KENDRICK LOCALS AND PERSONALS TWENTY YEARS AGO

Mrs. M. V. Thomas went to Spokane the first of the week for a few days' visit.

Artyle Hollada of Moscow visited at the Callison home on American ridge the first of the week.

Some of the local tennis fans couldn't wait until spring for their tennis court, so proceeded to build one last week. It is now almost completed and will be a first-class court. It is located between the McDowell building and the Farmers Bank.

To one not used to the grades in this country, the process of steering a four-horse team and a big grain wagon around the curves and over the steep places is apparently enough to keep one man occupied. Dave Schoeffler of Cameron is going it one better by hitching a trailer behind his wagon. He has a 'brake' rigged on the rear wagon so that he can control it from the front wagon and thus brings in two loads of wheat instead of one every time he comes to town to deliver his grain.

Wm. Freytag returned Thursday from a business trip to Lewiston.

E. Goudzward of Leland returned home Thursday afternoon from a visit with relatives in the east.

J. M. Woodward of Leland stopped in Kendrick a short time Thursday morning on his way to Moscow, where he went with several of his neighbors to purchase a bean separator. He said he hauled in his threshing outfit Wednesday night, having finished the season's run of grain threshing. The average for the season was about 1,000 sacks a day for 21 days, which is considered very good. Mr. Woodward threshed eight acres of sweet clover and got 73 sacks of good, clean seed from the patch. He expects to seed a larger acreage to sweet clover next spring. The straw from the threshed clover will make excellent cow feed, as Mr. Woodward said the separate teeth ground up the stalks very fine. He thinks the stalks will be equal to alfalfa hay for stock. In the Fairview section of Potlatch ridge everyone is busy cutting beans, and Mr. Woodward expects to start his bean thrasher the latter part of next week.

Two good wheat yields were reported last week, one on American ridge and the other on Bear ridge. Fifty-two bushels to the acre was threshed on the M. V. Thomas place, farmed by Wm. Cox. On the Kleth farm on Bear ridge, the same yield of 52 bushels was threshed. In both instances Jenkins Club wheat was raised.

Miss Henretta Blum left for Genesee Wednesday where she will assist her cousin, Mrs. Carl Flomer in the cook house.

Bertha Hartung assisted Mrs. O. W. Henry last week in cooking for the threshing crew.

Miss Johanna Hesby of Deary is spending the week on the ridge visiting friends.

Miss Alma Swanson spent several days last week in the Kleth home.

Mr. and Mrs. Wallace Emmett brought their son, Roy, home from the Lewiston hospital last Sunday.

Mr. and Mrs. Ira Havens and children of American ridge visited in the Wade Keene home Sunday.

Stony Point News — Mr. and Mrs. Cushman Davis were Sunday dinner guests in the Davis home, near Kendrick.

Miss Lillie Heimgartner came home Tuesday from Fix ridge, where she has been visiting.

Leslie and Earl Heimgartner helped Cleis Holsington haul hay last week.

Anthony Brown spent Sunday at the George Dygert home.

Mrs. Leonard Fairfield returned home on Sunday from Moscow.

This week will about close up the threshing on Potlatch ridge. The grain is good this season, the fall wheat yielding from 42 to 50 bushels per acre on summerfallow ground. Spring wheat yield is from 30 to 38 bushels, some second and third crops.

Miss Mabel Heimgartner left Tuesday for Fix ridge, where she will help Mrs. Will Heimgartner cook for threshers.

Farmers here are cutting and piling beans this week.

Crescent Clippings — Mr. and Mrs. J. E. Long ate dinner with Mrs. E. J. Wells at Southwick, Friday.

Frank Souders and children and Mrs. F. A. Burk and children were visitors in the Ed. Darby home at Linden Saturday.

Word From Son

Ira Foster is in receipt of the following letter from his son, Fred M. Foster, and kindly allowed us to publish it, as follows:

Somewhere in Algeria August 22, 1943

Dear Dad:

This leaves me feeling fine but for the sun, dust, wind and heat. Here is a picture of some of the company in Algeria. I haven't been able to locate Allen (cousin) yet, as they change replacements rather fast, but am still in hopes.

There are lots of quail and Pheasants here — also saw a flock of magpies yesterday. The Arabs have some fine looking horses. They live in the tent or house with the family and seem in some cases to receive better treatment than the children, receiving a good water bath two or three times a week, and water is scarce, having to be packed for as much as 10 miles on the back of burros or camels in kegs and goat skins.

Burros here are rather roughly treated, most of them being covered with saddle sores and scabs sometimes the full length of the back bone.

Well, I will close with love to all. As ever, your son
Fred M. Foster.

Don't forget—the third War Loan Bonds are on sale right now!

