Old-Timer Visits Kendrick
Mr. and Mrs. Bert Black of Wilder, Idaho, were Kendrick visitors on Saturday of last week and in speaking of the coming Pioneer picnic Mr. Black said he thought he could probably qualify for some one of the souvenirs that will be given to the old-timers in attendance. He said he was born in 1882 on a farm between Cameron and Cavendish, and at that time they got their mail at Genesee when they got any. He said he was the second white child born in this section.
Mr. and Mrs. Black were visitors in the Claud Craig home, and with other relatives. They left for their home on Tuesday.

PIONEER 'HOMECOMING' PICNIC, JULY 9, HOLDS 'SPOT'
On Sunday, July 9, comes the Kendrick Pioneer 'Homecoming' Picnic, the highlight of the year's events, and the first of these to be held 'at home' for many years. This is an annual event for pioneers and Potlatch residents, but Pullman, Spokane, Coeur d'Alene and other cities have been doing the honors. This year, however, the former residents and present ones decided that the old home town was the spot—and July 9 the date.
Below we list as nearly as possible, the program of the day.
Pioneer services will be held in the Community Church from 10:00 a. m. until 11:00 a. m.
11:00 a. m. to 1:00 p. m., visiting.
1:00 p. m. to 7 p. m., picnic dinner in the Kendrick City park. Free ice cold lemonade, free hot coffee and free hot Potlatch baked beans will be furnished to supplement your lunch.
At 3:00 p. m. the program of the day will start with Ramsey Walker as the speaker of the day. Musical numbers will also form a part of the program. Also, during this time, a drawing will be held for a beautiful hand-made traveling kit, presented by the John Hamley Co., Pendleton, whose founder, John Hamley, now deceased, was a true pioneer of the Kendrick section, his old place of business having stood where the park now is.
Also, during the course of the program, the Souvenir Awards for the day will be presented to Pioneers.
For those who prefer sports to the program, a baseball game will take place between the Kendrick (Potlatch) aggregation, and Erb's Bengals, on the Juliaetta diamond at 2:00 p. m.
For those who wish to attend the program and then see a ball game, a red-hot soft-ball game is on the schedule on the Kendrick diamond at 5:00 p. m., admission free, the game being between Blewett's Grocery and the Bean Growers.
For visiting pioneers, who wish to see sections of the country, rather than follow a definite program, transportation will be furnished to desired points. Contact W. A. Watts, chairman of the reception committee, if you desire this service.
On display, throughout the entire day, will be a collection of old photographs of pioneer days and families.
Also on display throughout the day, will be the collection of old guns and other pioneer relics assembled by Harold Thomas. This collection can easily be said to be one of the finest in the entire northwest, and it is well worth inspection. It will undoubtedly bring back to many thoughts of the real fighting days of the pioneers.
The committee in charge wishes to make it clear that they do not desire anyone to feel that they must adhere to this program. This day belongs to the Pioneers, their wish shall rule.

Fourth Beautiful Day
The Fourth of July, in Kendrick, was as fine a day as anyone could wish, although reports came in of heavy rainstorms elsewhere.
It seemed that the town would be completely deserted during the day, but by noon quite a number of cars were in town, and the City park was the scene of many picnic parties.
During the morning ears were rent by an almost continuous series of firecracker explosions, but by a little after noon the supply in the hands of the youngsters seemed to have been expended.
During the evening the streets were well lined with cars and the picture show well attended.

