ATTY. GENERAL TAYLOR WRITES OF STATE PROBLEMS

The public school fund, which has been declared to be a sacred trust, is of great importance to our public school system. The law provides that the money shall be loaned upon certain approved securities, the interest alone to be distributed to the various school districts throughout the state. Consequently it has a direct interest, not only for the taxpayers of the state, but to almost every family and particularly to every child of school age. The law provides definitely that if the principal or interest on loans made from this fund become due, they shall be collected. Thus the duty of the officers in charge is established. A report from the office of the Commissioner of Finance, however, shows that during the years 1931 to 1936 inclusive, under the administration of Governor Ross, the state "forgave," or cancelled, payments due on these school fund loans to the amount of $42,500.

This is only another illustration of the fact heretofore mentioned in these articles, that the state seldom gets an even break in its dealings. This sum belonged to the state. No officer, not even the legislature, can lawfully donate it. Yet it was donated to various individuals who, I suppose, properly appreciated it. The plea has been frequently put forth from those in authority that palpable violation of law should be condoned because it occurred during the depression. A possible answer is that the depression itself was the result of law violation—according to Senator Borah, at least. He blamed it directly upon the persistent violation of the financial regulations contained in the constitution.

The improper handling of the school funds did not begin with the depression but extends back for a good many years before the Hoover crash. We boast of our school systems and take pride in so conducting them as to furnish the best possible training that can be had for the children of Idaho. But the record of the handling of these funds is not a matter of pride for the people of this state. By reason of the donations made during the Ross administration, amounting to $42,500 as above mentioned, and other practices in the handling of the school funds, there was a deficit in these funds at the end of 1936 amounting to $1,500,000.

The law provides that the principal of the school fund shall forever be kept intact, and that in case of loss the state must make it good.

In other words, the state owes to the school fund the sum of $1,500,000 which will have to be raised by taxation—that is, unless the people through their representatives in the legislature, break faith with their children and refuse to restore the fund. They have a solemn pledge to keep, but it will take $1,500,000 to keep it. It would have been cheaper and better to conduct this fund strictly in accordance with law instead of allowing it to be dissipated.

It might not be improper to note at this time the effect of careless handling of school funds. In several states the school fund has disappeared. Other interests, and stronger, seem to have had more influence in the handling of these funds and have simply absorbed them. It would be well for Idaho to check up on the method of handling her school funds before the time arrives when there are no such funds to handle.

Counties Have Police Rights

Boise.—Attorney General J. W. Taylor has ruled "the constitution grants counties the power to enact local police regulations" to regulate beer dispensaries.

Taylor made the ruling in reply to a request from J. L. Balderston, law enforcement commissioner.

"If there exists in any of the counties local conditions so urgent of character as to warrant exercise of constitutional authority to enact local police regulations in fixing closing hours, or otherwise, such regulations may both be adopted and enforced," he wrote.

Balderston said he had "been in doubt" on the matter.

First Killing Frost

The first killing frost of this season hit Sunday night, October 31, leaving behind it a trail of blackened tomato, cucumber and melon vines. Roses and other flowers in sheltered spots were apparently unharmed. The mercury reached 28 above.

Issue Armistice Proclamations

President Roosevelt and Governor Barzilla W. Clark have issued Armistice Day proclamations in the approved stereotype form, setting aside Thursday, November 11, as a day to be observed in commemoration of the signing of the Armistice on November 11, 1918.

It is the custom of every president and governors of the 48 states to publish these proclamations—but this is old-fashioned and it is a wonder that such would have a place in the present day up-to-dateness.

ROAD SPEED LIMIT SET AT 50 MILES PER HOUR

Motor vehicle drivers exceeding 50 miles per hour will be prosecuted. This warning, coupled with the announcement that State Police officers are patrolling the highway is the information carried upon signs that are being placed along Idaho roads. There are expected to be about 200 signs put out on the heavily traveled highways before December 1 and in the early spring all the roads will be so posted.

