KENDRICK, LATAH COUNTY, IDAHO, THURSDAY, MAY 16, 1940

NO. 20

WHAT HAPPENED HERE 20 YEARS AGO THIS WEEK

George Riggen was awarded the contract for putting in the cement sidewalks in the west end of town at the price of 22c a square foot, which includes all grading and filling. The walks will be five feet in width. They will be built on only one side of the street and will extend from Mill street, at the bridge, to the corner of the Jones property, near the mouth of Brady gulch.

Emery Jenks arrived from Lewiston the first of the week to start a county rock crusher at Southwick, where it will be started as soon as possible on the crushing of 2,000 yards of rock to be used on the road at Southwick. The road will be graded from the school house, working west, with the object of shortening the four miles of road from the school house to the bound-ary of the Potlatch highway district in the Cameron road. It is the preliminary step toward completing a new surfaced road from Southwick to Kendrick and will be a wonderful development in the Potlatch ridge territory.

W. P. Oehler and two assistants, of the firm of Vanarsdale, Booth & Oehler, of Lewiston, arrived Thursday to begin the work of cross-sectioning Main street. This is the first step in the work toward having the street macadamized. There is nothing at this time to indicate that there will be any delay in the street improvement.

B. Long & Sons have made a big improvement in their show window. It is now built so that goods may be displayed to a good advantage. The firm has made other extensive improvements in their store during the past few weeks.

Joe Davis purchased 10 acres of land at the recent sale of Indian land held at Lapwai. The 10 acres adjoins his farm on lower Potlatch ridge.

The Kendrick Store Company is getting ready for summer weather by having a large electric ceiling fan installed this week.

Sheriff John L. Woody was in Kendrick Tuesday afternoon on business.

E. H. Dammarell purchased a beautiful seven-passenger Stevens Sedan Six, this week. It is one of the finest cars in this part of the country.

There are nine members of the Senior class of the Kendrick High school this year. The following members will be graduated: Roy Florence, Dan Guy, Eulah Crocker, Harold Hanson, Florence Hallada, Elizabeth Daniels, John Dammarell, Hugh Parks, and Donald Miller.

Linden Items—Mrs. C. H. Fry and daughter Jean spent the day Tuesday with Mrs. Jake Grinolds in Kendrick. The Misses Leah and Annie Smith spent the day Thursday with Miss Eva at the Fongberg home.

The Fred Crocker family, who spent the winter in Kendrick, moved back to the ranch Thursday.

Miss Carrie Allen visited at the Earl Langdon home Thursday. Mrs. Vaughn visited with Mrs. F. C. Lyons Monday afternoon.

Teakane and Cavendish—The farmers around Teakane and Cavendish are very busy these days getting their crops in. A few are nearly through but others will need nearly two weeks of good weather to finish.

W. R. Smith closed a successful eight-month term of school at Cavendish Friday. Those in the eighth grade passed and were awarded their diplomas. Fred Choate, Jr., is doing fine work with his tractor, which he purchased last week.

Maud and Alvie Stalaker spent Sunday with their uncle, Dave Daniels.

Island Items—Notwithstanding the inclemency of the weather, a large number of relatives and friends gathered at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Claude Craig last Sunday, it being the event of Mr. Craig's birthday anniversary. After enjoying a splendid dinner the crowd was entertained at "500," with Claude Craig and Nels Hoffman carrying off the championship honors. The Craigs were the recipients of many useful presents.

Messrs. Jake Berman, Russell Rogers, Henry and Bill Bleck and Clarence Hewett, with their families, went sucker fishing Saturday evening. They enjoyed a good catch.

Big Bear Ridge—G. F. Walker of Kendrick and Ole Lien were business visitors in Deary Thursday. Mrs. Leon Ingle is holding the eighth grade exams at the Steele school this week.

Mr. and Mrs. Hjalmer Dahlberg and children of Deary were visitors at the J. J. Blind home Sunday and Monday. Gabriel Forest and A. J. Aas motored to Moscow Wednesday. Ingvald Aas of Culeasac spent Saturday and Sunday with his father here. Mr. and Mrs. A. W. Ahl of Kendrick were weekend guests at the A. Hooker home.

Teaching Staff For Coming Year—At the April meeting of the Board of Directors of the Kendrick schools all teachers were reelected. Action, however, was postponed in Miss Grim's case, until it could be determined if her health would permit her to continue with her classes. At the last report Miss Grim was up and appeared to be on the road to recovery.

