HIGHLIGHTS OF THE WEEK'S NEWS DISPATCHES

Speaking in America's main defense outpost (Honolulu) while the sound of guns rolled round the globe, Secretary of War George H. Dern told guests at a community luncheon that recent events had proved treaties are worthless unless a nation has means to enforce them. "Any competent student of government and history must agree that the very backbone of any government is force," said the secretary. "Constitutions, statutes, laws and edicts are in the long run mere scraps of paper unless there is back of them means for keeping them in force by police or military power if and when necessary."

President Roosevelt's declaration that the United States will remain "at peace with all the world" was adopted by the Hitler government to express the attitude of the third Reich. The German conduct in an Italo-Ethiopian war was set forth in Diplomatiche Politische Korrespondenz designated by the foreign office to express the reich's official policy. With respect to President Roosevelt's statement at San Diego, Calif., the publication said: "The American administration has marked the United States as a factor for peace which will be well received by the American people without exception."

Pressed by farm delegations attending its potato control hearing, AAA sources indicated they would proceed with plans for the tax control potato production law. But at the same time the farm agency officials were reported to have virtually decided to seek prompt modification of the law immediately congress convenes in January. Whether any actual enforcement of the act would be necessary before that time was a disputed question. In a quiet session, quite different from the stormy meeting of Friday, potato growers continued to demand enforcement by the farm administration of the controversial tax measure which had been opposed chiefly by Secretary Wallace. There was some opposition to tax control—some to any control. That opposition, however, largely was centered in representatives from New York and New England who made their pleas in behalf of small growers.

President Roosevelt Saturday night declared an embargo on the shipment of all arms munitions and implements of war to either Italy or Ethiopia and at the same time warned Americans that if they engaged "in transactions of any character with either of the belligerents" they did so at their own risk. From the cruiser Houston in the Pacific the president flashed word to Secretary Hull to issue a proclamation declaring the existence of a "state of war" between Italy and Ethiopia and prohibit the export to those countries of all munitions actually used in warfare. Secretary Hull just before midnight notified the treasury department, which, in turn notified all collectors of customs to enforce the entire embargo provisions immediately.

Charged with fixing the blame for the roar of cannon in East Africa a league of nations council committee completed a report which, usually reliable sources said, condemns Italy implicitly—if not directly. Its diplomatic phraseology it was reported, deals with violation of the league covenant rather than "aggression," but one diplomat said "without specifically naming Italy, acts of aggression seem clearly indicated." It was understood that establishment of a violation of the covenant—presumably articles 10, 12 and 15—was based on official Italian documents, including General Emilio De Bono's order for an Italian troop advance across the Ethiopian frontier and the announcement of the aerial bombardment of Addis Ababa and Adigrat. The gravity of the situation was indicated in the extreme precautions taken to prevent leakage of the committee's conclusions. Each member of the committee of six was sworn to secrecy and each returned his copy of the report to the league secretariat in order to be absolved in advance of any accusation that he had broken his pledge by divulging the contents of the report. However it was learned the report was satisfactory to Anthony Eden of Great Britain and that was generally interpreted as meaning Italy's military drive into Ethiopia was condemned.

Nolan Weeks, Frank Arnett, Willard Schoeffler, Don Benscoter and Herman Renfrew, who competed in stock judging contests at the Portland Livestock show, returned Monday evening. They placed 39th out of 103 schools competing. They reported a very interesting trip.

Books from the State library have been received.

The school has received a new globe, which will be used in geography and science studies.

The Smith-Hughes shop is well along in the process of construction. The English classes are making book reports. The Junior class is making a study of speech along with dramatics.

Ag. classes 3 and 4 are working on rope splicing.

Joanne Grinolds, a former student, visited school Monday.

Doris Crocker has been chosen as student librarian for this term.

A Reporter's Life

The reporters find it hard labor. It seems that they can't satisfy. To get more news for the paper, they try, and they try, and they try. The Editor assigns long reports. And then sits around at his ease. While the poor reporters are searching. And in work clear up to their knees. He shouts from morn till night, news. More news, I want more news. The reporters are a frightened lot. And stand trembling in their shoes. Here is one thing that I have heard—A reporter's life is very hard. But if they all had our editor, They'd be stark crazy—under guard. —Mary Davidson.

