NO. 14

HIGHLIGHTS OF THE WEEK'S NEWS DISPATCHES

Pittsburgh, Pa.—Mayor William N. McNair said the east's disastrous floods could be traced to the work of the civilian conservation corps in removing trees, logs and underbrush which absorbed water in the mountains and acted as a flood preventive. "The CCC has done a fine job of cleaning up the forests from the standpoint of a city park," he said, "but not for a great watershed. As long critical periods in the state's history going to have floods." The mayor, long a critic of the present administration in Washington, pictured the forest lands as a great natural sponge.

New York.—Senator William E. Borah, who has represented Idaho in Washington for more than 29 years, is faced back home with his first serious threat at re-election, in the candidacy of Governor Charles Ben Ross, which has been announced nationally in Collier's. Governor Ross has been talking locally for a long time about running against Borah, but his campaign takes on national importance with recent set-backs to Borah's presidential aspirations, the magazine declares. Yogi philosophy is the new weapon which Governor Ross proposes to use against Borah, according to his interview with Walter Davenport, associate editor of Collier's. He states that he is practicing the East Indian philosophy of "concentration." He continues: "What I desire to achieve I concentrate on. If one concentrates his thoughts upon a goal or purpose long enough or hard enough, to the exclusion of all else, one is bound to arrive. This is no theory, mind you. I am the next senator from Idaho."

Washington.—A bi-partisan attack in the senate against what was termed repudiation of British and French war debts ended with a democratic request to ascertain if the administration has made any fresh efforts to collect. Senator Borah of Idaho, ranking republican of the foreign relations committee, and Senator Lewis of Illinois, a democratic member of the same committee, took Britain and France to task for failing to make remittances on their war obligations. The two speeches were followed quickly by a question from Senator Walsh (D., Mass.) as to whether the foreign relations committee had any information that the administration had notified the debtors recently that millions were overdue which the American taxpayers had furnished to assist the allies at the height of the World war. Borah told the senate something should be done. At the same time, however, he opposed the McAdoo resolution to set up another debt commission to negotiate fresh settlements. "There is no occasion," he asserted, for indicating that the purpose is to make another contract which in due time will also be repudiated." Borah said the debate in the house of commons yesterday "indicates unmistakably that it is not the intention of Great Britain to pay its debt to us."

Burley, Idaho.—George E. Denman of Burley, president of the Idaho Education association, has appealed for united effort in coping with what he termed "one of the most critical periods in the state's history of education." "The financial program is incomplete, inadequate and has not yet provided complete equalization," he wrote in a special statement to educators. "School units are too numerous, too small, and too expensive in operation. The educational personnel, teachers, supervisors and administrators should be better trained for the solution of the mounting difficulties facing education." With the immediate and long-time future promising an unprecedented tax burden for the payment of accumulating billions of public debt, Denman said, "we are facing almost certain disruption of our public school system unless the state financial program already begun can be completed." He declared a total of three and one-half to four millions of dollars from state sources will be required to "insure complete equalization up to the minimum program."

To Take Better Position

R. J. Keller, who has been assisting in the Farmers Bank since last August, will leave Saturday for his home at Culesac, where he has a better position with the First State Bank of Culesac. Bob has made many friends since he came to Kendrick who wish him well. Miss Burneda Cummings will take Mr. Keller's place in the bank.

Great-Grandson Born

A little son came to the home of Mr. and Mrs. Howard Curtis at Kelo, Wash., to make his home indefinitely, on March 23. His name is Donald Allen, and he is the grandson of Mrs. Maude Palmer, formerly of this ridge, and a great-grandson of Mr. and Mrs. Walter Clark of Juliaetta, Idaho. Mrs. Curtis will be remembered here as Miss Mildred Palmer.

KENDRICK HIGH SCHOOL INSPECTION REPORT

Following is a summary of the inspection report made by Ph. Soulen, state high school inspector, for the Kendrick school, on a recent inspection visit, and which, on the whole, is indeed a very gratifying report: The report is made in conformity with high school standards throughout the state: It says that the condition of lighting is adequate; heating adequate; sanitation adequate; janitor service sanitary; classrooms adequate; laboratories good; gym. good; study hall adequate; athletic grounds adequate. A new frame structure for agriculture has improved the plant.

Educational apparatus and supplies: Shop work, agriculture, good; physical education adequate; commercial, 11 typewriters.

