REGISTRATION DAY IS SET AS FEBRUARY 16TH

Registrars, as well as men who register February 16, under the provisions of the new military service age bracket of 20 to 45 years, inclusive, must understand that when a registrant has more than one place of residence, he may choose which one he wants recorded as his permanent place of residence to designate the local board that will always have jurisdiction over him, Brig. Gen. M. G. McConnell, Idaho Director of Selective Service, says.

The General emphasized, however, that no transient address may be recorded and that Selective Service Regulations prohibit any interference or dictation by a registrar when a registrant who has more than one place of residence is making his choice as to which he desires recorded as his home address.

It is the intent of the law and the purpose of Selective Service regulations that each man be registered at his home address and be subject to call to fill quotas from that local board. That is a basic principle of democratic procedure and I expect every Selective Service registrar in the state to adhere strictly to it.

Registration cards to be used on February 16 will contain a space for the registrant to list his place of residence. In the event that he has more than one place, he is required to list his own choice as his place of residence.

In addition, the registration card will have space for recording a mail address. This may be the same as the place of residence, or it may be another address where the registrant will receive his mail more readily.

Fire Destroys Home

Monday afternoon about 3:00 o'clock the local fire siren sounded for the first time in many months, and it was disclosed that the home of Ira Foster was on fire.

Mr. Foster was away helping his neighbor, Fred Crocker, cut wood, when the flames were first noticed. At the time of their discovery the flames had eaten through to the outside of the home and were leaping high into the air.

The local volunteer department responded to the alarm and in a very few minutes had the flames under control. However, the fire had gained such a headway before being discovered, that even though extinguished, the loss can be considered almost a total one.

The loss was all the higher since Mr. Foster had many keepsakes and souvenirs of the early days in Kendrick and vicinity. These possessed a real financial value, as well as a sentimental one.

The cause of the blaze is unknown, and it is not known at this time whether or not Mr. Foster will rebuild the home.

The home is located between the Fred and Arlos Crocker residences in the west part of town.

Mr. Foster wishes to thank everyone who so willingly assisted him in efforts to save his home and belongings.

Soldier Air Mail

Postmaster C. H. Daugherty has received word from the postoffice department that air-mail letters to soldiers may be sent anywhere outside Continental United States for six cents per half ounce. This makes a quick and cheap mode of letter transportation to your son, brother or husband, at a small expense.

THE IDAHO FARM PRICE INDEX AS OF JANUARY 15

Feb. 2—Average prices received for most groups of Idaho farm products on January 15, showed advances over the prices received a month earlier. A year ago the price level for all farm commodities remained the same during this time. Practically all field crops and classes of livestock shared in the higher prices. The group showing the greatest gain, or 18 points, was fruit and vegetables. An advance of 15c per bushel for potatoes and 10c a bushel for apples caused this improvement. Some other commodity price changes were: wheat up 3c and barley up 6c per bushel, hogs up $1.00, beef cattle up 70c and lambs up 30c per 100. Dry beans and wholesale milk were also up 5c per 100, and live chickens up 1c per pound. Butterfat remained unchanged and eggs were down in price about 2c per dozen.

In 1942 prices received by farmers for farm products are expected to hold around parity, averaging neither greatly above nor greatly below that point. In other words, prices received in relation to prices paid, interest and taxes, are expected to average about the same as at the end of 1941, when the ratio was at 99 per cent of parity. In compliance with agriculture's wartime production goals, total output of farm products is expected to be one of the largest on record. However, despite the record supplies expected, prices are likely to rise, partly because of record high consumer incomes, partly because the demand of consumers will focus sharply on food as the output of civilian manufactured goods declines, and partly because of continued purchases for lend-lease shipment by the government.

Cedar Ridge Pioneer Passes

The Gold Hill neighborhood was shocked by the sudden death of Cleve McPhee, one of the real pioneers of this section. So far as had been known he was in good health, and his cheerful smile and kindly word will be missed.

