HIGHLIGHTS OF THE WEEK'S NEWS DISPATCHES

Failure to move 675 veterans out of the path of the Florida hurricane aroused an official debate in the midst of suffering and effort to relieve the victims and bury the dead. Harry L. Hopkins, chief of the FERA in whose camps the veterans were quartered blamed the weather bureau for their not being moved. Weather bureau officials said their forecasts charted a fairly clear course which the storm followed. Admiral Cary T. Grayson said the weather bureau forecasts were so excellent they allowed the Red Cross to prepare in advance for relief work. The American Legion launched out what it described as its own "complete, unbiased and impartial investigation" with particular reference to conditions in the veterans' camps and CCC camps in that (the Florida keys storm) area, where veterans were kept prior to and through the disaster.

Private industry of the world must absorb the unemployed from relief employment to assure a permanent prosperity, Charles P. Howard, president of the International Typographical union, asserted in a recent radio address. "Unemployment is the basic cause of the condition from which the nations are suffering," he said, and "no government and no agency other than private industry can provide employment. It is not possible to artificially create employment for those who are now idle," he added. "International trade unionism contends that through limitation of working hours the unemployed must be reabsorbed in private industry."

Danger of pestilence in Florida's tragedy-stricken coral keys was lessened as flames flickered from scattered funeral pyres of storm dead. As quickly as protestant, Catholic and Jewish clergymen could recite their church's rituals for the dead, workers applied the torch to the oil-drenched, badly decomposed victims of Monday's hurricane. Sheriff D. C. Coleman, heading 500 workers in the storm area, estimated 150 bodies were affected by the cremation order, issued over the wish of President Roosevelt when health officers saw disease imminent. The latest tabulation of the storm's toll by the FERA and Red Cross disclosed these figures: Veterans in the three key camps 716; unidentified dead or missing 281; in hospitals 138; identified dead 46, rescued uninjured or slightly hurt 244; no record 7. Civilians: Missing and unaccounted for 90; dead identified 8; dead unidentified 21; injured 286.

If United States Senator William E. Borah of Idaho gave the "proper assurances" the organization behind the Townsend old-age revolving pension fund plan "would give him 50,000,000 votes for the presidency," Dr. Francis E. Townsend, author of the plan, declared at Boise Saturday night. He referred to the noted Idaho senator "as the ablest statesmen in the United States today and a man whom I could conscientiously support for the presidency, if I had his promise that he would sponsor legislation to enact our plan into law." "We are not going to place any dependence on the two old major political parties. We are a militant third party concentrating on control of both branches of the United States congress to the end that our proposals become law," the gray-haired physician emphasized.

A direct personal appeal to President Roosevelt was announced by Secretary Ickes Tuesday in a final effort to overturn work relief policies fixed by Harry L. Hopkins. Ickes announced he would go to Hyde Park—at the President's invitation. Hopkins quickly countered with the remark he intended to go there himself "soon." Hopkins rejection of 2000 public works projects was the spark which set blazing openly the long-smouldering feud between the works progress director and Ickes. But Mr. Roosevelt will have a more fundamental problem to solve for his $4,000,000,000 works drive—whether to turn back to the substantial projects carried out by Ickes in the old PWA or to press the speedier pick and shovel and "boondoggling" activities favored by Hopkins both in the civil works administration and the new job drive.

Cattle To Spokane

Dave Gentry will ship a car of cattle to Spokane Saturday night. He also expects to ship a load from Orofino at the same time.

Confined To Home

Mrs. J. H. Cairns is confined to her home by illness.

Townsend Speaks At Lewiston

A crowd estimated at from 6,000 to 7,000 people heard Dr. F. E. Townsend explain his old-age pension plan in Fifth Street Park, Lewiston, Sunday evening. Dr. Townsend claims to have the proper solution for the unemployment and poverty situation in his revolving pension fund plan of giving every person past 60 years of age a pension of $200 a month, the amount to make the necessary payments to be raised by a two-percent sales tax on all transactions. The entire world surely needs a Moses to lead it out of the wilderness and here's hoping Dr. Townsend or someone else will get busy right away.

SENATOR HUEY LONG DIES FROM ASSASSIN'S BULLET

Another well-known national character has passed to his reward, this time from an assassin's bullet, the victim being Senator Huey Long of Louisiana (the Louisiana Kingfish), perhaps one of the best known men in the United States senate, because of his militant activities. Senator Long was attending an extraordinary session of the Louisiana legislature and was about to leave the state house when Dr. C. A. Weiss, Jr., of Baton Rouge, fired the fatal shots that eventually took the senator's life. Weiss, in turn, was immediately riddled by bullets from the sub-machine guns of Long's body guards, who followed him constantly, when he was in Louisiana.

