KENDRICK, LATAH COUNTY, IDAHO, FRIDAY, JULY 31, 1936

NO. 31

HIGHLIGHTS OF THE WEEK'S NEWS DISPATCHES

Longview, Wash.—R. C. Faust, Eugene, Ore., addressing the United Spanish-American War Veterans' convention here, advocated the expulsion of "31 foreign organizations and 340,000 illegal aliens who want us to overthrow the government. Get rid of this riffraff and we will have overthrown a menace of despotism that hangs over the nation," said Faust, listed as the chief speaker on the program.

The Rev. Glen Stevenson, dominion chaplain of the army and navy veterans of Canada, attacked the league of nations as an organization which "sold out the world to Italy."

"I admire the United States for standing against the world and not joining the league," he said, "and it is my greatest hope that Great Britain will come to its senses and leave the league at once."

Hagerman, Idaho.—Senator William E. Borah (R-Idaho), said last Friday the United States constitution stands as a "challenge to the whole world-wide conspiracy against freedom and liberty." The 71-year-old statesman, fighting for reelection to a sixth term, drew the picture in an address before a gathering of southern Idahoans commemorating the arrival of the Latter Day Saints church (Mormon) pioneers in the west 89 years ago. "In the bewildering mass of governmental schemes now sweeping the countries of the world, there is one malign purpose running through them all," the senator said, "and that is to control—if not destroy—the liberty of the citizen. Whether it is the fascist, the communist or the bureaucratic state, the result is the same—waste, debts, taxes and ultimately complete subjection of the people to the governing power. It must be a matter of just pride to every American, that, in the midst of this morass, the constitution stands out in simplicity and strength, a challenge to the whole world-wide conspiracy against freedom and liberty of the people."

Boston.—Outright approval of Congressman William Lemke, Union party candidate for president, was expressed by the Townsend plan, on a father of the Townsend plan, on a national campaign tour that took him to Illinois by airplane. Later addressing a group of 4,000 paid attendants at Boston Arena, Dr. Townsend attacked both Republican and Democratic parties, and received a tremendous burst of applause when he declared: "Personally, I am going to support Lemke this fall. He is clean. He is fine. He has endorsed our plan. I implore you to vote your disapproval of the hodge-podge business of the last four years."

Tokyo.—With little brown babies arriving at the rate of more than 250 an hour, Japan's natural increase in population during 1935 was the greatest in history. For the second time her annual growth passed one million. It was 1,028,623 during the year, compared with 1,077,398 in 1932, the previous record year. These figures show there is no relaxation in the pressure of population on the resources of Nippon. Japanese social scientists explain by that factor the restless straining of this eastern empire against all bonds, its conquest of Manchuria, its military and economic penetration into north China, its plans for economic advance into the South seas and its increasing fight for world markets.

Moscow.—The soviet reported divorces have fallen off 90 per cent since its new law taxing heavily those who wish to break marital ties became effective. For the first 20 days of July, 215 divorces were granted in Moscow compared to 2,214 for a similar period in June.

Billions Of Cigaretts Sold
Cigarette output established an all-time record in June when the figure passed the 14-billion mark for the first time in history, treasury department calculations revealed.
The actual tax-paid output totaled 14,008,714,350 mall cigarettes. For the first half-year withdrawals from warehouses amounted to 72,586,735, 520 cigarettes, a gain of 11 per cent over the 65,367,569,744 withdrawn in the corresponding 1935 period.

We're for Bill Borah for the U. S. senate. The reason? Gov. C. Ben likes to ride a manure spreader too well!

Postmasters Under Civil Service

An executive order by President Roosevelt has extended to all postmasterships a merit system displacing one which made such appointments a matter of congressional patronage.

Affecting 13,730 postmasters of the first, second and third classes when their four-year terms expire, the order would provide a new system of civil service tests for candidates for those offices. The bottom grade of postmasters, fourth class, already are under civil service (subject, of course, to congressional approval).

CIVIC ORGANIZATIONS INDORSE HEALTH MOVEMENT

A meeting was called by Supt. J. M. Lyle at the request of County Superintendent David Ross of Moscow, of representatives of the various civic organizations of Kendrick, at 10 a. m., Friday, July 24, for the purpose of outlining a public health program. The meeting was attended by representatives of the city council, school board and P. T. A., besides Drs. Christensen and McKeever.

