Miss Edith Roberts and Jesse... married in Lewiston the... week. Mr. White had...
from overseas. Mrs...
daughter of Mr. and...
Roberts of American...
Bigham and son Walter...
Seattle last Saturday... but lately returned from...
expects to return to...
a few weeks and then...
time for the harvest...
work has begun on the...
Methodist church building. A... excavating for the...
contractors expect to...
work within 60 days...
Setts returned from...
May 29th. He was a mem...
Michigan and Wis... division. He served five...
army of occupation...
Rognstad of Big Bear...
Friday from...
one of the first...
vicinity, leav...
Wright in December of...
69th Bal...
France, and has been...
service.

Mr. and Mrs. O. V. Morey have...
letter from their son...
stating that he was sick...
his company sailed for...
and that he would be kept in...
until he had fully re...
pictures in the school...
James W. Dayton of Massachu... offers the following explan...
of the wide spread popular...
silver screen: "Motion pic...
interest of children...
and old folks alike. They add act...
to the teaching and...
help to put it across."

Educators tell us that between...
80 and 90 per cent of what we...
learn through sight. This only...
goes to show that a well-established...
visual program is a forward step in...
educational work.

Good pictures pick out the out... standing features of various sub... jects and present them in a vivid... way to the audience. They add...
humor and human interest to school...

Return From Honeymoon...
Mr. and Mrs. Marvin Long re... turned from their honeymoon last...
Monday morning, and Marvin is... again at his post, and receiving...
congratulations from everyone...
His bride, nee Miss Martha Low... ery, of Pullman, has been Cloth...
Specialist in the extension depart... ment of Washington State College...
for some time, and of which insti... tution, she is a graduate.

Mr. and Mrs. Long will make...
their home in the upstairs apart... ment of Mrs. N. B. Long's home... which has recently been remode...
and redecorated.

Everyone joins in welcoming Mrs...
Long into our community, and in...
best wishes.

Magpie Contest Still On

Marvin Long, in charge of the...
Magpie contest this year, urges all...
the boys participating to hurry and...
bring in the heads of these pests...
So far, the total is well below...
the number brought in last year...
and the pests were again plentiful...
So come on boys, get busy, reme... mber, cash awaits you upon the...
delivery of the heads to Long's...
store.

The contest will close soon. An... other small donation of cash has...
been received and this may extend...
the closing date beyond June 15—...
but you had better hurry.

ALL-DAY SERVICE HELD AT AMERICAN RIDGE CHURCH

An all-day service was held at...
the American Ridge church on Sun... day, May 28, with Rev. Gray preach... ing a very fine Memorial sermon at...
10:00 a. m.

After the sermon a number of...
hymns were sung, and then short... but very interesting talks given by...
the following people: Rev. C. D. B... ell of Moscow; Mrs. John Roberts... of Spokane; Billie Chaney of Troy...
George Davidson, C. W. Jessup, John...
L. Woody, Mrs. Bell, Mrs. Walter...
Q. Taylor, Miss Joy Bell, Clarence...
Dougharty, Miss Lois Woody, Mrs...
Georgia (Bell) Bennet.

They took us back to the time...
long ago, before the churches were...
built up to present day needs, and...
loyal to the churches, and more...
earnest in our worship; to live...
lives worth while, so that when we...
turn back the pages of life, as did...
the older speakers, we will have...
precious memories of time well... spent.

At the noon hour a delicious... basket dinner was enjoyed by all...
At 2:00 p. m. Rev. Bell delivered... a very pleasing sermon. He was our...
minister when the church was built...
Other visitors attended the meet... ing from Joel, Genesee, Troy, Bethel...
Jullaetta and Kendrick, and the...
hearty good will and desire of all...
to join with us in worship are much...
to be appreciated. It seemed almost...
like a day from the long-ago to...
see everyone at the church that... morning. We all wish that we...
might have more such days.

We appreciate the work Rev. Gray... and his wife did to help us. Let...
us call it our church, for we all...
have had a part in the renovation...
Mr. Jessup deserves much credit... for he was always on hand to do...
what he could to make it a success...
—Mrs. Clarence Dougharty.

No Road News

No really definite information is... available as yet as to just when...
the road contract from Arrow to...
Jullaetta is to be let, and many...
are expressing doubts that it will...
be let, as latest information, al... though indirect, is to the effect... that the State is not satisfied with...
the right-of-way situation, it seem...
ing that not all is yet provided... through the Indian lands, or has...
not been properly title-cleared.

