Thieves entered the general store of Spekter & Wegner at Asotin last night and robbed it of all the jewelry and silks, cigarettes and other like goods, the loss being estimated at about $600.00. The store was entered through the warehouse, by breaking a panel out of the rear door.

The members of the Circle Card club and a few guests were entertained last Tuesday evening at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Theo. Hanson. After a number of very interesting hands of "500" scores were totaled and the prize awarded Mrs. F. E. Erickson. Dainty refreshments were served by the hostess. Aside from the regular members, the following guests were present: Misses Maud Eichner, Beulah Long and Evelyn Hanson; Messrs. Tom Long, George Carlson and Jim Cain.

The ownership and management of the J. Alexander store company of Lewiston, Saturday passed into the hands of Stanley Talbot, P. F. Spekter and Herman Wegner, these gentlemen acquiring the entire holdings of Theron S. Ward, who retired immediately upon consummation of the deal. The amount paid Mr. Ward for his holdings amounted to $100,000.00.

Mr. and Mrs. C. B. Candler celebrated their golden wedding anniversary last Sunday. The Gifford and Wayne Candler families spent the day with them.

All Must Keep Silence

On battle fronts every day men risk their lives to discover the location and strength of the military units of the enemy. Yet at home, too many are representing the enemy with information of the same military value, the Office of Censorship says in a dispatch.

This is the information which newspapers and individuals are asked to keep silent about:

Do not tell the names of ships upon which sailors serve.

Do not tell the troop units in which soldiers serve, especially overseas.

There is no objection to revealing that Pfc. Tom Jones is in Australia or that Seaman Tom Brown saw action in the Atlantic, but there is military information which endangers the lives of American fighting men in stating that Pfc. Tom Jones is in "Company C, 600th Infantry," or in "Australia, or Seaman Tom Brown, 'Aboard the U. S. S. Wisconsin,'" is in the Atlantic.

The Office of Censorship says: "We ask editors not to publish these troop identifications, and we ask relatives and parents not to reveal them. Don't give the enemy anything that may cost a life or lengthen the war!"

More Snow And Cold

The weather report following our last issue can read:

Wednesday (last week) slightly warmer, more snow.

Thursday, Friday and Saturday, about the same, light snowfall. The thermometer never rising above the freezing mark.

Saturday night, clear and the thermometer indicating about zero. Sunday a slight rise.

Monday, still warmer, little fall of snow.

Tuesday thermometer up to 38 degrees, and thawing.

Here in town about eight inches of snow decorates the ground, but on the ridges the depth varies from 20 to 30 inches.

Used Machinery Price Control

All sales of five critical used farm machines, whether made by dealers, auctioneers or farmers themselves, have been placed under price control by the OPA. The action is designed to protect farmers from the payment of excessive prices resulting from rapidly increasing demands.

The machines covered are used farm tractors (except crawler tractors) and the following important used harvesting machines: combines, binders and motor or tractor operated hay balers. Generally the maximum prices are 70 per cent and 95 per cent of the list or base prices for the same new equipment, depending on the condition of the equipment when resold.

BEEF-BUTCHERING IS EXPLAINED IN OPA BOOKLET

Want to butcher a beef and stay out of jail? Then grab your skinning knife, a T-square, a foot ruler and a copy of revised maximum price regulation No. 169.

This 24-page illustrated document at the office of price administration, which lays down specific standards for cutting a side of beef to be sold at wholesale, was held up by Senator Butler (Rep., Neb.) as being so specific as to be incomprehensible.

"The whole thing's nutty," said Butler. "It just shows what a bunch of young lawyers can do when they meet up with a beef chart."

There are three columns of fine print on each of the first 20 pages. The appendix contains sort of an X-ray view of a beef carter, a working plan of how to dismantle it into its component steaks, and a good county map of the United States.

Suppose you want to cut a trimmed full loin, per OPA specifications. It's easy as falling off a logarithm, if you've got somebody to hold the book.