Dr. Lambert from Boise was introduced and outlined the proposed program for county public health work.

The program was outlined as follows, which would have to do with sanitation and nursing:

Four nurses will be employed and one sanitarian. The nurses, stationed according to school population, would do house to house visiting, for instruction; school visitation, and work in cases of contagious diseases. Immunization of children against such diseases, and prevention of disease is the chief part of the program. Medical inspection would be given the schools about once in two years.

The United States Public Health service and the State Public Health service will provide one-half the funds needed for the work; the county the other half. It is estimated that the entire cost per year will be approximately $12,000. The cost per capita would be about 33 cents.

Those attending the meeting were very enthusiastic for its immediate adoption by the county. Endorsement of the plan is being sent to the county commissioners by the people of Kendrick, through these representative organizations.

Potlatch Creek Closed

Fishing in Latah county virtually came to a close on Thursday afternoon of last week, with publication of an order by the state game warden, closing the Potlatch river and all its tributaries—Bull Run, Cameron, Shattuck and Squaw creeks.

The order, issued by Warden Amos H. Eckert, Boise, declares that the closing is necessary as the result of an "emergency due to the threatened extinction of the brood stock through excessive angling."

The closing order is effective until further notice, which probably will include the balance of the present fishing season.

Closed are the Potlatch river and all its tributaries, including the east, west and south forks, and their tributaries; Bull Run and its tributaries, Cameron, Shattuck and Squaw creeks.

The order is effective upon official publication Thursday, July 23.

Overpass Completed By August 1

The overpass on the highway west of Troy will be completed by August 1. The concrete floor, setting up the side barriers and filling in the approaches include most of the work yet to be done. The bridge will be about 250 feet long and 27 feet wide.

The grading has been done on the new parts of the highway on both sides of the overpass. The highway has been relocated from Joel to the overpass and for a short distance this side to make a better approach. It also has been relocated from Moscow to the cemetery, thus eliminating the heretofore somewhat dangerous entrance to the city, says the Moscow Star-Mirror.

Fine Crop Of Wheat

Claud Craig reports that he has one of the best crops of wheat he has raised for several seasons. He threshed 185 acres that yielded 40 bushels per acre. Now, if the price would just shoot skyward, Claud would have a very nice little piece of pocket change as a result.

Had Tonsils Removed

Those having their tonsils removed during the past few days were: Marjory Wendt of Southwick; Robert Fry and Mrs. Geo. Leith.

IDAHO LEGISLATURE IN SPECIAL SESSION

Gov. C. Ben Ross on July 17, issued a proclamation calling into extraordinary session the twenty-third legislature of the State of Idaho, which convened last Tuesday.

The governor listed "four purposes and none other" for the session:

1. To divert additional funds from the sales tax receipts to relief of the aged, blind, dependent children, crippled and "unemployables."

2. To enact legislation governing participation of counties, cities and villages in providing financial assistance for those on relief rolls.

3. To enact a law to permit Idaho to share in the unemployment insurance act passed by congress in 1935.

4. To make available existing agricultural department inspection funds in addition to those granted and already expended by the department under provisions of the 1935 appropriation act.

The governor said he will fill several vacancies, caused by resignations of lawmakers.

The third point in his call was included after conference with Congressman D. Worth Clark (D-Idaho).

"Unless the proposed unemployment insurance law is enacted by the social security board in Washington, D. C., before the end of the year, Idaho will receive no direct benefit from the federal government for the payroll taxes which are being levied this year," Clark said.

"In order, therefore, to save the state hundreds of thousands of dollars and also to provide unemployment insurance for the working men of our state, it is necessary that a state law be passed immediately.

"The administration of the state law will not cost the state anything, if such administration is efficient, for under the social security act the federal government stands ready to grant to the state sufficient amounts to pay all proposed administrative expenses."

Birthday Surprise

Mrs. Walter McCall of Juliaette was very pleasantly surprised on her birthday anniversary Sunday when members of her family gathered at her home for the purpose of celebrating the occasion. There was a sumptuous dinner served at the noon hour.