To the People of this Community:

DRIVE DEPENDS ON YOU!

Would you take a free ride on a wounded soldier's back? That's exactly what you would be doing if you did not do your duty in the Third War Loan.

Your idle weight would be felt by him on the battlefield. Every civilian counts in this kind of war.

Every civilian must make his energy and his dollars work for victory.

Keep in mind that while our national goal in this drive is 16 billions of dollars, this money is being borrowed from you and you and you. You are, as an individual, the deciding factor as to whether we reach this goal.

An extra $100 War Bond becomes an extra rifle, extra bullets and extra fighting power of every type.

FUNERAL SERVICES HELD FOR SGT. HERVIC O. WITTMAN

Funeral services were held Saturday, August 4, at the Catholic church in Southwick, at 10:00 a. m. for Sgt. Hervic O. Wittman, who gave his life in the services of his country, with the Rev. Father Francis Bonora, in charge.

MORE ABOUT ARMED FORCES

Ensign John Wallace. P. S. — I kinda like the feel of these wings.
John: Ernie Brammer is believed to be stationed in that state, but is the only one we know of. Perhaps your folks can send you his address and vice versa.

Across the Atlantic August 14, 1943

Dearest Mom and All: Well, it's been quite a while since I wrote you a letter, so I thought I would write a few lines this afternoon to let you know that I am still all right, and let you know the change in my APO number. We have moved to another place now, but it's about the same here as it was down there, but it isn't as dusty. We were called out to a little fire this morning, but it didn't amount to anything — just the grass around a poplar tree. Our section didn't even use our equipment, but we were there just the same. It's the only fire we've had.

My mail hasn't caught up with me yet, but I don't think it will be too long now before it does. You might let them know at the Gazette office that my APO number has changed. I may get around to write them a few lines later on, but right now I've got quite a lot of letter writing to do. This is the first I have written for two weeks, so will have to catch up a little first. Well, I'm about out of space and anything to say, so will sign off for this time. Hoping you are all O. K. With lots of love Marvin.

The above letter was very kindly loaned by Mrs. Mattie Garner of Cedar ridge.

According to a Lewiston news item in the Lewiston Tribune, Dale A. Miller, son of Mrs. Zelma Baker of Headquarters, enlisted in the navy on September 3, at Lewiston, and was immediately assigned to Faragut for "boot" training.

Dale is a graduate of the Kendrick High school with the class of 1943, having attended here for two years.
Good luck, Dale.

From the Army Air Forces, Manhattan, Kansas, comes the following official dispatch: John C. Keeler, 22, of Kendrick, Idaho, son of Mr. and Mrs. Charles Keeler, Kendrick, has arrived at Kansas State College for a course of Army Air Force instruction lasting approximately five months prior to his appointment as an Aviation Cadet in the army air forces. During this period he will take numerous academic courses, as well as elementary flying. Upon completion of the course he will be classified as a pilot, navigator or bombardier and go on to schools of the Flying Training Command for training in these specialties.
Congratulations — Johnny.

Thursday morning of last week S-Sgt. and Mrs. Elgin W. Flesman, who are stationed at Merced, Calif., arrived here for a visit with friends and relatives. That afternoon his brother, Sgt. Melvin V. Flesman, Sallina, Kansas, arrived, and that evening, Pfc. Elwin C. Flesman, another brother, stationed at Sacramento, Calif., arrived in Kendrick for a visit with relatives and friends. A real get-together was enjoyed by all.

Pfc. Lloyd Israel arrived in Kendrick Tuesday from Fort Leonard Wood, Missouri, on furlough, but must report back by September 17. Lloyd came into the Gazette early Wednesday morning to thank us for the paper. He says that other than a letter from the folks it's the most welcome thing a soldier can receive.

This is Lloyd's first trip home since entering the service, and he, with Pfc. Don Fry and Seaman Eldon "Tup" Baker, were really having a "gab fest" Tuesday afternoon. It seems mighty fine to see the boys at home and enjoying themselves after months of rigorous training.

Indirect word received from Deryl Ingle is to the effect that he is now on regular pilot training, that he is well and likes his studies.

Keep in the scrap by giving your scrap.

FIFTH UNITED STATES INFANTRYMEN, whiskered veterans of Indian wars, helped celebrate when east and west lines of the Northern Pacific Railway were joined in Gold Creek, Montana, September 8, 1883. This original line was the first of the northern transcontinentals, destined in later years to become nationally famous as "The Main Street of the Northwest."

ROUGH RIDERS, organized by Theodore Roosevelt in 1898 to fight the Spaniards in Cuba, included many cowboys and frontiersmen from western North Dakota, where "Teddy" had ranches in the '80s. As they traveled the Main Street of the Northwest, they saw a country vastly changed from the wilderness through which Northern Pacific tracks were pushed fifteen years before.