John Cleveland McPhee, far more familiarly known as "Cleve" McPhee, was born November 6, 1884, at Harrisburg, Oregon, and passed away at his home at Gold Hill on January 27, 1942, at the age of 57 years, two months and 21 days.

He came to the Cedar Creek section with his parents in the year of 1899, and where he had since made his home.

He is survived by his mother, Mrs. Mattie Garner of Southwick, Mrs. Claude Pimpinger and Mrs. Edgar Bohm of Orofino. Six nieces, four nephews and a host of friends also mourn their loss.

Funeral services were held on Thursday, January 29, from the Gold Hill church, the Rev. Roy Murray of Kendrick officiating. Interment was in the Gold Hill cemetery.

The sympathy of the entire community goes to his aged mother, who has been very ill since August, and who was unable to attend the funeral.

Cannery To Be Talked

At the request of some farmers in the Juliaetta and Kendrick area a meeting has been called at Kendrick Thursday, February 5, to consider the possibility of operating a cooperative vegetable cannery and cheese factory for the region, said G. Wayne Thomas, farm security office administrator for Latah County.

The meeting is called for 1:30 p. m. at the Kendrick Theatre.

"There is a good possibility," said Thomas, "that the FSA will loan money to a cooperative to purchase a cannery there, ready for operation, if sufficient farmers are interested in growing string beans and tomatoes, products which can be handled there." Both, he added, are among the foods listed as essentials in the "food for victory" campaign.

Some sentiment has been evinced, said Thomas, to convert a creamery at Kendrick into a cheese factory, and part of the discussion will concern this possibility. "We want to find out Thursday," he said, "if there is enough interest in this to justify a detailed survey of the possibilities."

G. T. McAlexander, county agent, and Phil Borup, state co-operative specialist for the FSA, will lead the discussions.

School On War Time Basis

In answer to a questionnaire sent to rural districts, whose pupils are attending the Kendrick High school, regarding whether school should be convened at 8:30 or 9:00 o'clock, "War Time," beginning next Monday, February 9, the vote was in favor of taking up school at 9:00 o'clock, and Supt. Mason asks that all rural students, as well as those residing in town, please bear this in mind.

Time change to "war time" will be all over the nation, and while it may make a little difference at first, it will not be long until you will not notice the change, anymore than going from Pacific time to Mountain time, and setting your watch or clock one hour earlier.

Girl Scout News

Saturday afternoon the Girl Scout group, accompanied by their leader, Mrs. Marvin Long, went on a hike to identify and classify birds. The most thrilling part of the hike was the seeing of a new bird called the "Townsend Solitaire." Other birds seen were the Chickadee, the Song Sparrow, the Magpie, Robin and the Junco.

Grangers Hear Defense Talk

Tuesday evening of this week, following a short business session of the Kendrick Grange, Sheriff "Hap" Moody and G. F. Mix of Moscow gave talks on "Defense in Wartime For Civilians."

Sheriff Moody, the first speaker, gave a very interesting talk on the various types of bombs, classifying them as "Demolition," "Penetrating," "Fire" and "Gas," and broke each classification down into its various types. He explained just what to do to best protect yourself and your property against each of the various types.

Mr. Moody also classifying the various types of poison gases, as used during World War I, and as developed for use today. He explained how best to protect yourself in cases where gas bombs might be used.

The most thorough of his explanations dealt with the "Incendiary" bomb, as it was the most likely to be used against civilians.

G. F. Mix, county defense chairman took the floor at the conclusion of Mr. Moody's talk, and gave a very complete picture of the organization of civilians into Defense Units. He mentioned briefly the fine success attained in Latah county, and stated also that on Sunday evening, February 22, beginning at 9:00 p. m., there would be a practice blackout of the five counties in this section, and that the cooperation of everyone was urged in this test. In concluding Mr. Mix announced that John L. Woody was Civilian Defense chairman for this precinct, and that he would work with Mrs. K. D. Ingle, chairman of the Big Bear Ridge precinct in the organization of the Kendrick precinct.

