INTERESTING NEWS ITEMS FROM KENDRICK SCHOOLS

Last week the "Guest Editor" of this column was none other than our own English and music instructor, William Fitzpatrick. And did we ever get the compliments on the way he wrote up! Really, it was probably the best school notes of the year and we want to thank Mr. Fitzpatrick for doing this for us.

Wolf Wins Election

Friday morning, as stated last week, Student Body officers for the coming semester were elected. After political speeches from members of the "Gutter-Pup" and "Whistle Bitches" parties, votes were cast at the polls, set in the student book room. When the voting was completed, and ballots counted by the class vice-presidents Ray McGraw, Bill Deobald, David Craig and Arthur Fraser, it was announced that "Gutter-Pup" candidate for president, Kenneth Wolff, had been elected. His opponent was Bob Watts. For vice-president, the "Whistle Bitches" candidate, Don Fry, was elected; while Helen Newman, the "Gutter-Pup" candidate for secretary; Betty Boyd, the "Whistle Bitches" treasurer; Barbara Long, "Gutter-Pup" representative, and Kenneth Woody, a "Whistle Bitches" candidate for Sargent-At-Arms, all won. At any rate, the whole election was loads of fun, this being the objective of having opposing parties.

Semester Exams Taken

All semester examinations have now been taken, so the students have again resumed their regular routine, which was interrupted last week, due to the fact that a large amount of "cramming" was done. But now all breathe freely once more, and probably will until our next nine-weeks quizs come along.

Basketball Games

The Kendrick Tigers journeyed to Southwick Friday evening, and met the Southwick Cougars in a basketball tilt that proved disastrous to the Tigers. Minus the services of Thornton and Draper, and with Kuykendall playing but a quarter, they dropped the game to the Southwick boys 35-21.

The Kendrick Tigerettes, however, really stepped out, winning from the Southwick Cougarettes by a 40-15 tally.

On Wednesday evening of this week both teams journeyed to Boise to meet the Loggers in a return game. We are sorry that we are unable to give you the final results.

Friday evening of this week both boys' and girls' teams go to Culestac to meet the strong Culestac Aggregations. We sincerely hope to see a large number of Kendrick rooters out to help the games along.

Car Rolls Over

Last Friday afternoon Gust Lukens had the misfortune to have his car roll over, with him inside, three times.

Mr. Lukens, coming towards town, was descending the first steep pitch near his home and the car slid on the icy road, slipping sideways to the embankment, then proceeded to roll, landing on its wheels following its last turn.

Mr. Lukens was uninjured, although a bit shaken up. The car suffered but slight damage.

WHAT HAPPENED HERE 20 YEARS AGO THIS WEEK

Fred Florence is teaching the third and fourth grades in the Kendrick school during the absence of Mrs. Leola R. King, whose eldest daughter became ill the first of the week with a light attack of scarlet fever. This is the second case of scarlet fever that has developed in town, the other having been a member of the Huddelston family. It is of a very mild form.

It becomes the painful duty of the writer to compose the epitaph of Kendrick Highway district's road prospects. It happened last Saturday and the last expiring breath of Kendrick's good road plan was exhaled when the judges of the election in Kendrick added the result of the vote in Bear Ridge precinct and Kendrick and found that those opposed to the bond issue had one vote too many.

The postoffice at Park was discontinued yesterday, as there was no one in the Park neighborhood who would take the postmastery. This will also discontinue the star route from Linden to Park. While the Park office was in existence the mail was carried by star route from Southwick, through Crescent and Linden and then to Park. Now the mail will only go from Southwick as far as Linden. This cuts off a number of patrons between Linden and Park.

The annual meeting of the board of directors of the Fraternal Temple company took place Tuesday afternoon. At this meeting a dividend of 10 per cent was declared on the capital stock. The same board of directors was retained, as follows: N. Brocke, president; W. M. McCrea, secretary; Wm. Freytag, S. P. Callison and H. P. Hull.

The basket and pie social given on American ridge on January 3 was a great success. The sum of $96.50 was netted from the sale of pies and baskets. N. E. Ware auctioned the baskets and that his efforts were successful was indicated by the amount secured from the sale. A short program was a very interesting feature of the evening. The object of the social was to assist in raising funds to apply on the Methodist church building fund. A sleigh load of Kendrick people attended and reported a "jolly time."

A number of Odd Fellows from Kendrick and American ridge went to Troy Tuesday evening to be present at the initiation of 12 candidates. Those who went from Kendrick were Charles Chandler, N. E. Walker, C. S. Carroll, G. N. Baker and Eddie Deobald. From American ridge, Claus Eichner, Clifford Davidson and Bob Cain.

