WHAT HAPPENED HERE 20 YEARS AGO THIS WEEK

Miss Mable Eichner went to Lewiston this week, where she will attend Normal.

Jeff Buckles was in town Thursday, transacting business. He expects to spend the winter in Lewiston. His daughter, Carrie, will teach at Kooskia this year and Nellie will teach in the High school at Ferdinand.

Carl Wegner of Minnesota visited in the home of his uncle, C. Wegner, in Kendrick, the first of the week.

E. H. Dammarell was in Moscow Wednesday on business.

Frank Wilken of Cameron left on Sunday to take in the harvest in the vicinity of Craigmont. He is working for Art. Heick of Moscow, who has a threshing machine working in the Craigmont section.

Mr. and Mrs. Bert Black and family, who have been visiting in the Claud Craig home at Leland this summer, returned to their home in Caldwell this week. They drove here and returned in their Buick car. The boys helped with the harvest on Potlatch ridge.

Mr. and Mrs. John Holbeck and children of Glendive, Montana, are visiting in the home of E. Halseth, Kester Dammarell and Cecil Chamberlain will enter the University of Idaho this fall. The term opens September 19.

Lock switches are being installed in the Kendrick school rooms to prevent the children from turning on the electric lights.

John Kite was in Cavendish the first of the week on business. Edgar Long took charge of the lumber yard during his absence.

Mrs. W. A. Perryman spent the week-end in Juliaetta with relatives.

Mr. and Mrs. Joe Fruchtl of Le-nore were transacting business in Kendrick on Monday of this week.

Mr. and Mrs. Otto Schupfer, Miss Olga Wolf and Herman Schupfer drove to Spokane the first of the week to attend the fair.

George and Oscar Torgerson are moving this week from the John Roberts ranch, which George has been farming for the past two years. They will farm the two Nolan places at Park, formerly owned by Ole Torgerson. They will also farm the ranch belonging to Mrs. Torgerson as well as the Torgerson hay ranch, both located in the vicinity of Park. They expect to go into the stock business.

Miss Helen Mielke of Cameron left Wednesday for Spokane, where she will attend the big fair. From there she will go to Kennewick, where she expects to remain until about the first of the year.

John Kite purchased the H. H. Stevens bungalow last week. The Kite family taking immediate possession and are now living in their new home.

Cameron News Items—The following went up to Elk river to try their luck at fishing: Rev. Rein, George and Herman Ehlers, Herman and Otto Silflow, August and Albert Brammer. Mr. and Mrs. August O. Wegner entertained the following at dinner Sunday: Rev. and Mrs. Rein and sons, Mr. and Mrs. Henry Brammer and children, Mr. and Mrs. Carl Koepf. Gus Blum and Carl Flomer, the latter from Genesee, motored here in Mr. Flomer's Overland roadster Sunday evening for a visit with relatives.

A daughter was born to Mr. and Mrs. R. H. Clemenhagen of Big Bear ridge Monday morning.

Changes will occur on both rural routes out of Kendrick as a result of the civil service examination held some time ago. On route No. 1 P. C. Candler will give way to a man from Moscow. Mr. Anderson, a former school teacher, will take over route No. 2, which has been handled by Floyd Stevens.

There seems to be an unusually large amount of wood cut in this vicinity, which is a fortunate circumstance, as there will no doubt be more wood burned this winter than usual, owing to the extremely high price of coal. Wood, delivered in Kendrick, has been retailed for $8.00 a cord and at that price it is at least on a par with coal from the standpoint of economy. Another reason why we can afford to burn wood is that it is a home product and those who have wood to sell need the ready market for it.

Walter Housley, town marshal, captured a 25-gallon keg of mash on the Nez Perce county side of Potlatch creek, east of town. The mash was discovered by one of Fred Crocker's boys while he was fishing in the creek. He threw a live chub in the mash and the fish immediately contracted alcoholic poisoning and died. Mr. Housley, in thus looking after his official duties, knocked somebody's fond expectations in the head.

At the regular meeting of the Rebekah lodge here last Tuesday evening, Mrs. Susan Pemberton was elected representative No. 1 to the Grand Lodge and Mrs. Pearl Long representative No. 2. Mrs. Anna Brocke was elected district deputy president for the coming year.