Administration and supervision: Special training in science; experience 5 years; care of school property good; curriculum organization satisfactory; supervision good; teacher conferences regular; extra curricular work: athletics, music, drama. Records: adequate, up-to-date, properly filed; selection and placement of teachers and distribution of teaching loads are satisfactory.

School spirit: Self control good; self direction good; co-operation satisfactory.

Recommendations: I recommend that this school be given a rating on its four-year course for the ensuing year, as follows: Accredited. The above was taken direct from Mr. Soulen's report and shows that our school is being run in a manner satisfactory to him, and so far as we have been able to learn, to the patrons of the school in general, as well.

Card Party Huge Success

The public card party given by the Eastern Star at the Fraternal Temple last Thursday night was a huge success, the large crowd seemingly enjoying itself immensely. Ten tables of bridge were in play and eight of pinocle.

In bridge play Dr. D. A. Christensen received high prize for the men, and Mrs. Roy Bacharach for the ladies. E. Roberts received the consolation for the men and Mrs. Nora Callison for the ladies.

In pinocle play Lester Nelson was high man and Miss Wilma Dybvig high lady. Andrew Cox received the consolation for the men and Mrs. Ben Cummings for the women.

At the close of play a delightful lunch was served by the Eastern Star, which was followed by an impromptu program, much enjoyed by all. Many said on leaving: "I hope they have another."

No "Danger" Signs

Our attention has been called to the fact that while the hours for cars entering the Cedar creek road, where work is being done, have been published in the Gazette, no sign to that effect has been placed near the danger zone, nor watchmen to warn those who do not happen to know the hours for passage of cars without danger.

One party came through the road Wednesday morning and said rocks were rolling down and made the passage dangerous unless some warning was given to approaching cars, and that a rock had gone through the top of a passing car, endangering the life of the driver, or passengers. Our informer thought it might be the better part of valor to place some sort of warning to the motorist.

Or Wasn't It?

Quoting Cowboy Ben Ross: Colliers of April 4th: "I am a farmer. Why the other day some of those city guys came out to see me and I wasn't in Boise. One came from Spokane, one from Pocatello and one from Craigmont. They came down in fine auto one day when I was out on the ranch. And what do you suppose I was doing? They caught me riding on a load of manure."

Ben didn't say whether he was just riding on it or spreading it!

SENIOR CLASS PLAY IS HUGE SUCCESS

The Senior Class play, "Alibi Bill", presented Wednesday night to a capacity house at the Kendrick Theatre, was one of the outstanding school events so far this year.

The play went off very smoothly, there being no breaks or forgotten "lines" and the class and their dramatic coach are to be congratulated on the result, which showed intensive work. The cast of characters follows: Lucy—the Smith's maid

..... Selma Wegner Benson—Smith's butler Elmer Emery Aimee Smith—the wife Beatrice Curtiss Mrs. Kennedy—the mother-in-law Mary Thompson Billy Smith—the husband Joe Watts Jimmy Robinson—a friend Cecil Spekker Daisy Montaine—show girl Lucille Lewis Ned Kennedy—the brother Roy Ramey, Jr. The Cop—Himself Rodney Smith Miss Jones—the fiancée Flo Kent The three acts were laid in the living room of a middle-class American home, all the action being laid in time—in 45 minutes.

Others of the Senior class working toward the success of the play were Marjorie Onstott, Oscar Hartung, Betty Curtiss, Doris Crocker, Quentin Cole, Earl Hund, Fred Reid.

Some Very Good Advice

The following article is clipped from last week's Troy News—and we figure there is some mighty good advice contained therein, and that Kendrick might profit by following it:

By all working together, we can make Troy the "up and coming" town in the country this year. We should concentrate on that. Let us spare no effort to show the people of the community that it is to their advantage to trade at home—to buy locally every item of merchandise that it is possible for local merchants to supply. Let our motto be "The Home Town for Home People" and bend every effort to make our town worthy of the appellation. Troy weathered and came out of the depression with colors flying. She doesn't have to reconstruct or rehabilitate—she can simply start in where she left off three years ago, which is more than many other towns can do—more, perhaps, than she could have done herself were she situated anywhere except in the best country out-of-doors. So here's to '36—the best year since the economic crash. Let's go!

