photograph must be submitted. First prize will not be awarded to a litter which fails to submit a photograph. (A good snapshot will be accepted.)

(2) The Idaho State Swine Growers' association offers to the best all-around contestant the following: First, gold watch; second, fountain pen. These awards will be made on the basis of litter weight, 20 points; completeness of feed record and accuracy of report, 50 points; average weight per pig, 20 points; photograph, 10 points.

In order to qualify the contestant must follow the above rules and requirements.

Weather Still Remains Cool

Weather in the Potlatch section continues cool, but everyone agrees that we have had a mighty fine winter—even better than last winter—for the reason there has not been so much rain, and then, too, everyone agrees that the short spell of zero weather was very much needed.

Double-Eight Bridge Club

The Double-Eight Bridge club was very pleasantly entertained Thursday evening of last week by Dr. and Mrs. D. A. Christensen at a dessert-bridge party. H. B. Thompson held high score for the evening and Miss Edna Ferguson was low. Miss Rilla Davidson was an invited guest.

Will Give Cantata

The choir of the Kendrick Community church has begun practice for an Easter cantata. Anyone interested in signing is invited to take part. Practice is held every Tuesday evening at 7:30.

Gave Dessert Bridge

Mr. and Mrs. M. C. Grover entertained the teachers of the public school at a dessert-bridge party on Friday evening of last week, and a very pleasant evening was the result.

"Birds" Ready To Fly

As noted in recent issues of the Lewiston Tribune a general cleanup movement has been going on in some of the transient camps, especially at Kamiah, where 29 were dismissed on Friday and another crew of 22 were taken to Lewiston Saturday.

It is now coming spring and these "birds" will naturally be hard to control as the wanderlust has gotten in their blood and they are hard to domesticate.

FAT STOCK EVENTS TO PROVE OF INTEREST

All Latah County livestock men will be interested in the fifth annual Inland Empire fat stock show to be held at the Old Union stockyards, Spokane, March 27, 28 and 29, announces L. V. Benjamin, county agent. The show is the outstanding event of its kind in eastern Washington and offers livestock men not only an opportunity to exhibit and sell their prize fat stock but also to buy breeding stock from some of the best strains in the country.

Wednesday, the opening day, will be devoted almost entirely to the junior livestock exhibits, including both 4-H club and Smith-Hughes divisions. The entry list of exhibits to date is the largest of any previous show, according to J. K. Ford, the manager of the Old Union stockyards, and the Spokane meat merchants, packing companies, restaurant and hotel men have promised their support of the fat stock sale. Junior judging contests will be held in the morning and the fat stock placed in the afternoon.

The breeding stock and fat steers will be judged Thursday, with all fat stock being placed on sale in the afternoon. This will include the fat steers, sheep and hogs of both the junior and regular classes. Breeders will have the opportunity of seeing the individuals consigned to the sale judged. The annual sale has for its purpose the building up of more interest in quality and better fattened stock.

Friday, the third day, will be devoted to the sale of over 100 head of breeding stock. Shorthorns will be the predominating breed, although some Aberdeen Angus and Hereford cattle will be offered. The breeding stock comes from the best bred herds in the Northwest.

Detailed information regarding the show may be obtained through the county agent's office.

Idaho Sales Tax Defeated

The Idaho house of representatives on Tuesday defeated the Idaho sales tax bill, personally sponsored by Gov. C. Ben Ross—and the legislative bodies were still at a loss to know just how they were going to raise a fund of $1,200,000 for relief purposes.

The Dodge tax plan, which was defeated in the house in the regular session, made its appearance in the house again, slightly changed. It would place a tax on the privilege of doing business. Other measures that the house will have to consider now in its efforts to solve the taxation problem include a 2-cents-per-package tax on cigarettes, a 5-cent-a-pint tax on liquor; a 1 per cent increase in all branches of the income tax, diversion of 1 per cent of the present gasoline tax to the relief fund; an increased inheritance tax and the intangibles tax that was drawn by Attorney General Bert H. Miller and defeated by the house during the regular session, and several others.

