WHAT HAPPENED HERE 20 YEARS AGO THIS WEEK

Mrs. Ralph Knepper and Mrs. A. V. Dunkle drove to Moscow Thursday to spend the day with relatives and friends.

Pete Stump of Southwick has traded his Chalmers car for a new Sampson truck. He will use the truck to haul his crop.

Mrs. Anna Saylor of Clarkston arrived Wednesday afternoon to visit at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Jake Berreman.

Halvor Nelson of Farmington, Wash., arrived Thursday afternoon to look after business interests in this locality.

The household goods of Rev. Rein, the Lutheran minister of Cameron, arrived here the first of the week, and were taken to Cameron by auto truck.

Several outbuildings on the John Roberts place on American ridge were destroyed by fire last Sunday morning. The fire was checked before it reached either the house or barn.

Miss Esther Clem returned home the first of the week from Pomeroy, where she had been working in the telephone office. She is now keeping books for the Vollem-Clearwater Co.

The first Juliaetta grown water melons appeared on the local market the first of the week. They are retailing at 4c per pound.

Miss Ruth Dammar, who is attending summer school in Lewiston, visited home folks over the weekend.

Mr. and Mrs. O. E. MacPhearson and son Donald spent several days last week in Spokane, visiting Mr. MacPhearson's brother.

As the crop season progresses crop yield averages are not looming up as big as expected. Some fields have yielded but 18 bushels to the acre of winter wheat, the low average being due mainly to smut. The general averages seem to be between 25 and 30 bushels, which is not up to earlier expectations, as many of the growers were looking forward to 40 bushel yields. Smut and extremely hot weather during the filling period are given as reasons for the lighter crop.

A fire started just inside of one of the big front windows of the Grand Theatre last Saturday morning and caused considerable uncertainty for a few minutes. The flames were discovered before they had made much headway and several buckets of water proved sufficient to extinguish them. In the meantime the hose cart was rushed to the scene and was ready for action within three minutes after the alarm had been given. The origin of the fire is unknown. The only damage done was a broken glass in the front window.

T. H. Sturdevant, who has the contract for building the bridge across Bear Creek, stated this week that if everything went well the latter part of next week. It is a 45-foot steel structure, the steel from the old bridge, which was washed out last spring, being used in the construction of the new bridge. Concrete abutments, 11½ by 12½ feet high, resting on bed-rock and having 8-foot wings, are being put in. The new strip of road, which is to be built under the direction of M. O. Raby, leads from the bridge to the Little Bear ridge grade, is a great improvement. It is entirely out of the creek bottom and will be in no danger from high water.

A. N. Rogstad took 15 head of Duroc hogs to Moscow the first of the week by auto truck. He went through Kendrick about 4:30 in the morning, reaching Moscow in the early morning hours. The hogs averaged 190 pounds each and he received for them 13-4 cents a pound. They were fattened on 85c barley. Mr. Rogstad said he knew of nothing on the farm at the present time that represented a better profit than hogs with the prevailing price of pork and feed.

One of the most disastrous accidents that has ever happened in this community occurred five miles above Kendrick Sunday afternoon, when three young people were drowned in the Potlatch. The victims of the drowning were Bertha McAllister of Crescent, Robert Ferguson, Jr., and Erwin Paulson, both of Troy. Viola McAllister narrowly escaped death in her heroic efforts to save her sister and the two young men. The two young men had been visiting at the McAllister home Sunday. Early in the afternoon they drove to the Potlatch in company with the Misses McAllister, for a swim. The younger sister, Viola, was the only member of the party who could swim. The story, as told by Miss Viola McAllister, is in substance, as follows: On account of her inability to swim, she was staying in the shallow water across the stream from her sister. It is believed that she slipped on one of the large rocks in the bottom of the creek and fell into deep water. The other three members of the party rushed to her aid, but the drowning girl and the two young men were carried under water to their death. Miss Viola was dragged under the water twice in her efforts to save her companions. It was with difficulty that she reached the bank of the stream after her vain attempt to save the others. She then ran barefooted over a mile to the A. G. Wilson home for aid. From there telephone messages were sent to Kendrick for assistance and a party of men left immediately in cars to help recover the bodies. After repeated attempts Vance Penland of Juliaetta finally succeeded in locating the bodies and recovered them from about 12 feet

