WHAT KENDRICK PEOPLE WERE DOING 20 YEARS AGO

The first load of ripe watermelons from Juliaetta were put on the market here the first of the week. They were of very fine quality. Deobald Brothers of the Kendrick Garage Co., made delivery of a new Ford car this week to Charles Jessup of Juliaetta, and a new Overland light four to Gus Kruger of Potlatch ridge.

Mr. and Mrs. Clem Israel and family of Crescent left for Flora, Illinois, Thursday afternoon, where they were called by the illness of Mr. Israel's father. They may remain there for several months.

Mr. and Mrs. L. J. Herres and family returned Tuesday evening from their vacation trip in the mountains. They drove as far as the Bungalow in their car, having joined the James Kaylor family at Peck. From the Bungalow they took pack horses and went back 20 miles on the trail to Kelley creek. They enjoyed splendid fishing there and also caught some large trout in the North Fork of the Clearwater.

Mrs. Leola King and daughters returned home Tuesday after visiting several weeks with the Leith family.

E. C. Gertje of Southwick has demonstrated year after year that it pays to raise clover seed. He raises the seed with little expense, has the clover straw for his stock and is improving the quality of his land instead of wearing it out. A few of his neighbors have followed in his footsteps and made money by his experience. It would seem that more acres of clover seed would swell the profits of the Potlatch.

The superintendent and all teachers for both high school and grades have been selected for the coming school year.

Mrs. Mary Halseh and daughter, Mrs. L. E. Pearson, have been visiting at the Pete Halseh home near Deary and at the A. Hooker home on Big Bear ridge.

Mrs. O. E. MacPherson and son Donald were Spokane visitors the first of the week.

Born, to Mr. and Mrs. Cletus Hoisington of Fairview, a son, on Sunday, August 13th.

The open season in Nez Perce and Latah counties for grouse and native pheasants begins September 15. Wickliffe R. Smith of Southwick was transacting business in Kendrick Tuesday.

L. J. Herres is in Spokane this week on business.

Otto Rauschke, Lloyd Waltz, Hiram Galloway and Geo. Barnum left the first of the week for the Colville reservation to look over the chances of securing homesteads. They are all ex-service men.

Ed Long is moving a part of the Carlson Hardware company's fixtures and stock to Nez Perce in his big truck, this week.

Mrs. Homer Betts returned last Saturday from a trip to California, where she had visited in the home of her parents since June. She was called there by the illness of her sister, who is getting along very nicely at the present time. Mrs. Betts says the train service is very poor now and connections very hard to make, as so many trains have been discontinued.

Bids were opened last Tuesday night by the town council for the grading and surfacing of the city streets. Plans and specifications call for the construction of 4,900 square yards of 8-inch macadam surfacing and 32,295 square yards of 6-inch macadam; also 2,460 lineal feet of concrete gutter and 500 square yards of concrete crosswalks. The work will be started in the first part of next month and with favorable conditions will be finished by the middle of December. Main street will be macadamized from the town limits beyond the Bear creek bridge to the mouth of Brady gulch, at the lower end of town. The main side streets will be surfaced, as well as railroad street.

The best piece of finished road construction in the Potlatch country is the stretch of surfaced highway that extends from Southwick about two miles toward Kendrick. It is built standard width on standard grade and surfaced with crushed rock. It is said the labor required to build the road was donated by the people of the Southwick community and the crushed rock was furnished by the county.

Big Bear Ridge—Mrs. O. E. MacPherson and son Donald of Kendrick have been visiting her parents, Mr. and Mrs. N. E. Ware. Miss Bertina Forest entertained the Girls' Sewing club Friday afternoon. Misses Agnes and Opal Jones returned home Friday, having attended summer school at the Lewiston State Normal. Chas. Bowers, Olson Bros., and W. H. Fairfield, from near Troy, will begin thrashing on the ridge the first of the week. Albert Nelson came down from near Clarkia to spend a few days with home folks. Inland and Betty Smith were visiting their sister, Mrs. DeWitt Penland in Lewiston Sunday and Monday. Born, July 27, to Mr. and Mrs. Hartwick Nelson, at Agawam, Montana, a son, Mrs. Nelson is known here as Miss Mayme Slind. Mrs. Leonard Davis and daughter, Miss Irene, of Leland, have been visiting at the home of her father Chas. Elliott. Cutting grain is the present rush. The hot weather has hastened the ripening of the grain and caused a much lighter yield than anticipated by many.

