Another Double Feature
Another double feature is on the bill at the Kendrick Theatre for this coming week-end.
The first feature will be two well-known stars, Tyrone Power and Dorothy Lamour in "Johnny Apollo." This is said to be Power's greatest picture vehicle since "Jesse James." They are supported by a splendid cast.
The second offering will be the "Higgins Family" in "Money To Burn." This offering is said to be a very hilarious comedy such as only this group can produce.
In addition there will be the usual cartoon.

Prison Inmates Admit Robbery
Postoffice officials have communicated with Marshall Wormell of Lapwai informing him that two inmates of the penitentiary at Boise, Idaho, last Thursday confessed having burglarized the Lapwai postoffice on September 29. They are Orville Jenks and Walter Jenks, brothers, who were sent to Boise from Nez Perce county in October on a charge of forgery, carrying from one to 14 years.
The two also confessed having entered and robbed the postoffice at Southwick, Idaho, on the night after the Lapwai job. Fingerprints left at both places played a large part in the work of tracing the brothers.
At Lapwai a back window was forced and a small amount of cash was rifled from the stamp drawer. Considerable damage was done to the office safe, and a clew to the amateurish standing of the robbers was left when they thought to enter the large safe by beating off the door hinges. Postmaster Chester Angel revealed that lack of thoroughness of the would-be safe crackers avoided loss of considerable valuables concealed elsewhere in the office.
The actual conduct of the case was in the hands of Postoffice Inspector Melvin Northrip of Spokane, with whom Marshall Wormell collaborated. Prosecution of the self-confessed robbers will be handled by United States District Attorney John Carver of Boise, Idaho, punishment to follow their present terms in the Idaho state "big house."

Dad's Day At U. of I.
Dad goes off the gold standard at the University of Idaho November 16, when Idaho students grab "pop" by the arm and usher him through a gala two-day celebration as part of the annual Dad's Day. Main attraction is the Idaho-Nevada football game, but students are planning to fill all spare time with a varied and interesting program.
First contingent of Dads is expected to arrive on the Campus Friday afternoon and many will not leave for their homes until Sunday. The round of entertainment starts Friday evening when an entertaining show is set for the university auditorium following the pep rally which winds its way over the campus and ends at the administration building. Saturday, the big event is the football game between the two neighboring rivals, Idaho and Nevada, with Dads admitted to the contest without cost. Saturday evening is taken with a boxing show put on by the Idaho boxing squad. Matches are finals for positions on the team.

Old Man Winter On Job
Starting with a light snow on the ridges and somewhat cooler weather last Friday night, Old Man Winter has gradually been increasing his "blitz" over the entire country and the Potlatch section was not taken off the list of recipients—even the far famed "Banana Belt" having received a portion of the cold, and announces that the mercury reached the 20-degree point. However, the rain has let up and here's hoping it will stay put for some time, we don't need any more.

By Sunday morning about two inches of snow lay atop the ridges. Sunday night the mercury hit a low of 24 degrees, and Monday night dipped to 15 degrees.
Tuesday night the mercury dropped to the same level as Monday night, 15 degrees above.

8-8 Bridge Club Entertain
The 8-8 Bridge Club was entertained Friday evening in the home of Mr. and Mrs. A. O. Kanikkeberg.
Mrs. Lester Crocker and E. F. Roberts held high scores for the evening. Mr. and Mrs. Wade Keene and Mrs. John Henry were invited guests.
Birds Very Scarce
For some reason or other, the large expected crop of Chinese pheasants has failed to materialize, or else the birds have selected hideouts that "are hideouts." At any rate, they are very scarce this year, and but a very few limit hauls have been reported. Hungarian pheasants are also very scarce.

Have Chicken Fox
Little David Crocker, son of Mr. and Mrs. L. D. Crocker, is confined to his home this week with chicken pox. Beverly Ann Schupfer and Irma Langdon are also confined to their homes with the same disease.
Parents of Daughter
Mr. and Mrs. Elmer Fraser are the proud parents of a seven-pound daughter, born November 9, at the home of Mrs. L. S. LaHatt.

WE NEED MORE CONTENTED COWS
HAROLD THOMAS, Editor

EDITORIAL

Well, Folks—We've certainly had a real temperature change in the past few days. From rainy to fair and warmer, then to cool and colder, and finally — cold! Makes a fellow wonder what he has done with his summer's wage! And while we're on the subject of money, folks, why don't you cash in to a greater extent on your cows? That is a source of year-round income that many are overlooking.

It is so easy to sell cream to us. It's cash on the counter payment. There's no waiting to ship — no waiting for the can to come back, and the check to come by mail — it's just a case of bring in the can, take home the can and the cash.

By the way — we still have a few locker boxes to rent. They are priced within the reach of all. Come in and find out about them.

If a girl's a good looser at strip poker it isn't always sportsmanship. Sometimes it's just plain conceit.

"Lighthouse no good for flog," says Chinaman. "Lighthouse he shine, whistle he blow, flog bell he ling, and flog he come just the same. No good."

John, who was visiting in a distant city, received a telegram from his wife reading, "John, remember you are a married man."

His answer read: "Telegram received too late."