Teachers reelected were: Miss Lily Henningsen, 3rd and 4th grades; Mrs. Elsie Deobald, 5th and 6th grades; Ross Armitage, 7th and 8th grades and grade school principal; Miss Mary Fattu, commercial teacher in high school; Miss Jean Graham, Science and History; William Fitzpatrick, English and Music; Don Lyle, Agriculture and Shop; Lowell W. Mason, Superintendent.

Real Stand Of Wheat

John Galloway brought in a real clump of wheat from one of their fields Saturday evening. This big clump, which as near as could be told, originated from a single seed, contained 216 separate stalks, the longest of which measured 46 inches in length. This was only one of several from the Galloway Brothers' field. It is of a new type of ridd, and apparently the weather we have been having has suited this particular type exactly. The wheat shows no sign of heading out as yet.

If this clump is any indication of the general condition of wheat in the Potlatch section the farmers will have to hire lumberjacks to cut the stalks for them when they finally get their growth.

COMMERCIAL CLUB MEET POORLY ATTENDED

The Kendrick Commercial Club met on their regular monthly meeting night, May 13, and whether it was the date (the 13th) or due to other causes, but eight members were in attendance.

Following the reading and approval of the minutes of the previous meeting the regular business of the club was taken up as far as possible.

N. E. Walker of the Highway committee reported that dedication ceremonies for the missing link were held in Deary on Friday, May 10, but due to an error, no representatives of the Kendrick club were present, much to the regret of the club, since the "missing link" on Big Bear ridge has long been one of the "wants" of this organization.

Mr. Walker also reported that good progress was being made on the new Texas ridge grade, and that all culverts and fill work was expected to be completed within three weeks time, and that the rock crusher would then be put in operation.

Mr. Walker also reported that it was hoped to have the state rock crusher between Juliaetta and Kendrick operating soon and gravel being applied to that link.

Mr. Walker also reported that the Latah County Chambers of Commerce had accepted the Kendrick invitation to meet here May 20th, in Fraternal Temple, and that the usual attendance for such a meeting was 60 to 65.

At this time a discussion was held on the ways and means of improving relations between the residents of the Kendrick trade area and the business houses of Kendrick, which led to a discussion of "Bank Nite," special shows and "Pot O'Gold" programs, and after considerable discussion on this matter W. L. McCreary, W. A. Watts and Geo. P. Barnum were appointed as a committee to investigate the various systems used in other towns where programs of this type are held and to draft what they thought the most workable and acceptable scheme for Kendrick. This program is to be presented for club discussion at the next regular meeting of the club on June 10. Considerable interest has been displayed in such a program and a thorough discussion of its merits and short comings is essential before action is taken.

At this time O. E. Havens, president, appointed as a nominating committee to present candidates for club offices at the next meeting, which is also election night, N. E. Walker, R. L. Blewett and Harold Thomas.

President Havens then appointed as a special committee on arrangements for the coming Chambers of Commerce meeting on May 20, Geo. P. Barnum, N. E. Walker and O. L. Havens.

There being no further business to come before this small group, adjournment was made, with the sincere hope that more interest will be displayed in the coming meeting.

R. O. T. C. Inspection

There will be an inspection of the R. O. T. C. military unit of the U. of I. starting at 1 o'clock on Friday, May 17, at McLean Field, Moscow, when some 1,000 students will parade. This inspection is open to the public.

The first part of the inspection will be taken up in passing in review and inspection in rank.

Part two will be close and extended order drill, machine gun and 37mm demonstration and one combat problem. This is the first year they have had the new drill and marching.

Roy Long, Kendrick, is a first lieutenant. There are other Kendrick boys who will take part in the maneuvers.

Kendrick Rochdale Building

Last week the Kendrick Rochdale company began the erection of a new "head house" on the top of their elevator, which will contain a system of spouts and the necessary machinery for diverting grain elevated to the top to the desired bin, doing away with the old-fashioned belt system which had been in use. The new addition will be 18x30 feet in floor size and some 30 feet in height, making in the aggregate, the top of their elevator better than 130 feet from the ground—the tallest "sky-scraper" in Kendrick.

Weather Freakish

The weather the past few days has been anything but settled. We have had scattered showers, cool nights, warm days, chill winds, and lightning displays, all mixed together. Wednesday was perhaps the most nearly normal day of the past week.

Twenty-eight to thirty—the best ten years of a woman's life.

Services Well Attended

Baccalaureate services for the Kendrick High school class of 1940, were held in the Community church last Sunday evening, with Rev. Gray delivering the address.

