NO. 40

HIGHLIGHTS OF THE WEEK'S NEWS DISPATCHES

Mrs. Anna Sage—the storied “woman in red”—claimed the sole credit for putting John Dillinger on the “spot.” Her attorneys stated in federal court that she alone had furnished the “G” men with information that enabled them to set a trap for the desperado. They made the first authoritative disclosure of the role played by Mrs. Sage in the ace outlaw's death in procuring a writ of habeas corpus which thwarted the government's plans to deport her. “She was solely responsible for the information leading to the killing of Dillinger,” said Attorney Thomas, J. Johnson. Melvin A. Purvias, “G” man, has interceded also, for Mrs. Sage for the staying of the order to send her back to her native Rumania.

The Suez Canal company has indicated its intention of keeping the canal open regardless of what sanctions might be taken in the event of an Italo-Ethiopian conflict. Under the provisions of the Suez canal treaty of 1888, signed by Great Britain, Germany, Austria, Spain, France, Italy, The Netherlands, Russia and Turkey, the canal must “always be free and open, in time of war as in time of peace, to every vessel of commerce or of war, without distinction of flag.”

There is plenty of “meat” left on the NRA skeleton; plenty of “fat picking,” as the saying goes, notwithstanding the supreme court abolished the code system and undermined the whole NRA set-up. Senator King of Utah has just brought to light a disclosure of how plentiful are the “fat” jobs in NRA, even though that organization was theoretically put out of business by the supreme court more than three months ago. And strangely, those drawing the best salaries are not employed as economists, as historians, as experts on compiling history, but retain their old titles as administrators, deputy administrators, counsel, etc. Not the least interesting of the facts uncovered by Senator King is that NRA is paying the salaries of a large part of the staff of the federal trade commission by “loaning” its officials to the latter organization, and more surprising still, there have been transferred to the White House and to the departments of labor and commerce substantial units of the NRA staff, detailed to this new work, but paid by NRA, which in turn lives on funds allocated to it by PWA Administrator Ickes.

President Roosevelt's request that the clergy voice its views on national problems brought from the nation's pulpits a scattered public response mingled with some reference to the president's part in the return of legal liquor. (Many of the pastors indicated they planned further consideration of their replies or that they would be made privately. One liquor reference came from a Washington, D. C. pastor, the Rev. Frederick Brown Harris of the Foundry Methodist Episcopal church. He asserted that Mr. Roosevelt's “moral leadership has been greatly discounted and handicapped” by his stand on the liquor question. Others suggested that it would be a good idea if he refrained from spending his Sundays fishing.

Great Britain has sternly announced to the world, by an official note to France, that her attitude toward the league of nations means she intends to prevent “unprovoked aggression” in East Africa or anywhere else. But in the same diplomatic communication she clearly stated she will not ally herself with France for similar action in the further violation of European treaties by Germany or any other country. The note was published while league officials at Geneva were moving soberly in the depths of pessimism over any possibility of averting the threatened Italo-Ethiopian war.

Taking On “City Airs”

Lewiston is fast taking on “city airs.” Aside from having a big time at the rodeo, A. B. Coleman, a disabled war veteran, was badly stabbed with a butcher-knife in the hands of his wife, and was taken to a hospital, where surgeons dressed three knife wounds, one said to be about eight inches in length. Mrs. Coleman said her husband demanded money and when she refused to give it to him, he came at her with a butcher-knife. She said she knocked him down with a chair, took the knife away from him and stabbed him three times while he lay on the floor.

Records at Walla Walla show she once served two years for causing the death of a man by shooting.

Paul Dammarell accompanied them home for a short visit with boy friends.

Big Shovel Taken Away

The big shovel that has been in use on the Bear Ridge road for about three weeks, was taken away by the state highway department on Thursday of last week. It will be used to clear away some slides on the Lewiston grade and will then be brought back to finish the work of reshouldering and renewing places in the grade.

NEW WHEAT CONTRACTS BE READY TO SIGN IN OCTOBER

The following communication has been sent out to all wheat farmers in Latah county by L. V. Benjamin, county agent:

“Several farmers have asked about the new wheat contracts. These contracts will be ready sometime in October, and previous to that time we will hold an educational meeting in your community.

