ents rolled into one weapon. Quentin stated that he used a Japanese light machine gun for three and and half days while on Dear Mac and Bill: the island, finally abondoning it for lack of Jap ammunition. He picked I am receiving the Gazette O. K., the gun up from a dead Jap gunner, and after becoming acquainted with and certainly do appreciate it. The natives are very friendly to the American troops, and hate the Japs, but leave the fighting strictly to Idaho, however again for the paper. our forces.

Quentin's picture appeared in Life bor, in a bomber, from Brisbane, also in "Time" magazine, both pictures being taken while on duty in the islands.

In speaking of the Japs he stated merce will hold their annual spring the Americans considered them as meeting at the Lewis-Clark Hotel, rats, snake, or other vermin, and Lewiston, June 18 and 19. The prorats, shake, or other vermin, and conversation at the camps often ran like this: "Have any luck today?" "Yeah, I got three," or "I got two for sure and maybe a sniper." He further stated that it was a fact that the Japs had used women as in the state of the state o snipers, he personally having seen one that had been shot from a tree. Among Quentin's fondest memories is a trip, made prior to Pearl Harbor, in a bomber, from Brisbane, Australia, to Saigon, French Indo China, and thence to Manila, Philippine Islands. All of Quentin's Jap souveniers were lost in a ship sinking — a fact which he hates very much. On leaving Tuesday he stated he hoped to obtain further leave, and if possible, would return again to Kendrick to visit with friends. Although his parents live at Walla Walla, Quentin states he still looks upon Kendrick as his home.
