VOLUME 53

KENDRICK, LATAH COUNTY, IDAHO, THURSDAY, MARCH 18, 1943

NO. 11

KENDRICK LOCALS AND PERSONALS TWENTY YEARS AGO

The barn on the Gordon Harris place, near Southwick, was burned to the ground about noon on Tuesday. The building was comparatively new. The cause of the fire is unknown.

Carl Wegner of Fairfield, Wash., arrived the first of the week to visit his parents, and other relatives, here and at Cameron.

Emulus Brown left for Portland Wednesday and will return with a used Scripps-Booth car which his father, J. F. Brown, purchased recently.

Fred Crocker had quite a smashup recently while hauling with a very heavily loaded wagon on the Cedar creek grade last week. He was driving four horses and in the smash-up one horse was so badly injured that it had to be killed. Only one of the four horses was uninjured.

Mr. and Mrs. Lloyd Kuykendall and baby of Leland left Wednesday afternoon for Dayton. After a visit there they expect to go to the Coeur d'Alenes, where Mr. Kuykendall hopes to find employment.

Mr. and Mrs. E. A. Deobald entertained the Circle Card club at a most enjoyable party last Tuesday evening. Several pleasant hours were spent playing "500" and after the last hands were played it was found that Miss Nell Ameling had taken honors for the evening. Miss Evelyn Hanson was awarded the consolation prize. Mrs. Deobald served delightful refreshments at the close of the evening.

R. F. Brown and sister, Mrs. Alvin Benson, arrived last Saturday from Portland for a visit in the home of their parents, Mr. and Mrs. J. F. Brown. They came by auto as far as Juliaetta, but on account of a bad mudhole just this side of Juliaetta, they were forced to leave their car there and come by train to Kendrick. They returned to Portland Tuesday. Bob has purchased a garage in Portland and expects to take charge of it at once.

F. E. Erickson bought Jack Taylor's interest in the Kendrick Hotel and pool hall, which for the past two years has been operated as a partnership concern. Mr. Erickson is now sole proprietor of the business.

Last Saturday night the Jake Newman home near Southwick was the scene of a very pleasant card party. Several hours were passed in an enjoyable manner with cards, after which prizes were awarded to Mr. and Mrs. E. C. Gertje, first; Charles Harris the consolation. At midnight a splendid dinner was served by the hostess. Those present were August Meyer and family, C. G. Davis and family, E. C. Gertje and family, Henry Bleck, Herman Meyer, Charles Harris and Wilbert Brunseik.

Linden News — Mrs. James Garner and nephews, Commie and J. D. Perry, spent the week-end in the home of her son, Rube, at Long Meadow. Mrs. C. P. Israel and children spent Sunday in the A. Alexander home. Mrs. Frank Abrams spent Sunday afternoon with Mrs. McPhee. C. H. Fry and family spent Sunday with C. E. Fonberg.

Stony Point News — Mrs. Cushman Davis and Mrs. Chetis Hoisington visited Sunday with Mrs. Leonard Fairfield. Misses Mabel and Lillie Heimgardner visited Sunday with Marie Dygert. Mrs. Will Staigers visited Monday afternoon with Mrs. Ike Stensma.

Fairview Items — Miss Elizabeth Hund spent Thursday evening at the home of her sister, Mrs. Hugh Farkas. Mrs. Virgil Fleschman and Mrs. McCall are spending several days at the Aniel Peters home. Mr. and Mrs. Wm. Wolff and son were visitors Sunday in the Herman Wolff home. Madeline and Margaret Schultz were also Sunday guests in the Wolff home. Herbert and Leonard Wolff were visitors Sunday evening in the Frank Wilken home.

Southwick Items — John Lettenmaier returned from Lewiston Friday. While there he visited his brother, Joe, who lives at Uniontown. John Stalnaker was helping L. J. Southwick build a fence last week. Mr. and Mrs. John Darby of Crescent spent Sunday in the Kauder home. Mrs. Grant Bateman and children spent Thursday with Mrs. Ben McCoy. Ira Foster and family of Gold Hill were guests in the R. M. Wright home Sunday. Jim Cain and Walter Benschoter of American ridge were over-night guests of Floyd Russell Thursday last week. Mr. and Mrs. Calvert were dinner guests of Mr. and Mrs. G. H. Ziemann Sunday. Messrs. Miller, McCoy, King and Russell have returned from the river, where they had very good luck fishing, although they said it could have been better.

Leland Items — An 11-pound son was born to Mr. and Mrs. Lyle Harrison on Thursday, February 22. A baby daughter arrived at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Aniel Peters Sunday night. Mr. and Mrs. Yenni and son Wayne were dinner guests Sunday in the Frank Fleschman home. Big Bear Ridge — Miss Neva Nelson came home from Pullman on Friday for a visit with her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Anton Nelson. Miss Emma Aas entertained the Girls' Sewing club Friday afternoon. Mrs. N. E. Ware spent last week in Kendrick with her daughter, Mrs. O. E. MacPherson. Mrs. L. Keene of Moscow is visiting in the home of her son, Wade T. Keene, and family.

FUEL AND DIESEL OILS TO BE RATIONED NOW

Since last Monday fuel oils for heating, kerosene, diesel oils, etc., are rationed, and cannot be purchased without permits. Below we list the steps to take in registering for these items:

Rationing will apply to kerosene, stove oil, burner oil, diesel fuel and all grades of fuel oil. Each of these will be rationed no matter what it is used for, or how little is used. Even a gallon of kerosene bought at a grocery store or service station will require a ration coupon. For simplicity, these products will be referred to as "oil" throughout this article.

Here are steps you should take now to obtain your oil ration:

1. Make sure you have all the correct application forms. You may need more than one kind of form. The various types needed will be explained later. Remember that every drop of oil will be rationed, no matter what you use it for.
2. Consult your oil supplier and obtain a statement of your previous oil purchases. If you bought from several suppliers you must obtain a statement from each. If the supplier has no records available, present your receipts to the supplier and he will give you a statement in return. There will be cases when neither you nor the supplier has a record of purchases. This will be true, for instance, when purchases were made from service stations or stores. In such cases, merely state on the application that no records are available, and the ration board will determine a suitable figure.
3. After receiving your statement from the supplier, determine how much oil was actually used in the period covered by the supplier's statement. This may be very difficult for the home user. If complete information is not available, it is suggested that you use the same gallonage as reported by the supplier, and note that you have done so on the application. This figure will assume that the tank was as full at the beginning of the period as at the end.
4. Determine the capacity of your oil storage tank. This may be found on your measuring stick, marked on the tank, or may be obtained by calling your oil supplier.
5. Find out how much fuel you had in your tank March 15, and how much you have on the day you file your application. If you had your tank filled shortly before March 15, you will, of course, know how much was in it on that date.
6. Find out if it is possible to convert your equipment to some other fuel other than oil.
7. Most applications will be for oil to heat dwellings or buildings. In such cases you must measure the number of square feet of floor space in the rooms that are to be heated. Unless they are to be used for living, sleeping or commercial purposes, do not include basement space, laundries, sleeping porches, sun porches, garage space, recreation rooms, workshops, attics and storage space. — Include closets, halls, stairwells, which open on to rooms that must be heated. It is essential that the floor space be measured accurately to the nearest foot. The amount of floor space to be heated is very important in deciding the amount of the ration. It is better not to estimate, but to use a yard stick and get correct lengths and widths of each space to be heated. Where a room is irregular in shape, it should be divided into squares or oblongs, and these should be measured separately.
8. Keep all your figures until you fill out the form.