April "Lamblike"

Contrary to the predictions of some weather prognosticators, March came in like a lamb and went out like the proverbial lion, but, aside from the coolness of the atmosphere, April came in with a fine sunny day, and, it is to be hoped, will keep that way during the greater part of its sojourn with us.

The report came over the radio Wednesday morning that some two inches of snow had fallen at Pullman, Wash., and the mercury had gone down to four above zero—perhaps just to see what was going on down at the bottom of the tube.

Bring In Your Big Eggs

If you have a large-sized egg, bring it to the Gazette office and have it measured—you may win a six-months subscription to the Gazette.

Those having brought in large eggs for the contest are Mrs. A. W. Schultz, Mrs. A. E. Robbins, Mrs. C. J. Schultz, Mrs. Harry Langdon and Ralph Richardson. You may take the eggs home with you after they are measured, if you care to do so, but bring them in.

The contest will last until May 30.

Double-Eight Club Meets

Mr. and Mrs. Lester Crocker entertained the Double-Eight Bridge club last Wednesday evening. High scores were awarded to Mr. and Mrs. H. B. Thompson while low scores went to Mr. Higley and Mrs. S. Cook. Mr. and Mrs. Edgar Long were invited guests.

Gave Bridge Party

Mrs. F. B. Higley entertained a number of friends at a dessert bridge party Tuesday evening, there being six tables in play. High scores for the evening were awarded Mrs. E. A. Deobald and Harold Thomas, while low scores went to Mrs. H. B. Thompson and W. A. Watts.

SENIOR CLASS PLAY CAST ENTERTAINED

Following the presentation of the Senior class play, "Alibi Bill", given Wednesday evening, the Senior class of the Kendrick High school, including members of the play cast and their coach, John King, met at the home of Mr. and Mrs. R. H. Ramey, and were treated to a delicious lunch consisting of sandwiches, cake and coffee. Games were played and the evening ended about midnight with music and song.

Those assisting Mrs. Ramey in entertaining the class were Mrs. W. A. Watts, Mrs. Frank Curtiss, Mrs. Carl Wegner and Mrs. Amos Spekker.

Those present were Flo Kent, Selma Wegner, Marjorie Onstott, Lucille Lewis, Doris Crocker, Betty Curtiss, Beatrice Curtiss, Mary Elizabeth Thompson, Cecil Spekker, Ervin Halseh, Quentin Cole, Joe Watts, Elmer Emery, Roy Ramey, Jr., Fred Reid and Rodney Smith; Mr. and Mrs. Carl Wegner, Mr. and Mrs. W. A. Watts, Mr. and Mrs. Amos Spekker, Mr. and Mrs. R. H. Ramey, John King, Henry Emery, Vern Spekker, Nolan Weeks, Edward Wegner, Jeanne Ramey and Mildred Wegner.

Year 1816 Had No Summer

The following clipping was handed in to us by Howard Hutchison, who, presumably, has begun to think that 1936 will be like that of 1816—and indeed, it has some of the tendencies:

The summer of 1816 was really a winter, according to an old story sent The Press by H. A. Searles, Route 1.

He quotes a report from Versailles, Kentucky. The greater part of March 1816 was boisterous, he says. April opened warm, but grew cold, ended with snow and ice. Ice formed half an inch thick in May. Buds and flowers were frozen and corn killed. June was the same, almost every green thing being killed. Snow fell three inches deep in New York, Massachusetts and Maine. July had snow and ice. In August and September it was cold, with frost and ice. Sleigh riding was good early in November. Old New England farmers called the year 1816 "eighteen hundred and starved to death."

7,000 Be Given Blister Rust Jobs

Seven thousand men will war on white pine blister rust in Montana, Idaho and Washington this summer, Stephen Wyckoff, in charge of the campaign, said.

Wyckoff said a $2,000,000 appropriation has been allowed for the work. The men, to be taken from re-employment service rolls, will be placed in 175 camps, he said. Last year 2,500 men were employed in 25 camps.

The work will be started as soon as currant and gooseberry bushes, host plants for the rust sport, are leafed out. The work will continue until fall.

Additional Personals

Marvin Long was a Moscow visitor Thursday.

Mrs. M. O. Raby was a Moscow visitor Monday.

Mrs. G. W. McKeever went to Moscow Thursday.

Johnnie and Mildred Kite and Roy Long were among those down from Moscow to attend the Senior play Wednesday evening.

