HAPPENINGS OF INTEREST HERE TWENTY YEARS AGO

Babe Callison, who is attending school at Moscow, spent the weekend in the Hollida home. Miss Florence Hollida was also home over Sunday.

Mr. and Mrs. Frankie Benschoter and son Donald went to Lewiston Tuesday afternoon for a visit with relatives.

Mr. Morris of Clarkston was transacting business in Kendrick on Saturday. He is a former Texas rider, and has property interests near Deary.

Already the street work is stimulating building. Mr. Dammarell began the construction of a new barn on his town property the first of the week.

Clem Israel of Linden went to Spokane on business the first of the week.

Mr. Frank Crocker returned on Tuesday morning from Lewiston, where she visited relatives over the weekend.

Oscar Slind left for Avon, Montana, Thursday afternoon to visit his brother, George, who owns a cattle ranch there. He will also visit his sister, Mrs. H. Nelson, at Agawam.

Mr. and Mrs. Walter Thomas are now making their home in the new house recently completed by A. L. Hall, in the east end of town. Mrs. Thomas arrived from Lewiston the first of the week.

Members of the Epworth League met in the basement of the church Monday evening for the purpose of electing officers for the coming year. Those elected were: Everett Fraser, president; Miss Newkirk, first vice-president; Beulah Long, second vice-president; Audrey Stanton, third vice-president; Nell Ameling, secretary and reporter; Artye Hollida, treasurer; Edith Dammarell, organist.

Last Tuesday morning, sometime between 3:00 and 4:00 o'clock safecrackers blew the vault and safe of the Kendrick Hardware Company, securing nearly $60 in cash and a number of checks. The safe was practically wrecked and some of the store records used for deacending the noise were badly damaged. No clew to the identity of the robbers has as yet been discovered. N. E. Walker had the night shift as inspector for the street work that is being done. About 3:30 the lights all over town went out. A few minutes later, as he was standing in front of Stanton Bros. store he heard an explosion across the street, in the hardware building. Believing it to be safe-crackers at work, he ran to the home of Joe Gardner, city marshal, and gave the alarm. They found the store full of smoke but no trace of the safecrackers. The sheriff's office was notified at once and within two hours after the robbery had occurred, Sheriff John L. Woody and Deputy Charlie Summerfield were on the job, but no clue as to who the robbers might be has as yet been discovered.

On the 25th of September Gus Blum of Cameron and Carl Flomer of Genesee started on an overland trip to Conrad, Montana, to work in the harvest fields. From Genesee they drove to Wallace the first day, reaching there at 6:00 p. m. The following day a distance of 187 miles was covered and the town of Drummond reached at 5:30 p. m. With Conrad as the objective for the third day, a distance of 257 miles, a hard day's drive was experienced and the town reached at 7:00 o'clock in the evening. The boys soon landed jobs and managed to get in 28½ days of work before starting for home.

The Circle Card club held a very enjoyable party in the Fraternal Temple Tuesday evening, with about 30 members of the club and their guests in attendance. A chicken dinner was served in the banquet hall at 7:30. After dinner dancing and cards rounded out the evening in a most satisfactory manner. Guests of the club were Messrs. Walter Thomas, Misses Long, Leith, Hanson, Ameling and Mrs. Ed. Pe-trick, Messrs. Asday, Tom and Marvin Long and Bob Spencer.

Texas Ridge News—Mr. and Mrs. Alber of Bear ridge were Sunday guests in the Birchmer home. Mrs. Ray Bogar visited her sister, Mrs. Charles Dahlgren, Sunday. Al LaBolle and family spent Sunday afternoon at the Tom LaBolle home. Mr. and Mrs. Tom LaBolle left Monday for Illinois for a visit with relatives. High scores were awarded Mrs. Edgar Long and E. A. Deobald. Joint hosts for the evening were Dr. and Mrs. Christensen, Mr. and Mrs. Harold Thomas and Mr. and Mrs. E. A. Deobald.

Mr. and Mrs. Marvin Long were invited guests.

Girl Scout Meeting

The Kendrick Girl Scouts met at the home of Beverly Ann Schupfer Tuesday evening, and decided to make dolls to go with the doll beds.

It was also decided to gather books and games for the boys in camps. As Margaret Cook expects to leave soon, a farewell party was given her. She received as a present an address book.

Refreshments of cookies and grape juice were served, and games played.

The Girl Scout leader, Mrs. Long, was absent.

QUESTIONS AND ANSWERS ON GASOLINE RATIONING

The following material was sent this newspaper from the Office of War Information — and we believe it will be of interest to everyone who drives a motor vehicle.