Here are the various types of applications — be sure that you have every one you need:

1. If you need to obtain rations for heating or hot water for a dwelling, houseboat or trailer, heating one, two or three families (70% of more of the space being used for living purposes). — Get Form R-1100 (Private Dwellings) from your oil supplier.
2. If you need heating or hot water rations for any apartment or room not heated by equipment sending heat through pipes or ducts (such as portable heaters or circulating heaters). — Get Form R-1100 (Private Dwellings) from your oil supplier.
3. If you need rations for heat or hot water for premises other than dwellings listed above — get form R-1101 (other than private dwellings) from your oil supplier.
4. If you need rations for home cooking and lighting only. — Get Form R-1103-A (Domestic Cooking and Lighting) from your ration board.
5. If you want rations for cooking or lighting, or farm vehicles or other miscellaneous non-industrial uses. — Get Form R-1103 (domestic, institutional and agricultural) from your ration board.
6. If you are an industrial, commercial or government user, wanting rations for trucks, tractors or other machinery, or other non-heating purposes. — Get Form R-1102 (Industrial, Commercial, Government) from your ration board.

When you have obtained the correct forms, they should be filled out before the registration date. Allow ample time for this work, as incomplete or incorrect forms may be returned to you and cause serious delay. Be sure to fill out the application completely.

Bring Form No. 1100 (private and household) to high school office, Kendrick, anytime between the hours of 9:00 a. m. to 12:00 noon, and 1:00 p. m. to 6:00 p. m. on Friday, March 19th — for checking.

Forms R-1101, R-1102, R-1103-A, and R-1103 may be sent direct to rationing board.

WHAT'S GOING ON IN AMERICAN RIDGE SECTION

Buddy and Erma Langdon spent the week-end with their parents, Mr. and Mrs. Harry Langdon. Mr. Langdon returned to Kendrick with them and attended the P.-T. A. Monday evening, returning to her home here Tuesday evening.

Miss Lorraine Woody, Lewiston, spent Sunday with her mother, Mrs. Martha Woody, and brother, Kenneth. On Monday Mrs. Woody, Kenneth Woody and Frankie Benschoter were Lewiston shoppers, Lorraine returning to Lewiston with them.

John Wilson of Stanford (near Avon) spent the week-end here with his family, Mrs. Wilson and daughters, and Mr. and Mrs. Bob Cain. Red Cross was well attended last Friday at the home of Mrs. Harry Benschoter. Mrs. Hiram Galloway of Kendrick was a guest visitor. Our next meeting will be held at the home of Mrs. Andy Cox, Friday, March 26.

Mr. and Mrs. Werner Brammer, Keith Walshall and Mrs. George Havens and sons were dinner guests Saturday of Mr. and Mrs. Henry Brammer.

George Havens and Henry Brammer were Lewiston visitors last Wednesday.

Miss Bernice Jacobs, our teacher, left for her home in Nez Perce on Saturday to visit her parents and attend the funeral of her uncle, John Gilbertz, of Ferdinand, on Wednesday. There has been no school so far this week (Wednesday) but Miss Jacobs is expected back tonight.

Mr. and Mrs. Warney May and son Warney, Jr., were in Lewiston Saturday.

Harry Benschoter attended an AAA meeting in Moscow Wednesday.

Mrs. Walter Benschoter and children, Jack, Mary Beth and Nita, Mrs. Harry Benschoter and Mrs. Bruce Glenn and daughter were Moscow visitors Saturday.

Mrs. Hiram Galloway was a guest at the Harry Benschoter home on Thursday and Friday.

Walter May is overhauling his tractor in Moscow this week.

George Havens is overhauling his tractor in the Kendrick shop this week. Kenneth Woody assisted him Wednesday.

Mrs. Walter May spent Tuesday with Mrs. Harry Benschoter.

The weather was plenty cold here Wednesday morning, the thermometer showing 9 above zero.

Mr. and Mrs. Harley Eichner and Mrs. George Davidson were in Moscow Thursday.

Mrs. Walter May left Sunday for Spokane, to attend funeral services of an aunt.

Mr. and Mrs. George Davidson were in Moscow Tuesday, going from there to Pullman, where they met the Byard Davidson family, all enjoying dinner together, there.

Our Red Cross quota for this ridge was $50, and $135 was collected. Fruits and vegetables were also donated and gathered that day for the Ersel Hudson family, who lost their home by fire a short time ago.

Those who were guests of the Moscow Grange last Thursday night were Mr. and Mrs. E. P. Roberts, Mrs. Norie Callison, Mr. and Mrs. Ed Kent, Mr. and Mrs. Andy Cox and Mr. and Mrs. Frankie Benschoter.

Mrs. Norie Callison is spending this week with her mother at Lenore.

Mr. and Mrs. Bruce Glenn and daughter Joan and Mr. and Mrs. Andy Cox and children, Tommy and Peggy, were guests Sunday of Mr. and Mrs. John Glenn at Fairview.

Those attending Grange in Kendrick Tuesday night were Mr. and Mrs. Harley Eichner, Mr. and Mrs. Frank Benschoter, Mr. and Mrs. Ed Kent, Mr. and Mrs. Andy Cox, Norie Callison and Mrs. Harry Benschoter.

Mr. and Mrs. Melvin Procinier and son Gerald spent Monday evening at the Harry Benschoter home.

Beverly Mattoon has recovered from the mumps.

Connie Mattoon, Spokane, Evelyn Davis, Tacoma, and Carl Mattoon, home on a furlough, spent the week-end at the Perry Mattoon home.

Warney May and son Warney, Jr., Andy Cox, Frankie Benschoter and George Davidson have been busy installing a new pump at the school house.

Grover Danforth, Southwick, spent Thursday at the Warney May home.

Keith Walshall spent Sunday night with Mr. and Mrs. Henry Brammer, returning to Lewiston with Mr. Brammer on Monday.

School Children Immunized
Dr. W. B. Sherrard from the North Central District Health Unit, conducted immunization clinics in the following schools on Monday, March 15: Southwick, Cameron, Leland and Kendrick.

Some of the school children were immunized against diphtheria and smallpox, and some of the older children were vaccinated to protect them against typhoid fever.

Red Cross Drive
In making mention of the Red Cross drive last week we failed to mention that the chairman, Mrs. G. W. McKeever, was ably aided by Mrs. Lester Crocker, Mrs. Everett Fraser and Mrs. Myra Lee.

A detailed account of the success of drives in different parts of the county will be found in another column in this paper.

LATAH COUNTY RED CROSS DRIVE 50% OVER GOAL

Latah county over-subscribed its Red Cross fund goal by more than half, sending in more than $15,000 on a goal of $9,700 and warming the hearts of the scores of volunteer workers who have been engaged for two weeks in carrying forward the 1943 campaign of the national organization.

Still incomplete, the central committee director, Dr. O. LeRoy Walter, Tuesday at noon reported subscriptions totaled $15,306.75 — 58 per cent more than the goal set for the county.

"In all my experience of raising money for various agencies," Dr. Walter commented, "I have never seen anything to equal the spirit and the response of the people for the Red Cross drive in Latah county."

Thirty-one per cent of the sum raised will remain within the county for use by the several county units. The rest will be sent immediately to national headquarters. On the basis of the sum so far received, the county's share will be approximately $4,750.00.

"Our quota of $9,700 looked big when we began the drive," the chairman added. "But everyone went to work, considering it a privilege to help in this emergency." He expressed his sincere thanks to all the volunteer workers.

Gifts are still expected to come throughout March, from persons not contacted directly, and others who may wish to give more.

A resume of county units and the amount raised follows:

Julietta, quota $75, $147.19 turned in to date. Mrs. Harvey Shepherd is unit chairman.

Potlatch, headed by the Rev. Donald Caughey, had a goal of $1,900. The incomplete total is $2,237.

American ridge, Mrs. Andrew Cox chairman, raised $135, with a quota of $50.00.

Big Bear ridge raised $170.50 under the leadership of King Ingie. The quota was $75.00.

Bovill, the goal was $100, and a total of $371 raised. Mrs. R. MacDonald is unit chairman.

In the Troy district a goal of $900 was set and the incomplete total showed $873 turned in. Clifford Smith heads the unit.

Deary, with Miss Emma Aas as chairman, raised $425.25. Its quota was $400.

The quota for Genesee was set at $650, and the incomplete total turned in was $1554.70. Miss Esther Martinson is unit chairman.

Gold Hill (Southwick) unit under the direction of Mrs. Clem Israel raised $140. The quota was set at $50.00.

