Technicolor Production
This week's offering at the local theatre will be entitled "Coney Island." It's a story of that famous place of fun near New York City, and is said to be as full of fun as its namesake — and it's all in technicolor.
The stars are Betty Grable, George Montgomery and Cesar Romero.
It's based on the fun, the music, the songs and dances and romance of that spot.
The usual cartoon and shorts will round out the evening's entertainment.

Stop That Rumor

Every American can help to win this war by toughening his mind and ears. Every American can help to win this war by refusing to believe or repeat sensational stories which are not carried in the newspapers or over the radio. Every American can fight the enemy by refusing to spread suspicion and hate in the United States.

There are several simple rules which each American can observe:
1. Never repeat a rumor.
2. Do not repeat a rumor verbally even to deny it.
3. If you know the facts which can spike a rumor, cite the facts promptly.
4. If you do not know the facts which can stop a rumor, ask the rumor-teller where he got his facts.

6. Don't give a rumor the benefit of any doubt.

Now-a-days we take what we can get in most matters — and nobody says a word — so why not buy it from someone you know or who knows you? Aren't you more apt to get a dollar-for-dollar value?

Probably the reason retribution is late in coming to every man who deserves it is that the field is so great retribution is a little slow in getting around.

Careless habits can ruin your life. Be careful.

Red Cross Field Men Tackle Yanks' Problems Overseas

On Masera Island, up in the Persian Gulf, where there is not a single tree standing and the wind blows across the island ceaselessly, Red Cross field men brought fishing tackle, books and writing paper to service men. Most welcome gift from the Red Cross was clippers for hair cutting—the boys had been without a barber for months.

In Persia, a Red Cross Field Director was able to locate a soldier's mother whom he hadn't seen for 25 years.
In Africa, Red Cross field men flew in Army planes, hitch-hiked in supply trucks, bumped in jeeps over bombed convoy routes, through blinding sand storms and glaring sun to help men with personal problems and emergency communications, and to deliver magazines and books, cigarettes and chocolate to isolated posts and bases.

In Italy, Red Cross field men accompanied the troops in on the invasion barges.

In India, a sergeant was sentenced to the guard house for disorderly conduct. His officer couldn't understand the boy's behavior. He was a nice kid—he'd never gone to pieces before.
The officer asked the Red Cross Field Director to see him. The Red Cross man discovered a very worried boy. His wife had not been receiving his allotments, she wasn't well and needed an operation. She thought the soldier must have cancelled his allotments and a misunderstanding had arisen between them so that she was no longer writing him.

The field man got in touch with the Red Cross chapter in the boy's home town immediately. It took care of her, financed her operation and saw that she had adequate funds to provide for herself until the allotment again came through.

When the Red Cross man explained what had happened to the soldier's Commanding Officer, the latter promptly released the boy from the guard house. From then on the boy was all right. His worries were over, and the Army had gained a good fighting man.

All over the world, in every theatre of war and active battle front go the American Red Cross field men—helping soldiers with major and minor personal problems, bringing them recreational items such as magazines, books, comfort articles, athletic equipment, and re-establishing their contact with home. These men share the conditions and hazards under which the soldiers fight. They also share their lives. They are on call day and night whenever they are needed.

G.I.'s overseas have many problems. Often home seems very, very far away. With the Red Cross there at hand wherever he may be, the soldier knows he can always get in touch with home—that he need never feel alone with problems he doesn't know how to solve himself. More than 3,000,000 service men passed through Red Cross field men's offices last year.

On the mud clogged roads of Italy, through the far jungles of New Guinea, on lonely desert posts, Red Cross field men take your place beside your boy. In order to continue this service, the Red Cross urgently needs contributions from the American people to its $200,000,000 War Fund drive this month.

George Can't Do It
The illusion that government is Santa Claus, if not already dispelled, soon will be. The President is asking for more billions in taxes, and Senator George, chairman of the Senate Finance Committee, has bluntly warned that "any large increase must fall on the middle-income brackets and down to $2,500 and $3,000. The truth is that of our national income (now at 140 billions) some 91 billions goes to people in the lower brackets—people whose income is $3,000 or less."

Any public official who inspires the belief that the rich can be made to pay for the war is doing a disservice to his country. This war must be paid for by the whole people. If an attempt is made to grant tax favors to one group at the expense of another, the result can be none other than disastrous. The tax burden is growing so heavy that unless it is distributed equitably, individual opportunity and the incentive to produce will be destroyed. If that happens, a farce will have been made of democratic government—a farce that will collapse under the weight of its own injustice, taking with it the liberties of all of us. When new tax bills are drawn, the old dodge of "Let George do it," won't work. George can't do it. Tax bills are drawn, the old dodge of "Let George do it," won't work. George can't do it.

Boys and Girls - FLY YOUR KITES AND HAVE FUN but REMEMBER THESE

Safety Rules

1. Stay away from streets and highways and electric lines when flying kites.
2. Never use tinsel string or wire for a kite line. Wet string is dangerous, too, because it conducts electricity.
3. Don't climb poles or trees to knock down kites caught in wires.

EGGS — EGGS — EGGS

Since we are fast coming to the maximum production period for eggs, perhaps a few reminders on the care of this essential food item is not out of place.

1. Always pack eggs with the small end down. This prevents the yolk from settling into the air cell at the large end of the egg.
2. In using flats, always put the cup in the flat; the small end of the egg rests in this cup.
3. Never use water to clean eggs, as this water is absorbed through the shell and will cause mold. Use a piece of fine emery cloth tacked on a flat board to knock the dirt off.
4. Keep them cool and in a dark place, 50 degrees or cooler, down to just above the freezing point is the best temperature.
5. Market them at least once a week.

