Intensified Salvage Drive

A new and greatly intensified national salvage campaign, designed to reach into every home and industrial plant and increase the flow of all vital scrap materials to the country's war plants, has been announced.

The campaign will begin Monday, July 13, following completion of the current scrap rubber campaign at midnight, July 10. As soon as the rubber drive is over, the general salvage campaign will swing into high gear and will be broadened to include the collection of all other scrap needed for war production. Principal objectives will be household fats, iron and steel, other critical metals and rags.

KENDRICK'S OBSERVANCE OF 4TH PROVES PLEASING

The Fourth of July observance put on as usual by the Kendrick Commercial club, proved to be a real success in every way — with perfect weather giving the final touch of approval — although the skies threatened to drip for a short time, about a dozen big drops of rain falling.

The crowd, which came from as far away as Spokane, expressed itself very freely — and every single one reported an enjoyable day.

This year, due to the absence of so many boys in the service, the fact that many farmers are behind with their work, and other contributing factors, the parade was eliminated, and as a result Main street was open to parking for its full length, and the row of cars extended from the foot of the school house hill to the E. A. Deobald residence, and on this basis was estimated at from 2,800 to 3,000 people. Cars were present from Spokane, Colfax, Fullman, Moscow, Uniontown, Genesee, Grandville, Waipapa, Pierce, Peck, Cottonwood, Craigmont, Latawa and all the surrounding Potlatch section.

In fact, so large was the crowd that local places of business, open for that day, were taxed to capacity to handle their needs, and the concessions did a rushing business as well.

The program of the day, which began at 10:30 a. m. with sports contests on Main street, moved like a well-oiled piece of machinery. The contests results were as follows:

Girls' 50-yard dash (eight years or under) Gwendolyn Cook, first; Patricia Ann King, second.

Boys' 50-yard dash (eight years or under) Willard Holmes, first; Eugene Wegner, second.

Girls' 50-yard dash (8 to 12 years) Peggy McCreary, first; Dorothy Kruger, second.

Boys' 50-yard dash (eight to 12 years) Clinton Smith, first; Lawrence Hunt, second.

Girls' 75-yard dash (13 to 18 years) Linda Parks, first; Jane Peters, second.

Boys' 75-yard dash (13 to 18 years) Jim Branstrett, first; Ossie Kamikkeberg, second.

Girls' 75-yard dash (free for all) Fay Heath, first; Jean Wegner, second.

Men's 100-yard dash (free for all) Bob Watts, first; Ed Mielke, second.

At 12:00 noon to 1:30 p. m. came the intermission, with a gathering of the Kendrick Pioneer association. This meeting, however, seemed to be greatly affected by the tire and Washington state gasoline rationing and the number gathering was considerably below that of last year. As no business meeting was held it is not known who was the oldest settler there. However, Burton L. French, of Oxford, Ohio; A. Wilmont of Tempe, Ariz., and Guy Lewis of Coeur d'Alene all traveled long distances to be present.

At 1:30 p. m. the program proper began in the park, with musical selection, followed by an address by the Hon. Burton L. French, professor of law at Miami University, at Oxford, Ohio, and as Mr. French is really an old-timer of this section, and knowing personally a great many of the assembled crowd the talk was all the more enjoyable — and there is no doubt but what Mr. French knew his subject.

As an added feature of the day the roll of honor was read. This roll, as presented in last week's Gazette, contained the names of all Potlatch section boys now in the armed service of their country.

At 2:30 p. m. the crowd adjourned to the baseball park, where they witnessed a tug-o-war between two real teams, the one captained by Geo. Wilken of Potlatch ridge, the other by Bert McAntire of Cedar ridge — and we want to say right here and now that the big manila hawser really popped and snapped under the strain, the expression, "tight as a fiddle string" had nothing on that rope — but anyway, the "tide of tugging" finally turned and the judges gave the decision to the Wilken team. All observers agreed that it was one of the best pulls ever seen here — and there's been a lot of them!

Following the tug-o-war came the baseball game, but owing to the heat (the thermometer stood at 96 in the shade) but few spectators showed an interest in the game, and it ended in the fourth frame. The majority apparently favoring visiting with old friends in the park and about town.

At 5:00 o'clock the Old Fiddler's contest was called in the city park, with the following results: Mr. Dillmen, first (we were unable to obtain his first name or place of residence); Robert Clemenhagen, Big Bear ridge, second; Ira Foster, Kendrick, third.