It begins to look to residents of...
this section as if we are not to...
have any road, since contracts are...
sections — but not with us.

The local survey crew is being...
transferred this week to a job...
between Jay-Pee and Headquarters... a rush job that will take them...
six weeks to two months, and this...
transfer, even though temporary... inclines the local residents all...
the more to the belief that the...
Potlatch canyon road has again...
been sidetracked.

Crippled Deer Seen

Several residents of Kendrick... among them C. S. Westendahl, who... reported the incident, last Sunday... morning saw a white tail deer...
come out from behind the Lewiston...
Grain Growers warehouse in the...
east part of town, cross the railro... ad track, and calmly start up the...
middle of the road toward the James...
Keeler home. Jim has a little fl... dog, who saw the deer and ran...
it out of town. The deer is cri... ppled, evidently having been shot...
late last fall or early this spr... ing, but even at that, was able to...
take care of itself.

It has been reported that many...
of them spent the winter close to...
town, and undoubtedly will be...

We understand that it cost more...
to make the new motion picture...
"Union Pacific," than it did to...
build the railroad of the same name.

COMINGS AND GOINGS OF SOUTHWICK RESIDENTS

Nine Schoeffler and Jimmy Rob... erts of Kamiah were callers in the...
Harl Whiting home Sunday even... ing.

Mrs. Herman Travis is staying at...

can strawberries.

Several from Southwick attend... ed the Bridge dedication and open... ing in Lewiston Friday.

Miss Odetta and Donna Jean Betts... spent Saturday and Sunday visit... ing their mother in Clarkston.

The Southwick ball team won the... game from Weippe Sunday by a... score of 9-8. Gifford will play here... next Sunday.

Mr. and Mrs. Tom Armitage ate... a picnic dinner with Mr. and Mrs...
Mick Armitage and the other Weippe... folks on the school grounds Sunday.

Mr. and Mrs. Ray Whiting were...
Sunday evening and Monday visit... ors in the Ralph Richardson and...
E. M. Richardson homes on Fix... ridge.

Mrs. T. C. King visited in the...
John Stalaker home Sunday after... noon.

Mrs. Glen Daggett and daughter... of Lenore visited her parents, Mr... and Mrs. Wm. Henderson, Sunday.

DOINGS OF LELAND FRIENDS AND NEIGHBORS

Mrs. Alex Larsen spent the week... end in Lewiston with her son, Paul... who was operated on Saturday for... appendicitis. At last report he was...
getting along nicely.

B. E. Lotsplech returned to his... home in Portland Monday, having... spent the past few weeks visit... ing his daughter, Mrs. Julia Fles... hman, and other relatives.

Mr. and Mrs. J. L. Glen, Mrs...
Burkhead and her sister, from...
Boise, called on Mrs. A. G. Peters...
Thursday afternoon.

Mr. and Mrs. Archie May went... to Clarkston Monday and brought...
Mrs. Angus Fry and little son to... the home of Mrs. Fry's daughter...
Mrs. Daymond Schneider, for an...
indefinite stay.

Mr. and Mrs. Wm. Brooks of...
Spokane spent the week-end visit... ing at the home of Mr. and Mrs...
Marvin Vincent.

Visitors at the home of Mr. and...
Mrs. Gordon Peters were Mrs. Joe...
Piper, Mrs. Herman Johnson, Mrs...
Arnold and daughter Frances, Mrs...
Weyer-Weyen, Mrs. Roy Craig, Mrs...
Robert Draper and Mrs. Cole.

Miss Louise Boone of Jullaetta... is staying at the home of Mr. and...
Mrs. B. F. Fleschman, doing the...
housework.

Chas. Larson is in Spokane at...
the home of his daughter, Mrs. An... na Hartinger, receiving medical...
treatment.

Mr. and Mrs. James Helton from... southern Idaho were Monday even... ing dinner guests of Mr. and Mrs...
Marvin Vincent.

Mrs. Harry Smith and Mrs. Ber... tha Percel visited Mrs. Leonard...
Wolff Friday afternoon.

Mrs. Wm. Clem and son, Jr., of...
Lewiston, are visiting at the home...
of Mr. and Mrs. Enoch Harrison.

