WHAT HAPPENED HERE 20 YEARS AGO THIS WEEK

The Kendrick schools started last Monday with a total enrollment of 168. There are many new faces, especially in the high school, where enrollment in some classes has been so large as to overtax the accommodation. The vocational classes seem to be the most popular, it having been necessary to turn a number away from manual training. There are about twice as many enrolled for domestic science as can conveniently be accommodated.

Jesse Hoffman closed a deal this week for the purchase of the John Behrens ranch of 60 acres. The consideration is understood to be $7,000. Only part of the place is tillable, the rest being pasture land.

A son was born to Mr. and Mrs. W. H. Weyen of Potlatch ridge last Sunday. The young man weighed nine pounds.

Mrs. Alvin Benson and little son arrived the first of the week to visit at the home of Mr. and Mrs. J. F. Brown.

The Kendrick Rochdale company's elevator was filled to overflowing this week. Some bins, filled with certain varieties of wheat, were so full that it was necessary to stop hauling for a time until cars could be obtained to ship out the surplus.

Both elevators and warehouses have received an immense amount of grain and the difficulty of securing cars has brought about a rather congested condition at times. The hulking warehouses and the continuous stream of grain that is being hauled in from the various ridges give rather the impression that this is going to be a comfortable year in the Potlatch in spite of the prevalent idea that hard times are upon us.

Frank Wittman of Potlatch ridge was in Kendrick on business last Saturday. Mr. Wittman stated that nearly all the beans on the ridge were threshed and that a few days this week would finish up the job for the season. He said that the average crop was approximately 3½ sacks to the acre, which is a light yield; five or six sacks being considered a good yield.

Frank Benscoter of American ridge went to Clarkston the first of the week to visit relatives.

The Amos Moore family of Bear ridge have rented the Kieth home, near the school house in Kendrick and will make their home there this winter so that the children may have the advantage of the local school facilities.

John and Kester Dammarell drove to Clarkston Tuesday in search of Peaches. They report them very scarce and not of very good quality. They visited the John Florence orchard on Clarkston Heights. He will have a crop of several thousand boxes of apples and the price is very satisfactory at this time.

Congressman Burton L. French arrived in Moscow Monday night to spend several weeks at his home during a recess of Congress.

Emulus Brown is substituting on rural route No. 2 this week as the regular appointed carrier appointed from Moscow failed to show up.

Mr. and Mrs. Jesse Hoffman and family drove to Lewiston in their car Thursday to attend the fair.

Marvin Long went to Milton, Oregon, Tuesday to act as best man at the wedding of one of his former classmates.

Mr. and Mrs. James Kaylor of Peck spent Friday evening of last week in the home of Mr. and Mrs. L. J. Herres.

E. H. Dammarell, chairman of the local Red Cross auxiliary, has called a meeting to be held in the basement of the Methodist church.

Mrs. A. W. Jones and daughters arrived from Toston, Montana, this week. They drove through in their car, while Mr. Jones is driving across country with a team. They report a poor crop around Tolston this year. The Jones family will make their home in Kendrick this winter so that the girls can go to school here. Mr. Jones owns a farm on Bear ridge.

Mr. and Mrs. C. L. Guy arrived Saturday from Grangeville, where Mr. Guy owns a general merchandise store, which is under the management of Guy Odem and Dan Guy.

Mr. and Mrs. Guy have leased the former Guy Hotel from the present owner, J. H. McGhie. They took over the management of the hotel Thursday morning, Mr. McGhie leaving for Seattle.

Mr. and Mrs. Wm. Hecht, Dan Jones and Miss Fairfield went to Lewiston Tuesday to attend the fair.

Mrs. Albert Schultz left for Minnesota Wednesday morning, to visit her old home. She will also visit friends in North Dakota.

Leland Items—Rev. Hall attended annual conference in Portland this week and has been returned to Leland for another year. . . The latest arrivals on the ridge are a girl at the home of Mr. and Mrs. James McVicker and a boy to Mr. and Mrs. W. H. Weyen. . . We understand that R. B. Parks has purchased Mr. Robbins' lease on the Grandma Hartinger farm and that Mr. Robbins will go to southern Idaho with his daughter, Mrs. Black. . . School will begin Monday with M. E. Mushlitz as principal. Wm. Darrow and Mrs. Dean complete the list. We are looking forward to a very good school year. Our teachers come highly recommended and with the new school house, we expect great things.