Kendrick's quota was set at $150 and a total of $314.24 was raised. Mrs. George W. McKeever was the drive chairman.

The Moscow unit, composed of nine separate districts, had a combined quota of $5,250 and incomplete returns show $8,939.86 raised to date.

Has Narrow Escape
Fred Crocker suffered severe and painful bruises Tuesday afternoon, shortly before 5:00 o'clock, when the big team he was driving, hitched to a sturdy two-wheeled vehicle, ran away.

Mr. Crocker was proceeding toward home after plowing a garden, and near the Farmers Bank the team started to run, crossing the alley, and going over the partial piles of lumber stacked near the tracks, and then across the tracks.

Mr. Crocker stayed with the team until the cart upset on the main track of the N. P., throwing him between the rails. They ran on, and smashed into a telegraph pole on the other side, breaking every spoke in the cart's wheels, the tongue, and double-trees.

A. G. Peters of Leland, saw the run-away and went after them as fast as he could go. By the time he arrived there, Mr. Crocker was picking himself up from between the rails, thankful to be alive.

Mr. Peters' straightened up the team, one horse of which was lying on its back, and stated they had "all the run out of them."

The afternoon passenger had just passed through, or the run-away might have been of far more serious nature.

Grange Meeting Held
Fifty-six Grangers were present at the regular Grange meeting on Tuesday of this week when ten new members were given the obligation. It had originally been planned to have the Moscow drill team for initiation work, but as they were unable to be present, this part of the program was dispensed with.

Following the meeting a dance honoring the new members was held, followed by refreshments.

All in all, a most pleasant evening was spent.

Alfalfa Hay Price Set
A price ceiling of $20 a short ton has been set by OPA for alfalfa hay at the farm level in California, Oregon and Washington, where prices recently had climbed sharply. Parity level for alfalfa hay is $19.85 a short ton; and since parity price had not been reached in other states, no action was taken in other areas.

Pinochle Party
Mrs. Ivan Craig entertained the Pinochle Club last Thursday evening in her home.

High scores were awarded Mrs. R. Hudson and George Erocke, while Mrs. Geo. Brocke and Frank Abrams held low.

Refreshments were served at the close of play.

WHAT'S GOING ON IN THE LELAND COMMUNITY

School Notes
Leland has escaped epidemics which have prevailed in other communities, and the school attendance for the past six weeks has been nearly 100 per cent. Pupils having a perfect attendance are Warren and Evelyn Locke, Dorothy Boyd, Ray and Keith Thornton; Leon, Howard and Walter Wolff; Luther, Betty and Buddy Parks; Peggy and Dixie Stump; Richard, William, Gene and Herman Kuykendall; Hermina and Teddy Meyer; Clinton and Stanley Smith; Kathleen Crawford, Norma Dagefoerde, Mary Ann Glenn, Darlene Peters, Neal Walker, Marlene and Barbara Silflow, Neal Walker and Ronald Craig.

Dr. Shirrod of the Nez Perce County health unit and Miss Loretta Schuler, school nurse, conducted a health clinic at the school, Monday. Inoculations were given for smallpox and diphtheria.

The school did its share in helping the Red Cross by contributing $9.70 to the War Fund.

Homemakers Club Meets
The Homemakers club met with Mrs. Wilbur Corkill for an all-day meeting, Monday. Miss Hattie Abbott, Moscow, was present and demonstrated the preparation of apples for drying. She also gave instructions on Victory gardening. Mrs. Wm. Musselman, Lewiston, was a guest.

Luncheon was served at noon by Mrs. Corkill, assisted by Mrs. Wayne Kuykendall, assistant hostess.

Red Cross Drive Nearly Done
To date $218 has been collected for the Red Cross War Fund. Nearly all persons in this community have been contacted. Anyone willing to make a contribution may leave it with Mrs. Jesse Hoffman, chairman.

Other Notes
World Day of Prayer was observed at the church last Friday. Mrs. R. E. Woody had charge of the program.

The W. S. C. S. entertained the members of the play cast with a dinner last Wednesday evening, at the church.

Mr. and Mrs. Ray Hill and Wm. Bertrand of Weippe, visited at the home of Mrs. Hill's sister, Mrs. Enoch Harrison, last week.

Mrs. Eliza Thornton, Lewiston, is visiting her daughter, Mrs. Chas. Hoffman, and family, and renewing acquaintances.

Mrs. Ewald Hinrichs received a telegram from her brother, Pvt. Paul Jones, Sunday, stating he had been granted a furlough, and planned to come home. He has been stationed at Camp Blanding, Florida.

Mrs. Julia Fleschman has gone to Kellogg to visit her daughter, Mrs. Frank Hunt.

Mr. and Mrs. Chas. Craig and children of Mohler, were guests for Sunday dinner at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Oral Craig. Mr. and Mrs. Roy Craig and daughter Paige were afternoon callers.

Mr. and Mrs. Orval Walker and sons of Clarkston came Saturday and remained until Sunday at the home of his parents, Mr. and Mrs. O. A. Walker. While here they enjoyed a birthday dinner in observance of O. A. Walker's birthday anniversary.

Paul Dagefoerde and Ewald Hinrichs made a trip to Rockford, Wn., Tuesday.

Oral Craig, Walter Silflow and Robt. Draper attended a public sale at Greer, Tuesday.

Mr. and Mrs. A. G. Peters spent Sunday afternoon in Kendrick with their children.

The Rev. and Mrs. W. E. Cox are home guests of Mr. and Mrs. Ben Hoffman, while here conducting evangelistic meetings.

Mr. and Mrs. Roy Blankenship and son Boyd were visitors in the Raymond Blankenship home Sunday.

Mr. and Mrs. Ewald Hinrichs and son Herman were callers at the G. O. Peters home last Thursday evening.

Mr. and Mrs. Herman Johnson were guests of Mr. and Mrs. M. R. Vincent Sunday.

Homer Parks took his father to Colfax, Friday, where he is receiving medical treatment.

Mr. and Mrs. John Blankenship and son have moved from Moscow to the home of his parents, Mr. and Mrs. Roy Blankenship.

Mr. and Mrs. Weyne Weyne were visitors in the Robt. Draper home last Thursday night.

Mrs. Roy Craig is making frequent trips to Lewiston to visit her mother, Mrs. Stewart Heffel, who is a patient in St. Joseph's hospital.

Mr. and Mrs. John Blankenship were callers at the Raymond Blankenship home last week.

Mr. and Mrs. E. Schmidt of Lewiston visited here last week.

Lewiston visitors Saturday included Mr. and Mrs. Homer Parks and Luther Mr. and Mrs. Leonard Wolff, Joe Niklosky, Jesse Thornton, Mr. and Mrs. M. R. Vincent, Herman Johnson, Gordon Peters and Mr. and Mrs. Gerald Schmidt.

Painting, papering and kalsomining seems to be the order of the day with many of the housewives. Little chickens are also claiming lots of attention. Later, as soon as the weather permits, gardening will make a big demand on their time.

Entertain Basketball Boys
The basketball boys were royally entertained in the home of Mr. and Mrs. Ross Armitage Friday evening of last week.

The evening was spent playing pinochle, after which a sumptuous lunch was served by the hostesses, Mesdames A. O. Kanilkeberg, Clarence Fry and Ross Armitage.

High honors for the evening went to Oreste Kanilkeberg, with low going to Walter McCall.

BIG LOG DRIVE PROBABLY WILL START IN APRIL

Start of preparation for the annual spring log drive down the Clearwater river to the Lewiston mill of Potlatch Forests, Inc., has been delayed because of cold nights and slow melting snows in the lumbered areas back where the drive has its origin and will not likely get underway until sometime in April, stated P. F. I. general manager C. L. Billings in Lewiston this week.

Snow conditions during the winter in logging areas have been the worst in company history Billings said and in late January reached as much as 11 feet in some camps, forcing the closure of Camp 14 in the Clearwater woods.