Mr. and Mrs. Cecil Wycoff and... daughter Rosa and Mrs. Henry Pe... ters of Spokane were guests in the... home of Mr. and Mrs. A. G. Peters... from Sunday until Tuesday.

Chester Vincent took his grand... parents, Mr. and Mrs. R. J. Hos... kins, to their home in Asotin Mon... day.

Mr. and Mrs. Wm. Brooks were...
Friday evening dinner guests of...
Mrs. Leonard Wolff.

Killed Rattlesnake In Town

An unknown transient, but one...
who evidently knows his stuff, killed...
a fine big rattlesnake in the road...
just below the Keene and Crocker... homes in the east part of town...
The snake carried nine rattles and...
a button.

On Monday morning Wade Keene... found a small dead rattler near...
the Grain Growers warehouse, ev... idently killed by a transient and...
lying there. The small snakes are...
even more deadly than the big ones...
and much more dangerous, due to...
greater liveliness. It is always...
a good idea to keep watch these days.

THIS AND THAT ABOUT FRIENDS AT CAMERON

Among those who attended the... opening of the bridge at Lewiston...
Friday were Mr. and Mrs. Otto...
Schoeffler, Mr. and Mrs. F. W...
Silflow and Ida, Mr. and Mrs. A...
F. Wegner and family, Mrs. Ida...
Silflow, Mrs. Walter Koepf, Miss...
Helen Mielke and Mrs. F. W. New... man and family.

Mr. and Mrs. W. C. Mielke and... son Jack were Sunday dinner guest... s of Mr. and Mrs. Fred Mielke.

Mr. and Mrs. Gus Kruger and... daughters were Lewiston visitors... on Monday.

Mrs. Fred Mielke, Miss Helen...
Mielke and Mrs. F. W. Newman and...
Helen, Harry and Wally, called on...
Mrs. Walter Denner on Fix ridge...
Tuesday afternoon.

Those who motored to Pullman... on Sunday to celebrate Robert We...
gner's birthday anniversary were...
Mr. and Mrs. F. W. Silflow and... family, Mr. and Mrs. Otto Silflow... and family, Mr. and Mrs. Henry We...
ndt and daughters, Mr. and Mrs...
Gus Kruger and daughters, Mr. and...
Mrs. Walter Silflow and family, M... rs. Ida Silflow, Paul Silflow and...
Carl Kruger.

George Wilken and son Kenneth...

DOMESTIC GRAIN MARKETS REMAIN QUITE FIRM

Domestic grain markets remained... independently firm during the week... ending May 26, states the U. S...
Bureau of Agricultural Economics... in the Weekly Grain Market Review...
Wheat advanced 3c to 4c per bush... el despite practically no change in...
foreign markets. Further deterio... ration in the winter wheat crop...
and the announcement of an incre... ase in the federal loan rates, were...
the principal strengthening influ... ences. Feed grains were mostly higher... with good inquiry for the moderate...
market receipts.

While domestic wheat markets...
continued to strengthen, little change...
occurred in the general wheat situ... ation. The market influence of the...
unfavorable prospects in the United...
States winter wheat area and poor... seeding conditions in Argentina were...
about offset by the generally favor... able progress of European crops and...
adian and Argentine grain. Benefic... ial rains over much of the spring...
wheat area in the United States...
and in the Canadian prairie provin... ces improved spring wheat pros...
high temperatures in western por... tions of Kansas, Oklahoma and Tex... as caused further deterioration in...
winter wheat.

Prospects in Europe remained... generally satisfactory. Conditions... in Germany on the acreage remain... ing for harvest are about average...
The warmer weather improved the...
condition of wheat in France but...
the crop is still backward. Weather... clear during the week in Italy but...
indications were that excessive...
rains had done considerable damage...
to the crop.

A semi-official report from Ru... mania placed 1939 production at...
about 40 million bushels under the...
1938 harvest. Prospects gener... ally throughout the Balkan coun... tries are reported satisfactory fol... lowing recent rains.

Seeding conditions remained... unsatisfactory in the southern hem... isphere. Lack of rain delayed se... eding in several Australian states...
while excessive moisture retarded...
planting in parts of New South...
Wales. Inability of Argentine far... mers to seed the fall wheat crop...
because of extreme drought now...
prevailing in the western part of...
Buenos Aires, the territory of La...
Pampa and in southern Cordova... may result in a substantial reduc... tion in the wheat acreage in that...
region according to a report re... ceived by the foreign agricultural... service. About one-third of the...
total wheat acreage of Argentina...
is usually located in the present...
dry area.