Many Attend Ball Game

An estimated 50 to 75 residents of Kendrick and vicinity drove to Lewiston Monday evening to witness one of the Junior League championship games at Bengal field, between Lewiston and Burley — and the cause for their being there was Ossie Kanikkeberg, of Kendrick, who is a star player on the Lewiston aggregation — and he did not disappoint his audience, making a hit and two put-outs, one of them on a double play.

Those whose names we have been able to learn were Mr. and Mrs. E. A. Deobald and sons John and Teddy, R. L. Blewett, F. B. Higley, Wayland Davis, Mr. and Mrs. Roy Ramey and daughter Jean, Mr. and Mrs. A. O. Kanikkeberg and family, Dr. and Mrs. G. W. McKeever and daughters, Edgar Long, Beverly and Marilyn Schupfer and Charley Candler.

MRS. MARY BECHTOL, 82, SUMMONED BY DEATH

Mrs. Mary A. Bechtol, 82, widow of Samuel A. Bechtol, died at the home of her daughter, Mrs. Harry Riley, in Spokane, Tuesday morning August 5, from the infirmities attendant with advancing age.

A native of Indiana, she was born October 12, 1859, and was married to Samuel A. Bechtol in that state.

She, with her husband and children, came west about the turn of the century, locating for a time at Kamiah. In 1902 they moved to Kendrick, where Mrs. Bechtol resided until moving to Spokane about four years ago.

Mrs. Bechtol saw the fires and floods that swept Kendrick as the years rolled around — but was ever willing to lend a helping hand to friends and neighbors. She was active in community affairs, and for many years was an affiliate of the Methodist church.

Survivors are three sons and two daughters, John L. Bechtol, Lewiston; Elmer E. Bechtol and Mrs. Sarah Erickson, both of Seattle; Clarence Bechtol, Corona, Calif.; and Mrs. Goldie Riley, Spokane. Two brothers in Indiana, 15 grandchildren and six great-grandchildren also survive.

Funeral services were held Wednesday afternoon at 3:00 o'clock from the Community church in Kendrick, with the Rev. Roy Murray officiating. Interment was in the Kendrick cemetery.

Music was furnished by Thos. McDowell, N. E. Walker, Mrs. D. A. Christensen and Mrs. George Brocke, accompanied at the piano by Mrs. Herman Schupfer.

Callbearers were Silvie Cook, A. C. Deeter, Joe Davis, Fred Crocker, Thos. McDowell and Ira Foster, all old-time friends of the family.

Weather Cool And Comfy

Potlatch weather has been all that anyone could ask for the past few days, cool nights and mornings, and very pleasant during the day — weather that could not be better for harvesting operations.

This cooler weather, following the showers of last week, has been fine in promoting the growth of beans, and the filling out of wheat heads.

Girl Scout Beach Party

The Junior group of Girl Scouts and their leader, Mrs. Marvin Long, enjoyed a beach party Wednesday evening on the Clearwater. Outdoor cookery being the chief interest, as the girls had to pass tests on this achievement.

Mrs. W. L. McCreary helped to transport the group to Gibson's beach.

Employed In Store

Billy Weyen, who suffered a broken left collar bone while playing donkey baseball last week for the Kendrick Bean Growers, is now employed in the hardware store part of that organization.

Undergoes Operation

Word was received last week-end that Bert Biddison, who has been in the Veteran's Hospital at Walla Walla for some time, had undergone an operation on one side of his nose the Monday preceding. He is reported as recovering satisfactorily.

Visiting Relatives Here

Mrs. Electa G. Poulas arrived here last week from California for a visit with friends and relatives. She brought her sister, Mrs. Ivan Craig and children, who have been visiting in the Poulas home, to their home here.

Remember — Kendrick is your home town — be loyal to it.

of water. The bodies of the young men were taken to Kendrick and from there to Troy, while the body of Miss McAllister was taken to her home at Crescent.

