THURBER'S

Kendrick, Idaho

Completion Near
Completion of installation of the new bean cleaning machinery of the Kendrick Bean Growers Association is nearing in the new three-story addition built on the warehouse near the railroad tracks.

This new machinery, said to be the latest word in bean handling, will greatly increase the cleaning capacity of the institution, as well as the cleaning efficiency.

This makes the second Kendrick institution to revamp its equipment this season, the Kendrick Rochdale, as previously reported, having remodeled its wheat bulking equipment for greater efficiency. Tubes were used rather than the old fashioned belt conveyor system.

Thurber Store To Move
L. S. Thurber will move his stock and fixtures to his new location next door to the theatre this week, opening for business there Saturday.

He planned on making the move the first of the month, but the room was not completed for occupancy as expected. However, the move will be made and business conducted from the new location on Saturday of this week.

Car Turns Over

Saturday evening of last week the pickup belonging to Chas. Keeler, driven by his son John, with Doyle Biddison as passenger, turned over on the Troy grade.

The pickup met another vehicle traveling at a high rate of speed and over on their side of the road. To avoid a collision John turned over the bank, upsetting the machine.

The car which crowded them off the road sped on its way without offering assistance or reporting the accident.

"The Bluebird" Coming

This week's offering at the Kendrick Theatre will be "The Bluebird," said to be an entirely different sort of a show—and it is filmed in technicolor.

The fine old story stars Shirley Temple, Spring Byington, Nigel Bruce, Gale Sondergaard and a host of well-known supporting players.

This picture is said to be something entirely new, entirely different. It's not a cartoon as was "Snow White and the Seven Dwarfs," but is said to be somewhat of the same nature.

CASH WHEAT MARKETS ADVANCE IN NORTHWEST

The Service based its interpretation on inspections of early receipts at representative markets. Of July inspections of hard winter wheat, 58 per cent graded dark hard this season compared with 44 per cent for July of 1939.

The quality of the soft red winter wheat inspected in July was much better than that of last season with 73 per cent grading No. 2 or better, against 47 per cent a year ago.

White wheats also apparently are of better quality this year. A much smaller percentage, however, has classed as hard white.

Oats and barley crops likewise appear to be of better quality this year. Thirty-three per cent of the oats receipts inspected during July graded No. 1, 25 per cent No. 2 and 26 per cent No. 3.

Army Schools As the army continues to accept volunteers to fill its expanding ranks, the War Department has announced that special schools throughout the United States will be maintained for the purpose of instruction and intensive training of new recruits.

The infantry will train men in the tank and motor mechanics school at Fort Benning, Georgia. The Signal Corps maintains a school at Fort Monmouth, N. J., for the purpose of instruction in the latest methods of army telephone, telegraph, radio engineering and signal communication.

Students of the ordinance school at Watertown Arsenal, Mass., attend classes at both the arsenal and Massachusetts Institute of Technology, where they are instructed in powder and explosives, ballistics, artillery and arms material and numerous other courses.

Other schools are maintained in various parts of the United States for training men in other branches of the service.

According to Bill C. Latham, the army recruiting officer in Coeur d'Alene, Idaho, these courses of instruction will be given to key soldiers so that they may be trained to take their places in the many new regiments being organized as part of the national defense program.

The recruiting station in Coeur d'Alene announces that enlistments are currently being made for practically every branch of the service, including the air corps and anti-aircraft artillery.

Be Careful With Fire

With dry weather being prolonged throughout the Inland Empire, care is being urged on all sides on the part of people of this region to prevent not only forest fires, but also grass fires.

Be Careful Of Spotlight

Careless and illegal use of spotlights, blinding approaching motorists, is being reported with such frequency as to make it possible that recommendation may be made to the legislature to out-law these lights, says the bureau of safety.

Dr. D. A. Christensen M. D. Office Hours 9:00 to 12:00 2:00 to 5:00 Emergency Call at All Hours On Notification

THE SIZE OF OUR DEFENSE PROGRAM

The President, as Commander-in-Chief of the Army and Navy, has requested approximately $10,000,000 to build up our Army and Navy.

At the present moment we have a force of 500,000 men made up of the regular Army, the National Guard, and the Organized Reserves.

Now that's no simple problem. It's more than just opening the door and announcing: "We would like to hire a million and a half men" and have them "step right up" and become soldiers.

A modern army needs everything from safety pins to locomotives. It needs guns and ammunition to be sure, and those guns and ammunition must be of the most modern type to be effective.

Modern war is total war. We must be prepared.

Accomplishing this task in the face of an emergency requires coordination of our resources of men and materials, and above all coordination of our huge industrial plants that are the backbone of the nation in peace as well as in war.

To see that this operation goes ahead fast and efficiently, the President appointed the National Defense Advisory Commission on May 28, 1940. This Commission is composed of men who are particularly qualified by special knowledge of an industry, public utility, of some natural resource, or are otherwise specially qualified.