After the Old Fiddler's Contest the crowd began to thin out, but FIGHTING MAD! A WICKED WEAPON.—The new trench mortar, illustrated above, operated by infantrymen is one of the most effective weapons of the ground forces. American soldiers have proved their skill and endurance in handling this wicked shooter in close range conflict.

MRS. ELLEN STARR, CEDAR RIDGE PIONEER, PASSES ON

Funeral services for Mrs. Ellen Starr, widow of the late H. J. Starr, and pioneer of the Cedar creek area, were held at the Gold Hill church last Sunday afternoon, with the Rev. E. W. Pressnall of Southwick officiating.

Mrs. Starr passed away at her home last Thursday morning, following an illness of several months. She was more than 86 years of age.

For more than 40 years she had been a resident of the Cedar creek section, having moved there with her family at the turn of the century. During that time she had become "grandma" to most of the area. She was always ready and willing to help those in need, was a kindly neighbor and a devout Christian, and her place in ridge community life will be hard to fill.

Ellen Louise Wheat was born March 8, 1856, in Calahoun county, Michigan. In 1875 she married Harry J. Starr. To this union was born two sons and four daughters. Three daughters, Mrs. Mable Owings, Covina, Calif.; Mrs. Anna Thompson, Southwick, and Mrs. Edna Siverson, Kamiah, survive; besides 11 grandchildren and 13 great-grandchildren.

Music was furnished by Mrs. D. W. Whybark, Mrs. Louis Alexander, Mrs. Addison Alexander, Mrs. Clem Israel, Eva Smith, Mrs. B. W. Pressnall and Mrs. Ernest Goodnight.

Palbearers were Ramey Hunt, Addison Alexander, Arley Allen, Clem Israel, Frank Lyons and D. W. Whybark.

Interment was in the Gold Hill cemetery, with Short's Chapel in charge of arrangements.

Thermometer Hangs Steady

Starting Sunday of last week, the thermometer staged a spectacular rise from the low 60s to the middle 90s, the day after day average running from 92 to 96 degrees.

However, it was just what the farmers needed for haying and the proper growth of beans, not to mention wheat, oats and barley. So far, each evening has brought a cool breeze, and no one has really suffered with the heat.

The hot weather also brought on berries considerably faster, and many nice ones are now available on the local markets.

Home Extension Club To Meet

Friday morning at 9:30, in the Community church basement, Miss Hattie Abbott, home demonstration agent, will give instruction on preserving foods by canning, with less sugar; pressure cookery, and drying.

This club was organized last month in Juliatta, and the present plans are to meet alternately here and at Juliatta.

Every woman in the community is invited to attend.

Son Is Born

Mr. and Mrs. A. A. Onstott received word July 4th of the birth of a son to Mr. and Mrs. Oscar Onstott, of Farmington, Utah, on that day.

many remained to eat a picnic supper in the park, and attend the dance at 9:00 that evening. About 8:30 p. m. the crowd again began to grow as new cars arrived with dancers, and many local residents returned to town after doing their "chores" at home, and a real crowd was present at the gymnasium.

The floor was good, the music was good, and the dance, under the direction of Mr. and Mrs. Marvin Long, Fred Newman, L. S. Thurber, "Hank" Emery and Edgar Long moved smoothly. No trouble was experienced with inebriates, either in or out of the building, no fenders were scratched on cars, so all in all, the day can be said to have been a real success.

There is no doubt but what the crowd would have been considerably larger had it not been for the fact that the rains of many weeks past have thrown farmers far off their schedule, and many were forced to work in the hay and bean fields.

Commercial Club Meeting

Monday evening of next week, at 6:30 p. m. in the basement of the Community church, the regular monthly meeting of the Kendrick Commercial club will be held, with lunch served by the W. S. C. S. of that institution.

Chief order of business for the evening will be the reading of complete financial reports of the Fourth of July celebration, and the election of officers for the ensuing year.

This is one of the important meetings of the year and all members are urged to be present. Anyone else who would care to attend is cordially invited.

KENDRICK HAPPENINGS OF TWENTY YEARS AGO

Crayton Biddison was taken to Spokane Monday to undergo an operation for appendicitis. He was accompanied by Dr. Otteraaen.

John Halseth, who has clerked at the Kendrick Store for the past two years, now has a job as time-keeper in one of the camps near Bovill.

