VOLUME 51

KENDRICK, LATAH COUNTY, IDAHO, THURSDAY, OCTOBER 30, 1941

NO. 44

WHAT HAPPENED HERE 20 YEARS AGO THIS WEEK

Dick Worsley, who arrived here a few days ago from Arcadia, Kansas, has rented his Cedar Creek ranch near Crescent to Elmer Hudson and Mr. Quick, for a period of three years. Mr. Quick is from the Big Hole Basin country in Montana. Mr. Worsley returned to Kansas the first of the week, where he will continue to make his home. (He still resides there).

Sheriff John L. Woody, with his deputy, Charlie Sumnerfield, arrested a "wild man" at the Jones place on Randall flats, where he had been living in the woods for the past month. When arrested he was carrying a rifle, knife and hand axe. He gave his name first as Bartlett and later as Bert Johnson. His clothes were in rags and he wore rubber boots with gunny sacks for sox. The authorities believe him to be insane.

Mr. Clark, who has been section boss here for some time, and who is well liked by the people of this community, was "bumped" this week. His place was taken by a Japanese who had seniority rights over Mr. Clark. A petition was circulated and liberally signed by the business men of Kendrick, to have a white man put in charge of the section here. The petition arrived on the afternoon train Tuesday. He was allowed to see the petition shortly after his arrival here, and probably feeling that public sentiment was not very favorable toward his staying, he left on the night train. Mr. Clark is still in charge of the section.

Members of the Bear Ridge hunting party who returned last week from a trip to Goat mountain, on the North Fork of the Clearwater, failed to get any game. The party was made up of Gabe Forest, Percy Ware, Harvey and Frank Fairfield and John Stevens. They were out about two weeks, and while the trip was an enjoyable one, the entire absence of game proved a disappointment as the Goat mountain country is considered a good game territory. The party lost two horses. One of them injured one of his legs and had to be shot, while the other one made a break for freedom, disappeared in the woods and was never found. The animal had a saddle on and part of the provisions and clothing of the party were tied to the saddle and lost with the horse.

Agnes Cox, a student in the arts course at the University of Idaho, was winner of first year Class A honors last year, according to an announcement from the registrar. Miss Cox is a daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Wm. Cox, residing on American ridge.

Born to Mr. and Mrs. E. H. Dammarell, Sunday, a fine boy, weight 8 1/2 pounds.

Mrs. James Stirling visited at the home of Mr. and Mrs. J. F. Brown this week.

L. A. Grinolds arrived the first of the week to transact business here. He expects to put in three or four acres of head lettuce this fall on his Lewiston Orchard tract. The growers in his neighborhood have cleared as high as a thousand dollars an acre from this crop. They are getting $4.75 a case f. o. b. Lewiston, or a little less than 10 cents a head.

Sheriff John L. Woody was in town last Saturday. While here he located a still in the hills near town. He took it back to Moscow with him and up to this time no one had claimed it.

Little Miss Eleanor Herres, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. L. J. Herres, was taken to Moscow to the Grinnell hospital last Friday, suffering with pneumonia and appendicitis. For a time she was in a very critical condition, but is getting along nicely at the present time.

Leland Items—Homer Parks and Augustine Koepf took their stock bred pigs to Spokane to the stock show this week. Miss Gertrude DeWinter visited from Saturday until Monday with Mrs. Ruth Easterbrook.

Linden Items—Guy Foster, who is attending school at Southwick, spent the week-end at home. Mrs. Ed. Darby and children and Miss Carrie Allen spent Wednesday afternoon with Mrs. Gilchrist. Mr. and Mrs. Jim Garner and Mrs. Rube Garner were in Spokane last week on business. Mrs. Sylvia Jenks arrived Monday evening from Lewiston for a visit with her daughter, Mrs. Lou Alexander. Mrs. Clarence Harris and children spent Sunday afternoon with Mrs. A. Longfellow. Celia McPhee is assisting Mrs. Longfellow with her household work. John Michael and Anna Morrison spent Sunday at Elmer Hudson's.