More Than 22,000,000 On Relief

The statement has been made at FERA headquarters at Washington, D. C., that there are now 22,375,000 on the relief rolls—a new all-time peak.

Approximately 5,000,000 families, averaging four to the family, and 775,000 single individuals are on the rolls of the country.

Tonsil Operations

Eunice and Pauline Henderson had their tonsils removed Friday morning of last week, as did Pete Stump, jr., on Monday morning of this week. Dr. D. A. Christensen doing the work. All are recovering nicely.

Sell Carload Beef Cattle

The N. B. Long & Sons company sold a carload of fine fat, grain-fed steers, which brought a fancy price.

Ill At Home

Miss Kathryn Kent, student of the Kendrick High school, is still ill at her home near Gold Hill.

GRAIN MARKET LOWER WITH SLOW DEMAND

Grain markets turned sharply lower during the week ending March 8, influenced by some improvement in wheat prospects, a continued slow demand for feed grains and possibilities of larger foreign imports as a result of declines in foreign exchange, according to the Weekly Grain Market Review of the U. S. Bureau of Agricultural Economics. Good rains and snows in domestic spring wheat areas, moderate precipitation in eastern sections of the winter wheat belt and continued favorable prospects in the Pacific Northwest, together with a slack flour demand, were principally responsible for the weakness in wheat. Increased marketings of corn with continued economies in feeding, despite higher prices of livestock and further importations of corn and oats, were weakening influences in feed grains.

Sharp declines in foreign exchange values lowered foreign grain prices in terms of U. S. money and placed foreign grain in a more advantageous position for export to the United States. Rye and flax were lower with other grains. Fluctuating currency values with uncertainty as to foreign monetary policies were important factors in world grain markets during the week. With the marked depression of the pound sterling, following the establishment of a new high for gold on the London market, foreign grain prices declined sharply in terms of U. S. money. Since the financial crisis beginning in 1931, followed by the suspension of the gold standard in most of the important trading countries of the world, fluctuating exchange values have been dominant in first international commodity markets. Fluctuations in British currency such as took place during the week are particularly significant since Britain is the largest single purchaser of grains and also because of the commercial importance of the United Kingdom and its influence on other countries, whose currency are directly linked to the pound sterling or largely influenced by its movement.

The critical situation is reflected in the various governmental regulations including restriction or control of the foreign exchange, which in turn have restricted international grain trade.

Domestic wheat markets turned downward, influenced by some improvement in new crop prospects and the slow milling demand. Beneficial rains and snows were received over the spring wheat territory and moderate rains were helpful in eastern sections of the winter wheat belt. Winter wheat was reported mostly in satisfactory condition in the Ohio valley with the crop greening in that section and also in Missouri, eastern Kansas and Nebraska. Trade agencies placed the condition of winter wheat at 72 per cent of normal and forecast a crop of 500,000,000 bushels compared with last season's output of 405,000,000 bushels. Farm stocks were estimated at 20,000,000 bushels below those of last season.

Cash wheats declined 2c to 3c per bushel, despite relatively light receipts. Arrivals at principal southern western markets totaled 804 cars while only 183 cars arrived at Minneapolis and 17 cars at Duluth. Of the Minneapolis receipts only 21 cars were winter wheat. Premiums for cash grain were barely steady in winter wheat markets with No. 2 hard winter quoted at Kansas City March 8 at 97c. Milling inquiry was dull at Chicago but premiums on hard winter were well maintained, it being quoted nominally at $1.04 per bushel. The same grade sold at St. Louis at $1.02.

At Fort Worth No. 1 hard winter was offered from storage at $1.11 delivered Texas common points. Soft winter wheat was relatively weaker than hard winter types, reflecting a slow milling demand. Prices were down 2c to 3c per bushel, with No. 2 soft red winter quoted at St. Louis at 96c, at Chicago at 98c and at Kansas City at 97c per bushel.