Linden News—Mr. and Mrs. A. W. Longfellow delivered a load of fresh vegetables to Long Meadow Wednesday. Mrs. Frank Lyons is enjoying a visit with her niece from

Lose Title Game To Worland

Lewiston's American Legion Junior baseball team, Idaho state champions, who entered the American Legion Junior baseball playoff at Billings, Mont., last Sunday evening, dropped the game to the Worland, Wyo., team, and thereby lost any further chance of play, since the single-elimination route was used. The score was 3 to 2 in Worland's favor.

Two Kendrick boys made the trip with the Lewiston aggregation, Ossie Kanikkeberg and Sonny Daugherty, and although statistics are not available it would seem that both saw action, since Ossie has been holding down the regular No. 2 corner position, and Sonny substituting regularly.

NEW PICKING MACHINERY OPERATING THREE SHIFTS

In an effort to have all previous bean crops cleaned, picked and out-of-the-way before the 1942 bean crop starts rolling into warehouses, the new bean picking machinery of the Kendrick Bean Growers is operating on a round-the-clock basis, the equipment being in continuous operation from 8:00 a. m. Monday of each week to 8:00 a. m. Sunday.

On an average shift the pickers will care for 3 1/2 tons of flats, or four tons of Robust beans, or 10 1/2 to 12 tons of beans every 24 hours. As yet no red beans have been put through the pickers, although the equipment could be adjusted to care for them. However, Mgr. Geo. Brocke says that on completion of white bean picking, the adjustment may be made and some red beans run.

We understand that approximately 25 per cent of the old crop beans are yet on hand, and owing to the poor crop season of last year, it may prove impossible to clean and pick all of these beans before the new crop arrives, which is expected to start coming in about 30 days.

The new crop is estimated to be about 86 per cent of normal locally, the late wet spring and following hot, dry weather having cut the production considerably. On the 86 per cent basis the local crop is expected to yield approximately 96,000 100-pound bags (field run), which in itself is no mean crop, despite weather losses.

This season Mr. Brocke informs us the national crop is estimated at 20,556,000 100-pound bags, by far the largest ever produced in the United States and although no accurate figures are available, the state of Idaho shows the greatest bean acreage increase of any in the union.

The Potlatch section is indeed fortunate in the numbers of different crops it can produce, and this diversification has permitted a steady financial status of which many other sections might well be envious.

Idaho Wins Big Hat

Boise, Aug. 17—Idaho wore a big western sombrero today, symbolizing the state's record collection of scrap rubber in the nation-wide campaign to aid in the war effort.

In behalf of William R. Boyd, Jr., national chairman of the petroleum industry war council, Governor Clark presented to the state the "ten gallon" Stetson which was accepted by H. W. Orchard, state chairman of the Idaho scrap rubber campaign.

The north central Idaho collection of rubber, topped only by Nevada and Oregon in the nation. Idahoans collected 8,654,000 pounds, or 16.49 pounds per capita.

Lewiston—Praise for the manner in which north central Idaho's scrap rubber drive was handled was received here today by Boyde W. Cornelison, chairman of the district committee which embraced all oil companies and handled the campaign in Latah, Lewis, Clearwater, Idaho and Nez Perce counties.

"We wish to congratulate you again on your district leading the state per capita pound for scrap rubber collected," said a letter from headquarters.

"The north central Idaho counties collected 1,232,740 pounds of scrap rubber for a per capita average of 19.5 pounds. The closest figure to this in the state was the 17.57 pounds per capita collected in district No. 4, or Lemhi, Custer, Camas, Blaine, Gooding, Lincoln, Minidoka, Twin Falls, Cassia and Jerome counties.

Lewis county had the highest per capita collection, 28.3 pounds, of any county in the state.