“Briefly, however, the new contracts will vary very little from the old one. In general it covers the following points:

1. Runs for 1936, 1937, 1938, 1939, but you may quit at the end of two years if you wish.
 2. Same base as present contract (with provision for adjustment where necessary. If you want to change your base, please call at the office about it).
 3. Reduction not to exceed 25%.
 4. Payments based on parity prices, as before.
 5. Hill-top land may be used for contracted acreage by leaving out more land, that is 1 1/2 acres for one acre, and provided the land is seeded down to prevent erosion, to grass or alfalfa.
 6. No wheat or other grain crop on contracted acreage.
- “Reduction for 1936 is 5% of the base for that year.
- In order that you may go ahead with your planning and know how much wheat you may sow and how much contracted acreage to leave, we are inclosing a slip covering your farm showing base, maximum, minimum and contracted acreage.
- “Every farmer in the county should take advantage of the provision to use hilltops as contracted acreage. Let's get them seeded down. It is very probable that the same ground can be used for contracted acreage in both 1936 and 1938.”

Robert Davis-Eula Dygert Nuptials

Robert Henry Davis, son of Mr. and Mrs. Ben Davis, Kendrick, and Miss Eula Dygert, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Will Dygert, Lenore, were united in marriage Sunday afternoon at the Cream ridge home of the bride's parents.

The ceremony was performed by the Rev. Calvin E. Lichty, Twin Falls, presiding elder of the Idaho conference of United Brethren in Christ church. The ring ceremony was used. The attendants were the bride's sister, Miss Lois Dygert, and the bride's brother, Virgil Dygert. Only immediate friends and relatives were present.

Mr. and Mrs. Davis will visit for a short time with the bride's parents and later will be at home at the groom's farm near Kendrick.

Mrs. Plummer Surprised

Last Thursday afternoon the Thimble club met at the home of Mrs. Jennie Plummer, when they surprised her in honor of her 79th birthday anniversary. After the regular meeting Mrs. Plummer was presented a beautiful Colonial Lady quilt top and pillow to match, in lavender and white. Cake, ice cream and coffee were served. Mrs. Lura Woods of Oakland, Calif., who was en route from Lewiston to Moscow was a guest of the club.

INTERESTING NEWS NOTES FROM OUR PUBLIC SCHOOL

Beginning on October 7 the drive for the sale of season tickets will begin. Everyone should give the school the backing it needs by buying one of these tickets and attending the basketball games of the coming season. During the past few years the public has cooperated very well with the school in this respect. It is to be hoped that they will do so again this year. However, no matter what your stand has been in the past, you are asked to do your part by buying a ticket and attending the forthcoming games. The fans will be able to see at least 10 games, with five and possibly six of these being conference games.

It is the general belief that the Kendrick Tigers will not be as strong contenders for the cup this year as they were last. This is entirely wrong. While it is true that they will keenly feel the loss of three first string players, it must be remembered that all other schools in the conference lost players and in many cases they are even worse off than they were last year. It is this, together with Coach Dawald's ability to deliver a winning team to the fans that places Kendrick's chances at the top of the list of those eligible to take the conference. This is merely another reason for buying a ticket and attending the games.

Prices will be cheaper this year than ever before. Children's tickets will be priced at $1.00. Adult tickets will be $2.50 and two members of the same family may buy two tickets for $4.00. This brings the prices within the reach of everyone. Buy a ticket and you will be more than repaid by the enjoyment you will receive when watching the forthcoming games.

Practice has begun on the Junior play. The cast will be published at a later date.

Student body president Roy Ramey called an assembly Tuesday to transfer business concerning a school carnival. A discussion was held on the various plans, and it was finally decided by popular vote to have a carnival followed by a dance. The carnival, under the direction of the student body officers, will be given on October 18. The proceeds are for student body activities.

A second motion passed was that concerning student body dues. In the past it has been customary to have a student assessment, but so far this year none has been passed. The students voted a reduced fee of $1.00 per student for the student body tickets. The possessor gains admittance to all athletic contests.

The enrollment for the grades and high school for the first semester is as follows: First grade, 6; second, 13; third, 7; fourth, 12; fifth, 12; sixth, 11; seventh, 8; eighth, 12. The Freshman class has 24; Sophomores, 22; Juniors 16; and Seniors 18. This makes a total of 161.

Ode To The Teachers

Our Kendrick school teachers all deserve praise. I'll tell you a story, about some of their ways.

The first on the list is Miss Hockaday. The primary room, and art top, they say.

Next comes the third and fourth teacher, Mrs. Cook. She teaches penmanship straight from the book.

Then of Miss Roos, I think I'll tell, Fifth, sixth grades and music, she teaches well.

In the seventh and eighth grades, is the Master brave, He paddles the kids who don't behave. The Freshmen of Mr. Grover brag, He teaches geometry, science and ag. Sophomores listen to Miss Lennox's advice, She teaches commercial, and does it real nice.

The Junior advisor is Mr. King, He teaches Econ., English, and how to sing.

And last (but not least) is Mr. Lyle, He'll tell you a story, you can't help but smile.

So study your subjects, I think that is best, If you don't you'll be flunked when you get that test.

—Arlene Deobald.