Returns From East

William Patrick Fitzpatrick, who has charge of music and other subjects in the Kendrick High school, returned to Kendrick last Saturday from Harvard University, where he has been taking summer work, and where he participated in three radio broadcasts which were sent practically all over the world by short wave, in one of which he was soloist. This is indeed a great honor and privilege. He was also assistant conductor at the University.

Mr. Fitzpatrick expects to return to Harvard next summer session, when he will again have a large part in their music and will be soloist in the chapel choir.

The Kendrick schools are indeed fortunate in having Mr. Fitzpatrick at the head of their music department.

HERMAN WOLFF DIES AT DAUGHTERS HOME; NAMPA

Herman August Wolff, a resident of the Leland section for some 20 years, passed away at the home of his daughter, Mrs. Albert Schultz, near Nampa, on Friday, August 29th, at the age of 82 years, five months and 23 days. Funeral services were held Tuesday, September 2, and burial was made in the Nampa cemetery.

Herman August Wolff was born in Pommern, Germany, February 6, 1859. At the age of 21 years he came to America and settled in Nebraska, coming to Idaho some 30 years ago. He was married to Mary August Schneider, who preceded him in death, passing away in 1931.

To this union six children were born: William and Leonard of Kendrick; Herbert, Meridian; Mrs. Mita Schultz, Nampa; Olga Wolff, and Mrs. Rose Hagan, Seattle. He is also survived by a sister, Mrs. Anna Kaemper, residing at Elkton, S. D.

He had been a life-long member of the Lutheran church, and was faithful to that faith to the end. He will be greatly missed by all who knew him.

Mr. Wolff went to Nampa in 1937, where he had since made his home with his daughter, Mrs. Albert Schultz.

Locke-Thomas Nuptials

Miss Frances Locke, eldest daughter of Mr. and Mrs. A. R. Locke, pioneer residents of the Leland section, was married to Roy L. Thomas, son of Mr. and Mrs. John C. Thomas, Little Bear ridge, at the Locke family home in Leland, Monday afternoon at 3:00 o'clock, in the presence of about 40 guests, the Rev. Clark Smith, pastor of the Leland Methodist church, officiating.

As the wedding march was played by Miss Marie Hoffman, the bride party, with Miss Eleanor Locke, sister of the bride, as maid of honor, and John C. Thomas, brother of the groom as best man, took their places under an arch of evergreens, fall flowers and wedding bells, which had been erected in the garden, where the beautiful and impressive ring ceremony took place. The bride was given in marriage by her father.

Miss Evelyn Locke sang as a solo, "I Love You Truly."

The bride was attired in an afternoon gown of royal blue velvet and carried an arm bouquet of pink and white gladiola florets and rose buds. The bridesmaid's gown was of rose crepe.

A reception followed the ceremony, the refreshment table being centered with a beautifully decorated bride's cake, from which radiated white ribbon streamers, with tiny pieces of wrapped wedding cake attached to the ends. Mrs. Don Morgan and the Misses Betty and Marie Hoffman assisted in the serving.

The couple departed after the reception for a honeymoon trip to Coulee Dam and other northwest points, after which they will make their home in this section.

Both are well and favorably known here, having attended the Kendrick High school.

The good wishes of all go with them.

Threshing Oats Now

Many Potlatch section farmers are just plenty busy these days threshing oats between showers.

The labor is said to be plenty hard, as the straw is tough and a bit damp, but, as Tom Long put it: "The oats could be lots worse."

According to reports Walter Koepf threshes beans on Sunday and Monday, and their quality was said to be very good, despite the persistent rains to which they have been subjected. The beans were cut some time ago.

Wheat being threshed between showers is probably best described by "it might be better and it might be worse," however, it is saleable.

One thing is sure — those with wheat and beans out are making every available moment count.

Many of those with uncut beans say they have not been hurt, but that dry weather is needed right now for their cutting and curing.

Monster Watermelon

The Lewiston Tribune of Tuesday morning carried an article stating that Erwin Walk of Clarkston had presented that office with a watermelon that weighed 48 pounds and measured 26 inches in length and 31½ inches in girth.