Sales Day Date Set

The date for the annual Kendrick Sales Day has been set as Saturday, October 18 — a week later than that of last year — but the season is late too.

As usual a free auction of goods will take place, sports will be held, and prizes given for farm and garden produce.

As in the past, the sale will be held in or near the George Brocke building (Kendrick Electric), with Edgar Long again receiving the goods for the auction and the displays as they are brought in.

There is a possibility that livestock displays will also be a part of the Sales' Day program, but at this time details have not been worked out.

Follow the columns of the paper for further information, which will appear as it is available to us.

CLUB MEETING PROVES VERY INTERESTING ONE

The regular monthly meeting of the Kendrick Commercial club, originally scheduled for September 8, was held Monday evening, September 15, in the Agricultural room at the school house, with the new officers for the year, in charge.

Following a chicken dinner, served by the Home Making department girls under the direction of their instructor, Miss Sharp, and greatly enjoyed by all, the meeting was called to order by George Brocke, president of the organization.

Following the reading of the minutes of the previous meeting and their approval, the business of the meeting was taken up. The first of these was the introduction of two new members, Rev. Roy Murray, and Marvin Powell.

Correspondence was read and the necessary replies cared for.

Then Mr. Brocke announced the appointment of committee chairmen for the coming year, as follows:

Highways, N. E. Walker; Agriculture, R. B. Parks; Industrial, E. A. Deobald; Civic Improvements, Dr. D. A. Christensen; Entertainment, L. W. Mason; Education, William F. Fitzpatrick; Scouts, R. L. Blewett; Merchants, L. S. Thurber; Fish and Game, Marvin Long; Publicity, W. L. McCreary; Finance and Membership, H. C. Schupfer; F. F. A., Marvin Powell; Attendance, George Brocke.

As there were no standing committees to report at this time, a brief resume was given by some of the members, R. L. Blewett reporting on the Boy Scout committee, stating they were in danger of a complete "pass out" as an organization at this time, due to a lack of leadership.

Marvin Long reported on the Fish and Game committee that a goodly number of birds had been planted in this section this year, but that there seemed to be some question as to their survival, as but few reports of their having been seen had come in.

The Latah County Fair next came up for discussion, with the club voting unanimously to extend a vote of thanks to the Kendrick Grange for their work in the advertising of Potlatch products, and of congratulation for the winning of first place in the Fair with their display.

Next on the list for consideration came the annual Sales Day event — and the Merchants committee was voted the necessary funds to put it on. This year, however, it is planned to make it bigger and better than ever, enlarging the field and home produce displays, and perhaps including livestock. In order to keep the expenses of the larger displays within the club financial means, it was decided to solicit the merchants for merchandise prizes for the added attractions.

The date for this annual event has been set this year for October 18 — one week later than usual, but due to the farmers being behind with their work it was felt to be the better day.

There being no further business to come before the group, it adjourned, to meet again on Monday, October 13. At this meeting reports will be forthcoming from the committees, and chairmen will announce their committee members.

Bridge Work Progressing

Work on the new bridge across the Potlatch on the Kendrick-Southwick road is progressing nicely at this time. The steel framework was put in place on the new abutments last week-end and riveting, planking and like work is now in progress.

When finally completed this bridge will fill a long-felt need for a safe crossing of the Potlatch.

It has taken almost nine years to get this bridge — but perhaps when finally completed and in use it will be appreciated all the more.

Farms "Making Hay"

Tractors have been coughing and combines whirling in every direction about Kendrick the past few days, as farmers have been taking real advantage of the "rainless weather" of the past few days.

Wednesday morning marking the calendar with "48 hours without rain". Oats, barley and wheat are all being cared for as rapidly as possible, but excessive moisture in the ground has been keeping the straw wet, and forced short operating hours.

Returns to Work

Joe Cardinal is back on the job again, after a ten-day absence, occasioned by a severe sick spell.

ITEMS ABOUT KENDRICK FOLK AND THEIR FRIENDS

KENDRICK GRANGE WINS BLUE RIBBON AT FAIR

Although weather conditions were very unfavorable, the Latah County fair opened Thursday, September 11, with many creditable exhibits, both from individuals and farm organizations.