Mr. and Mrs. A. W. Longfellow visited with Mrs. Darby at Crescent Sunday afternoon. F. C. Lyons and A. L. Longfellow were visitors in Spokane Thursday and Friday. Mr. and Mrs. Addie Alexander spent Sunday at the Sidney Dicks home on American ridge. John and Tony Kirchknopf are saving wood for the neighbors on the ridge. Plowing and potato digging seem to be the main form of amusement on the ridge these days.

Farmers Meeting Nov. 5

R. D. Flaherty of the Washington Wheat League wishes to meet the farmers of Latah county on Nov. 5, at 7:30 p. m., at the court house in Moscow. He has a proposition to put up to the farmers to join in with the Washington Wheat League. This league has power in our legislative committees and many believe the farmers need this in their business.

Grange Meeting Tuesday

The regular meeting of the Kendrick Grange will be held on Tuesday evening of next week. A report will be made on the state convention at Lewiston at this meeting.

The ladies will furnish the entertainment and the men the refreshments to follow the meeting.

Rain Marks End Of Beans?

Many fear that the rain which began falling Tuesday at noon and continued for some time, marked the end of the bean harvest for the Potlatch, and caused the loss of many thousands of dollars.

During the past week of good weather, many beans were combined, many were stacked for later threshing, and many were plowed and disced under. Whether any beans out during this last siege of wet weather are worth harvesting is still a matter of conjecture, for even if a day of sunshine does come the lateness of the season makes it so short that not a great deal is accomplished.

In all probability, however, the beans not now threshed or stacked can be chalked up as total losses except for fertilizer.

Butter and pork are additions on the Federal blue stamp list named for the month of November by U. S. Secretary of Agriculture Claude R. Wickard, it was announced by the Surplus Marketing administration.

Eggs, fresh vegetable and all items on the October list, with the exception of self-rising flour and enriched self-rising flour, are also on the list of foods which Federal stamp plan customers can buy during November with free blue stamps. The complete blue stamp list for November is as follows: Butter, pork, all cuts, fresh, including chilled or frozen, pickled, salted, cured, smoked, but not cooked or packed in metal or glass containers; shell eggs; all fresh vegetables, including potatoes; raisins, dried prunes, fresh pears, fresh oranges, fresh apples, hominy (corn) grits, dry edible beans, wheat flour whole wheat (gram) flour, enriched wheat flour and corn meal.

Returns From Hunt

Walter Bigham returned Saturday evening from his big game hunt in the Fish creek country, bringing back with him a huge elk and a fine deer.

This elk, a bull, had one of the largest sets of horns ever seen in this section. We did not learn its weight but rather imagine it went well over the 500 pound mark for the four quarters.

Bridge Now Completed

The new bridge across the Potlatch at the foot of the Wauncher Gulch grade is now completed, but at the present time it reminds us of a sore thumb — sticking straight up into the air, and of no use to anyone — for approaches have yet to be put in — and it will need real ones.

The new structure is truly above high-water, at least higher than the crest of any water that has yet come down the stream, and really long, high approaches must be built in order to use the bridge. As we understand it, the fill on the upper end will begin some 260 yards above the Pemberton home, with nearly four feet to be added to the road height in front of the home.

On the lower end a long curving approach is to be built, rising some eight feet above the present road level, to the bridge.

This work is supposed to begin this week, but to date we haven't seen any signs of such action.

Whose Territory Is It?

One of the things puzzling the marshal's of Kendrick and Juliaetta, in their efforts to preserve some sort of control over traffic, is: "Under which state traffic officer's jurisdiction, does the Juliaetta and Kendrick districts come?"

According to the information we have this territory has not been awarded to Harry Clark, officer stationed at Lewiston, or John Kinsel, officer stationed at Moscow.

As a result of this deficiency in the "efficiency shake-up" by Gov. Chase W. Clark, shortly after his taking office, the school patrols in the two towns have been operating without headquarters authority to enforce rules. Another result has been that no traffic control as regards brakes, lights, and other driving equipment has been put on in this territory since the governor "reorganized" the state police force.

We think it's time something was done, don't you?

Boy Points To Safety

Two boys, one about five years of age and the other about a year younger, had reached the crosswalk, the younger started across the street, but the older boy grabbed him by the hand, saying: "Wait for the green light."

"Why?" asked the younger. "Because you'll be like that," was the answer as he pointed to a dead pigeon that had been crushed under the wheels of a speeding car.