While Long was an anti-Roosevelt man, and his special session of the Louisiana legislature was for the purpose of passing bills in opposition to the government's recovery act, President Roosevelt expressed deep regret at the unfortunate occurrence, perhaps remembering at that time his own close call while in the southland a few years ago, when an assassin made an attempt on his life. The entire nation, regardless of political affiliation, regrets the terrible occurrence, but when southern blood begins to boil at real or fancied wrongs, it seems there is no other way of cooling it, as has been demonstrated on various occasions in that section.

Just what bearing the death of Senator Long will have on his program for Louisiana, is problematical. There was at least one thing that must be said about the senator—he kept things on the move.

And The Taxpayer Pays

President Roosevelt placed $27,315,217 at Harry L. Hopkins' disposal for one of the most extensive programs for subsidizing literature and the arts in the history of governments.

Approval of Comptroller General J. R. McCarl for the work relief allotment was given after a month's delay. The project, intended to provide six months' employment for more than 30,000 writers, painters, musicians and actors, is to get under way next week.

Correspondent Wanted

Since our good correspondent, G. F. Cridlebaugh, formerly of Cameron, has changed locations, we are now in need of a correspondent at Cameron and would appreciate hearing from anyone who would be willing to take on the job. We furnish all necessary supplies and it also carries a subscription to the paper.

All our correspondents have done wonderfully well and we appreciate their efforts and while we realize they have been very busy during the harvest season, we would appreciate just a few items, at least, from any or all of them. We are very proud of the nice list of correspondents who have been sending items and we hope they will renew their efforts as soon as possible.

There are other communities besides Cameron we would like to have represented in our columns. We especially need correspondents on American and Big Bear ridges and would be pleased to hear from anyone in either of these localities.

Has Purchased Home

Harold Thomas last week purchased the C. A. Oppenbarn home in the west part of town for an undisclosed amount, and will, after remodeling, occupy it as a home. Mr. and Mrs. Ira Havens, who have been living there for some two years, will be forced to vacate, and do not as yet know where they will move, as the housing situation in Kendrick is very acute, vacant houses and apartments being almost as scarce as the proverbial "hen's teeth."

KENDRICK COMMERCIAL CLUB IN MONTHLY MEET

The Kendrick Commercial club met in regular monthly meet Monday evening in the dining room of the Raby Hotel, where they were served a splendid chicken dinner by Ray Jackson and his assistants, there being some 35 members and visitors in attendance, among the visitors being the teachers in the public school and members of the state surveying crew, all of whom were introduced to the assemblage; the teachers being introduced by Supt. James M. Lyle, Jr., and the surveying crew by N. E. Walker, chairman of the highway committee.

The meeting was short and snappy. President Geo. Barnum had told the chairmen of the various committees that he expected some sort of a report from each, and when they were called on they did as requested.

Minutes of the previous meeting were read and approved, after which committee reports were received.

N. E. Walker, for the highway committee, reported that there was very little new "under the sun," or words to that effect, but stated that the actual survey work of the Cedar Creek road had been completed, but there was still some three weeks of office work before final completion of that part of the road work. He also stated that there had been more assurance that the road would be built from Arrow to the county line below Juliaetta, over some six or seven miles, which will be a start at least. This seems to bear out the engineers statement that we are not likely to get more feeder roads about this section until a main highway is at least assured. He reported, however that efforts are being made on the Southwick-Kendrick road, and hopes are held for its construction soon.

M. O. Raby, for the industrial committee, stated that they had been active and had secured the sanction of some four projects at Moscow and from the state officers, and that it was now up to the local village council to make the next move. The projects embrace the laying of a pipe from a spring to the reservoir, two of laying water mains, and one of park and playground improvement. Lester Crocker, a member of the Fish and Game Committee, stated that Marvin Long, chairman of that committee, had succeeded in getting some 25,000 more trout promised for the Potlatch.

W. J. Carroll, chairman of the Merchants' committee, suggested that Kendrick have a sales day again this fall and that it be made a gala day for the town, such as it has been in the past. It was suggested that it be held sometime in October. The matter, after a vote of approval, was left in the hands of the Merchants and Publicity committees.

H. B. Thompson, chairman of the Entertainment committee, reported that everything had started off nicely at the opening of school and that while the number of pupils in the grade department is a little lower than last year, the high school had a larger enrollment and that more were expected for both grades and high school.

J. B. Brody of the Brody Motor company, Moscow, and J. R. Kelley, now assisting in the Farmers Bank, were also in attendance at the meeting.

The next meeting will be held on Monday night, October 14.