JUNIOR LIVESTOCK SHOW PROVES REAL SUCCESS

About 12 members, of the Kendrick Future Farmers organization attended the Spokane Junior Livestock show held there May 8, 9 and 10. The competition was very keen but the boys know what to look for in selecting animals in the future. There were approximately 400 steers at the show and some of them were exceptionally good.

Boys taking Aberdeen Angus were Ted Weyen and Kenneth Wolff. Kenneth placed first with his animal and Ted third. However, Ted's was said to have been the father of the two, but lacked form.

Four Herefords were shown by Judson Lee, Chas. Bowers, Felix Holt and Don Jones. Charles' placed 4th, Judson's 5th, Don's 7th and Felix' 11th in the Hereford division for North Idaho.

Harvey Thornton won the Reserve Grand Championship with his pen of fat hogs in competition with boys from Montana, Washington and Idaho.

In judging the boys were a bit unlucky, principally because of lack of experience in the judging of fine stock.

On the trip to Spokane the boys saw some fine examples of diversification on the farm. Many of the progressive farmers having a few sheep, hogs, beef and poultry along with crops. Apparently they do not believe in carrying all the eggs in one basket in the Palouse country.

It has long been the belief of the F. F. A. organization that diversification is needed on the farm and the boys were much interested in these examples.

Among other places of interest visited by the boys was the Armour packing plant. They were taken through the various departments by a guide and many details of the caring for meat by the company, from the time the animal is killed until it comes out in various kinds of meats, ready for consumption, were explained. It was a very interesting and instructive trip.

Still More "Fan Mail"

January 1 the Gazette started weighing the "fan mail" that came to the office "without stamps—in other words, franked" mail—sent by the various senators, congressmen, PWA, WPA, and a thousand other sub-divisions of the alphabetical soup kitchen, but we gave it up as a hopeless job as the volume was too great to stem the tide. But we will say, without fear of contradiction, that we have many pounds each year of useless stuff that is sent out at government expense.

Of course there are some parts of this conglomeration that are allowable, and of interest, but the majority of it is sent to different parts of the country without first learning whether it might be of any material interest or benefit. For instance, we receive many times a year a report on the amount of soft coal mined in the east, as well as anthracite. Of course we are naturally interested in what is being done in the good old U. S. A., but not to the extent that some of the swivel-chair writers care (no matter what their political affiliations may be) just so long as they have something for their secretaries and stenographers to do—and it is all paid for in taxes—by you and me.

The biggest one didn't get away this time. It is yet to be reckoned with—paying the bill.

Kendrick Leads In Bonds

According to a report given out last week by Secretary of the Treasury Morgenthau, Kendrick was first in the amount of savings bonds sold by Postmaster C. H. Daugherty through the Kendrick office, the amount being $24,243.75, placing Kendrick at the top of the list for third-class postoffices within the state of Idaho, with a per-capita of $69.79—in fact it exceeded in per capita any postoffice within the state, regardless of class. While Boise naturally lead in sales, it is ranked as third per capita.

Highest per capita sales in each postoffice class within the state is as follows: Moscow, first class, with $14.91; Halley, second class, with $27.67; Kendrick, third class, with $66.79; Headquarters, fourth class, with $34.25.

Postmaster Daugherty is to be congratulated on the record made in the sale of bonds.

Boy Scouts Attend Camporee

Bob LaHatt, Teddy Deobald, Ossie Kanikkeberg, Jordan Kanikkeberg, Bob and Dick Benscoter, Don Dammarell, Maurice and Tommy Long attended the Boy Scout District Camporee at Field Springs near Anatone last week-end.

They saw how other Scouts camped and learned many new things. Sunday morning Rev. Whitney of Anatone gave the boys a short but interesting talk on four great characters. George Washington, Thomas Jefferson, Theodore Roosevelt and Jesus Christ. Later in the day the boys went on a hike and viewed the rugged and historic Grande Ronde river country.

The Scouts hope to be able to go on more of these trips this coming summer.

PACIFIC NORTHWEST WHEAT MARKETS FOLLOW ADVANCE

Wheat markets in the Pacific Northwest advanced materially at the close of the week ending May 10, influenced principally by strength in the principal midwest markets, says the Agricultural Marketing Service in the Weekly Grain Market Review. Developments in the European war situation were the most important market influence in the United States, since there was little change in the domestic supply and demand situation and there were no new features in the domestic crop news.