What do we need? Where is it?

How do we get it? It perhaps is the greatest unified effort ever undertaken by the American people. It has already started.

The outlines of the job under way are already clear. On May 16 the President asked Congress to provide $1,182,000,000 for defense. On May 31, he again sent a message declaring that the incredible events abroad, during the latter part of May necessitated another $1,277,741,170 to speed up preparations for our military and naval needs.

This would provide for: Equipping a navy to meet any possible combination of hostile force. Total equipment for a land force of 1,200,000 men.

Reserve stocks of tanks, guns and artillery ammunition for an additional 800,000 men.

15,000 additional planes for the Army and 4,000 for the Navy. Manufacturing facilities, public and private to produce essential equipment required for our forces.

In order to provide that equipment, we determine what the Army and Navy need, in terms of uniforms, guns, tanks, planes and ships. This is broken down into raw materials. Provision is made for processing these raw materials. Plants are provided to convert these materials into weapons to put in the hands of the troops.

Millionth 1940 Chevrolet to be Contest Award The probability that 1940 will emerge as the greatest travel year in the history of Yellowstone National park became apparent with the release of travel figures for July from the superintendent's office.

ONE MILLIONTH 1940 CHEVROLET Some conception of the demand for the 1940 Chevrolet may be gained from the fact that the one-millionth model of this year's production left the assembly line at Flint, Mich., on July 12. In celebration of the public appreciation reflected by this tremendous production record, M. E. Cyle, general manager of Chevrolet, shown (left) above with W. E. Holler, general sales manager, announced that the one-millionth 1940 car, together with a trip to the New York World's Fair, would be awarded in a contest which is open now and will close Aug. 31.

Well, Folks—Seems like we have finished the threshing of our semi-annual crop of political candidates. How wise a selection was made is something yet to be found out. Of course, we still have to put them through the "smutter" of general election this fall—and there is where we must be more careful than ever. We are facing a national emergency, and we must bear in mind that now, if ever, we need cool, resourceful men. Men who are not bound to crack-pot political ideas—in short, we need business men. College professors are fine in their jobs—they fill them well but they are not business men—and that is our need today.

Co-ed, shopping: "Where can I get some silk covering for my settee?"

Floor Walker: "Next aisle and to your left for the lingerie department, Miss."

Officer: "What's the idea of driving that truck so fast? Do you think this highway is a race track? Haven't you a governor on this thing?"

Negro driver: "Nawsah, boss, the governor is back at the capitol; that's fertilizer you smells."

Minister: "Why, really, I'm surprised that you wish to get married so soon. Your husband passed away only four months ago."

Widow: "Well, you see he was an invalid for almost a year."

HOW THE VOTERS IN KENDRICK PRECINCT CHOSE

posted outside—since a number attempted to jump from side to side, and thereby cancelled portions of their vote. But as near as possible, on a percentage basis, 90 voted the Republican column and 60 the Democratic.

On the known high sides Walter Q. Taylor, for assessor, on the republican ticket, lead all with a total of 82 votes. On the other side of the center line Compton I White, democrat, lead his party with a total of 55 votes received for Representative in Congress.

Kendrick, as usual, was the first precinct to report, closing its books with their final signatures at a little before 8:40 and posting returns on the outside of the building.

The returns this year seem to indicate more and more of a trend toward the Republican party, as in the primaries of 1938 votes seemingly were more equally divided, with the heavy part of the voting on the Democratic side. In 1938 Geo. K. Moody led the Republican column with a total of 74 votes, and then, as this time, Compton I. White lead the Democratic column with a total of 79.

We are sorry that county returns are not yet available. A late Wednesday afternoon call to Moscow brought the information that the returns are as yet far from complete. The will appear next week.

State Police Undermanned

Idaho State Police are undermanned, the Bureau of Safety points out in commenting upon the visit of Ralph W. Robinson, western representative of the National Safety Council.

One index in common use is: The number of miles per man. Using Oregon, Washington, Utah, Arizona, Montana and Idaho for comparison, Idaho ranks last, with 142 miles per man. Utah was next with 116 when they added 11 men to the force, lowering the number of miles per man to 84. Washington has the lowest figure of 44.2, which places them in the lead.

Washington has 136 full-time equivalent traffic men and 6,000 miles of highway, or 44.2 miles per man. If Idaho's force had only 44.2 miles to cover, it would need 106 patrolmen. It has 31 at present.

Figures for this computation come from the National Safety Council in order to give a common source of data.

Pacific International Show

Plummer announce that the general livestock Premium List of the 30th Annual Pacific International Livestock Exposition, to be held at Portland, October 5th to 12th, inclusive, is now ready for distribution and may be had by addressing 308 Wilcox Building, Portland, Oregon.