Couple United In Marriage

CASH MARKETS MAKE GAIN IN PACIFIC NORTHWEST

Strength in wheat futures at important midwestern markets was reflected in an advance in the December delivery at Portland during the week ending October 24, the United States Department of Agriculture reports. Cash wheat advanced along with futures and prices at the close of the period were from 2 1/2c to 6c per bushel higher than a week ago, with variations depending upon local supply and demand conditions on the various classes. Offerings by growers continue light, and demand was about sufficient to absorb available market supplies, with mills the principal buyers. The carlot receipts at Puget Sound and Columbia river terminals continue to reflect the light demand and movement, totaling only 287 cars for the week against 355 cars last week. Export flour sales to the Philippines and Americas remain comparatively light with indemnity payments unchanged. Domestic flour business was reported only moderate with a slight improvement being registered in some sections.

Some movement of wheat by rail from the intermountain district continues, mostly to the Kansas City territory. Mill feeds markets were holding firm at recent advances with light supply being readily absorbed. Winter wheat seeding is reported well under way with the soil in excellent condition.

Cash wheat prices at Portland on October 24, showed soft white at 95c; the same, except Rex wheat not applicable, 90c; white club $1.00; western red 99 1/2c and hard red winter at 92c per bushel, all basis No. 1 grade in bulk. Cash wheat prices at Seattle on October 24 showed soft white at 95c; soft white (Rex not applicable) 98c; western red 98c; hard red winter 91c and hard white (Baart) at $1.16, all basis No. 1 grade in bulk.

The San Francisco wheat market was quiet, but developed a somewhat stronger tone during the week ending October 24, influenced principally by the sharp recovery in other markets, together with light local offerings. Current demand remained relatively slow, but the moderate trading appeared more toward the top of the previous week's price range. Supplies already in commercial storage were particularly well held with growers mostly asking at least $1.75 per 100, country warehouse receipt basis for No. 1 hard white and No. 1 soft white wheat. Offerings from other western states also were light and at prices higher than a week ago.

Kansas City futures advanced 5c to 6 1/2c during the week ending on October 24, and were back up above the levels prevailing prior to last week's sudden drop of 10 cents. Cash winter wheat prices reflected the full advance in futures and were further strengthened by gains of 1c to 1 1/2c in premiums. No. 2 red winter was quoted at $1.13 to $1.16 with virtually no offerings all during the week. Nine markets reported arrivals of 984 cars compared with 1259 the previous week and 1,037 a year ago.

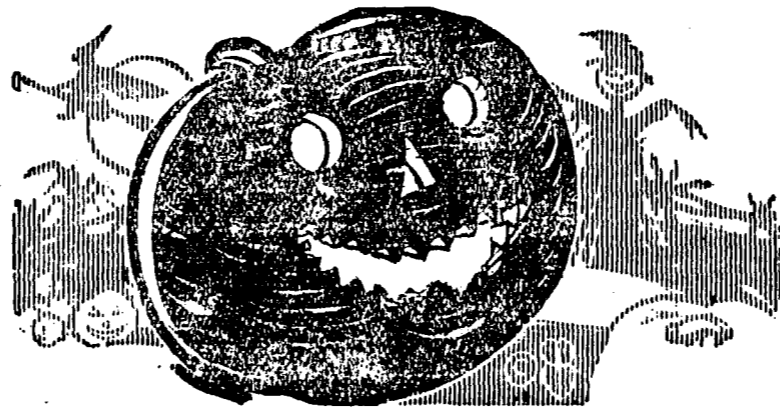

At Chicago the cash basis for No. 2 hard wheat and No. 2 red wheat was up for the week 1 1/2c. December futures closed at $1.16 1/2. At the close of the week No. 2 hard winter was quotable at $1.13 and No. 2 red at $1.12. The cash wheat market was rather inactive during the week. The outside demand was slow and for small lots over a rather widely scattered territory. Mills were not anxious buyers as flour consumers were evidently well supplied. Local elevators were not actively interested, and country movement fell off. Carlot receipts for the week were 82.