Kendrick To Have Sales Day

In accordance with action taken by the Kendrick Commercial club at its September meeting, the committees having the matter in charge have decided on Saturday, October 19, for the event.

It is understood that all the features of former sales days will be carried out. Full particulars will be given in next week's Gazette.

Don't miss it! There will be something good for you in the form of bargains.

15 UNITED STATES CONGRESSMEN NOT NATIVES

Fifteen of the men now serving in that distinctly American institution—congress, were shown by a survey to have been born in foreign countries.

Four are senators, and the group includes the richest man in the senate and one of the richest in the country, Sen. James Couzens (R., Mich.), who was born in Chatham, Ont., in 1872.

Among the 11 house members born abroad is the dean of that deliberative body, Sabath (D., Ill.), a native of Czechoslovakia.

Ten of the 15 are democrats; five are Republicans.

The British Empire leads with six native sons. Three were born in Germany, two in Austria, two in Italy, and one each in Czechoslovakia and Denmark.

Representatives must have been citizens of the United States for seven years prior to their election, senators state legislators of that state have cut the salaries of future legislators from $5 to $1 per day. Now wouldn't that make you sick? Missouri, you know, is known as the “womit” state.

And another thing—we'll bet that if the “solons” of Idaho received only $1 per day, they would have been home long ago instead of staying for an “extraordinary” session.

More Public Sales Be Held

L. J. Southwick has announced that he will hold a public sale at his place near Southwick on Wednesday, October 9, when he will offer for sale several head of horses, some cattle, farm machinery and miscellaneous articles.

Herbert Wolff will hold a public sale of livestock, farm implements, and miscellaneous articles at his place near Leland, on Monday, October 14.

A. H. Blum will hold a public sale of horses, cattle, machinery, household goods and other items at his place in Cameron, on Tuesday, Oct. 15.

The usual terms of sale apply to all of the above.

O. E. S. Meeting

Mrs. Lucia Z. Hoebel, Worthy Grand Matron, O. E. S., made her official visit to Canyon Chapter Friday, September 27. A school of instruction was conducted at 3 p. m. by Mrs. Hoebel, which proved to be very interesting and helpful. In the evening the regular meeting took place and at this time the officers of the order exemplified the work. Both meetings were well attended. Out of town guests were Mrs. Susan Needham, Mrs. Mary Gilmore, Mrs. Helen House and Miss Elve Solberg, all of Lewiston, and Mrs. Anna Hunter, Mrs. Florence Melgard and Mr. L. R. Scott of Moscow. Refreshments were served after chapter.

Go Over Lolo Trail

Mr. and Mrs. Wm. Watts, Mr. and Mrs. E. A. Deobald, Mr. and Mrs. C. W. Jessup and Mr. and Mrs. Byrad Davidson of Pullman, drove over the Lolo trail into Montana last Saturday. They were met in Montana by Mr. and Mrs. Ralph Knepper and Mr. and Mrs. Kester Sole of Salmon, Idaho. They all then recrossed the Idaho-Montana line and camped at the Powell ranger station, 14 miles this side of the line, returning home Sunday evening.

They report a wonderful time, and the scenery the grandest ever. They also say that the roads back there are far better than our local road from Kendrick to Arrow.

Rebekahs Entertain

The Rebekahs entertained the Moscow and Juliaetta lodges Tuesday night when about 50 members gathered for the occasion. Among those from Moscow were the following former Kendrick residents: Mr. and Mrs. William Rodgers, Mrs. Ray Snyder, Mrs. John Kite and Annabelle Davis, Mrs. McCready of Asotin was also a visitor.

MARKET HAS EASIER TONE WITH LESS URGENT DEMAND

Grain markets lost some of their recent strength during the week ending September 27, according to the Weekly Grain Market Review of the U. S. Bureau of Agricultural Economics. Wheat turned weaker, influenced by more favorable conditions for seeding the winter crop and some slackening in European demand as a result of the less critical political situation. Oats and barley were about steady with current offerings generally adequate for trade needs.

Moderate to heavy rains throughout most of the winter wheat belt put the soil in better condition for seeding and was a weakening influence in the domestic situation. Less urgent inquiry from European buyers, reflecting a somewhat less critical political situation was a weakening influence in world wheat markets despite continued unfavorable prospects in the southern hemisphere. Prices at Liverpool declined 5c to 6c per bushel with Argentine barusso for Sept. shipment quoted at 88 1/4c, Australian wheat at 90c, Indian wheat afloat at 95 1/4c, Russian wheat at 95 1/4c, and No. 2 Manitoba from Atlantic ports at $1.01 per bushel. The decline in Liverpool was reflected in a drop of 5 1/2c at Winnipeg where No. 1 Manitoba northern was quoted at 90c, equivalent in United States money to 88 1/2c per bushel. Canadian country marketings remained heavy and receipts at Winnipeg totaled approximately 8,500.