Observe these things and you provide a better product and more of them for the boys out front. Market your products the co-operative way for more profits!

Drawing a deep breath, the Sergeant faced the particularly awkward recruit.

"Look here!" he barked. "I don't mind when you turn to the right when I say left; I don't mind you turning up on parade with your tunic unbuttoned; I don't even mind when you drop your rifle, but—"

He glared in silence at the shivering culprit before he added: "But for the love of Mike, will you stop saying, 'Sorry, my dear?'"

Judge: "So you say the defendant stole your money from your stocking?"

Plaintiff: "Yes, your honor."

Judge: "Then why didn't you resist?"

Plaintiff (pouting): "Well, how did I know he was after my money?"

No Charity

Mike was "down and out." The pastor of his church meeting him on the street one day looking very threadbare, took pity on him.

"Come with me, Mike," he said, "and I'll give you a shilling out of the poor box."

But Mike was on his dignity at once. "Indade ye won't!" he exclaimed. "Sooner than accept charity, I'll beg."

MORE ABOUT ARMED FORCES

opinion about strikes. All I have to say is that if those fellows had to go through some of the places and do some of the things that are necessary in this war they would soon change their minds about striking and be glad to go back to work. We all wonder why they don't put a few of them in the army for a while. That would cure the "strike urge."

I want to thank you and all the others who make it possible for us to receive the paper. There is nothing better than sitting down and reading the home town paper and then knowing how things are coming along back home.

You have probably already noticed that I have a new APO number and I guess my paper should be changed to that address.

Well, folks, I must close. Am looking forward to my next copy of the paper.

As ever
 James I. Miller.
 Lemoore, Calif.
 Feb. 22, 1944

Dear Mac and Bill:

I'm now in California. We left Amarillo Friday night about 11:00 and got here at 6:00 a. m. Monday. As soon as we hit California we started getting some of their "good liquid sunshine," and after we left Los Angeles we hit more rain and into some snow. It has been nice today, though. The grass is nice and green and the sun is shining.

I didn't get to see Johnny Keeler again before I left Amarillo, as we were restricted to the barracks as soon as we found out we were leaving. I just hope he can keep the place from blowing away — or maybe it would be a good idea to let it blow away! — Chow time.

Being as how I just got back from dinner it reminds me of the much better food we are getting here. I don't know how long we will be here before we get sent to college. They said anywhere between one week and six weeks. It would be alright with me if they sent me to W. S. C. for my college training. Of course that is just a dream.

Thanks a lot for the paper. I really appreciate them and know all the rest of the fellows do too.

Sincerely
 A-cc Kenneth Woody.

Note — At present, Kenny, there are no other local boys that we know of in your immediate vicinity.

Camp Polk, La.
 Feb. 23, 1944

Dear Mac:

I guess I better write and let you know I am getting the paper O. K. and enjoy it very much. I am still here in the swamps of Louisiana, and I don't think a day passes that it doesn't rain. We were out on 14 days of maneuvers and we certainly found out what kind of a state we were in.

I hope everyone is fine at home, and also that this war will soon be over so we all can come home and start where we left off.

When I have a change of address (which I think will be soon) I will let you know, so please keep the paper coming here. I know all the boys like to receive them as well as I do. Tell everyone "hello" for me. So long for this time.

Sincerely yours
 Pvt. Ernest W. Nye.

Mrs. Roy Swanson sends us a short note regarding her son, James and Donald Kuykendall, as follows:

Got a letter from Jim and he has been promoted to Corporal. He also says they are supposed to have a chance to come home some time in the near future for a short furlough.

Also a letter from Donald in the South Pacific in which he says it is awfully exciting down there and to keep track of him by the whereabouts of the Pacific fleet.

AMM 2-c Don Jones, who had spent the past week here visiting his parents, Mr. and Mrs. E. H. Jones, and with other relatives and friends, returned to his base at San Diego Sunday.

While here Don called at the Gazette office to thank all concerned for the paper. Don stated he expected a call soon to sea duty and would welcome it, as he had been stationed in the same spot "too long."

Don also said he had seen some of the local boys while there, but that liberty generally was too short and travel conditions too crowded to go about much to look them up, even though stationed "close by."

Mrs. Glen Betts, Southwick, received a letter from her brother, Sgt. George Finke, who writes that he is now somewhere in the South Pacific. He says "I am still O. K. and feeling fine. We had quite a ride coming over and some of the boys got pretty sick. It didn't bother me a bit, however. Tell everyone 'hello' for me."

Pvt. Donald Stroh, former instructor in the Kendrick schools, arrived here Wednesday to spend his furlough in the home of Mr. and Mrs. Paul Lind, and to witness the tournament games.

We acknowledge with thanks the receipt of $35.00 from the Kendrick Commercial club to assist in sending the Kendrick Gazette to local boys in the armed forces.

Day Of Prayer Observed

The ladies of the W. S. C. S. and Rev. Murray met at the home of Mrs. L. J. Herres last Friday afternoon to observe the National Interdenominational Day of Prayer.

This observance originated 53 years ago by the women of the Presbyterian Missionary Society. Since that time women in other churches have taken it up, until today women all over the United States gather together in quiet meditation.

The offering taken is used to support Missionary work all over the world. The ladies of Leland, Juhetta and Kendrick observed the service.

Arkansas is the only place on the North American continent where diamonds are found.

Encouragement

A century ago a smalltown lawyer and politician noticed that many people were poor and few were rich. He did not get distressed over it, or want to make over the world. Said he: "That some should be rich shows that others may become rich, and hence is just encouragement to industry and enterprise. I don't believe in a law to prevent a man from getting rich; it would do more harm than good." The lawyer's name was Abraham Lincoln.