The thermometer registered in the neighborhood of 105 in the shade, on Main street in Kendrick, July 3. The hottest day of the year, thus far.

Don Miller arrived the first of the week from Winchester to spend the Fourth at the Frank Crocker home. Don is working at Winchester.

Miss Esther Lowery of Pullman spent the week-end at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Geo. Leith. Miss Lowery was a popular high school teacher here two years ago.

Mr. and Mrs. E. R. Porter arrived Saturday evening from Waitsburg, Wash., to visit in the home of Mr. and Mrs. James Emmett over the Fourth. They made the trip in their Dodge car.

The N. E. Walker and John Waide families spent the Fourth picnicking along the banks of Ruby creek. It is a closed stream, so the pleasure of fishing was denied them.

A large number of picnickers took advantage of the shade in the town park July 4. It was a very pleasant place to spend a safe and sane 4th.

Mrs. O. E. MacPherson and son Donald were Lewiston visitors Wednesday afternoon.

Everett Fraser of American ridge started carrying mail on Route 1 on July 1. He took the examination at Moscow on May 10.

Mr. and Mrs. Hugh Brown of Clarkston and Mr. Brown's brother, Clarence, spent the Fourth at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Emulus Brown.

Harold Thomas returned Thursday from Anataone, where he played in an orchestra for the big celebration there on July 4.

E. E. Bechtol, Harry Stanton and Ted Deobald spent several days the first of the week at the Bungalow, which is about 35 miles above Pierce City. They report fishing as fairly good, but like all places that can be reached by automobile, not as good as might be.

On the evening of July 3, two distinct fires caught in the dwelling owned by William Beard of Juliatta and occupied by Chas. Noble and family. Both fires are supposed to have been started by sky rockets. Mr. Noble had just succeeded in putting out one fire when the roof was again seen to be ablaze. An alarm was turned in and the flames were soon extinguished.

Kendrick was well represented at the Cavendish celebration on July 4, as the greater part of those who celebrated out of town headed for Cavendish. It was estimated that there were approximately 2,000 people there.

Juliatta Record: Walter Clark brought to town today (Thursday) with a number of other chickens which he sold to Wm. Fields of the Juliatta Meat Market, a hen which he claimed was 21 years old. The hen was raised by Mr. Clark and he states that she was an excellent layer for 19 years, or up until two years ago, since which time she has ceased to be profitable to her owner. She is a mixed breed and has a deformed bill and despite her age looks like she might live several years yet, provided she does not "lose her head" (going to the city) along with her companions, who are headed for the Spokane market. In outward appearance she looks somewhat "tough," plainly showing that she is no spring chicken.

Big Bear Ridge — John and Ed Galloway have purchased a new Chevrolet car. Mrs. Harold Steele of Enterprise, Ore., is visiting Miss Johanna Hooker this week. Miss Doris Olson returned to her home in Spokane Saturday, having visited Miss Bertina Forest. Ingrid Aas of American ridge spent Sunday with relatives here. Mr. and Mrs. Halvor Lien were Lewiston visitors the first of the week. W. L. Hedge of Moscow, A. Hooker and daughter, Miss Johanna, and Mr. and Mrs. A. W. Ahl of Kendrick motored to Spokane Monday, returning Tuesday. Miss Carlbel Ingie has gone to Berkeley, Calif., to spend the summer.

(There was a long list of candidates, both democrats and republicans, who had filed for the various county offices. But, owing to the fact that there are now neither democrats nor republicans, so it is said—the republicans having taken to the tail, uncut, and the democrats all gone "new dealers," just what is there to say about politics in 1942?)

American Ridge Red Cross

Due to the serious illness of Claud Woody, the American Ridge Red Cross will meet at the home of Mrs. Wm. Cox, rather than the John L. Woody home, as originally planned. Remember the date, Friday, July 10.