Attending Meeting

The Latah county agricultural conservation committee are in Boise this week, attending the annual all-state AAA committee conference, the county AAA office has announced.

Those who went to Boise to meet with committeemen from every county in the state were: H. F. Koster, chairman, Genesee; Clarence V. Brabb, vice chairman, Palouse; Clarence A. Jensen, member, Farmington; G. T. McAlexander, secretary, Moscow; Lowell Isaksen, assistant secretary, Moscow.

Chairman Koster before he left said a feature of the four-day meeting would be a series of address by those in charge of various federal agencies dealing with agriculture in the state.

Various phases of the 1940 farm program and administrative matters, will occupy the major part of the time.

The Latah county committee, together with other counties in the state, will submit a report of farm activity in the county, and will have an opportunity to make recommendations to the state committee as well.

District Meeting Held Here

On January 10, Future Farmers from Moscow, Troy and Lapwai met in the Kendrick Agricultural department for the purpose of discussing plans for a district public speaking and seed identification contest. Kenneth Wolff and Judd Lee are entering the speaking contest.

After the meeting cocoa and cookies were served.

Following refreshments all adjourned to the Visual Education room where two films, "Farm Inconveniences" and "Feeding the Multitude" were shown the boys.

The Kendrick boys are planning a radio program to be presented over station KRLC in the near future.

School Closed For Week

Due to the large number of absences, due to the epidemic of flu and colds sweeping this territory, it was decided to close the Kendrick schools, and on Monday evening the buses made their last trip of the week. They will open again on next Monday morning, and it is to be sincerely hoped that all have recovered and that the enrollment will show all present.

LATAH FAIR PUSHES COUNTY BUDGET UP

Latah county's board of commissioners appointed 1940 election registrars, reappointed the fair board, drew up a tentative 1940 budget and approved fee reports by various county offices and the 1939 report of the fair expenditures when they continued the initial meeting of the year at Moscow Friday.

The board set a tentative figure of $156,455 for county operative expenses this year. The figure, $2,780 in excess of the 1939 total, will become final unless objections are raised at a public budget hearing at the courthouse February 12.

The entire increase is attributable to a levy for county fair purposes which was not included in the last budget. Three thousand dollars will be set aside for the second annual Latah county fair, to be held here next fall.

Appropriations for other departments were virtually unaltered. The hospital and indigent fund will be allocated $30,670; the current expense fund $94,225; the noxious weed control fund $22,900; and the health unit fund $5,760.

Reappointed to govern fair matters were: Rudolph Nordhy, Genesee; Ed Kitts, Moscow; Guy Kitch, Troy; William Ingie, Kendrick; Henry Hanson, Deary; J. O. Broyles, Potlatch; Homer Fulton, Farmington.

Fee reports for the quarter ending January 6 showed that county offices had turned the following sums over to the treasurer: Sheriff, $12; clerk and recorder, $1,215; probate judge, $290; tax collector, $42.

Registrars named were: Bear creek, Mrs. James S. Nelson of Kendrick; Bovill, Mrs. J. J. Holland; Cora, Mrs. Frank Yates of Garfield; Route 3; Deary, George H. Karr; East Moscow, Mrs. H. D. Martin; Farmington, Mrs. M. A. Palmer; Genesee, Mrs. Lester Hayden; Harvard, Mrs. Doris Becker; Juliaetta, Mrs. Mary Ottosen; Kendrick, Letha Kuykendall; Lewville, Mrs. Neal Kinoy; Linden, Mattie Garmar.

North Moscow, Emma Estes; Palouse, Mrs. Nancy Lynch; Park, Marie Dahl; Potlatch, Mrs. Elva Metcalf; Princeton, Mrs. Eva Wasson; Southeast Moscow, Nellie Summerfield; Southwest Moscow, Mrs. Velva Orr; Texas Ridge, Mrs. Ella Miller; Thorn Creek, Mrs. John Hordemann; Troy, Jennima Christie; Viola, George Rothwell; West Moscow, Mary Hunter—Daily Idahoan.

Editors Note—Personally, the so-called Latah County Fair seems to us to be nothing but an advertising stunt for Moscow at the expense of the rest of the county. It is an easy bet that the answer would be if Kendrick, Juliaetta, Troy, or any other town in this county should ask county aid to put on a Fourth of July celebration, a harvest festival, or any other activity of a like type—No, and they would spell it with a capital "N". Moscow has always been quite good at asking the rest of the county to do things for them—witness the proposed county hospital of some three years ago. Failing that, move, they succeeded in working the rest of the county for a fair—and so far as we can see it benefits Moscow—the village with the Russian name, only.

