WHAT HAPPENED HERE 20 YEARS AGO THIS WEEK

The barn on the Dr. Moser farm on Texas ridge was completely destroyed by fire Tuesday afternoon between 4:00 and 5:00 o'clock. The origin of the fire is unknown. Eastman Bros., who farm the place, had all of their farm machinery, including a Fordson tractor, stored in a wing of the barn. They also had about 500 sacks of grain, mostly barley, in the barn. The machinery is a total loss and the grain so badly damaged that only a part of it can be used for feed. Fortunately the contents of the barn were fully covered by insurance.

With the exception of a small area on the upper end of Big Bear ridge, grain threshing is finished for the season in the Potlatch country. The last of the grain was threshed on Potlatch ridge near Southwick last week-end. Bean threshing will be a brief affair. About a week's threshing will be required to handle this crop, as the acreage is very small.

Mrs. Mary Vaughan returned the first of the week from an auto trip to south Idaho with her son Lyman, and his wife. The party spent two weeks on the trip and report a most enjoyable time. They had very little car trouble and nothing unpleasant to mar the pleasure of the trip. The journey was made by way of Pendleton, over the Blue mountains and the roads, with the exception of a short distance over the mountains, were excellent.

Mrs. V. A. Randall traded her ranch below Juliaetta to E. Zimmerman for a residence in Lewiston. She has rented the ranch from Mr. Zimmerman and will continue to make it her place of residence.

Defense Bond Quiz

Q. I would like to provide a regular income for myself when I retire. Can this be done by buying Defense Savings Bonds?

A. Yes. If you purchase a Bond for $37.50 each month, each bond will mature in exactly 10 years. Thus at the end of 10 years you will have $50 payable each month as each of your Bonds reaches maturity.

Q. But I need more than $50 a month.

A. Then you should invest a larger amount each month. Every $75 you put into Defense Bonds will pay you $100 ten years from now. Meanwhile, your money serves your Government during this period of national emergency.

Note—To buy Defense Bonds and Stamps, go to the nearest post office, bank, or savings and loan association; or write to the Treasurer of the United States, Washington, D. C.

Harvest Situation Serious

The harvest situation in the Potlatch section is becoming a mighty serious one these days. The intermittent rains of the past few days have kept all operations at a standstill, it rains just enough every day to keep the wheat too damp and tough to thresh, with the same situation applying to oats — and unless we get some warm, dry weather in the next few days, the loss sustained will be heavy. It is said that the down grain, of which there is a considerable quantity, and already hard to pick up, stays damp, even when the standing grain is dry enough, and has a tendency to plug the machine, as well as reducing the grade of the wheat.

Beans with but few exceptions, have not yet been cut, and are said to not yet be injured. However, a few more days of this, and second growth feelers will be starting, and when this happens, loss to the bean grower is heavy.

It is sincerely to be hoped that the rains cease, and the sun shines soon.

Local warehousemen stated that when weather permits resumption of harvesting operations that they recommended the grain be sacked, since such handling would much more readily permit the escapement of excess moisture expected in the late threshed grain.

Some down grain is said to be sprouting, and this also forms an additional hazard.

School Opens September 8

Preparations are moving rapidly forward looking toward the opening of school here on September 8.

Many long hours of work have been put in in preparing the building for its "seasonal wear," in the line of painting, varnishing, floor finishing, new venetian blinds at many of the room windows, rearrangement of the High school library, now all behind glass doors — and many other like improvements.

Figures on pre-enrollment indicate as large, if not larger attendance than that of last year, though doubtless a number of these will be quite late, due to the continual rains interfering with harvest, and a shortage of farm help.

However, the buses will be running on schedule again Monday morning, and among them will be a brand new 17-passenger one of the Pine Creek and Texas ridge district. Others are expected to be the same as last year.

Sunday School Picnic

Last Friday afternoon, in the park, the children of the Primary department of the Community church were given a picnic by the teachers of that department.

CASH WHEAT PRICES IRREGULAR IN NORTHWEST

Cash wheat markets in the Pacific Northwest were somewhat irregular during the week ending on August 29, according to the U. S. Department of Agriculture. Price declines were registered in some classes, while advances were made in others as compared with the previous week. The higher prices were mostly for protein qualities. Demand was generally slow at terminals and offerings by growers at country points were light. This made for generally light trading and movement in the cash wheat market, which was reflected in declines in wheat receipts by rail at Puget Sound and Columbia river terminals, to 795 cars for the week. Flour sales to the Philippines under the indemnity plan were lighter than during the previous week, but were slightly more to the Americas. Indemnity payments remained unchanged at 60¢ and $1.35 per barrel, respectively. Trade reports indicated some occasional cars of low protein white wheats moved from this area by rail into the Kansas City territory during the week, although total volume was not large. No export sales of wheat were reported. No marked increase in the demand for cash wheat was noted following re-opening of mills after the settlement of labor difficulties, since both domestic and export flour business was only moderate. Most current transactions in the cash wheat market were reported on a warehouse receipt basis for later shipment to the terminals. Wheat millfeeds markets were holding firm at recent advances. Harvesting was being delayed in some producing areas due to heavy rains, with some damage reported.

Cash wheat prices at Portland on August 25, showed soft white (hard white applicable) at 95¢; the same, except Rex not applicable at 97 1/2¢; white club at 9¢, western red at 98¢ and ordinary hard red winter at 91 1/2¢ per bushel, all basis No. 1 grade in bulk. Cash wheat quotations at Seattle on August 29 showed western white at 94¢, western red at 95¢, hard red winter at 92¢ and hard white (baart) at $1.07 per bushel, all basis No. 1 grade in bulk.