Eighty-Six Years Young

Mrs. Mariposa Keene was very pleasantly surprised last Friday afternoon when Mrs. Wade Keene invited a few neighbors and friends in to celebrate her sixty-sixth birthday.

"Grandma" Keene, as she is affectionately known by her host of friends, received many lovely gifts. The afternoon was spent visiting, after which delicious refreshments were served by the hostess.

Those present were the Mesdames N. B. Long, F. Crocker, Don Miller, Johanna Nelson, Ira Havens, S. Cook, L. S. Thurber, L. Ameling, L. Crocker, Estella Leith, L. J. Herres, Jack Johnston, Jerrv Herres, Wm. McCreary, Roy Ramey, Wm. Watts and the honoree, Mariposa Keene.

Condition Does Not Improve

Aunt Carrie Allen of the Cedar Ridge district, who is seriously ill at the home of Mrs. Clifford Davidson, suffering from a stroke, is reported as not improving as much as her many friends would like to hear about.

HOUSEWIVES ARE URGED TO CAN MORE FRUIT

With a war cry, "Food is a weapon of war, let none go to waste," the Idaho Office of Price Administration joined with state agencies last Thursday in urging Idaho housewives to home-can a full supply of fruits and vegetables.

C. C. Anderson, state OPA director, coupled the appeal with an explanation that housewives should use sugar already obtained for canning purposes carefully and that they may obtain additional sugar if they see it is going to be necessary to put up a full pack of fruit.

Every jar of home-canned fruit which your family uses leaves a can of commercially packed fruit for our armed forces and our allies," Mr. Anderson said. "At the same time our sugar supplies must not be wasted. For that reason, estimate your needs for the remainder of the canning season carefully and if you are not going to have enough sugar, make application for an additional supply to your local war rationing board."

"The allowance for jams and jellies remains the same. . . one pound of sugar per person. . . except that the ration officials have suggested that the two-pound bonus allowed to stamp No. 7, good only until August 22, can be used for this purpose; also any other sugar you have been unable to accumulate under rationing.

"Our only restriction is that you do not waste sugar. Base your needs on a ratio of a pound of sugar for every four quarts of fruit."

It was pointed out that the WPB has recognized the value of home canning as a wartime economy by allowing manufacture of full stocks of canning supplies. Home canning will do a great deal to alleviate any shortage which may develop in the commercial pack for civilian use.

Home canning has always been an important summer occupation in Idaho, and it is more important this year than ever before when the conservation of food is so vital to the welfare of the people and the success of the war efforts.

The state department of agriculture has agreed to cooperate by the issuance of regular market bulletins to keep housewives informed of incoming crops and the outlook for each, thus allowing the home canner to plan her activities accordingly.

Consumer groups have also endorsed home canning as a vital war measure, promising to impress upon their members the need for conservation of available food supplies and the availability of such sugar as may be used without waste.

Jim Lyle Writes

San Francisco, Calif. Aug. 15, 1942

Dear Bill: Just a line to ask you to please change our address on the Gazette to 1849 Clay Street, Apt. No. 5. Doris and the children are still here and will be, as far as I know, until I am transferred.

I am still doing the same business at the same old stand and our enrollments for women in the army are going along very nicely. Many of them give up jobs paying $200 or more per month to go in as a buck private at $21 per month. There must be truly patriotic motives which prompt them to do this.

So far, we have not seen any Kendrick people this summer but are still hoping that we may. I still am not any more enthusiastic about California than I was the last time I wrote. There's one consolation, however, we are told that we are going through the California winter during this season. I think there is undoubtedly some truth in this statement, as we have a fire in the furnace practically every morning.

Please tell all the boys "hello" for me.

Sincerely, Jim Lyle.

Ed's Note: Since there is no military secrecy in Jim's address, and in view of the fact that a number of Kendrick boys may be in a position to look him up we publish his home address, as above. His business address is 444 Market St., San Francisco.

Thermometer Hops Up Again

After playing around the middle eighties for a few days, the thermometer took a notion Saturday to start an upward climb, and did a neat 92 that day.

Sunday it decided to better the Saturday mark, and clipped a precise 96 degrees, it again upped its mark Monday, hitting 98 degrees. Tuesday it dropped one degree for a neat 97 — and we can't tell you Wednesday's — for it isn't 44 hours old yet.