Special Radio Programs

Latah County farmers and ranchers will be interested in the special radio program series featuring conservation of the national soil resources—to be broadcast on the "National Farm and Home" hour, which began Tuesday, January 16.

"National Farm and Home" hour broadcasts can be heard daily at 9:30 a. m. over radio station KGA, Spokane.

The series, to continue for 15 weeks, will consist of a swing across the nation to relate the experiences of farmers who fight wind and water erosion and depleted soil fertility with the aid of AAA and other federal agencies.

R. M. Evans, Iowa farmer and national administrator of the AAA farm program, launched the series from Washington, D. C., January 16. Eastern Oregon farmers will go on the air from Portland, February 6th.

Western stockmen will broadcast from Denver later in February. Each week will find a new group on the air, and a new problem under discussion.

Secretary of Agriculture Henry A. Wallace is expected to wind up the series on April 23, from Washington.

EXACT DATE OF BIG FLOOD IN KENDRICK SETTLED

Many arguments have been heard in years past over the exact date of the big train wreck and flood in Kendrick—and as the files of the Gazette were destroyed by fire—or perhaps by the flood itself—so the papers, at any rate, could not be used to settle the arguments.

This argument has been settled for us by the Lewiston Morning Tribune, who printed in their Sunday edition, under the heading: "Forty Years Ago Today," the following articles:

December 16, 1899

"Kendrick—A frightful train wreck resulting in the almost instant death of four men and the maiming of another occurred at 7:00 last night one mile above Kendrick. Freight engines 364 and 700 are in the creek at that point and a train of cars loaded with railroad iron, is a confused mass covering the tracks for yards. Engineers Dick Balne and Ogden, brakeman J. Budge and fireman Earl Bradshaw are the dead. J. E. Pétterman, fireman, was pulled from the wreckage dangerously hurt. The double-header freight went out of control just as the heavy grade was reached near what is known as Vollmer siding. The grade is claimed the steepest of any northwest railroad. The runaway engines made a six-mile plunge before toppling over. The caboose was cut from the train at the top of the grade."

Editors Note: Old timers say the wreck was not one mile above Kendrick, but on the curve just above what is now the Lewiston Grain Growers' Warehouse.

From the Lewiston Morning Tribune, January 14, 1900: Kendrick—Death and destruction is the story of the awful flood that tore down Potlatch canyon last night. The wild waters have worked a sad ruin. Desolation is everywhere and the canyon is now only the home of the roaring, seething, plunging flood. Three children are dead. Scores are homeless. The property loss reaches many thousands of dollars. The children drowned were those of Mr. and Mrs. Charles Hamley, Mr. Hamley, street commissioner, was driving down the street in a buggy accompanied by his wife, three children and a man named Hammond. There was then a foot of water in the street. A minute later the railroad embankment above the city, the breaking of which caused the sudden flood, gave way. A vast pile of cordwood near the embankment was swept along on the crest of the tremendous wave the struck the unfortunate family. The horses plunged wildly in the mass of debris and the rig overturned. The children floated away to their death. The father was rescued with much difficulty and Mrs. Hamley saved herself by catching hold of the roof of a house as she floated along. She remained on the roof all night."

From the Lewiston Morning Tribune of January 16, 1900—"The Commercial club will raise funds to assist the residents of Kendrick in rehabilitating themselves after last week's disastrous flood. During the noonday meeting $300 was subscribed."

P-T. A. Program Success

The regular monthly meeting of the Kendrick P-T. A. was held in the High School auditorium last Monday evening.

Following a short business session, the program was turned over to the men—who promptly turned it into a fun fest. The first number on the program consisted of an appropriately illustrated rendition of "The Old Gray Mare" with Rev. Gray and N. E. Walker, furnishing the "sound" effects, accompanied by Mrs. Harold Thomas at the piano. The "action" was furnished by Wm. Fitzpatrick and Roy Ramey, appropriately "horse covered," and a lot of fun it was, too.

Following this Wm. Fitzpatrick sang as a solo, accompanied by Roy Johnson on the guitar, "The Prisoner's Song," dedicating it to Edgar Long, who happened to be unfortunate enough to occupy this position in the program to follow.

The next number was a "District Court" trial, with Ed. Long being the defendant, accused of assault and battery on the person of one Frank H. Rider.