Big Bear Ridge—Misses Anna and Josie Hoxing of Volin, S. D., are here visiting Miss Johanna Hooker.

Miss Helen Hanson arrived here from Spokane Saturday to visit at the home of her aunt, Mrs. Anton Nelson. Misses Mabel and Bertha Kleth arrived here Thursday from Phoenix, Arizona, where they have made an extended stay. Born to Mr. and Mrs. Lester McGraw, July 26th, a daughter. Threshing began on the ridge the first of the week.

JOYCE WALTHALL BRIDE OF WERNER BRAMMER

The lawn of the home of Mr. and Mrs. R. A. Walthall, Lewiston, was the scene of a very pretty wedding last Sunday afternoon, August 3, at 4:00 o'clock, when Miss Joyce Walthall was united in marriage with Werner Brammer of Carriger, son of Mr. and Mrs. Henry Brammer, the beautiful marriage service being performed by the Rev. Theo. Meske, pastor of the Cameron Lutheran church.

The bride wore a teal blue fall dress, and carried a bouquet of roses and daisies. She was attended by the groom's mother, Mrs. Henry Brammer, as maid of honor, who wore a blue silk print dress. She carried a bouquet of sweet peas. The groom wore a conventional dark suit, and was attended by the bride's father, Mr. R. A. Walthall, who was attired in a light suit.

Following the ceremony the guests were served refreshments of cake, ice cream and punch, the bride cutting the three-tier wedding cake.

There were 57 guests present: Rev. and Mrs. Theo. Meske and son Teddy, Mr. and Mrs. August Brammer and family, Mr. and Mrs. Carl Koopp, Mr. and Mrs. Walter Koopp and daughter of Carriger; Southwick; Mrs. Henry Brammer, Mr. and Mrs. Pullman; Mildred and Selma of daughters; Mildred and Selma of daughters; Mr. and Mrs. Bob Shawley and daughter, Mrs. John Groh, Mrs. C. K. Courtright (the bride's grandmother) and daughter Marilyn; Mrs. Etta Smith and Mrs. Jack Hathaway of Spokane; Mr. and Mrs. Albert Abitz and Mr. and Mrs. Bob Kelly of Orofino, Lawrence Abitz and Clyde Hayes of Salt Lake City, Utah; Mr. and Mrs. Wait Meyer of Kamiah; Mr. and Mrs. Sam Widmar and children, Kellogg; Mr. and Mrs. Aug. Meyer, Jerry Evans and Mr. and Mrs. Marvin Denning of Lewiston; Mr. and Mrs. Henry Wendt and daughters Marjorie and Esther of Southwick; Mr. and Mrs. Herman Meyer and family of Leland; Mr. and Mrs. Ray Walthall and Keith Walthall.

The happy couple were charivariated Tuesday night at their home on the Brammer farm near Southwick.

Both of the contracting parties are well and favorable known in this section, Miss Walthall having taught school on American ridge for two terms, and made many friends. Mr. Brammer was raised in this section, is well known as an athlete and ball player. He is now engaged in farming near Southwick.

The good wishes of all go out to them.

Commercial Club Meeting

The regular monthly meeting of the Kendrick Commercial Club will be held on Monday evening, August 11 at 8:30 p. m., in the basement of the Community church, the Ladies Aid serving the dinner.

There are a number of important things to come before this meeting, including the election of officers, as well as complete financial reports of the Fourth of July celebration.

It is requested that every member of the club be present for the transaction of these matters. Remember the date and the hour, and the place, and plan to be present.

Ross-Marner Nuptials

Miss Harriet Ross of Juliaetta daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Harry Ross, and Walter Marner of Kendrick were married last Friday evening in Lewiston by Justice C. P. Hinkle, at 5:00 p. m. Mrs. Harry Ross and Mrs. C. Marner, mothers of the contracting parties were witnesses.

The happy young couple will make their home in Kendrick, where the groom is employed by the Perryman Confectionery.