"After the severance of the round from the hind quarter," section 1364.455 of the regulations stipulates, "the flank shall be severed from the full loin by a cut starting at the heavy end of the full loin at the ventral point of severance of the round from the hind quarter and continuing in a straight line to a fixed point on the inside of the 13th rib determined by measuring off 10 inches in a straight line from the center of the protruding edge of the 13th thoracic vertebra, but in making the cut no more than one (1) inch of udder fat shall be left on the flank side of the face of the loin."

Parententially, the instructions say, "the 10-inch measurement shall be made from the center of the protruding edge of the 13th thoracic vertebra and not from the hollow of the chine bone where the 13th rib joins the 13th thoracic vertebra. (Albert, maybe you'd better run into the house and get daddy's theodolite. Yes, and ask mama for a paper clip. That darn 13th thoracic vertebra keeps slipping past the 13th rib.)

Next you trim away the excess lumbar and sacral fat. But that's only half the battle in preparing a trimmed full loin, the book cautions:

"Then all fat shall be removed which extends above a flat plane using the following two lines as guides for each edge of the plane: An imaginary line parallel with the full length of the protruding edge of one lumbar section of the chine bone which extends one inch directly above such protruding edge; a line on the inside of the loin two inches from the flank edge and running parallel with such edge for the full length of the loin."

(You can move the theodolite over by the woodshed now, Albert.)

The pamphlet contains a veritable mine of information for the layman, if not the butcher. "Hind quarter," the regulations explain, means "the posterior portion of the side remaining after the severance of the 12-rib fore quarter from the side." The "fore quarter" is "the anterior portion of the side remaining after the severance of the one-rib hind quarter."

The booklet declares rather primly that "the skirt (diaphragm) shall not be removed from any cut or part of the fore quarter to which it is attached."

In a foreword OPA and the office of war information explain that it was necessary to get some system into the cutting of beef carcasses in order that the new wholesale price ceiling might apply to uniform cuts of beef over the country.

The order—and the ceilings— affect only beef carcasses and wholesale cuts at the slaughterer and wholesaler level.

The instructions are reticent as to how the animal shall be killed. Apparently anything goes. But don't knock the protruding edge off the lumbar section of the chine bone or you won't have anywhere to start measuring.

Ed's Note: We'll bet a cookie (scarce as they are) that most of the local butchers and farmers were cutting up beves and elk while the "brain trusters" who wrote the instructions above were still wearing "three-cornered sarongs!"

Pinocchio Party

Mr. and Mrs. Ross Armitage entertained the Pinocchio club in their home last Thursday evening.

High scores were awarded Frank Abrams and George Brocke, with the lows going to Mr. and Mrs. Billy Weyen.

Invited guests were Mr. and Mrs. George Brocke and Mrs. Vera Stewart.

Restrictions on Gas Sales

A new O. P. A. order, dated January 21, and effective January 23, drastically curtails the hours in which gasoline may be sold.

For the next 30-day period both local garages will observe the following hours:

Week Days — 8:30 a. m. to 7:30 p. m.

Sundays — 10:00 a. m. to 12:00 noon, and 2:00 p. m. to 6:00 p. m.

Of course some exceptions were made to the rules, doctors, nurses, and government equipment may buy at any hour. Delivery is also permitted in emergencies caused by illness or injury.

Still another order, effective on February 1 provides that no gasoline may be sold for cars (A, B or C coupons) except for cash. This order does not apply (at least as locally understood) to trucks operating on "T" coupons, or to any other coupon.

The hour of delivery, however, must be within the 72-hour limit.

Celebrate Golden Wedding

Mr. and Mrs. Dan Lyle, parents of Mrs. Harry (Ella) Benscoter of American ridge, celebrated their Golden Wedding anniversary at their home in Peck on January 10th.

Mr. and Mrs. Lyle have been residents of Peck since 1910.

Mr. Lyle, who has been for 26 years field deputy to the Nez Perce county assessor, is quite well known in that county, as well as the Kendrick and American ridge sections, where they often visit in the Benscoter home.

Congratulations are certainly in order, for not many couples ever reach their 50th wedding anniversary.

Getting Along Nicely

Claud Craig, who underwent a major operation some two weeks ago at a Lewiston hospital, is reported as getting along very nicely, and Mrs. Craig is now spending a part of her time here.