Those in attendance were Mr. and Mrs. Carl Hartung and son Carl, Jr., and daughter, Miss Selma, and Mr. and Mrs. Wm. Wolff and family, all of Kendrick; Mr. and Mrs. Walter Hartung of Juliaette and Mr. and Mrs. Otto Koenig and daughter of Lewiston, and the surprised, Mr. and Mrs. McCall.

Mrs. McCall is a daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Carl Hartung, Sr.

More Good News!

Word comes from Boise, under date of July 24, that should be good news to picnickers and various other gatherings of that nature—if you agree with the ruling recently made by the United States government—which is as follows:

"Modification of the federal liquor laws by the last congress permits the sale of beer at picnics, outings, reunions, conventions, fairs, carnivals and other celebrations or festivals, by organizations not otherwise engaged in business as a dealer in malt liquors, at greatly reduced tax rates."

In other words, the United States government is doing their best to get everybody drunk and keep them that way. We sometimes wonder if that isn't what ails most of them at Washington, the way they are spending the people's money.

Wheat Board In Session

Lowell Isaksen, Wilfred Hafstur and Miss Iris Worthy of Moscow and the local member, John L. Woody, were busy Tuesday afternoon finishing up the necessary details of the 1936-37 wheat allotment.

Because the city hall happened to be in use by Justice Kuykendall's court, the front part of the Barnum Hardware store was used during the afternoon by the allotment board.

Parents Of Daughter

Dr. and Mrs. D. A. Christensen are the proud parents of a baby daughter, who arrived at their home early Wednesday morning—and when we say proud, we mean just that. They have two sons and the young lady is indeed a welcome visitor at their home. She tipped the scales at 7½ pounds. All concerned are doing nicely.

LEAVING CAMPIRES RESULTS IN FINES

Fines totaling $60 and costs of $2.50 have been levied so far this month against visitors to Region One of the National forests who forgot to extinguish their campfires before leaving them. There were six such cases. Three other law-enforcement actions also were decided in favor of the government.

Five of the campfires arose in the St. Joe National forest in northern Idaho, all in the vicinity of Avery and all involving Spokane, Wash., residents. These fires were discovered before they could spread. Each of the accused men, Bimp Hurd, Stan Densow, C. B. Davis, R. E. Johnson and Roy Asbury, was fined $10 and paid costs of $4. They pleaded guilty before a justice of the peace at Avery.

The sixth campfire case arose in the Kootenai National forest in northwestern Montana, the abandoned fire burning 100 square feet of land before it was extinguished. John Kartzky of Libby was arrested, arraigned in Libby justice court and fined $10 and costs of $2.50.

The practice of leaving unextinguished campfires in forested lands is exceedingly dangerous, especially when the wood are as conducive to the spread of fire as they are at present. Some of the most disastrous fires in forest service annals have been started by carelessly abandoned fires.

G. I. Covington of Superior was fined $25 in justice court for burning debris in the Cabinet National forest without a permit in violation of state law. J. H. Feiten of Plains, in the second Cabinet forest case, was fined $25 and costs of $2.50 for setting fire to forest material without securing a permit. He pleaded guilty in Plains justice court and $20 of his fine was suspended. Debris burning on forest land is permissible in the closed season, May 1 to October 1, only after a permit has been secured and specified safety precautions are taken.

One theft charge is included in the July cases. Donald Baney of Pierce, Idaho, was fined $25 and costs of $8.40, and sentenced to 30 days in jail, when he admitted in Pierce justice court the theft of gasoline from a government tractor in the Clearwater National forest.

Potatoes Probably Be High

If your Uncle Samuel has the proper figures, and presumably he has, you are apt to pay a very good price for your spuds this fall.

According to the July 1 estimate of the United States Bureau of Agricultural Economics the total United States potato crop for 1936 will be the smallest since 1925.

Unless later developments cause the crop to be larger than is indicated at present, potato prices this fall and winter will perhaps be the highest since 1929, at least.

The extremely low estimated production for this year is the result of both a small acreage and a low estimated yield. The total harvest for this year is estimated to be almost 10 per cent below the five-year average—or, 315,359,000 bushels, as against a yield of 387,678,000 in 1935.

However, Idaho, according to the report, is in a favorable position. Idaho farmers planted 106,000 acres this year, which is 2,000 acres more than were planted in 1935.

Northern Idaho, as everyone knows, (as is generally the case, with most crops), raises the finest potatoes than can be produced, from the fact that most of them are non-irrigated.