Celebrates Birthday

Those present were Douglas and Charles Christensen, Bobby McCall, Parker McCreary, Buddy Holt, De-Los Miller, Danny and David Crocker.

Machinery Going Through

Several big truck loads of road machinery, as well as tractors on the own power, and other equipment of a like nature, have gone through Kendrick the past few days, headed toward the Harvard country, where another link of road is to be built.

Work was started on this link early this spring, but suspended for some time, due to the excessive rainfall.

Missing Link Work Progressing

Work is progressing nicely on the "missing link" between Kendrick and Deary, on the upper end of Big Bear ridge. Grading is said to be practically completed, and the surface work started. When completed this link will give Kendrick a direct, all-weather connection between this section and the northern road system.

Beautiful Morning Glory

Mrs. George Leith has some very pretty and fancy Morning Glories in her flower garden, one blossom of which, from a variety known as "Heavenly Blue," measured four inches across, without flattening the curled leaves — and was truly a bloom of beauty.

Make Sixty-Six Arrests

Conservation officers of the Idaho Fish and Game department made 66 arrests for violation of the fish and game laws during July, state director Owen W. Morris announces.

Principal violation for the month, as it has been for the last two, was fishing without a license, which accounted for 19 arrests.

Other violations and the number of arrests are as follows: Non-residents of Idaho fishing with a resident license, 11; fishing in closed waters, 7; exceeding the bag-limit of trout, 5; illegal use of salmon eggs, 5; killing sagehens during the closed season, 4; capturing fawn deer, 3; spearing salmon in closed waters, 3; illegal possession of beaver hides, 2.

There was one arrest for each of the following violations: killing bear out of season; shooting from a public highway; fishing for salmon with snag hooks; fishing with more than one line; illegal possession of deer; illegal possession of fawn hides, and trapping without a license.

Commenting on the violations of the sagehen law, Morris said: "Several years ago the sagehen population in Idaho was rapidly diminishing, and in an effort to rehabilitate the bird, the game department issued an order closing all sagehen shooting throughout the state. Now for the first time in years, these birds are coming back in good numbers, and persons going afield are warned not to shoot them. Conservation officers are patrolling and persons violating the law are subject to a maximum fine of $300 or six months in jail, or both."

Sooner or later every merchant is forced to this conclusion: Folks patronize those who advertise — their names become familiar.

Harvesting Proceeding Slowly

Harvesting operations this year seem to be proceeding smoothly, but more slowly than in years past. This slowness can be accounted for chiefly by the fact there is much down grain, which necessitates a much slower combine speed, as well as special reels and pickers for gathering, heavy straw has also retarded machine speed.

The uneven ripening of the grain, with high knolls dead ripe and the ravines and flats still slightly green, have also slowed operations, for some operators have found it necessary to cut around the gullies, leaving them for a later pickup.

Wheat, however, is moving into Kendrick in a steady flow, and will no doubt continue to do so until all is harvested, unless the weather man interferences.

Yields are said to be very satisfactory to date.

Cars Too Close Together

Tuesday afternoon about 5:00 o'clock a truck driven by Irvin Draper of Leland, and a Plymouth sedan driven by Archie Stewart of Lapwal, came too close together at the corner of Fifth and Main streets and as a result the sedan got the worst of the deal, the right front fender was pretty badly dented, the small ventilating glass of the front door was broken, the right headlight was made to look like a pancake, the radiator shoved back a few inches, and other minor dents put in. But by the use of a crowbar the radiator was put back in place and a few twists given the fan blade—and the car was off, seemingly as good as ever, with the exception of the happenings above mentioned. The truck was not damaged.

The two vehicles were going west, the truck turning toward the Kendrick Rochdale elevator, when the accident happened, the car undertaking to pass the truck at the intersection — and falling.

No one was hurt.

Be a success—Advertise.