The principals taking part in this thrilling drama were F. M. Long and Harold Thomas, attorneys; A. O. Kanikkeberg, court reporter; C. P. Barnum, judge; Wade Keen, bailiff; Bert Eldison, sheriff; Don Lyle, "Doc"; Ross Armitage, Bill McCree; Bill Fitzpatrick, Bill Gray, Weyland Davis and N. E. Walker, jurymen; Ira Foster, Jim Keeler, O. E. Havens and Roy Ramey, witnesses.

The judge certainly had a lot of trouble, and dealt out sentences right and left with a vengeance—for "Doc" Lyle was found guilty of practicing medicine on a veterinary license; the defendant found guilty; and the two attorneys found guilty of contempt of court; as well as being unable to keep the jury awake. All in all, it was an evening of fun and frolic, climaxed by refreshments served to all in the D. S. room.

Following the refreshments a 30-minute film entitled "The River" was shown to all who cared to stay in the Visual Ed. room.

Some rain fell Monday evening and again on Tuesday morning. All roads in this section are reported open, but chains are required on many of the grades and most of the side roads.

About 30 farmers of the Big Bear ridge community met at the hall last Thursday evening to see some pictures regarding soil erosion and other farm problems. Tonight (Jan. 18) the group will be favored with a talk on "Soil Makeup" by a speaker from the U. of I. A large attendance is hoped for.

At future meetings we are planning on some more soil erosion pictures and talks from other leading men along this line.

WHEAT PRICES DECLINE WITH BETTER PROSPECTS

Domestic wheat markets declined during the past week principally because of the improved moisture situation in the winter wheat belt and below normal disappearance of farm stocks of wheat in the last quarter of 1939, states the Agricultural Marketing Service in the Weekly Grain Market Review. Oats were independently firm.

It was generally believed that the moisture situation in the winter wheat states has greatly improved crop prospects. Practically the entire winter wheat area was covered with snow. The moisture situation in India relieved drought conditions in important wheat producing areas of that country, according to reports, but some damage was feared in Hungary due to severe frost. It was reported that crops were damaged by floods in southern Spain and Portugal, but that crop conditions are favorable in Italy and western Europe.

Stocks of wheat on farms in the United States on January 1, were somewhat smaller than a year ago and were estimated at 238,985,000 bushels, compared with 280,088,000 bushels last year. Farm disappearance of wheat during the quarter, October through December, was approximately 20,000,000 bushels less than for the same period last year and totaled around 99,673,000 bushels. The disappearance in market stocks, however, was about 20,000,000 bushels more than last year during the October-December quarter, making the farm and market disappearance during the quarter about 2,000,000 bushels smaller than last year. Farm and market stocks at the first of January, totaled approximately 372,000,000 bushels compared with 409,000,000 bushels in these positions a year ago.

A disturbing factor in the cash market was the failure of Winnipeg prices to remain firm in the face of the biggest export business for Canadian grain since last November. No. 1 Manitoba Northern was quoted at that market on January 12, at 82c per bushel. At the close of the week Australian wheat was offered FOB Australian ports at 64c and Argentine Rosafe at 63½c FOB Argentine ports. This compares with 71½c for No. 2 Canadian Manitoba from Halifax. According to trade reports Great Britain purchased approximately 60,000,000 bushels of Australian wheat, 20,000,000 bushels of Canadian wheat and an undisclosed amount of Argentine wheat. It is believed that Great Britain's requirements for wheat have been taken care of for some time.

At Chicago No. 2 soft red winter was quoted at $1.01 to $1.04 and No. 2 hard winter at $1.00 to $1.03 per bushel. At Kansas City No. 2 hard winter sold at 96c to 99½c and No. 1 dark northern spring weighing 68 pounds was quoted at 99½c to $1.00 per bushel at Minneapolis. No. 2 soft red winter sold at $1.02½ at St. Louis.

Cash wheat markets in the Pacific Northwest declined along with futures during the past week with principal classes showing losses of around 2c per bushel from the previous week. On January 12 at Portland, soft white and western white wheat were quoted at 84c, hard red winter at 82½c, all basis No. 1 grade in bulk.

Wheat receipts at Puget Sound and Columbia river terminals for the week totaled 632 cars. Indemnity payments on export sales of flour to the Philippines was at the rate of $1.00 per barrel. The narrow spread between prices prevented the sale of wheat from this area to the midwest and lack of ocean freight space prevented sales of wheat to the Atlantic seaboard. Local mills were in the market for cash wheat all during the period as the result of recently improved flour business. The local cash wheat market situation, however, was featured by extremely light offerings by growers at country points in the declining market. Wheat millfeeds held steady and unchanged. Recent rains have improved winter wheat prospects materially in the producing areas of eastern Oregon and Washington.