During part of the time she was away the extreme cold weather penetrated into the house freezing the water pipes. Being unaware of the situation, a fire was built in the kitchen stove. The explosion which followed wrecked the water-front of the stove and scattered soot and ashes throughout the home.

Related Filing

A marriage license was issued January 16 to George E. Fairchild, and Beatrice Shumaker both of Pullman, was filed by the county auditor's office Saturday.

Mrs. Fairchild was formerly a resident of Kendrick.

P-T-A. PROGRAM MONDAY EVENING VERY ENJOYABLE

The regular monthly meeting of the Kendrick P-T-A. was held on Monday evening of this week, in the High school auditorium, with about 90 present.

As there was no business of pressing importance that part of the meeting was eliminated and a Variety program began immediately.

The first number on the program was a pantomime by the teachers, entitled "The Old Homestead," and roars of laughter greeted the majestically "sweeping" "stalking" and "rising tactics" of the performers.

Next came the "Negro Minstrels," with their spirituals, "hoe downs" and other negro songs. True "black-face" coloring added to the enjoyment given by them.

This was followed by a vocal solo by Mrs. Harold Thomas, accompanied by Mrs. Herman Schupfer.

Next was a reading by Ira Foster, "The Old Cider Barrel." And much laughter was raised when he indicated Wae Keene as the "culprit."

A. O. Kanlikberg gave a very pleasant demonstration of the art of swinging Indian clubs. And it is easy to see that real timing is required in a demonstration of this sort.

And last came the "Hill Billy Band," equipped with jugs, pans, wash boards, a guitar, and their voices — and "Hill Billy" they really appeared.

At the close of the program all descended to the Home Economics room where refreshments were served by the committee in charge.

We haven't attempted to give the names of all taking part — for so good was the costuming that we couldn't figure them all out.

Stockholders' Meeting Held

The regular annual meeting of the stockholders of the Farmers Bank, Kendrick, was held Tuesday of this week.

All officers and directors were re-elected for the ensuing year, and a dividend of 4 per cent declared.

Earnings of the institution over and above the dividend declared were left in the capital account, as a further strengthening of the institution.

The bank has been growing steadily for many months, and the financial reports published would do credit to many a bank in larger communities. All connected with the institution are to be congratulated on the excellent showing it has made.

Shoots "Lynx Cat"

Tom Long came into town Friday carrying a fine big bob or lynx cat the exact breed being something of a mystery yet, but E. E. McDowell, who should know, states that the animal was a lynx cat.

At any rate the marauder, treed near the Long feed yard by dogs belonging to Mrs. Pemberton, was disposed of by Tom, and brought to town. The kitty, although carrying a beautiful pelt, and appearing quite large, weighed but nine pounds. It evidently was in need of a number of square meals, and it is presumed this was the reason it came down that close to town.

Church Supper Well Attended

The church supper and fellowship meeting held Thursday evening in the basement of the Community church was well attended and very much enjoyed by those present.

The pictures of Bolivia and the talk accompanying them given by Rev. John Herrick, on the people and their customs was especially interesting. Rev. Herrick is a missionary on leave.

Ill With Pneumonia

Dale Miller, son of Mrs. Ralph Baker, who has been quite ill with pneumonia for the past two weeks, is making rapid improvement this week.

Eldon Baker, popularly known as "Tup," is also confined to his bed in the Baker home with measles.

Entertains Pinocchio Club

Mrs. Vera Stewart entertained the Pinocchio club in her home last Sunday evening.

Mrs. R. Hudson and Geo. Brocke held high scores for the evening. Mrs. Ed. Reglin and Ben Westendahl were awarded the "Galloping Goose."

Farmers Co-operating

Farmers of the west, through their granges, bureaus and co-operatives, are taking part in the Victory Book drive, which opened January 6, and will continue until March 5, to supply millions of good books for the men and women in the U. S. armed forces.

The drive is sponsored by the American Library association, the American Red Cross and the United Service Organizations in co-operation with the Office of Civilian Defense. All American citizens are asked to donate good books — not dog-eared algebra texts published during the War of 1812 — for use by soldiers and sailors.