Among the most attractive booths were those prepared by the six Latah county Granges, said the Moscow Idahonian. "A sign bearing the words 'God Bless America,' seemed appropriate over the canned and fresh fruits and vegetables and grains making up the Mt. Deary Grange display.

"The exhibit of the Troy Grange was also filled with products from that area, including 16 varieties of seeds. The words, 'We pray for Peace' appearing above a 'dove of peace' flying over a map of the world.

"Great Britain's 'V' for victory campaign formed the motif for the canned fruits and vegetable display of the Joel Grange, which was arranged in the shape of a V.

"The Mountain Home Grange booth was trimmed in red, white and blue, with the various types of seeds, fruits and vegetables and grains labeled, out of consideration for 'city folks.'

"Also carrying out a patriotic theme was the Kendrick booth. An American flag had been made from white navy and red chili beans, grown in that area. White beans on a blue background effectively formed the stars on the flag.

"The Moscow Grange booth, probably the most elaborate of the six, showed that a great deal of time and effort had been spent in preparing it."

But after the judges had gotten a good look at all the exhibits of the several granges, the Kendrick booth was awarded the blue ribbon — and Moscow won second, and Joel Grange third place. Kendrick won the first place with 915 points out of a possible 1,000. The whole local grange membership cooperated in the collection and arrangement of the fine display. They were very ably assisted by Marvin Powell, Smith-Hughes instructor in the Kendrick High school.

In the fruit division, H. L. Ingle was awarded third prize for Gravenstein apples; also third prize on prunes.

Under the head of "peaches," H. L. Ingle won first place, Charles Bower, second, and Charles Davidson, third.

Chas. Bower of Kendrick won second on strawberries and raspberries, and in the flower division Mrs. Bower placed first for her splendid display of dahlias.

In the vegetable division H. L. Ingle, Kendrick, placed second on pie pumpkins. Mrs. Chas. Bower placed first on yellow variety onions as she also did on red variety onions. Mrs. H. L. Ingle placed second on marketing cucumbers.

In the wheat display Nora Callison won first place with Federation, and also drew down first place for his display of Markton oats. Mr. Callison received the sweepstakes award for his Federation wheat.

The Future Farms of the Kendrick school placed fourth in team honors.

In the corn section H. L. Ingle took second place with his display of Dent. For popcorn, James Ingle was awarded second place.

In the small seeds division, Walter Benscoter placed first for Alaska clover. For Crested wheat, Albert Nelson was awarded first and second.

In the Women's department, Dora May placed first for knotted articles (no description of kind or type).

In the duroc pig competition Ray Benscoter won three first prizes — 1st for pen of three fat hogs; 1st for best barrow; 1st for fitting and showing. And Jackie Benscoter won second place on a duroc gilt.

All-in-all, it would appear that the Potlatch country, as always, is able to hold its own in the products it raises.

Mrs. Marvin Long judged the Home Economics and 4-H club work at the fair.

Kendrick F. F. A.'s Win

Two Kendrick F. F. A. students won prizes at the Latah County Fair. Ray Benscoter, district secretary of the F. F. A., had the distinct honor of winning first place in the fitting and showing of swine. In this contest each boy is judged on his ability to groom, train and display his hog. Ray also won first prize on his individual fat hog, and first on his pen of three fat hogs, Jack Benscoter, a freshman in the F. F. A. this year, won second place on his Duroc gilt.

The Duroc purebred gilt which won first prize, and also was classed as "Grand Champion" was purchased for the F. F. A. chapter through the combined efforts of E. H. Jones, Master of the local Grange, and Marvin Powell, Ag. instructor. This sow will become the property of the F. F. A. chapter as soon as it is paid for.

It is planned to let it out to worthy members of the F. F. A. on a share-basis-plan, as a step in helping the boys get started with better breeding animals.

Hard-Boiled

"I'd like a couple of hard-boiled eggs to take out," the young fellow said to the girl at the counter. "All right," replied the waitress with a smile. "You'll have to wait. Mamie and I don't get off until 10:00."

Stringing New Cable

Otto Schupfer and Marian Rathbun have been busy the past two weeks (whenever the weather permitted) erecting new poles and installing a new 100 wire cable from the top of the School House hill to the telephone office, and rebuilding this part of the system.