Mr. Woody announced that the signing up of volunteers for Civilian Defense units would begin at the City Hall, Kendrick, Saturday morning of this week, at 10:00 o'clock. Following the sign-up, committees will be appointed for each district and each job.

At the conclusion of the meeting all adjourned to the banquet room where refreshments were served by the hospitality committee.

Given Bridal Shower
A bridal shower was given on Thursday afternoon, January 22, honoring Mrs. Walton Morey (nee Kathryn Kent) in the home of Mrs. Raymond Hudson, the hostesses being the Mesdames W. H. Weyen, Billy Weyen and Raymond Hudson.

For entertainment two guessing games occupied the time, most of the answers referring to the kitchen, in the home of any bride.

The color scheme in the rooms was pink and white. A pink parasol being suspended from the ceiling, with pink and white streamers anchored to the table, where the numerous gift packages were piled.

A group of Mrs. Morey's friends were present, and a very enjoyable time was had. At the close of the afternoon, and following the opening of the gifts, delicious refreshments were served.

Still No Red Cross Supplies

Mrs. S. Cook reports that there are still no Red Cross supplies forthcoming, therefore there is nothing for those who are willing to use them to do except wait. The supplies come from Moscow, but thus far those in charge have been unable to get them. It seems that other centers have their supplies, but so far none has reached Kendrick.

Additional donations received since last report are as follows: Andrew Lien, $5.00; Hans Lien, $5.00; Carrie Fallie, $3.00; S. S. Taber, $2.00; Mrs. Ida McAllister, $1.00.

Deliver New Tire Monday

What is believed to be the first tire and tube from the February quota of Latah county, was delivered Monday to the school bus of School District No. 66, Latah county.

The application for the tire and tube was made some three weeks ago, but the necessary papers and authorization were not received by the clerk of the board, C. E. Harris, until Saturday of last week, and too late to come in the January quota. The tire was purchased from E. A. Deobald of the Kendrick Garage.

Elmer McCoy, driver of the bus said: "Boy, am I glad to get that tire and tube. The road we have to travel and 'banana peel' tires with plenty of boots in them, just don't mix."

To Broadcast Games

Pacific Coast Conference basketball returns to the home court of the University of Idaho at Moscow next Monday and Tuesday evenings, February 9 and 10, when the University of Washington quintet tackles the Vandals in a two game series. Regarded as one of the best teams floored by Hec Edmundson, coach, in several years, the Washington Huskies may prove exceedingly tough opposition for Idaho, despite the advantage of home court surroundings.

Associated sportscaster Rod Klise will furnish the thrilling play-by-play account of the games in broadcasts over station KRLC, Lewiston, (1420 kilo) starting at 7:30 p. m. each night.

Attend Silver Wedding

Mr. and Mrs. Wade T. Keene drove to Peck Sunday, where they attended the Silver Wedding anniversary party of Mrs. Keene's sister and husband, Mr. and Mrs. Frank McGee.

A sumptuous turkey dinner was served 80 guests at the Chapter house there. The climax of the dinner was a huge three-tier angel-food cake, baked and exquisitely decorated by Mrs. Keene.

A mock wedding was staged following dinner, which added much merriment to the occasion.

Mr. and Mrs. McGee were presented a handsome set of silver by the guests present.

Pinocle Club

Mr. and Mrs. Walter Brocke entertained the pinocle club last Wednesday evening in their home.

Mrs. Raymond Hudson and Ross Armitage held high scores for the evening, while Mrs. Frank Abrams and Raymond Hudson held low.

Delicious refreshments were served following the close of play.

Invited guests were Mr. and Mrs. Kenneth Brocke and Mr. and Mrs. Raymond Hudson.

Fun With Ducks

Wade Keene has more fun these days with the thirty-six ducks that make their home along the creek, than a little boy with a new pair of boots.