Intermountain and Pacific Northwest markets were lower along with eastern points. Denver mills were bidding 90c per bushel for No. 2 hard winter and 92c for No. 2 northern spring FOB Colorado common points. Ogden mills were offering 74c for No. 2 soft white, 76c for No. 2 hard white, 81c for No. 2 hard winter and 84c for No. 2 northern spring FOB Utah-Idaho common points.

The Portland market declined 2c per bushel with bluestem hard white quoted at 90c, dark hard winter at 99c, soft white at 83c, northern spring

Ladies Aid Benefit Show

The Ladies Aid of the Kendrick Community church are sponsoring an entertainment to be given in the Kendrick Theatre next Tuesday and Wednesday, March 19 and 20.

At the opening of the entertainment there will be some 30 or 40 minutes of singing, tap dancing and a skit, which will guarantee a good start. Following this there will be a picture show—George Arliss in "The Working Man." This is a splendid picture and everyone should see it—not because it is a good picture, but because you will be helping to put over and entertainment for a good cause.

The picture is a highly spiced comedy drama of American business and youthful folly, in which the star appears as a short-tempered, soft-hearted champion of "big business" who steals time from his own affairs to straighten out the lives of the orphaned children of his former strongest competitor.

Shipped Cattle To Spokane

Dave Gentry shipped two cars of beef cattle to the Spokane market Saturday night.

Pays Official Visit

Worthy Grand Matron, O. E. S., Mrs. W. Schoper of Montpelier, made her official visit to Canyon Chapter Tuesday. From 3 to 5 during the afternoon a school of instruction was conducted by her.

A dinner was served to all present at 6:30 o'clock, after which the chapter met for the regular order of business. Among those present were Mr. and Mrs. Herman Buckallew and Miss Ailene Francis of Juliaetta, and Mrs. Ruth Houck of Lewiston.

Parents Of Son

Mr. and Mrs. Claud Jones are the parents of a son, born at 11:30 a. m. Wednesday at St. Joseph's hospital, Lewiston.

You Are Welcome In Our Town, Anywhere, Always!

Your And Our Home Town
Our Community

Make Our Town Your Social Center As Well As Your Trading Center

The greatest Industry in our Town and Community is Agriculture. It is our basic industry and its field of activity is outside our Home Town but upon the progress and prosperity of Agriculture and of those engaged in it, our Home Town is dependent.

Farm lands and farm values won't rise and increase as they should, where there is no Home Town.

Money deposited in Banks in big cities and in other towns takes capital away — It builds up other communities at the expense of Our Community.

Our Community is made up of the people within the Town and of the people round about the town.

It takes all the factors to build a Community fit to live in — it requires cooperation of farmers and townspeople, of banks, schools, churches, stores, service institutions — all working together — trading together — associating together — to make a worthwhile Community!

From the profits of business is found the wherewithal to provide better Homes, better Schools, better Churches, better Government and better Business and Business Service. People within and without should Work Together and Associate Together. The spirit of working together and associating together is Community Spirit from which Community Progress must come — it is just good, old-fashioned neighborly Spirit!

Upset House With Truck Hoist
Over at Eldon, Mo., Mrs. Charles Caldwell was very much surprised when her home started to tip over and dishes crashed to the floor. No, it wasn't an earthquake. Her husband had started the engine of his dump truck in the basement garage, not realizing the hoisting apparatus was in gear. The house was lifted six inches off its foundation.

Office News

Due to an epidemic of measles the absence rate has been high during the past week. There has been an average of 22 to 25 absences each day of this week.

Report cards were handed out this week. Grades were somewhat lower on the average. On the basis of 6.0 being perfect, the Seniors were high with 4.23; the Juniors were low with 3.47, and the Sophomores and Freshman averages 3.85 and 3.47 respectively.