Present estimates of the 1939... wheat acreage suggests some de... crease in the world wheat area... this year. In the 22 northern hem... isphere countries reporting, the...
area is about seven per cent below...
the comparable figure for last year...
The estimated acreage for harvest...
in the United States is 21 per cent... smaller than the 1938 harvested... area and the increase indicated for...
Canada is very small. European... estimates show a slight increase... but no account has been taken of...
losses from frost damage and other... adverse factors. The most marked... increase in this year's acreage... has occurred in North Africa.

Domestic cash wheat markets...
advanced with futures and premi... ums held firm. An important stre... ngthening influence was the annou... ncement of the new Federal loan... rates on wheat which ranged from...
3c to 13c per bushel over those of...
1938. The new loan rates on the...
leading classes of wheat at term... inal markets were as follows: No...
. 2 hard winter at Kansas City...
77c; Omaha, 76c; Chicago and...
St. Louis, 80c; No. 1 soft white... western white, hard winter and...
northern spring at Portland or...
Seattle, 73c. The 1939 rates... represent between 75 and 80 per... cent of the average price received...
by farmers for their wheat during...
the past ten years, or between 54...
and 56 per cent of parity, accord... ing to the Commodity Credit corp... oration. Rates at country points... are now being computed and will...
soon be available to County Agr... cultural Conservation offices.

Marketings of winter wheat...
dropped off materially but receipts...
at spring wheat terminals and in...
the Pacific Northwest remained... fairly large. Mills were the prin... cipal buyers and competed activ...
ly for high quality grain and as...
a result, cash prices were firm...
Export trade was

THUMB NAILS OF IDAHO HISTORY

By Glenn Balch

Potlatch Creek
The reminiscences of "Uncle" Tom Beall, who lived for many years at Lewiston, contain information both interesting and amusing concerning Potlatch creek, a northern Idaho stream, whose early fame rested largely on the fact that it presented an annoying water hazard for the travelers enroute to the Clearwater gold regions.

The Indians called the stream Yaka creek, which is translated as meaning Black Bear creek. The name Potlatch resulted from an incident which at this distance has a humorous aspect. An Indian by the name of Shucklatumma Hi Hi, which Uncle Tom translated as White Owl, conceived the idea of going into business with his cayuse pony at the place where creek-crossing traffic was heavy enough to offer possibilities. Foot travelers were ferried across at a stipulated fare of 25c per head—high water or low.

A hefty Irishman, whose name is not recorded, arrived one day and, after surveying the turbulent water, engaged passage. White Owl got the Irishman on the pony behind him, then clucked the animal into the water. Near midstream the pony stumbled and the Irishman fell off. The current swept him toward the Clearwater. Desperately White Owl lashed his pony along side, crying, "Potlatch (give) quarter! Potlatch quarter! Then drown if you want to." It would be safe to assume that the Irishman neither "Potlatched" a quarter nor drowned. Likely White Owl eventually had to flee for his life. But regardless of the termination of the incident, the creek had acquired a name which is familiar to the ears of all Idaho residents today.

Uncle Tom himself later went into the ferry business at that point with a boat, toll $1.50 and horses had to swim. A sizeable party arrived one day and asked the price. The leader refused to pay it and Tom told him, "There's the creek; help yourself."

A young man was sent up stream to a place that appeared fordable, but when he rode into the water his horse stumbled, caught a foot in the bridle and almost drowned them both.

Declaring that he did not want to have to bury anyone, Tom offered to reduce the toll from $17.50 to $15.00. After some grumbling this was agreed. Tom had everything across and was swimming the horses when two Indians came along, went forty or fifty yards below and waded across, getting wet only to the knees.

"What do you call this creek?" the leader sputtered angrily.
"Potlatch creek," Tom, the $15.00 safe in his pocket, answered cheerfully.

"I know better," the man retorted; "It's Robbers' creek!"
Potlatch, however, is the one that stuck.

The Mullan Road

Few thoroughfares in this nation represent the courage, hardship, privation and labor that went into the building of the old Mullan Road. It is an epic of early day road building in the Northwest.

Shortly after 1850 the United States government arrived at the conclusion that the Northwest might prove of economic importance other than for its dwindling fur harvests. Word had come back from the Oregon country that the land was good and wagon-train after wagon-train of emigrants was disappearing into the golden haze of the sunset.