While we admit that that is a pretty nice little melon, it is hardly to be compared with one Joe Piper of Agatha brought to the Gazette office not so long ago, when he accidentally stumbled over a little one in his patch that weighed something like 65 pounds — and the flavor was equally as creditable as the size of the melon.

Joe just naturally knows how to make 'em grow.

Change Wheat Loan Days

The county AAA committee will be available at the AAA office at Lewiston on Tuesdays, Thursdays and Saturdays henceforth to sign loans on wheat and barley instead of each day of the week as has been the practice. Wayne Yenni, assistant secretary to the committee for Nez Perce county, said. He urged farmers who plan on coming to town to obtain loans on one of those days, pointing out that then the chances will be good that a farmer can complete his loan in one day.

The county AAA committee has been meeting to hear appeals for changes in wheat acreage allotments, yields and premium rates, and were about three-fourths of the way through the 97 appeals under consideration. Members expected to complete the task by noon Wednesday.

About The County Fair

So far as we have been able to learn the so-called Latah County Fair at Moscow is now under way, the date on the one poster we have seen about town announcing it as September 11, 12 and 13.

If you feel that we should have said more about it, don't lay the blame onto us — for so far as this office is concerned, not one single line of publicity has been received from Moscow or any other source about the affair.

It almost seems as if they were trying to keep the affair a "big dark secret" so far as the Kendrick section is concerned, at least.

W. S. C. S. Meeting

The first fall meeting of the Women's Society For Christian Service, Kendrick Community church, was held last Friday afternoon in the church basement, with Mrs. G. S. Pond, presiding. A business meeting was held in which plans for the coming year were discussed.

Hostesses for the afternoon were Mrs. G. S. Pond, Mrs. Fred Crocker, Mrs. R. H. Ramey and Mrs. Edgar Long.

Commercial Club Meeting

The regular monthly meeting of the Kendrick Commercial club will be held in the Home Economics room at the school house at 6:30 p. m., Monday, September 15. This meeting is called to replace the one originally scheduled for September 8.

All members and business men are urged to be present and to bring a friend. Commercial club meetings are not closed ones by any means, and anyone who wishes to attend may, and is urged, to come.

Chief business of the meeting is club organization under its new officers.

So remember the date, the place and the hour — come and bring a friend. Let's show the world that the Potlatch country is all for one, and one for all.

JOHN SILNAKER, SOUTHWICK PIONEER, PASSES

John G. Stalnaker was born in Barber County, West Virginia, on March 30, 1865, and passed away at St. Joseph's hospital, Lewiston, on September 3, 1941, at the age of 76 years, five months and four days. He came to Idaho in 1892, which state has been his home ever since. In 1904 he was married to Essel Phillips, and to this union two daughters were born, Mrs. Dorothy Solari of Marshfield, Ore., and Mrs. Clara King of Seattle, Wash.

When a young man he was baptized in the U. B. faith, but later, with his family, joined the Methodist church.

Mr. Stalnaker had been in failing health since a major operation some three years ago, but kept at his work until he was taken suddenly ill three days before his passing. He was taken to St. Joseph's hospital, Lewiston, where he passed away, his wife and both daughters being at his bedside. Mrs. Solari and her family drove steadily for 16 hours, arriving just 30 minutes before the end came. Mrs. King and two daughters had been visiting here the previous two weeks, and were preparing to start home Monday, her husband having come for her Saturday, but they stayed during the following week.

Survivors include his wife and daughters, four grandchildren; two sisters, both of West Va., and a brother, Lore, of Ashaka; a host of other relatives and many friends.

Interment was in the Southwick cemetery, with Rev. George Calvert of Lenore officiating. Songs of his own selection, "Lead Kindly Light," "The Old Rugged Cross," "We'll Never Grow Old," and "There'll Be No Dissappointments In Heaven" were sung by Mrs. Tetwiler, Mrs. M. Benjamin, M. Benjamin and Roy Southwick, accompanied by Mrs. Clarence Henderson.