DOMESTIC WHEAT MARKETS SHOW FIRMER TONE

Domestic wheat markets developed a firmer tone during the week ending July 2, the Department of Agriculture reports. In the principal mid-west markets, wheat prices were strengthened by good buying against recent enlargement of flour sales while hedging pressure against new crop winter wheat movement held moderate. Both wheat futures and cash wheat prices at Portland advanced for the week, principally influenced by strength in midwestern markets. Cash wheat prices were up 1/2 to 2c per bushel at Portland, mostly in sympathy with futures rather than any important demand. Some mill inquiry was reported but was mostly for special milling qualities and of only moderate volume. Slow domestic flour business was reported and thus far the export flour sales program has not been renewed since the old program expired on June 30. Generally, the week was a quiet one in Pacific Northwest cash wheat markets, with slow demand and light offerings in the country. Of interest at Portland during the period, was the inauguration of deferred shipment, warehouse receipt basis trading in the cash market, in addition to the regular 15-day shipment trading basis. This was done as the result of the acute storage conditions at coast terminal markets and also to maintain definite cash values at this market at all times. The weather bureau reports winter grain in this area ripening slowly and filling well, but with considerable lodging due to heavy rains. Some barley has been harvested in Oregon and spring grain is making good growth.

Cash wheat bid prices at Portland on July 2, for regular 15-day shipment showed soft white at 93 1/2c; soft white, no rex, 94 1/2c; white club 96c; western red 94 1/2c; ordinary hard red winter at 92c per bushel. For deferred shipment, bid prices showed soft white 96c; soft white, no rex, 98c; white club 99c; western red 98c and hard red winter 94c per bushel, all basis No. 1 grade in bulk.

The San Francisco wheat market remained dull with no important changes in the general situation. While demand was rather slow for both milling and feeding purposes, offerings were light and prices held practically unchanged compared with a week ago. Central California growers continued to market remaining old crop supplies very slowly and the limited quantities of new crop wheat harvested to date generally were being placed in storage rather than being sold.

A sharply lower trading basis that developed in Kansas City as the new wheat receipts gained volume, offset to a considerable extent the recovery made by futures. Losses of 2c to 3c per bushel were recorded for the week and cash values at the end of the period were 1c to 1 1/4c lower than a week ago. Mills were in the market freely by the end of the week with flour bookings reported greatly increased over recent weeks. By the close of the week, new and old wheats were selling at the same levels, with No. 2 hard winter quoted at $1.08 1/2 per bushel.

With about one-third of the Minneapolis receipts made up of durum wheat, daily offerings of bread wheat were light and with mills demand active, premiums tended toward the firm side, especially for the better milling lots.

Relatively favorable harvest weather prevailed in the winter wheat area east of the Mississippi river during the week, except locally in the western Ohio valley, but much of the western wheat belt is urgently in need of fair weather. Harvest advanced rapidly in the southern great plains but in the Mississippi states continued rains delayed harvesting, especially in eastern Kansas, parts of Oklahoma and much of Missouri. Harvesting is nearly completed in southern Oklahoma and has become general in the Texas panhandle.

In the spring wheat belt, conditions continue decidedly favorable. Spring wheat is beginning to turn color in southern Minnesota, is heading in South Dakota and early sown fields are beginning to head in North Dakota. In the Pacific Northwest excessive rainfall caused some lodging in eastern Washington, but otherwise conditions were favorable.

In Europe, the wheat harvest is under way in southern areas and is about to start in southeastern countries, including the Danube basin. The outlook is reported under average in all of these countries and in some instances decidedly poor. Favorable weather has improved wheat prospects in the United Kingdom, but the crop is still backward.

Arrivals of wheat at nine winter wheat points in the midwest increased to 8,005 cars for the week, compared with 5,572 cars the previous week and 12,250 cars a year ago. Receipts of wheat at Kansas City totaled 1,407 cars for five days, which is well over twice as much as arrived in the previous six-day period, reflecting the rapid spread of harvesting as a result of dry weather. In comparison with a year ago and other recent years, however, the movement to date is only a fraction of that usually attained by July 4th.

Will Get "That Five" First

Mr. Roosevelt now says it may be necessary to take all tires from automobile and truck owners — but that he is not trying to save rubber — it is the nation.

However, we're betting that the tire requisitioning will not take place until all have been persuaded to pay the $5.00 car and truck use tax that is now due.

Harvest Estimates Vary

Estimates on the time remaining before harvest vary greatly with the different farmers' and different ridges, the time varying from two weeks to the first of August.

Apparently a large part of this variation is due to how long the field has been planted, the kind of grain, the slope, etc.

Wheat planted during the first "dry spell" is much further advanced than that planted about two weeks later, despite the cold, wet weather.

However, a continuation of our present weather over a couple of weeks more will undoubtedly bring harvest work "on with a rush."