WHAT'S GOING ON IN THE LELAND COMMUNITY

Pinocchio Party Success

The pinocchio party at the school house Friday evening was well attended, despite the cold weather. Ten tables were at play. Prizes for high scores were awarded Mrs. Gordon Peters and Herman Meyer; low to Mrs. Pete Stump and Harold Parks. $15.00 was received, and others unable to attend have since contributed to the fund. It will be used to pay on the pledge made by the Homemakers club to the school lunch project. A total of $4.70 was collected for the March of Dimes.

Mrs. Oral Craig and Mrs. Robt. Draper will receive contributions from anyone caring to give to either cause.

Roads Impassable

This community was virtually shut off from the outside world Saturday. Snow drifts made many of the roads impassable.

Gordon Peters has been appointed road overseer for the Leland district and has been busy this week plowing out the roads. Traffic is now getting back to normal.

More Help Given

The Cedar Ridge community has given the Gazette another $10.00 to apply on subscriptions for the boys in the armed services, which is very much appreciated by the Gazette — and the boys seem also to appreciate the Gazette — as their letters indicate.

Population Doubled

The population of Corpus Christi, Texas, new naval air center, has more than doubled since the 1940 census, reaching an estimated 119,000 on May 1, 1942.

CASH WHEAT PRICES STEADY AT PORTLAND

The cash wheat market at Portland maintained a generally steady tone during the week ending January 22, and prices at the close of the period showed but little change as compared with the previous week, the U. S. Department of Agriculture reports. Demand from mills was somewhat less urgent than during the previous week, although they were in the market in a moderate way all during the period. Growers also were offering somewhat less freely this week, according to trade reports. Lighter trading and movement was reflected in wheat receipts at Portland of only 81 cars during the past seven days, against 212 for last week, while receipts at Puget Sound and Columbia river terminals, including Portland, were only about 350 cars compared with 625 the previous week. Mills reported new domestic flour business as only moderate but sales for export under the indemnity plan were reported as fairly heavy during the period. Sales of Pacific Northwestern wheat for rail shipment out of this area to the midwest were reported of less volume than during other recent weeks. Demand for feed wheat continued good, although most trading was in C. C. C. supplies. Possibility of ceilings being placed on wheat prices is causing some hesitation in current trading, according to trade reports.

Cash wheat bid prices on the Portland Grain Exchange, January 22, showed: Soft white, $1.25; soft white, no Rex, $1.26½; white club, $1.26½; western red, $1.26½; hard red winter, $1.26, all basis bulk, No. 1 grade, 15-day shipment, cost delivery.

The San Francisco wheat market was quiet but maintained a steady tone. Local offerings remained light and this, together with firmness in other markets, tended to offset any lack of aggressive demand. Prices held practically unchanged compared with other recent weeks, and were only slightly below the seasonal high points. As in other recent weeks, California growers continued to hold their remaining supplies very firmly. Stocks of wheat on California farms were reported at 68,430 tons, against 20,970 tons at corresponding dates a year ago, and 31,710 tons two years ago. Stocks in commercial warehouses and at mills January 1, also were relatively heavy.

Cash hard wheat at Kansas City was ¼c to 1c higher for the week while soft red prices ranged ½c higher to ¾c lower for the past week. Total arrivals for the week were again well above normal for this time of the year, totaling 1,265 cars. Inquiries from milling interests for cash offerings indicated a desire to replace stocks against heavy flour commitments. Again liberal amounts of wheat moved directly to processors from interior terminals and sub-terminals. Reports also indicated that recent heavy purchases were to complete exchanges for C. C. C. wheat used to fill subsidized export sales to Mexico. The out-bound movement was again in good volume, amounting to 1,083 cars and resulted in a further reduction in public elevator stocks.

Demand for cash wheat at Minneapolis proved steady and the trading basis remained firm at about the same levels as prevailed a week ago. The daily offerings were light to moderate and mill demand, although not particularly aggressive, was sufficient to absorb all that came in at a firm premium. About 20 to 25 per cent of the receipts continued to be C. C. C. wheat. Ordinary No. 1 dark northern spring wheat was still traded at a 2c premium, and closed Friday at $1.34 ½ per bushel. No. 2 dark northern ran about 2c under the No. 1. Inspectors indicated 129 cars of winter wheat and 204 cars of durum in the week's receipts. Some traders appeared of the opinion that price ceilings may be set for wheat and other grains, and speculative demand was thereby curbed.