Buys Campbell's Bluebird

A California man has purchased "Bluebird." No, we don't mean "blue buzzard," but Sir Malcolm Campbell's big blue automobile that he put over a mile of salt flat at the rate of 301.335 miles per hour—so we're advising all who still have Model T's to please keep out of his way and not have a speed argument with him—especially on the famous Ross highway between here and Arrow.

Is Showing New Dishes

Frank Curtis is this week showing a line of something really new in dishes—a plaid design—with matching luncheon cloth. Three different colors and designs are available in these sets and they truly present something new and pleasing. They are on display in the right front window.

A Two-Legged One

A farmer over at Ortonville, Minn., recently ate 53 ears of sweet corn in a contest at the fiftieth annual sweet corn festival at that place. He started with a handicap of five ears. The contest lasted seven hours and 15 minutes.

INTERESTING NEWS NOTES FROM OUR PUBLIC SCHOOL

The first meeting of the newly organized Journalism class was held Friday, September 6. Mr. Lyle called the meeting to order and later turned it over to the new advisor, Mr. King, who gave a short talk on different types of news and their relative merit.

From the 14 students in the class the following officers were elected: Joe Watts, Editor in chief; Oscar Hartung, first assistant editor; Eileen Smith, second assistant; Lucille Lewis, head typist; Roy Ramey, assistant typist. This group will collect and edit all the school news for the ensuing term.

Boys' and girls' sections of the glee club met last week. The first meetings were spent in placing the voices. The enrollment includes 30 girls and 19 boys. Music has been ordered and the fall work, under the direction of Mr. King, will begin immediately.

There has been 75 students enrolled in High school so far this term. This includes 11 in the Senior class; 18 Juniors; 21 Sophomores; and 22 Freshmen. There will probably be several more entering at a later date.

The World History class is enjoying a brief review of the Ethiopian war.

The Geometry class is learning the correct form of lettering.

The Junior class is planning to give their Junior play early in November.

The teachers were royally entertained by the members of the Commercial club at their monthly meeting, held on September 9th.

Hawkshaw On Duty

Hawkshaw and his crew issue fair warning to all students of Kendrick Hi—better watch your step or you'll be among the mentioned.

We see Schoeffler is back in the creamery business again. Roy Ramey surpasses both the bear and himself in his latest—Flash, Miss Lennox returns, still eligible.

Remember—from furnace to flag pole—the Super Snooper is always on duty, Hawkshaw?

Grade Notes

The third and fourth grades are getting new work books for arithmetic, language and reading.

Ruth Biddison of Pine creek has entered the third grade.

The sixth grade is making historic panels, which tell stories in pictures. The seventh and eighth grades are getting new work books in all subjects. They will arrive next week.

Those who were neth absent not tardy during the term of 1934-1935 are John Wallace, Ethel Fraser, Bob Watts, Orma Candier, Vern Langdon, Maurice Long, Arthur Fraser, Tommy Long and Kenneth Hill.

Scientist To Descend Salmon

Victor Peterson, active in helping get the National Geographic society to sponsor the expedition down the Salmon, "the river of no return," said it was planned to commence the trip from Salmon about Oct. 6 and that it would take three weeks before the scientist-adventurers reached Lewiston. Citizens of Salmon are planning to celebrate the party's leave.

The pictures taken and the observations made will be used in an article to appear in the National Geographic magazine. The Salmon river canyon is one of the deepest and longest canyons in the world and the article, authentically written and illustrated should attract world-wide interest. The history and developments of the region will be woven into the story.

"Dead As A Dodo"

And now the edict has gone forward that Johnson's blue buzzard shall not be reproduced in any form, nor be used as an insignia or emblem, on pain of something or other, the edict having been sent out by Acting Administrator L. J. Martin. And here it has only been such a short time ago that the buzzard was necessary to anyone's welfare, wellbeing, and a few other things, on pain of having something or other done to you if it wasn't used and proper contributions made toward its upkeep. We still have a very life-like picture of Johnson's buzzard that we would be willing to trade for most anything of value, or otherwise.

Sale Closes Friday, the 13th

Whether you are superstitious or not, you should go over to the Long store and see the many bargains they have for you just before the close of their IGA anniversary sale. It bills had been submitted to the auditor's office.

New Arrivals

Mr. and Mrs. Ward Howell are the proud parents of a 6½-pound baby son, who arrived at their home to make an indefinite stay on Friday, September 6.

Mr. and Mrs. Edwin Mielke are the proud parents of a 7½-pound daughter, who came to their home on Saturday, September 7.

Mr. and Mrs. Herbert Wolff are also the very proud parents of a 8¾-pound baby daughter, who arrived at their home on Saturday, September 7.

Mothers and babes in each instance are reported as doing nicely.

THINKS CONSTITUTION GOOD ENOUGH AS IT IS

Robert H. Elder of Coeur d'Alene, former Idaho democratic national committeeman for 16 years, Saturday declared the American constitution is broad enough "for every legitimate activity of the federal government in the way of reform or relief."