There are three types of ration books for passenger cars: "A," "B" or "C". In most cases passenger car owners should get a basic "A" book first, even though they plan to apply for a "B" or "C" book later. If the "A" book fails to provide sufficient gasoline for occupational driving, application may be made for a supplemental "B" or "C" book. Some motorists will have just the "A" book, some will have the "A" plus a "B", and some will have the "A", plus a "C".

"A" Book — Value of coupons — Each coupon is good for four (4) gallons. The book contains coupons for eight months. There are four sheets of eight coupons. Each sheet is good for a designated two-month period only and any unused coupons remaining at the end of the period become void.

Every passenger car owner is entitled to an "A" book except those whose cars come under one of the following five classifications:

1. An ambulance or hearse.
2. A vehicle held by a dealer for sale or resale or operated on dealer license plates.
3. A taxi, jitney or vehicle leased from or held for rental by a car-rental agency.
4. A vehicle owned or leased by a federal, state, local or foreign government or government agency.
5. A vehicle which is one of three or more passenger autos owned or leased by and used principally for the same or similar business or occupational purposes of the same person or organization.

"A" books are obtainable at the schoolhouse or other public building where you registered for gasoline rationing Nov. 18, 19 and 20.

The registered owner of a privately owned auto fills in application form R-534, including the serial numbers of the tires. One spare is allowed for each auto. In the event the applicant owns more than five tires, he will be required to sell or give all tires in excess of five to the government before he will be eligible for gasoline rationing. The application, together with the auto registration card, number of federal tax sticker, is taken to the school and presented to the registrar, who will issue the "A" book.

The "A" book is intended to provide you with enough gasoline to drive 2,880 miles a year (based on the present coupon value of four gallons and on the official government mileage estimate of 15 miles to the gallon). Of the 2,880 miles, 1,080 are considered to be available for "family" purposes, such as shopping, going to church, or taking children to school. The remaining 1,800 are considered as available for occupational driving and no one whose occupational driving does not exceed 1,800 miles a year (150 miles a month) is eligible for a "B" or "C" book.

Book "B" — Contains 16 coupons, each coupon good for four gallons.

This supplemental book must last at least three months and it may have to last as long as a year. The Rationing Board will "tailor" the book to fit the particular need of each applicant. This will be done by extending the valid period of the book for those who do not need all 16 coupons in three months.

Motorists whose occupational driving exceeds 1,800 miles a year (150 miles a month) and who have met the Car-Sharing Club requirements, are eligible.

"B" books are obtained from the local Rationing Board.

When you get your "A" book at the schoolhouse Nov. 18, 19, 20, ask for a supplemental Book application blank (used for both "B" and "C" application). Take this blank home, fill it out and mail it to your local rationing board. Within 10 days the board will act upon your application and notify you of its decision. If you have been granted a supplemental book you may get it yourself or send for it at the office of the board. The person calling for the book must have with him the state motor vehicle registration card.

To obtain a "B" book, applicants must first endeavor to form a car-sharing club by arranging to carry other persons in connection with their occupations under some form of ride-sharing plan, or prove that they cannot carry three or more persons and that alternate means of transportation are inadequate.

Book C — A full book contains 64 coupons, but Rationing Boards will "tailor" books to meet the particular needs of each applicant. This will be done by tearing out cou-

To Publish Day Early

In order that this family may not be forced to labor on Thanksgiving Day, the Gazette of next week will be published one day early — Wednesday, November 25.

We will appreciate it greatly if our correspondents and advertisers will help us out by sending in their material one day earlier than usual. Not often does a holiday come on our publication day — and like everyone else, we want Thanksgiving Day away from our labors.

So please send in all news and ad-copy one day earlier than usual.

DR. EDWIN E. WATTS CALLED BY DEATH AT LEWISTON

Dr. Edwin E. Watts, 88, of Gifford, oldest practicing physician in Idaho, dean of the medical profession in Nez Perce county, and possibly the oldest practitioner in point of service in the United States, is dead. For more than 87 years Dr. Watts actively engaged himself in his profession, over 54 years being in Idaho.

The end came at 4:00 Saturday morning at St. Joseph's hospital in Lewiston, where he was taken in a serious condition Monday, Nov. 9th. Death was attributed to complications. Up to the time of his last illness he continued to give medical advice to callers at Gifford, where he and Mr. and Mrs. John L. Sherbon made their home together.