Wheat prices at Minneapolis on October 24, were up 12 cents per bushel from the low point of October 16. The substantial break of a week ago shut off country marketings and also attracted new buying when prices dropped materially below loan levels. The decrease of the country offerings following the break also permitted the cash market at Minneapolis to clean up the mass of low quality grain which had accumulated. With mild demand steady premiums firmed all along the line with discounts of damaged high moisture lots less pronounced.

Denver mills were bidding 91 cents f. o. b. Colorado common points for No. 2 hard winter and No. 2 northern spring.

Ogden quotations, basis No. 2 f. o. b. Ogden mills were: Dark hard winter and dark northern spring, 97 cents; hard winter and northern spring 89c; hard white $1.01; soft white

A Time for Gay
Parties and Pranks

However --
Don't Play Them
On Yourself!

Buy The Goods Or Services You Need From Men You Know -- In Kendrick!

In this topsy-turvy world we have today, with its manifold manufacturing problems, and the substitution of materials here and there, more and more dependence must be placed upon the man behind the counter to insure your getting the kind and type of article you need in your work or in your home — and there is where the home town (Kendrick) business or professional man comes to the front.

You know from experience that absolute dependence may be placed on the goods and services he sells for he knows you, knows your needs, and expects to have you continue as a customer — his is not a "one sale interest." He has no desire to "take you", for he knows you as his friend.

He has, with you, common interests in schools, churches, roads, fraternal and other organizations. He desires, as much as you, yourself, to see continued prosperity in the Potlatch country, and by delivering to you the proper goods or services he helps you as well as himself.

Therefore, we can say in all sincerity — look to the local business man — the Kendrick business man for help in selection of proper goods, materials or services in this day of substitution and delay.

Remember — There's always a "U" and "I" in business, and another saying that is equally true: "United we stand; divided we fall." So buy it in Kendrick.

We are prompted to sponsor this message to the people of Kendrick and vicinity through our interest in community welfare.

Who Is President?

Many Americans, after scanning the headlines of the big daily papers for the past few days are beginning to wonder just who is president of this great nation of ours, Franklin D. Roosevelt or John L. Lewis, for of this week we were treated to the spectacle of our duly elected president pleading with a so-called "labor-racketeer," John L. Lewis, not to call a strike and stop the defense program.

Can you imagine the president of our nation, given almost dictatorial powers during this emergency, pleading with a labor leader!

Adolph Hitler must thoroughly enjoy reading the dispatches that tell of such happenings, for truly it is playing into his hands.

Mr. Roosevelt and his two pets, "Ma" Perkins and the "fair-haired boy" Sidney Hillman, have legislated for and pampered labor leaders until the present situation seems to have gotten too big for them—and we say it's time something was done.

It is indeed regrettable that the first President Roosevelt, "T. R." is not alive and in the White House today—we'll wager the situation would be to his liking, that he wouldn't do any pleading, and that there wouldn't be any strike.

We believe it's time a pair of skids were built for "Ma" Perkins, Sidney Hillman, and a lot of the other swivel chair warmers—and a business man given control. He would have a tremendous job on his hands but we believe order could be restored and production resumed if someone who really understood what it was all about "was in the saddle."

Invited guests were Mr. and Mrs. A. O. Kanikkeberg and Mr. and Mrs. Silvie Cook.

Building Garage

Paul Lind is busy these days constructing a new two-car garage at the L. J. Herres home.

The structure will be shingled and stained to match the house, and will indeed present a nice appearance when completed.

Game Birds In Latah County

The fall harvest of the annual crop of Chinese pheasants is now under way. Due to the kindness of nature with mild winters and an abundance of food and cover, this year's crop is above the average of the past three years, not forgetting, of course, the new protection of the lady pheasant that has been in operation in Latah county for two seasons and which aims at leaving as brood stock more chick-raising mothers. And, of course, credit goes to the good-natured farmers in Latah county who have harbored these fine birds on their lands without so much as recognition from the sportsmen who hunt them. But, be that as it may, the game birds do the farmer plenty of good—more than enough to offset any damage they do. Most farmers feel that the birds are an asset to their farm and they want more of them, especially if the hunters will extend any sort of cooperation through the hunting season.

The small refuges in Latah county are doing their bit to return the pheasant population to somewhere near normal. These numerous resting places provide for the birds a retreat from shot and shell, where some of them may be preserved until the following spring, there to scatter out and raise healthy families of wild birds to hunt again the next fall. If we, the sportsmen, will help the farmers and cooperate with them this year around, it will not be long until a longer hunting season can be declared.—Paul A. Cole.