Wade has educated them to come on call, and has them almost tame enough to eat from his hand.

It is indeed a pretty sight to see them come waddling up the bank to partake of floor sweepings and other like "ducky" tidbits.

The Lewiston Airport

This project, for constructing an airport near Lewiston as another link in our chain of national defense, has finally been approved by the WPA and CAA. North central Idaho residents are jubilant as they evidently realize the future in aviation beyond the needs of the present emergency. Because of its strategic location, from strictly commercial transportation angles, Lewiston is to be congratulated on this new opportunity.

As We See It

The action of the Spokane Round Table in starting a "Bundles for Congress" campaign seems to fit into the picture nicely at the present time, and to be the very thing that is needed — for they certainly have made it very clear that they need aid.

Their recent action in voting themselves retirement pensions of something over $4,000 a year in the face of this great national emergency — when school children are being urged to spend their every cent for Savings stamps and bonds, the stamps even being issued in 10c denominations as a further means of persuasion — seems to us to be one of the most reprehensible actions taken by any legislative body in the history of our nation.

That the House of Representatives realized this is evidenced by their action in a voice vote on the matter, rather than one by roll call on which there would be a definite record of who voted and how.

It is to be regretted that President Roosevelt signed this bill — for his stock with the American people, who are just now becoming truly united behind our war effort, would have been boosted a hundred-fold, rather than receiving the severe criticism to which he is now being subjected, along with the members of Congress.

However, there is one nice thing about the present situation — there is an election this fall, and doubtless many of those who so cheerfully voted themselves pensions at the expense of others, will "get the bird," in more ways than the receiving of one from the Spokane Round Table. At least, let's hope that this is the case.

Big Bill Passes Within Two Hours

A $26,495,265,474 naval appropriation bill, largest measure of its kind ever to win approval of a legislative body, was passed by the senate and returned to the house for action on amendments.

Increased more than six billion dollars over the total previously voted by the house, the measure would provide approximately eight billion dollars for new airplanes and a like amount for ships, in addition to seven billion dollars for maintaining the far-flung operations of the present fleet.

Funds would be made available in the bill to boost plane production to the navy's quota of 18,000 out of the 60,000 planes for which President Roosevelt has called this year.

The measure was passed on a voice vote two hours and five minutes after it was called up.

Hot Lunch Projects

The WPA is furnishing cooks in over 170 hot lunch projects in Idaho schools. The various units are sponsored locally by school boards, parent-teacher associations and other civic organizations. During the fiscal year 1941, the projects operated in 35 of Idaho's 44 counties, serving 145 schools, where 1,748,429 meals were served.

Still Another Double Feature

This week's offering at the Kendrick Theatre will be still another double bill.

The first of these, "Dead Men Tell," features that well-known character, "Charlie Chan" and his Number 2 Son. There is gloom, mystery, suspense and humor in this picture, staged aboard a boat sailing in quest of pirates' hidden gold. Of course, Charlie solves the mystery in his usual quiet manner.

The second offering, "Tall, Dark and Handsome," features that star of the Cisco Kid series, Cesar Romero. It deals with the lush days of bootlegging and gangsterism in Chicago in the late 20's. Charlotte Greenwood and Virginia Gilmore provide the feminine touch.

In addition the usual cartoon will be shown.

DOMESTIC WHEAT PRICES DEVELOP WEAKER TONE

Domestic grain markets were rather irregular and developed a slightly weaker tone during the week ending January 30, according to the United States Department of Agriculture. Wheat futures were rather sensitive to legislative developments with regard to price control. Some trade uncertainty regarding the application of the enacted price control legislation and liberal movement to some large markets, both because of the higher prices and to some extent to anticipate an expected increase in freight rates were weakening influences. The proposed use of government owned wheat for feed and for the manufacture of industrial alcohol were strengthening factors, but not quite sufficient to offset the weaknesses and futures closed slightly lower in most midwestern markets.