Misses Jeanne Ramey and Mildred Wegner came up from Lewiston on Wednesday evening to attend the Senior class play, returning to Lewiston on the midnight train.

Special Notice

We must again ask that all who have not established credit, pay cash for their small ads., such as "For Sale," etc. They are too small to carry in numerous accounts on our books and the consequence is we lose more than half the ad. income.

From five to 25 words the price is 25 cents for the first insertion. Thereafter the price will be five cents per line per week. About five average words make a line.

Annual Waltonian Banquet

The annual Izak Walton League banquet will be held at the Elks Temple, Moscow, Thursday evening, April 14. All sportsmen are invited. Tickets may be obtained from Geo. Barnum. Reservations must be made in advance.

Parents Of Daughter

Rev. and Mrs. T. E. Poindexter are the proud parents of a baby daughter, born Wednesday, April 1. Mother and babe are doing nicely.

Nine Idahoans Draw $39,000.00

Boise, Idaho, March 30.—Records made available tonight showed nine men who direct statewide federal emergency agencies in Idaho receive annual compensation of $39,000.

Highest paid is Harry Whittier, former Moscow banker, with $5,200. He is state federal housing administrator.

J. V. Otter, formerly of Moscow, receives $4,800 as PWA director.

INTERESTING NEWS NOTES FROM OUR PUBLIC SCHOOLS

The girls in the Girls' Athletic Association are all working for points for letters, of which they must have 200. So far Enid Hill is the only one that has earned a letter, having 208 points. Only four girls have less than 100 points. All others have between 100 and 200 points. The volley ball team has been divided into two teams. They practice at separate times and plan to hold a tournament after spring vacation.

Flo Kent has been elected to the position of Queen and will be Kendrick's representative at the Spalding Centennial, to be held in Lewiston next month.

Spring vacation will be in effect on April 8, 9 and 10.

Grade Notes

Jean Crocker, fourth grade, and Lois Poindexter, third grade, won first places at the district spelling contest last Friday at Lapwai.

Lois Deobald, sixth grade, won a second place. These three girls go to Lewiston Saturday of this week to compete in the district contest there.

Kendrick School Visitors

Ph. Soulen, state high school inspector, visited the Kendrick High school last week. His report will be found in another column of this paper.

V. L. Huddleson, assistant state director of NYA visited the school in the interest of his work last week.

They "Came and Got It"

There was somewhat of a flurry a few weeks ago among those who were to take part in the filming of the picture "Come and Get It," way up in the tall uncut of the Clearwater country, above Headquarters, they fearing that the snow might be melted before they could complete the picture.

Now they have plenty of snow—some 14 or 15 feet—and the only question that is bothering them is whether they will be able to get out when the picture is completed. They had to be dug out of the snow just the other day, and from the actions of the weather man, there will be plenty more coming up. They came after snow and "they got it."

Spalding Centennial Stamp

According to word received from Washington, the postoffice department has finally consented to the printing of a postage stamp commemorating the Spalding Centennial, which will be held in Lewiston May 7 to 10, inclusive. This will indeed be a splendid advertisement for this section of the country.

While the celebration will be held in Lewiston, proper ceremonies will be held at Spalding during the dedication of Spalding Memorial park, for which the government has set aside $10,000, which will be used in beautifying the grounds and probably erecting a suitable building to house the many relics now contained in the old cabin at Spalding.

Should Have Heard It

We sincerely hope that the "powers that be" in Washington, D. C., were listening in on "Believe It or Not" Ripley Sunday night, when he was telling his radio audience how two counterfeiters blew "out" the island of Haiti and they made such good money that instead of being arrested and thrown into jail, they were given charge of the government mint and told to make money that was some good—the government seeming to have failed. Our old dollar isn't "what she used to be," yo know.

Believes In "Concentration"

Governor C. Ben Ross, now an avowed candidate for the seat in the U. S. senate held by Bill Borah for some 29 years, says he is practicing the Yogi philosophy, which is used in East India.

Gosh, we suppose the next thing C. Ben will be doing will be buying a large white diaper and a goat and trying to imitate Mahatma Gandhi.

