Lose Son In Accidental Shooting

Jimmie Davidson, 14-year-old son of Mr. and Mrs. Byard Davidson of Pullman, lost his life Monday afternoon of this week, when a automatic .22 Colt Woodsman was accidentally discharged twice into his mid-section.

It seems Jimmie and a pal about the same age had decided to go squirrel shooting, and had taken the gun from Mr. Davidson's car. They climbed a tree and were shooting from there. When the ammunition gave out Jimmie got down and went to the house for a new supply. It was when he returned and started up the tree that the gun was discharged twice, one shot striking him in the intestines, and one shot severing the large artery in the groin.

His pal called medical aid and he was rushed to the hospital at Colfax, where he was operated on im-Mr. and Mrs. Wade Keen spent mediately, but had lost so much Sunday in the George Jones home, blood that he failed to rally, and passed away.

ported difficulty in locating any supplies of importance, since growers were holding their relatively small old crop supplies quite firmly, and movement of new crop wheat was still confined to small lots from early producing sections. Although considerably behind normal because of wet weather, delays to harvest, the movement of new wheat picked up considerably at southern markets during the week and Kansas City received its first 1942 grain. The new crop movement being inaugerated by the arrival of six cars on June 17. No. 2 hard winter was quoted market at $1.11 to $1.14 per bushel. Denver mills were bidding 89c per bushel for No. 2 hard winter and No. 2 northern spring, basis f. o. b. Colorado common points. The grain trade was very quiet at Ogden where mills were bidding, basis f. o. b. mills: dark hard winter and dark northern spring, $1.02; hard winter and northern spring 96c; hard white $1.01 and western white 99c per bushel. Receipts of all classes of wheat at Minneapolis again increased. Mill demand was rather slow most of the week, but offerings in the open market were not large.

Winter wheat developed rapidly during the week despite cool, wet weather and harvesting was progressing in southern portions of the belt. Grain was turning color as far north as southern Ohio. In the Great Plains, the crop had headed north-ward to South Dakota. Harvesting has begun in south central Kansas and cutting is well advanced in southern Oklahoma and is starting elsewhere. Good yields are reported.

The 1943 National Wheat Allotment was announced by Sec. Wickard on June 17, at 55,000,000 acres, the minimum under the law. Wheat producers whose lands and equipment are suitable for growing other crops needed more urgently in the war effort were asked to hold their lands for these crops rather than to plant wheat this fall. The national wheat allotment will be allocated among the states as in previous years. In areas where more urgently needed crops can be sown successfully, war production plans to be worked out for individual farms will call for a wheat acreage substantially less than the allotment. Because of the transportation and storage difficulties and continuing need for livestock and dairy products, growers in wheat areas are urged to use as much wheat as possible for livestock feed.

Kendrick for many years, it being it would mould from excess moisture known as the Kendrick Hardware on the lower side. Co. until its purchase by Mr. Curtiss in 1931 from Harold Thomas, who in turn had taken it over from his brother, Walter Thomas. Mr. Curtiss gives as his reason for locking up the store as "too many priorities," requirements, that in turn making the obtaining of merchandise difficult, together with other business reasons. Mr. Curtiss is well known and well liked here, and it is with real regret that all see this business firm lose its doors. As we understand it Mr. Curtise plans on going to Bayview.

First Rattlesnake

The first rattlesnake kill we have heard of this year was made by Ivan Craig on the Cedar creek grade Monday. The reptile measured about 30 inches long and was equipped with eight rattles and a button.