When the cable is finally installed and connections made, the old fall poles will be taken down, and the new cable left hanging on the shorter new ones.

The local telephone company has been engaged for the past few years in a program of continuous betterment of equipment and service for its customers, and the results speak for themselves.

BIG GAME SEASON OPENS THIS YEAR ON OCTOBER 5

The regular big game hunting season for deer, elk, bear and mountain goat opens in Idaho October 5, state fish and game department director Owen W. Morris announces. In addition to the regular big game season, seven special hunts and an extra-special deer hunt in a designated area of the Middle Fork of the Salmon river, where hunters will be permitted to take two deer, assures Idaho sportsmen ample hunting this fall.

The opening dates and counties where deer may be taken are as follows:

October 5 to Nov. 5, inclusive — Ada, Adams, Boise, Blaine, Butte, Custer, Elmore, Gem, Owyhee, Valley, Washington, and that portion of Idaho county lying south of the main Salmon river and east of the Little Salmon river.

Oct. 5 to Nov. 10, inclusive — Lewis, Nezperce and that portion of Clearwater county lying south and east of the North Fork of the Clearwater river up to the mouth of the Little North Fork and east of the Little North Fork, and that portion of Idaho county lying north of the Salmon river. Shoshone county beginning at the head of Bullion creek, where it intersects the Idaho-Montana line; thence following the forest service road down Bullion creek to the St. Joe river; thence following the St. Joe river to Avery; thence following the forest service road from Roundtop ranger station to where it crosses the Little North Fork of the Clearwater river; thence following the Little North Fork of the Clearwater river to where it intersects the Clearwater-Shoshone county line on the north line of section 4, township 41 north, range 6 east.

November 1 to 30, inclusive — Benewah, Bonner, Boundary, Kootenai, Latah and that portion of Clearwater county lying north and west of the North Fork of the Clearwater river up to the mouth of the Little North Fork, and west of the Little North Fork and Shoshone county except that area described in the October 5 to November 10 season.

Elk seasons are as follows: October 5 to November 10, inclusive — In that portion of Clearwater county lying south and east of the North Fork of the Clearwater river up to the mouth of the Little North Fork and east of the Little North Fork, and that portion of Idaho county lying north of the main Salmon river.

Oct. 5 to Nov. 5, inclusive — In that portion of Idaho county lying south of the main Salmon river and east of the South Fork of the Salmon river.

November 1 to 30, inclusive — Latah and that portion of Clearwater county lying north and west of the North Fork of the Clearwater river up to the mouth of the Little North Fork and west of the Little North Fork of the Clearwater river.

Nov. 20 to December 10, inclusive — Fremont and Teton counties.

Nov. 20 to 24, inclusive — Bonneville county lying east and north of the Snake river.

In announcing the big game season, Morris urged sportsmen to observe the following fish and game regulations:

Do not shoot at any animal from an automobile or other vehicle propelled by mechanical power.

Do not hunt any game animal by artificial light.

Do not kill any big game at any salt lick.

Do not pursue, capture or kill with dogs any game animals except bear.

Do not hunt or kill any game animal on a game preserve at any time of year unless otherwise provided.

Do not transport game animals without a tag securely locked thereto. Attach the tag as soon as the animal is killed. Do not ship any game without first securing a shipping permit.

Bridal Shower

Last Friday afternoon was a very happy occasion for Miss Joy Johnson, when she was the honor guest at a bridal shower given in the Full Gospel church.

The afternoon was spent playing games, after which the bride elect opened her many gifts. Refreshments were served at the close of the afternoon.

Hostesses were Mrs. Geo. Brocke, Mrs. Henry Kortemeier, Mrs. E. W. Fraser, Mrs. L. Lundes, Misses Arlene and Annabel Deobald and Mrs. Adrian Johns.

Miss Johnson will leave this week for Los Angeles, where she will marry Agner Warren, formerly of Deary, who is now employed in the Boeing Aircraft plant there.