Hawkshaw On Duty

This was one busy week for Hawkshaw. Checking the boys and girls at home, as well as the FFA's and the teachers, who were both out of town, proved to be a heck of a job, but I did it. Cast your beaming peepers on this lineup:

Hockaday securing a room just opposite a certain Texaco station. * * * King taking care of Lewiston's rosy cheeked apples. * * * Lennox spending the evenings in Moscow—because of the pure air? It would seem that that ten-gallon hat of Arnett's was the source of great difficulty. * * * The latest love affair seems to be Verne Henry and Francis Locke—it sure is swell to be that way!

Next week I may have a good report on those who flunk. Beware—I'm always on duty. —Hawkshaw!

Down "River Of No Return"

"The River Of No Return," the turbulent Salmon, is being explored by the National Geographic society and members of the United States geological survey with the idea of telling in photographs and story, the beauty and wildness of this river's canyon which is deeper than the canyon of the Colorado.

The explorers will leave Salmon, Idaho, and excepting for disaster, they will reach Lewiston one month later. They will travel in a flatbottomed double planked boat built to endure the jagged rocks hidden in the rushing Salmon.

Included in the party are J. C. Reed and P. J. Shenon of the United States Geological survey; Maynard Owen Williams of Washington, D. C. photographer, of the National Geographical society; Howard Flint of the United States Forest service; Congressman D Worth Clark; Dr. A. W. Fahrenwald; Captain Monroe Hanock and a boatman and a cook.

Famous Slogan

News head-line: "F. D. R. To Keep Nation Out Of War." Woodrow Wilson adopted that as a slogan back in 1917.

COMMERCIAL CLUB IN REGULAR MEET MONDAY

The Kendrick Commercial club met in regular session at the Raby Hotel dining room Monday evening at 6:30 with President G. P. Barnum presiding.

Following a delicious steak dinner with all the trimmings served by Mrs. Minnie McCoy (who now has charge of the dining room) and her assistants, the business of the evening was taken up. The 22 members in attendance taking a lively interest in the proceedings.

N. E. Walker of the Highway committee reported that his committee, consisting of Tom Long, M. O. Raby and himself had visited Moscow and secured the endorsement of the county commissioners and the Moscow Chamber of Commerce on the road from the county line to Kendrick and from Kendrick to the Cedar Creek bridge, and also of the Village Council of Juliaetta and of Kendrick, and had asked for the endorsement of the commissioners of Good Roads District No. 2, but had not as yet been notified of their success or failure. Mr. Walker said the committee felt that now was the time to push all road construction, as it was felt next year would mark the end of the easy money. This committee plans a trip to Boise this week. They will be accompanied by Lieut. Gov. G. P. Mix of Moscow, who will assist them in presenting their requests to Gov. C. Ben Ross and the highway department. The committee feels that the Arrow-to-County line road is assured and believe that other construction work should be concentrated on at this time. Everything possible will be done for the Southwick-Kendrick road as well, but lying as it does outside of this district, results are problematical.

M. O. Raby of the Industrial committee reported that as yet no reply had been received from Washington on the request for WPA money to install additional water pipe, add a new spring to the city system and rebuild parks and playground, but that no one else had heard from applications as yet, so hope was held for their acceptance.

Edgar Long of the Membership committee reported $102.50 had been received in memberships to date and that the drive would be completed this week, with successful results promised.

Marvin Long of the Fish and Game committee reported that 25,000 trout had been planted in the upper waters of the Potlatch and that 25,000 more had been promised. He said further that in the future no Chinese pheasants would be released just prior to the hunting season, but that plans had been worked out with the Izaak Walton League of Moscow and the county farm for the feeding and caring for of Latah County's quota until spring at which time they would be released in time to nest and multiply before the hunting season.

James M. Lyle, Jr., of the Educational Committee reported that the Kendrick school sent a stock judging team to the Portland Livestock Exposition, and of the 103 teams taking part, they placed 39th, which speaks well for this school as this course is only in its second year at this time. Mr. Lyle further stated that a number of free correspondence courses are now available from the government and anyone wishing these may make inquiry from him. He also said that many of the school students were in need of work with which to purchase athletic equipment and for extra curricular supplies. Anyone in need of such help may obtain it by inquiry at his office.

H. C. Schupfer of the Relief committee reported all at work and eating regularly.

Rev. Poindexter of the Publicity committee reported work progressing on the Sales Day program, and that a good day was looked forward to. The date is Saturday, October 19.