This high heat and resulting dryness has been a boon to harvesting operations, which are proceeding at the top speed permitted by the shortage of help and of trucks, but despite this, the grain is rolling in a steady stream, especially barley and fall wheat — and some oats. We have not yet heard of any spring grain being ready — but some say it won't be long.

This same heat and dryness, however, is said to be damaging the beans considerably. Some growers report their bean plants starting to "yellow" at the bottom — and all growers agree that the heat is causing the blossoms to fall rather than "to set," and considerable damage has undoubtedly been inflicted.

Tonsilllectomy

Noel Thomas had his tonsils removed Monday at the office of Dr. D. A. Christensen.

Company 2-K-1 Idaho Volunteers

To date approximately 45 have signed up in Kendrick for service with Company 2-K-1 Idaho Volunteer Reserves.

Owing to the rush of harvest work many have undoubtedly held off signing up, but it is hoped the membership can be run up to some 50 or 60, perhaps even more.

In case you are interested you may sign up at the Farmers Bank or with Edgar Long at the City Hall.

Come on Kendrick — let's go!

Stamp No. 8 Good For 5 Pounds

County rationing board officials reminded citizens that sugar ration stamp No. 8 will be good for five pounds of sugar during the 10 weeks beginning Aug. 23, and ending October 31, enabling purchases in larger units.

The basic ration of one-half pound per person per week will not be changed, but disposal of five, 10 and 25 pound packages will enable processors to market sugar which has been put up in these size containers prior to rationing. Ration stamps to date have been good for only one or two-pound purchases.

Users will have until midnight, Aug. 22, to purchase sugar with stamps Nos. 6 and 7. Stamp No. 7 gave consumers a two-pound bonus.

IDAHO HAS 675 ORGANIZED RURAL FIRE FIGHTING UNITS

Idaho has 675 organized rural fire fighting units to suppress rural fires at the present critical time, reports Royale K. Pierson, extension forester with the U. of I. agricultural extension division. Each unit, under the leadership of a local rural fire chief or warden, has some fire fighting equipment and several have motorized equipment or trailers. Many of the volunteer companies have had some training in fire suppression provided by one of the fire fighting agencies or by city fire departments.

Nearly every county in the state now has some form of organized rural fire protection, made up of largely of patriotic volunteers. The organization is headed by a civilian defense committee on fire defense, with state forester organizations directing statewide co-ordination. The organizations within the counties were initiated by the extension service through cooperation of the forest service, grazing service and other agencies.

General objectives of the rural fire program are to eliminate fire hazards on the farm and in the rural area generally, to arouse interest in fire prevention, to prepare for use and maintain fire fighting facilities and equipment and to develop fire fighting units on a volunteer basis for each neighborhood or community. Surveys of farm fire hazards have been conducted by both volunteer companies and 4-H clubs. Inventories of fire-fighting equipment and facilities have been made so that in event of a widespread emergency county and district leaders have knowledge of the amount and location of equipment.

Already rural volunteer companies have been active in suppressing the fires. In some of the southern Idaho counties where in normal years range fire originating close to the irrigated sections sometimes have caused major fires, this year such fires have been suppressed by the volunteer companies. Notable instances have occurred in Lincoln, Oneida, Bingham, Blainock and Power counties. In the latter county 12 fires occurred during 12 days in July, to which 200 volunteers responded. In some of the northern Idaho counties, such as Nez Perce and Latah, grass and timber fires have been put out by volunteer firemen before they reached valuable grain crops.

Special precautions should be taken during the harvest season to forestall serious crop losses. Several combines already have been destroyed by fire, also a large amount of standing wheat. Rural volunteer fire companies have asked that the combines going into the fields be equipped with some kind of fire fighting equipment. Hand fire extinguishers, shovels and even plows pulled onto the field for readiness in the event of fire may spell the difference between losing and saving a crop. It has been found in some counties that a single bottom plow pulled at high speed will build a rapid and effective fire-break.