PRICES ADVANCE IN PACIFIC NORTHWEST MARKETS

Wheat futures advanced at Portland during the week ending September 12, along with midwestern markets. Cash wheat followed the action of futures, partially, with advances of 1/4c to 2c per bushel on principal classes for the week. Current marketings continued light with carlot receipts of only 462 cars at Puget Sound and Columbia river terminals for the week compared with 752 last week, reflecting principally the tight storage situation at these terminals. However, demand was only moderate and mostly from mills for high protein qualities. Growers were not offering freely at current values. With the protein of this year's crop in the Northwest well below that of last year and other recent years, competition was rather keen for high protein lots available in the market. Some moderate movement of wheat by rail to the midwest area continued, mostly to the Kenas City area. Export flour sales under the indemnity plan were small to the Philippines but somewhat better to the Americas, but with the total only moderate for the week, at unchanged indemnity payments. Domestic flour business has shown some improvement recently, especially in California and locally, with prices higher on most brands. Wheat millfeeds held very firm at recent advances. Considerable loss is reported in eastern Washington and northern Idaho to the wheat, oats and barley crops from continued rains in those areas recently. Soil is reported in excellent condition for fall plowing in most of the Pacific Northwest.

Cash wheat bid prices at Portland on September 12, showed: soft white at $1.00; the same, except Rex wheat not applicable, $1.02½; white club, $1.03; western red $1.03; ordinary hard red winter at 98c per bushel, all basis No. 1 grade in bulk. Cash wheat quotations at Seattle on September 12 showed soft white (no rex) at $1.02; western red at $1.01; hard red winter at 97½c and hard white (baart) at $1.17½ per bushel, all basis No. 1 grade in bulk.

The San Francisco wheat market remained quite firm during the past week, influenced by further advances in other markets, together with the relatively light local offerings. While demand was not particularly broad, prices advanced around 2½c per 100 to new high points for the year. Bay region mills entered the market for only moderate quantities, but there was a steady movement to feed wheat users. Advances in other grains tended to stimulate the use of wheat for feed and heavy takings also reflected a 20 per cent increase in California poultry flocks compared with a year ago.

Ogden wheat prices, basis No. 2, f. c. b. Ogden mills on September 12 showed dark hard winter and dark northern spring at $1.02; hard winter and northern spring at 94c; hard white at $1.06; soft white at $1.01 and western white at 98c per bushel. Denver mills were bidding 92c per bushel for No. 2 northern spring and No. 2 hard winter, basis f. c. b. Colorado common points.

Cash wheat prices kept pace with futures at Kansas City as premiums remained steady and closing quotations were 1c to 1½c advanced from the previous period. September wheat closed at $1.13½. Mills were the principal buyers of wheat on the cash market. The quality of the week's arrivals continued to show the effect of poor country storage. Receipts of wheat at nine southwestern terminals and sub-terminals totaled 2,421 cars compared with 1,886 cars for the previous week and 824 cars a year ago.

Movement of wheat to spring wheat terminals tapered off considerably and Minneapolis arrivals of all classes totaled 2,196 cars while Duluth unloaded 1,371.

September wheat futures closed the week at Chicago at $1.19 per bushel and at the close No. 2 hard was quotable at $1.13½, while No. 2 red sold at the same price. September corn futures closed the week at 1½c to 3c per bushel lower. September oats futures closed the week at 52½c per bushel, with some strength given the market during the week by the report that two boat loads had been sold for export.

Weather in the spring wheat belt was unfavorable for threshing and further damage resulted from rains in northwestern Minnesota and in North Dakota, as well as in the Pacific Northwest. Conditions at the first of September, however, indicated a crop about 7,000,000 bushels larger than was in prospect a month earlier.

Rainfall in the winter wheat belt was decidedly favorable for preparation of seed beds and that work made good progress. In Kansas, the soil is in the best condition for years and seeding has begun in most of the western half of the state. Some wheat was also sown in northern portions of the central part of the belt.

Canadian wheat production in 1941 was placed at 306,459,000 bushels. Spring wheat production in the Canadian prairie provinces was placed at 286 million bushels compared with 525 million bushels harvested in 1940. Early inspections show a large percentage of No. 1 and No. 2 grades as during the past two years. Some lowering of grades, however, is feared if rains continue throughout harvest. Cutting was nearly completed in Manitoba, about 90 per cent finished in Saskatchewan and 80 per cent done

Charivari
Mr. and Mrs. Roy Thomas, who returned from their honeymoon last Saturday, were given an old-time charivari at the home of the groom's parents, Mr. and Mrs. John Thomas, Saturday night. The crowd gathered at the Gunder Peterson home and at 11 o'clock came to the John Thomas home.
Following the "music" the bride and groom passed candy and cigars, and at the close of the evening a crowd of 35 was served cake and coffee by Mrs. John Thomas, Mrs. Roy Thomas, Mrs. Joe Fructal, Jr., of Lewiston, and Miss Mary Thomas. Everyone reported a very enjoyable evening.