MARKETS SLIGHTLY FIRMER FEED GRAINS CONTINUE WEAK
Wheat markets turned slightly firmer during the last week in June and regained a part of the previous week's decline, according to the Weekly Grain Market Review of the Agricultural Marketing Service. Feed grains, on the other hand, remained weak with new crops making favorable progress as a result of ample moisture and moderately warm weather. Delayed harvesting of winter wheat and light offerings and firmness at Liverpool were the principal strengthening influences in the wheat market.
Crop developments and the strained political situation in Europe and the Orient were dominant features in the general wheat situation during the week. Abundant rainfall throughout the most of the United States and Canada improved prospects for spring wheat but delayed harvesting of the United States winter wheat crop. Some lodging and shattering of uncut grain was reported in northern Oklahoma and some bleaching and shattering in eastern portions of Kansas. Harvesting was from 50 to 75 per cent completed in southern Kansas but was only well started in the northern part of the state. The spring wheat crop continued to make favorable progress as a result of the June rains but the grasshoppers were still a menace in large areas of North Dakota and Montana and some irreparable damage from the April and early May drought was in evidence in some sections.
An analysis of the wheat samples from the pre-harvest wheat survey in central and east central and southwestern Kansas showed average quality with 65 per cent of the samples ranging in test weight from 56 to 62 pounds per bushel and the remainder down to 50 pounds. In protein count, 78 per cent of the samples fell within the range of 10 to 12.75 per cent.
Spring wheat in the Prairie provinces of Canada benefited from further general rains which provided abundant moisture in most sections. Moisture conditions were reported the best in 11 years, being 89 per cent of normal in Manitoba, 125 per cent in Saskatchewan and 15 per cent in Alberta. Grasshopper damage was checked by the rainfall and damage has been placed at about 4 1/2 per cent against 8 per cent at the corresponding date last year.
Cash markets strengthened along with futures with smaller offerings an important influence. A new percentage of the arrivals of new winter wheat went directly to mills on previous purchases or into storage, ear-marked for Federal loans. Mills competed for the small spot offerings and premiums were firm.
Foreign wheat markets were slightly firmer. The Winnipeg market advanced over 1c per bushel, influenced by strength at Liverpool where a somewhat improved demand as a result of the unsettled political situation, was a strengthening factor. Prices advanced somewhat from the new lows reached in the week under pressure of Argentine offerings and heavy stocks afloat. Wheat on ocean passage increased to nearly 48 millions bushels. At the close of the week, No. 3 Canadian Manitoba northern from Atlantic ports was quoted at Liverpool at 65 1/2c; Australian wheat afloat at 62c; Argentine Rosaf at 57 1/2c and French wheat at 52c per bushel.
Pacific Northwestern cash wheat markets were mostly 1/2c per bushel higher than a week ago, with the exception of hard white (baart) which declined 1 1/2c per bushel. Cash wheat prices at Portland on June 30 were: soft white 73c, western white 72 1/2c, western red 71 1/2c, hard red winter 70c per bushel, all basis No. 1 grade, in bulk.
Indemnity payments on flour for export remained unchanged at $1.15 to the Philippines, $1.20 general from Pacific Coast ports and $1.25 per barrel to China, with the present plan expiring at midnight, June 30.
Wheat receipts at Puget Sound and Columbia river terminals during the past week were moderate at 759 cars. There were no export sales of wheat from this area reported during the past seven days. Flour export sales to the Philippines and Orient, however, were reported as fair. Domestic flour business was reported dull. Mills were fairly good buyers of cash wheat, mostly for special requirements, and market receipts were being readily absorbed. Wheat millfeeds markets remained

BIG GAME WILL HAVE PLENTY OF SALT IN 1939
Boise.—Idaho's big game animals are going to get enough salt this year. The largest salting program for big game ever undertaken by the State Fish and Game department is under way. Harold R. Harvey, director of the department said this week.
Approximately 88 tons of sulphurized-iodized blocks of salt weighing 50 pounds each will be distributed in all sections of big game regions in the state.
"The salt is being delivered into big game regions by truck and pack strings and will be distributed under the direction of district game wardens through the cooperation of the forest service and sportsmen's clubs," Harvey said.
"The Fish and Game commission has made a complete study of previous salt planting programs and decided the salt could be planted in areas where it will do the most good by pack-string rather than by airplanes, and if a large salting program is carried out, big game this fall should be in a much better condition than last year."
Fourteen tons of block salt will be distributed in District 1, 27 in district 2; 20 tons in District 3, and 15 tons in District 4. Twelve additional tons—carried over from last year—will be placed in the Coeur d'Alene and Boyd Cook areas.
Sportsmen's club throughout the state have been asked to cooperate with the State Fish and Game department in drafting a stream stocking program, Adolph R. Roth, biologist for the department, announced.
Each sportsmen's organization will recommend a planting program for its vicinity and these suggestions will be incorporated in the department's general stocking plants, Roth said.
Roth said the egg-take was exceptionally fine this year because of the early spring, a big run, larger fish and more eggs taken from each fish.
The Eastern Brook trout run will begin in August and September.