The present labor shortage will undoubtedly slow up harvesting operations, and many farmers are looking to townspeople for all possible help.

Blue Stamp Food List

Fresh peaches, plums and apples have been added to the list of food which may be purchased with Blue Stamps during the month of July, according to a dispatch. Dried prunes and fresh grapefruit have been removed.

During the summer months the Agricultural Marketing Administration is making an effort to include on the list of foods which may be purchased with Blue Stamps, those suitable for home preservation. Further, an attempt is being made to encourage the consumption of fresh fruits and vegetables. This is not only nutritionally valuable but will also mean less demand for canned goods. Due to the shortage of available tin, it is important that the public, as a contribution to the war effort, concentrate on the purchase and consumption of fresh fruits and vegetables.

The complete Blue Stamp list for July follows: Butter, corn meal, shell eggs, dry onions, dry edible beans, hominy, fresh plums, fresh apples, fresh oranges, fresh peaches, wheat flour and whole wheat flour, enriched wheat flour, fresh vegetables (including potatoes) but does not include avocados, melons or rhubarb.

Threshing Beans

Last week, Fred Schoeffler of Cameron finished the threshing of his bean crop of 1941, and the product was said to be very good, despite the fact that it had lain so long in the stack. However, it seems that this "ageing" was distinctly in the beans favor, since they were said to be quite dry and firm, and of a reasonable whiteness, despite all the wettings they underwent.

Many beans were threshed from the stack this spring, but his is the "latest" of which we have learned.

Tremendous Rail Demands

More goods—war and civilian—are moving over rails than ever before in U. S. history. Around 500 freight trains move through the Pittsburgh, Pa., area every 24 hours, an average of more than 20 an hour, carrying a total of between ten and thirteen thousand loaded cars.

Takes Huge Quantities

An armored division may use up as much as 600 tons of ammunition in a single day of fighting—an amount which, loaded into freight cars, would require a train of 17 cars.

New Arrival

Mr. and Mrs. John Blankenship of Kendrick are the proud parents of an 8-pound son, born July 4, at the home of Mrs. Clifford Davidson.

Next Move Is Government's

Final government approval has been secured on the new Kendrick Co-operative Creamery, all the requirements having been met, and the next move must be made by the government.

Frank Harris, local manager, and A. O. Kanikkeberg said late Wednesday afternoon that the government FSA men were expected to arrive shortly, and not much time is expected to elapse before the newly formed institution would take charge of the Thomas Creamery, on which it has held an option for some time.

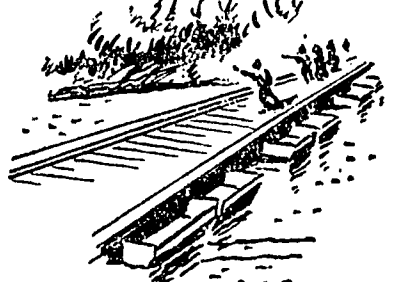

Many hours of time have been donated to this organization by local men and women, and they sincerely hope that actual operations will not be held off for long.

Ever Thought About It?

To those who are interested in such things had you noticed that in 1492 Columbus discovered the West Indies and America, while in 1942 America discovered the East Indies and Australia?

What You Buy With WAR BONDS

Our army spells and pronounces it ponton, not "pontoon", as you do. Ponton bridges cost all the way from $15,000 to $700,000. The smaller bridge using individual metal pontons is pictured here. The largest ponton bridge is 1,000 feet long and is made of rubber instead of aluminum.

One small bridge has a weight capacity of 25 tons, using about 2,000 individual metal pontons. The smallest is used only to take troops over smaller streams. But whether our army uses the smaller or largest ponton, our engineers need plenty of them. If you and every American invests at least 10 per cent of income in War Bonds every pay day we can supply our fighting forces with these essentials to a victorious war.

Non-Essential Construction Out

The war production board has called a halt to all non-essential construction in a sweeping order designed to conserve critical materials for war uses.

The order prohibits the start of unauthorized construction projects which use material and construction equipment that may be needed in the war effort, and places all new publicly and privately financed construction under rigid control, except for certain limited categories.

Equally binding upon property owners, builders and suppliers, the order prohibits not only the start of construction in most categories, but also the withdrawal from inventory of any material from use in such construction unless expressly authorized by the WPB.