About Weather And Beans
The continuous but intermittent rains of the past three weeks have brought considerable damage to the field products of the Potlatch section farmers.
It is believed at this time, that considerable more of the grain was cared for than at first believed — the estimated loss on wheat now running about 20 to 25 per cent.
Grain dealers and buyers here estimate the loss in barley and oats at from 75 to 85 per cent — which is in itself a considerable item.
The bean situation is very unusual, probably caused by the great variation in the time of planting, and the location of the ground.
A number of large bean raisers contacted recently say that their beans are not yet injured, and that, given warm weather to ripen them and allow proper drying, their crop will be a good one.
A number of others whose beans were planted earlier say that theirs, especially where a pod may touch the ground, have started to mould, and the quality will be lowered considerably. Loss in this category is estimated at from 10 to 40 per cent.
It is said that a few raisers had a small acreage of early beans cut — and these raisers are sure to suffer a heavy loss, but the percentage is problematical.
Just what the final losses caused by weather in this section will be is going to depend greatly upon what the weather man may dish out in the next three to four weeks.

P. T.-A. Meeting Sept. 22

The first fall meeting of the Kendrick P. T.-A. will be held on Monday, September 22, in the High School auditorium at 8:00 p. m.
This meeting has been planned as a reception for the teachers, so everyone is especially urged to be present.
There will be a short program, after which refreshments will be served, followed by a get-acquainted session. All parents are especially invited to attend.
We wish to correct the date given for this meeting in last week's paper — it is Monday evening, Sept. 22.

Enrollment Identical

With the passing of almost two weeks of school, the enrollment in both the high school and grades in the Kendrick schools has crept up to be almost identical with that of last year.
In the high school the enrollment is now 89 — and in the grades, 110 — or a total enrollment of 199.
It is believed that the 200 mark will be hit and probably passed within the next few days, or at least upon the completion of harvest.

Generous Boy
Dear Editor: After taking my best girl to dinner, theatre, supper and a taxi home, should I kiss her goodnight?
Answer: No. I think you did enough for her.

If your life is an open book that doesn't mean that a great many of the pages may not need rewriting.

"Missing Link" Completed
At last, the long-sought-for, long desired "missing link" in the highway between Kendrick and Deary, on the Arrow-Deary highway has been completed, and is now undergoing real use.
The actual construction and gravel work was completed some two weeks ago, but workmen were busy until last week-end putting the final touches on the road.
There still remain two links of this highway yet to be completed—the rebuilding and oiling of the link between Juliaetta and Kendrick — and the construction of the link running from the top of the Bear Ridge grade near Kendrick, to the Chapel, also on that ridge.
It is true that these "missing links" are graveled and travelable, but are narrow and insufficient to carry the traffic that will travel this road with the "missing link" now completed.
The link between Juliaetta and Kendrick has been promised as a part of the 1941-1942 set-up, but with the national emergency creating a change in the picture, and Moscow fighting the road, it is altogether probable that some "out" will be found by the politicians in charge, and the necessary work again delayed.
It is hard for us to understand Moscow's selfish attitude in this matter, but for many years they seem to have taken the attitude that "if a road doesn't lead to Moscow it isn't worth having."
We can't understand, nor can anyone familiar with roads in this section, why they desire the road to go up the Middle Potlatch canyon, rather than over American ridge, where it could serve both Kendrick and Troy, as well as Moscow — but they prefer to want it otherwise and as a result, doubts are held for the link between Juliaetta and Kendrick.