Wheatland plows are exceptionally good fire-break builders and in some instances farmers are plowing strips around grain fields following the first few strips by the combine. Any preventative measures will be well worth while and cost little in comparison to the losses that might result from fires.

To Receive Naval Radio Training

Lieut. G. L. Dosland, commanding officer of the naval training school (radio), Miami University, Oxford, Ohio, has announced that Ernest Henry Brammer, son of Mr. and Mrs. Henry E. Brammer, due to outstanding aptitude, has been selected to undergo a course of training in naval radio work at the naval training school at that institution.

At the expiration of his course he will be assigned to duty with one of the various fighting units of the U. S. navy, which includes the Naval Air Corps.

"Ernie" underwent "boot" or recruit training at San Diego, Calif., and was assigned to the naval training school at Miami University (Oxford, Ohio) for advanced study to further prepare himself to take his place in the armed forces, afloat or in the air.

"Ernie" attended the public schools in Southwick. He entered the service on March 4, 1942, enlisting at Portland, Oregon.

Coal Price Changes

Recommendations for the first over-all revision of the minimum mine price for the nation's bituminous coal have been filed with the Bituminous Coal division. An increase of 30 cents is recommended for Colorado, Arizona, New Mexico and west central Texas; an increase of 15 cents for Montana; and an increase of 5 cents for Wyoming, Utah and Idaho.

CASH WHEAT MARKETS FIRMER IN NORTHWEST

Fluctuations in wheat futures in the principal domestic markets were small during the week ending Aug. 14, and closing prices mostly showed little change from the previous week, according to the U. S. Department of Agriculture. The markets displayed little reaction to the official report showing the second largest winter wheat crop on the record to be added to a record carry-over from previous seasons, for a total 1942-43 supply of over 1 1/2-billion bushels in the United States alone. Federal loan levels averaging in some markets around 15c per bushel above current market prices, are expected to keep this large supply of grain from pressing on the market, however, for the time being.

Cash wheat prices at Portland showed advances of 1/4c to 3c per bushel during the period, with light offerings from growers the principal strengthening influence since demand was limited to light current needs of mills. With quotations on soft white around 15c per bushel under loan values, and around 26c per bushel on hard red winter, all growers were reluctant to offer in the open market. Trading in cash wheat was mostly confined to deferred shipment, warehouse receipt basis, since demand for regular 15-day shipments was limited to special qualities going to mills. Protein wheats both from Montana and the Northwest districts were in best inquiry from mills. Somewhat better flour business, both domestic and for export under the new indemnity plan was reported, but mills generally were covered on their wheat needs and entered the market only for special lots. Rather heavy wheat receipts at Puget Sound and Columbia river terminals, totaling about 1,200 cars for the week, mostly represented movement of government owned old crop wheat to the coast. Harvest of grain was only slightly delayed by rain during the week ending August 11, and is nearing completion in some earlier Oregon localities.

Portland cash wheat bid prices on August 14, for deferred shipment, warehouse receipt basis, were: Soft white $1.06; soft white, no Rex, $1.08 1/2; white club $1.09; western red $1.08 1/2; ordinary hard red winter 96c. For 15-day shipment prices were: Soft white $1.03; soft white, no Rex, $1.05; white club $1.06; western red $1.05; ordinary hard red winter 93c per bushel, all prices basis No. 1 in bulk.

Receipts at Kansas City dropped to 930 cars, or over 500 less than the previous week and were a reflection of the holdings by producers for federal loans. Demand from millers and merchandisers remained fairly active and the smaller daily offerings moved readily at 1c to 1 1/4c stronger trading basis. In addition to the open market takings, fairly good sales of wheat in public storage were reported to local and outside mills during the week. Further exchange of C. C. soft wheat to millers and elevators for an equal dollar value of hard wheat were accomplished and some of the soft wheat exchanges of last week were moving into milling channels. On August 14, No. 2 hard winter was quoted at Kansas City at $1.11 to $1.12, and No. 2 soft red winter was quoted nominally at $1.13 to $1.19 per bushel.