"UNITED STATES VOLUNTEERS", organized for the purpose, traveled the Northern Pacific in 1899 on their way to fight in the Philippines, where Aguinaldo had declared war on the United States. This year of 1899 saw tremendous increase in sales of Northwestern land to individual settlers, was the busiest and most prosperous twelve months the Northern Pacific Railway had experienced since its birth.

DOUGHBOYS OF WORLD WAR I, alert western lads from forests, orchards, mines, farms and factories of the Northwest, rode Northern Pacific trains in 1917. Their Northwest had grown up since Spanish War days. Population had increased 50 per cent. Livestock values had more than tripled. Revenue from farm crops had jumped 448 per cent. And the output of manufacturing plants had spiraled from $390,000,000 a year to $2,618,575,000!

TODAY, soldiers, sailors and marines, as never before and, God willing, never again, are moving east and west on the Northern Pacific to fight our country's enemies all over the globe. More than 3,500 Northern Pacific men and women have joined them in the armed services. Our remaining employees are serving vital war needs by rushing men and materials where they are needed—hauling wartime necessities for servicemen, allies and civilians—and keeping war plants supplied with vital materials.

THIS IS OUR 60TH ANNIVERSARY
BUT WE'RE TOO BUSY TO CELEBRATE

We would like, this month, to celebrate the Northern Pacific Railway's sixty years of service to the Northwest.

The record of this railway tells a colorful story of achievement in helping turn a wilderness into a proud and prosperous empire.

But 1943 is no time for celebration of past accomplishments. We're much too busy doing the biggest job we've ever had.

For the duration, therefore, we'll keep the troops and the long freights rolling along the Main Street of the Northwest—and save celebration for the day peace comes again.

Double Feature At Theatre

This week's offering at the local theatre will be another double feature. The first of these is entitled "Desert Victory," an official U. S. army film of the fighting in the North Africa invasion — and should prove of intense interest to all. It is not a propaganda film, but the real thing. Actually taken during the fighting.

The second offering is a rollicking comedy, "Over My Dead Body." This film stars Milton Berle and Mary Beth Hughes.

In addition the usual cartoon will make its appearance.

CREAM FURNISHES A VITAL WAR-TIME FOOD

As our fighting forces expand butter for their use becomes a greater and greater necessity, and more and more cream is required. Potlatch Chief butter, of course, is no exception to this rule, and we too must have more and more cream in order to keep our production on the upgrade. So don't waste a drop of cream, bring it in, together with that of your neighbor, in order that our flow of butter may not fall off. Of course, you too, will benefit by bringing it to us. Co-operative, or pool selling, will bring you a real price. If you are not already a member here, drop in and talk it over with us.

WORD FROM LOCAL MEN IN OUR ARMED FORCES

Second Lieut. Clifford M. Woodward, Army Air Corps, who has been stationed in New Mexico, called at the Gazette office Wednesday afternoon of last week to thank all concerned for the Gazette. Lieut. Woodward is here on furlough pending assignment to a post of duty. He states he loves flying, and believes he will have something of real value to fall back on when the war ends. Like all the boys he is tanned and looks fit and ready for anything.

He has been spending his furlough with his parents, Mr. and Mrs. J. M. Woodward, Leland, and with other friends and relatives.

Lieut. Robert J. Alexander, U. S. Army Air Corps, who is stationed in California, spent from Friday until Monday with his parents, Mr. and Mrs. Louis Alexander, Cedar ridge. Lieut. Alexander flew a bomber up from California to Moscow on official business, and was met in Moscow by his parents.

Bob called at the Gazette Monday before leaving to thank us for the Gazette, and to examine the Jap battle flag hanging in our window. Bob states that the longer he stays with army flying the more he is convinced the Army Air Corps is the best in the world, and our planes second to none. He also states he has seen a number of the new models soon to go into quantity production and that they will give our flyers an even greater superiority.

Don Fry and Theodore Dorendorf, U. S. Army, left the first of the week to report at Camp Claiborne, La., following a 16-day furlough spent at their homes here. Both boys are as "brown as coffee berries," but have not put on much weight. They stated that the pounds they gained when they first entered the army, were soon lost on the maneuvers in Louisiana, the heat "just rolling them off." Both said home and home-cooked meals seemed mighty good. Both missed their friends their age at home — almost all of whom are also in the armed services.

Pleasanton, Calif.
August 31, 1943

Dear Mac and Friends:
Was a bit surprised to receive the Gazette today. Since you were so kind to send it to me, I must write and let you know my new address. I've been stationed here seven weeks now, but every day have expected to be transferred — and it's that way, yet. The place is an outgoing-unit center and expect to be shipped across any day.

I believe, by all the letters I've written, most of my friends know of my transfer.