Pall bearers were old-time friends, Julius Hoppe, John Lettenmaier, Tom Armitage, Alec Lawrence, Darwin Barry and Homer Betts. Brower-Wann were in charge.

Students Should Attend College

Registrants who have entered upon an educational course in good faith should be encouraged to resume their studies this fall if their local boards advise that their induction is more remote than a month or so," Brig. Gen. M. G. McConnell, state director, states.

It is the policy of the Selective Service system to be as lenient as possible within the law in cases of young men who are earnestly pursuing educational opportunities. My advice to these young men is to consult with their local boards and find out when they probably will be called to qualify for military training. If the probability is more remote than a month or so, they may begin their studies with the understanding that they can at least complete a quarter. In the same way, it may seem probable, according to their order numbers, that they can complete a semester or a full school year.

Although there are no blanket deferments, there are a number of specialized professions, Gen. McConnell pointed out, for which students give reasonable promise of becoming acceptable practitioners are being deferred on recommendations of the Office of Production Management.

Procedure for the deferment of such students has been worked out by the American Council of Education in collaboration with Selective Service. It provides for getting into the hands of the local board a "Student Statement of Information" concerning his status and plans, and an affidavit by his college or university as to his standing with a general evaluation of the student as a "necessary man" for occupational deferment.

School Began Monday

Kendrick Public schools opened on Monday morning of this week, with a grade school enrollment exceeding that of last year — and a high school enrollment down from that of last year.

Actual figures on enrollment are not yet available, but will appear in our issue of next week.

The High school enrollment being down seems to be in line with that of all other schools, probably due to the unusual harvest conditions and the shortage of labor for farm work, which in turn is probably due to the our big defense program.

It is felt that the enrollment will probably increase within the next two weeks, but is not expected to reach that of last year.

CASH PRICES HIGHER IN NORTHWESTERN MARKETS

Strength in wheat futures at important midwestern markets was reflected in an advance in the September delivery at Portland during the week ending September 5, the U. S. Department of Agriculture reports. Cash wheat advanced along with futures and prices at the close of the period were 2¼c to 5c per bushel higher than a week ago, with variations depending upon the local supply and demand conditions on the various classes. Offerings by growers at country points continued light and demand was about sufficient to absorb available market supplies with mills the principal buyers. Carlot receipts at Puget Sound and Columbia river terminals continued to decline, totaling 752 cars for the week against 795 last week, principally reflecting the tight storage situation at terminals. Export flour sales to the Philippines and Americas were better than last week but still remained comparatively light, with indemnity payments unchanged. Domestic flour business was also reported only moderate. Occasional cars of Pacific Northwest wheat continued to move by rail eastward, mostly to the Kansas City territory. Demand for cash wheat, however, was not broad at Northwest markets — and most cash business was on a warehouse receipt basis for later shipment. Wheat millfeeds markets were holding firm at recent advances. Harvesting and threshing was being delayed further in several districts by intermittent rains with some damage reported. The soil is reported in good condition for winter wheat seeding.

Cash wheat prices at Portland on September 5 showed soft white at 97½c; the same, except Rex not applicable, $1.01; white club, $1.01½; western red, $1.01; hard red winter, 96½c per bushel, all basis No. 1 grade in bulk. Cash wheat prices at Seattle on September 5, showed western white at 98c; western red at 98c; hard red winter at 96c. Hard white (baart) at $1.11 and dark northern spring from Montana at $1.17 per bushel, all basis No. 1 grade in bulk.

The San Francisco wheat market strengthened further during the past week and prices advanced around 5c per 100 to new highs since 1937. Local strength largely reflected gains in other markets, since there was no outstanding changes in the central California wheat situation. Offerings from the other western states were even lighter than in other recent weeks and receipts largely applied on the earlier purchases or represented government owned wheat for storage. Around 18,000 tons of government owned wheat in store at Port Costa, Calif., were destroyed by fire during the week. This wheat, however, much of which originated in the Great Falls section of Montana, had not been offered for sale and the loss was less of a market factor than under other circumstances. On Sept. 5, California grown No. 1 hard white wheat was quoted at San Francisco at $1.97½ to $2.00 per 100 in bulk.