“Walking In A Winter Wonderland”

It's a beautiful title, and a beautiful song, one that we hear often over the radio and at various other times. Snow can be a beautiful sight, and beneficial to man; for it provides winter crop protection, moisture and permits many winter logging and farm operations.

But snow and cold can also be menaces. They prevent the carrying on of regular business operations, hinders transportation, and necessitates the carrying of fuel, ashes, etc. It makes one long for the comfort of his own home and fireside.

In the winter as few business trips as possible are made — which brings you to the question: “Where do you trade?” We hope in Kendrick.

Kendrick is not a large town, but it offers you almost every item and service that can be procured in the larger towns — and prices will be found as cheap — if not cheaper — than in the bigger center. Then, too, you save by trading and doing your business here, for your transportation costs are less. To every item you buy out of town must be added your cost of going to get it, or paying transportation on that item. Did you ever figure out just what that cost was? If you did, you'll get that item or service in Kendrick. If Kendrick merchants or businessmen haven't what you want — they'll get it for you!

If you do not already trade and transact business here, we suggest that you try it. We believe that the trade at home habit is an easy one to acquire — and one that you will enjoy and never regret!

We are prompted to sponsor this message to the people of Kendrick and vicinity through our interest in community welfare.

Many New Pick-Ups

While we know of but one 1940 model car in this section, a good many new pick-ups have made their appearance already, showing that the farmers are preparing for a busy spring.

“Young Mr. Lincoln”

It is a far cry from the sober statesman of the history books to the “Young Mr. Lincoln” you will become acquainted with at the Kendrick Theatre this coming Friday and Saturday nights, with Henry Fonda turning in a magnificent performance in the title role. Here is a Lincoln you have never known—a young jackleg lawyer of Springfield, Illinois, who rode into town on a mule, wrestled with the boys, told jokes, danced and fell in love. The brawny-armed youth met his first real test in the law business in the thrilling “moonlight murder” case, when he brilliantly defended two boys from the noose. There will also be shorts and a cartoon.

THESE MEN ARE MEASURING KILOWATTS

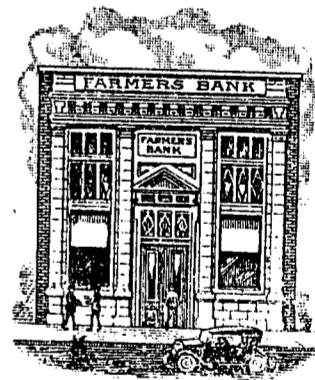

Assuring Your Good Electric Service.

Many unusual activities are part of the daily routine that assures you reliable electric service. For example, these men are experts in finding how much water can be depended upon to produce electricity. This is important to your electric living because it is one of the ways our company is able to plan for dependable service. The experts...hydrographers they are called...ride above the water, measuring depth, speed of flow and other factors telling the discharge of each stream. Daily readings give advance knowledge of how much water will be available to produce power. Good electric service doesn't just happen...it requires planning and research, of which this is only one instance.

EDITORIAL

Well, Folks — Here it is the middle of January, and no really cold weather as yet. Of course, we still have plenty of time for it — but every day of this kind of weather lessens the cold weather we can have.

Cold weather, however, can have its advantages. They say it goes a long way toward the killing of the eggs of grasshoppers, flies, and pests of a like nature — and that's something that helps, too. Cold has also become the ally of gallant little Finland in her fight for existence against the greedy desires of Red Russia, which is "red" in more ways than one, for Stalin's hands drip with the blood of innocent non-combatants in Finnish villages and countryside, where his planes have machine-gunned and bombed villages and workers in the fields!

It's something to think about.

Tom: "Was her father rough with you when you told him you had secretly married his daughter?"

Dick: "I'll say. He nearly shook my arm off!"

Mother: "Sally, don't you know that if you keep on doing naughty things your children will be naughty too?"

Sally: "Oh, mother, now you have given yourself away."

Speaker: "Now friends, there is a little difference between man and woman."

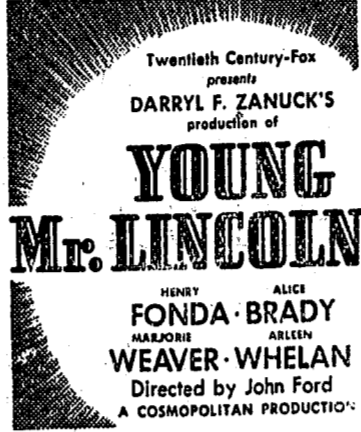

Voice from Audience: "Long live that little difference!"

Are you using "Pride O' The Potlatch Butter? If not, why not? It's sure to please you!"