Very low temperatures overspread the Northwestern wheat belt during the week, but most sections had a protective snow cover. In some districts the cover was inadequate, but whether or not any damage occurred is not yet known. Some heaving occurred in southeastern portions of the belt from alternate freezing and thawing, but injury was not considered serious. In the south, conditions were very favorable for the winter grains and local planting of spring oats was reported as far north as Oklahoma.

Reports through the week of January 16 showed 395,461,000 bushels of 1942 wheat under loan and approximately 233,250,000 bushels of earlier crops held by the Commodity Credit Corporation.

Fire Takes Van And Beans

Fire of an unknown cause, destroyed the big van body of the Kendrick Auto Freight and its contents, a big load of beans, Tuesday, while enroute to Lewiston.

How the blaze occurred is not known at this time, but Walter Brocke noticed the fire along the bluff near the Pilot Rock school.

He climbed from the truck, unbolted the big van body, and drove into the ditch, dumping the fiery truck unharmed. The truck had to be pulled out of the ditch, but Wally was able to drive it away from the flames.

The truck is now back on its regular run, but minus its familiar body.

Quick thinking and action certainly paid dividends that time.

STONY POINT VICINITY

(Delayed)
 Bernice Heimgartner spent Monday night with Evelyn Heath.

This cold snap has brought one enjoyable feature to us — skating on the slough has been the order of the day.

School bus schedules were slightly disrupted when the gas line froze. Different members of these families were among the Lewiston visitors this week: Hugh Parks, Cletis Hoisington, Alvin Steigers, Newt, Heath, Ernest Steigers, Leslie Heimgartner and Robert Heimgartner.

Mrs. Klopfer was called to the bedside of her father, Lew Daugherty, who is in the Ritzville hospital. Deep snow made travel difficult.

Tractors and graders have been removing snow from the roads in our community. They are now very much better.

"Flying Tigers" At Theatre
 This week's offering at the local theatre will be "The Flying Tigers," said to be one of the finest, if not the finest, plane pictures ever filmed.

The picture is founded on the feats of the world renowned "Flying Tiger" squadron of Americans who operated from Chinese bases against the Japs — and later from bases in India.

Their record is one of unparalleled victories over superior Jap numbers under the most trying of conditions.

But, unlike some war pictures, this one carried humor and a love interest.

The usual shorts will also accompany this film.

Going Back To Europe

"A" Gas Coupon Due January 21

"A" book coupons on the first sheet of the ration book will be valid only until January 21, the Office of Price Administration has informed the county rationing board. Previous reports were that the coupons marked with a "3" would be valid until January 31, because of the 10-day postponement in the beginning of the program.

Motorists who registered for the mileage rationing at the schoolhouses on November 18, 19 and 20 will thus receive an extra week's ration as a bonus, it is said. They received mileage coupons enough for eight weeks' driving and have thus only seven weeks in which to use them.

All motorists are reminded that all "A" coupons on the first sheet of the book will be good until January 21 and that they were not necessarily restricted to purchasing only four gallons a week, but that they could use as much of their allotted mileage as they desired in any one week.

Motorists who didn't surrender their surplus tires to the government are violating a federal law as well as disqualifying themselves for obtaining basic "A" rations, the dispatch stated. All motorists who apply for "A" or supplemental books must have no more than five tires.

Farm Machinery Rationing

The rationing of farm machinery is administered by county war boards of the U. S. Department of Agriculture, and not by the Office of Price Administration or the War Production Board, V. L. Board, deputy regional WPB director, says.

Some ranchers and farmers have not understood this, and the misunderstanding has led to unnecessary travel to field offices of WPB in the mountain area.

He explained that the authority to ration farm machinery has been delegated to the U. S. Department of Agriculture by WPB in the same manner that authority to ration other goods has been assigned by WPB to OPA.