"We need no new constitutional amendments," he said during his visit at Boise.

"The federal government has every power it can need. Andrew Jackson summed up the matter succinctly many years ago, discussing a similar situation, and I feel he was right.

There is too much of a tendency toward centralization anyway, and I, for one, would bitterly oppose any proposal to speed up this centralization."

The Coeur d'Alene lawyer said his statement was prompted by frequent criticisms of the constitution by persons who argue that it is not sufficiently broad to cope with present conditions.

Borah Returns Home

Avoiding any comment on political questions, United States Senator William E. Borah returned to his home in Boise last Thursday, confident the United States will not become involved in a war between Italy and Ethiopia, which appears to him to be almost "inevitable."

"An effort probably will be made to localize the conflict, and the United States in all probability will not be drawn in," the former chairman of the powerful senate foreign relations committee predicted.

The veteran of 28 years in the senate announced shortly after he left his transcontinental train that he does not intend to discuss "political subjects for some time, if I can avoid it."

Asked "Have you come to any conclusions as to whether you will be a candidate for the presidency?" he replied:

"I do not desire to discuss that matter at this time."

Car And Truck Collide

A near-serious collision occurred Saturday afternoon when a Chevrolet sedan driven by Roy Rong, Kendrick, and a Chevrolet truck driven by M. S. Martin of Grangeville, met in a head-on collision near the Sam Lange place, 3½ miles north of Genesee.

Roy was going toward Genesee, a car, driven by Mrs. Sam Lange, also going toward Genesee, was just ahead, parked on the right side of the road, to permit the Martin truck, which she was meeting, to pass, and allow her to make a left turn. Roy, approaching from the rear, saw that he could not stop quick enough to clear the Lange car, so elected to try to pass between the parked car and oncoming truck. There wasn't room enough, however, and the Long car collided with the truck, badly damaging both. Counting the two cars and truck occupants, eleven persons were involved. No one was hurt, however.

Extra Session Cost $9,918

The cost of the second extraordinary session of the 23rd Idaho state legislature was approximately $9,918, it was announced by Orville Brooks, accountant in the office of State Auditor Harry C. Parsons.

The second extraordinary session was called together July 8 to consider amendments to the state highway law and to pass the state automobile caravan act.

The cost as announced by Brooks included salaries and mileage for 59 representatives, 44 senators and legislative attaches who were at Boise for two and one-half days. It also included printing of bills and administrative expenses.

The expense could not be computed until all printing and other bills had been submitted to the auditor's office.

GRAIN MARKETS FIRMER—MUCH LOW QUALITY GRAIN

Grain markets turned firmer during the week ended Sept. 6, according to the Weekly Grain Market Review of the U. S. Bureau of Agricultural Economics. Prospects of light supplies of good milling wheat as a result of the unusually low quality of the United States and Canadian spring crops, a more active milling inquiry, lighter southern hemisphere offerings and higher foreign markets were strengthening influences in wheat. Oats strengthened but advances were small since offerings continued heavy, and easily sufficient for trade needs. Barley was steady with firm premiums for malting types.

The lower quality of the northern hemisphere wheat this season tends to accentuate the smaller harvests. Of United States inspections of hard winter wheat at representative markets during July, only 46 per cent graded No. 2 or better against 80 per cent during July last year. Only 25 per cent of the hard winter graded dark hard as against 58 per cent last year. Of soft red winters only 46 per cent graded No. 2 or better compared with 73 per cent in July 1934, with 23 per cent grading tough as against only 6 per cent last year. White wheats are of somewhat higher quality than last season, with inspections during the first half of August showing 47 per cent grading No. 1 as against only 36 per cent for the same period of 1934.

Durums showed less injury than bread wheats but only 49 per cent graded No. 2 or better during the first half of August as compared with 67 per cent in 1934. The Canadian crop has suffered from drought, rust and frost in Saskatchewan, the largest province of Canada. Both yields and quality are below average. In Manitoba yields of bread wheat range from 8 to 10 bushels of low grade grain.

Little information is available as to the quality of the European crops but rains during harvest with lodging in some areas lowered quality while other sections suffered from heat during the filling period. Early samples show considerable irregularity in test weights and quality. In Belgium, Netherlands, Germany and Poland, hot dry weather during the filling season reduced yields and lowered test weights. The Russian crop has suffered from rust and insect pests with 10 to 15 per cent of the grain shriveled in southeastern sections. In some areas it is reported fair but with lowered grades due to rain.