The report says that the Idaho crop on July 1 was near normal, being estimated at 86 per cent.

First Aid Stations Be Established

Three first aid stations will be established along central Idaho highways and rivers during the next few weeks, according to plans made recently by the Lewiston chapter of the American Red Cross, H. E. Baker, president, said.

One station will be established at Spalding, probably at the Copenspire service station, Mr. Baker said, according to present plans. Others will be placed at Lenore and Winchester. Stations will be supplied with regular first aid kits to care for all kinds of accidents. Persons at the stations will be given thorough training in first aid work to qualify them to give necessary assistance to victims of accidents.

Still "Going Up!"

According to a survey by Salmon Bros. & Hutzler of New York, the interest-bearing debt of the United States increased $5,343,560,308 to $32,988,790,134 in the last fiscal year and the government's guaranteed obligations increased 588 million dollars to approximately 4,711 millions. That makes a grand total of more than 37 billion dollars, which the federal government owes or is standing good for. You may wonder how in the world we ever are going to pay off this enormous debt. The answer is: "It is not going to be paid," says the Denver Post.

COMPLETION OF CEDAR CREEK ROAD ASSURED

Word has been received from Gov. C. Ben Ross that the necessary funds for the continuing of the WPA project on the Cedar creek road will be forthcoming and that the road will be completed as soon as possible.

The state was the sponsor, of course, for this project and funds from that source had begun to run low and it was feared that it might be necessary to discontinue the work, or at least curtail it for the time being. However, those having the work in charge got in touch with Rep. Compton I. White and he immediately got busy at Washington. N. E. Walker and M. O. Raby made a trip to Coeur d'Alene last Friday and interviewed the head of the WPA at that place, with the result that the following letter was on Monday received from Gov. C. Ben Ross, which will be good news to all concerned:

Mr. N. E. Walker, Secretary Kendrick Highway District, Kendrick, Idaho.

Mr. Dear Mr. Walker:
Referring to your letter of recent date relative to the Kendrick-Cedar Creek WPA road project, may I say that I took this matter up with J. L. Hood, state administrator of the WPA, who in turn conferred with Al. T. Springer, director of projects and planning, and I have been assured that this project will be continued.
(Signed)

C. BEN ROSS, Governor.

Nez Perce Taxes Reduced

The assessed valuation of real and personal property in Nez Perce county for 1936 is $150,740 less than the 1935 valuation, based on findings of the board of county commissioners after completing their work of equalizing the 1936 rolls furnished by Assessor A. T. Livengood, says the Lewiston Tribune.

In 1936 the real property valuation was fixed at $10,850,022, compared to $11,040,191 in 1935, a reduction of $190,169 in favor of this year. Personal property last year had an assessed valuation of $575,575, County Auditor Philip Weisgerber announced yesterday, while this year it is $39,699 higher, or $615,274. The net reduction on all assessable property is $150,470.

One reason for the reduced real property valuation, it was pointed out, was the large amount of real estate accruing to the county for non-payment of the tax for 1928, 1929, 1930 and 1931, which was removed from the rolls.

Widows, soldiers and sailors and fatherless children exemptions in 1936 total $227,181, an increase of $12,377 over 1935, with exemptions represented at $214,844.

Return From Vacations

Mr. and Mrs. F. H. Rider have returned from a two-weeks vacation trip on the coast, going first to Seattle, where Mr. Rider attended the Shriners' convention. Later they went to Portland, where they visited a brother of Mrs. Rider, and family. They report a splendid time. Mr. Rider is again at his post at the Long store.

Mr. and Mrs. C. H. Daugherty and son and daughter returned Sunday night from a ten-day vacation spent with relatives and friends in Spokane. They also visited the Coulee dam-site, which they report as a wonderful piece of engineering and a sight worth braving the heat to see.

Return From Coast

Bill Watts and Ed. Deobold returned Monday from a week-end fishing trip in "Pugget" Sound, off Bellingham Bay.

The boys said they caught five nice ones, the heaviest tipping the scales at 12½ pounds. Not so bad for amateurs on salt water, we'll say.