A survey of the situation revealed that the crying need was for military transportation, a fast route suitable for heavy cargo of men and guns. The Missouri river route was feasible west to Fort Benton. From the Pacific the Columbia was navigable to Wallula. It was decided that a road connecting these two heads of navigation would solve the problem.

Survey of the route was started in 1855 by a party under Isaac I. Stevens. Lieutenant John Mullan was a member of this party. The project lullid until 1858, then work was started with the same John Mullan in charge. Mullan's mission was to build the fastest and easiest road through the cursed barrier of mountain wilderness.

The route cut what is now northern Idaho through the valley of the Coeur d'Alene, where an Indian mission was already established. It went, first, around the southern end of Coeur d'Alene lake, but later was re-routed around the northern end.

Building this road proved a herculean task. One hundred and twenty miles had to be hacked through the dense forests. There were 30 miles of tedious dirt and rock excavation. Miles of swamp and bog had to be corduroyed with logs. Large appropriations were needed from a congress absorbed in a civil war.

It is possible, even probable, that the project would eventually have been abandoned except for an unforeseen occurrence which served to center the nation's attention upon the very area through which the most difficult part of construction lay. Gold was discovered! And the Union needed gold. Captain Mullan found groups of civilian gold-seekers clamoring for right-of-way over his road before it was finished.

"Thus, working like beavers," he said in his report of 1863, "have the mines and emigrants crossed and recrossed the mountains during the last three years, ramifying in every direction until they have opened a gold region which today is sending our mints a wealth equal to that of all California in her palmist days."
The importance of the project multiplied over night. Good yellow gold from the west made congress liberal. The Mullan road was pushed with all possible speed, and in September, 1862, Captain Mullan announced its completion. It was 624 miles in length and cost $230,000. It was the Northwest's principal artery of transportation for nearly a score of years.

Several Marine Vacancies

Several vacancies for the enlistment of qualified young men in the United States Marine Corps will exist on January 1, 1939, according to word received here from the officer in charge of the Marine Recruiting Service, room 433, Federal Office Building, Seattle, Wash.

The Marine corps today is offering ambitious young men advantages and opportunities never offered before. Many schools for the furthering of education in a field of over 200 selected subjects is offered in addition to schools in which men may better equip themselves for duty in their selected line of work in the service. Athletics are encouraged to a marked degree and ample time is given each individual to participate in any form of sport he may like.

The outstanding feature of the Marine Corps is retirement, at a substantial life, offered after either years of service. Travel and adventure in all parts of the world await young men interested in enlisting in the military organization of our country and in this respects the tour of duty with the Marine Corps should be overestimated.

Men who are interested in enlisting for full detailed instruction or communicate directly with the Officer in Charge, Marine Recruiting Station, Room 433, Office Building, Seattle, Wash.

LINDEN NOTES

Mrs. E. L. Mitchell of Fort Peck, Mont., arrived Thursday to visit her sister and brother, Miss Eva and George Smith.

Miss Mildred Kite closed a very successful term of school Thursday.
A community dinner was served at noon in the cookhouse adjoining the schoolhouse. In the afternoon an "Amateur Hour" program was put on by the students, which was enjoyed by all present. Miss Kite received a number of lovely gifts, among which was a friendship quilt with the name of each of her pupils worked on the blocks. It was set together and quilted by the ladies of the neighborhood. The good wishes of the community follow her in her new school the coming year.

Mrs. Clem Israel and daughters
Miss Aletha and Miss Nellie, spent Sunday evening in the Smith home.
Mr. and Mrs. Dan Lyons and a friend from Spokane, and Mrs.
Longfellow visited at the Frank Lyons home Sunday.

The ridge was well represented at the dedication of the Lewiston-Clarkston bridge Friday.

Mrs. Lester Weaver was very pleasantly surprised Sunday when twenty of her friends and neighbors came with well-filled baskets to help celebrate her birthday anniversary. A jolly good time was had by all.

Mr. and Mrs. Fred Magee left Saturday for a visit in Canada.

Comes For Birthday Anniversary
Mrs. A. J. Mau, Oakland, Calif., arrived Friday for a visit with her father, A. C. Deeter and wife, and to be present on his birthday anniversary.

Mrs. Mau comes every two years for this occasion. Mr. Deeter will be 82 years old on Monday, June 5.

son called in the Abner Corkill home Wednesday evening.