Local War Price and Rationing Boards of the OPA are not administering the farm machinery rationing program. Such boards are asked to refer farmers to their county USDA war board and to their county extension agents.

Stresses Nursing Need

Your country needs you, girls. That's what leaders of the nurse recruiting committee of the Nursing Council for War are emphasizing to high school graduates and college girls in the campaign to increase the number of girls in training.

Miss Mary Marshall, chairman of the recruiting committee, said most of the city's hospitals hope to begin new training classes in February as part of the nationwide campaign for new student nurses.

The armed forces need for 5,000 nurses immediately and 45,000 more by the end of 1943, has prompted the campaign to bring more girls into the nursing profession, it was stated.

Meanwhile the Federal Security Agency has started a movement to put retired registered nurses back to work. In the first week of February a national survey of all graduate nurses will be made. Then Manpower Commissioner Paul V. McNutt will send a message to each urging that those nurses who are inactive return to work immediately because "lives may depend upon how quickly you respond to this call."

Miss Marshall declared that "we are emphasizing that a girl entering training now is just as important to her country as either a WAAAC, or a WAVE or a SPAR." With the armed forces continually drawing on the ranks of registered nurses, the numbers on general duty in hospitals are being decreased.

Applicants must have four years of high school and "we prefer those in the upper third of the class," said Miss Marshall. She declared that the campaign to recruit student nurses will be carried into the high schools next month.

Most schools of nursing receive new classes only in September, but it is understood the February classes will be opened to meet needs in the general war effort.

Unemployment Taxes

"Employees subject to the Idaho Unemployment Compensation law must pay their contributions to the state before midnight, January 31, in order to obtain credit for the amount of their contributions against the Federal Unemployment Compensation tax," D. H. White, executive director, explains in a statement issued this week.

The Social Security Act levies a tax of 3 per cent on the payrolls of all covered employers of eight or more persons in the United States. Employers who pay 2.7 per cent into the Idaho Unemployment Compensation fund may receive credit for that amount against the Federal tax. However, in order to receive credit against the Federal tax, the employers' contributions to the state must be paid before midnight, January 31.

Mr. White urged all employers to make a special effort to mail their reports and their contributions to the Unemployment Compensation Division before the deadline date. The state must certify to the Federal government the name of each employer and the amount of his contributions paid during the year. Only the amounts paid before midnight, January 31, can be certified. The envelope containing the report and contribution payment must be postmarked before midnight, January 31, in order to be accepted as having been paid on time.

Casualties Plenty High

Announced casualties of the United States armed forces from the outbreak of war through January 6 total 61,126 men and women killed, wounded, missing, interned or prisoners, the Office of War Information reported last week.

Has Very Unusual Record

Veteran of Japanese attacks on Dutch Harbor while serving in the army, honorable discharge from this branch of service, and an eventual enlistment in the U. S. navy, is the unusual record of Theodore Earl, 11, of Los Angeles, Calif., who recently arrived at the Farragut Naval Training station.

Earl enlisted in the army at the age of 13, and spent three and a half years in this branch of service before his true age was discovered.

"I like the army fine," said this patriotic youth, "I just like military life. Since I was a kid big enough to hold a stick gun over my shoulder, I have wanted to be a soldier or sailor."

He served in the Aleutian Islands for five months prior to the Jap attack on Dutch Harbor, and it was during this attack that he received a chest injury and a bullet wound in his leg. After his true age was discovered, he received his honorable discharge and returned to his home in Los Angeles. Only a short while ago, as soon as he was 17, he volunteered his services to the navy and was accepted. He arrived at Farragut the latter part of November.

The little items add up: Manufacture articles were just one small entry in the long list of steel articles manufacture of which recently was prohibited by the WPB to save steel. And yet these articles consumed 1,815 tons of steel a year—enough to make more than 170 155-mm guns.

A watch weighing four pounds five ounces is on show at an eastern exhibition of antique time pieces. It dates from an earlier day when time "hung heavily."

The year 1941 didn't end so well for the Nazis as it started, and we have a hunch that the year 1942 isn't going to end as well for the Japs as it started.

THE OLD JUDGE SAYS...