W. J. Walsh Writes
Sept. 7, 1941
Kendrick Gazette Friends:
I am writing you to let you know how much I appreciate your sending me the Gazette. I receive it every Monday afternoon and I'm always looking forward to it.
Camp Roberts is situated in the Salinas Valley, 240 miles to Los Angeles and 190 miles to San Francisco. The nearest town of any size is Bakersfield, which is 100 miles from here, so you see we stay pretty close to camp except on week-ends.
I am in the Field Artillery — a 155 m m howitzer battery. The battery consists of 130 men, including clerks, cooks, telephone operators, radio men, instrument operators, etc.
There are four of us here from Latah county — two from Avon, one from Troy, and myself. After I read the Gazette I pass it on and we all enjoy it very much.
I am sending you a little poem that appeared in our camp paper about the life in Camp Roberts for a soldier. Everybody here got quite a laugh out of it, and I thought maybe you would enjoy it too.
Thanking you again I remain
Sincerely,
W. J. Walsh.

"Camp Roberts"
You have heard of the great Death Valley
And the hectic stories they tell
But I have one to tell you
Of Camp Roberts in the Valley of hell.
The heat here is terrific from the sun
And officers too
They confine you to your barracks
For the least little thing you do.
They send a poor Selectee out here
To make a man of him
But the method they use to do it
I can hardly understand.
We scrub the floor each morning
We do not leave a speck
Unless for our forgetfulness
They confine us for a week.
We brush the dust from every shelf
Our bunks are made up nice
And our shoes are polished every day
Or else we pay the price.
The brooms and mops are hung up straight
No dirt in them must show
Latrines may be shining, but
We pray before we go.
Waiting tables, washing dishes,
And a thousand other things
Are found in the life of a soldier
And this picture to me it brings.
Emergencies are increasing daily
And Dictators growing bolder,
And we are taught to be chamber maids
Instead of hard boiled soldiers.
My patriotism is overflowing,
There is nothing I wouldn't do,
But is this the life for a soldier?
Now I'm asking you?

To Hold Auction Sale
Bills are out these days announcing a Public Auction sale by Guy Foster at his place on Cedar ridge or Gold Hill, for Saturday, September 22, and in this issue will be found an ad. itemizing the goods to be disposed of.
Among the items are 11 head of horses and colts; 5 head of cattle; 1 sow; many stands of bees; farm equipment of all kinds; and considerable logging equipment.
The Farmers Bank is clerking the sale and Roy Glenn is the auctioneer. Lunch will be served by the Gold Hill W. M. A.
This is the first sale of the season and will doubtless draw a real crowd.

Logging Operations Resumed
Logging operations in the section were resumed Wednesday morning, the "long dry spell of 48 hours" having permitted hauling to start again.
The local sawmill has been closed down for about 10 days due to the inability of trucks to reach the woods, but it will again begin operations, weather permitting.
The delivery of logs to the Clearwater river and hauling of posts and cordwood has also been resumed — and truck operators are certainly making every hour and day count.

September Idaho Crop Report
The very wet and fairly cool August favored vegetative growth of late crops such as potatoes and beets, but interfered seriously with the harvesting of grains, dry peas, beans and hay. Preliminary weather bureau information indicates that precipitation averaged about 282 per cent of normal for August, with north Idaho receiving about double the normal amount and all of south Idaho about three times the normal.
Crop conditions indicated yields of spring wheat, oats, barley, dry beans, commercial apples, peaches and prunes would exceed those indicated a month earlier. Decreased prospects were noted for corn, hay, pears and grapes, while forecasts were unchanged for sugar beets, potatoes and flax.
In spite of serious rust, rain and hail damage to spring wheat, increasing evidence of bumper yields in the non-irrigated sections of south and southeastern Idaho and in some of the irrigated sections, and of about average or better yields in north Idaho and the irrigated areas of the southwest, point to a crop which may average 2.5 bushels per acre higher than the previous record yield, which was produced last year. Rain has delayed harvesting very seriously, especially in the north and east. Much of the grain is fairly moist and quality is not generally good. Oats and barley mostly escaped serious rust injury because of earlier maturity and the yields have turned out even higher than anticipated earlier in the season.
The dry bean crop continued to improve and production is now forecast at 1,914,000 bags. Harvesting of earlier varieties, particularly of garden seed types was under way by September 1 in the Twin Falls district. Rain was delaying harvest operations in north Idaho and the growers were beginning to fear a recurrence of the serious rain losses which were incurred last year. In spite of serious rain damage, and some heavy losses, to dry peas, very good average yields were reported and production was indicated to be 2,300,000 bushels. This is about 60 per cent larger than an average crop.