The uncertain political situation in Europe has been a factor in maintaining and tightening governmental control over the grain trade there. Bread grain production in the normally deficit European countries, notably in Italy, France and Germany has been increased nearly to domestic requirements during the past few years.

In Germany and Italy the grain trade is under complete governmental control. France maintains a security stock of 22,000,000 bushels of government owned wheat in addition to the usual commercial supplies. Australia requires import permits and controls imports through reciprocal trade agreements. Belgium has established port license tax on wheat to be fixed monthly but not to exceed 9 1/2c per bushel.

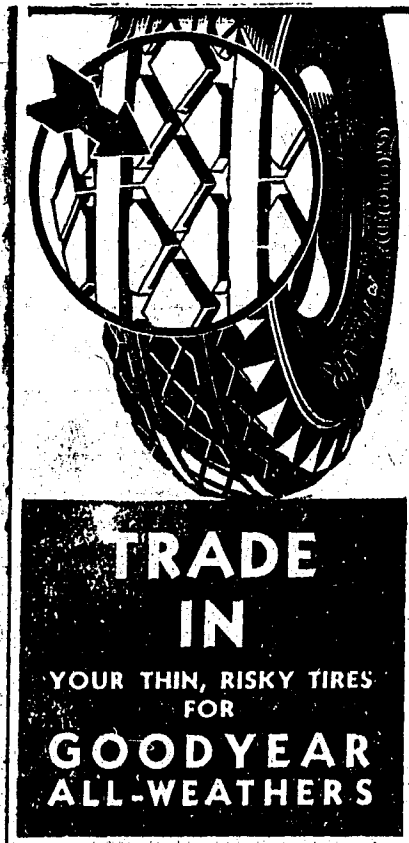

Domestic cash wheat markets were weaker with futures, but demand continued active and current offerings of practically all classes of wheat were readily taken. Following the advance of 40c per bushel since the beginning of the season spring wheat markets turned slightly easier with moderately larger receipts and some slackening in flour demand. Arrivals totaled 3,030 cars at Minneapolis and 717 cars at Duluth. At Minneapolis 246 cars were winter wheat and 447 cars durum.

Winter wheat markets turned easier despite smaller marketings. Receipts at the principal markets totaled 2,887 cars, or nearly a thousand cars less than for the previous week. Hard winter wheat prices declined 2c to 2 1/2c per bushel. Milling inquiry became more active as prices declined and premiums for heavy weight wheat remained firm. Most of the heavy weight wheat was being obtained from the Pacific Northwest. At the close of the week No. 2 hard winter ordinary protein was quoted at Kansas City at $1.07 to $1.12. At Chicago premiums were advanced 1c to 2 1/2c with No. 2 hard winter quoted at $1.22 per bushel. The same grade was quoted at St. Louis at $1.17 1/2. No. 2 hard red winter was quoted at Fort Worth at $1.23 per bushel with demand fairly active and some purchases of this wheat being made at Chicago.

Intermountain and Pacific Coast markets were mostly lower although prices at San Francisco were independently firmer, reflecting the light local situation. At the close of the week Denver mills were bidding $1.02 for No. 2 hard winter and $1.13 for No. 2 northern spring FOB northern Colorado shipping points. Mills at Ogden lowered bids about 2c per bushel and were offering 76c for No. 2 soft white, 90c for No. 2 hard white and 91c for No. 2 northern spring and 84c for No. 2 hard winter FOB Utah-Idaho common points.

Prices of cash grain at Portland declined 1/2c to 1c per bushel despite an active inquiry from local mills for high protein wheat and a continued good demand from central western and Atlantic and Gulf points. Marketings were relatively heavy with trade reports indicating that 50 per cent or more of the Northwestern crop has left growers hands. Receipts at Puget Sound and Columbia

F. F. A. To Pullman
Saturday, September 28, seven boys went to Pullman to compete in the livestock judging contest in preparation for the Portland show. They made a good showing. Taking the three highest to make the team, they ranked sixth. Sixteen teams were present. Willard Schoeffler was tenth highest of the contest. He ranked first in sheep judging. Phillips. Mr. Smith is employed at Taber's mill, Southwick, while Mrs. Smith is assisting in the dining room at the Raby Hotel. An impromptu charivari was given the newly-weds at the hotel last Sunday night, when treats were in order, of course.

Lola Fry Injured
Lola Fry, living in the east part of town, is suffering with paralysis of the lower limbs, due to pressure on the spinal cord. She was expected to undergo an operation on Thursday.