WHEAT MARKETS STILL WEAK — DEMAND SLOW

Domestic grain markets tended downward during the week ended on March 27, led by the sharp declines in spring wheat, according to the Weekly Grain Market Review of the United States Bureau of Agricultural Economics. Slack milling inquiry for all classes of wheat and a slow demand for feed grains were also weakening factors. Spring wheat dropped 5c to 7c per bushel and winter wheat declined 2c to 3c despite continued dryness in the western areas and only fair prospects in other sections of the winter wheat belt. Oats were weak and slightly lower with a continued limited outlet. Barley moved at lower levels within last week's price ranges and only best malting barley was in active request.

The sharp downward adjustment in spring wheat prices was the outstanding feature of the domestic wheat situation during the current week. Recent liberal arrivals of Canadian wheat purchased to supplement the short local supplies, slower demand for cash grain, generally favorable moisture conditions in the spring wheat territory with prospects of increased seedings this spring, all contributed to the adjustment which brought the relatively high spring wheat prices nearly in line with winter wheat values. Prospects for winter wheat remained only fair with the crop making slow growth in the Ohio valley where fields were greening in many areas but with the crop in poor condition in some sections.

Rain was needed generally in Missouri, Kansas, Oklahoma and Texas. In the western part of Kansas, conditions became progressively worse with severe dust storms reported in western portions of Kansas, Oklahoma, Nebraska, western New Mexico and southeastern and east central Colorado.

Winter wheat in other countries is making generally favorable progress, although conditions are well below those of a year ago on a slightly smaller acreage. Europe has decreased seeding of winter wheat with estimates from 14 countries showing over a million acres smaller seedings. Domestic cash wheat markets followed declines in futures with reductions in premiums in some markets bringing about even sharper declines. Marketings of spring wheat were large with a total of 627 cars received at Minneapolis and 94 cars at Duluth. Demand lacked force, however, and premiums were barely steady.

Duluth May durum prices declined 4½c and closed at 90½c, with No. 2 amber of good milling quality quoted at Minneapolis at 8c to 19c over the Duluth May quotations. The drop in spring wheat prices placed both durum and other spring wheats considerably out of line with delivered prices on Canadian wheat for rail shipment to Minneapolis.

Pacific Northwestern barley markets continued very dull with trading and movement light and arrivals at Portland totaling only five carloads during the week. Growers were displaying a firm holding tendency and local offerings were quoted above middlewestern and California barley. Barley from Minneapolis was offered under Portland quotations with a few cars already moving and sales of several hundred tons of California feeding barley were reported at about $1.07½ per 100. No. 2 bright western barley was down 1½c for the week and quoted at $1.15 per 100 at Portland. Eastern Washington barley was offered at Seattle at $1.10 per 100, sacked basis.

Oats markets were irregularly lower as marketings continued slightly in excess of current market needs. Pacific Coast markets were quiet with the outlet on white oats restricted to an occasional car to local manufacturers and inquiry from outside markets slight. No. 2 white oats were quoted at Portland at $1.12 per 100, sacked basis, with eastern Washington white oats quoted at Seattle at $1.12½ and Puget Sound oats at $1.05 per 100, sacked basis. No. 2 gray oats were quoted at Portland at $1.17 to $1.20 per 100, sacked basis, with cereal mills the principal takers.

Many Descendants

The late C. C. Blackburn left a long line of descendants, he leaving 17 grandchildren and 22 great-grandchildren at the time of his death. This is indeed a record.

That loud noise you hear is the League of Nations protesting to Japan against violating the sovereignty of China.

KEEP YOUR CREDIT GOOD

.... Because It's an Invaluable Asset

"HIS WORD IS HIS BOND"

You hear that said about someone from time to time, and it kindles a warm feeling of respect and admiration in your breast for the individual referred to.

There is a lot of satisfaction in living in a community where you know you can depend upon folks to do as they tell you they will do, people who play fair in social as well as business affairs. That's why the small city or town is so desirable as a place to call "home." The average folks in rural communities are dependable. For this reason, Kendrick can easily be made the social and business center of its vast trade territory.

We realize that conditions sometimes alter cases.

A "man of his word" is occasionally placed in the embarrassing position of being unable to make good on his promises. He may have bought goods and promised to pay at a certain time, but unforeseen circumstances, sickness in the family, or other causes, prevent him from doing so. In that case we suggest that he go to his creditor and tell him frankly of the facts, and there will be some method found for handling payments satisfactory to all.

Ninety-nine per cent of all business is done on credit. Keep your credit good --- it's an invaluable asset. Pay your bills by the 10th of each month, whenever possible.