"Tin Pan Alley"
"Tin Pan Alley" is the title of the picture at the Kendrick Theatre this coming Friday and Saturday nights. The title doesn't sound very elevating, but when you hear the names of the actors you will agree that is "something," with Alice Faye, Betty Grable, Jack Oakie and John Payne as the outstanding actresses and actors, who put on some of the very latest and best songs and dances. Betty Grable is something of a dancer in her own right, and Miss Faye has a voice you will not soon forget. The story is of that unbelievable street where songs are born and it is excitingly told in "Tin Pan Alley."
In addition to the feature attraction the usual shorts will be shown.
Another rare person is the one who tells you the actual truth about his fuel costs last winter.
Mussolini is having trouble with his dukes. He's undoubtedly sorry he ever put them up.

EDITORIAL

Well, Folks — It somehow seems as if it just can't quite quit raining. Just about dry enough to go to work again — and then it rains. It's getting pretty serious, believe me.

And you know, it's also getting pretty serious for the boys who want to go back into the tall timber in search of elk and deer this fall, for from reports we have had, the bottom is fast disappearing from the timber and woods roads — and unless these rains cease soon the boys just won't be going!

So, when you look out the bedroom window these mornings and see the rain falling — remember, rain don't thin the milk old bossy gives — and butterfat has been rising steadily in price the past while. Bring it to us.

The tourist had stopped to change a tire. "I suppose," he remarked to a native onlooker, "that in these isolated parts the necessities of life come pretty high."

"Yer right," stranger," replied the native gloomily, "an it ain't worth drinkin' wen ye get it!"

Recruit: "Doctor I am particularly liable to seasickness. Can you tell me what to do in case of an attack?"

Doctor: "It isn't necessary. You'll do it!"

Inebriate: "Believe it or not, offisher, I'm huntin' fr a parkin' plashe."

in Alberta. European weather improved during the week and harvesting made rapid progress. Recent wet weather, however, caused considerable loss and many samples are weather stained and high in moisture. Preparations for fall seeding commenced and with moisture abundant, crops are expected to obtain a good start. Scarcity of fertilizer, however, is reported in the Balkan countries. Wheat yields are reported above the average in Russia, but the harvest will be reduced by war losses.

United States wheat under loan on September 6, totaled 143,320,000 bushels from the 1941 crop. Of this quantity about 52,000,000 bushels were in Kansas; 16 million in Nebraska; 15 million in Oklahoma; 13 million in Texas; and smaller quantities in other states.

School News

School opened the first of September with a total enrollment of 28. Since the opening day four new pupils have enrolled, making a total of 32. Of these 12 are in the primary room and 20 in the intermediate room. There are 21 boys and 11 girls. By grades the enrollment is: First grade, two; second grade, six; third grade, none; fourth grade, four; fifth grade, three; sixth grade, seven; seventh grade, six; eighth grade, four.

Last year's enrollment was 36. Nine students were lost — four by graduation and five moved away. This year's enrollment includes two beginners and three students who have moved into the district the past summer.

We are working hard to inaugurate a hot lunch program in our school this year. Everything is about ready for the "go ahead" signal. A special dining room and kitchen will be built by the shop class. The Leland Homemakers Club have consented to act as co-sponsors of the project. A range has been purchased and the student body will purchase the dinner ware. Other needed utensils and equipment will be furnished by the mothers and the sponsors. With the full cooperation of all concerned we hope to get this program under way at an early date.

Queen Arleen Rides 'Em High

Queen Arleen at the seventh annual Lewiston roundup, in private life Miss Arleen Johnson, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. James Johnson, Nezperce, Idaho, is a natural for the regal position to which she has been chosen. Born and reared on her father's wheat and cattle ranch, she's a trained equestrienne. She's now helping with the harvest, riding the hurricane deck of a combine to help solve the labor shortage problem. At roundup time in the fall she is her dad's lieutenant in branding, roping, cutting out and handling of the herds. She is blonde, blue-eyed, a former student at St. Paul's at Walla Walla and will enter the University of Idaho this fall. She will preside over the Lewiston roundup, Sept. 19-20-21.