A native of Iowa, born on Washington's birthday in 1854, one of twin sons of Mr. and Mrs. John W. Watts, he was left an orphan at the age of 11 years. He worked while attending school, saved his money and decided upon a medical career. He entered the American university school of medicine at Philadelphia and was awarded his degree in 1875. Later he pursued post-graduate study. Having fitted himself for his profession, Dr. Watts practiced in the middle west for a few years and in 1888 came to Idaho first locating at Juliaetta. In 1901 he moved to Southwick on Potlatch ridge after returning from advanced study in the east, remaining at Southwick but a short time, then locating at Gifford, where he resided until his death.

Dr. Watts was known throughout Nez Perce county and other parts of central Idaho. When he engaged in practice in Idaho in 1888 the country was sparsely settled. From his office at Juliaetta, later at Southwick, and for more than 40 years at Gifford, he administered to the medical and surgical needs of a large clientele. The last few years he declined to make calls because of his age, but residents of the area sought him at his home for advice.

Rain or shine, hot or cold, Dr. Watts rode over the Potlatch ridge and Gifford prairie region for years, irrespective of the hour when called. He braved the elements on horseback in his buggy and about 15 years ago made calls in his car, but not for long. After he had used the car a short time he gave it to his daughter when he felt that he could not run it with the proper degree of safety.

During the influenza epidemic in 1918, when scores were dying monthly in central Idaho, Dr. Watts worked day and night. The ground was snow covered when the epidemic was at its height and he traveled by bob sled drawn by horses. Some of his calls required hours of travel, some all night trips.

Each year Dr. Watts' birthday anniversary was the occasion for his neighbors to extend felicitations. Scores called at his home. Last February, his 88th birthday, Dr. Watts reported he was feeling "fine," and spent much of the day splitting wood, always keeping his eye on his office.

For more than 60 years he was a member of the Masonic fraternity, affiliating with the lodge at Gifford soon after he located there. He was a veteran Odd Fellow, and wore the life-membership emblem. He was a member of the Christian church.

Dr. Watts is survived by five children, William A. Watts, manager of the Rochdale Co. at Kendrick; Commander C. E. Watts, in charge of the naval base hospital at Pearl Harbor; Dr. Victor Watts, Smith Center, Kans.; Mrs. Hazel Foster, wife of Lt. Col. W. T. Foster, Orlando Field, Fla., and Earl W. Watts, teaching at Great Falls, Mont.

Funeral services were held Tuesday at Gifford at 10:00 a. m., with the Rev. Marvin E. Smith, minister of the Christian church at Lewiston, officiating. The church was filled and scores stood in the church yard to pay their last respects.

Hymns were sung by Mrs. Fred Wyman, Mrs. Jess Jacks, A. R. Lough and S. U. Lough, accompanied by Mrs. Dennis Randolph.

Funeral services were William Black, Ed. Torgerson, Fred Cleveland, Carson Wicks, Herman Pabst and Albert Cuddy. Interment was in the Gifford cemetery.

Red Cross Sewing Complete
Mrs. H. Galloway would like to announce that a large box of completed sewing was sent to headquarters Wednesday morning.

Completed sewing consisted of 30 army "ditty" bags, which the local chapter filled with regulation equipment, the cost of this amounting to $31.00.

Fifteen ladies' night gowns and two pairs of knitted wool socks completed the shipment.

WHEAT MARKET SLIGHTLY LOWER AND INACTIVE

Wheat prices at Portland were unchanged to be lower during the week ending November 13, according to the U. S. Department of Agriculture. Trading in cash wheat was almost at a standstill and the situation in regard to ordinary grades of wheat was characterized by the lack of interest on the part of both the buyers and the sellers. Some interest was manifest by the mills for high protein wheat but reports were to the effect that asking prices were higher than mills were able to pay, based on their ceiling prices of flour. Domestic flour sales were very light and most mills were operating at only part capacity. Sales of flour for export under the Wheat Flour Export program showed considerable improvement over the previous period. Inspection reports show that 80 cars of wheat were received at Portland, as compared with 97 cars the previous week.

Cash wheat bid prices at Portland on November 13, for 15-day shipment were: Soft white, $1.37½; soft white, no. 2, $1.17; white club $1.17; western red $1.16; hard red winter $1.11. For deferred shipments, or basis country warehouse receipts: Soft white $1.14; soft white, no. 2, $1.17; white club, $1.17½; western red $1.16, and ordinary hard red winter, $1.11.

Winter wheat continued to make favorable progress with moderate temperatures and sufficient moisture in the principal producing areas. Recent rains were decidedly helpful in the Ohio valley, especially in the southern sections, where late seeded grain is now coming up to good stands. West of the Mississippi river the outlook continues promising, with early wheat furnishing abundant pasturage in Oklahoma, where fields are not too wet for utilization. In Kansas soil moisture is ample to carry the very promising crop through until spring.