The cash wheat market was rather quiet in the Northwest during the past week with light offerings by growers an important market factor. Trade reports indicate that remaining supplies in the country are now in strong hands following liquidation of loan wheat. Wheat sales to the midwest for rail shipment were reported to have declined sharply during the past two weeks, principally as the result of light offerings at interior points. Demand for wheat from California continued to be limited to occasional lots for milling mixtures. Local mills and elevators were not actively in the market although current offerings were being absorbed fairly readily. It was reported that sales of about 3,000 tons of wheat for export to Switzerland were made from this area during the week, under the subsidy program. Sales of flour to the Philippines under the indemnity program were reported as fairly heavy during the week. War developments in Europe toward the close of the week were dominating influences in the local wheat market situation, with firmness noted as the period closed.

Cash wheat markets advanced to 2½¢ per bushel on the principal classes at Portland during the week. On May 10 soft white was quoted at 87¢, western white, western red and ordinary hard red winter were quoted at 87¼¢ per bushel, all basis No. 1 in bulk.

Wheat receipts by rail at Puget Sound and Columbia river terminals were moderate at 600 cars for the week. Indemnity payments on flour for export remained unchanged at $1.15 to the Philippines and $1.40 per barrel to China and Hong Kong. Cash wheat prices at Seattle May 10 were: western white and western red, 87¼¢ per bushel, hard winter, 88¢ per bushel.

The San Francisco wheat market turned slightly firmer toward the close of the week, influenced principally by strength in other domestic markets following extension of the European war area. Prices were mostly unchanged to 2½¢ per 100 higher compared with a week ago.

Wheat futures at Kansas City closed 2½¢ to 3¢ higher for the week after being as much as 3¢ lower about the middle of the week. Arrivals totaled 621 cars compared with 663 a week ago. Receipts at nine winter wheat markets totaled 1,571 cars compared with 1,712 last week and 2,117 a year ago. At the close of the week No. 2 hard was quoted at $1.04 to $1.08½.

Receipts of wheat were smaller than the week before in spring wheat markets with Minneapolis arrivals totaling 2,261 cars of all classes and Duluth unloaded 1,570 cars. The trading basis was shifted to July delivery and at the close of the week ordinary grade 60-lb. dark northern was quoted at $1.11.

Wheat futures were up 2¢ to 2½¢ for the week at Chicago, largely on the last day of further invasion by Germany after having been lowered all week on improved crop prospects. Cash premiums remained nearly steady with demand from mills only fair most of the week but improved on war news.

Winter wheat made good progress in the main wheat belt but growth was still rather slow in the Ohio valley because of cool weather. Dryness continued to retard the crop in Texas and in western Kansas.

The condition of the winter wheat crop at the first of May indicated a yield of 13.5 bushels per acre and a crop of 459,691,000 bushels. This is an increase of about eight per cent over the April 1 forecast, but is more than 100 million bushels below the 1939 crop and 112 million bushels below the 10-year average.

In Europe the weather became more favorable for crops and prospects in Roumania are reported better than indicated earlier in the season. Prospects are also more favorable in Hungary although the outlook is still for short crops. Wheat made good progress in France but in northern Europe crops are still backward and generally three to four weeks later than normal. Seeding made better progress in Russia but on April 20 spring grain seeding was only 15 per cent completed against 28 per cent a year ago.

May weather was generally favorable for Idaho crops though progress of crop growth and field work was retarded in some sections by wet soil conditions and generally cool night temperatures.

THINK IT OVER

By F. R. Stevens

The function of the law of God and the law of our land must not be confused nor substituted, one for another. They cannot be antagonistic. They must not conflict. The law of this land is designed to protect the development of the law of God.

In the freedom of this protection our country made its great advance toward a happier and safer civilization. This freedom allows us to find our God in our own individual way. The great principle of the Fatherhood of God and Brotherhood of Man is allowed—not forced or even assisted—to develop unhampered in the hearts of our people.

Under the law of God we owe a duty to our fellow citizens and this duty has been reasonably fulfilled. The poor, the indigent, the sick, the aged, have been cared for by individual contributions to homes sponsored by our churches and by privately endowed hospitals—and by special endowments by individuals that have allowed scientific research that has promoted knowledge and health.

Special and advanced education for our promising youth has been provided by individual endowments from Catholics, Protestants and by Jews for colleges and universities. Large and small libraries have been founded in city and country, free to anyone who is seeking information.

