Basketball Games

The Kendrick Tigers scored again when they defeated the Culdesac Rocketeers on the home floor last Friday. This made their eleventh consecutive victory. It also made them the only team in the Northern Idaho Division undefeated so far. High scorer for Culdesac was Whitney with 7 points and John Wallace and Frank Abrams tied for Kendrick with 5 points each. It was a fast game and was very well attended, the crowd being the largest of any at the games this year. Culdesac had most of the time until the last. The score for the first quarter was 2 to 2, Culdesac; 6 to 4 at the half in favor of Culdesac, and tied at the third quarter 10-10. During the last quarter Kendrick suddenly took the lead and won with a score of 17 to 11.

JOHN GEORGE DENNLER, FIX RIDGE PIONEER, PASSES

John George Dennler, was born June 6, 1841 in Alsace Lorraine, and departed from this life January 17, 1938, at the age of 96 years, six months and 11 days. He was united in marriage to Miss Katherine Walters in 1871. To this union four children were born. They came to America in 1891 and settled in Iowa. In the year 1900 they came to Juliaetta and settled on Fix Ridge, where he had since resided, with the exception of a few years of infirmity, spent on Potlatch ridge.

In infancy he was enrolled as a member of the Lutheran church by the Holy Right of baptism. In early youth he attended the religious school of the land and took the confirmation vows. In Iowa he took a leading part in organizing and maintaining a mission congregation, as he also did in Idaho. He was ever a loyal supporter of the Juliaetta Zion church. He was a special friend of his pastors, and remembered them generously. In the last years of failing health he was unable to take an active interest and part in the church work.

He was bereft of his first wife Feb. 7, 1905, after a lingering illness. In 1906 he was united in marriage to a widow, Mrs. Katherine Hedler (nee Nicklas) who passed away quite suddenly Oct. 10, 1908. Two of his children also preceded him from this life, his son, David, and daughter, Susan Giese. Survivors are his son, George, and daughter, Mrs. Magdalena ZumHofe; together with 25 grandchildren and 11 great-grandchildren.

The interment took place Wednesday, January 19, with the Rev. E. E. Krebs of the Lutheran church officiating. Pall bearers were six of his grandchildren. Interment was in the Fix Ridge cemetery.

We Wonder

A government market report says: "United States winter wheat crop prospects are now almost exactly the same as they were a year ago. Acreage is only a fraction of one per cent less and the December 1 condition was the same."

"This prospective 1938 winter wheat crop of 630,000,000 bushels plus an average spring wheat crop of 220,000,000 bushels would make a total 1938 wheat crop of 850,000,000 bushels. This is about the same as the 1937 crop of 874,000,000 bushels, and is about 200,000,000 bushels above domestic needs."

IDAHO IN SPLENDID FINANCIAL CONDITION

Idaho begins 1938 in an excellent financial condition as a result of the splendid showing during 1937. This information was embodied by Gov. Barzilla W. Clark in his message upon the first year of his administration.

In speaking of the great reduction of the state's indebtedness the Governor said:

"Seven years ago, our state indebtedness amounted to the enormous sum of $7,800,000; it was gradually reduced until one year ago it totalled only $2,234,000; during the past year it has been further reduced $811,000, so now our total state indebtedness is only $1,423,000. This means a corresponding reduction in our interest load. Our state treasurer, Mrs. Myrtle Enking, reports that she has more than $4,000,000 on hand, of which $1,500,000 is in government bonds which can be converted into cash at any time."

The Governor said the state endowment fund had been increased by $878,000 to bring the present total up to fifteen million dollars. An increase of $710,000 was noted in the income tax division the past year with the total receipts of $1,910,000.

"The highway department," the Governor said, "deals in big figures but they are not all dollars. Last year we oiled 276 miles of highway, graded and surfaced 155 miles, graded and drained 97 miles and laid nine miles of concrete pavement. Three overhead passes and three underpasses have been completed. In process of construction are one concrete bridge, two concrete overhead passes and one concrete underpass and 16 miles of graveling and surfacing, 47 miles of grading and draining and 14 miles of oiling. The work upon both complete and incomplete projects totals five million dollars for 1937."

Governor Clark, speaking of other departments, said: "I have been interested in the workings of the Department of Law Enforcement month by month, and I feel that they have made truly a remarkable record." He quoted figures upon the receipts of the motor registrations as being $2,300,000 for motor vehicles for 1937 as compared to $2,000,000 in 1936. Receipts for driver's licenses for two years previous to July 1, 1937, was $131,000 but in the last six months of the year the driver's license receipts amounted to $126,000 or nearly as much for six months as during two years. Gasoline tax this year amounted to $4,535,000, an increase of $437,000 (11 per cent) over last year.