GRAIN MARKET UNSETTLED—SHOWERS CHECK DAMAGE

Domestic grain markets became rather unsettled during the week ended July 24, and prices reacted slightly from high levels as showers in some central western states checked drouth damage to corn and threshing returns of spring grains showed better yields than had been expected, states the Weekly Grain Market Review of the U. S. Bureau of Agricultural Economics. Wheat declined 2c to 3c per bushel despite the sharp reduction in winter wheat marketings and a continued good milling inquiry. Prospects of an early movement of better quality of corn and oats with demand limited by recent price gains weakened the cash market for fed grains. Barley was down 5c or more per bushel with inquiry less urgent and with threshing showing larger yields than expected a short time ago. Rye prices moved slightly downward with wheat. Flax declined 5c to 6c per bushel reflecting a dull demand for oil and a less urgent inquiry for linseed meal.

Little change was apparent in prospects for spring wheat. Cutting and threshing was under way in the domestic spring wheat states and the crop was nearing maturity in Canada. Early samples from Minnesota and the Dakotas showed high protein content and test weights ranging from 52 to 58 lbs. Drouth and high temperatures persisted over the western grain belt although scattered showers gave slight relief. Crop damage was intensified and extended and a huge grain area has been irreparably damaged. Prospects are fair in eastern and central parts of Saskatchewan and northern districts of Alberta. Trade estimates place the North American spring wheat crop at 60,000,000 to 70,000,000 bushels under the 1935 output.

The world situation at the beginning of the new North American season appears considerably stronger than in any recent year. World stocks have been reduced to nearly normal levels and northern hemisphere harvests outside of Russia and China seem likely to be 75,000,000 to 80,000,000 bushels under those of a year ago with early indications suggesting a relatively high percentage of medium to lower grade wheat.

With apparent improvement in the general economic situation, trade and semi-official agencies forecast an appreciable expansion in the world wheat trade over that of the current year, when world shipments for the first time since before the war were below 500,000,000 bushels. Trade however, will continue to be influenced by national policies with imports held to a minimum.

Domestic cash wheat markets turned somewhat weaker despite a sharp drop in winter wheat marketings. Receipts of winter wheat at the principal terminals dropped to 9,567 cars with smaller arrivals reported at all points. The quality is generally satisfactory although shipments from northern Iowa and Nebraska were showing an increased proportion of light weight and shriveled wheat. Farm stocks at the first of July were about the same as last season but country mill and elevator stocks were about 8,000,000 bushels less and totaled 23,776,000 bushels.

The first cars of new spring wheat arrived at Minneapolis during the week and included two from Iowa, one from Minnesota and one each from North and South Dakota. The grain is uniformly high in protein and test weights ranged from 52 to 58 lbs. Present indications are that the spring wheat will test moderately higher than last year when the crop was badly shriveled by rust. Milling demand was fairly active but premiums were further reduced particularly on high protein lots. At the close of the week, No. 1 dark northern spring was quoted at Minneapolis at 7c to 21c over the September.

Durum prices were independently weak and declined 5c influenced by some slackening in mill demand as a result of recent liberal purchases of Canadian grains. Good milling types of No. 2 Amber Durum were quoted at Minneapolis at 18c to 27c over the Duluth September, which closed July 24 at $1.20½.

Canadian spring wheat markets declined about 1½¢ per bushel despite unfavorable crop conditions. The Canadian wheat board continued to offer liberally and No. 1 Manitoba northern was quoted at Winnipeg at the close of the week at 93½¢ per bushel. About 340,000 bushels of Canadian milling wheat arrived at Buffalo during the week.

Pacific northwest barley markets remained firm reflecting the strength in California and with a good local demand for the light market offerings. Trading continued in limited volume with only five carlots received at Portland during the week.

Inquiries from midwestern markets for malting barley from the Willamette valley and Klamath Falls districts were strengthening influences. Prices at the close of the week were slightly higher than a week ago, with No. 2 bright western barley testing 45 lbs. per bushel, quoted at Portland at $1.47½ per 100, sacked basis. Oats markets were unsettled with other grains but also reflected uncertainty regarding the new crop out-

Had Ruptured Appendix

Mack Cole of Leland was taken to St. Joseph's hospital Tuesday night suffering with a ruptured appendix. An operation was performed at once and the patient is doing as well as could be expected under the circumstances.