In the Pacific Northwest, ordinary classes of cash wheat were slightly lower and at Portland showed declines of 1/4c to 1c per bushel compared with a week ago. The protein classes of wheat, however, held about steady for the period as the result of a fairly steady demand from mills for these types. The cash market was also somewhat unsettled on the feed grades of wheat, awaiting further developments in the governmental program to sell wheat for feed. Domestic flour business was reported as fairly good and export flour sales under the indemnity plan also showed a market increase to Central and South America. The steady demand from mills for cash wheat suitable for their needs principally reflected the flour business. Movement of Northwest wheat to the midwest was of only moderate volume and California takings of wheat from this area continued limited mostly to protein qualities for immediate needs of mills. Wheat receipts at Puget Sound and Columbia river terminals increased to 611 cars for the week, and included some movement of C. C. wheat to tidewater from interior points. For the most part, however, trading in cash wheat at Pacific Northwest markets was rather dull and unsettled during the week, with only moderate demand and light offerings from growers.

Cash wheat prices at Portland on January 30, showed: soft white at $1.04; soft white, no Rex, at $1.15; white club $1.07; western red at $1.05 and hard red winter at $1.03 per bushel, all basis No. 1 grade in bulk.

The San Francisco wheat market was dull with a somewhat weaker tendency reflecting slow local demand, together with moderate declines in other areas. While offerings remained light, prices were mostly 2 1/4c per 100 lower compared with a week ago, and largely nominal. Trade reports indicate that fairly large orders were placed for governmental wheat, which was available at most nearby feeding centers on the basis of around $1.60 to $1.65 per 100 in bulk for whole grain and at lower prices at places further from the terminal. Wheat quotations at San Francisco January 30, were California grown No. 1 hard white at $2.10; No. 1 soft white at $2.07 1/2 and No. 1 white club at $2.05 to $2.08 per hundred, sacked. Washington-Oregon No. 2 soft white and No. 2 hard red winter were quoted at $1.97 to $2.00 per 100, in bulk.

Receipts of wheat at Kansas City were again large, representing the marketings of redeemed loan wheat, movement of recently sold C. C. wheat and arrivals of country run grain, attracted by recent firm prices. After the mid-week break in prices loan redemptions slackened and offerings of C. C. wheat were out of line.

Receipts of cash wheat continued liberal at Minneapolis. Premiums declined about 1c with the entire range down 3c to 7c for the week. According to reports to the weather bureau, winter wheat fields were generally unprotected at the middle of the week, since practically no snow remained in the principal producing areas. While relatively higher daytime temperatures and moderate to little night freezing caused more or less heaving in parts of the belt, damage apparently is not extensive and the crop continues mostly in favorable condition. The plants are starting new growth as far north as Missouri and Maryland.

Very severe weather continued in eastern and northern Europe, but most areas were adequately protected by snow. Western Europe was again cold after a partial thaw and some damage is feared in the Balkan countries. In the central provinces of India, moisture continued inadequate for the new crop and the general wheat outlook was below normal.

Supplies of wheat are running very low in many European countries and two breadless days weekly are reported in Roumania, Hungary also reducing food rations. The surplus of wheat remaining in Argentina on January 24, was officially estimated at 245 million bushels. In Canada, stocks of wheat remaining January 1, for export or carry-over were placed at about 553 million bushels, compared with 661 million bushels a year earlier.

The Brazilian government has issued a new decree which requires that all of the wheat produced in that country be acquired and milled by the small mills located in the wheat producing areas of that country. The large mills, which are centered principally in the coastal area, and therefore able to procure imported wheat, will not use domestic grain, but will pay a tax of about 41c per bushel on the quota allotted each year. Two-thirds of the proceeds from this tax will be used to encourage the production of domestic wheat and the remaining one-third will be paid to small mills for using the wheat allocated to the larger concerns in order to compensate the former for any difference between the prices of domestic and foreign wheats.