Blame Depression
Prof. J. Fred Rippey of the University of Chicago is having trouble grading the paper of a certain Freshman in his political science class. In reply to the machinery for amending the Constitution this student replied: "The American Constitution is amended by a process called the depression." Prof. Rippey doesn't know whether to make this zero or 100.

Body Is Recovered
The body of William I. Talo, a graduate of W. S. C., at the June commencement, who dove into the Clearwater river at a point above Myrtle, June 25, was recovered some two miles from where he had made his fatal dive. Mr. Talo and Tom Keene were room mates at Pullman during part of the last term.
We think the WPA is overlooking a bet by not starting classes in horse-shoe pitching. Or has it?

Family Reunion

Those present being Mr. and Mrs. Harry Ruddel of Myrtle, Mr. and Mrs. Milford Blewett and family, Myrtle, Mr. and Mrs. Pierce Blewett, Culdesac, Mrs. Arla Coffland and Arlene of Culdesac, Mrs. Hollis Dunham, Culdesac, Mr. and Mrs. Ralph White of Culdesac, Mr. and Mrs. Ben Cook and family of Genesee, Mr. and Mrs. Kenneth Luduff, Genesee, Miss June Blewett, Lewiston, Rex and Aaron Blewett.

Local Business Sold
A deal was consummated on Saturday, July 1, when the J. F. Brown building and equipment was sold to R. Johnson of Craigmont, who will take charge August 1.
It is presumed that Mr. Johnson will continue its operation as a garage and service station, although he could not be reached for a statement.

Among the Sick and Injured
B. N. Emmett, who has been quite ill for some time, suffered a relapse Tuesday, and was taken to a Colfax hospital Tuesday evening. At last reports his condition is still serious.
Mrs. N. B. Long, who is suffering with a broken leg, is getting along as well as could be expected.
Bert Biddison, who is also confined in the Veteran's Hospital at Walla Walla, and who underwent a major operation some two weeks ago, is making satisfactory progress.
Mrs. L. J. Herres, who was taken to Sacred Heart hospital, Spokane, more than two weeks ago, is making satisfactory progress. She has left the hospital and is at the home of her daughter and son-in-law, Mr. and Mrs. Jack Johnston.
Latest reports from the Veterans' Hospital at Walla Walla are to the effect that John Heath is getting along very nicely and may be expected home the last of this week.

Baseball Game Sunday
The Kendrick baseball team will swing into action again, Sunday, July 9, when they meet Erb's Bengals on the Juliaetta grounds, in one game of a play-off series. If we lose, the season will be over for us, but if we win we march on, meeting teams from the Prairie division until a winner has been declared. A single defeat eliminates a team from this point on.
Kendrick has won one game and lost one with Erb's this season.

The world knows Chevrolet passenger cars and trucks are first in value, and that's why the world has placed them first in sales!

Important to every motor car buyer is the fact that Chevrolet, first in passenger car sales, is also first in motor truck sales, because truck buyers select the trucks that pay the greatest returns.

The same qualities that distinguish Chevrolet trucks exist in equal degree in Chevrolet passenger cars. You may choose your Chevrolet solely for its beauty, comfort, or performance—but you will get in addition that all-important extra value.

steady to firm compared with early in the period. Northwest wheat crop prospects were generally reported as favorable during the period.