"Judge, I didn't realize till the other night when I ran across an article in the paper what a whale of a lot of industrial alcohol the government needs for the war."
 "I should say it does, Chet. I understand the beverage distillers around the country are producing about 240,000,000 gallons of industrial alcohol this year for ammunition, tires, and other things. I'd say it's mighty fortunate these distilleries are available to do the job. Otherwise, if we still had prohibition, the government would have had to spend millions of dollars and use up a lot of critical materials to build plants...to say nothing of all the time it would take. It might have been just another case of 'too little, too late!'"

HELP WIN THE WAR AND PROFIT AT THE SAME TIME — HERE'S HOW!

Eggs, as you well know are a vital war food — necessary for our fighting men and for our allies — and don't feel that just because you live in this rather out-of-the-way community that the eggs your hens lay don't reach the proper places — they do!

Now there's a way to increase eggs production — raise more chickens! It is important that you place your order for baby chicks with us as soon as possible — today being the best time! Delivery may be taken at a later date — but order those baby chicks from us now. All will come from a government approved hatchery. Don't wait — do it now.

Butter, too, is a Food for Victory. Bring in that cream. Don't waste a drop of it. Take better care of your cows — do your part to win this war — at home!

It is said that Hitler went to consult an astrologer and asked, "On what day will I die?" The astrologer assured him he would die on a Jewish holiday.

"Why are you so sure of that?" he demanded.

"Any day on which you die will be a Jewish holiday," responded the astrologer.

Four Marines were playing bridge in a hut on Wake Island. Suddenly another leather-neck burst into the room and shouted: "The Japs are landing a force of about 200 men down on the beach!"

The four bridge-playing Marines looked at one another. Finally one said: "I'll go, I'm dummy this hand."

Cursing and yelling on a London street was Clancy holding a doorknob in his fist. "Them damn Nazis will pay for this—blowing a saloon right out of me hand!"

Wyoming Has Fine Record

Wyoming is the closest of the Rocky mountain states to producing its quota of iron and steel scrap for the last six months of 1942. L. J. Todhunter, regional WFB salvage manager, reports, on the basis of official receipts of scrap at consuming steel mills.

The figures show Wyoming has shipped 70.3 per cent of its six-month quota of 27,000 tons. Colorado is next with 49 per cent of its 68,000-ton quota. The other mountain states stood as follows: Idaho, 81.7 per cent of its 14,000-ton quota; Utah, 40.9 per cent of 33,000 tons; Montana, 40.3 per cent of 33,000 tons; and New Mexico, 32.8 per cent of 12,000 tons.

WORD FROM LOCAL MEN IN OUR ARMED FORCES

From Cpl. Homer H. Jones, stationed "somewhere in the Pacific comes the following poem, written by someone in his company:

"Home"

Though we are many miles away,
And day by day we roam,
Each night before retiring
Our thoughts drift back to home.

Home, where all our loved ones are,
And we had so much fun.
Oh! how we wish we could be there,
But we know we've just begun.

When we were home we used to crab
'Bout little things to do
But gee! how glad we would be now,
To have those things to do.

I know we didn't realize,
Just what the word "home" meant,
Until we staterd setting up
And living in a tent.

But we are not complaining,
For now we are at war,
And you can bet we all agree
Our home's worth fighting for.

And we will keep on fighting,
Until this thing is o'er
And we've achieved the victory
That makes our home secure.

And when that is accomplished
Just think how proud we'll be
To say we're going back to home
In the land of the brave and free!

The following letter was received this week by Mr. and Mrs. A. W. Jones, from their son, John, and they have very kindly consented to let us publish it:

Someplace in North Africa
January 1, 1943

Dear Folks:
Happy New Year to you all. We had our Christmas dinner the 27th — cream turkey, string beans, peas and carrots, bread, butter, jam and coffee. Tomorrow we will have our New Year's turkey.

For Christmas I helped cut up and cook 1,200 pounds of them. I was sorta tired of looking at turkey by the time we got through.

I like the country around here better every day — it reminds me more of the country around home. The grain fields sure look good, so nice and green. I never supposed there was land like this in Africa, but a person sees more and learns more as he travels.