Average snow depth was somewhere between seven and nine feet and brought troubles that in normal years would have resulted in all camps being closed until a change in weather produced more favorable logging conditions. However, with the pressing need for war lumber, and low inventories of dry stock from which to make shipment, company management determined to keep the camps open and to continue logging even though the relative productivity of each man at work was lessened by some fifty per cent as compared to his productivity in good logging weather.

It was, and still is, necessary for men felling trees to spend from ten to twenty minutes shoveling snow from around the base of each tree before felling. Much time is lost by simply being unable to move readily from one tree to another because of wallowing hip deep in soft snow. Accident hazards for skidding crews have multiplied many times because snow is a treacherous mask for uncertain footing. Each day's logs must be skidded the same day cut, otherwise a night's snowfall may hide them from view the following day. This means working close behind the saws for skidding crews with the attendant hazard of timber falling on men.

Snow at the log loading landings makes the loading of logs a precarious and unpleasant job. Snow on the railroad right-of-ways cannot be entirely ploughed out with wing snow plows and balls up under the trucks and locomotives, derailing them. occasionally derails the log flats by packing so hard between rails as to leave no exposed part of the rail to guide wheel flanges.

However, the lumberjacks have stayed hard at work in five camps in the Clearwater woods, feeding logs to the Lewiston mill, and at four camps in the Potlatch woods, from which area logs are transported to the Potlatch mill.

About the middle of February, Billings said, logging conditions began to improve and the snow has since settled some two or three feet but without much run-off of water. Nights have been cold and general logging chances, although better than in late January and early February, are still very tough. Roads are far from good. Despite such conditions there has been no interruption in the shipment of logs to the mills, except for a few days when the Camas Prairie Railroad, between Orofino and Headquarters, was plugged with snow in late January. Sawmills are operating at more than normal capacity.

Can Buy Seed Without Stamps
Action to assist farmers of Idaho in meeting "Produce for Victory" goals was announced this week by the O. P. A.

C. C. Anderson, Idaho O. P. A. director, said peas, beans and lentils, when bought exclusively for use as seed had been exempted from the processed foods rationing plan and will not require the surrender of either point stamps or ration certificates.

Dried peas, beans and lentils were all included in the list of foodstuffs on which rationing started March 1, and it was originally planned to issue purchase certificates to farmers requesting seeds for crops. However, it was subsequently decided that such a procedure would be too cumbersome and might possibly delay or interfere with the spring planting season.

The new change, therefore, Mr. Anderson said, makes it possible for farmers and gardeners to buy bean, pea and lentil seed which is marked or labeled in accordance with any applicable federal or state seed law, without the surrender of ration stamps.

Chester Vincent Married
Word was received this week of the marriage of Chester M. Vincent son of Mr. and Mrs. M. R. Vincent, of Leland, to Miss Ernestine Hair, of Lewiston.

The ceremony took place at Bremerton, where Chester is employed in defense work, on Tuesday, March 9.

The young couple were attended by Miss Mary Havens, and Wayne Thornton, both formerly of Kendrick. The happy young couple will make their home at Bremerton.

To Honor Basketball Boys
Friday evening of this week, between the hours of 9:00 and 12:00, the Commercial club will entertain the entire high school and the school faculty at a dance honoring the basketball team, which made such a fine showing this year.

Musical for the dance will be furnished by the Thomas family.

The dance will be at the gymnasium. Commercial club members and their wives may attend if they so desire.

W. W. P. Co. 54 Years Old
 Commemorating the 54th anniversary of the Washington Water Power company, 1,089 employees who have served more than five years with the company were honored at informal employe meetings held Saturday night, March 13, at various division offices throughout the Inland Empire.

Service pins were awarded the employees in the various year groups, including those in the 20 to 50 year groups who have won pins in previous years, but this year are eligible for new pins.

Of the 1,089 employees who were eligible for service pins, 315 are in the five to ten year group, 147 in the ten to 15 year group, and 217 in the 15 to 20 year group. Known as the "Trail Blazers," there are 157 employees in the 20 to 25 year group; 89 in the 25 to 30 year group; 147 in the 30 to 40 year group and 14 in the 40 to 50 year group. Four employes are listed with more than 50 years service with the company. Newcomers in the various "Trail Blazer" groups were awarded group service pins.

For the Palouse division of the Washington Water Power company, the birthday celebration was held at Pullman, according to J. D. Lewis, division manager. All employes of the company were invited.

H. C. Schupfer, Kendrick, was one of those receiving a pin, having been in the employ of the company for the past 15 years.

Good Books In Local Library
 Among the books on the shelves of the Kendrick library, at Long's store, are: Zane Grey's "Riders of the Purple Sage," "Wilson's "Rugles of Red Gap," Cronin's "Keys of the Kingdom," Lin's "Movement in Peking," Madame Chiang Kai-shek's "This Is Our China," Margaret Banning's "Letters to Susan," Harold Bell Wright's "Their Yesterdays," Gunnerson's "The Good Shepherd," and Jack London's "Valley of the Moon."

Over 80 books have been contributed by people of Kendrick. Do you have any good books that you have read that you would like to contribute or loan to our local library for three or four months? If you do, your books will be gratefully accepted at Long's store.

Library books are loaned at the following times:
 Wednesdays, 2:30 p. m. to 4:30 p. m.
 Saturdays, 2:30 p. m. to 4:30 p. m., and 6:40 p. m. to 8:30 p. m.

Typical March Weather
 March came in like a lamb — but gives every indication of going out like the proverbial lion.

We have been pelted with rain, sleet, snow and mixtures of all three off and on for the past week. The wind has blown, the sun has shone — in fact, we've had real March weather in every respect.

However, the temperature has not been low, and that has helped a lot. Farmers say they are badly in need of a good long warm rain or chinook wind to remove the ice caps from their fields — and soon.

Bridge Party
 Members of the Bridge club met in the home of Mr. and Mrs. R. L. Blewett last Wednesday evening, when six tables were in play.

High scores were awarded Mr. and Mrs. Wm. McCreary, after which refreshments were served, with the Mesdames L. W. Mason, and Wm. McCreary as assisting hostesses.

WHAT KENDRICK FOLKS ARE DOING THESE DAYS

Rex Blewett, accompanied by Miss Jean Mann, who are attending the U. of I., spent the week-end with Mr. and Mrs. R. L. Blewett.

Mrs. Frank Abrams and children left for Bremerton Friday, where they will spend some time visiting her parents, Mr. and Mrs. O. E. Havens.

Supt. and Mrs. L. W. Mason were in Moscow Monday evening, where Mr. Mason attended an oil-rationing meeting while Mrs. Mason visited home folks.

Mr. and Mrs. Herman Schupfer attended a Washington Water Power company banquet Saturday evening in Pullman, celebrating the 54th anniversary of that company.

Mrs. R. B. Parks had as week-end guests Mrs. Mary McCall and Mrs. Liza Thornton.

Mr. and Mrs. Ig. Flaig and two daughters were Sunday visitors in the home of her mother, Mrs. Geo. Leith.

Mr. and Mrs. Bert Biddison returned last week from Hermiston, Ore. Mrs. Biddison has been quite ill with flu since their return.

Mr. and Mrs. Sid LaHatt and children have returned to their home from Hermiston, Ore.

Lester Wallace was a passenger for Lewiston Friday.

Mr. and Mrs. Tom Keene left Friday for Portland after a visit with Mr. and Mrs. Wade Keene. They made the trip with Tom Cuning.

Mrs. George Jones and little George-Ann came last Wednesday to spend the week with her parents, Mr. and Mrs. W. T. Keene. George came down from Uniontown Saturday and stayed until Sunday.

Mr. and Mrs. Rance Oglesby and son from Indio, Calif., were guests Sunday in the Wade Keene home. Mrs. Oglesby and Mrs. Keene are sisters.

Mrs. Boyd Cook and baby of Lenore spent Monday with her mother, Mrs. Bina Raby.

Mr. and Mrs. Oscar Raby and children were Sunday visitors in Kendrick.

Mrs. Charles Pitcher of Cavendish was a Friday visitor in the Paul Lind home.