Dairy Sires Available

Latah County dairymen with herds of four to fifteen cows can secure purebred sires on a cooperative basis for much less than the cost of maintaining an individual grade sire, through cooperative services sponsored by the Farm Security Administration, Title Building, Moscow, it is announced.

While purebred bull rings must be initiated by farmers cooperating with Farm Security, other small dairymen in the community can participate on an equal basis. Sufficient loan funds are available to bring a number of purebred dairy bulls into the county on the basis of joint ownership and joint use cooperatives. Loans can be made for a period of five years with interest at three per cent on the unpaid balance.

Dairymen of the county generally agree there is a serious need for more purebred and proven dairy sires to raise both the quality of herds and butterfat production. The purebred bulls are usually beyond the reach of the individual small dairyman, but can be made available at a low cost if several dairymen in a community cooperate in setting up bull rings.

Farmers cooperating in the department of agriculture's farm security program and small dairymen interested in securing purebred sires through the community and cooperative service programs are advised to get in touch with the Farm Security Office at Moscow, or the County Agent, Moscow.

Purchases Noble Store

A deal was closed on Monday of this week, whereby F. B. Higley purchased the Chas. Noble Grocery at Juliaetta, taking charge Tuesday morning.

Present plans call for Mr. Higley, Ernest Irving and Wayland Davis to operate both stores. Mr. Higley and Mr. Irving transferring back and forth from Kendrick to Juliaetta.

They will be assisted at times by Mrs. Raymond Hudson and Evelyn Farrington.

Mr. Higley has made a success of his business ventures in Kendrick, and will no doubt, do as well with the store at Juliaetta.

National Girl Scout Week

The local Girl Scout troop, under the direction of Mrs. Marvin Long, have a very nicely erected window display in the Tavern building, showing how an out-of-doors camp should look, and very interesting it is, with "gadgets" made from twigs and limbs, which are very useful in outdoor cookery. The reflector over with its pan of biscuits is a sight to make any campers mouth water.

The girls are displaying a nice variety of recipes, as well as food they have learned to prepare, and we congratulate them, and their leader, on their fine achievements.

Please Send In Questionnaire

Truck and bus owners who have not mailed their questionnaires to the Highway Advisory Committee to the War Department, Boise, Idaho, are urged to do so by J. L. Balderston, Commissioner of Law Enforcement. This inventory of the trucks and busses is vital to the governmental planning for national defense emergencies. Any delay in mailing the cards will entail much additional work and will delay the program.

Tapped A Key

Miss Arlene Deobald, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. E. A. Deobald, Kendrick, was accorded signal honors Friday afternoon, when she was tapped for Cardinal Key, a woman's scholarship honorary society at the U. of I. Miss Deobald was one of seven accorded this honor from the Junior class.

"Caught In The Draft"

Abandoning her sarong and fern leaves, Dorothy Lamour finally appears on the screen in the kind of clothes worn by her sister glamour girls.

This week's offering, "Caught In The Draft" is said to be one of the best and funniest army pictures you have ever seen, with laughs, unusual situations and an insight into the better side of army life. In this production, instead of being one of the screen's best "undressed" women, Doty bids fair to become one of Hollywood's fashion leaders, and of course you'll enjoy Bob Hope's gags.

As a special attraction a number of shorts have been added.

An extension of the final date for the actual export of flour sold under the 1940-41 wheat export program from October 31, 1941, to April 30, 1942, was announced August 23. The date for making application for payment was extended from December 31, 1941, to one 30, 1942. Of the 3,990,000 barrels of wheat flour sold for export during the 1940-41 fiscal year about 445,000 remain to be exported. Diversion of ships from regular schedules, difficulties in obtaining import permits, and other factors due to war conditions were responsible for the delayed exports.

Well, Folks — To resume our discussion of the weather — and you'll have to admit it's been pretty good the past week since the Republicans have had control again. Of course there has been considerable fog — but that was due to Democratic efforts to becloud the issue and regain control. And these past few sunny days have meant many a dollar in saved beans in the pockets of Potlatch section farmers. Of course many more sunny days will be needed to complete the harvest or stacking operations — but if the Democrats will just let the Republicans alone, the sun is bound to shine.