Community chests have been established in many localities, supported entirely by voluntary contributions and through these the emergency needs of individuals in the locality are cared for. The greatest and most Christian-like effort of all charity is the unknown help given by man to man.

The most important influence of all education and spiritual development is our churches; here again they are supported by voluntary contributions. Our law protects them all but supports none, nor does it regulate and so long as our fundamental law stands it will not regulate.

Thus the Fatherhood of God and Brotherhood of Man is growing under the protection of the laws of our land. We must not confuse the functions of these two laws or we will ruin both.

Opening Street Fountains

Edgar Long was busy Tuesday morning repairing and making ready for summer use the street drinking fountains. While they are for the use of anyone who may desire a drink, the youngsters are perhaps the greatest users—and that mostly for "squirting water" at or on each other. However, they are very handy, especially when a large crowd is in town. It saves hunting for a place to get a drink without bothering anyone.

A small boy returned home from Sunday school. "And how was Sunday school this morning?" asked his mother.

"Not so good," he replied soberly. "Daniel's in the lion's den again."

Many New Cars Sold

Residents of Kendrick and vicinity today have the best opportunity in years to obtain reliable used cars at rock-bottom prices. This is the statement of James McMonigle of the McDonald Chevrolet Co., Lewiston, Chevrolet dealers, who explain that heavy sales of the new 1940 Chevrolets in this area account for the exceptional number of bargains in the company's used car stock this spring.

"Sales of new cars and trucks, since the present models were introduced last October, have broken all records for any corresponding period in Chevrolet history," Mr. McMonigle pointed out. "This means that Chevrolet dealers, and our organization among them, have taken more used cars in trade than is usually the case. Of special interest to the public, too, is the fact that this year's trading include an extra large proportion of recent models, in various makes. The explanation is that many persons who had no intention of buying new cars, until they saw the 1940 Chevrolet, changed their minds and the case.

turned in comparatively recent models in order to obtain the performance, economy and style of the seasonally-popular Chevrolet. "The result is that our used car stock today includes, not only many three and four-year old cars, but several that left the assembly lines less than a year ago. Such cars, of course, embody many of the latest engineering advances, besides ranking high from the standpoint of beauty and style. The reservoir of transportation in them has hardly been tapped, yet they are priced today as used cars. Like the older models in stock, they have been thoroughly checked to assure their buyers satisfaction—the kind that will bring them back to us when they are in the car market again."

CHICKEN DEATHS CAN BE TRACED

Immediate Post Mortem Will Aid in Finding Disease.

By DR. F. R. BEAUDETTE

Immediate post-mortem examination of all chickens and other birds that die is the only means of knowing the causes of death. Records at the New Jersey agricultural experiment station indicate that over a period of years one can learn to expect certain diseases to occur at certain seasons of the year, but occasionally a new disease appears.

In general, however, pullorum disease and bronchitis come in the spring and are followed by coccidiosis and parasite problems. In the fall, paralysis, pox and the respiratory infections appear. In mid-winter the mortality goes down and the diseases are of a miscellaneous character.

Birds are subjected to diseases caused by viruses, bacteria, fungi, protozoa, nutritional deficiencies and various external and internal parasites. These diseases are as numerous and as complicated as are the diseases of other species of animal or man, and, for this reason, their solution is equally as difficult. In fact, there exists in chickens or birds a disease to parallel almost any disease in any other animal. Thus, chickens have malaria, tuberculosis, typhoid, tumors and pox, all of which are adapted to the bird. At the same time, they have a few diseases actually acquired from other animals such as swine erysipelas and tularemia.

However, chickens are the least source of infection for other animals or for man among all of the food-producing animals. Moreover, an egg from a healthy hen is bacteria-free which makes it the only food of animal origin of that nature.

Expert Advises Culling All 'Counterfeit' Cows

If all the "counterfeit" cows, or animals which do not live up to high standards of efficiency, were sent to the butcher, a surprising improvement in dairy farm income would be noted, says E. J. Perry, extension dairyman at the New Jersey College of Agriculture, Rutgers university. Not only would there be no surplus milk, but there also would be more land to devote to more profitable farm commodities.
 "The part that efficient cows play in building dairy farm security cannot be overemphasized," Mr. Perry points out. "It is well known that 10 good cows will yield more profit than 20 average cows, and the 10 will place less milk on the market. For instance, 10 cows averaging 8,000 pounds of milk will produce 80,000 pounds of milk in a year, while 20 cows averaging 5,000 pounds each, will have a total yield of 100,000 pounds. The feed cost for the two kinds of cows will not be very different.
 "When several cows of average rating or below are mingling with efficient cows in a herd, the tendency is to keep more cows in order to obtain the income needed. The poor cows eat up some if not all of the profit which the good cows may have made.