Lewiston Man Killed By Auto
William Thornton, 56, an implement salesman for the Lewiston-Clarkston Lumber Co., was struck by an automobile last Friday afternoon driven by D. B. Underhill, Boise, from which injuries he died in St. Joseph's hospital that same afternoon at 2 o'clock.

Claim 20,000 Visited Round-Up
According to reports, more than 20,000 people took in the Lewiston Round-Up and all seemed well pleased with what they saw—and some of them with what they had to drink. It was said that one needed hip-boots to keep from getting "all wet" at some of the places—and it hasn't rained for quite a spell.

Stork Shower
A stork shower was given in honor of Mrs. Fred Belveal Wednesday afternoon, Sept. 25, at the home of Mrs. Ben Cummings. Hostesses were Mrs. E. T. Long, Mrs. E. A. Deobald and Mrs. Ben Cummings. Mrs. Belveal received many beautiful gifts.

Dave Gentry shipped another carload of fat cattle to the Spokane market Saturday night. He made the trip to Spokane, returning home Monday night.

Ship Beans

Red Cross Roll Call
The Idaho Red Cross roll call will be held in November and all who are interested in Red Cross work are asked to please bear this in mind.

Look After Car Doors
There have recently been reported several cases of where people—old and young—have been severely injured by falling out of the rear door of sedans when the doors flew open and they fell to the ground. It is a good idea to see that the rear doors, especially, of cars are fully latched. It might save serious injury, or even death.

Kendrick is a good town. Look us over.

"Rocky Mountain Mystery"

Once again all who like real Westerners will have an opportunity to see one—Zane Grey's "Rocky Mountain Mystery." While there are many hair-raising scenes in this picture, there is a vein of comedy, carried by that "specialist," Chic Sales, who plays the role of a comedy deputy sheriff, who literally stumbles onto many important facts and the solution of the radium mine murders—the Black Rider strikes in the night! Cloaked in darkness this unseen terror strikes at a family and its lone protector huddled on the brink of despair. . . . willing to shoot it out, but uncertain where to aim. . . . to end the peril that has marked them all for death! Also installment 4 of "The Call of the Savage"—"Terrors of the Jungle," and other entertaining features, as usual.

120 Mile Winds Blow On High
When stratosphere fliers ascend to 50 miles they will encounter hurricane winds exceeding in speed anything common on the earth's surface. Just the average velocity of these stratosphere winds is "well over 120 miles an hour," as shown by a report to the American Astronomical society by Dr. P. H. Millman and J. A. Robins of Harvard observatory. These winds blow with both east-west and north-south motions, the report said. The east-west winds are slightly more numerous. They were observed while watching the drift of the trains of 26 meteors, at heights ranging from 80 miles to six above sea level. The average height was 50 miles.

CRESCENT CLIPPINGS

(Delayed)

Since last the Clippings were sent in several items of interest have taken place and although not all new news, may be of interest to our old neighbors, at least.

J. H. Buckallew of Juliaetta spent several days putting "built-ins" in Claud Craig's new kitchen. The Craig family have moved into their new home some time since.

Some time ago Mr. and Mrs. Bert Kloster and daughters and Arne Kloster spent the week-end with the Kloster boys' uncle and family at St. Maries. Another Sunday Bert Kloster visited friends in Lewiston.

Before school started, sometime in August, Alfred Swanson painted the interior of the school house and varnished the seats. A marked improvement can be seen. Some new cupboards were made too, and other repair work done. Axel Swanson did most of that work.

Mr. and Mrs. Alfred Swanson, Axel Swanson, Jr., Miss Esther Swanson and Gloria Swanson made a trip to Kellogg and spent several days visiting with old friends and relatives there.

The Chas. Greenwood family moved back to their home in the Lepo canyon road after Charley finished his job with Mr. Tabor.

Frank Helm has purchased a team of mules.

Charlie Trail has at last had the cast taken from his broken leg, but still isn't quite up to dancing the horn-pipe with the broken member. Cecil Trail, who spent the summer with his grandmother, Mrs. C. L. Trail, returned to school in Lewiston, but his brother Roy, who was also here this summer, will stay here and go to school.

Miss Irene Darby of Moscow visited a few days with her grandmother, Mrs. C. L. Trail and family and also with her uncle, John Darby and family.

The A. W. Spray well drillers of Moscow drilled a well for the school house. They had to go 190 feet before they got plenty of water, but now there's an abundance. While here they drilled deeper in John Darby's well and re-cased it. Now, they too, have all the water needed.

The France-Farrington threshing machine did the threshing in this neighborhood, all the grain yielding well.

The Misses Helen and Evelyn Farrington of Kendrick visited in the neighborhood for a week or so, making the Anna Kimbley home their headquarters and short visits at other homes.