We are prompted to sponsor this message to the people of Kendrick and vicinity through our interest in community welfare.

LENORE NEWS NOTES

Mrs. Bina Cook attended the funeral of her grandfather, the late C. C. Blackburn, last Friday.

Mr. and Mrs. Neal Vaughn and children, Mrs. Stanton and Mrs. Harry Emerson were Lewiston visitors Saturday.

Eugene and Darl Southwick have been quite ill the past week.

Mr. and Mrs. Neal Vaughn called on Mr. and Mrs. Don Johnston Sunday.

The March Lion has certainly been here in all his fierceness the past week.

Lester and Gale Triplett, Foster and Lee McFadden went fishing on Monday.

The try-out for the spelling contest was held at the Lenore school house Friday.

Scientists say that physically man is about 90 per cent water. It is our experience that some politicians are about 98 per cent hot air.

TEAKEAN GOSSIP
(Delayed)
The weather has been playing pranks on us. A couple of days last week the sun shone so warm we even liked the doors open, and we were sure spring was "just around the corner." Then one night it suddenly turned cold again.
Gus Harless has returned home after spending the winter with a brother in Montana.
A grange meeting was held last Saturday at the Teakean schoolhouse.
The ladies aid, with the help of some of their husbands, did some housecleaning at the church last week. They put wall board on the ceiling and papered the side walls.
They did a nice job and the appearance is excellent.
The ladies meet this week at the home of Mrs. L. Clanin to quilt for Mrs. Dilla Benjamin.
L. Clanin was a Lewiston visitor one day last week.
Mr. and Mrs. Lloyd VanAirdale are entertaining a new daughter, who came last Sunday morning. She weighs 6½ pounds and her name is Geraldine Mae.
Mrs. Lena Harp visited with Mrs.
Wm. Groseclose last Saturday.
Geo. Kime intended hauling posts for Carroll Groseclose Monday but discovered that snow was still too deep in the timber for his horses.
Mrs. L. Schliefer and son Earl have been away visiting at Spokane and Coeur d'Alene.
Mr. and Mrs. Wm. Groseclose spent Sunday evening at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Elwood Brock, where they enjoyed ice cream and cake.
It was decided last Sunday that the Sunday school give a program Easter Sunday. The teachers of each class will be the committee.
Orofino visitors last week were John Lind, E. M. Harrington and Mr. and Mrs. Merton Preussler and Marie.
Carroll Groseclose made a business trip to Juliaetta last Thursday, returning Friday. While there he traded for a woodsaw from Albright Bros., and expects to be busy for a while this spring sawing wood.
Mrs. Della Benjamin spent several days visiting at the home of her mother, Mrs. Carrie Herring.

SOUTHWICK NEWS NOTES
(Delayed)
The last, but not least, basketball game of the season, was played here Wednesday night, when the town team beat the Peck town team 20 to 23. It was a hard, fast game clear through. Warner Ziemann, who just graduated from Lewiston Normal last week, helped our team a lot. The town team made quite an unusual record this year. They lost every game away from home and won every game on their home floor.
Misses Aletha Blewett and Kathryn Byrd spent Wednesday evening at the Oliver home.
Doyle Hayward went to Lewiston
Wednesday and brought back Albert Hayward, who is going to make an indefinite visit at the T. J. Armitage home.
Margaret Whiting spent two nights last week with Ruby Choate.
Mr. and Mrs. Glen Daggett and children were Lewiston visitors Wednesday and Thursday.
Henry Willis' house caught fire from the flue Wednesday night, and completely burned down. He crawled into the attic and tried to put it out, but failed in the attempt. In getting down he fell and hurt his hip. He laid outside until John Lettenmaier found him next morning. Given Mas-toe took him to Lewiston to the hospital.
Miss Davis of Park was an overnight guest of Mrs. Hattie Jones on Thursday night.
Miss Mae Zimmerman spent the week-end with her folks in Ahsakka.