The signs, with black letters upon a white background, read as follows:

Officers Patrolling Highway Drivers Exceeding Speed of 50 Miles Per Hour Will Be Prosecuted

Department of Public Works Department of Law Enforcement Commissioner J. L. Balderston of the Law Enforcement department announced that the state police have been instructed to "bear down" upon the drivers who fail to dim their lights. He said from the survey made upon many of the highways it has been found that 20 per cent of the drivers fail to dim their lights when meeting cars or pedestrians approaching from the opposite direction. These drivers will be stopped by a red light and siren of the state patrolmen.

As a result of the reduction of highway fatalities during the months of August and September, Balderston said that the state's percentage of increase in fatalities has dropped from 122 per cent to 40 per cent. It is hoped that with the continued cooperation of drivers that the 1937 total will be held down to less than 182 deaths, which was the total for 1936. The reports for the first eight months show that 39 persons have been killed in every 100,000 population, while 17 have been killed in each 100,000,000 vehicle miles and 24 killed in every 10,000,000 gallons of gasoline consumed.

Many Auto Fatalities

The number of deaths caused by automobile wrecks over the week-end reached a total of 177, Michigan leading with 16, New York and Ohio each had 15 deaths and California 14 and Pennsylvania 11. Deaths in other states ranged from one to nine. The largest "mass killing" was in Alabama, when an auto in which seven young people were riding plunged over a high embankment, killing all of them.

TWO JULIAETTA RESIDENTS PASS TO BEYOND

Mrs. Augusta Hain Mrs. Augusta Hain, a resident of Juliaetta since 1910, passed away at her home there on Saturday, October 30. She had been in poor health for some time and was taken seriously ill some two weeks before her death. She was aged 83 years, three months and five days.

Mrs. Augusta Hain, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Becht, was born July 26, 1854, in Germany. In her girlhood she went with her parents to south Russia. There she met and married August Hain. In 1879 they emigrated to America, going to Ritzville, Wash., where they took up a homestead. They also lived at Salem, Oregon, and Pomeroy, Wash. In 1910 they came to Juliaetta, where deceased has since made her home, her husband passing away in 1928. She was a devout member of Zion Lutheran church of Juliaetta, with which organization she had been affiliated for many years.

Funeral services were held from Zion church Monday morning at 10 o'clock, with Rev. E. E. Krebs, pastor of the church delivering the funeral sermon. The choir of the Cameron congregation furnished the music. Interment was made at Pomeroy. She is survived by one sister, Mrs. Fred Schulke, of Pomeroy, Wash.

Pallbearers were George, Dave, William, Thomas, Martin and Herman Dennler.

Ole Nelson

Ole Nelson, 85, died at the home of his son, C. T. Nelson, Juliaetta, where he had made his home for the past few years, on Sunday, Nov. 1, the infirmities of old age being the immediate cause of death.

Mr. Nelson was born December 24, 1852, in Norway. In 1872 he came to the United States and had spent the greater part of his time since at Moscow.

He is survived by three children, Mrs. G. A. Craig of Seattle; W. C. Nelson of Wheaton, Minn., and C. T. Nelson of Juliaetta; a brother, E. N. Rudd of Arizona; two sisters, Mrs. Christie Bakken of Moscow and Mrs. Mary Haggen of Minnesota, and six grandchildren.

Funeral services were held Wednesday at 2 p. m. at the Short chapel, Moscow, with the Rev. Arthur L. Swenson in charge. Interment was made in the Moscow cemetery beside his wife, who died in 1928.

Taxpayers Benefited?

According to figures sent out from Boise by the state liquor control board, the taxpayers of Latah county have "benefited" in the sum of $4,708.94 for the quarter ending September 30, 1937. This sum is a part of $27,784.63, the total amount which has been remitted to Latah county since the enactment of the liquor control act, and the Village of Kendrick has received the magnificent sum of $119.47. The public schools of the county have received a portion of the apportionment, but it would seem to the layman that the return is small for the amount of money paid into the liquor control board, which amount has been $1,389,488.00 since Idaho has gone into the liquor business.