The bulk of the spring wheat offerings at Minneapolis continued to be old crop grain, as only about 60 cars of new crop spring wheat have arrived there to date, these coming from South Dakota stations. These arrivals, together with milled samples which have come in of some of the North Dakota grain, indicates uniform high test weight for the 1942 crop. Because of a threatened high moisture, low protein crop, the demand was centered principally on high protein dry wheat and premiums were up 1c to 2c for the week.

The San Francisco wheat market was quiet but steady, with light offerings and firmness in northern and eastern markets tending to offset the rather slow local demand. Trading was light but prices held largely unchanged from a week ago. Demand was especially slow for feeding purposes since central California feeders were securing most of their requirements from the department at prices materially below trade levels. Mills entered the market for only moderate quantities, mostly high grade milling wheat. Wheat quotations at San Francisco August 14, showed California grown No. 1 hard white and soft white at $2.00 to $2.02 per hundred.

Wheat threshing was delayed more or less by rains during the week in a good many localities, particularly in the soft winter wheat belt, and some grain was damaged in the shock. The quality of the hard red winter wheat is above the average and also above that of last season inspections show. Early inspection returns from representative markets show 85 per cent of the receipts of hard red winter wheat graded No. 2 or better, compared with 59 per cent last season and 62 per cent for the eight-year period 1934-41. The quality of the soft red winter wheat is exceptionally low this season, mostly on account of high moisture and low test weight.

Showers were rather frequent in the spring wheat area during the week, with heavy rains in southeastern sections which interfered with harvesting and caused some lodging of grain.

Prospects for wheat in western Canada continue bright, although

Roundup "Out" For Duration
According to an announcement from the Lewiston Roundup Association, the 1942 Lewiston Roundup, which was to be held September 25, 26 and 27, was cancelled by the board of directors at a recent meeting.

The war and stress of the times makes this decision necessary. This, of course, is not the last of the Lewiston Roundup, but merely a recess until times again permit production of the show.

Leland School Notes

The Leland school will open for the 1942-43 term on Monday, September 7, contrary to the belief of many that it would open earlier.

An estimated enrollment of 45 is expected according to preliminary surveys, this being about 13 more than last year's enrollment. G. F. Cridlebaugh will teach the upper grades and Miss Beach of Winchester will have charge of the primary department. Miss Beach comes to us well recommended and we feel she will be an asset to our school.

Applications to the Federal Projects Administration's offices in Coeur d'Alene have been made in order to secure the services of a cook for the coming term. As outlined to all the mothers at the school picnic last spring, about $30 worth of fruits and vegetables have been canned by the WPA canning unit in Boise for use in our school lunch program. To pay for the cost of this the ladies of the Leland Homemakers club have consented to give $1.00 each, and mothers with children in school who are not members are asked to contribute a like amount. A committee appointed to collect this money is composed of

Harvest At Its Peak Now
 Local warhousemen say that the wheat and grain harvest in the Potlatch section is now at its peak — and trucks are rolling in with the golden grain in a steady stream. It is almost a day and night job for them, since hoppers and bins must be emptied daily in order to care for the following day's cutting. Reports of 45 bushel yields are not uncommon.

The fall grain "hailed out" during the big spring hail storms is reported to have surprised everyone, for it is said to be yielding around 25 bushels to the acre.

Spring wheat is now being cut, as well as oats and late barley — and about two weeks should see the wind-up of all but scattered lots of grain in this section.

Storage Capacity About Reached
 It would seem that the storage capacity of about all the warehouses in this section of the country has been reached.

Word was received at noon Wednesday that the Juliaetta storage capacity has just about been reached, and a new bin or "crib" was started Wednesday to take care of the rest of the crop. It is expected to have this bin completed in time to fill it to capacity.

This information was relayed from Tom Keene, manager of the Juliaetta house.

Juliaetta Cants And Tomatoes
 Juliaetta cantaloupes and tomatoes are making their appearance on the local markets in fairly good quantities now. The first of them arrived late last week-end, but are now on display in fairly good quantities. The quality is said to be excellent.

"Week-end In Havana"
 This week's offering at the Kendrick Theatre will be "Week-end In Havana," a technicolor production starring Alice Faye, Carmen Miranda, John Payne and Cesar Romero.