No residential construction, except for maintenance and repair work, may be started without permission if its estimated cost is $500 or more. No new agricultural construction may be started if the estimated cost is $1,000 or more. Institutional, commercial and similar types of construction can be started only if the estimated cost is $5,000 or less.

Officials said that projects already under construction are being carefully examined by the war production board on an individual basis and that such projects may be stopped if the scarce materials to be used in them can be put to more effective use in the war program.

Don't Get Discouraged

No matter whether you are twenty, thirty, forty or sixty; no matter whether you have succeeded or failed, or just muddled along—each morning is the open door to a new world, new vision, new aims and new tryings. If yesterday was a dismal failure, then turn those failures into success today. Josh Billings once said, "It ain't no disgrace to make a mistake. The disgrace comes in making the same mistake twice."

The flower that makes battleships disappear

WHEN these bright blue blossoms fall and the boll becomes heavy with its oily seeds, another flax harvest begins. The 42 million gallons of linseed oil from Minnesota, North Dakota and Montana flax fields are eagerly absorbed by the paint industry which in turn furnishes the Navy with camouflage that allows our fighting ships to make the most of the strategy of concealment. This is the flax flower's magic.

An important link between farmers' flax crops and the big linseed processors is the Northern Pacific. Serving well its territory—so rich in the resources of war and peace—has earned this railway a title that perfectly describes its function: "Main Street of the Northwest".

"Your Load Of Hay Is On Fire"

That warning from a voice, familiar to his ears, caused the driver of the pickup truck to pull off the road and stop. His wife, who was following with the family car, gave the blazing load a wide berth before she stopped the car and rushed back to her husband. The exhaust pipe of the truck had set fire to the hay and when the truck was stopped the flames enveloped it and it became a raging inferno.

The couple, joined by other motorists, saw the flames reduce the truck under the terrific heat of the burning hay, to a mass of melted rubber and steel.

A state police officer asked the owner about the loss. The farmer scratched his head a minute and said: "The truck and hay was worth about $600.00. But gosh! Think of losing those four tires." (We imagine it rather leaves one with the feeling of being barefooted).

No More Fishing Tackle
Fishing tackle manufacturers have been ordered by the war production board to stop using metals, plastics and cork in non-commercial fishing tackle manufactured after May 31. Fishing hooks, however, may be manufactured for three months, beginning June 1, at the rate of 50 per cent of 1941 production. Since most fishing tackle cannot be made without the use of metals, plastics or cork, the order will mean the end of such production for the duration. However, large stocks are now on hand.

Another Double Feature
This week's offering at the Kendrick Theatre will feature two vastly different types of shows.
The first of these offers George Montgomery in Zane Grey's famous novel, "Riders of the Purple Sage," which needs no introduction to any lover of western books or western shows. He is assisted by Mary Howard.
The second offering of the evening will feature two world-famous cut-ups, Stan Laurel and Oliver Hardy in "Great Guns," an amusing and exciting story of army life in the lighter vein. It's said to be a riot of fun from start to finish.
The usual cartoon will also be shown.

New III-B Registration Class

"Men who are deferred both by reason of dependency and activity necessary to war production, will be included in a new classification that has been designated III-B," Brig. Gen. M. G. McConnell, state director for Selective Service, announces.

Indicating that many III-A men deferred by reason of dependency only may expect to be called up for military service after the supply of all men who can be made available for military service under current policies and standards is exhausted, the dispatch went on to say: To fill the needs of the armed forces and essential activities, we must look in a large part to those who have been deferred for dependency. We foresee the possibility of early change in the deferment status of many registrants.

In preparing for the possibility that the need for manpower may require the induction of many registrants with dependents, the Selective Service regulations have been amended to divide Class III-A into two classifications: Class III-A and Class III-B, as follows:

Class III-A shall include any registrant upon whose earnings one or more persons depend for support in a reasonable manner and who is not engaged in an activity essential to the war effort.

Class III-B shall include any registrant upon whose earnings one or more persons depend for support in a reasonable manner and who is engaged in an activity either essential to the war production program or essential to the support of the war effort.

Gen. McConnell explained that the classification will begin with those who registered in the third registration and will extend back through previous registrations, as the local boards are able. Registrants of the fourth registration will not be affected, he said. Referring to proposed allotment and allowance laws, Gen. McConnell declared: "It is not possible to foresee the final form which proposed allotment and allowance laws may take. It is expected that it will at least make adequate provision for cases of small financial dependency."

what is America fighting for?

