KENDRICK, LATAH COUNTY, IDAHO, FRIDAY, APRIL 5, 1935

NO. 14

HIGHLIGHTS OF THE WEEK'S NEWS DISPATCHES

Great Britain's statesmen, seeking to save something from the wreckage of Anglo-German conversations at Berlin, were reported studying still another scheme to bulwark Europe's peace. French officials, however, were described as despairing of getting Germany into any effective peace system, believing the only way to curb the reich's military power would be to return to the old system of armed alliances. If Hitler's reputed demands—economic union with Austria, air parity and some Czechoslovak territory among them—are true, and if any attempt is made to enforce them, the French said, the result will be war.

A bitter dispute over how much money should be spent for direct wages under the $4,880,000,000 public works relief bill Friday got the measure into such a tangle that final congressional action was delayed indefinitely. The house was prepared to act upon, and accept the compromise measure agreed upon by the senate and house conferees when word was sent up on Capitol Hill that Secretary Ickes objected vigorously to one section of the bill. The controverted clause would require that a third of the $900,000,000 set aside for loans and grants to states and political subdivisions for non-federal projects must be expended for wages. Ickes expects to have a hand in administering this phase of the new bill, since the measure extends the PWA for two additional years and it is authorized under original law to make grants of 30 per cent and loans of 70 per cent of the cost of state, municipal and other political subdivision projects.

Through Donald R. Richberg, the NRA emphatically told the lumber code authority that it lacked the power to carry out its proposal to suspend the lumber code. An aroused industry, however, showed no indication that it would heed this statement any more than it did previous promises by Richberg, chairman of NRA's administrative board, to speedily amend the agreement.

A charge that price fixing "causes the most vicious inflation" and a suggestion that in extending the NRA, congress incorporate restrictions upon the use of price control devices were made by the American Liberty League. "Price fixing," the league bulletin said, "whether by government or by combinations with industries, cause the most vicious inflation because government-fixed prices are bound to be high enough to sustain the inefficient, while giving excessive rewards to the efficient." Honest competition, the league said, cannot exist under a regime of fixed prices.

War shadows again darken France. Germany's scrapping of the military clauses of the Versailles treaty marks for the French the end of the last war and in the eyes of some perhaps the beginning of the next. Boys of 21, born in the early days of the war, are going into war training in April from every village in France. "Peace" shortened military service from three years to one and now the trend is upward again, to keep the army at 600,000 men. The boys who go next month will serve a year and a half and the October class two years. War is talked of everywhere. It is calm, quiet talk of something so often discussed that it no longer excites. Few talk of starting a preventive war; nearly everyone is prepared to wait for any overt act from the outside.

Entertained In Honor Of Husband

Gave Dessert Bridge

Mr. and Mrs. James Lyle entertained at four tables of dessert bridge Friday evening of last week. High score going to E. A. Deobald and low to Mrs. Silvie Cook.

Guests were Mrs. Ethel Emery, Mrs. Rayburn Brians, Mr. and Mrs. Silvie Cook, Mr. and Mrs. E. A. Deobald, Dr. and Mrs. D. A. Christensen, Mr. and Mrs. Wade Keene, Mrs. and Mrs. George Leith, Mr. and Mrs. W. L. McCreary and Mr. and Mrs. F. B. Higley.

Extends Auto License Date

Gov. C. Ben Ross has again resorted to "the spectacular" regarding the extension of buying 1935 auto licenses. Last year he extended the time of purchase of the 1934 plates two times. This time the extension is made for 30 days, with probably several more extension in the offing. It seems that the governor likes to do these things.

He is a great believer in "advertising."

NEWSPAPERS MUST CHARGE TWO PER CENT SALES TAX

The following news dispatch from Boise, under date of March 27, will be of interest to subscribers of all Idaho newspapers:

Ben Diefendorf, Idaho commissioner of finance, and administrator of the 2 per cent retail sales tax act, ruled that newspaper publishing companies must collect sales tax on circulation, job printing, engraving and other sales of merchandise.

Mr. Diefendorf's statement was made in reply to a protest by Alden Hyde of Caldwell, president of the Idaho State Editorial association, who argued a newspaper should be regarded as a service rather than a commodity, and as such should be exempt from the tax act.

Hyde informed the commissioner the editorial association officers are debating whether court action shall be taken to settle the point.

So until the moot question of whether the two-per-cent tax shall be paid on subscriptions has been settled, we will be compelled to collect the same. In other words, the Gazette will cost $1.52 a year instead of just $1.50.