Hunters Return

The hunting party composed of Harold Thomas, Lester Crocker and Lawrence Bartlett returned from the Selway country Saturday morning, bringing with them two elk and two deer. Doctor Christensen, a member of the party, returned Tuesday evening, bringing with him a deer, making the total kill two elk and three deer.

They reported a tough time coming out due to rain and fog, it taking them two hours to make four miles in one spot—but that is hunters' luck.

Mr. and Mrs. Claud Craig returned last week from a big game trip, bringing with them two elk and two deer. They report a very pleasant trip, rain falling on them only a part of one day.

Commits Murder and Suicide

At Norwalk, Iowa, a distracted mother killed five of her seven children and then committed suicide. Two of the children were attending a Halloween party and the mother said in a note she left for them that a lack of shells was all that saved their lives. The husband is in jail on a robbery charge.

INTERESTING NEWS BITS FROM OUR PUBLIC SCHOOL

The equipment for the boys' and girls' athletics has arrived. Included are Badminton, archery, paddle tennis and loop tennis.

Mr. Levi is using a contract system for grading in geometry. This method enables every student to contract for certain grades and the students must maintain grades equivalent to their contract if they are to receive them. This places the students on a plane according to his or her ability. A program similar to this is being considered for all students.

The Freshmen entertained the Sophomores at a costume party last Thursday evening. There were about 40 in attendance, all of whom dressed in very attractive and original costumes. Games were played, followed by dancing, music for which was furnished by Mrs. Thomas, Phyllis Thomas and Frank Rider. Refreshments were served at the close of the evening.

The Future Farmers held their initiation of new members last Wednesday evening. Ten boys took the "rough treatment" and became full-fledged members. The "aroma" of Limberger cheese lingered around the Ag. room for several days.

I Hope, I Hope, I Hope

By Donald Benschoter
I am not a poet,
And I know it teacher dear,
I know this work will show it,
But I do not have a fear.

I will polish up the apple,
And get it nice and bright,
Maybe when I get it finished,
You might give me a bite.
I hope, I hope, I hope!

This is the first of several poems which will appear in the school news. These poems are all written by the students and will be chosen according to rhyme, plot and originality.

The fifth and sixth grades chose sides and had a health contest. The sides were the "Shining Stars" and the "Lucky Thirteen." The Lucky Thirteen lost, so they gave the Shining Stars a party Friday night.

The third and fourth grades had a Halloween party in the music room last Friday. The fourth grade received a quarter-day holiday for being neither tardy nor absent.

To Maintain Road

Last Thursday Percy Marker and Louis Lunders received word of their appointment as maintenance men for this section of the country—a maintenance crew having been promised us some time ago.

The two men will have charge of the road from Kendrick to Arrow; Kendrick to the end of the new construction on Bear Ridge and also of Wauncher gulch. To date they have been working with a pick-up truck and shovels, but are to have a motor patrol, truck and possibly a tractor as their equipment. The headquarters will be located in Kendrick.

We indeed feel fortunate in having this crew here, as perhaps we will soon be able to get out of town in a car and still remain in the seat.

Columbia Be Returned To Channel

A report from the Grand Coulee and the Mason, Walsh, Atkinson, Kier Company, contractors for the big dam, indicates that the battle with the Columbia is about finished. About November 15, the great river will be returned to its original channel, from which it has been twisted for the last 11 months, by a series of restraining cofferdams.

When it is returned to its usual course, the water will be pouring over the lower portion of the concrete foundations which now span the 4,300 foot stretch on which the Grand Coulee Dam will rise.

Visiting At Ole Lien Home

Isaac Lien, son of Mr. and Mrs. Ole Lien and his son, Rodway, of Los Angeles, Calif., are visiting at the Ole Lien and Tom Long homes. He was called to Portland by the sudden, serious illness of his sister-in-law, Mrs. L. Horby, and with his son came on to visit here, while his wife remained at the bedside of her sister. His visit is an indeterminate one, depending on Mrs. Horby's condition. While here he will visit with other friends in this section.