Mrs. Paul Hall called on Mrs. R.
E. Woody Friday afternoon.

Dbble and Peggy Stump have been visiting the past week in South-wick.

Nearly all the families of this community were well represented in Lewiston for the Bridge Dedication ceremonies, either Friday or Saturday.

Mr. and Mrs. Fred Glenn and daughters visited Sunday in the Walter Cochran home near Jullaetta.

family and Mr. and Mrs. Harold Parks and family were Sunday dinner guests in the Hugh Parks home.

Alvin Weichman and Oney Walker took their cattle to the hills Monday.

PERSONAL MENTION

Patty and Carol Flaig of Clarkston are visiting at the home of their grandparents, Mr. and Mrs. George Leth.

Mr. and Mrs. B. F. Nesbit drove to Avon Tuesday, where they were joined by his sister and her husband from Spokane. They were all guests of James Nesbit, brother of Mr. Nesbit.

Mrs. J. H. Kaylor, Sr., of Peck, spent Tuesday visiting at the L. J.
Herres home. She made the trip over with Mr. and Mrs. J. H. Kaylor, Jr., who went on to American ridge for the day.

Mr. and Mrs. Kester Dammarell were over from Craigmont Sunday for a short visit at the Edgar Dam-marell home. They were accompanied by Mrs. E. H. Dammarell of Walla Walla, who returned to Craigmont with them.

Lots Of Light Travelers

Every freight that pulls into Kendrick these days is loaded down with "knights of the road," "bums" or most anything else a wanderer might be called. Many of these men are stopping off here, and housewives are warned that some of them are dangerous. Do not feed them, but send them to Edgar Long, marshal, where they may secure a meal ticket
for honest labor.

Among The Sick

Word received just before going to press is to the effect that Mrs.
L. J. Herres, who has been seriously ill, is greatly improved, and will soon be up and about.

J. F. Brown, who has also been seriously ill, is said to be still in that condition, and owing to his advanced age but slight hopes are held for his recovery.

Pioneer Association Picnic

The Pioneer Association of Latah county and adjacent Washington, will hold their annual pioneer picnic on June 15, at the Moscow City park, the program to begin at 10
a. m.

All are invited to attend.
L. G. Peterson is president of the group and Clara Ransom Davis is secretary.

"Sky Giant"

If you are inclined to be air-minded, the picture to be shown at the Kendrick Theatre this coming Friday and Saturday nights will give you a chance to see how flying is really done—zooming from unexplored altitudes of thrilldom comes "Sky Giant." Here is a picture spun from the furious throb of whirling propellers—of love and hate and high courage, and the men who trade a girl's caress for deadly danger. Here's the screen's most power-packed of the heroes who blaze
the air trails of the future.

Ask the neighbor who borrows this paper, why he doesn't subscribe for the Kendrick Gazette.

DOINGS OF KENDRICK
FRIENDS AND NEIGHBORS

Miss Marie Baker from Enterprise, Oregon, arrived in Kendrick last Friday for an extended visit with her grandparents, Mr. and Mrs.
Fred Crocker.

Tuesday in Moscow and Pullman visiting Tom and Maxine Keene.

Mr. and Mrs. Wm. Watts and son Bob spent Tuesday in Pullman visiting Mr. and Mrs. Byrad Davidson.
O. E. Havens left Tuesday for Spokane and Newport on business.

Quite a large representation from here witnessed the bridge dedication in Lewiston Friday and Saturday.
Mr. and Mrs. E. L. Olson and baby from Moscow spent Tuesday visiting the latter's brother and family, Mr. and Mrs. Roy Jump.

Mrs. John Roberts of Spokane came Monday to spend the week visiting in the Wade Keene home,
and with other friends.

Mr. and Mrs. J. M. Lyle, Jr., spent the week-end in Lewiston with Dr. and Mrs. J. M. Lyle.

Louis Lunders and family were Sunday dinner guests at the Pete Benscoter home on American ridge.