After reviewing the work of the other departments and commenting upon the division of the state funds, the Governor said: "But to wind up the year with a reduced state indebtedness of $811,000, a surplus of $420,000 in the highway department, an increase in the state endowment fund of $298,000 and more than $4,000,000 in the state treasury is something to make us feel good."

Beer Case Still Unsettled

The case of the Latah county commissioners against Grant Robbins, Moscow beer vendor, for allegedly selling beer on Sunday against a county order and ordinance, is still being fought in the courts. Robbins claims to have both a state and city license to sell beer and that the county commissioners have no right to interfere, while the commissioners claim they have the right to grant or refuse a county license, for cause, and that Mr. Robbins has no right to sell within the county without such a license.

The general public of Latah county is awaiting the final decision for it will undoubtedly settle the question of whether the commissioners have the right to ban Sunday beer sales within the county.

Pinochle Club

Miss Jean Graham and Don Lyle entertained the Pinochle club Tuesday evening in the home of Mr. and Mrs. Ira Havens. A dainty dessert was served by the host and hostess, after which pinochle was played.

High scores for the evening were awarded Mrs. L. Lunders and A. O. Kanikkeberg, while low went to Rilla Davidson and Clifford Davidson.

Invited guests were Mr. and Mrs. O. E. Havens, Rilla Davidson and Henry Emery.

HERMAN KOEPP DIES AT CALIFORNIA HOME

Herman Koopp, a former resident of the Leland section for some 23 years, but of recent years a resident of Hayward, Calif., passed away at his home in the latter city on January 9, aged 72 years.

Mr. Koopp was born in Germany, September 13, 1866. He came to America at the age of 15 years. In the year 1899 he was married to Lena Waller at Helena, Montana, and in 1903 he came to Leland, where he had made his home until 11 years ago, when he went to Hayward, Calif., to live. He was a loving father and husband and a good neighbor and friend.

He leaves to mourn their loss, besides his widow, Lena Koopp, ten children: Mrs. Emma Gibson, Mrs. Bertha Kuykendall, Mrs. Helen Daugherty, Mrs. Marie Kuykendall, Adaline, Henry, William, August, Herman and Ernest Koopp. All of his children were at his bedside when the end came with the exception of Marie and Henry, who had made him a visit earlier in the winter. He also leaves 16 grandchildren and one great-grandson; six sisters and one brother.

Funeral services were held in the Lutheran church at Hayward, on January 12, the sermon being delivered by Rev. Walter Luebkehan, with burial in Mt. Eden cemetery. "In The Garden" and "Wonderful Words of Life" were sung by Mrs. William Shelton. "Dearest Daddy, thou hast left us And our hearts for you do pine, But we know in heaven we'll meet you When on this earth we've served our time."

Smith-Hughes Librarianship Course

Boise.—A vocational course offering training in librarianship is to be added to the roster of subjects now available to the citizens of Idaho under the Smith-Hughes vocational program.

Tentative dates for the course, to be given in Boise, have been set from January 15 to April 15. A graduate librarian will conduct the courses in cataloging, reference work and book buying, circulation and care of books.

In a letter to the librarians of the state, announcing the course, Miss Lalla Beford, state librarian, pointed out that the library school offers incumbent librarians and their untrained assistants an opportunity to improve the quality of their work and to insure the future of their positions. "It would also be unfair and unwise to enact laws requiring the certification of librarians in Idaho without first extending to them an opportunity, not too expensive nor too lengthy, to give them a minimum of certification requirements."

To date several librarians have announced their intention of attending the school, their library boards having granted them leaves of absence and an allowance toward expenses while in Boise. These expenses will consist mostly of board and room because there is no enrollment fee for this course. Those wishing to enroll may communicate with Miss Beford at the State Traveling Library in Boise for further particulars.

Relief Clients To Eat Apples

The Federal Surplus Commodities corporation has spent approximately $300,000 to purchase more than 15 per cent of Idaho's 1937 apple crop, A. W. McDonald, purchasing agent, said.

The corporation purchased 559 cars of fresh apples and the equivalent in dried apples of 200 cars of fresh apples, all to be distributed to relief clients.

Indian Choir Here

Very interesting services were held Sunday evening in the Presbyterian church when Vivian Pervis, the Indian Missionary from Lapwai delivered the sermon, and the Indian choir from Spaulding and Lapwai furnished the special music, singing both in Nez Perce and English.

Undergoes Major Operation

Mrs. John Darby of Crescent underwent a major operation on Tuesday at St. Joseph's hospital, Lewiston, being taken there on Monday.