WHEAT PRICES UP IN NORTHWESTERN MARKETS

Wheat futures at Portland showed the September option 2½c per bushel higher during the week ending on August 1, but cash wheat markets were somewhat irregular with advances of ¼c to 2c per bushel on the principal classes, according to the Department of Agriculture. The cash wheat situation was somewhat unusual with demand for spot and nearby shipments very slow due to the storage situation at Coast terminals. The demand for later deliveries was somewhat better but trading was restricted by lack of offerings. Wheat receipts at Puget Sound and Columbia river terminals advanced sharply to 1,526 cars for the week against 1,068 cars for the previous week. These receipts principally reflected CCC wheat being moved for terminal storage, with a portion diverted to California. Export flour sales to the Philippines and Americas under the indemnity plan continued relatively light at unchanged indemnity payments. The other export flour sales to the Orient were being restricted by the Japanese credit situation. This tended to lessen demand from mills for cash wheat despite a somewhat improved domestic flour business recently. The serious storage situation at coast terminal markets was an additional important factor in the light trading and movement in spot wheat. Wheat millfeeds were holding very firm at recent advances and harvesting was progressing rapidly under generally favorable conditions with high yields generally reported. Spring wheat is ripe over considerable areas in Oregon and is affected by rust in some localities. Some difficulty is reported in harvesting lodged winter wheat in many localities. Around 1,700,000 more bushels of wheat were received at north coast terminal markets during July this year than during the same month a year ago, which partially accounts for the present light market situation.

Cash wheat bid prices at Portland on August 1, showed soft white (hard white applicable) at 87½c; the same with Rex wheat not applicable at 91c; white club at 92c; western red at 90¼c; hard red winter 88c per bushel, all basis No. 1 grade in bulk. Cash wheat prices at Seattle on August 1 showed western white at 88c; western red at 87c; hard red winter at 83c and hard white (baart) at $1.00.

The San Francisco wheat market averaged slightly stronger during the past week, reflecting an improved demand for the light offerings. Prices generally averaged 2½c per 100 higher compared with a week ago. Trading in California wheat continued rather limited with ideas of buyers and sellers generally far apart. Mills and feeders were generally securing supplies from other states, which were mostly offering wheat at lower levels than California grown supplies. The Pacific Northwest continued to supply the bulk of outside wheat and at the close of the week, Washington-Oregon shippers were offering No. 2 soft white wheat for quick rail shipment at around $1.67½c per 100, delivered San Francisco and nearby points. California grown No. 1 hard white wheat was quoted at San Francisco Aug. 1 at $1.80 to $1.82½; No. 1 soft white at $1.77 to $1.80, and No. 1 white club at $1.75 to $1.78 per 100, sacked basis.

In the cash wheat market at Minneapolis, wheat premiums were steady to firm, while other grains were irregular, with premiums on oats and corn easier. Receipts of cash wheat continued liberal for this time of the year, although smaller than last week, with 3,247 cars of all classes at Minneapolis and 1,362 cars at Duluth. According to trade estimates, about 30 per cent of the local receipts were CCC cars. Mill demand continued fair to good and protein premiums were generally firm.

Cash wheat prices at Kansas City were about unchanged for the week with a generally good demand for the open market supplies. At the close of the week, most trading was at about $1.00 for No. 1 hard winter.

At Chicago the storage situation was reported not so acute. Demand was good for the light receipts of wheat, but bookings to arrive were slow. The larger percentage of receipts were going into loan storage. Closing cash basis was about $1.03 for No. 2 hard.

Demand was good for all types of wheat at Ogden, nearly all of new wheat arriving going into storage. Quotations at that market, basis No. 2 f. o. b. Ogden mills on Aug. 1 showed dark hard winter and dark northern spring at 89c, hard winter and northern spring at 81c, hard white at $1.00, soft white at 89c, western white 87c per bushel for No. 2 hard winter and No. 2 northern spring, basis f. o. b. Colorado common points. Receipts at Denver totaled 316 cars of wheat for the week. Receipts at Ogden totaled 168 cars with shipments, including seven cars to Los Angeles and one car to San Francisco.

The weather during the last week in July was favorable for completing winter wheat harvest and for threshing, which made rapid progress. In the spring wheat belt the high temperatures forced rapid ripening of late grain with more or less shrinkage. Combining and threshing of early crops progressed rapidly in South Dakota, while harvesting was in progress in southern sections of North Dakota. Returns generally were reported excellent.