KENDRICK SCHOOL NEWS

The U. S. History class is studying a chapter on the "Expansion of the Pacific Northwest" and as supplementary material they are making individual reports on various phases of western development. A number of interesting reports have been given, and they make the class much more enjoyable.

The fire drill schedule has been worked out and copies of it have been posted at various points in the building. Everyone is requested to study it and be prepared for either a surprise fire drill or a real emergency.

Tumbling classes are being held in the gymnasium for the boys who are planning on turning out for basketball. These lessons are absolutely guaranteed to make you 100 per cent more limber.

A number of games have been scheduled for the coming basketball season. The first of these will be a game with Deary at Deary on December 2. The first home game will be with Deary here, December 9.

A number of the high school boys have been employed in the bean fields, but since the rainy weather most of them are back in school.

Try-outs have been and are being held for the Junior play. The cast and details of the production will appear in this column at a later date.

Several new pencil sharpeners have been purchased. This may seem like an unimportant detail, but in view of the number of pencils chewed by the students, it is quite an improvement.

Questionnaires have been distributed among the students for the purpose of determining how many of them have been immunized against diphtheria and smallpox.

Leland School News

Mrs. George, the new county Health Nurse, visited school last Wednesday.

Miss Nellie Buckles, county superintendent, accompanied by Mrs. Marion Swedland, visited school on Wednesday afternoon of last week.

The students of the Intermediate room have maintained a perfect attendance for the first two months of school, ending October 24. The primary students have had a perfect attendance for the first two weeks of the second six-week period which began on October 13.

Work has begun on a program to be given sometime in the near future.

The fourth grade geography class has completed a project on Africa.

Because the facilities for handling the large class in Shop are inadequate, the Intermediate students have purchased material to add two 24-foot work benches. Later on new tools will be purchased.

The sewing class is now holding its meetings in our new cafeteria room. We plan to add a sewing machine as soon as we can obtain one at a reasonable price.

Last Wednesday the members of the Leland Homemakers club, co-sponsors of our hot lunch project, and the mothers of the students gave a kitchen shower for our school in the new cafeteria. The gifts brought by the ladies were worn to represent some article of clothing or adornment, such as hats, bracelets, corsages, etc. The students voted on the cleverest idea, the prize going to Mrs. Arthur Locke. Games were played and a delicious luncheon served by the committee in charge, Mesdames Oney Walker, Harry Smith, G. F. Cridebaugh, Donald Morgan and Oral Craig. Others present were the Mesdames Walter Silflow, Arthur Locke, Homer Parks, Harold Parks, Leonard Wolff, Jesse Thornton, Herman Meyer, Wayne Kuykendall, Clark Smith, Roy Craig, Stewart Heffel, Ervil Woody, Fred Glenn, J. E. Freshman, W. Weyen, Jesse Hoffman, Charles Hoffman, Ben Hoffman, Marvin Vincent, Alex Larson, Gordon Peters, Walter Crawford, Alvin Steigers, Jennie Hund, Annie Hartinger, Robert Draper, J. M. Woodward and William Wolff. The interest shown by these ladies is greatly appreciated.

Purchase Garage Business

On Saturday morning, November 1, Raby's Garage and Service Station will pass into the hands of Wally Brocke and Frank Abrams, who will operate it in connection with the Auto Freight business. The Auto Freight storage depot and office, now located in the rear of Thurber's store, will be transferred to the Raby building, with a freight unloading platform being constructed in the building.

The sale of gasoline and lubricating oils will be continued as at present, and a general service garage operated.

The Sportsman's Creed
A true sportsman obeys the hunting laws and insists that his fellow hunters do likewise. He respects the rights of the landowners and complies with the law. He cuts no fences, shoots near no barns, homes, or other buildings; tramples no crop and endangers no livestock or human lives by careless gunfire. He takes only a lawful amount of game, as his license does not permit him to shoot for another. He stamps out all campfires, and throws no lighted matches on the ground. He does not shoot the last two pairs in a pheasant covey, but leaves them to replenish the game crop. He feeds the birds and other game in winter. Finally, he gives all game a sporting chance.