I'll not say anything against California, yet I'll not say anything for it. I really don't mind it here, but I'm getting pretty anxious to go across. No advancement is possible here, as I'm not in Ship's company, but I'm sure of a rate when I get across.

My stay at Farragut was most enjoyable. Now that I'm away from it I'll be glad to go across to do my share — as every sailor is.

In my work across I know I will see sights that will not be pleasant, but I'll be glad I'm there to help — and to do my work for those who need it.

I've been asked if I have seen any of the Juliaetta or Kendrick boys, and "no" is the answer. In fact, my pals are from New York, West Virginia, Ohio, Illinois, etc. None even from the west.

Again I must thank you most sincerely for the Gazette. Please continue sending it here until I write and let you know different.

May God bless all the home folks and those who are across.

As ever,
Lester C. Slead, HA 1-c
P. S. — Letters from home are always appreciated.

Davisville, R. I.
September 2, 1943

Dear Mac and Bill:

Well I'm sure finding out what "makes the navy tick" these days. It isn't so bad now that I have gotten acquainted and "settled."

Please send me the paper, because I surely miss the home town news. Thanking you in advance.

Sincerely,
Joe Langdon, S 1-c

August 24, 1943

Dear Friends:

I have been receiving the Gazette for over a year now, and really appreciate it. They reach me very irregularly, as nerly all our mail does, but all is mighty welcome when it does get here.

It gets mighty hot down in this country, but cools off in the evenings, which helps a lot. I dream of those old hills and pine trees of Idaho every day — I haven't seen a good shade tree since leaving there.

Thanks again for the paper. I enjoy reading the other boys' letters and all the other news, so thought I had better drop you a line.

Tell the farmers there to keep those old beans rolling — they taste mighty good over here.

A friend
Sgt. John D. Jones.

August 16, 1943

Dear Bill:

There has been a slight change in my address, so decided to drop you a few lines, so that the paper may not be delayed any more than necessary. I have received about six copies, and they are just like long letters from home — although they are a month or two behind.

The first part of the paper I read are the letters from the boys in service. It's nice to know where they are — and maybe, some day, meet up with one of them.

In closing, I want to say thanks, and that I'm looking forward to the next copy.

Sincerely,
Sgt. Arnold J. Halseth

Lake City, Florida
August 27, 1943

Dear Macs:

At last I've ended up in the beautiful land of Florida, and after looking it over I'm inclined to think that California has some really stiff competition.

I am located at an operational base for advanced flying in twin-motors. It's really swell here and everyone seems to like it very much. It's hard to say how long I'll be here or where I'll go next, but, regardless, I surely hope the Gazette keeps coming as it has in the past. It would be hard to get much further from home and still be in the states, which doesn't help to make me miss Kendrick or my friends less. I'd give almost anything to run onto some kids that are from around Kendrick, but it seems to never be my luck.

Thanks again for the paper, and please send it to the address below:
Yours

Let Us Be Your Harvest Grocery!

Vegetables

From present indications a goodly assortment of Fresh Vegetables will be available to help you with planning your harvest-time meals — and of course they are not rationed. They are wholesome and health-giving. Use lots of them.

Cereals

Cereals, too, are on the non-rationed list — and you'll make those harvest hands smile by serving them stacks of piping hot hot-cakes — or perhaps big bowls of hot or cold cereals with plenty of eggs, and fruit for breakfast.

Meats, Fresh and Cured

Frankly, the meat situation is desperate — but we will do our best to fill your harvest requirements of cured or fresh meats — with the best the market affords.

Drops Bombs—Gathers Corn
When the B-24 Liberator Bomber, "Lemondrop", of the U.S. Army Ninth Air Force came back from its mission of bombing Rumanian Oil Refineries at Ploesti, corn stalks were clinging to its bomb bay doors. The bombardier, Captain Herbert Light, Ames, Iowa, observed: "Why, back in Iowa you'd have to fly 25 feet off the ground to get above the corn tops. No risks involved in that. But when you're heading for a target in the Rumanian oil and corn country, you've got to tear along about six feet off the ground to skim the corn tops."
Oyster production in this country totals 89,000,000 pounds annually. Fifty years ago it was 1,882,000,000 pounds annually.

Lightning

Is said never to strike twice in the same place!

That statement may or may not be true — we wouldn't argue with anyone about it — but a lightning disaster can overtake your car, truck, tractor or combine unless properly lubricated and cared for.

HERE'S OUR SUGGESTION:
Protect that motor with an oil filter that really filters — A Fram — then drain it, refill with Standard RPM, DELO OR STANDARD PENN MOTOR OILS. In fact, use our Lubricants throughout and feel you've done your level best to protect that Motor and other fine equipment — do it today!