GOLDEN RULE
W. A. Cowger and son Abner were Troy visitors the first of the week.
Mr. and Mrs. Ross Armitage ate dinner at the Glen Betts home Wednesday evening.
Loy Martin, Chas. Smith, Oscar Lawrence, were among Orofino visitors the past week.
Hank Bleck and John Westgate were at the George Finke home on Wednesday.
Mrs. John Starr and daughter returned to the Smith home Thursday after a visit at the C. E. Harris home at Gold Hill.
Mrs. Ross Armitage spent Thursday at the Chas. Hayward home.
Roy Martin came home Thursday to spend several days with home folks.
John Starr spent part of Saturday and Sunday with his family.
John Westgate left Tuesday for Spokane. He has employment near there.
Archie Betts and John Mabry ate dinner at the Glen Betts home Sunday.
Mr. and Mrs. Lloyd Thornton spent the week-end at the Frank Thornton home.
John Westgate ate dinner at the R. S. Betts home Sunday.
Mrs. Roy Johnson returned Sunday after spending the past week in Orofino.

Week-end visitors in Lewiston included Mr. and Mrs. Perry Mattoon, Carroll Cox, the Frank Bencoters, were visiting Mr. and Mrs. Bencoter of Clarkston. John Woody met Mrs.
Woody on the Snake river boat Sunday. Mrs. Woody had been visiting her daughter, Mrs. Joe Ebsen.
Also in Lewiston were Gladys Cane,
John Wilson and Mary Alice Mc-Intosh.
Mrs. Dora May is home from the hospital. She is reported as very much improved.
Mrs. Seville Bencoter and Meryl Bencoter are visiting the Bencoter brothers.
The honor roll at school this month included eight names. Those receiving highest honor, which means all "A" grades, were: Alma Cox and Billy Davidson. On the honor roll, which means all grades of "B" or
"A," were Kenneth Woody, Ray Bencoter, Merna Cox and Dick Bencoter.
Word was received from Ted Davidson at San Diego that he is in training for the navy, there.
Guests at the George Havens home on Sunday were Mr. and Mrs. Ira Havens and Marie. On Sunday evening Mr. and Mrs. Frank Ben-coter and Ray and Georgie Davidson were callers.
Mr. and Mrs. George Davidson and Betty were in Lewiston Monday.

cattle association meeting at Kendrick Saturday. The organization is in the process of formation.
Miss Helen Flamee spent last weekend at the Ralph McGraw home.
Miss Eula Huffman spent Sunday with Mrs. Ralph McGraw and sister, Wilma.

Card Of Thanks
We sincerely wish to thank the kind friends and neighbors who so willingly aided us in our hour of bereavement. Especially do we thank those who furnished the music and who gave the beautiful floral offerings.
Jane Blackburn And Family.

CRESCENT CLIPPINGS
Mr. and Mrs. Mike Forest entertained Sunday in honor of Walter

DOUBLE BILL THIS WEEK
There will be a double bill at the Kendrick Theatre this Friday and Saturday evenings, when Rear Admiral Richard E. Byrd's "Little America" film will be shown, together with "The Virginia Judge." Everyone is interested in seeing just how Admiral Byrd accomplished his trip to the South Pole. It was indeed a very daring trip but the men soon became injured to the hardships and extreme cold of this far-away frozen waste. "The seasons," says the Admiral, "are exactly reversed from the regions above the equator. The cold winter of endless

WELL, FOLKS—History records, it is said, a year without a summer—but let's not worry about that until the time comes. The thing of paramount interest now is cream—you produce it on the farm—we buy it and make the butter? Fair enough, isn't it? And you will like our service and our right-now payment. Try us for yourself.

Have you tried our butter? It's delicious to taste and sweet to smell. Just try it once—come again. How about that cold storage box in our new and modern plant? For the low cost of a box you can't afford to let even a few pounds of meat spoil. Get one now.

"Young man, take your hand off my daughters knee."

"Excuse me, sir. I was just going to say what a nice joint you have here."

He (driving): "I always keep both hands on the steering wheel."

She (sourly): "Well, I'm right here in case you need a hankey!"

Jim Jimpson says: "A smile doesn't cost you anything—unless your wife catches you at it too often."

Only 1¹/₁₀ Pairs of Work Shoes

from an entire section of Wolverine Shell Horsehide

—but they'll give you longer wear and greater comfort than any other work shoe.

Only a thin fibrous substance like a cow's horn—but that shell in Wolverine Shell Horsehide makes a world of difference in comfort, appearance and long wear. If your work shoes start falling apart just when you get used to wearing them—if the tops scuff easily—if the uppers dry hard and stiff after soaking—if acid quickly eats the leather—then you're a candidate for Wolverine Shell Horsehide. Come in and compare Wolverines with any other work shoe—including the cost.