Getting Used To Sales Tax

Groups who think they can stop operation of the newly enacted state sales tax merely by filing petitions are "all wrong," Governor C. Ben Ross said. "If the referendum could be applied to the sales tax act, as critics of the law contend, functions of our government could be completely stopped," the governor said. The sales tax drew fire from several groups immediately after it was enacted by the recent legislature and several petitions seeking to nullify the act through a referendum were started. These petitions now are being circulated throughout the state.

Ben Diefendorf, commissioner of finance and administrator of the retail sales tax law, said that he thinks "folks are getting used to the new law."

Boys Shooting Song Birds

It has been reported that boys with 22-calibre rifles have been shooting robins and song birds of various kinds, just for the mere "pleasure" of killing the innocent birds. There is a law covering this phase of the killing mania of boys, with a rather heavy penalty attached, if it is reported to the proper authorities.

Our attention was called to this fact and we were asked to make note of the incidents in the hopes that the boys would desist. Birds of practically all kinds, especially song birds, are "man's best friends" and it is hoped the boys will point their rifles at squirrels or magpies, both of which there are thousands.

Brady Gulch "On The Mend"

It will not be many days, it is hoped, until the road up Brady gulch will be one to be really proud of. There has been considerable criticism regarding the building of a road up the gulch, some contending that it would be impossible to build a road that would "stay put" during spring freshets, but Ben Cummings says that they have one that will be there after the water has all gone—and we sincerely hope he is right.

While the rock crusher has been broken down for about a week, it is hoped to have it going shortly and in the meantime some 20 men doing relief work are smoothing the sides of the road and claning up the ditches and generally putting the finished portion in good shape. There is some half a mile yet to be completed with a top-coating of fine gravel.

After the work in the gulch has been completed, work will again be commenced on graveling the Kendrick streets, which is little more than half done.

Kendrick To Have Two Elections

Your attention is called to the official notices of both the village election and the school election in this issue of the Gazette.

INTERESTING NEWS BITS FROM OUR LOCAL SCHOOL

There was no high school on Wednesday, Thursday or Friday of this week on account of the Teachers' Institute in Spokane. The time will be made up.

Pictures for the annual were taken on Tuesday of this week.

The Seniors rose about 4:30 a. m. Monday and started on their "sneak," only to be accompanied by the Juniors, who were in hot pursuit as they left town. The classes met in Lewiston at 5:30 and later in Walla Walla, where they went through the state penitentiary. In the afternoon they came back to Lewiston, where they finished a perfect day in the city's theatres. Mr. Lyle accompanied the Seniors; Mrs. W. B. Deobald and Mrs. Brians, the Juniors.

The freshmen and sophomores, not to be outdone, had a good time at a "hurry-up" party to celebrate the one day they had the school to themselves.

Grade News

The grade children are writing their drills for badges and certificates in penmanship.

The third grade are trying to finish all of their multiplication tables.

Both the third and fourth grades are looking for pictures suitable for silhouettes.

The third and fourth grade program was well attended. There were thirteen patrons and seven visiting brothers and sisters.

The fifth and sixth grades are working on plans to enter the musical at Moscow and the declamatory contest to be held at Leland during the month. Some of the boys are making imitation aquariums in handwork.

The fifth grade are reviewing their year's study of the United States and Idaho.

Kendrick F. F. A Win Honors

The boys of Kendrick F. F. A. chapter went on a stock-judging trip to Spokane last week, where they beat all other Idaho teams in the judging of cattle. The boys taking part in the contest were Larry Langdon, Willard Shoefler, Herman Renfrew and Dale Hughes.

Out of the 15 teams judging, Kendrick took fifth place. Willard Shoefler being third high man out of 60 contestants.

We were fortunate in having an opportunity to go through the Armour packing plant, seeing how all meats are prepared, from the time the animals are killed until they are ready for market.

On April 2 two boys of the Kendrick chapter competed in the public speaking contest at Lapwai, the boys representing Kendrick being Nolan Weeks and Dale Hughes. Moscow won first and second, Nolan Weeks third and Dale Hughes fourth in the speaking contest.

Attend Court Of Honor

Some nine Kendrick boys, with their scoutmaster, L. C. Reichman, attended a meeting of the Court of Honor of Boy Scouts held at Lewiston last Friday, when the boys were formally organized into a troop, which will be known as No. 149.

Those attending the meeting at Lewiston were Tommy Keene, Quentin Dammarell, Lloyd Farrington, Laurence Kuykendall, Leon Lind, Frank Homer Rider, John Brewster Thompson, Richard Reid and John Wallace.