The towns here are very neat and clean. There are lots of French people here and they raise lots of fruit, oranges and tangerines and there are many vineyards.

I received some Kendrick papers dated the middle of October, but was glad to get them and read every line in them.

Sgt. John Jones.

Pfc. Melvin Flesham left Tuesday to report again to Salina, Kansas, following a 10-day furlough spent here with relatives and friends.

Sgt. Elgin Flesham, who is stationed at Merced, Calif., left Tuesday of this week to report for duty, following a 15-day furlough. He spent the time here with relatives and friends.

Floyd Dorendorf and Herman Loesser, both of Southwick; Leonard Stuart, Juliaetta, and Lloyd Farrington, Kendrick, left Monday for Moscow, thence to Fort Douglas, Utah, where they report for army duty.

Roy Fey returned home Friday of last week, honorably discharged from army duty. The basis was medical.

The U. S. Navy Bean

From the mess halls of the boot camp

To the dreadnaught Tennessee,
We feed our country's navy
On the land and on the sea.
First to greet the gob at breakfast
With an appetizing scene,
We are proud to claim the title
Of the U. S. Navy Bean.
We're a pest in old Cavite,
Or the ditch at Panama;
When the crew is very needy
Of a meal, they get us raw;
For we're on the Shenandoah,
And the lowly submarines,
And not a gob has pushed a swab
Who hasn't eaten beans.
Here's health to you and all ship's cooks

Whom we are proud to serve;
We get them many dirty looks
And yet they keep their nerve.
If the Army or Marine Corps
Ever look on Heaven's scenes,
They will find the tables loaded
With those U. S. Navy Beans!

Breaks Hip In Fall

Mrs. L. J. Herres received word from Spokane this week saying Mrs. Ben Cummings, for many years a resident of Kendrick, had fallen on the ice last week, breaking one of her hips.

Mrs. Cummings is confined to the Deaconess Hospital and would no doubt enjoy hearing from friends.

Not Very Patriotic

An Oklahoma citizen, who had been in the habit of burning old tires for fuel, defied the "tires" conservation program by dumping seven junk tires in a creek. Deputy sheriffs acted as a salvage crew and really had something to say to the offender on the subject of scrap rubber.

NOTICE To Customers

A new O. P. A. order, dated January 21, and effective January 23, 1943, drastically curtails the hours in which gasoline may be sold — limiting such sales to 72 hours per week.

As a trial for the coming 30 days we will observe the following hours:

WEEK DAYS

8:30 A. M. to 7:30 P. M.

SUNDAYS

10:00 A. M. to 12:00 Noon — 2:00 P. M. TO 6:00 P. M.

Exceptions are made, of course, by the rules, for doctors, nurses, government equipment, or emergencies caused by illness or injury.

THE ORDER FURTHER PROVIDES:

The on and after February 1, no gasoline may be sold for cars (A, B or C coupons) except for cash!

The cash order does not apply to trucks using "T" coupons, or to any other coupon.

Be Progressive .. Buy At Blewett's

This is the time for substitutes on the Grocery Shelf — in the War Plant — on the Farm — But we try our very best to keep standard brands of merchandise on our shelves.

We also try to keep — at all times — a good supply of Vegetables and Citrus Fruits for health foods and to help the housewife plan a balanced menu.

BREAD AND BUTTER . . .

Don't forget that now is the time for home baking. Buy a sack of flour and make bread at home. — Stop and think how good Hot Buns with Kendrick Creamery Butter will taste — Just right!, we would say.

MEATS . . .

Meat is scarce, and hard to obtain — but come in and look at our display case. We think we can serve you with a very nice steak, a roast, or maybe? some Bacon — WE HOPE!

Please call and get your 1943 calendar --- Now awaiting you

NOTICE!

In order to conform to a recent interpretation of our Revenue Laws — the Lewiston Grain Growers may not sell to anyone but bonafide producers!

We have just received a 30-ton car of salt, and two cars of good lump coal have arrived at our Juliaetta Station.

We are very sorry that we can only sell to producers, but if you can qualify we will be glad to serve you.