At last reports Mrs. Darby was getting along as well as could be expected.

Eyes Right

Eyes right are healthy eyes. Healthy eyes show correct vision, natural or corrected, by skillfully and properly fitted lenses.

Special attention is being paid to eye defects in the schools this year and an attempt made to secure an examination and correction wherever necessary.

Lighting is being studied and adjustment and changes made wherever possible. Vision conservation and its relation to posture is a point to be considered in relation to school health and one of its very important aspects.

P. T. A. HOLDS INTERESTING MEETING MONDAY EVENING

The Kendrick P. T. A. held one of the most interesting meetings of the season Monday night in the High School auditorium.

A short business meeting was held in which it was decided the P. T. A. would use part of its finances to buy 10 steel chairs to be used in the school. The program committee reported plans were underway for some kind of an entertainment that would raise the P. T. A. funds to the place where it would enable them to secure a slide for the play ground. This has been the objective for the year and it is hoped by the end of the school year it can be accomplished.

A very interesting program followed in which Mrs. Lyle, Miss Reiman and Mrs. McCreary gave short talks on the adolescent and their problems. Mrs. Ramey read a very interesting article on "Responsibilities for Children," after which Mrs. Thompson held a round-table discussion of "Anger in Children," with Mrs. Kanikkeberg and Mrs. E. A. Deobald giving interesting illustrations.

Harold Thomas, accompanied by Mrs. Thomas at the piano, led the group in a song-fest, which was enjoyed by all.

The meeting then adjourned to the D. S. room, where refreshments were served by the hospitality committee.

Pinochle Party

The home of Mr. and Mrs. Ira Havens was the scene of a very delightful pinochle party on Thursday evening of last week, with Mr. and Mrs. Ira Havens and Mr. and Mrs. O. E. Havens hosts and hostesses for the evening.

Dessert was served, after which pinochle was played by the guests, who were: Mr. and Mrs. Walt Benscoter, Mr. and Mrs. F. B. Benscoter, Mr. and Mrs. Pete Benscoter, Mr. and Mrs. Carroll Cox, Mr. and Mrs. Andrew Cox, Mr. and Mrs. John Woody, Mr. and Mrs. George Davidson, Rilla Davidson, Miss Jean Graham, Miss Elma Jones, Douglas Hunter, Peck; Ben Hussman, Coulee Dam, Herman Hussman, Cottonwood; Miss Marie Havens, Mr. and Mrs. Wade Keene, Grandma Keene, Mr. and Mrs. Nora Callison, Mr. and Mrs. E. P. Roberts.

High score for the ladies was won by Mrs. Carroll Cox; for the men by E. P. Roberts. Low score for the ladies to Mrs. Walt Benscoter, and low for the men to Ben Hussman.

Painting And Kalsomining

Considerable paint and kalsomine has been spread about town in the past two weeks.

Starting at the old Carlson Hardware building, the new Kendrick Electric Company has thoroughly repainted, kalsomined and improved the building.

The Kendrick Garage office has undergone a complete rejuvenation. New paint, new kalsomine, and an improvement in office fixtures.

The woodwork in the Gazette office has been completely repainted, a new celotex ceiling installed and the appearance greatly improved.

Birthday Ball

Large two-color posters are visible about town reminding everyone of the President's Birthday Ball to be held in the Kendrick Gymnasium on Friday night, January 28. This is a benefit dance to help stamp out infantile paralysis. It is a worthy cause and merits the support of all.

A dollar or two from each individual who can afford it may be the means of preventing some child from living the life of a helpless cripple.

Confined To Bed

L. J. Herres has been confined to his home the past week by illness.

WHEAT MARKET FIRMER DUE TO LACK OF RAINFALL

Domestic wheat markets were independently firm during the week ending January 14, states the Weekly Grain Market Review of the U. S. Bureau of Agricultural Economics. With threatened damage to the crop from lack of moisture the principal strengthening influence. Feed grain on the other hand, turned weaker as offerings increased materially following recent price gains.

Wheat prices advanced 2c to 3c per bushel in domestic markets during the second week in January despite sharply increased marketings of winter wheat and moderate offerings of spring wheat. Insufficient subsoil moisture both in the winter wheat and spring wheat areas with severe dust storms during the week in western Kansas and adjoining areas, threatening serious crop damage was principally responsible for the market firmness. December precipitation was below normal in a large area of the great plains and several states in the upper Missouri valley. Nebraska averaged only 42 per cent of the monthly normal rainfall in December and only 27 per cent in November. The Kansas average for December was 62 per cent of normal.