GRAIN MARKET

While high temperatures caused damage to spring wheats the possibility of rust damage was almost eliminated. Loss due to stem rust will probably not exceed a trace in Montana or North Dakota and will be under one per cent in South Dakota.

World wheat production outside of Russia and China, from present indications, will show little net change from a year ago. A prospective increase of around 125 million bushels in continental Europe about offset decreases in other countries. Present crop prospects in continental Europe suggest a production of about 1,370 million bushels compared with the very small crop of about 1,245 million bushels produced last year. Reductions in crops in Canada and India are expected to more than offset increases in the United States and Australia. The crop of India is officially estimated at 372 million bushels or 25 million bushels below the estimates for the 1940 crop.

The 1941 crop in the Orient now promises to be slightly above that of 1940. A slight increase in China this year offsets reduced yields reported for Japan and Manchuria.

The Canadian crop is tentatively placed at between 275 and 300 million bushels on the basis of present weather conditions, or about 250 million bushels less than the large 1940 crop. The first wheat delivery quota in Canada on the 1941-42 quota will be five bushels an authorized acre, effective Aug. 1, the Canadian wheat board announced during the past week.

The Commodity Credit Corporation loans on 1941 wheat amounted to approximately $1,450,000 through July 22, and covered 1,478,000 bushels of wheat. All but about 270,000 bushels of this quantity was in Nebraska. Only 40,000 bushels were under loan July 22, in Oklahoma; 76,000 in Texas; 63,000 in Missouri and 35,000 in Kansas.

Farm prices at the middle of July were higher than a month earlier on wheat, corn and flaxseed, but lower on oats, barley and rye.

DOINGS OF SOUTHWICK NEIGHBORS AND FRIENDS

Everyone is busy combining their wheat, some have finished cutting, but quite a number of fields have yet to be cut.

Werner Brammer, Southwick, son of Mr. and Mrs. Henry Brammer, and Miss Joyce Walthall of Lewiston, were married last Sunday in Lewiston, at the home of the bride's parents.

Several from here attended the funeral of Bernard Reece at Cavendish Tuesday afternoon. Burial was at Lewiston.

Mrs. Donna Berriman has spent the past week in Clarkston at the home of her daughter, Mrs. Ola Betts. Mrs. Betts returned to her home Sunday, after spending several days in the White hospital.

Mr. and Mrs. Ray Whiting have employment at the Duthie farm in Lewiston.

Mr. and Mrs. Earl Whiting and James and Byron Tupper spent Sunday afternoon with Henry Bleck.

Rev. and Mrs. Tetwiler visited at the Nels Longteig and Earl Whiting homes Thursday afternoon.

Mr. and Mrs. Dick Winegardner and family were Sunday dinner guests of Mr. and Mrs. L. J. Southwick.

Cecil Harris of Pullman spent Saturday and Sunday with his parents, Mr. and Mrs. Gordon Harris. Cecil had the misfortune to injure an eye. While driving a piece of steel a piece flew off, broke his glasses, and a part of the glass struck his eye. It is not certain, as yet, whether he will save his eye or not.

Charley Harris of Pullman spent Monday evening with home folks here.

Rev. and Mrs. Tetwiler and Mrs. Dick Winegardner were shoppers in Lewiston Tuesday.

Mr. and Mrs. J. W. Henderson were Sunday guests of Mr. and Mrs. Homer Betts.

Get What You Pay For

"Motorists who buy an inferior grade of equipment for their trucks and trailers to meet the requirements of existing laws get exactly what they are paying for. The motorist who buys tail lights, clearance lights or reflectors that cannot be seen the required 500 feet, or may be easily shattered, because of the poor grade of glass and the cheap quality, is the loser. This also applies to other equipment."

"Where life depends upon having a good product, buying the cheap quality of merchandise, because of the price, may be extremely dangerous," declared J. L. Balderston, Commissioner of Law Enforcement.