Gains of over 5c per bushel in wheat prices at Kansas City during the week placed values well above the Federal loan levels. The upward trend was influenced by the continued rise of commodities in general, by growers withholding large quantities of grain from commercial channels, and by the prospects that increased exports of food-stuffs under the lend-lease program would materially reduce many of the current domestic surpluses. At the close of the week No. 2 hard winter was quoted at Kansas City at $1.12 to $1.16.

With wheat in the lead, grain prices continued up the upward trend during the past week at Minneapolis. Steady impounding of wheat under government loan and a statement from official sources that the wheat market might advance at least 10c per bushel from mid-August levels because of the large amounts that would go under loan, stimulated general buying. Movement of cash grains to Minneapolis tapered off and hedging sales were not pressed in volume. Feed grains were in excellent shipping request along with the entire feed line. While the general storage situation was still acute mills and elevators cooperated in handling the receipts in recent weeks and it appeared that no exchange of shipments to that market will be necessary.

Shipments of cash wheat diminished further during the week as 2,874 cars were received at Minneapolis and 1,484 at Duluth. Rainy weather interfered with threshing operations and reduced the movement and also lowered the quality of the grain received during the week. Because of the numerous high moisture, low protein offerings, the occasional high protein cars were sought for and higher premiums paid.

Late threshing and harvesting of spring grain was interrupted by scattered rains and some damage was done to grain in the Pacific Northwest. Private estimates as of September 1, forecast. Seeding of the 1941-42 winter wheat crop has begun in western Kansas, where moisture is abundant and the outlook for next year's crop very favorable. In the main winter wheat belt, rain is needed to condition the soil for plowing in the Ohio, and Mississippi valleys, but soil conditions in the southwestern portions of the belt are unusually favorable.

GRAIN MARKET

In Europe, continued wet weather has retarded harvesting in widespread areas and is causing apprehension as to the final outturns and quality of the crop. Wheat has been injured by rains in France, Germany and other central European countries. Scarcity of labor is hampering plowing for winter grains in the Balkan states.

The Canadian spring wheat area in the prairie provinces experienced cool, showery weather during the past ten days, which generally delayed harvesting operations. Threshing was well advanced in Manitoba before being stopped by showers, but only about 35 per cent of the crop had been threshed in Saskatchewan. Threshing in most districts of Alberta is barely under way.

Grain in commercial storage at 40 markets reporting to the Agricultural Marketing Service, increased about 6 per cent during August with nearly 85 per cent of the available space occupied at the beginning of September. This does not include private storage in mills and processing plants at these points. Commercial stocks, including all kinds of domestic and foreign grain totaled 376,729,000 bushels, September 1, while the total available commercial storage space was approximately 450 million bushels.

Recruiting Drive To Start

Starting Monday, September 15, the U. S. Army Recruiting office, Lewiston, Idaho, will be open with the following vacancies: Air corps at either Jefferson Barracks, Missouri, or Wichita Falls, Texas. These are the two large training centers where recruits are trained for military duty and then sent to flying fields. Each recruit is given his choice of the post he will elect to serve in at the time of leaving the training center. Applicants need not be high school graduates, but must be able to pass an intelligence test.

There are also vacancies for all branches of army service including Infantry in Hawaii and engineers in Alaska. All applicants will be sent to the training center for the ranch of service he desires and after about 12 weeks will be assigned to duty at the post he may choose.

The Lewiston office, while it has been open all summer, has not been very active due to the shortage of men for harvest and as a result the Lewiston area is a little below the average in the number of men enlisted. But now that harvest is nearly over and men will be coming out of the forests, the Lewiston area is expected to take the lead in applications.

To Judge At Fair

Mrs. Marvin Long, Kendrick, will be the judge of the Home Economics display department of the Latah County Fair, which is being held in Moscow on September 11, 12 and 13.

Mrs. Long judged the Cottonwood or Idaho County Fair last week, and will judge at the Nez Perce, Idaho, fair on September 25, 26 and 27.

Mrs. Long is no stranger to this type of work, having judged at the big Yakima and Puyallup fairs in Washington in past years, when she was connected with the Washington State Extension department.