High honors went to Wayne Yenni, Mary Elizabeth Thompson and Jean Bigelow. Honors went to Wayne Wegner, Joe Watts, Beatrice Curtis, Margaret Daugherty, Don Benscoter, Nolan Weeks and Herman Renfrow.

The Manager of Leo's Studio, of Spokane, was here taking pictures of the Seniors on Tuesday. He will return at a later date to take the remaining Seniors and group pictures.

Plans have been definitely made to begin work on this year's annual, which the class of 1935 will publish. The Senior play has likewise been decided upon, and the cast is being selected.

The Agriculture boys have been working upon their hotbed and hope to soon have cabbage and tomato plants for sale.

The Girls' Glee club has been invited to sing at the theatre next Tuesday and Wednesday at the motion picture that is being sponsored by the Ladies Aid.

Grade Notes

The first and second grades are decorating their room with pictures of Holland.

The sixth grade are making African notebooks in Geography.

The fifth and sixth grade room has taken on a very Dutch air. It has been decorated with tulips and colored scenes of life in Holland.

"No More Women"

"No More Women," which will be the feature picture at the Kendrick Theatre this Friday and Saturday nights, is undoubtedly the best story Lowe and McLaglen, who starred in "The Cockeyed World," have had since "What Price Glory?" It is gusty, powerful, blatant, funny, and above all, fresh. The authors of the script knew what they were doing: their two heroes, Three-Time and Forty-Fathom, are alive and kicking, red-blooded men whose lives consist very simply of working for money, fighting for fun, and loving because it's the only thing that seems important.

This week chapter twelve of "The Red Rider" will also be shown in which there is "Double Trouble" and Red and Marie have a barrowing experience. Also the usual extra features that you all like.

GRAIN MARKET LOWER WITH SLOW DEMAND

85c. Western red, hard winter and western white at 82c per bushel, basis No. 1 sacked. Western white, western red and hard winter were quoted at Seattle at 84c, with baart hard white at 93c per bushel, basis No. 1 sacked. Receipts at Puget Sound and Columbia river terminals were of moderate volume totaling 627 cars, but represented principally movement from the country to terminal storage. Local milling inquiry was dull because of the slow flour business and only a small quantity moved to California. Prices were mostly out of line for shipment to the central west and Atlantic seaboard.

California markets were independently firm, reflecting the small remaining local supplies and fairly active inquiry from mills, industries and feeders. Central California wheat stocks are the lowest in years but purchases of outside wheat have remained relatively light and principally of milling types from northern states.

Pacific Northwestern barley markets were extremely dull with a light demand for both feeding and malting types. Lower prices for California feed barley which was offered in the Northwest below local values, were an additional weakening factor. Inquiry from middlewestern areas was negligible, but malting barley was nominally quoted at $1.85 per 100, sacked, with No. 2 bright western quoted at Portland at $1.45 to $1.50 and at Seattle at $1.40 per 100, sacked basis.

Oats markets weakened with the downward trend in other grains and with a dull inquiry for the current offerings. Pacific Northwest markets were quiet with Atlantic Coast inquiry negligible and liberal offerings of Argentine oats at gulf ports restricting demand for domestic offerings. No. 2 white oats were quoted at Portland at $1.53 and at Seattle at $1.50 per 100, with gray oats down about 10c per 100, sacked basis.

Kendrick, like practically every other community throughout this section of the country, is being bothered by an epidemic of measles. There are no serious cases, however, and most of the children are back in school within a week.

CURED MEATS TO PLEASE AN EPICURE

WHO CAN RESIST The tantalizing odor of crisp, curling, crunchy bacon or the smell of properly cured ham—and grace them with eggs, toast and aromatic coffee—and you have a meal fit for a king.

COME TO US For the ingredients of this meal—the ham or bacon—the eggs—the bread for toast—the fresh eggs—the coffee—we can supply you—and like every other item in the store—they are quality at a fair price.

We realize that this time of the year is rather an "in-between" season, and are making a big effort to tempt your appetite. Try us.