Rev. Poindexter spoke briefly on the Scout work, now being handled by John Lang in the absence of the regular scoutmaster, L. C. Reichman. Mr. Poindexter said that many of the boys were badly in need of work in order to obtain money for the purchase of Scout equipment to further their work. He closed with a plea that such work be given them. This help may be obtained by calling John Lang at the Thomas Creamery, who will see that a boy is promptly sent. Considerable round-table discussion was indulged in regarding roads, sales day, game conditions, and various

INLAND WATERWAYS ASKS PERMIT TO LEWISTON

Announcement that the Inland Navigation company, a subsidiary of the Inland Waterways corporation, applied to the interstate commerce commission last week for a permit to inaugurate barge service on the Columbia and Snake rivers between Portland and Lewiston, reported in an Associated Press dispatch to the Tribune, was hailed by Lewiston open-river leaders as an unexpected but heartening indication of progress in the long battle for navigation of the rivers from Lewiston to tidewater.

The Inland Waterways corporation a public operating company incorporated by special act of congress and operating barge lines in the Mississippi valley and on the Warrior river in Alabama under the indirect jurisdiction of the war department, is the largest inland waterway concern in the nation. The subsidiary company to operate on the Columbia and Snake has been incorporated with a capital stock of $95,500, the Associated Press dispatch said, the report continuing: "The company will operate on the Columbia from its confluence with the Willamette river to Wallula, Wash., and from Wallula to Pasco and Kennewick and on the Snake river from its confluence with the Columbia to Lewiston.

Operations will be conducted when water conditions permit which at present is about four months a year. When the government completes various dams on the rivers the application says it anticipated operations will continue throughout the year. Equipment for the service is now being constructed and is expected to be ready next spring.

The company plans to make the following towns and cities ports of call:

"Portland, Ore.; Vancouver, Wash.; Hood River, Ore.; Wallula, Wash.; Pasco, Wash.; Kennewick, Wash.; Riparia, Wash.; and Lewiston, Idaho.

4-H Clubs Hold Contest

Latah county was very well represented in the district 4-H club contests held in Lewiston October first and second. In the Style Revue which was open to all girls in clothing club work in five counties of north Idaho. Miss Josephine Whitesel of Troy won the district championship. This enables Miss Whitesel to compete with the other district champions of Idaho for a free trip to Chicago, sponsored by the Chicago Mail Order House. The State championship was won in 1935 by Miss Whidden Walker of Moscow.

Miss Whitesel, who has been in 4-H club work five years, has completed two years of food preparation work and three years of clothing work, under Mrs. Chaney local leader, and has acted as assistant leader to Mrs. Chaney for the last year.

In the district judging contest, Miss Evelyn Tabor of Genesee placed second in individual scoring, with only three points below the score of the winner. The Latah county judging team of three members placed third in the districts. These girls are members of a 4-H club led by Miss Esther Martinson of Genesee.

Gov. Ross Back On Job

A news dispatch from Boise says that Gov. Ross is again on the job after a few days' trip to the northern part of the state.

"We didn't discuss politics," the governor said, although it is commonly believed that Mr. Mix will be a candidate for the office of governor in 1936.

The governor said he discussed farm problems with the north Idaho grazers and "ironed out" several road problems.

While he may have "ironed out" a few road problems while in this end of the state, we didn't notice any difference in the bumps in the Kendrick-Arrow road Sunday. We would have felt a great deal more kindly toward the Governor if he had finished his job of ironing on the roughest piece of road in the entire state—the "Ross Highway", Arrow to Kendrick.

It isn't the ride one gets going around the curves that really hurts—it's the ride up-and-down that really makes the distance so great.

Double-Eight Club Meets

The Double-Eight Bridge club held its first meeting of the fall season Wednesday night at the home of Dr. and Mrs. D. A. Christensen, when a dessert-bridge was enjoyed. F. B. Higley was high for the gentlemen and Mrs. W. B. Deobald for the ladies.

Will Hold Weed Meetings

According to an announcement made today by L.V. Benjamin, Latah county extension agent, a series of meetings will be held throughout the county for the purpose of explaining and discussing methods of controlling noxious weeds. The meetings will be conducted by Mr. Benjamin and are open to the public. The schedule is as follows:

Bear Ridge, Community Hall Friday, October 18—2:30.

Texas Ridge, Buckhorn School, Friday, October 18—7:30.

Farmington, Evergreen School, Saturday, October 19—2:30.