Beans Need Warm Weather

Talks with a number of local bean growers seems to indicate that beans, so far, have not been hurt to any appreciable extent by the cool, rainy weather of the past few days — but all were unanimous in saying that warm (hot preferred) weather was badly needed to mature the plants and pods.

A number said that a light frost, together with dry weather would go a long way toward preparing the beans for harvest.

But a very few beans have been cut, though many say theirs are ripe.

Got Big Bear

Archie May and Bud Gephart returned Thursday of last week from a bear hunt in the Coolwater ridge section of the Selway, bringing back with them a big brown bear, weight 350 pounds. They said it was as fat and frisky as you please, and that the meat was mighty fine eating.

They also stated that it knew how to rain in those hills, and that fishing was but fair.

Large Sunflowers

Dr. D. A. Christensen drove into town Wednesday morning hauling two real Sunflower plants — and they certainly had the size.

Both of these were 13 feet in height, and both measured 2¾ inches in thickness at the butt. The head, or face of one measured 16-inches across in a straight line, the other 16¼ inches.

They are to go to Moscow for display at the county fair.

Masons Of Idaho Hold Conclave

Attended by grand masters from adjoining states, the three-day grand lodge sessions of the Idaho Masonic lodge opened Tuesday at Boise with representatives of the state's 81 lodges on hand.

Dr. Geo. W. McKeever left Monday for that city at the representative of the Kendrick lodge.

Price of Milk Goes Up

Announcement was made at the Thomas Creamery Wednesday afternoon that the retail price of milk delivered from the creamery would advance to 12c per quart after September 15.

Get Together Meeting

Tuesday evening of next week the Kendrick Grange will hold an open meeting. A dance and refreshments are planned. Members may bring guests.

Parents Of Son

BUSINESS CONDITIONS IN 12TH RESERVE DISTRICT

Under the unremitting pressure of the defense effort, economic activity in the Twelfth Federal Reserve District advanced further in July and early August to better the record levels attained earlier in the year. Important industries in the area were free of work stoppages occasioned by disputes between labor and management, and industrial operations continued to expand. Accompanying the expansion of industrial operations, factory employment and payrolls in the three Pacific coast states increased further. Employment and payrolls in California, on a seasonally adjusted basis, gained five and nine percent respectively in July and were 49 per cent and 78 per cent higher than a year earlier.

New private residential building continued as active in July as in the preceding three months and for the second successive month overrode the influence of seasonal factors which have customarily made for substantial declines at this time of the year. Value of this type of construction initiated during the month approximated $31,200,000, compared with $24,200,000 in July of 1940. Contract awards for publicly financed residential building, which fluctuate widely from month to month, were valued at $2,600,000, down considerably from June. Non-residential building jumped sharply to $93,500,000, the largest total for any month in recent years. Included in the total were awards of $67,100,000 by the federal government for miscellaneous buildings of $13,900,000 for aircraft plants, and of $4,000,000 for shipbuilding establishments.

Expansion in consumer incomes, owing partially to increased factory employment and to large gains in farm cash receipts, was reflected in further gains in retail trade in the month of July. Value of department store sales in that month in the Twelfth district was 10 per cent higher than in January, allowing for seasonal influences, and 15 per cent above that of July 1940. The gains in sales of durable goods were again particularly marked, value of sales of departments handling the major household appliances such as refrigerators, stoves and the like showing a year-period increase of 58 per cent, and that of departments selling radios, phonographs, and records showing an increase of 48 per cent over July of 1940.

Principally reflecting higher prices, district farm cash income in June was 27 per cent higher than a year earlier and the increase for the second quarter of the year amounted to 20 per cent. This compares with the year-period gain of 10 per cent during the first quarter of 1941. Further increases in prices paid at the farm since June suggest gains in farm income in July as large or larger than in the preceding three months.

German Workers Get Little

To an American worker 17 cents is only a little more than he pays for a package of cigarettes, but to a German worker in the lumber industry it's all he's allowed to get for an hour's work under the new wage scales set by the Nazi "labor trustees," according to a study made by the Labor Division of the Office of Production Management. Statistisches Reichsam, official publication of the German government, recently announced revised wage scales for various industries including the woodworking industry. These wage levels, the lowest ever set for the lumber industry in Germany, contrast sharply with rising wages of woodworkers in the U. S. A., which reached an all-time high average of 57 1/2c in June, 1941.