Mr. and Mrs. Gunder Reiersen and children spent the week-end in the Edgar Long home.

Mrs. May Parks and daughter Joan of Moscow spent the week-end visiting in the homes of R. B. Parks and Norris Walker. Mrs. Parks and Mrs. Walker are sister and brother.

Mr. and Mrs. George Brocke and Darrell left Monday for Spokane on a business visit.

Mrs. Walter Brocke spent the week-end in Teakoa with her sister, Mrs. Bob Whitehead and husband.

George Davidson, who left Kendrick December 28, returned home Sunday from San Francisco, where he had been working in the Bethlehem shipyards for the Western Asbestos Co. Before returning he was privileged to witness the graduation exercises of his son, Ted, in the Army Air Corps, at Stockton Field, Calif., on Wednesday, March 10.

While away he worked for five weeks at Tonopah, Nev., as a carpenter, before going to San Francisco.

Joe Piper of Agatha was a Kendrick visitor Thursday of last week. Evelyn Davis, Tacoma, and Connie Mattoon, Spokane, spent the week-end in the Perry Mattoon home.

Vivian Fey left for Spokane Sunday, where she will be employed in defense work.

Mrs. May Yeager, Spokane, is spending the week in the Elmo Blankenship home.

Cecil Jones spent the week-end in Spokane.

Mrs. Rose Farrington and Mrs. Manford Fransen returned from a visit in Spokane Friday morning. Mrs. Fransen went on to her home in Pomeroy Saturday evening.

SCHOOL NOTES

Buddy Clemenhagen of the fourth grade is out with the measles. Charles Christensen of the third grade has been out of school for a week because of illness.

The fifth and sixth graders are taking their nine-weeks quizzes this week. The fifth grade is starting the studying of England about the year 1600. The sixth grade is studying about Italy. Both the fifth and sixth grades are showing a marked improvement in their daily spelling grades.

The seventh and eighth graders have gathered about 75 Victory books, which they will send away soon. The grade boys played a basketball game with the Leland grade boys last week.

The Senior class chose "Double Exposure," a farce-comedy in three acts, for its spring production. The following cast started rehearsing on Tuesday:

- Dr. Markham P. Carruthers, a psychiatrist Leonard Lunders
- Markham Carruthers, his nephew Louis Lunders
- Tate Smithers, a constable Charles Deobald
- Curtis Hall, director of Old Mill players Eldon Baker
- Henry Hoisington, a businessman Dale A. Miller
- Mrs. Darlene Phipps Hoisington, his wife Paula McKeever
- Old Mill Players
- Maldee Holmes Irene Peters
- Ginny Gates Joyce Lyons
- Norma Slater Lois Largent
- Marian Wylie Thelma Garner
- Genevieve Hobart Pauline Jones
- Cristobal Crenshaw, a friend of Mark's Alice Gustafson
- Sarah Crenshaw, her aunt Donna Wallace

Mr. Kelly is going to show two pictures, "Fundamentals of Acoustics" and "Sound Waves," to the Physics class this week.

The breakfasts that the Home Economics classes are preparing are proving very successful.

Last week a repairman came up and cleaned and repaired the sewing machines.

Lily, Daniel, Don Fry and Stanley Kendall visited school Tuesday afternoon, before leaving for their army examinations at Spokane.

In Milwaukee the streets are swept regularly to pick up tacks, nails and other metal objects damaging to rubber tires.

KITE FLYING

A SAFE KITE FLYER OBSERVES THE FOLLOWING RULES

1. He never flies his kite near electric wires of any kind. Kites with metal parts are dangerous if they fall across electric wires.
2. He never uses wire or twine that has wire in it for a kite string. Wet string is dangerous because it conducts electricity.
3. He never runs across streets or highways while flying his kite.
4. He never climbs poles or trees to knock down kites caught in wires.

Red Cross Field Directors Solve Soldiers' Problems

Thousands of U. S. fighting men last year accepted the invitation to discuss their personal problems with Red Cross field directors who accompany troops to all parts of the world. This picture, taken in London, shows everyone happy after the field men had satisfactorily solved the problems of the two soldiers at the desk. Contributions to the Red Cross 1943 War Fund, now in progress, make this service possible.

WASHINGTON, D. C.—The soldier stormed into the Red Cross office at a southern Army camp. His mouth was set in a hard, straight line; his eyes were cold, determined. His wife trailed him as he strode across the reception room; her face was red and swollen from crying. They were not over 22.

"I need help," the soldier told the Red Cross field director at the desk. "And I need it fast."

The Red Cross field director smiled, but the soldier did not return it. "All right, soldier, let's see what's the trouble."

"If I don't get help I'm going over the hill," he blurted. "I'm on alert now—due to move out almost any minute. But I'm not going—and leave my wife with no place to stay."

Further conversation developed that the young bride was an expectant mother. She was unable to go home because of her stepfather. Her husband had no relatives with whom she could stay. And the allotment he had made to his wife had not yet come through.

Two hours later—after much conversation and planning—the soldier was shaking the hand of the Red Cross field director. The Red Cross man had arranged that the soldier's wife spend the night at the Army camp guest house. Preparations had been completed with a nearby Red Cross chapter for her transportation back home. The Red Cross chapter in the girl's home town had agreed to see that she had proper care until the baby was born. By that time the allotment would be coming through.

In every United States military establishment, at home and abroad, the American Red Cross maintains a field director and staff to help Uncle Sam's fighting men work out such personal problems. More than 1,000,000 servicemen passed through the offices of the Red Cross field directors last year. Their problems covered all phases of life—families needing financial aid, allotments, illnesses, deaths, loss of contact with the home folks. These and other problems are unfolded in a never-ending panorama before Red Cross field directors. Almost always they are solved.

The Red Cross field director is ready to furnish information, counsel, and assistance as needed to men of the armed forces. Reaching into every county in the United States through local Red Cross chapters, these workers and local home service chairmen act on behalf of the men of the armed forces and their families in matters affecting the welfare of either or both.

In addition to the servicemen aided by field directors, more than 500,000 families of men in the service received help through Red Cross chapters and branches.

Contributions of the American people to the Red Cross during the $125,000,000 War Fund appeal now in progress will help to keep and expand these services to the nation's fighting men.

Varied and often unusual are the other demands made of Red Cross field directors. Field Director William Fluharty, stationed in a remote Australian area, traveled down to a railroad junction to bring back 6,000 pounds of American magazines for troops to which he was assigned. Returning on a train, he was asked to help deliver a baby for a native woman, belatedly en route to a hospital.

Red Cross Field Director Albert S. Campbell and two assistants, David S. Oman and John J. Clancy, Jr., distributed clothes, cigarettes, soap, razors, tooth brushes, playing cards and other articles to American fighters during one of the most furious Solomon Islands battles.

Whatever the welfare and personal problems of American fighters at home or abroad, the field director, backed up by 3,755 Red Cross chapters and 6,000 branches, is the serviceman's best friend in time of need.

WOOD SUPPLIES MAY BE UP FOR RATIONING NEXT

Firewood from kindling through all forms to sawdust and pressed logs will be subject to rationing in northern Idaho, Oregon and Washington — if and when deemed advisable — according to a release to the Lewiston Tribune from the Seattle branch of OWI.

Under ration order No. 14, signed by Prentiss M. Brown, national O. P. A. administrator, authority has been granted to Harry Camp, regional OPA administrator at San Francisco, to initiate the program if necessary, according to James C. Scully, Seattle regional rationing representative of OPA.

It is the first wood rationing order in the United States. The order covers: Nez Perce, Latah, Lewis, Clearwater, Idaho, Benewah, Bonner, Kootenai, Boundary and Shoshone counties in the Idaho panhandle and the states of Oregon and Washington.

Under the order issued Saturday, some 4,000 wood dealers in the three-state area will be required to register with the OPA and to furnish monthly data on supplies on a one-page form. Consumers will not be affected immediately, Scully said.