In the United States, stocks of wheat on farms, in country elevators and in commercial stocks totaled $52,000,000 bushels the first of January, compared with 613,187,000 bushels a year earlier. Stocks of wheat in interior mills and elevators were the largest in the eight years

Don't Wait -- Do It Now!

Today, more than ever before, conservation is a real necessity, not only of the tires on your car, pickup, truck, tractor, combine, mower, or other farm equipment, but of machinery as well.

In line with requests of our government, and the immense needs of our rapidly expanding national army, the huge plants devoted to the making of cars and trucks are now devoted (or soon will be) to the production of planes, plane motors, etc., and farm machinery production units are busily building tanks, gun carriers, etc.

It's up to us as loyal American citizens to do our bit by making our present vehicles and machinery go further than they ever have before. We believe that all of you realize this need as well as we do and will co-operate to the utmost.

If you know of repairs that need to be made on your vehicles or machinery before the coming of another crop year, we urge you to bring them in now — don't wait. Give us a chance to secure the necessary parts, some of which may take time — don't tie up your machinery when you need it, and perhaps put your neighbor "in the hole" by causing a shortage of parts that may result from some accident, or other unfortunate circumstance.

Bring that car, truck or tractor in today. Don't wait. Not only will it help you but the boys who need guns, tanks, planes and ammunition.

on record and totaled 207,351,000 bushels. Official data for merchant mill stocks are not yet available but reports from mills indicate considerably larger holdings than a year ago.

The Department announced on January 27 that the Commodity Credit Corporation was preparing to sell wheat instead of corn for the production of alcohol. Under this plan the Corporation will sell wheat at 91c per bushel, delivered to processsors of alcohol, but lower sales prices will be made to concerns that have unusually high conversion costs. No sales, however, will be made at less than 80c per bushel.

Parity prices as of January 15, in cents per bushel: Wheat 129.1; corn 93.7; oats 58.3; barley 90.4; rye 105; flaxseed 247.3. Average farm prices January 15, were: Wheat 106.1; corn 72.7; oats 50.2; barley 60.8; rye 65.2; flaxseed 195.

GOING SHOPPING?

You'll Find Things Are GOING UP!

It's true that nearly everything you buy today has gone up in price. Each week sees new price increases, all through the items of the family budget.

But — Inland Empire Electric Rates Are Lower Than Ever!

Electricity costs less today than it did even just a year ago! Like your own cost of living, our operating costs are rising, too. Materials and machinery are more expensive—and they're harder to get. Payrolls—and especially taxes—are up.

Because of careful planning through past years and because business management today is making full use of facilities that were built for just these times of emergency, we have continued the same low rates, and the same high quality of service to you. To maintain them, and to help meet the demands of war-time production is our Number One Job.

EDITORIAL

Well, Folks — Seems like "spring is just around the corner again", and with the Groundhog absolutely failing to see his shadow, the chances for an early spring look even better. Here's hoping, for green grass means more milk and cream, and that in turn means more butter — which is something that Uncle Sam really needs. Those boys who are feeding the sneaky Japanese hot lead need to be fed — and well fed, as do the boys who man our fighter planes and handle the big guns and torpedo tubes on our fighting ships.

So, come on folks — produce that cream. Bring it to us — get "cash on the barrel head" and buy those stamps and bonds with it. We in turn won't "bottle-neck" production — for we return your can right now, and it is steam sterilized and ready to use.

In the good old "dry" days the story goes that a man rushed through a train exclaiming: "A lady just fainted in the other car, anybody got any whiskey?" A man reached down in his grip, took out a flask; the man grabbed it and, putting it to his lips, took a long drink, then handed it back, saying: "Thank you, it always upsets me to see a lady faint."

"I've just become engaged to an Irishman."
"Oh, really?"
"No, O'Reilly."

Tom: "Sunburn, eh?"
Bill: "No, potatoes. I couldn't pay my bill."