This production — said to be just what the name implies offers romance, rhythm, glamour, excitement, fun, thrills and color — and should please every theatre goer regardless of his picture preferences, for there is something of everything in it — songs, dances — and even Cobina Wright, Jr.

In addition to the main feature a comedy and cartoon will be shown.

Well, folks — We've been hammering at you so steadily about cream and locker boxes, that this week we're just going to devote this space to fun — and we hope you enjoy it as much as we did while preparing it.

The colored preacher had just finished his sermon about free salvation and asked a brother to take up a collection. At this, a member of the congregation rose and protested: "Pahson, ah understood you to say salvation was free—free as the water we-uns drinks."

"Salvation is free, Brother," replied the parson. "It's free and water is free, but when we pipes it to you—you have to pay for the piping."

The general manager glowered at a very poorly written letter.

Then, summoning his chief clerk, he said:

"That new stenographer is awful. And I distinctly told you to check up on her grammar before hiring her."

"Grammar," echoed the clerk. "Gosh, boss, I thought you said 'glamour'!"

A clergyman called at the home of one of his parishioners on Sunday afternoon and Junior went to the door.

"Paw isn't home," he said. "He went over to the golf club."

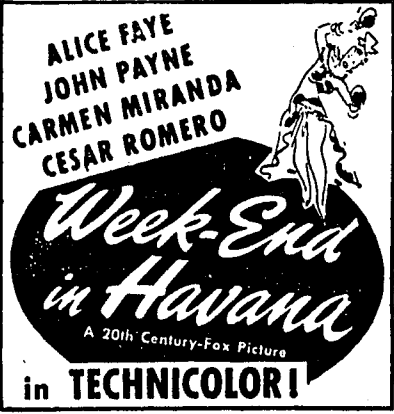

Then, noting the shocked expression on the pastor's face, he added:

"He isn't playing golf. He just went over for a few highballs and a little stud poker."

Getting on is largely a matter of getting up each time we are knocked down.

STONY POINT VICINITY

While bringing home the cows, Jackie Trady, 13-year-old son of Mr. and Mrs. Virgil Trady, residing on Bedrock creek, found a small silk parachute with recording instruments attached. With it were directions to return it to Washington, D. C., and receive a reward.

Vester Daniels, whose home was destroyed recently by fire, reports the disappearance of his sleeping bag from the back seat of his car, parked near the site of the burned home. The kindness of friends and neighbors in assisting him, is in sharp contrast to this happening.

Due to the shortage of experienced help, the young folks of our neighborhood are cleaning the school house this week.

"It Won't Be Long Now"

It won't be many days now until school again takes up in Kendrick—for that institution of learning is scheduled to begin operations again on Monday, September 7. We understand that a complete corps of instructors have been signed-up, and of course, "Hank" Emer will again pilot the destinies of the heating plant, building and equipment.

Full details will appear in next week's issue.

More Oil Tank Cars For East

An additional 5,000 railroad tank cars will be diverted from service in the Rocky mountain region, middle west and southwest to go into cross-country hauling of fuel oil to the east, it is announced. The oil companies already are using 62,000 tank cars—more than half in the nation—to move petroleum from the producing areas to the east.

Deadeye

The Irish nightwatchman at the observatory was new. He paused to watch a man peering through a large telescope. Just then a star fell. "Man alive," he exclaimed with amazement, "you're shure a foine shot."

Birthday Party

Mrs. Nellie Deeter was pleasantly surprised last Friday evening when members of the Rebekah lodge called at her home to wish her many happy returns on her sixty-third birthday anniversary.

There's enough metal in the average broken-down farm tractor to make 38 .30-caliber machine guns.

GRAIN MARKET REPORT

The harvest is late. Warmer weather during the week hastened filling and opening of the grain. Wheat harvesting will not be general in Manitoba until about the middle of August, and in other provinces it will be still later.

Prospects for wheat in Europe are quite variable, according to trade reports, but sub-normal crops are still expected in central and south-eastern Europe. Conditions in the western countries have been good during recent weeks and it is indicated that wheat harvests will be fairly satisfactory. Prospects remained excellent in the United Kingdom, but a poor wheat crop is reported in Roumania is much below last year's yield and much below domestic requirements. The three breadless days a week now in effect are expected to be continued.