Stocks of wheat on farms at the first of January were somewhat smaller than average but well above last season and totaled 208,745,000 bushels. Market stocks totaled 94,520,000 bushels, giving a total supply in these positions of 303,265,000 bushels, compared with only 190,680,000 bushels at the corresponding date last year. Data is not yet available for country mill and elevator merchant mill stocks. Disappearance of wheat from farms during the first six months this season totaled approximately 687,000,000 bushels, compared with slightly less than 543,000,000 bushels during the first six months last season.

Market receipts of winter wheat increased to 1,810 cars at the principal terminals compared with only 839 cars for the corresponding week a year ago. Export inquiry slackened as the market advanced and milling demand was particularly active. Shipments on previous export sales continued heavy from Kansas City and market stocks decreased more than a million bushels. At the close of the week No. 2 hard winter was quoted at $1.04 to $1.06. The Fort Worth market was firm with demand quite active. No. 1 hard winter was quoted at $1.19 to $1.20 and bushel, delivered Texas common points. Premiums on cash wheat held about unchanged at Chicago and cash prices advanced with futures with No. 2 hard winter quoted at $1.02 to $1.05 and No. 2 soft red winter at 98c to $1.01 per bushel. Milling inquiry continued active at St. Louis and despite fairly heavy receipts, No. 2 hard advanced to $1.06 and No. 2 soft red winter to $1.04 per bushel.

Intermountain and Pacific Coast markets strengthened following principally the advance at eastern markets. At the close of the week Denver mills were bidding 91c per bushel for No. 2 hard white and No. 2 northern spring FOB Colorado common points. Mills at Ogden were offering 75c per bushel for No. 2 soft white, northern spring and hard winter, and 74c per bushel for No. 2 hard white FOB Colorado and Utah common points.

Marketings of spring wheat were only moderate with a total of 401 cars received at Minneapolis and 85 cars at Duluth. Local milling demand was fairly active and this was supplemented by inquiry from Canadian mills for some of the better milling types. Premiums held firm with No. 1 dark northern quoted at $1.18 to $1.26.

Pacific Northwestern barley markets were slightly firmer for both feeding and malting types. Light offerings from growers and strength in other grains were the principal strengthening influences in the local situation. No. 2 bright western barley at Portland was slightly higher than a week ago at $1.40 per 100, sacked basis.

Oats markets fluctuated within relatively narrow ranges with slight declines in the middlewest in sympathy with other feed grains largely offsetting the firm situation in the Pacific Northwest. The Northwestern markets held firm, influenced by the light offerings from growers. No. 2 white oats were quoted at Portland January 13 at $1.27½ per 100 and No. 2 gray oats nominal at $1.37½ per 100, sacked basis.

INTERESTING NEWS NOTES
FROM OUR PUBLIC SCHOOL

Ethel Fraser, Leon Lind, Rex Blewett.

Grades as a whole, for the semester, were good. A checkup has been made of all the classes in high school to determine what will be needed for the respective members in order to be ready for graduation when their time comes. There will be a list published soon of the Seniors who expect to graduate this spring.

The new course offered this semester is Commercial Law, and is being taught by Mr. Levi. There are about ten in the class, which is offered as an elective for some and as a requirement for some needing extra credit for graduation. Aside from this there were no changes in the classes for the new semester.

The students in the high school honored Mr. Emery with a gift on Tuesday, in honor of his birthday. The grade and high school teachers also presented him with a gift in honor of the occasion.

The Physics class expects to complete the unit on "heat" within the next week and will then start on "magnetism."

"Trail Dust" at Theatre

Few lovers of the real western but who know about Hopalong Cassidy pictures. Well, there will be a real one at the Kendrick Theatre this coming Friday and Saturday night called "Trail Dust," in which "Hoppy," Johnny and "Windy," the three leading figures in the Cassidy series will be seen at their routin', shootin' best. The story is laid in the cattle country, of course, and there is thrills, comedy and romance enough to suit everyone.

The second feature of the double bill is "Hotel Haywire." This is a rip-roaring comedy, and will serve to round out the evening's entertainment.

It is occupying the last vacant building in town—and so Kendrick goes one step further forward. We want to congratulate them and to wish them ever success in their new venture. Every business makes the town that much better place in which to spend your cream check. Just you bring the cream to us. We'll furnish the check. What do you say? Fair, isn't it?

Wife: "No, I didn't sew a button on your pants. I was too tired. Which is the most important, anyhow, your wife or your pants?"

Hubby: "Well, there's places I can go without a wife."

She: "I haven't heard a squeak out of you since we started dancing."

He: "Oh, I'm pretty well oiled."

Joe: "Say, dad, is a bald eagle a special variety?"

Dad: "I can't say postively, but I imagine a bald eagle is simply a married one!"