In the Pacific Northwest the moisture situation is much better than a considerable late seeding has been accomplished. Some planting, however, has been deferred until spring because of the lateness of the season.

Merchant mill stocks of wheat at the first of October totaled 151,927,000 bushels, not including wheat already reported in other positions. This made a total supply on farms, in country elevators, in merchant mills and in commercial stocks on October 1, of 1,321,665,000 bushels, compared with 1,166,834,000 bushels a year ago. In addition to these stocks the CCC held 52,096,000 bushels in wood and steel bins, which would make an over-all total October 1, of 1,373,761,000 bushels.

Loans on 1942 wheat had increased to 278,920,000 bushels, as of November 7. Loans on barley totaled 7,115,000 bushels, of which 1,282,000 bushels were in California. The quantity of old wheat held November 7, was 267,749,000 bushels.

Mall Christmas Packages Early

The post office department now is starting the most gigantic task in its history — the movement of a deluge of Christmas parcels, cards and letters, while maintaining the regular flow of millions of pieces of mail daily to and from our armed forces all over the world.

Indications are that the volume of Christmas mail will be the largest on record. Already in September, latest month for which figures are available, retail sales had reached a level second only to the record month of December, 1941, according to the Department of Commerce. And sales are rising. Such heavy purchases always presage heavy mailing.

If thousands of our soldiers, sailors, marines and civilian friends are not to be disappointed at Christmas time, the public must co-operate by mailing earlier than ever before and by addressing letters and parcels properly. The best efforts of the post office department alone cannot be enough, in view of wartime difficulties faced by the postal system. The public must assist.

About 25,000 experienced postal workers already have been taken by war services. Arrangements are under way to add thousands of temporary personnel to postal staffs, but this manpower is hard to find and is inexperienced. Facilities of railroads and air lines are heavily taxed by movements of huge quantities of war materials and personnel. Extra trucks are almost impossible to obtain. Winter weather, hampering transportation, is beginning.

The free-mailing privilege granted to members of the armed forces has raised their mailings some 30 per cent. Expansion of those forces also is adding rapidly to the postal burden.

So please co-operate — by mailing early.

Second offering of the evening will be "Hi Neighbor," a musical riot of fun, starring John Archer and Jean Parker, assisted by Lulubelle and Scotty, Vera Vague, Don Wilson, the Smoky Mountain Boys and Girls and other entertainers.

A cartoon will also be shown. A soldier eats twice as much canned goods as a civilian — 80 cans a year, as against 40 cans.

Coffee Rationing November 28

Beginning at midnight, November 28, every person in the country over 15 years old will be entitled to a ration of one pound of coffee each five weeks, OFA announces.

The coffee story is this: For ten years, before 1941, we consumed about 13 pounds of coffee per person per year. Last year, due to abnormal demands, this figure jumped to about 16 pounds. Thus far, in 1942, we have consumed coffee at the rate of about 12.5 pounds annually. Therefore, a ration of one pound each five weeks per person over 15 certainly is not a drastic reduction.

Consumers will get their first coffee ration by surrendering the last stamp in their war ration book No. 1, the book now used only for sugar rations. Subsequent rations of coffee will be on coupons taken in sequence toward the center of the book. Specifically, the stamp numbers are 28 down to 19. No book on which the age of the holder is stated at 14 years or younger, will be valid for coffee ration. Use of the book for sugar will continue exactly as in the past. Those who did not obtain War Ration Book No. 1 may get them from their local war price and ration boards now.

All sales of coffee at retail will be frozen at midnight, November 21, for the week before rationing starts in order to permit retailers to stock their shelves for the beginning of rationed sales.

Gas Rationing

Will Effect All Of Us!

For It Means We Must All Stay Closer To Home In Both Business And Pleasure!

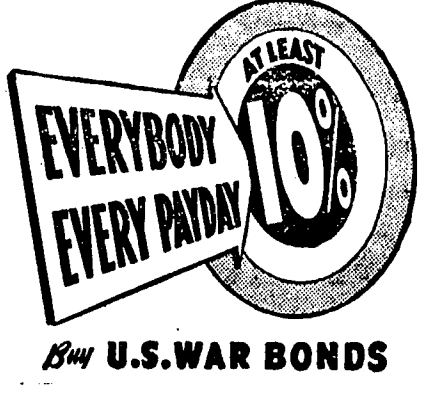

At midnight, November 30, 1942, gas rationing becomes an actuality in all the west, and there is no gainsaying the fact that it will have its effect on all of us, forcing all to stay much closer to home than has previously been our habit — at least in most cases. Another effect that it will have is peculiar to the western country — greater distances must be traveled in most all cases than in the east — which will mean that the trading center nearest you will undoubtedly be the one that you will use.