Separator Losses
 How many dollars' worth of butterfat are you losing each year in the skim milk from your separator? A sample taken to your local creamery or cream station can be tested. The cow tester is glad to render this service also. If operating efficiently, the average farm separator should not leave over 0.05 per cent butterfat in the skim milk. Better let your dealer do your separator adjusting. Some chaps professing to fix any bowl may leave your machine in such shape that as much as one-tenth of your butterfat will be lost.

Caring for Colt
 A little attention given to the feet of colts and young horses may make a difference in the value of the horse when ready to work. When colts' feet are allowed to become uneven and crooked, it is almost sure to affect the feet and legs permanently. Keeping the feet trimmed and shaped up properly allows normal development of the legs and prevents defects in the feet and legs. Poorly shaped feet and crooked legs that have resulted from neglect can be corrected in some measure by proper trimming of the feet.

'Battle of Barberrry' Wages in Mid-West
 No one ever knows, when a species of plant or animal is introduced from one region to another, what the result will be.
 Now, in the middle western and north central states, war is being waged on a plant, introduced from New England by the earlier settlers. The barberry bush is ornamental, its seeds attract birds, and only in recent years has it been discovered that fungus causes stem rust of wheat, oats and barley.

EDITORIAL

Well, Folks—Seems like we don't have much of anything new to write about—but the same old items are important to us—namely: We want to buy your cream! We want to make butter with it—the finest butter you ever tasted, sweet, fine flavored and fine textured. And you can buy this butter at any of the local stores or at the creamery.

And while we're on the subject of cream, don't forget we have sweet cream for sale at all times, as well as pasteurized milk. Nothing takes the place of milk and cream in the human diet.

And don't forget, we have locker boxes for rent. All sizes, all colors, but all cold storage.

Travel 13,000 War Miles

Two British subjects who traveled half-way around a world at war, in order to attend the only school of Detroit, in existence, are safe in from the southernmost tip of Africa.

They are Charles B. C. Harris, of Kimberley, and John D. Potgieter, of the Post-Graduate School of Modern Merchandising and Management, the only "university of its kind" in the auto industry. The institution is dedicated to the training of "second-generation" Chevrolet dealers.

A 35-day sea voyage in a war-infested world is not without its hazards, both young men agreed, although, since they traveled aboard an American motor ship, the Challenger, the danger was minimized.

French submarine, which had just put out from Martinique on patrol. No radio signals were exchanged, lest our position be revealed, thus exposing the submarine, but our captain explained his neutrality and listed his cargo by means of flag signals. The French U-boat commander apparently was satisfied, for we were not boarded and were detained less than an hour.

British freighters, which the American ship sighted off the coast of South America, were inclined to give the boat a wide berth until its identity was established. Our ship was well marked. The flag at the stern was lighted by floodlights at night, as were the flags painted on the sides of the ship. Half the world away from home, both young South Africans are anxiously watching war developments.

Utah Losing Out To Idaho

Utah rolled up a total of 46 motor vehicle deaths for the first four months of this year, compared to 31 for Idaho, Harry M. Rayner, Commissioner of Law Enforcement, says. This 32 per cent lead may easily be wiped out, however, by a few days of careless and reckless driving. Now that the call of the open road, the fishing streams, the restful call of the pines, is becoming felt, motorists should see that the old car is in first class condition. June and July have proven to be packed with broken bones and moribund lessons. At least help these two months clear of any traffic fatalities. Don't start out less you are certain brakes, lights and tires are in first-class condition. Any one of the three in defective condition is an invitation to danger for yourself and perhaps others. And above all—start in time, you won't feel it necessary to speed. Your chances of death rise in speed in mathematical progression.

Think It Over

At 60 miles an hour your car is traveling 88 feet per second. If it takes your foot one second to go from the throttle to the pedal and another second to apply full pressure to the brakes, your car will have traveled 176 feet before the actual process of stopping can be said to be in effect. Think it over the next time your speedometer reads 60 or better.

"Charge" Your Railroad Ticket

There are now 66 railroads in the United States who offer to travel tickets "on time." All have to do to get a ticket is make application to your agent or passenger agent for road over which you wish to travel. Your ticket, if your application approved, will be delivered to you and you will soon be on your way.