The troop will hold open house in their club rooms in the Kendrick Presbyterian church, Monday night, April 8, at 7:30 sharp. Everyone is invited to come out and see what the boys are doing. Dr. D. A. Christensen will give a talk on "First Aid To the Injured."

ALLOTMENT CHECKS ARE GOOD INSURANCE

Many farmers in Latah county have reported severe wheat losses due to freezing, according to County Agent L. V. Benjamin. However, these men will receive their 1935 allotment checks just the same, reports Mr. Benjamin, provided the instructions below are followed:

If the freezing-out is so severe that the crop must be reseeded or abandoned these farmers have two options open: First, if they wish to reseed to wheat, they may do so without any change in their contract. That is, they are still bound by their 1935 minimum, maximum and contracted acreage. For example: a farmer is allowed to seed for harvest in 1935 one hundred acres. If half of this freezes out and he reseeds it to wheat, he still has only his permitted one hundred acres for harvest.

If, on the other hand, he wishes to abandon this wheat acreage and seed to some other crop, such as oats or barley, the county agent's office should be notified at once. When this notification is received, arrangements will be made to have this abandoned acreage measured, so certification can be made that this land was planted to wheat. This is necessary in order to show that at least the minimum wheat was seeded, and must be done before the abandoned wheat is broken up. After measurements are made and the allotment committee is satisfied that the wheat was damaged to the extent that it must be abandoned, then he may break it up and sow some other crop.

Contracted acreage must be shown in either case, since this is the basis upon which the allotment payments are made.

Two Car Accidents

Two car accidents occurred Saturday afternoon. A car driven by Howard Southwick, Southwick, and one driven by Mrs. W. L. McCreary collided on Main street with a large amount of crumpling fenders. Minor damage was sustained by both cars.

The second was near the Oscar Raby home on West Main street where a Pontiac sedan owned by Earl Juzeler and driven by his son skidded in the loose gravel and overturned. Fenders on the left side and the left side of the top was damaged.

No one was scratched in either case.

Where Are The Fish?

News dispatches from southern waters state that President Roosevelt has had a sun-bath and a swim, but nothing has been said about the big ones that got away or the small ones he landed—in fact, word from the President's fishing front is very meager. Marvin Long and a few others of a piscatorial nature are beginning to worry about the season's catch, figuring that if the fish won't bite for the president of the United States, what chance will the more obscure guy have.

Lewiston Has Radio Station

A new radio broadcasting station was opened in Lewiston Sunday afternoon, the broadcasting starting at 4:00 o'clock on a frequency of 1420 kilocycles. The broadcast was received plainly in Kendrick and the program was as good as the average small station. The station designation is KRLC. The time of broadcast will be from 6:30 in the morning until 10 o'clock at night.

Nearly One-Fourth On Relief

According to figures given out at Boise, nearly one-fourth of the population of Idaho are on the relief rolls in one form or another, the number being given at 101,631. The population of Idaho at the 1930 census (and it has increased some since that) was 445,032.

There must be a reason.

Had Tonsils Removed

Tom King of Southwick had his tonsils removed at the office of Dr. Christensen last Friday morning.

GRAIN MARKETS FIRMER WITH LIGHT OFFERINGS

Domestic grain markets on the whole were slightly firmer during the week ended March 29, influenced by light offerings, diminishing supplies and uncertain new crop prospects, according to the Weekly Grain Market Review of the U. S. Bureau of Agricultural Economics. Unsettled economic conditions in Europe and higher prices at Liverpool with less selling pressure from the Southern hemisphere where supplies are much smaller this season, were additional strengthening influences in the wheat market. Corn was steady to firm, reflecting light receipts and rapidly diminishing market stocks. Arrivals of foreign corn were small with little more expected until new Argentine crop arrives in May or June. Oats were about unchanged with small domestic offerings supplemented by fairly heavy arrivals of Argentine oats at Gulf ports. Barley was independently firm with some revival in inquiry for malting types.

Further deterioration during the week in western parts of the winter wheat belt, where crops are in poor condition with many fields bare. In eastern sections of South Dakota, Nebraska, Kansas, Oklahoma and Texas, wheat made fair growth but was badly in need of rain. In Kansas and Missouri and in the Ohio valley, the crop made good progress with weather generally favorable. Warm weather favored growth in the southeastern states and in the Pacific Northwest. Spring wheat seedings started in eastern South Dakota, where warm weather and helpful rains favored plowing and discing. Prospects in Europe were reported mostly favorable although some winter damage was reported from southern Russia, Roumania and Italy. Harvesting in India made good progress with the weather favorable and prospects of a good crop.