The San Francisco wheat market was quiet but firm during the last week in August, with strength in other markets and moderate offerings offsetting the rather limited demand. Prices were unchanged and were mostly around the high points for the crop year, despite the limited trading and movement. Bay region dealers and industries accumulated relatively heavy stocks of wheat on the advancing market in other recent weeks and this tended to restrict current demand.

Movement of cash wheat tapered off during the week at Minneapolis and reports indicated the peak of the movement has likely been reached. Rainy weather interfered with threshing operations and some arrivals showed the effect of recent wet weather. Minneapolis received 3,785 cars of all classes of wheat, while Duluth unloaded 1,938 cars. The large daily offerings and the extremely limited amount of open storage space caused a further weakening in premiums, and the moisture content was an important price factor.

Due to a storage shortage at Ogden on considerable movement of wheat is expected east, especially to Kansas City. Quotations, basis No. 2, Ogden mills, Aug. 29, were: dark hard winter and dark northern spring, 96¢; hard winter and northern spring 89¢; hard white, $1.00; soft white, 95¢; western white 93¢ per bushel. Denver mills were bidding 87¢ for No. 2 hard winter and No. 2 northern spring, basis f. o. b. Colorado common points.

Cash prices at Kansas City advanced with futures and were also strengthened by a higher premium basis which resulted from rather keen competition of buyers for the meager daily offerings. Receipts dropped to 602 cars for the week. Millers were again the principal buyers, taking all offerings suitable for grinding or blending with stocks on hand. Soft wheat remained very scarce and keen competition for this class boosted prices 1 1/2¢ to 2¢ for the week, with sales of No. 3 red, as the period closed, running as high as 7¢ above the federal loan value.

Harvesting and threshing of wheat is nearing completion in most of the northwestern districts, but was interrupted by showers during the week. Threshing returns are showing very good yields of spring wheat in North Dakota. Preparations for seeding are under way in the central valleys and in the great plains. The soil is in good shape in the lower great plains, especially in Kansas.

Total world wheat supplies in 1941-42, excluding the U. S. S. R. and China, are expected to again be of record size. On the basis of present indications, the crop is about 50 million bushels larger than last year and world stocks are at a new high level. Increases in the stocks in Canada, the United States and the Argentine more than offset reductions in Australia, Europe and North Africa.

GRAIN MARKET

time and the likelihood than many farmers with penalty wheat will reduce their acreage below their allotments in order to market such wheat in 1942-43 without penalty, it is very probable that the actual seedings in 1942 will not differ materially from the allotment. It is too early to appraise the probable acreage for the 1942 world wheat crop, but it now appears that the acreage will be slightly below that of 1940.

Exports of United States wheat, including flour as grain, during the July-June marketing year, totaled 40,671,000 bushels in 1940-41, as compared with 54,274,000 bushels in 1939-40. Over half of the total for the past year consisted of flour made wholly of United States wheat. Exports of wheat as grain amounted to less than 11 million bushels and flour from wheat milled in bond to about seven million bushels. In 1939-40, total wheat exports consisted of about 24 million bushels of grain, 31 million bushels of flour from United States wheat, and nine million bushels of flour from foreign wheat milled in bond, in the United States.

Examination For Annapolis

A competitive examination of candidates desiring nomination to the United States Naval Academy at Annapolis, will be given on October 4, by the Civil Service Commission, according to announcement by Congressman Compton I. White. There will be three vacancies at the Naval Academy available for appointment from the First Congressional District of Idaho in 1942. Boys desiring to compete in the examinations should notify Congressman White so that their names can be certified to the Civil Service Commission not later than September 15.

The examination will cover the subjects of algebra, plane geometry, English composition and literature, and United States history, and will be given in the postoffices at Coeur d'Alene, Sandpoint, Moscow, Lewiston, Grangeville and Weiser.

Instructions issued by the Civil Service commission contain the following information:

"Because of the exacting physical requirements for appointment to the U. S. Naval Academy, it is advisable that candidates nominated for these examinations appear before a qualified physician and undergo a thorough physical examination, as such action may eliminate the possibility of candidates being nominated and passing the written examination, only to be rejected by the medical office of the Navy department because of physical condition.

Candidates for the U. S. Naval Academy must have reached their seventeenth birthday on April 1st, but must not have reached their 21st birthday on March 31st of the year of entering the Academy."

As a result of the competitive examination, the three candidates who receive the highest grades will be nominated and required to take the entrance examination given by the Navy department, which they must pass, before being appointed.

EDITORIAL

Honest-to-goodness, folks, this rain interfering with harvest is really getting to be a mighty serious matter, and unless it ceases soon, the loss will be a very heavy one, despite the so-called government crop insurance. However, there is one consolation — the down grain will provide mighty fine pasture for your cattle, sheep and hogs, all of which are worth money. When it comes to cattle, two incomes are possible, that of the sale of cream — and of beef. Cream, however, is the steady, reliable, year-round income producer. And if you doubt that statement, just try bringing that cream to us and getting "cash on the barrel-head." You'll really like the process.

The meanest man in the world was the ventriloquist who threw his voice under the old maid's bed.

New Circus Actress: "You know, sit, this is my first job in a circus. You'd better tell me what to do to keep from making mistakes."
Manager: "Well, don't ever undress in front of the bearded lady."

It has been rumored lately that Reno is the dairy capital of the world, because the cream of the crop goes there to get separated.

Teacher: "James, why do we call English our mother tongue?"
James: "Because mother uses it more than father!"

Wife: "I was a fool when I married you."
Loving Hubby: "I guess you were, but I was so infatuated at the time I didn't notice it."