Hallowe'en Quiet Here

The celebration of Hallowe'en in Kendrick was about as quiet and orderly as could reasonably be expected. Thus far we have not heard of a real act of vandalism, for which the boys of the community are to be commended. About the worst thing that happened was the "smearing" of practically all windows on Main street with tallow candles, but most of the windows needed washing anyway and no harm was done. We'll bet there are more clean windows up and down the street than there has been since last Hallowe'en.

M. E. Aid To Meet

The Ladies Aid of the M. E. church will meet this Friday afternoon with Mrs. Hiram Galloway. All ladies are cordially invited.

GRAIN MARKETS WEAK — PRICES MOSTLY LOWER

Grain markets turned somewhat weaker during the last week in October, influenced principally by a slow demand for wheat. Domestic prices dropped 2c to 3c per bushel despite advances at Liverpool. Improvement in winter wheat prospects, a slow milling inquiry and relatively small export sales, as a result of heavy Russian offerings and more favorable ocean freight on shipments of new southern hemisphere wheat, were the principal weakening influences. Oats were also lower with only a moderate inquiry. Barley was independently firm and advanced slightly as current offerings were readily taken.

The Winnipeg wheat market declined about 3/8c as local milling demand slackened and export takings fell off. No. 3 Manitoba northern was quoted at Winnipeg at the close of the week at $1.14 1/2 and No. 2 Canadian western durum at 92 1/2c per bushel.

Intermountain and Pacific Coast markets declined about the same as eastern markets, since milling inquiry was rather slow and takings by domestic buyers were not sufficient to maintain values. Denver mills were bidding 86c per bushel at the close of the week for No. 2 hard winter and No. 2 northern spring FOB Colorado country points. Mills at Ogden were bidding 64c for No. 2 soft and hard white and hard winter and 68c for No. 2 dark hard winter and northern spring FOB Utah-Idaho common points.

At Portland No. 1 hard white (Big Bend bluestem or baart) was quoted at 90 1/2c to 92 1/2c, dark hard winter at $1.00, soft white and western (Continued on Inside)

F. F. A. Banquet

The annual Future Farmers banquet was held in the Kendrick High School gym Wednesday evening, with some 150 persons in attendance, including the members of the F. F. A., their parents, and a few invited guests. The banquet was served by the girls of the Domestic Science class, and was not only well-handled, but was one that everyone enjoyed to the fullest extent. John Wallace, president of the local chapter of the F. F. A., acted as toastmaster and he carried the part through like an old-timer, introducing the speakers and the members of the local Ag. class in a very pleasing manner.

The Three Musketeers (Betty Boyd, Annabel Deobald and Mary Havens) sang three songs and gave a little dance, accompanied on the piano by Mrs. Harold Thomas.

Don Lyle, Agricultural instructor in the local school, made a few remarks in the subject of farming and "chicken raising," after which the following were called upon for short talks: Carl Howard, Professor of Agricultural Education, U. of I.; Bill Kramer, instructor in Ag. at the Moscow High school; W. W. Mitchell, Ag. instructor, Lapwai; Chas. Gess, president F. F. A., Moscow; and Mr. Armstrong, representing the Lapwai F. F. A.

Supt. J. M. Lyle, Jr., also made a few remarks of interest to all who have children in school and who are interested in school work.

It should be said that many of the parents of the boys residing in the country were present and this, too, was very gratifying, for even a town school cannot be made a success without the aid of the entire countryside, and it is to be hoped that they will always take an interest in what their children are doing in the Kendrick school.

Graveling Cut-Off Road

The Potlatch Highway District is graveling the cut-off between the Southwick and the Cameron-Leland road. The new gravel starts at the Geo. Wilken place and connects with the Cameron-Leland road, which will give a fully gravelled road from Leland to Kendrick, via Wauncher gulch.

The Potlatch Highway commissioners are to be commended on their enterprise, more especially because they are doing this work without outside assistance. Everyone in this entire section will duly appreciate this splendid piece of work.