Considering how fine this railroad transportation is nowadays, you can't travel any cheaper. Fares lowest in history—substantial savings on round trip tickets. So why not take the train? It's safer. It's more dependable.

You can't beat the improved travel comfort in coaches and sleeping cars. It's a good thing movies don't have such restful seats—most folks would sure fall asleep.

Ever hear about the Free pick-up-and-delivery of less than carload freight? It's a great convenience to shippers and receivers alike. Western railroads pick up at the door, ship by fast freight, and deliver to consignee's door.

Railroad trains are running on faster schedules these days. Seems like the iron horse wants to show these new streamlined diesels that he can step out, too. Both passenger and freight schedules have been speeded up.

What's more, the railroads believe in "safety first." Last year not one passenger was killed in a train accident on western railroads.

Talk to your local railroad agent. He's full of information about traveling and shipping.

We are proud of railroad achievements, appreciate the public's good will and increased patronage, and pledge continued progress.

RAILROAD OFFICIAL PRAISES WEEKLY PAPERS
 Country weeklies as an advertising force in modern American life have no more ardent champion than Harry G. Taylor, chairman of the Western Railroads. In organizing the program of activities to promote more business, both passenger and freight, in the western area, Mr. Taylor carried out the unanimous resolution of the executives of the individual lines in placing the 6,063 weeklies on the list for Western Railroad advertising.

This advertising is a unique tribute to both the weekly and daily press, because of its exclusive concentration in a geographical area of the United States, extending all the way from the Great Lakes to the Pacific Coast and from the Canadian border to the Gulf of Mexico. The individual rail lines have been consistent users of the weekly newspapers, and what the association is doing in the current campaign is to supplement as a group the many campaigns conducted over a long period of years by the individual members.

In the use of the weekly newspapers, the advertising trade press has called attention to the fact that Mr. Taylor's understanding of the powerful influence of these publications originates through his own experience in that field. For four years, he was editor and publisher of the Plaindealer at Almena, Kan., and subsequently for ten years, he directed the affairs of the Nonpara-rail at Central City, Neb. The background of these human interest contacts was of inestimable value to him in public life while serving as a member of the Nebraska legislature and subsequently as chairman of the state railway commission. His fairness in this latter capacity led to his appointment in Washington as manager of the Public Relations Car Service Division of the American Railway Association.

In December, 1932, he was elected by the western group of railroads to serve as their chairman and commissioner.
 The group advertising activity on a large scale for the western railroads began in 1935. At that time a limited number of daily newspapers was used. When the decision was reached to renew the campaign in 1936, recognition was at once extended to the country weeklies so that both important phases in the newspaper field would be included in the 1936 program.

In discussing the progressive work of the western carriers for the current year, Chairman Taylor said:
 "During the business depression railroads suffered as much as any industry, more than some. Consequently they were forced to curtail advertising expenditures and concentrate what budgets were available in the centers where most shipping and passenger traffic originates.
 "I know, however, that the railroad executives, individually, have been desirous of increasing the allotments for advertising in the weekly newspapers along their lines, realizing that these papers and the people who read them are the closest neighbors of the railroads.
 "When the executives acting for the association decided to advertise in newspapers again this year, they authorized us to include the weeklies. This is in addition to their individual line advertising.
 "The decision to use the country weeklies is personally gratifying because of my former connection with that branch of the newspaper business."

First Local Melons
 So far as we have been able to learn, George Calvert of Juliaetta was the first to bring this season's crop of water melons to town—or, rather, a portion of it, for it is said that the crop of Juliaetta melons is going to be good—and of course the melons are always good.
 Anyway, among the first Mr. Calvert brought in were a few of the yellow meat variety—and were they delicious—Boy!

To Start Logging Operations

Clem Israel has secured the contract for logging off the Claud Stanton and Hugh Stanton timber claims, which are said to contain some of the finest timber to be found anywhere. The operation will move several million feet of timber, it is said.

Mr. Israel is now building a logging road to the claims and, it is understood, will soon begin the felling of timber.

Frost at Weippe and Pierce

According to a news dispatch from Weippe, the weatherman has reversed conditions in that section of the country, for on Thursday night of last week Weippe and Pierce were visited by Jack Frost and much damage was done to gardens and flowers. The coldest reached here at the same time was 44 above—only 12 degrees from the freezing point.