Thousands of dollars are spent each year by motorists for equipment which is sub-standard, and is intended for protection against the hazard involved. In most cases the purchaser does not get his money's worth, even though no serious damage is done.

Certain standards of equipment for motor vehicles have been set up by the Interstate Commerce Commission and they have been adopted by many states. If a motorist buys certain equipment for his car because the quality of the article had been cut to a point where it undersells the reliable article, that motorist is making a grave mistake when an examination of the equipment is made.

Inferior grades of safety equipment including flares, reflectors and clearance lamps are being sold the unsuspecting users of trucks and trailers. Many of these items do not meet the requirements of the Interstate Commerce Commission, the State of Idaho, or other states. They are not durable and vibration will finally shatter them. They must be replaced before they can give the required protection.

A concentrated drive is planned by the state police to gain the desired cooperation from the wholesale and retail stores to offer a better grade of equipment. Safety lanes for the inspection of cars and their equipment is planned. A few manufacturers cater to the market exclusively for the cheap grade of equipment. Fortunately many manufacturers of high grade products also produce competition lines which they will furnish if the buyer insists. Perhaps it hurts the salesman to supply a product which is not adequately made to insure safety on the motor vehicles.

All For Home And Country

Much has been heard and read about the sincerity or lack of that quality in men of great stature among financiers and industrialists. Men who, by thrift, efficiency or heritage, or a combination of all three, have built, maintained or increased fortunes, endure criticism or enjoy praise at various times.

Often criticism has arisen from the mere fact that a man is wealthy. John D. Rockefeller, Jr., is one of those men. An example of Mr. Rockefeller's sincerity was forcefully provided recently when he personally contributed $100,000 to the United Service Organizations' fund for building and maintaining the morale of the nation's defenders through establishment of much-needed clubhouses near army, navy and defense industry concentrations.

Not satisfied with sitting back after extending his own financial assistance to an organization that will greatly benefit America's soldiers, including his own volunteer son, Mr. Rockefeller accepted the honorary chairmanship of the New York parents' and neighbors' division of USO—an assignment which brings him in close touch with parents representing all races and creeds, all branches of endeavor and all possible brackets of incomes.

Mr. Rockefeller and all of these others were drawn together in the bond of love for the boys in the service.

It might be well to study a ten-point creed which Mr. Rockefeller told the members of the division, he holds essential to usefulness and happiness. It is:

"I believe in the supreme worth of the individual and in his right to life, liberty and the pursuit of happiness.

"I believe that every right implies a responsibility; every opportunity an obligation, every possession a duty.

"I believe that the law was made for man and not man for the law; the government is the servant of the people and not their master.

"I believe in the dignity of labor, whether with the head or hand; that the world owes no man a living but that it owes every man an opportunity to make a living.

"I believe that thrift is essential to well-ordered living and that economy is a prime requisite of a sound financial structure, whether in government, business or personal affairs.

"I believe that truth and justice are fundamental to an enduring social order.

"I believe in the sacredness of a promise, that a man's word should be as good as his bond; that character—not wealth or power or position—is of supreme worth.

"I believe that the rendering of useful service is the common duty of mankind and that only in the purifying fire of sacrifice is the cross of selfishness consumed and the greatness of the human soul set free.

"I believe in an all-wise and all-loving God, named by whatever name, and that the individual's highest fulfillment, greatest happiness and widest usefulness are to be found in living in harmony with His will.

"I believe that love is the greatest thing in the world; that it alone can overcome hate; that right can and will triumph over might."

Rich man, poor man, beggar man—a lofty creed!

Over Two Hundred Lose Licenses Driving privileges have been denied to 246 persons who have been convicted of drunken driving of motor vehicles upon the Idaho highways during the first seven months of the current year, according to the reports from the office of J. L. Baderston, Commissioner of Law Enforcement. Of the above number 182 were revocations for drunken driving; 50 suspensions for drunken driving and 13 for reckless driving. One drunken driver is serving a prison term for the death of a rider in a crash.

During the two years 1939 and 1940 driving privileges were denied to 853 persons. On June 1st, last, the accumulative record showed that there were 429 suspensions and revocations pending. During the months of June and July 66 revocations and 21 suspensions were made. Four of the suspensions were for reckless driving and the balance of the suspensions and revocations were for drunken driving.