The Townsend meeting at the school house Sept. 9, was well attended and an interesting talk given.

School started in the Crescent school Sept. 9, with Miss Frances Farrish of Asotin in charge. Thirteen enrolled that day but since Roy Trail started we have 14 pupils. Miss Farrish is staying at the Bert Kloster home.

The Cedar Ridge school started Sept. 3, with Miss Alberta Matthews teaching. The enrollment was nine. Miss Matthews stays at the R. C. Winegardner home.

Miss Helen Winegardner left some time ago for Genesee, as her school (near that place) started Sept. 3. Miss Jean Winegardner is going to high school in Palouse this year.

Mr. and Mrs. Frank Souders, Jr., and son and Mrs. George Souders and son of Kellogg visited at the Frank Souders home a few days the latter part of August and early part of September. Mr. and Mrs. F. Souders, Jr., and son spent part of the time in Winchester visiting her folks.

THE FORUM

Bear Ridge Benchers Protest

The following communication has been received by the Gazette from a resident of Big Bear Ridge bench, and while we are not using the name, we have it on file in the office for our own protection. All published articles, while welcomed, must bear the name of the sponsor of such article:

"We that live on the bench of Big Bear ridge have been without a bridge over Riggle's gulch for the past five years! We have been promised a bridge, and also a better road, oh, many times! But do we get it? No! We've crossed the torrent that comes roaring down the gulch the best way we could, or stayed at home and waited for the water to go down, so we could take our cream and eggs to town."

"The gulch is dangerous, whenever the water is up (which is at least three months of the year) huge boulders roll down it, which could easily crush a wagon wheel or cripple a horse!"

"This year there are four young children going to school, who will have to cross it twice every day. But perhaps one of the commissioners will be there to help them safely across—or will they have to stay out of school for at least three months? We won't endanger our children's lives by forcing them to cross it!"

"We are tired of promises that never materialize, and would like to see a little action instead. A Taxpayer."

How Quick Can You Stop

Some time ago a questionnaire was submitted to motorists by the city of Memphis concerning the distance necessary for stopping cars going at given speeds. The survey demonstrated that the average driver has an exceedingly poor conception of the stopping distances and that he believes he can bring his car to a halt in a much shorter space than is actually required.

For example, drivers were asked how many feet would be needed to stop a car with four-wheel brakes moving at a speed of 40 miles per hour on an ordinary highway. Two per cent of the drivers answered ten feet or less; 16 per cent answered 11 to 20 feet; the heaviest majority, 23 per cent, answered 21 to 30 feet, and 14 per cent answered 51 to 60 feet.

The true answer is 80 feet—and it was given by less than 6 per cent of the drivers. Only a minority of motorists realize that, no matter how good a car's brakes, it is impossible to stop within 50 feet—that a car going 40 miles an hour will skid farther than that with locked wheels.

Memphis has provided a good example showing that we vitally need "schooling" for drivers—and that the driver who has operated a car for twenty years should be given attention, as well as the beginner.

Adequate knowledge of the limitations and capabilities of the motor car is a fundamental of accident prevention.

Idaho's Income Tax $602,948

Of the $181,000 due Sept. 16 in taxes on 1934 incomes, $159,560 was paid last Thursday, bringing total collections of this year up to $602,948, Ben Diefendorf, state commissioner of finance, announced.

The total delinquencies are approximately $22,000 and bear interest at 1 per cent monthly under provisions of the law.

COUNTY WEED SPRAYER IS NOW AT WORK

The county weed sprayer is now in operation and will continue as long as there is a demand for its services. The sprayer is in charge of C. T. Cooksey, who handled it last year.

The charges this year are $1.25 per hour for the time put in on a farm. Except in exceptional cases, there will be no charge for mileage. The $1.25 per hour pays for the operator, and truck, the farmer being expected to furnish the spray material. There are two nozzles on the sprayer, so a farmer can reduce his cost by helping in the spraying operation.

Farmers who wish their noxious weeds sprayed should contact either one of the county commissioners or the county agent's office at once in order that a schedule may be arranged.

In buying spraying material, from three to four pounds of chlorate should be bought for each square rod of weed area. This should include a ring of eight to ten feet outside the last plants.

Chlorates are cheaper this year than they have ever been. They are being handled by the following dealers, at a uniform price: John Waide, Deary; Vollmer-Clearwater Co., Kendrick; E. M. Green Warehouse, Troy.

To All 4-H Club Members

We will hold a County 4-H Club Achievement Day in the Moscow Grange hall on Saturday, October 12, says L. V. Benjamin, county agricultural agent. At that time you should all have your year's work completed and each club in the county should have an exhibit there.