Pacific Northwestern barley markets developed a weaker tone, principally in adjustment toward a new crop basis and prices at Portland declined 7½c per 100 during the week. On June 29, No. 2 bright western barley weighing 45 pounds was quoted at $1.22½ per 100, sacked basis. Very light trading and movement in Northwestern markets was reflected in receipts of only one car of barley each at Portland and Seattle. Trade reports indicated that some contracts have been made at Portland for feeding types of barley for July-August delivery at $1.15 per 100, sacked, delivered Portland, for No. 2 bright western. The barley market tone in the northwest was rather weak at the close with light demand and very limited trading.

Oats markets in the Pacific Northwest also declined about 7½c per 100 during the past week, principally in adjustment toward a new crop basis. No. 2 white oats were quoted at Portland June 29, at $1.37 per 100, sacked basis, for 38-pound quality. No. 2 gray oats remained nominal. Very light trading and movement in northwestern markets was reflected in the receipt of five cars of oats at Portland during the period and two cars at Seattle.

"Corrugated" Egg

Noria Callison brought to the Gazette Office Wednesday evening one of the biggest freaks in the egg line that it has ever been our privilege to see. The outside of this egg is corrugated similar to the corrugations in a tin roof.

After considerable questioning Noria admitted he had a corrugated tin roof on his machine shed, and we strongly suspect that this is the cause of the "corrugated" egg, since environment is said by some psychologists to exert a strong pre-natal influence.

Be that as it may, this egg is as big a freak in its way as the two-toned "belted" one brought in some time back by Chas. Keeler, who claimed changing egg mash was the cause of his freak egg.

Seems like both of them show the "pre-natal influence."

Both freaks are on display at the Gazette office.

Hurt By Firecracker

Max Dammarell, young son of Mr. and Mrs. Edgar Dammarell, was quite painfully but not seriously burned near his left eye July 4th, when a firecracker exploded unexpectedly near his face. He is recovering nicely.

Lowell Mason Injured

Lowell Mason, superintendent of schools, suffered a painful injury to the little finger of his left hand Wednesday evening while playing softball on the local diamond.

Mr. Mason was playing third base, when he stopped a "sizzler", receiving a deep and painful split little finger as a result.

"Jesse James" Be In Kendrick
There are few people, young or old, who have not heard of Jesse James and his outlaw gang, who terrorized Missouri, parts of Kansas and Oklahoma (then the Indian Territory) during and immediately following the Civil War. His exploits and career have been put in technicolor, showing the life and times of the most colorful outlaw who ever lived. This will be seen at the Kendrick Theatre this coming Friday and Saturday nights. The story depicts in thrilling terms the man who invented train robberies and bank hold-ups, and does not neglect his romance with the lovely girl who sacrificed a life of comfort to share his wild and reckless life.
Tyron Power has the title role, sharing stellar honors with Henry Fonda, Nancy Kelly and Randolph
Scott.

Why Become A Farmer

1. The farmer has more and better food to eat than most city people, and in times of depression he is more certain of a living if he can just keep from slipping a mortgage on the old homestead.

2. The farmer has better health than city men and lives longer—about five years longer, according to a recent study of a well-known life insurance company.

3. The farmer accumulates more property than the average city person. The average amount of property owned by the city person is an automobile.

4. The farmer is more likely to enjoy his work than most city people.
Most city work is monotonous—tending like a machine in a factory operating a typewriter, standing behind a counter in a retail store hour after hour.

5. The farmer is more likely to rear a family and do his part to promote the welfare of the nation and the race. The family is becoming smaller and weaker in the cities.
Only two-thirds enough children are being born in our large cities to maintain our population permanently.

Living conditions and the philosophy of life in the cities tend toward extinction. The rural philosophy of life with its recognition of the family as the fundamental economic, as well as social institution, tends toward survival. The rural philosophy of life is eternal—derived from the experience of the race down through the ages.

A civilization to be permanent must be based primarily on Agriculture, or some other culture in which the family is the economic unit.—Contributed.

Daily Vacation Bible School

Monday morning, July 10, begins a two weeks' Vacation Bible school at the Full Gospel church, in Kendrick. All grade school children are urged to attend from 9 a. m. to 12:00 noon, Mondays through Fridays.