A person whose license has been revoked is forbidden to operate a motor vehicle on Idaho highways for a period of one year and the operator whose license has been suspended may not drive during the period of the suspension, the commissioner announced.

Of the licenses suspended and revoked during the seven months of the current year, five were female drivers and 241 male drivers.

By county, for the seven months, the revocations were: Twin Falls, 17; Kootenai, 15; Shoshone, 13; Bingham, 9; Ada, Bonneville, Canyon and Clearwater, 8 each; Nez Perce, 6; Minidoka, 5; Bannock, Benewah, Boundary, Latah and Lewis, 4 each; Blaine, Elmore, Owyhee and Power, 3 each; Adams, Camas, Fremont, Madison, Valley and Washington, 2 each; Adams, Camas, Fremont, Gooding, Jerome and Lincoln, 1 each.

For the same seven months suspensions by counties follow: Canyon, 10; Bannock and Shoshone, 8 each; Bingham, 7; Twin Falls, 6; Kootenai, 4; Ada, Franklin and Owyhee, 2; Bonneville, Boundary, Cassia, Gem, Idaho and Power, 1 each. Among those who lost licenses were 75 drivers between 31 and 50 years of age, and 60 drivers between the ages of 21 and 30. Seven out-of-state drivers had licenses suspended and 28 were revoked during the first seven months of this year.

On Citizenship

The obligations of good citizenship do not rest solely or chiefly in the exercise of the privilege of voting, or in conducting campaigns or in holding offices. Important as are all these duties, their performance will amount to nothing unless our citizens are imbued with the spirit of our institutions, which means respect for a government of law, a sincere desire to better in every practical way the conditions of human life, loyalty in all relations of life, and the dispositions to be kind and fair in all dealings with one's fellowmen.—Charles Evans Hughes.

Why Not?

Teacher—"Johnny, this essay on 'My Mother' is just the same as your sisters'." Johnny—"Yes, ma'am. We have the same mother."

"The Round Up"

This week's offering at the Kendrick Theatre will be "The Round Up," which is said to be better than a circus, more thrilling than a rodeo, more action than a heavy-weight fight—it's a real, honest-to-Injun cowboy round-up that will keep you sitting on the edge of your seat throughout this famous, traditional spectacle of the west. You will see how Richard Dix and Preston Foster fight the love-code of the west over beautiful Patricia Morrison, Don Wilson, laugh-getting announcer on the Jack Benny radio program also plays an important role in this play. In addition there will be a specially selected double-length short. The usual cartoon will also be shown.

WOLVERINE SHELL HORSEHIDES

EVEN after fourteen hours in the ol' south forty, your feet feel wonderful in soft, flexible WOLVERINES. Just like wearing moccasins all day long. Let 'em get soaking wet from rain or snow—they'll still dry out soft and pliable. It's that secret process of triple-tanning that does it! And it gives them miles and months of EXTRA wear. Come in and try on a pair.

Food Stamps Buy Fresh Fruit

Further stamp plan aid to local farmers faced with seasonal surpluses of perishable fruits and vegetables was assured with the release this week by the U. S. Department of Agriculture of the blue stamp food list for August.

All the commodities named to the list by the Secretary of Agriculture may be purchased with blue food stamps by those families taking part in the food stamp plan. Willard F. Walter, surplus marketing administration area supervisor, announced that 14,458 low-income persons were participating in the plan in the Idaho area.

Blue stamp foods designated for the month of August, are as follows: fresh vegetables, including potatoes, fresh plums, fresh prunes, fresh pears, fresh oranges, fresh peaches, fresh apples, corn meal, shell eggs, hominy, dry edible beans, wheat flour, enriched wheat flour, self-rising flour, enriched self-rising flour, whole wheat (graham) flour, dried prunes and raisins.

Self-rising flour is interpreted to be flour which contains soda, phosphate and salt. On the July list, but eliminated from the August list, is pork and pork lard.