The quantity of 1942 wheat under U. S. government loan increased about 160 million bushels during the first week in August and it was reported at about 47 million bushels on August 8. In addition to this quantity, the Commodity Credit Corporation owned or controlled 300 million bushels of 1941 and earlier crops.

The United States total carry-over of old wheat on July 1, in thousand bushels, was reported as follows: on farms, 159,544; country elevators, 141,789; in steel and wooden bins at country points, 10,000; commercial stocks, 224,441; merchant mills, 96,837 — total 632,611. A year ago the total was 385,424.

Why Not On This Road?

According to the Lewiston Tribune of Sunday the state had a rock crusher operating near Nezperce; twelve men were working on the Pierce-Headquarters highway under Lobnitz Bros., contractors, cleaning ditches, removing slides and grading with shovels and bulldozers; ten men were grading the approach to the Kamiah bridge project of the Lewis & Clark highway under Contractor J. F. Konen. No work was in progress on the bridge, however.

Contractor F. H. DeAtley had 20 men crushing and placing surfacing on the road and in stockpiles on the Ahsahka-Kendrick highway between Ahsahka and Cavendish, and a motor patrol was added to the equipment.

Stockpiling of crushed rock between Viola and Potlatch was 95 per cent completed under a crew led by contractor D. A. Sullivan.

There was no activity last week in constructing a roadmix bituminous surface on 10.9 miles of the North & South highway from Cottonwood north to Lawyer's canyon, but five men were drilling quarry north of Whitebird for the stockpiling of maintenance material. The contractor is Dan J. Cavanaugh.

Contractor Tony Marrazzo had five men at work drilling quarry for a project of placing crushed rock on 12.75 miles of county road between Winchester and Forest.

No work has been started on the contract of F. H. DeAtley & Co. to furnish crushed rock surfacing in a stock pile adjacent to the North & South highway near Genesee.

It sticks in our craw that the road from Juliaetta to Kendrick on the Arrow-Deary highway was supposed to be finished and oiled this year, but so far nothing has been done in this line. Owing to war conditions and presumed lack of equipment, no action has been taken locally, so far as we can learn, toward getting the project under way — but since other road and communities are receiving improvement — why not this road?

Seems to us it might be a chance for Chase Clark to gather in some badly needed votes by finishing this road section.

Train Sailors In Inland Idaho

Farragut Naval Station, the nation's second largest, turned over the first of six units to the government on Sunday, August 2, with appropriate services which were witnessed by 40,000 people. The new "C" area will house 5,000 bluejackets. When the other units are completed there will be 30,000 sailors for training with a personnel of 10,000. The new naval station, it is estimated, will turn over to the ships of the navy 150,000 men yearly.

To provide a training station far away from the coast or the Great Lakes district, the navy department selected a site upon the banks of Lake Pend d'Oreille, 23 miles north of Coeur d'Alene in Kootenai county, at Bayview. To provide the station, the government secured 30 square miles of land bordering upon the beautiful lake. When completed this station will be second in size to the Great Lakes station near Chicago.

The building of Camp "C" includes 22 two-story barracks around the "horseshoe" parade ground. The drill hall is 600 feet long and 175 feet wide, and has a swimming pool at one end that is 50x75 feet.

The mess hall, 408 feet by 180 feet, is provided with facilities for feeding 1,800 men at one time in cafeteria style. It is estimated that 5,000 men can be fed in 90 minutes. Other buildings include those for recreation, libraries and chapel. It is expected the first contingent of sailors for the completed unit will be brought in at once. The boats Mr. and Mrs. Tom Rodgers and at Bayview ready for use.

The other five units of the station will be ready in November.

Ziemann Northern Collector

Dan Ziemann, formerly of Southwick and Boise, has been named as deputy internal revenue collector for north Idaho, with headquarters in Coeur d'Alene, succeeding Myron Anderson.

Ziemann was elected county representative in the last legislature, but resigned to take the internal revenue position during the 1941 session. He has worked out of the Boise office for the last year and a half.