Mr. and Mrs. Clarence Fry and family, Mr. and Mrs. Glen Wegner and baby, Mrs. Rose Farrington and Mrs. Elizabeth Keeler were dinner guests Tuesday of Mrs. Lois Fry at Gold Hill.

negligible but exports during the third week in May totaled nearly 1,500,000 bushels and brought the season's total to 75,645,000 bushels, or about the same as for the corresponding period last year. Expor-sales of flour in the Pacific Northwest were moderate and payments on export flour held unchanged at $1.00 per barrel to the Philippines, $1.25 per barrel to China and $1.20 per barrel to other area. The wheat flour export program was amended so as to extend to October 31, 1939, the final date on which flour sold for export may be shipped. The original provisions of the program, however, under which the exporter must sell his flour for export not later than June 20, 1939, continue in effect.

Pacific Northwest barley markets developed further strength during the past week and prices at Portland advanced 2 1/2c per 100 during the period. On May 25, No. 2 bright western barley weighing 45 pounds was quoted at Portland at $1.32 1/2 per 100, sacked basis. Receipts of only three cars at Portland and four cars at Seattle for the week reflected the very light trading and movement.

Oats markets in the Pacific Northwest were firm and higher for the week. On May 25, No. 2 white oats weighing 35 pounds were quoted at Portland at $1.45 per 100, sacked, or 5c higher than a week ago. Eight cars of oats were received at Portland and two cars at Seattle during the period.

The poet who wrote that "old things are the best" evidently wasn't thinking about the old accounts on the newspaper editor's books.

DEBT NOT A DEBT?

There is no doubt about it, the British character has its peculiarities. When England's war secretary, Leslie Hore-Belisha, revealed to parliament that the government was paying royalties to Germany on gun patents formerly held by Czechoslovakia, a Laborite opposition member asked whether, by continuing the payments, Britain was not increasing Germany's financial strength.

"That may be so," said Hore-Belisha, "but it is not customary for this country to repudiate payments which have been legally contracted." To which another Laborite shouted: "What a bout America?"
In the unemotional words of the Associated Press, "there was no answer."

Great Britain contracted for American loans and credits in the World War amounting to $5,341,707, 369. When this debt was funded it was scaled down to $4,368,000,000.
Of this sum the British have paid
the United States $2,024,000,000.
So there is a British war debt balance of about $2,243,000,000 still owed to this country.

It may not be Britain's custom, as Hore-Belisha asserts, to repudiate debts legally contracted. But for several years the British have failed to make even token payments on their debt to us.

It would be heartening to Americans if England, which seems to have no trouble raising funds for armament, gave as much consideration to the United States, a presumed friend, as she gives to Germany, a potential enemy.—Philadelphia Inquirer.

EDITORIAL

Well, Folks—For the past five weeks we've been taking up a lot of space telling you about the merits of our butter, cream, ice cream, milk, storage boxes, etc., so this week we've decided to just fill our paper up with jokes with the hope that you'll remember us with a can of cream after reading them.

She: "I'm afraid to go into that dark room."

He: "But dearest, I'm with you."

She: "That's the trouble!"

Poetic Youth (looking out of apartment window): "Ah, eve draws on."

Prosaic Fried (rushing to his side): "Eve who—and what's she drawing on?"

And what about the dumb private who thought a maneuver was what you put on grass to make it grow.

First Waiter: "There Mr. Blow-buff has left his umbrella again! I believe he'd leave his head if it wasn't fastened on."

2nd Waiter: "Like as not, I heard him say that he was going back to Baden-Baden this summer for his liver and kidneys."

The old-fashioned girl blushed when she was ashamed. The modern one is ashamed when she blushes.

WANT FARMERS TO HELP BY GIVING YIELD FIGURES

Farmers will benefit greatly by helping the Latah county agricultural conservation association obtain complete, accurate crop yield figures, Paul Carlson, chairman, said this week.

"We want farmers to get credit for every bushel of wheat they raise. Because of the national scope of the program and incomplete data available, it will be necessary for some time, at least, to adjust all figures to conform with predetermined average. However, the more complete the figures we do obtain, the fairer averages we can set up, both for individual farms and for the county as a whole," Carlson said.

"Yield figures we now have over the state are relatively good. We are interested in improving them with evidence supplied by farmers through warehouse receipts, actual farm records, or other facts."

"Correct yield figures give farmers fairer loss costs for crop insurance. If we can develop improved data, it is quite likely that such figures will be used as factors in setting 1940 allotments under the conservation program."

Carlson said some of the figures which go to make up the statewide averages represent the best estimates available. Oftentimes, over-conservativeness on the part of the farmers has penalized growers when crop insurance premiums and coverage and allotments were set up.

"Therefore, we must have good evidence on which to make adjustments," Carlson said.