The Right to Govern Ourselves!
(One of the Essentials of a Democracy)

On election day, from farm and hamlet, town and city, comes the voice of America... a free America. On this day "every man is a king," because he is exercising the most noble heritage on earth... the right to govern himself through his own chosen representatives.

The ballot is symbolic of America's regard for the dignity and nobility of man. It is an outward sign of many rights which we enjoy. The right, for instance, to labor and acquire a home or a business, the right to build with honest sweat, toil and individual enterprise a fortress of security for our loved ones.

This free America was built by the struggles of men who believed in individual freedom. This America of free men will NOT PASS AWAY!

Believes In Equality
Southern Idaho's vast agricultural projects contributing major source of income to residents of that portion of Idaho, must share identity in the Gem State picture with the equally important mineral and timber resources of the northern half of the state for the common welfare of both sections, W. H. "Bill" Detweiler, Republican candidate for governor, insists.
Recently returned to Jerome from a trip through the pan-handle area, the Jerome County legislator pointed out that the lumber and mineral industries of the state are making a full-scale war contribution providing primary resources for the all-out war effort of the nation.
Besides the vast private interests which are engaged in defense production, Idaho has state school lands which each biennium contribute up to $1,600,000 in timber sales and farm use leases, which must get adequate protection and development to continue to be of value to the residents of the area.
Familiar with problems of both the land department and the mining industry which for more than 40 years has produced worth in excess of $2,000,000 each year, Mr. Detweiler believes that industrial expansion of the north will be of mutual benefit in providing a market for the south and that good roads, proper administration and reasonable taxes for the northern area will accrue to the ultimate benefit of all parts of the state.

Well, Folks — Now that the Fourth of July headache is but a memory, and haying and harvest work is at hand, it's time to think about and plan your harvest work. And farm women will find a real saving in labor by passing up home churning and bringing that cream to us. We pay spot cash, and besides that, return a steam-sterilized, ready-to-use can. You don't even have to wash it out.

Then there's another labor saving device readily available at this institution — that's the freezing method of canning for berries, peas, string beans etc. It's quick, easy and very economical, for, unless desired, no sugar need be used in freezing.

Come in today with that cream and at the same time select your locker box for the season.

Irate Master (to negro servant): "Rastus, I thought I told you to get a domestic turkey. This one has shot in it."

Rastus: "I done got a domestic turkey, boss. I specs the shot was meant for me!"

"Does yo' take this woman for yo' lawfully wedded wife?" asked the colored parson, glancing at the diminutive, watery-eyed, bow-legged bridegroom, who stood beside 210 pounds of feminine assurance.

"Ah takes nothin'," responded the bridegroom. "Ah's bein' tooked."

Son: "Pa, will you do my algebra for me?"

Pa: "What makes you think I can do algebra, son?"

Son: "Because I heard the maid say you knew all the answers."

And don't forget — we want to buy your cream!

Army Flour To Be Better

Mothers of soldiers in service — and housewives generally throughout the Ninth Corps area — will be interested to know that all flour purchased for the army in the future will be enriched with vitamins and minerals, conforming with standards set by the Federal Food and Drug administration.

The War department, through the office of the Quartermaster General, states that enriched flour is the straight, hard wheat flour containing specified amounts of at least two vitamins, thiamin (Vitamin B) and niacin, and one added mineral — iron. It will also contain certain amounts of two other vitamins, riboflavin (Vitamin B-2) and Vitamin D, and two minerals, calcium and phosphorus, though these are not mandatory.

So the Quartermaster Corps presents additional proof of the Army's determination to see to it that the food provided for American soldiers is nothing less than the best.

TEAKEAN GOSSIP

We have been having some very warm weather, and on July Fourth we had a heavy electric storm, the loudest crashes of thunder most of us ever heard. Earl Akins' barn was struck and set on fire, but it was extinguished before much damage was done. Some trees were set on fire. Glen Willis was knocked down and was unconscious for about 20 minutes.

Mrs. Elwood Brock and children came home from Seattle last week. They had been away for two weeks.

Mr. and Mrs. Paul Lind of Kendrick visited his parents, Mr. and Mrs. John Lind, Sunday.

Mrs. Orval Choate took Mrs. Carroll Groseclose to Kendrick Tuesday, to have her tonsils removed.