Domestic cash grain markets were stronger with futures but were influenced also by an active mill inquiry for good quality wheat. Trade agencies at the first of September estimated the spring wheat crop about 20,000,000 bushels below the official August 1 forecast, confirming serious rust damage to the crop. Marketings of spring wheat increased, with receipts the largest of the season, totaling 2,303 cars at Minneapolis and 500 cars at Duluth. The quality remained poor with the test weight averaging only 52 pounds and with over one-third of the inspections of sample grade, because of light weight.

Premiums for heavy weight wheat were well maintained and prices advanced nearly 6c per bushel following gains in futures. 52 pound wheat sold at 3 to 16 cents under the September price of $1.17, while 55 pound weight brought from 2c under to 5c over. 58 pound 9c to 12c over and 60 pound No. 1 dark northern 13c to 15c over the September price. Durum markets advanced influenced by only moderate offerings and a good milling demand. Marketings of winter wheat dropped off with receipts at the principal markets totaling only 2,635 cars compared with 3,609 cars for the previous week. Mills were active buyers reflecting the improved flour market, while shippers competed for the better wheat, with storage interests and mixers taking light weight, low protein lots.

Offerings of soft red winter wheat were smaller but about sufficient for trade needs. The quality showed material improvement at St. Louis, where No. 2 soft winter was quoted at 95½c per bushel. At Chicago No. 2 soft red was quoted at 92c and at Kansas City at 98c.

Intermountain and Pacific Coast markets were higher with eastern points but influenced also by a fairly active demand. Denver mills advanced bids to $1.00 per bushel for No. 2 hard winter and $1.05 for No. 2 northern spring FOB Colorado points. Mills at Ogden advanced

"Under The Pampas Moon"

Here's another of those fast-stepping pictures that will delight everyone—"Under The Pampas Moon," with Warner Baxter in the leading male role. Its melodies will haunt you; its tangos will entice you. His lips yearned to kiss her—his hands to kill her! For the smouldering-eyed mam'selle, chance-tossed from a plane, was the first to resist the grandest charmer in all Argentina—and since she betrayed him, he vowed to teach her the code of the gaucho! With Veloz and Yolando, introducing today's dancing sensation, the "cobra tango."

Now, another new serial, "Call of the Savage," almost a Tarzan picture, the first chapter being entitled "Shipwrecked," and other regular interesting features.

Moscow Now Has Two Dailies

Moscow is perhaps the only town of its size in the Northwest that can boast two daily papers, the News-Review having recently changed from a semi-weekly to a daily. The Star-Mirror has been in operation for many years. In these lean times it will be necessary to speed up the public works situation in order to give the merchants enough trade to pay them to insert enough advertising to support two daily papers. At least it will be interesting to watch the "scrap" for supremacy.

Brought In Large Melon

B. C. Custer on Monday brought a watermelon to the Long store that tipped the scales at 35 pounds. Not so bad for a dry season.

93 More License Applications

Special officers Taber and Mauvais were in town Tuesday giving examinations for driver's licenses. 93 applications were taken, with one rejected because of poor eyesight.

The 93 applications taken Tuesday, together with those of their previous visit, makes a total of 376 applications accepted in Kendrick to date. Mr. Taber warned that October 1 is the deadline for driver's licenses, and that all who did not have them would be forced to discontinue driving cars or trucks on that date. No more visits will be paid Kendrick, and if you did not take the examination, it will be necessary for you to go to Moscow or Lewiston and secure one.

We Have Another Widow

We mean black widow spider, which was added to our collection last Friday. The "animal" was found on a sack when a load of wheat was being unloaded which was brought in by Lyle Harrison. However, while the marking is good, it had not been fed very well for it is rather puny. Spider "feed" is getting rather scarce around our place of business. They are very fond of other spiders and we have about cleaned our shop out. However, we will try and fatten the thing up and will later feed it to one of our old-time "scrappers."

F. F. A. Chapter Meets

The first meeting of the Kendrick chapter of F. F. A. was called to order on Friday, Sept. 6. The enrollment now is 25 members—10 old and 15 new.
Harry Wegner was appointed reporter in Dale Hugh's place. Ray Thomas was appointed Watch Dog in Frank Abrams' place.
The rules were discussed and the meeting came to a close. Everyone left happy.

Gas Down 2 1/2c

Following the drop in the price of gasoline in the larger centers, the Kendrick stations have likewise dropped their prices to meet those of outside places. Buy your gas at home—it doesn't cost a cent more.

Had Good Bean Yield

The heaviest yield of beans we have heard of thus far this season was that on the George Wilken farm, he having harvested 5 1/2 sacks per acre—a mighty good yield for a dry season.

PERSONALS

Herman Schupfer and family were Lewiston visitors Sunday.

Mrs. Rose Farrington was a Lewiston visitor Saturday.

Mrs. Letta Israel of Juliaetta visited Burneda Cummings Sunday.