We merchants and business men in Kendrick, realizing that this will undoubtedly cause you to call for many articles previously purchased in the larger centers, are endeavoring to foresee your needs and plan our stock accordingly, in an effort to meet your every need — both everyday and emergency.

As all of you undoubtedly realize, war conditions make the obtaining of numerous articles difficult, but we of Kendrick are making every effort to have these goods and services ready to meet your requirements in the future, as in the past.

So do not hesitate to call on any or all of us as the need may arise — we want to help win this war as badly as anyone — and the man you know and who knows your problems is in a much better position to help than the total stranger, who is interested only in your dollar!

Potlatch Chief Sez

PUBLISHED BY THE KENDRICK CO-OPERATIVE CREAMERY

HAVE YOU TRIED IT?

Tried what? That delicious, sweet, golden colored Potlatch Chief butter, which may be purchased at all the local stores! We want you to try a pound. Try it on hot cakes, waffles, hot cereals, biscuits and etc. You'll find its tasty sweetness never changes with heat — we know it's good — we want to convince you!

ARE THE HENS LAYING? — ARE THE COWS PRODUCING CREAM?

If they are, let's get together on the marketing problem. On eggs we pay the top market price according to grade — paying cash. On cream, we use the pool plan, which enables you to take advantage of the best prices. Come in and let us explain this plan to you.

"Family Goat is Mother of Nine Kids"—the headline read. How about reversing it — "Mother of Nine Kids Is Family Goat!"

Teacher: "Rastus, what animal is most noted for its fur?"
Rastus: "De skunk; de more fur you gits away from him de better it is fur you!"

So many things are happening these days its got so if a man takes a two-weeks' vacation he has to learn the business all over again.

Husband, to nagging wife: "If you don't keep still, I'll let my insurance lapse."

Teacher: "Junior, what is a niche in a church?"
Junior: "It's just the same as an itch anywhere else only you can't scratch it in church."

Life, these days, is just a bowl of draft numbers.

ABOUT SOLDIER BOYS

Camp Forrest, Tenn. Nov. 9, 1942

Dear Friends:
Have neglected to drop a line to you and let you know my change in address, but the paper has been forwarded and has reached me here. O. K. Just continue to send it on to Camp Rucker for the present, and if I make any change of distance will drop you a line.
The Gazette is one of the best friends I have — so please keep on sending it to me — as I look forward to every issue — thanks again.

Hope everyone around Kendrick is O. K. And as for me, I'm feeling tops.

A steady reader,
Joe Forest.

Camp Callan
Nov. 10, 1942

Dear Mac:
Just a line or two to thank you for the paper. It surely makes me feel good to read about what the folks back home are doing, and I'm especially interested in the news from Juliaetta — as that, of course, is my home.
In the last copy received I read Lester Slead's letter, and I would like to get his address, as he is a good friend of mine and I would like to write him.

Thanks again for the paper.
Yours truly,
Robert B. Shores.

Chico Army Flying School
November 12, 1942

Dear Mac:
I hope you don't think I'm ungrateful for not writing my appreciation for the Gazette. You don't know how much I appreciate reading what is happening back home each week.

There isn't much I can say about my duties and the training I am receiving, as it is mostly confidential. I can say, however, that in a very few months I'll be out there flying a combat plane in the mightiest air force in the world!

Say, Mac, tell Marvin Long that I said California was a paradise for Chinese pheasant hunting. They run around here in flocks — something like chickens at home.

Thanks again for the paper — and "Keep 'em Flying!"
Sincerely,
E. A. (Ted) Davidson.

pons from the book. If necessary, more than one "C" book will be issued.

Each coupon is good for four gallons; the valid period of the book is three months.

To qualify for a "C" book, the applicant's occupational use of the auto must be so essential to the war effort that he will fall under one of the "preferred" classifications.

A few examples of those who may expect to meet the "preferred" specifications are: Government officials, for performing government business. School officials, for official school business. Morticians, physicians and ministers. Highly skilled technicians and cars used for transporting certain essential workers.

"C" books are obtained from the local rationing board. Follow exactly the same procedure as that described under the "B" book heading.

The new mileage rationing plan has teeth. Any person falsifying an application, or giving false information to a registrar or rationing board is liable to a $10,000 fine or 10 years' imprisonment, or both.

Any person who violates any provision of the new rationing order may be fined $10,000 or imprisoned for one year, or both.

Dealers or others who violate the plan may also be prohibited from selling or receiving gasoline, or any other rationed commodity.

So please don't ask your service station operator for any "favors" under this plan — he just can't do them for you.