Sam Harp is home again, after spending several weeks away at work.

Avery Miller has been cutting hay on Don Miller's place this week.

Mr. and Mrs. Glen Grims from Crigmont visited last week at the Carroll Groseclose home, picking strawberries and canning them there. The Grims are newly married. She was Miss Ida Sawell.

Mrs. Ray Kellom and little daughter were over-night guests at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Wm. Groseclose one night last week.

Burnam Choate visited his parents, Mr. and Mrs. Asa Choate, over the 4th, returning to his work at Seattle Sunday.

Changing Transformers

Due to greatly increased demands for electric flow, necessitated by the new Kendrick Bean Growers bean picking equipment, and the demand soon to be from the upper Lewiston Grain Growers plant, a W. V. P. Co. crew, assisted by Herman Schupfer, has been busy the past two days changing transformers on the back streets to meet this demand.

Addition To Roll Of Honor

Since the publication of the Roll Of Honor last week the name of Lester Sleed, Juliaetta, has been added. He was away taking his physical examination and his acceptance could not be confirmed in time for last week's publication.

Guests the Fourth at the E. A. Deobald home were Mrs. Ewa Thompson of Orofino, Mr. and Mrs. Roy Edward Thompson and sons of Moscow, and Mrs. Mary Deobald of American ridge.

Hiram Galloway and Ed Brown spent the Fourth fishing in the Bungalow country. They report a fine time, but the fishing rather poor, and as many cars were lined up along the roads in that section as were on the streets of Kendrick.

Miss Marian Lowery, who has been teaching the past year at Ellensburg, left Friday, after spending a week here with her sister, Mrs. Marvin Long, and husband. She will spend the rest of the summer with a brother at Pullman. Mrs. Long took her to Colfax, where she will visit with friends before returning to Pullman.

Potlatchers Collect Rubber

A Wednesday noon compilation of scrap rubber collected from the Potlatch section showed the total of 42,518 pounds.

We consider this a mighty fine showing for this section, due to its scattered population, and had the whole nation responded as has this section of the country — scrap rubber would really make a pile.

Here are a few of the items collected: Rubber toys of every conceivable kind, rubber door mats, car floor mats, hot water bottles, rubber gloves, rubber footwear of all kinds, old rain coats, rubber storm hats, old tires, tubes, blowout hots, rim flaps, hose, door seals, gloves, heels and hosts of other items.

In last week's issue we said we believed the oldest tires to come in came from Ralph Richardson, Oscar Slind and Ole Kleth — but Ernest Roberts of American ridge says these tires are youngsters, he having brought in two Monday, size 28x3, on which he says he was riding in 1915 (motorcycle tires).

So it's up to somebody to produce something older than these of Ernest's.

In last week's issue the rubber total was reported at about 45,500 pounds. On accurate compilation, however, as of Wednesday noon, the 42,518 pound total was arrived at. Come on, Potlatchers! Dig deep, let's make this total at least 50,000 pounds.

Idaho Bean Stocks Large

Stocks of Idaho dry beans in farm and commercial storage June 1, totaled 975,000 bags. Three months ago 1,436,000 bags were in storage. This shows an apparent total disappearance of 461,000 bags since March 1. During this past quarter of year, warehouse stocks were reduced about 30 per cent or 415,000 bags, of which 298,000 were Great Northerns and 60,000 were small.

Farm stocks of dry beans showed a relatively greater decrease than did warehouse stocks. Only about 25,000 bags remain on farms, of which 22,000 are Great Northern.

To Take More Canned Goods

Increased percentages of the 1942 pack of specified fruits and vegetables has been ordered set aside by WFPB for the army, navy, lend-lease and other government agencies. The percentages which will go to the armed forces range from 100 per cent of apples, beets and carrots, to 14 per cent of pineapple juice.

Tire Dealers Must Report

Tire sellers have been called upon by the OPA to report their inventories of all serviceable tires — new, used, retreaded and recapped — as of June 30. The inventory figures sought, which are to be filed with local war price and rationing boards on forms mailed to all dealers, will provide a vast amount of new information not heretofore available to help in charting the course of rationing.

Take Real Trains

It takes 71 railroad trains each with a minimum of 20 cars, to move an army division of about 15,000 men, with their weapons and equipment. Since troops traveling by rail move at the rate of about 250 miles a day, it would take almost 1,500 cars ten days to move a division across the U. S.