We are planning this achievement day in connection with the Achievement Day of the woman's Home Demonstration clubs. For this reason I am especially anxious to have you club members show the ladies what you can do.

The morning will be given over to putting up exhibits and judging them. In the afternoon we have a fine program planned. Each group will plan a picnic lunch for its own members. There are lots of tables.

Let's start planning now on having our work all completed with our reports and stories finished by October 12.

Keep in touch with your local leader for further information. All together, now! I'm depending on you to make this Achievement Day something to talk about.

Gov. Ross In Training

Sunday's Spokesman-Review carried a large picture of Gov. C. Ben Ross of Idaho astride a high-headed charger, presumably training for the race with Bill Borah, Idaho's senior senator, who is also somewhat of a horse-rider. "Cowboy Ben" has an confident look as he sits his mount in perfect style.

We believe, however, that he would need larger spurs than the now worn were he to attempt to sit the seat of a car over the road from Arrow Junction to Southwick. We'd like to see him make the trip, anyway.

Many Elk Killed

According to newspaper reports, many bull elk were brought out of the Selway national forest during the $3.00 special permit system season. The special permit makes it nice for those who have the money and opportunity to go hunting early in the season, but how about the poor guy who has a hard job scraping enough money together to buy a regular hunting license and can only get away (if at all) from his farm or other work, later in the season? Is it fair?

More Weeping In Sight

Production of 832,000 100-pound sacks of onions by Idaho farmers in 1935, as compared with 811,000 in 1934, was indicated today in a report of onion yields released by E. C. Ross, federal agricultural statistician for the state.

Thrip damage has been threatening the crop in some sections of the state, Ross said, but it has not yet been determined whether it will be seriously affect production.

TWO CORPORATIONS ADD TO IDAHO NATIONAL FORESTS

"Spurred by advantages to be gained through Forest Service administration of timberlands, two corporations recently donated to the United States 42,358 acres of land located in Benewah, Clearwater, Latah and Shoshone counties, in Idaho, it is announced by Major Evan W. Kelley, Regional Forester at Missoula. The area thus donated becomes part of the Clearwater and St. Joe National forests and brings the total transfers of northern Idaho land from private holders in Region I of the National Forests to 165,000 acres.

"The counties in which the land is located," Major Kelley said, "already have profited by the donation to the extent of payment of any delinquent taxes which may have accrued, for the land to be acceptable as donations must be free from any encumbrances. And the counties are far better off than if the land were allowed to revert for delinquent taxes to be carried by the counties and protected and developed till again producing returns.

"In the future, the counties will gain from two sources. First: County treasuries will receive for roads and schools 25 per cent of all gross receipts ever to be received from timber sales and rentals of the land within their boundaries, the same as from other National Forests lands. Such revenues are certain to grow as the newly acquired land is brought to the full production of which it is capable. This assured annual revenue comes without cost to the counties of assessment or collection, no mean items in themselves.

"Secondly, money will be expended locally for administration and protection of the lands thus added to the National Forests, adding to local employment opportunities. The land in time will furnish its quota of forest products, from the harvesting and manufacture of which the local people will profit. Stimulation of the lumbering industry will be reflected in other lines of business.

The donors of the land just accepted for addition to the National Forests are: Milwaukee Land Company of Seattle, which gave 25,290 acres, and the Forest Development Company, affiliate of Potlatch Forests, Inc., of Lewiston, Idaho, which transferred 17,069 acres.

The Clarke-McNary Act, adopted in 1924, which authorizes acceptance of lands for National Forest purposes which are chiefly valuable for production of timber crops or for the protection of watersheds, was the vehicle for the donations. Such lands need not be within the boundaries of existing National Forests, but must be so located as to be capable of economic administration by the Forestry Service.

By far the largest donor to date is the Forest Development Company, which has conveyed 130,000 acres of land to the United States. Others, besides the Milwaukee Land Company, are Winton Lumber Company, McGoldrick Lumber Company, Idaho Timber Company, Roy C. Lammers of Spokane, and Charles E. Kelso of St. Maries, Idaho.

Idaho counties are adding to the total of donated area to be added to the National Forests, having deeded 85,000 acres of land to the United States. The titles have not been accepted yet, however. These land donations will bring the same benefits to the donors, through distribution of 25 per cent of the gross receipts of the National Forests, expenditures for administration and protection and ultimate production. The donations tendered are: Clearwater County, 18,000 acres; Shoshone County, 17,000 acres; Kootenai County, 15,000 acres, and Bonner County 35,000 acres.

Auto Killings Increase

According to a report sent out from Boise, there were 26 people killed in Idaho during the month of August by automobiles, the largest number for any one month to date.