We are privileged this year to have with us two outstanding out-of-town teachers, the Misses Phyllis Elvy of Lewiston and Eve Hale of Moscow, in charge of the school.

Miss Elvy is experienced in public school teaching and Vacation Bible school work. Miss Hale brings with her an accordion and many songs and choruses the children love.

The school will climax with a program, Friday, July 21, at 8 p. m.
Parents are urged to take advantage of this essential phase of their children's education.

Baseball's Birthplace Dedicated

Celebration of baseball's centennial, which began officially this week—will focus attention of tourists in the East on Cooperstown, N. Y., where America's national sport was originated by Abner Doubleday. A new Baseball Hall of Fame, housing mementos of the sport's greatest figures, is open to tourists in Cooperstown. In the photo, William Beattie, curator, is showing a bat with which Babe Ruth made 27 home runs to two town boys and Miss Bernice King, of Detroit, who stopped en route to the World's Fair. The boys are Joseph Sapienta (left) and Eugene Meyer.

EDITORIAL

Well, folks—The Glorious 4th has come and gone — some are wiser, some are happier, some are sadder, and all of us are a day older. Lots of firecrackers were exploded, lots of pinwheels and roman candles used, lots of lives thrown away, and lots of fish caught. However, in the United States, we didn't have to worry about a fleet of enemy bombing planes furnishing the celebration for us as they did in jittery Europe. To we people, the 4th was a day of rejoicing, to them another day of wondering, when, where and why.

However, now that the 4th is over, pocketbooks will need replenishing — do it with cream checks — the year a-round income! Bring the cream to us — we do the rest.

Young wife: "Bill, I want you to go around to the minister and arrange for having the baby christened."

Bill (shipyard worker): "You mean to say you are going to let somebody hit that little thing over the head with a bottle?"

An average American is a man who works hard all winter to fill his home with comforts and conveniences, and spends his summers in trailers, tourist cabins, fishing boats and mountain shacks getting along nicely without the comforts and conveniences.

IDAHO AUTO DEATH RATE DECREASING, SAYS BUREAU

Idaho motorists will end the first six months of the year with less fatalities than for several years past, according to reports received at the office of the Safety Bureau, department of law enforcement.

Fifty-six persons have been killed on highways of the state during the first half of the year, compared with 64 last year and 79 for 1937.

This decrease is the more gratifying since the total of accidents reported have increased 20 per cent over last year and nearly doubled over the year 1937. Unfortunately, these figures do not reflect true conditions for the reason that there are some law enforcement officers who fail or refuse to report traffic accidents to this office, says D. F. Banks, director of the department of law enforcement.

Figures for June are not complete and it is possible the hot weather, always adding to the danger in driving, coupled with the hurry to get away for the Fourth of July trip will increase the accident toll for the month.

TEAKEAN GOSSIP

This morning (Monday) we are getting a good rain. Those who are not through haying were not pleased and it isn't good for the strawberries, but otherwise it is very welcome.

They rang a telephone alarm and several cars were soon there, but they had dashed a couple of pails of water on the blaze and had it out before help arrived.

Mrs. Ellen Coe's Bible School students gave a nice program last Friday night at the church.

A picnic dinner was served Sunday at the Wm. Groseclose home in honor of Mr. and Mrs. Carroll Groseclose's first wedding anniversary, and for Joyce Garrison's 14th birthday anniversary. One cake had 14 candles, the other had one.

We wish to make a correction in last week's items. It should have read: Mrs. Leslie Garrison visiting at her parents home, instead of Mrs. Lillie Garrison.

Michael's Grass Has Possibilities
Of unusual interest is the new variety of grass developed by Professor Michaels at the University of Idaho. This grass is a cross between the perennial rye grass and Mosida wheat. It is a perennial grass and offers rare possibilities as a forage crop for this community. This grass is being grown on Big Bear ridge and can be seen in the seed plot being conducted by the Kendrick Future Farmers on the Oscar Slind place.