When Hitler came to power in 1933, the first thing he did was to abolish trade unions and collective bargaining. German labor leaders were put in concentration camps, exiled or killed. Since then wages and hours have been fixed solely by decree of Nazi party officials called "labor trustees."

German wage levels are further reduced by a Nazi tax of 13 per cent on every worker's wages. The place of the woman worker in the Nazi scheme of things is made clear by the policy of limiting women's wages to 70 per cent of the wages paid men for the same work.

Only the most favored groups of native German workers are permitted even these allowances. "Non-German" workers suffer further through a heavy "social equalization fee" (socialausgleichsabgabe) that is taken out of their wages. This tax is exhorated from all workers in defeated or occupied territories, but falls heaviest on Polish, Jewish, and Czech workers.

In the United States children are strictly forbidden to work in the hazardous lumber industry, but German children are not only forced to work in the lumber industry, but are paid as little as 9c an hour.

Eighty-three Arrested

Conservation officers of the Idaho Fish and Game department arrested 15 Idaho hunters during August for shooting sagehens during the closed season, according to reports. Total arrests during the month numbered 83. Fishing without a license was the leading violation, accounting for 17 arrests.

Other violations and the number of arrests were as follows:

Non-residents of Idaho fishing with a resident license, 9; fishing with more than one line, 6; illegal use of salmon eggs, 6; fishing in closed waters, 6; carrying uncased rifle without a fish and game license, 4; illegal use of dip nets, 3; exceeding the legal bag limit of trout, 3.

Two violations were recorded for capturing spotted fawn. Illegal possession of deer meat, shooting migratory waterfowl and killing deer out of season.

There was one arrest for each of the following violations: Illegal possession of beaver hides; trapping without a license; trapping out of season; hunting without a license; killing bear without a license, and hunting in a game preserve.

 A large flock of sheep have been missing from the herd belonging to the Southwick Community Church Fold. When last seen they were in good physical condition and quite cheerful, but some of the younger ones were a little off feed and seemed to think they need a tonic; some of the older ones were off feed and had been for some time suffering with spiritual indigestion. There seemed to be trouble or pastortis. When last seen they were browsing along the byway of Indifference, that opens out into the road of Neglect, leading to the highway of Worldliness, that ends in the state of Apostasy.
 Anyone finding any of the same will please send them home if possible and receive an ample reward.—E. H. Tetwiler, pastor of Southwick Community church. adv.

EDITORIAL

Well, Folks — WIWth all this rainy weather we've been having raising hop with threshing operations, fishing and grouse hunting — making us all feel a bit blue, we believe it's time to devote a whole issue, with the exception of mentioning that we want to buy your cream, and have locker boxes to rent — to just plain old fun. We hope you enjoy it, and enjoy spending the money you get from us for that can of cream:

Two little boys stood on the corner. A little girl passed by.
Said One: "Her neck's dirty."
Said the Other: "Her does!"

The captain of a polo team was dancing with a haughty and statuesque young woman, and not making a very good job of it. Presently he said: "I'm afraid

I'm not dancing well this evening. As a matter of fact, I'm a little stiff from polo."

And the tall young woman answered icily: "It's a matter of indifference to me where you are from."

Guest: "My word, I am thirsty."

Hostess: "Wait a moment and I'll get you some water."

Guest: "I said thirsty, not dirty."

Wyld: "Hello, Higbee. Off on a pleasure trip?"
Higbee: "You bet. I'm taking my mother-in-law back home!"

Life is hard at 15. It is so unfair of your parents to humiliate you by being so imperfect.

Consider the difference between "everybody's sweetheart" and "anybody's sweetheart."

Q. How long have Defense Savings Stamps been on sale at retail stores?
A. Sale of Stamps at retail stores originated in the State of Michigan on July 10. The idea met with such success that it is spreading rapidly, and soon Stamps will be sold in most retail stores on a nation-wide basis.