The rationing order covers everyone buying wood or selling wood—or even accepting it as a gift, according to the regional OWI release. Exempting government agencies from its provisions, requires anyone selling more than four cords of wood a month to register as a dealer. Registration dates have not yet been set, Scully said. Regional OPA administrator Camp is empowered to name the registration period, under the wood rationing order.

Principal immediate effect of the order, Scully said, will be the monthly reporting by dealers in the three-state area. Reporting of wood supplies will be due April 5, under ration order No. 14, covering inventory as of March 1.

The order was issued, Scully said, "because firewood is the principal domestic heating fuel in Washington and Oregon and in the northern part of Idaho.

"Rationing of fuel oil, labor shortages, transportation difficulties, all may affect the coal supply and influx of workers to the northwest, needing more fuel may all combine to necessitate heavier reliance on wood as a fuel. If that takes place, the available wood supply must be equally distributed.

"The purpose of issuing ration order No. 14 is to lay the groundwork for rationing wood, if it is needed.

"As it stands now, the order simply starts dealers to taking a continuous wood inventory throughout the critical area — Washington, Oregon and northern Idaho — from month to month, so we and the communities involved know how much wood is on hand."

Wood dealers, under Saturday's order, will do two things, Scully explained. They are:

Register with the OPA district office nearest them by filing a dealer registration certificate in duplicate on OPA form R-1404. The form can be sent by mail or taken in person to district offices in Seattle, Spokane, Portland or Klamath Falls. Every dealer registers separately for each place of business he operates. No dealer can deliver firewood to any person unless he has filed a dealer registration certificate.

Report on or before the fifth day of each month, beginning April 5, to the district office at which he is registered on form OPA R-1408 furnishing information on wood supply. This report may be mailed or delivered in person.

Regional OPA Administrator Camp also is given power by the order to direct dealers to deliver wood or sawdust to customers on a priority basis. If this part of the ration order is necessary to distribute the available supply fairly, Camp is empowered to issue an order prohibiting a wood user from getting any wood if he already has a 30-day supply on hand.

Any person violating the order may be prohibited by either OPA Administrator Prentiss Brown or Regional Administrator Camp from "using, delivering or receiving deliveries of firewood or any other rationed commodity," the order states. The prohibition order will be used after a hearing under terms of the ration order.

Firewood, as defined in the order means "forest cordwood, slabwood, mill ends, edgings or other millwaster, kindling wood, shavings, hogged fuel, sawdust and sawdust pressed into logs or bricks."

Editor's Note: If Mr. Brown, Camp or Scully wish to cut down on the production of wood, especially in the smaller towns throughout these three great wood producing states, they have certainly taken the right steps — for, about Kendrick anyhow, 95 per cent of the stovewood that comes into town is cut by farmers with timberlands — and as a sideline, not a main issue. These farmers are not going to get themselves tangled up in the snowstorm of government reports that are required from every business house these days. Therefore, they will not cut the customary amount of wood — and we predict that with the application of this "decree" production of fire wood of all kinds will drop off sharply — but then, that's government efficiency in business.

1942 Onion Set Ceilings
Temporary 80-day ceilings have been placed on the 1942 crop of onion sets by OPA at the highest levels at which sales were made by growers or merchandisers during the five days between February 10 and 14, 1943. Both commercial growers and "victory gardeners" will benefit by the regulation. The new ceilings reflect an average price to the grower of about $5 a bushel and are more than double the price paid during the 1937-41 seasons.

India produced about one per cent of the world's rubber before the war, but now accounts for 8 per cent of the natural rubber available to the United Nations.

Plenty Of Rubber Boots
Farmers, Miners and other users of rubber boots and rubber work shoes are assured an adequate supply for the summer months through an amendment to rationing regulations, announced by OPA. The amendment permits a registered retailer or distributor, by applying to his state OPA director, to increase his inventories when they are not sufficient to serve the needs of his customers.

RESUME OF BASKETBALL GAMES OF THIS SEASON

The following resume of the Kendrick Tigers basketball season to date is published for the benefit of the boys in the service — and at their request. It was prepared for us by Coach Armitage and members of the squad.

The Kendrick basketball season opened on December 1st, with the Tigers playing at Troy. Neither team was very successful in hitting the hoop and Kendrick came out on the short end of a 23-19 score. The starting lineup included: Walter McCall, Ossie Kanikkeberg, Sonny Daugherty, Bob Fraser and Teddy Deobald. Others playing were Eldon Baker and Charles Deobald. Kanikkeberg and Baker were high with 8 and 6 points respectively. The "B" squad won their game 20 to 4. Jordan Kanikkeberg was high with 8 points.

On December 8 Kendrick played host to Juliaetta. Coach Ross Armitage used 10 players during the game while Juliaetta used but five. The Tigers led all the way and the final score was 45-19. It was an exceptionally clean game, only 13 fouls being called.

The next game was at Lewiston with Lewiston. The Lewiston squad winning 32-22 in a hard-fought game. High scorer for the Tigers was Ossie Kanikkeberg, with 11 points.

Southwick came to Kendrick on Dec. 18. This proved to be a thrilling game, the final score being 28 to 23 in favor of the Tigers. Coach Armitage substituted freely, using 17 men. Southwick used but five. Ossie Kanikkeberg was high with 11 points.

Again victorious, Kendrick triumphed over Grangeville, rolling up 24 points to their 22. There were only 11 fouls committed in this game and Bob Fraser led the scoring with 8 points. The same night our "B" squad defeated the Juliaetta "A" squad 24 to 16. Jordan Kanikkeberg and Sonny Daugherty tying for top honors with four baskets each.

On January 5 the Tigers met Troy on the home floor and were successful, winning 25 to 12. Ossie Kanikkeberg was high point man with 8. The Kendrick "B" squad also downed the Troy "B" group 18-12. Junior Israel and Wally Newman shared top scoring honors.

Southwick and Kendrick tangled on the Southwick floor January 8, Kendrick winning this one 31-19. Kendrick "A" and "B" squads were hosts to Moscow's "A" and "B" squads on Jan. 12. Our "A" team dropped a close one, the final tally being 25-23, Moscow. The Moscow "B" squad also won, 36 to 19. Ossie Kanikkeberg led the Tiger "A" squad with 10 points, and Wally Newman the "B's" with 8 points.

January 15th was another lucky night for Kendrick, when they bested Culesac 39 to 18. The "B" squad, however, wasn't quite so lucky, and lost 10 to 14. Eldon Baker with 14 points and Dale Miller with 6 points were high scorers for the "A" and "B" squads respectively.

January 19, the Tigers journeyed to Genesee. Kendrick lost this game by one point, the score being 28-27. This is Kendrick's only conference loss. Fraser led his teammates with 7 points.

Kendrick defeated Asotin, in a non-conference game, Jan. 26, by a 31-27 score. Ossie Kanikkeberg led the scoring with 17 points. The "B" squad was "really hot" and won their game by a big margin. The score was 40-21. "Porky" Fry led with 12 points.

Kendrick visited Culesac on the 29th of January, to win 26-21. This was a fast, rough game, but only 20 fouls were called on both teams, combined. Ossie Kanikkeberg led the score with 14 points. The "B" squad was defeated 16-15. Jordan Kanikkeberg was high point man with 8. Feb. 2, Lewiston defeated Kendrick 31-27 in a hot contest. Kendrick led most of the game until the final two minutes of play. High point man was Ossie Kanikkeberg, Kendrick, with 10; Arnold, Lewiston, with 16.

Feb. 5 Lapwal defeated Kendrick on the Lapwal floor 27-21 in a fast, rough contest. Kanikkeberg led with 8 points.

Feb. 9 Kendrick defeated Juliaetta on their floor, 23-6. Half-time score was 7-2. Fraser led the scoring with 10 points.

Feb. 12, Kendrick defeated Gene, see on the local floor by a score of 23-18. Walt McCall led the scoring with 8 points.

Kendrick, in the B school class, has won all its home games. We have lost to Troy, Genesee and Lapwal on their floors. We lost four games to A class schools, but have run Lewiston a harder race than any school but Moscow.