Marketings of United States wheat remained unusually light with receipts at the principal winter wheat markets totaling only 498 cars and in the spring wheat markets 235 cars. Only 115 cars arrived at Kansas City during the week with a large percentage from Missouri river terminals consigned direct to mills, local elevators or outside points. Shipping was slack towards the close of the week but milling inquiry was fairly active. Ordinary protein, No. 2 hard winter was quoted at the close of the market March 29 at 97 to 98c. Receipts at Chicago were moderate and premiums held about unchanged. Inquiry from interior mills was only fair and shipping business was light. No. 2 hard winter was quoted at $1.03 to $1.04 per bushel. Milling demand was good at St. Louis where current offerings were readily taken. No. 2 hard winter was quoted in that market at $1.01 per bushel. Country offerings were very light at Fort Worth where No. 1 hard winter was quoted at $1.11 delivered Texas common points. Wheat from Kansas City was quoted at $1.11 delivered group points.

Intermountain and Pacific Coast markets were firm and mostly higher. Denver mills were bidding 88c for No. 2 hard winter FOB Colorado points and 90c per bushel for No. 2 northern spring. Prices at Ogden were unchanged with mills offering 73c for No. 2 hard and soft white, 81c for No. 2 hard winter and Northern spring FOB Utah-Idaho common points.

Some improvement in local demand advanced wheat 1c to 3c per bushel at Portland. High protein milling wheat was in best demand with a more active inquiry from California. Some feed wheat was also moved to that area but sales to Atlantic or Gulf ports were negligible since prices were out of line for such business. Some hard winter was sold to middlewestern mills from interior shipping points but prices of most classes were too high to effect sales in central western markets. Marketings were slightly larger with growers inclined to dispose of surplus. Receipts at Puget Sound and Columbia River terminals totaled 338 cars. At the close of the market March 29, bluestem hard white was quoted at Portland at 92c, northern spring at 85c, soft white at 83c, western white at 83c and western red and hard winter at 82½c per bushel, basis No. 1 sacked. At Seattle western white was quoted at 85c, western red and hard winter at 84c and baart hard white at 95c per bushel, No. 1 sacked basis.

were independently weak reflecting the dull demand from all classes of trade and lower quotations on California feed barley. Some selling pressure on the low grade light weight or weevily feed barley from California was a depressing influence. No. 2 bright western barley was quoted at Portland March 28 at $1.30 to $1.35. Oats markets followed the upward trend in other grains but demand for the light current offerings continued moderate. Pacific Northwestern markets were irregularly lower with light inquiry from both local and outside interests. Some selling pressure from terminal stocks at Portland was in evidence, reflecting the light inquiry from Atlantic and Gulf ports for domestic oats. The arrival of 2,770 tons of Argentine oats was reported at New Orleans during the week and 1,005 tons at Galveston. No. 2 heavy bright red oats from Argentine were offered at Galveston at $1.39 per 100, FOB cars. No. 2 white oats were quoted at Portland at $1.35 to $1.40.

Why There are Mineral Deficiencies in Farm Crops

In every state, county and even every farm, there is a wide variance in the mineral content of the soil. This is due to natural causes (Nature's unequal distribution of minerals) and because minerals in some soils wash out from the rain and snow more readily than others.

Then too, if the soil has been tilled and planted, the various crops have gradually taken up the natural mineral elements and in many cases these minerals have not been replaced. Thus, we find vast regions where it is necessary to fertilize heavily to obtain crops of sufficient mineral content. If these minerals are not put back into the soil, the crops are naturally minus these important nutritional elements required for balanced feeding.

Moreover, from these very sections are grown the great proportion of the grains used by feed manufacturers, who in turn, redistribute their feed and mashes to other territories. As a result many raisers of livestock and poultry are probably being robbed of farm profits through the lack of Iodine, Calcium and Phosphates.

VIAMINERAL and CONOMINERAL contain all necessary elements in addition to Iodine often lacking in the average ration.

Big Double Picture Show
There will be a double picture show this Friday and Saturday nights at the Kendrick Theatre—all at the old price. The feature picture will be one of those true Westerns most of you like so well, "The Dude Ranger," with George O'Brien as the hard ridin', rarin' fool. They thought he was a "dude" in cowboy's clothing, but the wild spirit of the west was in his soul and a good fight in his blood—because he held a little ranch girl in his heart.

Then, too, there will be Chapter 15 of the "Red Rider"—the last of the series in which the outlaws are brought to justice. In addition to all this, there will be the first installment of "Tailspin Tommy," an airplane picture in which real airports are used in the production. The first chapter is entitled "Death Flies the Mail." It is said to be an up-to-the-minute picture full of thrills.