112 CARLOTS PRODUCTS SHIPPED IN TWO MONTHS

The number of freight trains going through Kendrick daily prompted us to make search of the records of freight shipments from Kendrick (car lots) made during the months of August and September. This showed that there had been 112 car lots shipped on the railroad, divided as follows: Wheat, 84 cars; beans, 12 cars; livestock, 6 cars; oats, 5 cars; lumber, 4 cars; barley, 1 car.

Aside from these carlot shipments on the Northern Pacific, there have been many tons of beans and oats that have been shipped by truck to various points.

There have also been trucked through Kendrick several million feet of lumber, sawed at mills in the upper country.

Thus it may be seen that the Potlatch section is a portion of the country to be reckoned with, both economically and politically, if you please. And if there is one section of the country that is entitled to at least passable roads, it is the Potlatch section, and it might be well for some of "the powers that be" to sit up and take notice of this fact.

Aside from the shipments mentioned above, the two large grain warehouses and elevator are filled with wheat, and the Kendrick Bean Growers association and the Kendrick Rochdale company have many thousands of sacks of beans that are yet to be shipped.

If there is a better place in these United States, we have not heard of it thus far.

Building New Shop

A machine shop is being erected on the school grounds, across the street east from the school building; also east of the play grounds. The shop is being erected for the purpose of teaching all agricultural students, as well as members of the F. F. A., how to make ordinary repairs to farm machinery. They are allowed to bring in different pieces of farm machinery to work on, thus giving them first-hand knowledge of how it should be done.

The Seniors will also take up farm carpentry—that is, the building of all necessary smaller buildings used on the farm, such as machine sheds, garages, hog houses, chicken houses, etc.

The shop is 24x40 feet in dimensions and will be equipped with all necessary tools to give the required instructions. R. J. Kennedy is doing the carpenter work.

Have Moved To Hull Residence

The Ira Havens family have moved from the Oppenborn cottage in the west part of town to the former residence of the late Mr. and Mrs. H. P. Hull. Harold Thomas has bought the Oppenborn property and after a few minor changes and a little paint, inside and out, the Thomas family will occupy it as a home.

Afternoon Bridge Club Meets

The Afternoon Bridge club met for the first time this fall at the home of Mrs. George Leith, last Thursday afternoon. There were three tables in play, high score going to Mrs. W. L. McCreary. Delicious refreshments were served by the hostess.

The next meeting will be held at the home of Mrs. D. A. Christensen.

A Laden Branch

Mrs. Sam Bigham sent in a small branch from a wild crab apple tree that is literally "loaded" with the fruit. In the spring the tree is a mass of beautiful bloom, almost red in color—and the fruit, about the size of an English walnut, is a brilliant red when ripened.

Hunting Party Returns

A hunting party composed of Mr. and Mrs. Warney May and son and John Wilson returned Wednesday morning from the Lolo Pass country with two elk and one deer.

MARKET SHARPLY HIGHER DUE EUROPEAN DEMAND

Domestic grain markets strengthened materially during the week that ended October 4, influenced principally by the increased European inquiry for wheat, according to the Weekly Grain Market Review of the U. S. Bureau of Agricultural Economics. The outbreak of hostilities in Ethiopia and the turbulent political situation throughout Europe, together with uncertain new crop prospects in the southern hemisphere, stimulated world trade and wheat futures at Chicago advanced 6c to 8c per bushel. Cash prices followed futures closely early in the week but lost some of the gain toward the close of the period with a slackening of demand at the higher price levels. Corn was firmer with wheat but threatened frost damage to late crops and an active inquiry for diminishing stocks of old grain were also strengthening factors.

Despite a more active inquiry from Europe for foreign wheat in recent weeks, shipments since the first of August have been well below those of last season, amounting to only about 66,000,000 bushels compared with 84,000,000 bushels a year ago. North America was the largest individual shipper with a total of nearly 22,000,000 bushels this season against about 33,000,000 bushels last year but North American shipments comprised less than one-third of the world trade. Shipments from Australia were moderately under those of last season, totaling only 12,000,000 bushels against 4,000,000 bushels a year ago. Argentine shipments dropped sharply and totaled approximately 20,000,000 bushels compared with 32,000,000 bushels for the corresponding period last year.

Demand for foreign wheat from the principal consuming areas of Europe to ex-European countries has been dull with heavy utilization of local wheat. Direct shipments to the United Kingdom have been little larger than last season but direct shipments to France are only about half those of a year ago.