In another column is found the opening games of the sub-district tournament at Lewiston.

As you all know, the sub-district and district basketball games have already been printed — so now everyone has a complete record of the year's basketball activities of the Kendrick Tigers — a record of which all may well be proud.

"Bill" Behrens Writes

In writing from Spokane to renew his subscription to the Gazette W. F. Behrens says, in part:

Accept this check for extension of the Gazette, which does a two-way job for us. First we read all its contents and then we mail the papers to our boys, Harold and Donald, in Honolulu, Hawaii. The boys say the papers are the most interesting mail they receive outside of letters from Pop and Mom. The two boys had a very hot experience in the Dec. 7th bombardment. Harold was awarded a citation from the war department for his services, just for what we were never able to find out. However, they say that they have worked 10 hours a day and seven days a week ever since, repairing and welding on damaged ships, and that if it helps to whip the Japs, they can take it.

Our last boy, Harry, recently reached the age of 18, and left for service in the army last Saturday.

And for myself, I can say I have lost only four days since last April in machine shops, building the thousands of different parts for battleships, tanks and planes. I do the work part of the time, but welding most of the time. I can say this, building much bean farming equipment in Kendrick, while I believe I could build a battleship by myself when I finish here.

After the war Mrs. Behrens and I will go back to our place at Elk City and retire. We have never lived in a better place. Just think Bill, when you get hungry there, grab a fish basket and fill it in the time it takes to get your car ready for that fishing trip in Kendrick. And, of course, there is hunting galore — all kinds. Then it has a nice climate (when it gets down to 56 below zero and stays there for weeks.) And, too, living costs are low — there is no sales tax — and the income tax won't bother us there.

This tax business reminds me of a little story. A little boy was sent to the store to get a half-dozen diapers for his mother. After the lady clerk wrapped the diapers and handed him the bundle, she said: "That is 47c and 3c tax." The little chap looked up and said: "Never mind the tax; mama uses safety pins!"

May Send Radio Messages

Families of Marines stationed in the south Pacific area are invited by the Office of War Information to send shortwave radio messages to their boys overseas.

The letters will be used on a nightly OWI radio program, "Tell It To The Marines," beamed to the South Pacific.

Eugene Cervi, Denver regional OWI director, said the messages should be between 100 and 200 words and should contain "chatty information" about the folks back home. The exact name and mailing address of the Marine, and the full name, address and relationship to the Marine of the person writing the letter should be stated. Messages will be accepted only to Marines whose rank is not higher than captain.

Messages from persons in Colorado, Wyoming, New Mexico, Utah, Idaho and Montana should be sent to the Denver Regional Office of War Information, 717 Kiltredge Bldg., Denver.

agriculture, food processing, mining, textiles, transportation, communications, heating, power and educational services are "war jobs," says the War Manpower commission. People must be housed, fed and clothed in wartime as well as in peace, and essential civilian workers are on an equal plane with workers in the basic war industries.

Power Commission Orders W. W. P. Co. to Give Up War Loads to Bonneville

Orders Company to Transmit Bonneville Power Though Company's Offer Would Save U. S. Money.

Despite the fact that the Washington Water Power company is ready and willing to furnish electric power for the new Fort George Wright pumping plant and the Baxter general hospital at a substantial over-all saving to the government, the company yesterday was summarily ordered by the federal power commission to allow the Bonneville administration to use the Water Power lines to transmit Bonneville power to the projects, it was announced by Kinsey M. Robinson, president. The order is understood to be the first of its kind issued under the President's war-time directives of September 26 and October 22, 1942.

Ordered at Bonneville Request.

The order was executed, according to the federal power commission, "on request of the Bonneville power administration for commission action to require the Washington Water Power company to transmit and deliver electric energy for the account of Bonneville, to supply certain war establishments at Spokane."

"This kind of order shows how two bureaucratic agencies will lend each other a helping hand to circumvent a contract entered into by one of them, presumably in good faith, in an effort to promote the sale of Bonneville power at the expense of private enterprise," said Mr. Robinson.

Would Have Saved $4400 Yearly.

"The Washington Water Power company is prepared to serve these loads itself at an estimated annual saving to the United States government of $4400, as against the procedure required in this order. It is, therefore, very apparent that the federal power commission is willing to go to any length to promote the interests of the Bonneville power administration and the expansion of public power in this area, at the expense of the taxpayers and War Bond buyers of the country.

"We, on the other hand, would like to serve these war establishments and see the $4400 annual saving invested in ammunition to supply, among others, the 193 employees of this company now in the armed forces.

Estimated Power Needs.

"Based on information supplied us by the army engineers, we have estimated the use of the Fort George Wright pump at 500 kilowatts and the Baxter hospital at 700 kilowatts, with a total annual energy use of 6,420,000 kilowatt hours.

"If the company supplied these loads it would, on the average, pay Bonneville annually $8000 for dump energy purchasable under our present interchange contract for dump energy, which it would not buy if Bonneville supplied these loads. Also, if the company supplied these loads, it would pay an income tax of $16,000 on this business, which Bonneville would not pay if it supplied them. Correcting for this payment for dump power and income tax, the government would have a saving of $4400, exclusive of transmission charges, by purchase from the company compared to being supplied by Bonneville.

Pay More to Punish W. W. P.

"The intent of the federal power commission to force the Washington Water Power company to allow the tax-free, subsidized Bonneville project to use the lines of the local company to furnish power at higher cost to the government, is unmistakable by the terms of the order under which the commission directs that:

"(a) The Water Power transmits and delivers for the account of Bonneville electric energy to the extent hereinafter specified as may be required for the aforesaid pumping station and hospital of the war department at Spokane, Wash., during the present war emergency and 90 days after the cessation of hostilities, unless otherwise ordered by the commission.

"(b) The acts to be done pursuant to this order shall be initiated immediately and carried forward without delay, and in no event shall they be delayed pending determination of the terms or conditions of any agreement between the parties affected."

"Abuses War-Time Powers."

In this connection, Mr. Robinson stated, "The Washington Water Power company and the Bonneville administration now have a power interchange contract under which the company agrees to transmit Bonneville power for new government owned and operated strictly war-time loads if each such load is more than 750 kilowatts. The Fort Wright pumping and Baxter hospital loads are separate and unrelated loads, neither of which qualifies under the contract. The federal power commission, at the request of the Bonneville administration, is now using its war-time powers to force us to transmit Bonneville power to loads less than those contemplated by the contract supposedly signed in good faith by the Bonneville administration."

Following receipt of the Power Commission's order the Washington Water Power company telegraphed the Commission protesting the order and asking for a hearing.

TEAKEAN GOSSIP

The March weather is holding out pretty good — or bad, rather. We are having snow flurries with quite a lot of wind. We were hoping the worst was over, but we are still guessing.
 Merton Preussler has been going about on crutches, with a crippled leg, but is now improving rapidly.
 Mrs. Merton Preussler and her children spent last Saturday at the Don Miller home. She helped Mrs. Miller tie a comforter.
 Mrs. Wm. Groseclose called on Mrs. Don Miller Monday afternoon. Mrs. Carroll Groseclose was pleasantly surprised by a visit from her brother, Ray Harless, last week. He has a two-week furlough. He enlisted in the army about four years ago and had not been home all that time. He has been in the Hawaiian Islands and was at Pearl Harbor.
 Rev. Enoch Willman of Leland visited Sunday night and Monday at the Wm. Groseclose home. He took a load of folks in his car to the meeting at Cavendish Sunday evening — which was the last night of the meetings.
 The members of the Ladies Aid put a quilt in the frames last week for Mrs. Earl Choate and quilted on it one day. They will finish it this week and also do some other work.
 J. A. Harless has gone to the hot springs at Riggins. Grover Groseclose is staying at his place doing the chores while he is away.
 Clarence Chanin writes that he may return to Idaho in the spring.
 Mr. and Mrs. Earl Choate expect to move to the Lloyd VanAirdside house this spring and do the farming there.

KENDRICK, IDAHO

THE OLD JUDGE SAYS...

