CRESCENT CLIPPINGS

J. E. Long, a former resident of Crescent spent a few days recently in the Gold Hill, Cedar Ridge and Crescent neighborhoods visiting with old friends. He left here about eleven years ago for Arizona, where he worked for a time in the mines. Since then he has been traveling-and has been in every state in the union except one, Arkansas.

Mr. and Mrs. Ray King moved into the cook house at the Darby mill last Thursday. Mrs. King is cooking for the men' this year. The mill sawed a little Saturday, but didn't start with all hands on the job until Monday.

Mrs. Annie Kimbley is improving steadily, we are glad to report. Miss Edna Kimbley, who spent a few days in bed with the flu last week, is up again.

Mr. and Mrs. L. A. Watson and son Dickie, Miss Esther Swanson and Hjalmer Stephenson were Lewiston visitors Friday.

The entire school and some of the older folks from here attended the track meet in Southwick Friday. Some also stayed for the play in the evening.

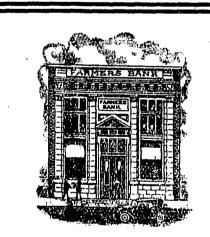

Miss Helen LeFebre spent the week-end at the Ziemann home in Southwick.

Is Convalescing

Fred Crocker, who has been confined to his bed for the past three weeks is now on the road to recovery, being able to sit up a portion of each day.