The increased inquiry from European buyers was reflected in gains of 5c to 10c in wheat prices at Liverpool but beneficial rains in both Argentine and Australia improved crop prospects in the southern hemisphere and was a weakening influence at the close of the week. On Oct. 4 Argentine Rosafe and Australia wheat for October shipment was quoted at Liverpool at 96½c and No. 2 Manitoba from Atlantic ports at $1.06 per bushel. An outstanding feature was the shipment during the week of 2,000,000 bushels of Russian wheat from Black Sea ports. Prices at Liverpool were reflected in an advance of 5c at Winnipeg where No. 1 Manitoba was quoted at the close of the week at 94½c.

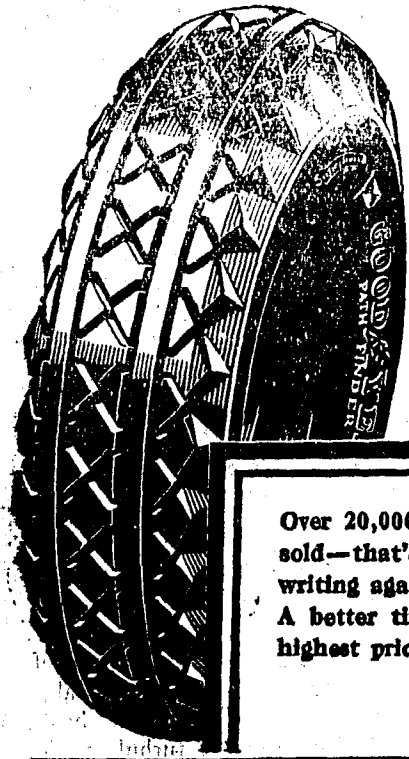

Domestic cash wheat markets advanced with futures, with spot prices at Kansas City the highest in seven years. Marketings of winter wheat continued to decrease with total receipts of 2,362 cars at the principal markets. Protein premiums held firm and cash prices for hard winter gained 6 to 6½c per bushel. At the close of the week No. 2 hard winter was quoted at Kansas City at $1.14 to $1.19. At Chicago No. 2 hard winter was quoted at $1.26 to $1.28 and at St. Louis at $1.24½ per bushel. No. 1 hard winter was quoted at Fort Worth at $1.37½ delivered Texas common points. Soft winter wheat gained with other classes but held well below hard winter. At the close of the week No. 2 soft winter was quoted at St. Louis at $1.13, Chicago at $1.09 to $1.11½, Kansas City at $1.11 to $1.16.

Spring wheat markets advanced 3c to 4c per bushel, but demand slackened toward the close of the week, largely as the result of continued liberal receipts and some congestion at elevators. Receipts during the week totaled 2,419 cars at Minneapolis and 1,090 cars at Duluth.

Intermountain and Pacific Coast markets were firmer with gains about in line with those of eastern points. Denver mills advanced quotations. Mills at Ogden raised bids about 6c and were offering 82c for No. 2 soft white FOB Utah-Idaho common points, 97c for No. 2 northern spring and 90c for No. 2 hard winter.

The Portland market advanced about 6½c influenced by a good local demand from mills for hard and soft white wheats and a continued active inquiry from middlewestern and gulf markets. Shortage of boat space continued to restrict shipments of both wheat and flour to Gulf and Atlantic

Only One In Ten Have Permits
Permits to buy liquor from 28 state-owned stores and dispensaries have been issued to 49,217 of Idaho's 450,000 residents, M.B. Yeaman, a member of state liquor commission, revealed. The 49,217 permits have paid $24,608.50 into the commission's coffers and up to September 1 the holders had paid $783,132 for liquor and $13,461 in sales taxes.
The law setting up the liquor commission was passed by the 1935 legislature and the first store was opened in Boise for business on April 26.

Will Rogers At Theatre

Will Rogers' fans all over the country are waiting for the laugh holiday that will give them their favorite star in "Doubting Thomas," coming to the Kendrick Theatre Friday and Saturday nights, October 11 and 12, in which Will portrays the funniest role he has yet attempted, in a picture that is a laugh cyclone.
Rogers portrays the role of a simple, home-loving sausage manufacturer, whose home-life is suddenly tossed into a turmoil when an amateur impresario, Alison Skipworth, persuades his wife, Billie Burke, that she has been suppressed all of her married life and that she really belongs to the stage and her public. It's a scream from start to finish.
In addition there will be the fifth installment of "Call of the Savage" and the other regular features.