A total of 58 accidental deaths were recorded by Mrs. Dillingham for August. Of this number, seven were drownings, bring the total loss of life from that cause to 43 this year. There were 11 suicides.

Births totaled 941, 475 males and 466 females. There were 402 deaths, 251 males and 151 females.

"Mussy" In No Hurry Now

According to news dispatches in Wednesday morning's papers, "Mussy" is not in such a hurry to get Johnny Bull riled up about the war threats down in Ethiopia. That lion of Johnny's has a very tender tail, and when the Suez canal lies between it and Mussy's objective, it is a good idea to stop, look and listen.

Record Shipment Of Grain

Probably never before in the history of the Spokane grain industry has so large a volume of wheat moved so early in the season. During August federal inspectors registered 3460 cars for diversion, local milling and storage. The great bulk of the movement was east.

WILL ROGERS' HEREAFTER IDEAS TOLD BY FRIEND

Some of Will Rogers' thoughts on the hereafter were recalled from the pages of a book written by his old friend, the late Charles M. Russell, Montana cowboy artist.

Russell died several years ago as he was about to complete the book, "Trails Plowed Under," a collection of reminiscences of the old west, illustrated by his own paintings and line drawings. The book was published last year by Doubleday Doran.

Rogers wrote the introduction in the form of a letter to his old friend in the other world. It was done about nine years ago.

With characteristic modesty Rogers disclaimed the ability to write an introduction. Continuing, he said: "There ain't much news here to tell you. You know the big Boss gent sent a hand over and got you so quick Charley. But I guess He needed a good man pretty bad. I hear they been working short handed over there pretty much all the time, I guess it hard for Him to get hold of good men; they are just getting scarce everywhere * * *.

"* * * I bet you hadn't been up there three days until you had cut your old pencil and was drawing something funny about some of their old punchers. * * * I bet you Mark Twain and old Bill Nye, and Whitcomb Riley and a whole bunch of those old poshers was just a waiting for you to pop in with all the latest ones, what kind of a bird is Washington and Jefferson? I bet they are regular fellows when you meet 'em ain't they? Most big men are. I would like to see the bunch that is gathered around you the first time you tell the one about putting the limburger cheese in the old nestors whiskers. Don't tell that Charley until you get Lincoln around you, he would love that, I bet you and him kinder throw in together when you get well acquainted, darn it I get to thinking about all them top hands up there, if I could just hold a horse wrangling job with 'em, I wouldn't mind following that wagon myself. * * "

"You will run onto my old dad up there, Charley, for he was a real cowhand and I bet he is running a wagon, and you will pop into some well kept ranch house over under some cool shady trees and you will be asked to have dinner, and it will be the best one you ever had in your life, well, when you are a thanking the women folks, you just tell the sweet looking little old lady that you know her boy back on an outfit you used to rep for, and tell the daughters that you knew their brother, and if you see a cute little rascal running around there kiss him for me. Well, can't write you any more Charley dam papers all wet, it must be raining in this old bunk house.

"Course we are all just a hanging on here as long as we can. I don't know why we hate to go, we know its better there. Maby its because we haven't done anything that will live after we are gone.

"From your old friend.

"Will."

$1,674,000 Given For Grade Crossings

A. H. Stemmer, state director of highways, announced that federal public works funds totaling $1,674,000 had been allocated for elimination of 19 railway grade crossings and 20 automobile crossing signals in Idaho.

The allocation was made following a two-day conference at which six railway companies which operate major lines in Idaho were present. The grade crossing eliminations include 13 overpasses and six underpasses.

The allocations were made in accordance with mileage each company operates in Idaho.

Slow About Drivers' Licenses

We don't mean those giving the examination, but it has been reported that only about 3,500 of the drivers in Nez Perce county out of approximately 10,000, have made application for driver's licenses—and October 1 is the deadline. After that date anyone caught driving a car without the proper license will be subject to fine.

No information is available regarding the approximate number of drivers in Latah county, or how many have taken out licenses.

About Idaho Beans

The bean crop, forecast at 1,344,000 bags, is much smaller than a month ago due to more serious blight damage in the important Twin Falls section than was anticipated on August 1. The northern Idaho crop is reported in only fair condition due to drought.

Now if beans were on a rising market, as is cream and wheat—that would help more. But there's always the consolation of old bossy to help the income—and right there's where we come in. You never lack a market for that cream—we're always on the "buy." Just you bring us a can and see how quick you get your money. You'll find it a pleasure to do business with us.

She: "I have no views. I shut my eyes in the daytime and put out the lights at night."

Dum Dora thought mufflers were used to keep draft off the motor and that the clutch was a new dance.

Lady Motorist (with new car): "And what do you know about these new 'hip movement cars?'"