Mrs. Eben Adams of Moscow was visiting in town Tuesday afternoon. Warner Ziemann of Southwick was a Moscow business visitor on Tuesday. Fred Skina left Friday for Moscow, where he will attend the U. of I. this year.

Kathryn Roos of Lewiston visited her sister, Miss Carolyn Roos, over the week-end.

Raymond Lyons left Thursday for Muskegan, Michigan, to work in the forestry service office there.

Miss Annabelle Davis came down from Moscow Tuesday to spend a few days with home folks.

Mrs. Rachel Prull of Pullman has been here this week, visiting with her cousin, Mrs. N. B. Long.

Maxine Keene spent Thursday and Friday with Orene Hardman, who is teaching on Little Bear ridge.

Mr. and Mrs. Thorvald Nelson were Sunday dinner guests of Mr. and Mrs. Ben Cummings and family. Elbert Long of Moscow was in town Sunday visiting with his grandmother, Mrs. N. B. Long, and other relatives.

Mrs. Arthur Dawald, accompanied by Mrs. Roy Bacharach, motored to Orofino Tuesday evening for a few days' visit.

Mrs. Selma Johnson is expected home soon from Lewiston, where she has been recuperating from a major operation.

Mr. and Mrs. C. E. Mitchell and daughter Norma of Moscow spent Sunday visiting Mr. and Mrs. James Lyle and family.

Little Eddena Burgess, who spent the past month with Mrs. C. A. Heick at Moscow, returned to her home in Southwick last week.

Douglas Hunter of Peck arrived last Thursday for a few days' visit with his daughter and family, Mr. and Mrs. Wade Keene.

Ward Howell left for Craigmont last Saturday. He will teach in the high school there. His wife and children will join him in a few weeks.

Mr. and Mrs. J. H. Cairns and baby and Mrs. Rickle spent Friday and Saturday in Colfax with relatives, who were there from California.

George Jones left last Friday for Shawnee, Okla., where he will spend the winter working for his uncle, Gerald Parkin, and will also attend college there.

Mr. and Mrs. Silvie Cook and Margaret, Emma Cook, Walter Cook, and Miss Erickson motored to Lewiston Sunday to spend the day with the Claud Cook family.

County Officers Enforcing Booze Law

Enforcement of the state liquor act has pepped up since the state liquor commission made its position plain, said Commissioner M. B. Yeaman upon his return from a trip through the southeast.

"Our statement that the enforcement of the act was entirely in the hands of the county officials," he explained, "has greatly clarified the atmosphere, and enforcement is speeding up."

"It should have been unnecessary for us to make any statement in the first place, for the law is plain. But all over the state the local officials apparently have been waiting for us to speak. Now that we have spoken, they are cooperating."

Idaho Real Taxes Reduced

A reduction of $134,760 in the 1935 ad valorem tax for Idaho state governmental purposes was shown in figures released from the office of the state board of equalization.

The tax was $1,633,586 in 1934. It dropped to $1,498,836 in 1935. Total valuation of property was given as $369,768,618 for 1935, compared with $368,280,825 for 1934, and the 1935 tax was set at .002673 for general fund purposes which will require $1,000,000, compared with $1,147,982 last year.

Valuation of real property in Idaho for 1935 ad valorem tax purposes exclusive of utilities was fixed at $247,789,361, compared with $248,256,212. Personal property valuation totaled $15,436,531, compared with $14,079 for 1934.

TEAKEAN GOSSIP

The farmers are all happy that they have their threshing all done.

Rev. H. L. Graybeal of Leland preached here last Sunday afternoon. As there are several Methodist folks here, arrangements have been made for the Leland pastor to preach here once every month.

Carroll Groseclose sold his Overland touring car to Eddie Choate. Eddie expects to drive to Southwick to attend high school. His sister Ruby will accompany him.

Rev. and Mrs. Bruce Groseclose of Beaverton, Oregon, spent a week here with his parents, Mr. and Mrs. Wm. Groseclose. They left Tuesday for their home, accompanied by Carroll Groseclose, who will attend school at the Oregon Institute of Technology, Portland.

Merton Preussler is home for a week from a blister rust camp at Superior, Mont.

Dale, the ten-months-old son of Mr. and Mrs. Elwood Brock, has the measles. He had a high fever and was quite ill until he broke out.

Mrs. Lottie Brock, Mrs. Olive Preussler, Mrs. Lena Harp and daughters Olive and Bertha and Mrs. Anna Harrington all helped get dinner for threshers at the Wm. Groseclose place last week.

The Sewell girls went to Peck Monday morning to start to high school. Mr. and Mrs. Wm. Groseclose were callers at the L. Schleifer home Sunday afternoon.