Ex-Husband Very Considerate
Down at Blue Springs, Mo., Joe Fleener, 45-year-old proprietor of a tourist camp near that town, not only divorced his wife and paid her alimony, but entertained her at his camp until she chose Jim Phelps as a new mate.
Fleener then bought the marriage license, paid the minister's fees and gave the couple $500 and his blessing. The only stipulation he made was that the newly-weds not set up housekeeping anywhere near the Fleener camp

MARKET SHARPLY HIGHER
DUE EUROPEAN DEMAND
ports. At the close of the week 13 per cent protein No. 1 hard white (blue-tem) was quoted at Portland at $1.21, ordinary protein hard white at $1.16, hard winter at 93 1/2c, soft white and northern spring at 90c, western white and western red at 89c per bushel, basis No. 1, sacked. At Seattle western white was quoted at 92c, western red at 94c, hard winter at $1.00 and hard white at $1.31 per bushel, basis No. 1 sacked. California markets advanced 10c to 12c per 100 with central California growers marketing more freely but with current offerings readily absorbed by dealers and industries. Inquiry for milling grades was quite active as a result of an improved demand for flour.
Pacific Northwestern barley markets strengthened, reflecting the decrease in local demand. A firm holding tendency was an additional strengthening feature. Prices at Portland were around 5c per 100 higher, with No. 2 bright western quoted at $1.10 per 100, sacked basis.
Pacific Northwestern oats markets reflected the strength in other grains with lack of selling pressure from growers and a fairly good demand from cereal millers for gray oats advancing prices around 10c per 100 for the week. No. 2 white oats were quoted at Portland at $1.15 per 100 sacked basis, and No. 2 gray oats at $1.20 per 100, sacked.

Sales Day

KENDRICK

Saturday, Oct. 19

Kendrick's Sales Day will be held on Saturday, October 19, for the auctioning of farmers' livestock, implements, household goods—in fact anything they may have a surplus of that they want to turn into cash or bankable note. The sale will start promptly at 10 o'clock in the morning. All goods will be auctioned off absolutely free of charge.

Farmers are asked to bring in their articles in sufficient time to have them listed by Ed. Long. They may be left at the Kendrick Bean Growers building.
Owing to the fact that weather conditions are somewhat uncertain at this season of the year, it was decided by the Committee not to have a sports program, but instead arrangements have been made with the Schupfer Brothers to run a matinee show in the Kendrick Theatre, for which a charge of 15c for adults will be made.

The program and prizes to be awarded during the afternoon are as follows:

- $1.00 for the largest rooster. No breeds exempt.
 - $1.00 for the largest duck. No breeds excepted.
 - $1.00 for the best sample of wheat. (Pint jar full).
 - 50c for best sample small white beans (pint).
 - 50c for best sample large white beans (pint).
 - 50c for best sample red beans (pint).
 - $1.00 for the largest table squash.
 - $1.00 for the largest cow pumpkin.
 - $1.00 for the largest potato.
 - 12 Chickens will be released. Anyone catching may keep.
- Bring in your articles. You may not win a prize, but you'll enjoy the day visiting and comparing notes with your neighbor.

Any person residing in the Kendrick trade territory is eligible to compete for any of the above prizes.
The Auction Sale will take place in or near the Kendrick Bean Growers building.
The Kendrick stores will make special prices for that day.
All articles sold at the sale must be settled for before being removed. All articles put up at auction must positively be sold. Roy Glenn will act as auctioneer.

EDITORIAL

WELL, FOLKS—Isn't a grand and glorious October? Did you ever see such a fall? But while we're on the subject—How about the war in Ethiopia? Helped the price of grain, didn't it. But while we're hoping it will raise the price still higher, don't overlook the old income obtainable from old bossy. She is really the year-round meal ticket. If you doubt it, just bring in a can and see for yourself. It will pay you and keep on paying. By the way—have you tried our butter? You'll like its true butter taste. It's made only from selected cream. The best.

Ed. Long—"Use your noodle lady! Use your noodle!"
Mrs. Dick Blewett: "My goodness where is it? I've pushed and pulled everything in the car!"

Geo. Leith: "Next to a beautiful girl what do you consider the most interesting thing in the world?"
Bill Watts: "When I'm next to a beautiful girl I don't bother about statistics!"

Everett Crocker says—If all the rumba dancers in the world were placed end to end there would be an awful lot of friction.