Entertain Guests

Sunday guests of Mr. and Mrs. Harley Perryman were Mrs. O. V. Morey, Betty, Walt and Clarence Morey, Eula Huffman, Henry Galloway and Mr. and Mrs. Eddie Galloway.

Jane Withers at Theatre "Ginger" Jane Withers will again be in Kendrick, at the Kendrick Theatre this coming Friday and Saturday nights in "Angel's Holiday."

Warning! It's "Angel's" day off, which means trouble in the offing for the harum-scarum half-pint of dynamite will be seen in her rip-roaringest rampages. Michevious Jane, little sweetie-pie that she is, put the "holler" in holiday when she routes the riot squad with their own tear-gas and makes trouble as fast as she makes headlines when she turns detective—well, it must be seen to be appreciated. Robert Kent and Sally Blane carry the adult leads. There will also be a color picture of the crowning of King George of England, as well as other regular features.

white at 88 1/2c, hard winter at 91 1/2c and western red at 89 1/2c per bushel, all basis No. 1 grade, sacked. Wheat receipts at Puget Sound and Columbia river terminals totaled 655 cars. Milling demand was only moderate, since flour business was reported slow. California mills took small quantities of high protein wheat but rail movement to central western markets was small since bids from that area were below local values.

Export business, however, increased, with sales of around 500,000 bushels reported to the United Kingdom. At Seattle, western white was quoted Oct. 29, at 88c, western red at 89 1/2c, hard winter at 91c, hard white (heart) 90c per bushel.

California markets were slightly lower with milling inquiry only moderate and takings by feeders and feed manufacturers small because of low quotations on feed grains.

Pacific Coast oats markets held about steady with lack of selling pressure the principal sustaining influence in the general market situation, but with good demand for seed oats at country points a sustaining factor. No. 2 white oats were quoted at Portland Oct. 28 at $1.20 to $1.25 per 100, sacked basis, with No. 2 gray oats nominally quoted at $1.30 per 100.

Pacific Northwestern barley markets developed a slightly weaker tone, reflecting the somewhat less active demand for feeding barley and somewhat heavier offerings from growers. At the close of the week the market was barely steady with No. 2 bright western testing at 45 pounds, quoted at Portland at $1.35 to $1.37 1/2 per 100, sacked basis.

School Notes From Gold Hill

The Gold Hill pupils gave a Halloween program and party Friday night, Oct. 29, for their parents and friends. The program and decorations were planned and carried out by the pupils. All four short plays which they gave, were written by the pupils. Refreshments were served by the patrons and games enjoyed by all.

W. R. Johnston of Lewiston gave the pupils a treat Thursday morning when he brought Mark Baker of Chehalis, Wn., to visit them. Mr. Baker played several solos on the piano and then on the accordion. He also led the children in singing many popular songs.

The pupils have all enrolled for the Youth Bible crusade. Joyce Lyons, Lois Largent and Clarence Wilson and Lewis Hunt have already completed the required 25 verses in order to earn a New Testament. Even the first graders, Arthur Grayson and Alex Weaver have learned two verses. Nearly all the remaining pupils have learned at least 10 verses, which is the number required to earn a button.

Rev. Earl Gaskill was the speaker at the evening service last Sunday. The service was in the nature of a farewell, since Earl and Dollie left this week for Indiana, where they will continue their studies at Huntington College. Earl will continue his theological course, while Dollie intends to major in music.

Perfect attendance for October was recorded by Arthur Grayson, Alex Weaver, Theodore Johnson, Eileen Garner, Mildred Harris, Alfreda Bohn, Donald Kuykendall, Harry Harris, Elmer Wilson, Omie Weaver, Lella Grayson, Thelma Garner, Lois Largent, Joyce Lyons, Lewis Hunt, Clarence Wilson, Jake Riebold.

Pupils making a perfect average on one subject for the month were Lois Largent and Elmer Wilson.

Greatest improvement in studies for month, Harry Harris.

Greatest improvement in behavior for month, Joyce Lyons.

Best report card for the month, Arthur Grayson.