Mr. and Mrs. Julius Hoppe and Mr. and Mrs. Homer Betts of Southwick came up last Sunday to attend church in the afternoon. Also Mr. and Mrs. F. C. King and Mrs. Mitch Blackburn and Mrs. Jess Daniels of Cavendish came to hear Rev. Graybeal preach.

Rev. Bruce Groseclose gave an interesting talk Sunday evening at Young People's meeting. His subject was "The Oxford Group." He explained what the Oxford Group is and we feel that it would be well worth while if all communities would organize an Oxford Group.

Mrs. Don Miller and little daughters of Post Falls are visiting Mr. Miller's parents, Mr. and Mrs. Avery Miller.

Cecil Choate is still working with his beans. They are threshing this week.

Fred Choate and son Cecil went to Lewiston Monday to get some material for the carpenters, who are working on his new house.

200,000 Yards Of Silt Pumped

If you want to know what becomes of your farm land that is washed from the hills, just go down to the big dam of the Clearwater Timber company this side of Lewiston and watch the big pump that has already taken out more than 200,000 yards from the millpond.

The amount represents about half of what is expected to be removed. Dredging operations started about a year ago and have been maintained continuously. The undertaking is expected to continue until next summer. The pumping plant at the millpond is capable of removing 80 yards of silt per hour.

Only One Suicide Out of 380 Deaths

Among the 380 deaths that occurred in Idaho during July, there was only one suicide, the lowest number since January, 1932, Mrs. Pearl Dillingham, director of the bureau of vital statistics announced.

Births during July totaled 918, 462 of which were boys and 456 girls. There were three homicides and 47 accidental deaths. Of the latter, 12 were in automobile accidents and 14 were drownings.

Drownings in Idaho during 1935, up to August 1, totaled 36, Mrs. Dillingham's figures showed.

Be More Ducks This Year

Contrary to general predictions, American hunters will enjoy their greatest season in six years when ducks start their flight from the northland, according to a survey made of the prairie provinces of Canada by "More Game Birds In America."

The survey, conducted by air and land, showed over 40,000,000 ducks nesting in the Great lakes region and Alberta, Saskatchewan and Manitoba, with large increases over last year in Minnesota, and North and South Dakota.

Decrease In Spotted Fever Cases

A decrease in the number of spotted fever cases and also of fatalities from the disease in Idaho in 1935 was shown by records in the vital statistics department.

In 1934 there were 32 cases of the disease which resulted in 11 deaths. So far this year only 23 cases have been reported, with only seven deaths. The spread of the disease is attributed to wood tick bites, most common in the spring and summer months.

Drove Steel In Arm

Ernest Brammer had the misfortune Monday of driving a piece of steel into his right forearm. He was tightening the bearings on a combine motor when the wrench slipped.

GRAIN MARKETS FIRMER—MUCH LOW QUALITY GRAIN

prices of No. 2 soft white to 72c, No. 2 hard white at 84c and No. 2 northern spring at 85c per bushel FOB Utah-Idaho common points.

Prices of high protein white wheat at Portland advanced 11c per bushel with 13 per cent protein No. 1 hard white quoted at $1.05 and ordinary white protein at $1.00 per bushel. 12 per cent protein dark hard winter was quoted at $1.01, soft white and northern spring at 75c, hard winter at 77 1/2c, western white at 74 1/2c and western red at 74c per bushel, sacked.

At Seattle, western white was quoted at 78c, western red at 77c, ordinary hard winter 81c and hard white (baart) at $1.07, sacked. Marketings were larger with receipts at Puget Sound and Columbia river terminals totaling 1,154 cars. A steady inquiry prevailed from middlewestern markets for hard winter, soft white and western red for rail shipments direct from country points.

California markets followed the advance in northern and eastern markets with prices of most grades up 2 1/2c to 5c per 100.

U. S. Inquiry for Canadian wheat remained steady and 186,000 bushels of milling wheat and 120,000 bushels of feed wheat arrived at Buffalo during the week.

Oats fluctuated with other grains and the continued liberal movement of new crop offerings. Pacific northwestern markets were dull, reflecting a light inquiry from both local and outside interests. The firmer tone in the wheat market and the holding tendency of growers was a strengthening influence and prices at Portland advanced around 2 1/2c per 100, with No. 2 white oats quoted at 95c per 100 and No. 2 gray oats at $1.00 per 100, sacked basis.

Pacific Northwest barley markets continued quiet with only a moderate demand for feeding types and little interest in malting grades. Mixed feed manufacturers provided the principal outlet for current offerings. At Portland No. 2 bright western barley was quoted Sept. 5 at $1.05 per 100, sacked basis. At Seattle, No. 2 bright western barley from eastern Washington and California feeding types of barley were quoted Sept. 5 at $1.00 per 100, sacked basis.

