"Our Leading Citizen"

Every movie fan has heard Bob Burns over the radio, elucidating his homely philosophy and telling about his relatives "down in Van Buren, Tom Sturdevant, Kendrick, and Arkansas, and most have seen him in pictures, but in "Our Leading Citizen" Bob is at his best when he plays the part of a small-town lawyer. He not only tries to settle things in a legal way, but when ft becomes necessary he uses the good Mr. and Mrs. Jim Cuddy have troubles should be taken into court, and Bob shows Charles Bickford, a member of the cast who takes is-Mrs. Jake Grinolds has been visit- sue with Bob when he is not in to be a great show.

GOOD ELECTRIC SERVICE DOESN'T JUST HAPPEN

A flick of the switch, and you have efficient electric service instantly! Simple, isn't it? BUT IT DOESN'T JUST HAPPEN!

Trained employees....loyal to their jobs and with a background of years of experience....thousands of miles of poles and wire....millions of dollars in equipment....constant research....ALL of this is necessary to bring to you GOOD ELECTRIC SERVICE, at low rates!

Our customers enjoy cheap electricity and dependable service because, over the past fifty years, we have gathered together, coordinated and put to work these essentials for good electric service. The average cost of residential service in the territory we serve is among the lowest in the United States where regular taxes are paid.

EDITORIAL

Well, Folks—Here we are well into the first week of November —and "Thanksgivings" are coming up. First comes F. D. R.'s Thanksgiving, November 23, and then comes the one we have celebrated since the time of Abelincoln — November 30, And in line with the desires of the people of Idaho, Gov. Bottelfson has again proclaimed the last. Thursday in November, the 30th, as our holiday. And we're for it! Why try to change a date just to suit some college football team or the whim of some grasping business men in the east? business men in the east?

And while we're on the sub-ject of Thanksgiving — a bit of extra cash might be handy for that big dinner. It's easy to get! Just bring the cream to us - we pay cash. You'll like our money and our service. Try 'em both.
