One Third the Time, One Tenth the Labor!

Once, the homemaker's week started all wrong....with a dreadful washing and ironing. But now, wash days and ironing days can be fun. An electric washer turns out your clothes, sweet and clean, in no time. An electric ironer slicks them through to perfect smoothness so easily you'll scarcely realize it when you're done. They're one of the household's greatest labor-saving teams. They'll clean up the week's wash in one third the timeand with one tenth the labor. Let them work for you....next washday, and for all the washdays to come.

WE NEED MORE CONTENTED COWS HAROLD THOMAS, Editor

EDITORIAL

Well, Folks-It'll soon be Valentine's Day again, and so far we really haven't had any winter. Of course, we've had snow flurries, and lots of rain squalls, and plenty of falling weather, but as far as really cold weather goes, well, we just haven't had

And the warm winter weather only emphasizes our point of the necessity for modern cold boxes, for without them, a great deal of home killed and prepared meat would undoubtedly have spoiled.

You can't beat the economy of keeping fresh friut or meats the frozen way, and before you do any late winter butchering, we suggest that come in and find out how cheap and easy it is to have a cold box.

And don't forget, we want to buy your cream. The more of it that you've got to sell the better we like it. Bring it in, we've got the cash. Let's swap!

An old codger was crossing a busy corner when a huge police dog dashed into him and knocked him down. Just then an Austin skidded around the corner, bump-ed into him, inflicting more severe bruises.

Bystanders assisted him to his feet and some one asked him if the dog had hurt him. "Not exactly," he replied, "it was the tin can tied to his tail that did the most damage.

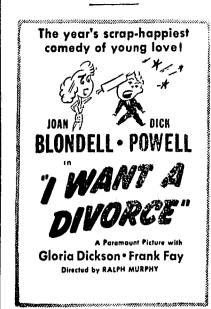

Ole Johnson is trying to invent an alarm clock that will awaken his wife without awakening him, says Dame Rumor.

Asked what happens to the girl who wears cotton stockings, girl replied, "nothing."

HARDWARE Headquarters

This Coming Year

This year, with the National Defense Program drawing heavily on the iron, steel, aluminum, lead and other kindred markets, we may experience an upward trend in these commodities. Therefore, our advice to you is to compute your needs for the season as early as possible, and buy accordingly.

When you know your needs, come to us. If we haven't what you want, we'll get it for you.

Remember—Hardware is our business, and we want to save you money as well as serve.