Six All-Year CCC Units

Orders for preliminary work on the construction of six winter CCC camps in the Lewiston area were issued on Thursday by Maj. H. F. Rathjen, district commander, with officers in charge of operations ordered to report to the district quartermaster for detailed instruction.

Two camps will be constructed on the Northfork east of Ahsahka, two on the Middlefork east of Kooskia, one near Kamiah and one near Weippe.

With approximately $17,000 estimated as the per camp cost, the combined camps will aggregate an expenditure of approximately $100,000. The 207-men units maintained at camps will total 1,242 enrollees for these winter encampments.

Marines Wanted

Recruiting for the U. S. marine corps will continue during the months of September and October, according to information received by postmaster C. H. Daugherty.

A limited number of desirable applications will be accepted to fill the vacancies caused by discharges and retirements from the corps.

Applicants must be at least 18 years of age and not over 25, at least 66 inches tall and of good habits and character and able to furnish satisfactory letters of reference.

Information may be obtained from postmaster Daugherty or by writing to the U. S. Marine Corps recruiting station, 208 U. S. Court House, Portland, Oregon.

EDITORIAL

Howdy, Folks—Did you ever see such a hot, dry August and so far into September. Corker, isn't it? But there's one consolation — with good care old bossy will keep right on producing her share of the family income. Just bring the cream to us—take the dough away. No waiting, no fuss, no bother. A steam-sterilized can returned to you, ready to use. We never eat you can away with caustics or chemicals.

Ice cream tastes good these hot days. Come in and have a malt, a milkshake, a dish, a cone, or better still—take home a quart.

He: "They tell me the Colonel is a sexagenarian."
She: "The old fool! And at his age, too!"

She: "Are you cool in time of danger?"
He: "Yes—but at the wrong end."

One day a young lady with a poodle dog on her lap was riding in a street car. A prim woman sitting next to her sniffed. "What a fuss you make over that dog. Don't you think it would be nicer if you had a little baby in your lap?"

"No," the pretty one replied. "You see, I'm not married."

Tomato Is A Fruit

The Virginia supreme court of appeals, weighing the evidence in the case of a man convicted of murder, has ruled that the tomato is a fruit.

The ruling as to whether the "love apple" is a fruit or a vegetable was given in reversing and remanding for a new trial the case of Paul Wessels, convicted of fatally wounding Dewey Coard at Greenbush, Va.

Wessels' attorneys based their first point on the fact that one Otho T. Kelley was excused from jury service by the court because he was "busy picking tomatoes." The Virginia statutes exempt from jury duty "any fruit grower while actively engaged in harvesting his crops."

The Virginia supreme court held the lower court was correct on this point, citing a dictionary that defines a tomato as a "South American herb widely cultivated for its fruit."

Change Of Subject

A preacher, at the close of one of his sermons, said: "Let all who are paying their debts stand up." Instantly every man, woman and child, with one exception, rose. The preacher seated them, and said: "Now, every man not paying his debts, stand up." The exception noted, a careworn, hungry looking individual, clothed in last summer's suit, slowly assumed a perpendicular position.

"How is it my friend," asked the minister, "that you are the only man not to meet his obligations?"

"I run a weekly newspaper," he meekly answered, "and the brethren who stood up are my subscribers, and

"Let us pray," exclaimed the minister.

Lucky

A young man walked breezily into the doctor's surgery.

"Ah, good morning, sir!" he said. "I've just dropped in to tell you how greatly I benefited from your treatment."

The doctor eyed him up and down. "But I don't remember you," he said. "You're not one of my patients."
"I know," replied the other, "but my uncle was and I'm his heir."

Spend your dollars at home. They will then return to you.

THIS YEAR — AS LAST — WE ARE HANDLING THE BOOKS NEEDED IN THE KENDRICK SCHOOLS

See Us for Budget Savers --

On our shelves will be found the standard brands of canned goods—Not "Just As Goods for Less" but Standard Brands "for Less!" You can appreciate the difference!

Then there's breakfast foods, tidbits, cheese, crackers, pickles, and the hosts of other items always found in a grocery store—and you will like their quality—and their price—for they, too, are of standard brands and sold at money saving prices. Quality always talks—and you'll like these quality items—at a fair price.

AND MEATS—?

MY, OH MY! Have you tried one of our tender, juicy steaks—the kind that just melts in your mouth — the kind you don't need a pair of scissors to cut?

If you haven't, just you try one!

AND ROASTS?

Tender, juicy fellows you can be proud to put on your table.

CURED AND COLD MEATS?

A complete selection. And where can you find a more delectable breakfast item than a platter of bacon and eggs—or ham and eggs? We have all the necessities. And you'll like our luncheon meats, too.