Hubby: "What are we having for dessert tonight, dear?"
Wife: "Sponge cake. I sponged the eggs from Mrs. Brown, the flour from Mrs. Smith and the milk from Mrs. Jones."

When you think of butter, think of "Pride O'The Potlatch!"

WHAT HAPPENED HERE 20 YEARS AGO THIS WEEK

Art Rogstad brought back the days of "auld lang syne" when he stepped off the train Thursday morning with a leaky suitcase. As he walked from the train to the depot he had quite a following, with Doc Kelley in the lead. It began to look as though Mr. Rogstad would need a bodyguard before he reached the seclusion of the depot waiting room, but he had presence of mind enough to explain to the expectant crowd that it was nothing but crabapple juice. A dozen parched throats fairly cracked with disappointment and it was truly painful to watch the light die out of their "liquid" eyes.

Sixteen-inch wood has been selling on the local market for several weeks for $12.00 per cord.

Miss Leah Smith, who is teaching the Red Rock school at Green creek, passed through Kendrick Friday on her way to Moscow and Palouse to spend the week-end visiting.

Linden Items—Ben Smith was painfully injured Friday while getting hay in the loft at the Nichols barn. In one place some poles had been removed and hay taken out from the under side. Not knowing this, Ben walked out over the place and fell through, striking a 2x6 board, which cracked two ribs and tore one loose from the backbone and injured one lung. Mr. and Mrs. George Garner and children were Green ridge visitors Saturday and Sunday.

Bear Ridge News—Miss Adeline Hupp of Little Bear ridge spent the week-end with her sister, Mrs. K. D. Ingle and family. Announcements have been received of the arrival of a 12½-pound son at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Clayton Mowry of Lone, Wash., October 29. Mrs. Mowry was formerly Miss Julia Slind of this place. Mr. and Mrs. Chas. Eowers and son of Avon are moving down to their new home, recently purchased here. If the weather permits a steady run, Gabriel Forest and Joe Bowers will finish bean threshing on the ridge this week. A. W. Jones and W. C. May of Toston, Montana, arrived in Kendrick last Saturday to look after business matters here. They state that all irrigated crops in their community were good. They had four inches of snow shortly before they started, but they didn't expect it to last long. They state that there is considerable threshing to be done, but as it is usually quite dry until Christmas or later, there is no cause for worry.

Will Attend Education Association

Latah county's delegates to the Idaho Education association's meeting in Boise Friday and Saturday of this week, will leave here Thursday morning. Horace Woodworth, county school superintendent said today, reports the Moscow Idahonian.

It is anticipated that a resolution will be passed urging additional schooling for the certification of teachers, and that the convention delegates will endorse the present equalization law which distributes funds to schools according to the number of pupils.

Mr. Woodworth said that C. E. Roberts, newly-elected state superintendent of schools, will address legislative and Administrative Policy.

It is believed that the controversial text book ruling of the attorney general will also be discussed.

In addition to Mr. Woodworth, delegates who will make the trip are Kenneth F. Dean, Genesee, J. C. Eddy, Potlatch; Anna Marie Oslund and David Ross, both of Troy; E. S. Suenkel, Deary; Lowell W. Mason, Kendrick; Olwyn Evans, Genesee, and Wayne Barney, Juliaetta.

Please Turn In Bands

"During the last year about 200 banded Chinese pheasants have been liberated in Nez Perce and Latah counties in an effort to ascertain how far the birds will travel in a given time, but as yet we have had no reports of the banded birds being killed," said Paul Flinn, superintendent of the state game farm at Lapwai. "These birds were banded for a purpose and sportsmen who have downed chinks wearing the aluminum bands on the leg should notify the state game farm, giving the number of the band and the location where the bird was killed. We have maintained data regarding where each bird was liberated and these reports will enable us to reach conclusions."

"Many mallard ducks raised in the creek flowing through the state farm were also banded for the biological survey. These bands may be returned to the department at Washington, D. C., or the state game farm. Sportsmen should also report killing or seeing melanistic mutants. These birds are glossy black with purple tinges. About 6,000 were liberated between 1933 and 1936 and they are reported to have disappeared. Three plants were made this year but no bands have been reported to the farm as requested."

Brother Dies, Gun Victim

The only brother of Clarence Jenks, Moscow printer and active in sportsmen's circles, was killed in a hunting accident Monday afternoon near Dent. He was Clark Jenks, 32, who died from a wound in the left hip accidentally inflicted by Willis Grim, a brother-in-law.

Jenks died from loss of blood about an hour after he was shot.

Jenks was hiding behind a bush when Grim mistook him for a deer and fired from between 200 and 300 yards. The two men were members of different hunting parties. Companions carried Jenks nearly a mile and then started toward Orofino in an automobile. He died before reaching Orofino.

Coroner George Blake termed the shooting "purely accidental." Clarence Jenks left for Orofino Tuesday morning. Other survivors are his widow, two small sons and three sisters. — Daily Idahonian.

Former Nurse Visits

Mrs. Don Kinzie of Moscow visited Mrs. F. H. Eider on Friday. Mrs. Kinzie will be remembered here as Miss Ione Reiman, public health nurse for the Kendrick community.