"How do you feel about this idea of stopping 'em from selling liquor anywhere near army camps, Judge?"

"I was just talking about that with Will down at the barber shop about ten minutes ago. Tell you what I told him, Ned. I say it's up to the Army to decide. Why should we walk in and tell the Army how to do its job

...any more than I should tell you how to about putting out a fire? And here's something that strikes me funny. All this worrying seems to be about the boys' conduct around the camps here in this country. You never hear a word of worrying about them drinking when they go abroad. Kind of queer, isn't it, Ned?"

Potlatch Chief Sez

PUBLISHED BY THE KENDRICK CO-OPERATIVE CREAMERY

WE WANT MORE CREAM — THE NATION NEEDS BUTTER!

Maybe it seems we're getting a bit monotonous advertising for more and more cream — but folks, not only do we need that cream to supply the ever increasing demand for "Potlatch Chief" butter, but the nation needs that butter.

Without that cream, we can't make butter, without that butter our nation is short just that many more pounds in meeting the needs of our fighting forces and our allies — so folks, don't waste a drop of cream. Bring it in and do your bit in helping our nation on the road to victory — as well as helping your own pocketbook.

"Bread is the staff of life" says an old proverb — but without butter it's pretty dry eating.

A sign in a Seattle restaurant reads: "Be nice to our waitresses, we can get plenty of customers."

Husband (feeling a twinge in the back while he is tuning in the radio): "I believe I'm getting lumbago."

Wife: "What's the use, dear? You won't be able to understand a word they say."

Historians say that women used cosmetics in the middle ages. For that matter, women in the middle ages still use them.

Betty: "Last night George gave me his heart."

Ruth: "Well, he gave you damaged goods, dearie, because the night before he told me I'd broken it."

Doris: "Now that I'm getting fat and gray-haired, I have to do all the housework."

Dora: "Can't your husband afford to have a maid come in?"

Doris: "He can, but I can't!"

And don't forget — we want to buy your cream!

WORD FROM LOCAL MEN IN OUR ARMED FORCES

Richmond, Va. March 1, 1943

Dear Mac and Bill:
Am dropping you a few lines to let you know my new address. I was stationed at Washington, D. C., for two weeks, and I surely did like it there. That is the best place I've been since I've been in the army. Our company certainly hated to leave that city. We certainly were treated fine and the "chuck" was good. I'm sure we can't brag about the "chuck" here, but it is getting somewhat better.

I received a copy of the Gazette today and was sure glad to get it. The paper went to Washington, D. C., and then followed me here, so am enclosing my new address. As soon as I finish writing this letter I'm going to read that paper. I made it back on time from my furlough, alright. I still had about 10 hours left before being classed AWOL. There are a lot of Idaho boys down here, and there isn't a one of them that likes this country, and I sure can't blame them, but don't believe we will be stationed here very long — I hope not.

We are having fine weather here. I saw a robin yesterday, so spring must be pretty close.

Well, Bill, it's getting pretty close to taps, so will have to close. Thanks again for the paper — and say "hello" to everyone for me.
Sincerely
Pvt. Charles C. Cox.

Somewhere in England January 27, 1943

Hello Mac and Bill:
I received your first paper the other day — and I surely want to thank you for it.

John Pavel, who has lived in Southwick, is in the same outfit, and we both get a lot of enjoyment in reading what the people at home are doing.

I was on a trip to London the other day, and saw some of the places that were bombed, and it was quite a sight to see.

I wouldn't want to get lost in London, as the place is so large and has so many streets!

Again, thanks a lot for the paper and tell everybody "Hello."
Yours
Hugh McDowell.

P. S.: The beer isn't as good here as it is at home.
Denver, Colorado March 11, 1943

Dear Mac:
I have been getting the paper regularly, and I surely do appreciate it. I have a different address now. I'm in a good state for a change, and after spending two months in Texas I hope I never have to go back there. I never saw anything but sand there — and it was in the air most of the time.

I'm a radio-gunner in a B-24 outfit. It's a "pretty good racket" and I get to see lots of country, as we fly most of the time. We were at L. A., California, a few days ago on coastal patrol.

Kendrick must have had a good basketball team this year. I got a letter from mother today and she said that they finally lost out at Lewiston.

Well, Mac, I'm about out of news, so will just give you my new address and close.
Sincerely
Sgt. Jay L. Armitage.

Merced Field, Calif. March 9, 1943

Dear Mac:
I really believe it's time I was writing you a few lines again, and thanking you for the home paper. I really enjoy reading it very much, and most of all, the letters from the other boys. It lets me know where they are and what is going on. I also want to make a change in my address, so I can get the paper a day or so earlier.

So thanks again for the paper, and for this time I'll sign off.
Sincerely yours
Sgt. Elgin W. Flesham.

Oceanside, Calif. March 10, 1943

Dear Mac:
I have been receiving the Gazette for some time now, and I really enjoy it and appreciate your sending it. I would like very much to have you send it to the above address.
I have finished "boot camp" and moved near the ocean to train on these amphibian (land and water) tractors. I really like it fine and hope I'm across soon transporting cargo and troops — and again thanks for the home town news, as it really helps to "keep the chin up."

Sincerely yours
Pvt. Everett L. Farrington.

Oceanside, Calif. March 10, 1943

Dear Evelyn:
Landed here today and am now going to an amphibian tank school — that is a tractor that goes on water and land, too. Am stationed about 200 yards from the ocean, and it's a pretty big "puddle."

Our platoon helped make a bunch of scenes for a picture named "A Salute to the Marines," starring Wallace Beery and Marilyn Miller. If you get a chance to see it don't miss it, because I'm in there.

Yesterday, down at the base, we were out on the parade grounds and we heard something go "bang." We looked up and two interceptors or P-38s, collided in the air. Well, the tail of one fell off, and the propeller of the other came down through the mess hall. Both pilots bailed out. One captain got an arm cut off, and a hole torn in his chute. He was dead when he hit the ground — the other pilot landed safely. Well, we had to run like hell to keep from getting hit.

The two planes hit the concrete and dug a hole about 2 feet deep. They landed about 20 feet apart, and both burned pretty well up — and you should have heard the shells go off! Luckily, they didn't have any bombs.

As ever
Everett Farrington.

From Mrs. Roy Swanson comes these interesting letters, written by her son, Don Kuykendall, U. S. N. Somewhere At Sea January 3, 1943

Dear Mother:
I don't have anything to do so I think I will drop you a line. I'm O. K., but sure would like to come home on a leave.

What is the news around there? Does Lawrence and his family come to see you very often?

I haven't seen Roy for six weeks and don't believe I will get to see him for quite a while. He sure is a swell guy.
Does Jimmy ever tell anything about what he is doing in Australia? I'll bet he is having the time of his life. I surely had a swell time when I was there. The people certainly treat you fine — and I don't believe I would mind living there.
Your son
Don Kuykendall.

At Sea

I got five letters from you the other day. I haven't seen Roy since December, but we sure had a lot of fun then. I don't know when I will see him again.

I can't send Lorry or Stanley anything for a while, but the next chance I get I will send them back something nice. Tell Stanley I will send him something he can give his girl as soon as I get a chance.
I got that card, and it sure is nice. I still get the Kendrick paper, and there sure is lots of news in it.
Love
Don Kuykendall.

Pvt. Earl Harris returned to Fort Warren, Wyoming, Sunday, after spending a two-week furlough at the home of his parents, Mr. and Mrs. Bud Harris, and with friends and relatives. Earl looks the picture of health, says he doesn't mind army life, but doesn't like the Wyoming country — too much sand and wind.

Company Drill Held
Company 2-K-1 I. V. R. held regular drill at the gymnasium Monday evening, with but 16 present.

At the conclusion of the drill it was announced that new and rigid attendance rules had been issued by the state headquarters, and that a goodly number who are at present members of the organization were in danger of discharge unless they began immediate attendance.

So it is urged that everyone who has signed up for this organization make an effort to be present at the next drill (Monday evening of next week) and each drill thereafter.
